Construction Thirteenth Street Pushed

Construction of N. Thirteenth street for its entire length was discussed by city council Wednesday night and is expected to be carried out through downtown, and state joint action.

Street, which extends from Main street to the highway by-pass, has become the worst in the area, largely because of heavy traffic to Driller built by the county.

Mayor J. L. Briscoe, later told the highway commission, told the commission has a "policy" in regard to main through and arterial

Plumbing Proposal Recommended

Proposal that Artesia adopt the plumbing code prepared by the federal department of commerce was presented before city council Wednesday evening.

G. Losee, Artesia building inspector, recommended that it be adopted in preference to one proposed by T. E. Brown when the city met July 23.

The national plumbing code proposed would mean savings of thousands of dollars to the city of Artesia, since it eliminates unnecessary, oversized, and expensive plumbing.

There is no quarrel with a previous proposal presented to the city by Losee said. "However, a national uniform plumbing code with backing by leading government and private agencies, means that it should be most code," Losee continued, "is jointly by the U. S. department of commerce and the house of representatives. On the other side to prepare the national plumbing code are the American Health association, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Society of Sanitary Engineering, Building Officials Conference of America, Conference of State Sanitary Engineers, National Association of Plumbers, Uniform Plumbing Committee, and Western Building Officials association."

Deaths in Korea

JAMES C. COX

James C. Cox Of Loco Hills Killed in Korea

Death of Marine Corps Pfc. James C. Cox, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cox, Loco Hills, and husband of Mrs. James C. Cox of 402 West Texas, Artesia, was reported in a Marine Corps telegram received here Tuesday.

Information from the Marine Corps said Pfc. Cox had been killed in action Aug. 8 in the Korean area. No other details are available at the moment, his wife was informed.

Pfc. Cox had entered the Marines Oct. 22, 1951, and was with the First Marine division in Korea. He was born March 8, 1932.

He had prior service during World War II, serving 1 1/2 years in the Army Air Force. He entered military police school at Fort Amador in the Panama Canal zone on March 13, 1948.

He was married to the former Doris Marie Branch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Branch of 402 W. Texas, on Feb. 22, 1952, in Tijuana, Mexico.

He had been employed by Texas Consolidated at Loco Hills prior to entering the Marine Corps.

Burial details have not yet been learned by Pfc. Cox's wife and parents.

His wife, notified Tuesday of his death Aug. 8, Wednesday received a letter he had written her from Korea. It was dated Aug. 6, mailed Aug. 7. In that letter he had told her he was in reserve, and she need not worry about him.

School Officials Give Procedure For Registration

Artesia public school officials this week issued instructions for returning pupils, and especially for new students who have not previously registered in the local school system.

Instructions issued by the school are as follows:

Principals and office girls will be in each of the Artesia school buildings beginning Monday morning, Aug. 18, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. All new students are encouraged to go to their respective buildings and enroll any time during these hours.

Any student who was in school last year is enrolled and need not bother to report to school until Sept. 2 at 9 a. m. when all classes will begin.

New pupils also includes beginners or those children who will be in school this year for the first time.

Buses To Run—
Friday morning, Aug. 29, buses will run at regular time, to pick up only students who have not formally enrolled. The buses will return as soon as the enrollment is completed. Buses will not run again until Sept. 2, at which time all school children will report for class. All new pupils riding the bus should enroll at the building closest to where they live.

If at all possible this will be where they will be left to continue school. All other bus pupils will enroll where they were in school last year or where they were assigned at the close of school.

Zoning—
Zoning will be the same as in the past with the exceptions: Ninth street will be the dividing line between Park and Central, instead of Eighth street. The line set for the new Hermosa school is Bullock and Shearman street. However, Hermosa school will only house grades one through four, which will mean grades five and six will continue in the same zone in which they were enrolled last year.

A slight change between the Roselawn and Park zone is that from Bush street north, the dividing line will be Tenth street.

It is very important that all pupils enroll in the proper zone. This will facilitate interruptions later when it is learned that the pupil is not in the proper zone.

Drillers to Open Tough 13-Game Series Sunday

After an easy 13-game series over the last two weeks with Longhorn league cellar-dwellers Vernon and Sweetwater, Artesia Drillers will return home Sunday night, Aug. 17, for three games against first division Big Spring.

Games in the three-day home stand are slated for 7:30 p. m. Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday nights at Driller Park.

The two weeks which starts Sunday night here will place the Drillers in competition with teams at the other end of the league for 13 straight games. Odessa is currently leading with Big Spring second.

After the Big Spring stand here, Artesia goes to Odessa Aug. 20, 21, and 22, then on to Big Spring Aug. 23, 24, 25. The Drillers will return to Artesia Aug. 26, and will face Odessa in three more games.

Driller Mgr. Earl Perry, temporarily confined following an appendectomy, will rejoin the team Sunday night to assume active management.

Artesia is faced with six make-up games before its season ends Sept. 8. Doubleheaders must be played with Vernon, Roswell, and

Ordinance Against Unworthy Charity Drives Is Proposed

A proposed ordinance which would prohibit charity collections in Artesia by unworthy individuals and organizations was introduced before Artesia city council Wednesday night and with a few minor changes is expected to be adopted when the council next meets.

The ordinance was proposed by the Artesia Council of Social Agencies, the organizations which make up the city's Community Chest organization. It was presented before the council by Milford D. Estill, Artesia attorney.

In presenting the ordinance, Estill reported two recent cases here of solicitation by unworthy individuals not representing bona fide charities.

Drink Proceeds—
In one instance, he said, two men presented an official-looking letter to Artesia merchants, asking for charity donations. The two men were later found in a Carlsbad bar, "drinking their proceeds," Estill declared.

Estill said in another recent incident a woman solicited businesses for support of unfortunate children. "When she was asked where the money would go, how it would be spent, and other questions, she left. The children were probably her own."

"We all have children of our own and must think of them first, rather than supporting other people's children when that is not necessary," Estill concluded.

Estill said in legal research he had been able to find only two cases which dealt with ordinances of the type proposed. The one recommended was based on a North Carolina municipality's ordinance which had been upheld in that state's supreme court, Estill said.

Favorable Comment—
The proposed ordinance was favorably discussed by the city council, but was given to City Atty. Neil Watson with a recommendation.

Housing Is Sought for School Faculty

Housing for Artesia public school teachers now arriving in the city is urgently needed, Travis Stovall, high school principal, announced this week.

Persons with available facilities may call the high school at 141 or the city school superintendent's office at 140 to list available accommodations, Stovall stated.

Landlords should give their name and address, description of home, whether furnished or unfurnished, and price if possible, Stovall requested.

Monthly Hospital Report Shows Loss of $341

Operating loss for Artesia General hospital during July was $341.14, and total loss for operation of the hospital from June 16 to date is $467.37, according to a report issued to city council Wednesday night by Miss Margaret Hughes, administrator.

Net receipts for July were $13,737.92, according to the report. Total expenses are $9,965.52. Members of the council pointed out that "receipts" includes accounts receivable, which amount to $5,370.67.

City of Artesia contributed $1,924.61 to the hospital and five doctors contributed $1,500, the report shows.

Summary—
A summary shows $25 in cash on hand July 31, and bank deposits of $9,411.47, less $106.83 cash on hand June 30.

Payments on June accounts receivable amount to $847.27, and deposits in advance total $100. Net cash received against charges is $8,382.37.

Total accounts receivable is $6,475.79.

The report shows that accounts payable amount to $4,017.34. Wages for Aug. 15 are estimated at $3,302.73, a total of $7,320.07. Balance available is $3,095.71. The hospital thus needs $4,234.30 to meet payroll and expenses, the report shows.

The operating loss does not include accounts receivable.

Miss Hughes sought to collect all copies of the financial report, since she did not want it published, she said. Miss Hughes stated the hospital "was swamped" with telephone calls following publication last month of the first hospital financial report. This tied up the sole telephone line, preventing emergency use, Miss Hughes stated.

Mayor J. L. Briscoe ruled the report is a public record, and under law in New Mexico is privileged for publication.

Miss Hughes said that the average person cannot understand a financial report, and thus misconceptions are prevalent over its meaning.

Rodeo Opens Before 3,200; Three More Shows Slated

Go-Ahead Given For 47 Blocks of Street Sealing

A go-ahead to seal 47 blocks of city streets was given Wednesday night by Artesia city council. City Supervisor J. D. Josey, Jr., said work will start "very soon."

Josey said result of the sealing program will be to make the streets "as good as new—or better."

Streets to be sealed are in an area bounded by Eighth street to Main, Eighth street to First, and Main to Grand.

Twenty-seven and a half blocks will be sealed. Plans call for rescaling Quay street for seven blocks, Richardson for six, S. Seventh for three, S. Sixth for three, S. Fifth for two, S. Fourth for two, none on Roselawn, S. Third for two and a half, S. Second for Motion to carry out the sealing was unanimously adopted by the five city councilmen present.

Cost of the project is estimated at $9,000 by Josey. Cost per block will average about $350, the city supervisor said, although some some blocks will cost less, some more.

To seal the streets, workmen will apply one inch of loose, hot-mix asphalt, Josey said. This will be rolled to compress and harden the surface.

Five-Year-Old Bill for $8,000 Plagues City

A five-year-old bill for $8,000 against the City of Artesia has arisen to plague city officials again.

Back in 1947 money was advanced by the U. S. government for a 200 block street pavement program under the public works administration (PWA). Contractors said government estimates were too low and so they wouldn't bid. The estimates were then raised "out of all reason," according to one city official.

As a result 250 Artesians attended a protest meeting, and the proposal was thrown out.

But the government had advanced the city $8,000 to pay for an engineering job necessary under the 1947 proposal. That money has never been repaid. Now, U. S. attorney Maurice Sanchez says there'll be a court suit unless something's done.

And the $8,000 has been drawing 6 per cent interest, too.

Roping Club Signs Up 125 Entrants; Stock Is Tops

Artesia's big Ranchhands' Rodeo will continue for three more nights following a smash opening Thursday which saw bleachers crowded to capacity. Repeat performances of the rodeo are slated for tonight, Saturday, and Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in the Artesia Roping club arena just west of town.

More than 125 entries have been received for contests in the rodeo, according to Walter Solt, president of the roping club. These contestants will perform over the three remaining nights.

Tonight's show will be highlighted by an event not seen last night. Cutting horses will close the show tonight with a demonstration of their uncanny ability to cut out a specified animal from a herd in the arena.

Hike in City's Water Usage Is Seen in 1953

The city's water outlook for the balance of 1952 is "good," but plans to supply more water in 1953 must be formed, City Supervisor J. D. Josey, Jr., said Wednesday.

Josey said an estimated 6,500 gallons a minute will be needed in 1953 to meet peak demand periods, since the city has no water storage facilities, water being pumped directly into mains.

As of Aug. 1 city wells were producing only 5,500 gallons per minute because of dropping water tables which placed some pumps above waterlines.

Josey also reported the city's new city park well on N. Thirteenth street was measured at 475 gallons a minute Monday, but has since been intentionally cut back to 300 gallons per minute.

The cut back was necessary because some housewives complained of a heavy air content in water. Cause of the disturbance has not yet been learned, but Josey said he believes it can be remedied.

Grid Training To Open Monday

Bulldog football practice is slated to begin next Monday, Aug. 18, and will continue in Artesia three days before boys seeking spots on the team are taken to the mountains, Coach Reese Smith announced Thursday.

Uniforms to all aspirants will be issued from 1 to 4 p. m. Sunday, Smith said.

Boys will then practice out Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in Artesia. Practice sessions from 8 to 10 a. m., 1 to 3 p. m., and 5:30 to 6 p. m. interest, too.

In opening ceremonies last night, Sally Sears of Artesia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sears, was crowned queen of the rodeo with a Stetson hat.

Runners-up were Mary Price, second place, and Barbara Rogers, third. Standings of other girls in the queen contest were not announced. Miss Rogers and Miss Price will be Miss Sear's attendants for the remaining three-nights of the rodeo.

The rodeo queen was chosen on the basis of penny-vote ballots cast through North Eddy county, according to officers in Alpha Nu chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority.

Other contestants were Alvaree Teel, Hope, and Lanora Parker, Vera Holcomb, Wilhelmina Stiewig, and Johnnie Hubbard, who were each commended by sorority officers for conducting an aggressive and spirited campaign.

Last night's rodeo opened before more than 3,200 persons. First night rough spots saw traffic become bogged down as hundreds of cars flooded entrances to the rodeo arena.

Rodeo officials said, however, arrangements have been made for smoother handling of traffic beginning with tonight's show. Rodeo goers are still advised to get an early start.

No Brahma bull riders qualified opening night. Four bareback bronc and two saddle bronc riders qualified, but results will not be available until further competition Friday night completes the first round.

Fans agreed that the show was fast-moving and colorful. Local entries whetted enthusiasm of the thousands who saw the show.

In a pre-rodeo event at Artesia Speedway, Paul Pearson of Artesia won over Duffy Fraundorfer of Roswell in the 20-lap feature event.

Covered Wagon Is Top Float In Rodeo Parade

First prize in Thursday morning's Rodeo Day parade went to Rebekah lodge for its covered-wagon float, Chamber of Commerce officials have announced.

NuMex won second for its float with a model of its famous cracking tower, and third was given Cole Motor Co. for its barber shop quarter float.

Honorable mention went to Santa Fe for its miniature train, and to "the girl with the long hair."

Prizes of $75 for first, $50 for second, and $25 for third. They were awarded at the opening performance of the rodeo Thursday evening by R. N. Russell on behalf of the chamber.

Other units in Thursday's parade included the Eddy county sheriff's posse, mounted members of Artesia Roping club, queen entrants, rodeo contestants, police and fire departments.

Roberts Still Interested in City Job Offer

Former Mayor Oren C. Roberts is still "definitely interested" in a proposal which would place him in charge of city construction, Mayor J. L. Briscoe said this week.

Roberts was unable to discuss the matter further with city council this week, however, Briscoe said, because of a recent minor surgery.

Mayor Briscoe has proposed that Roberts be placed in charge of all city construction at a salary of $600 monthly. Other applications have since been received for the position, Mayor Briscoe observed.

Airline Prospects Are Hopeful

A favorable report on a proposal which would give Artesia airline service is expected by Aug. 25, Chamber of Commerce Mgr. Bob Koonce told Artesia Rotary club Tuesday noon.

Koonce appeared at Rotary with H. T. Kimball, Jr., civil aeronautics administration district airport engineer for New Mexico; Merle Hemphill, deputy director of the CAA, Washington, D. C.; and S. E. Travis, Jr., chief of CAA's airport division, Fort Worth.

The three officials inspected Artesia airport, and all spoke to Rotary club on municipal airport needs here.

Need Improvements—
Kimball told Rotary "a community cannot be expected to become air-minded until a decent entrance and all-weather access road has been built (to the airport)."

Airport hangar facilities are financially self-sustaining, Kimball noted, and stated Artesia could build a hangar and pay for it with income from rentals, repairs, and other services.

Any private interest desiring to build a hangar could make it self-liquidating, Kimball added.

The three CAA officials toured Artesia airport and conferred with Burl "Shug" Hazel following the luncheon.

Gives Report—
Rotary Pres. J. D. Smith called on Koonce to report on progress in the Pioneer airline case. Pioneer is seeking to extend air service through Artesia on a proposed Amarillo to El Paso flight with stops at Clovis, Roswell, and Artesia.

Koonce said deadline for filing briefs was Aug. 15 and the Artesia brief had already been submitted. Ten days after the Aug. 15 deadline, Koonce said, a recommendation is expected from the civil aeronautics board (CAB) examiner.

In the interval between issuance of the examiner's report and the next meeting of the CAB, expected in September, Artesia will be called upon to express need of air service to the New Mexico Congressional delegation as well as to members of the CAB.

Possibilities—
Koonce said that on a recent Santa Fe trip he had discussed possibilities of Artesia airline service with Pioneer airline's public relations director for New Mexico.

Koonce said the director stated that word from Pioneer counsel's office in Washington is that the Amarillo-Clovis-Roswell-Artesia-El Paso segment would be one of the few routes approved by the CAB this fall.

He added that while this was no definite information by any means, it did "seem encouraging" for Artesia.

CAA has already allocated about $8,400 toward a $15,000 Artesia airport improvement program calling for building an access road, aprons, fencing, and other necessary features should an airline stop here.

The CAA fund must be added to a 40 per cent contribution by the city, amounting to about $6,600. According to city council discussions, this money will be made available.

THE ARTESIA ADVOCATE SPORTS

Driller Standing Goes Up With Road Trip Victories

With four wins in three games behind them this week, Artesia Drillers will return home Sunday night hovering around third place—but facing a 13-game series against league-leading Odessa and Big Spring.

Artesia Wednesday downed Vernon 7-6 across 10 innings. Tuesday the Drillers had won a doubleheader from Vernon, 11-2, and 9-2. Monday Artesia had hit luckless Vernon for a 14-9 victory.

A five-run foray in the ninth saved the game for Artesia on Wednesday night, and Paul Halter batted Vince Sarubbi across in the tenth with the winning run.

A three-run homer by Rudy Briner in the ninth sparked the Artesia rally. Briner was aided in the scoring attack with doubles by Bill Haley and Jim Ackers, plus a single from Wally Hanna.

LaVerne Herrmann and Rooster Mills handled the mound for Artesia, Mills coming out in the ninth. The pair allowed 14 hits, Sosa, Wallis, and McLaughlin were Duster hurlers. Mills was credited with the win, Wallis absorbing the loss.

Tuesday six Artesia home runs in two games sparked the Driller doubleheader success. In the first game, capped by Artesia 11-2, Joe Bauman knocked two in the first, with Paul Halter and Jim Ackers contributing one apiece. Bauman knocked his first in the opening inning with two aboard. His second found two more on in the fourth frame. Halter's in the third was hit with one aboard, and Ackers was alone with his roundtripper in the seventh.

Irvin Armin went the distance in the first game, spreading out nine hits.

In the second contest, Rudy Briner hit a bases-loaded homer in the fifth, giving Artesia a 6-1 lead. Bauman's third homer of the night came in the seventh of the nightcap, with Halter already on base.

Rooster Mills, relieving Frank Fernandez, got credit for the second win.

Monday Mike Rodriguez shoved over a 14-9 win on Vernon, going the distance. He also collected a home run, his third of the season. Two home runs in the fifth boosted Artesia from a 5-1 deficit. Bob Hanna was aboard when Rodriguez socked his homer. Rudy Briner in the same inning blasted one over the centerfield fence with the bases loaded.

Four more Driller runs in the eighth sewed the game up.

ARTESIA GIRLS TWIRL
Three Artesia girls — Aliene, Rhea Ann, and Billie Ruth Ellinger—will twirl fire and regulation batons during the annual North-South football game in Albuquerque tomorrow. The girls, who perform as a sister trio, are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Ellinger. They were invited by tournament officials.

Milk production this year has been running below the 1951. The total for 1952 may be the lowest since 1941 except for 1948.

Stewart Stars in Carbine Williams At Landsun

James Stewart, whose impersonation of Monty Stratton in "The Stratton Story" provided one of his finest screen portrayals, has an even more gripping and powerful role as "Carbine Williams" in M-G-M's compelling drama, coming to the Landsun theater Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday.

Prison is not usually considered the ideal place in which to invent a gun, nor do prison wardens usually allow their charges to engage in such questionable activity. Nonetheless, that is exactly what happens when Marsh Williams is accused of murder and is forced to serve eight years in prison. Unbroken by servitude with a brutal chain gang, Marsh eventually wins the support of Captain Peoples, warden of the Caledonia Work Camp, and is instrumental in the invention of the U. S. 30-mm. carbine developed by Winchester, the first carbine to be adopted by the U. S. Army in forty years and the rifle which General Douglas MacArthur declared one of the strongest contributing factors to the American victory in the Pacific.

James Stewart brings the characterization of Marsh Williams to life in a masterful piece of acting which traces the career of this rugged individualist from his youth, when he joined the Navy rather than work on his father's North Carolina cotton farm; his return to marry his childhood sweetheart, Maggie; his subsequent involvement with the operation of illicit "moonshine whiskey" stills, and the battle with the Revenue men in which a man is murdered and the guilt pinned on Marsh. The scenes of his prison life and his relationship with Warden Peoples and the suspense-packed episodes in which he proves that the revolutionary rifle which he has made will work are unfolded with a gripping dramatic intensity, in which Stewart again reveals himself to be one of the finest actors on the American screen.

There are other splendid acting portrayals in "Carbine Williams." Jean Hagen, as Maggie, the wife who remains loyal to her husband

Cruces Hurler Pitches Team To State Legion Junior Title

Paced by the steady, 29 strike-out pitching of Jack Glover in both ends of a double-header, Las Cruces on Tuesday won three games to earn state championship American Legion Junior baseball honors.

Las Cruces defeated Las Vegas Tuesday morning to gain the semi-finals, then played two games with Albuquerque Tuesday night. Glover hurled both of the evening contests when alternate hurler Joe Matlock was spiked.

Glover threw 16 strikeouts in the first contest, 13 in the second. Earlier Las Cruces defeated Las Vegas 9-0 to enter the semi-finals against Albuquerque.

Glover did not walk any batter in the first game, while hurling the first 16 strike-outs. He issued one free pass in the second contest, striking out 13. Las Cruces earned a 5-4 decision in Tuesday night's opener, thus forcing the second contest under double elimination system of the tourney. Mike Hoek handled the mound for Albuquerque, walking three and striking out eight.

Cruces scored three in the third, one in the fourth, and one in the sixth, while Albuquerque sent over two in the second and one apiece in the third and sixth.

Dickie Brown took over on the mound for the Duke Citizens in the second game, also struck out 13, an accomplishment overlooked by many spectators who were marveling at Glover's control despite obvious weariness.

Las Cruces shoved over two in the first, one in the second, four in the fourth and one apiece in the fifth, eighth, and ninth to win the second go-round, 10-6.

Albuquerque was able to score two in the first and third, and one apiece in the second and sixth.

In post-game ceremonies the Las Vegas entry was unanimously awarded a sportsmanship trophy donated by Chamber of Commerce. Bob Bourland, of Artesia Auto Co., awarded championship and runner-up trophies to Las Cruces and Albuquerque.

DAVIS-MONTHAN AFB — Air men and civilians have donated 1,062 pints of blood during the first half of the year.

The six-month quota for D-M was 900 pints.

Artesia Builder Goes on Record Against Controls

Home building and other light construction in Artesia will not be seriously curtailed by the predicted shortage of steel resulting from the prolonged strike in the steel mills, according to T. C. Stromberg, local lumber and building materials dealer and member of the public affairs committee of the National Retail Lumber Dealers association.

"Any scarcity of steel will be offset by increased supplies of copper and aluminum and by the use of lumber to replace structural steel," Stromberg said.

"Inventories of building materials are ample at the present time, and virtually all building products are selling below OPS ceiling prices."

"The only serious obstacle to a larger volume of residential and commercial construction is the stubborn refusal of the federal government to remove restrictions on real estate credit, including down payments, although consumer credit has been completely decoupled in all other fields."

"It is possible that some household appliances containing important quantities of steel may become temporarily scarce, but they are not installed until new homes are completed and by that time production should be back to normal."

Roping Club—

(Continued from Page One) with 29.3 seconds. The trophy was won by Frauendorfer in Car followed by Pearson in 3 and by Aaron of El Paso in 32.1.

First heat race results gave Earl Powell of Dumas, Texas, Car 99 first place, Ray Filer, Aztec, N. M., in Car 77 second, Leo Filer, Aztec, in 8, third, and second heat was won by Cotton Farmer of Fort Worth in Car 6, followed by Earl Eommons, Artesia, 514, and Jimmy Taylor, Aztec, 514.

Third heat winner was Frauendorfer in 88, followed by Pearson in 3 and Aaron in 32.1. Powell and the pie race, followed by Taylor and Sleepy Nelson. Farmer was first in Car 6 in the Australia pursuit, Pearson second in Car

Keep costs down, performance up, with a Dodge

"My Dodge trucks save a lot of money on gas!"

says H. A. ROBINSON
Contract Hauler,
Mobile, Ala.

"On a 200-mile run I save 1 1/2 to 2 gallons of gas. I get this saving seven days a week, and on my two trucks that means I save over $300.00 a year on gas alone. That's good, because each of my trucks makes an average of 50 stops per day hauling mail."

"My first Dodge truck cost me only $54.00 of repair expense in two years. I ran my second Dodge over 103,000 miles in two years and spent only $15.50 on it for repairs."

"If I'd known what I know now about Dodge trucks, I'd have switched to them long ago and saved myself a lot of money."

- Haul at lower cost with a Dodge truck — 1/2 through 4-ton—that's "Job-Rated" to fit your job.
- Boost gasoline mileage with features like high-compression ratio and special gas-saving carburetor.
- Reduce upkeep with such wear-saving features as floating oil intake and positive-pressure lubrication.
- Enjoy super-smooth performance with 6700 Fluid Drive, wear-protecting advantage available on all 1/2-, 3/4-, 1-ton and Route-Van models.
- Come in for a demonstration—and a good deal!

Save on gas and oil. All 8 Dodge truck engines give exceptional economy with plenty of power. You get advantages like lightweight aluminum pistons, improved fuel system with economy control, precision-balanced crankshaft, and other money-saving features.

Save on maintenance. Rugged engines and chassis make Dodge trucks famous for dependability. Upkeep costs stay low because of special Dodge features like 4-ring pistons, chrome-plated top ring, and wear-resisting exhaust valve seat inserts.

Save with long life. Because Dodge trucks last so long, depreciation is less and trade-in value stays up. Long life and dependability are result of such features as alloy steel springs, shot-peened axle shafts, and extra-sturdy frames.

Grid Training—

to 8:30 p. m., all three days are slated, Smith added.
Football aspirants will leave the city at 6 a. m., Thursday for a week-long training session in the Sacramento mountains, the first time Artesia has tried the mountain training idea. The squad will return the following Wednesday.
Smith said no definite number of boys will be taken. Boys to go to the mountains will be selected on the basis of interest and their good to the team, Smith said.
Cal Hall, line coach; John Daugherty, backfield coach, and Bud Wilburn will accompany Smith on the coaching staff.

Ordinance—

tion that certain phraseology describing the type of charity drive to be prohibited be clarified.
Still indicated unworthy charity drives and panhandling was undermining community confidence in the Community Chest, which seeks to consolidate nearly all charity drives in one appeal, rather than continuously solicit Artesians, especially business houses, for funds.
The ordinance provides a $50 fine for violation.

Young People To Lead Baptist Youth Week

A youth revival team composed of four young people—Gene Wofford, Don Mulkey, Eloise Sharpe, and Margaret Lovett—will conduct a week of special youth revival services at the First Baptist church beginning Sunday and continuing through the following Sunday, Aug. 24.
The services will be in charge of youth pastors, Murray Boyd and Truett Gill and will consist of preaching, testimonies, and special music both instrumental and vocal. Each evening service will be followed by special Youth for Christ fellowship.

Gene Wofford is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons university, Abilene, and is a minister and singer. Don Mulkey is a minister and football player of the University of New Mexico and will direct the music for the services.

Miss Margaret Lovett is music major of ENMU at Portales and will be vocalist for the services. Miss Eloise Sharpe, also of ENMU, will be the pianist. In addition to this group of visitors there will be Artesia young people assisting in the meeting and enjoying the fellowship.

The services will be held as follows: morning breakfast fellowship prayer service; afternoon Bible school 2 to 5; and evening 7:30 with fellowship following evening service.

Committee chairmen are as follows: publicity, Jimmy Dew; officers, Murray Boyd; prayer meetings, Carolyn Sperry; contacts, Faye Teel; transportation, Jack Huddleston; and entertainment, Sandra Mitchell.

Bids Awarded For Water Valves

Award of bids to supply City of Artesia with water line valves and couplings was made by city council-Wednesday night.

Low bidders were:
Viking Supply Co., Dallas, 35 4-inch water gate valves, 15 8-inch water gate valves, four 6-inch water gate valves, total cost $2,199.16.

Viking Supply Co., Dallas, 5,000 pounds of lead, $997.50.

Allied Supply Co., Artesia, 152 4-inch couplings, 58 8-inch couplings, eight 6-inch couplings, $1,249.08.

Group Insurance Plan for City Is Postponed

A group insurance plan for Artesia city employees has been postponed "temporarily" by city officials, who said cost of other expected projects prevent commitment of unbudgeted funds.

John Simons, Jr., representing New York Life Insurance Co. told the city that an effective group plan must have at least a 15 per cent contribution by the employer. The city three weeks ago had refused to commit this money.
Simons said if all employees signed the plan would cost the city between $80 and $90 a month.

Low Flying Airplanes

CIVIL AERONAUTICS REGULATIONS provide that no airplane pilot shall fly his ship less than 1,000 feet above a community—under any circumstances. The CAA decidedly frowns on low flying and dangerous maneuvers over a city. Yet residents in the very southwest part of Artesia have watched a plane make low passes over that part of the city several times this summer. Such flying was neither necessary nor lawful. It is especially dangerous for a low-flying airplane to make low turns over occupied dwellings. Certain pilots are licensed to fly at less than 1,000 feet over open country, since their work calls for that type of flying. Under no circumstances is the 1,000 foot ceiling over a community suspended, however.

Those familiar with the situation in the southwest part of the city tell us there is a way for that pilot to do his work without making low turns and other maneuvers over dwellings.

New Library Quarters

ARTESIA'S PUBLIC LIBRARY in its new City Hall basement quarters has become a much more pleasant place to visit. Enlarged floor space in the new area and more shelf space permit library patrons to find books, magazines, and other materials with greater ease.

Those who put up with the crowded upstairs conditions will find the openness of the new arrangement a pleasure. Because of greater storage space, books may be more properly arranged and shelved. The monthly influx of about 400 new books can now be placed in order rather than stacked on floors and already overflowing tables.

The large room in the basement has become the general reading room where magazines as well as adult fiction and fiction are placed. Plans in time call for creating a Southern exhibit in the small alcove on the north side of the large room. An original oil painting by a well-known New Mexico artist will be sought for that alcove, and Southwest literature will be displayed there.

The children's room across the hall allows much better display and more room for children to read or browse. A large office and work room for the library staff allows for storage of new books until they are catalogued, thus preventing some confusion which was inescapable in the former quarters.

Our library staff was previously hampered by impossible overcrowding and work facilities, an atmosphere which did not draw from the staff its best work, let alone creative thinking possible in a library with proper room and facilities.

Moving and storage in the new library is to be near completion this week-end. We urge Artesians to see the new library, and to learn of its many services. We also commend Mayor J. L. Briscoe, Mrs. S. P. Yates, library board chairman, and Mrs. Donald Knorr, librarian, for their efforts to advance the library's welfare.

About Changing Publicity

EVERY ONCE IN A WHILE we receive someone in our office who has a publicity story they are most anxious to have printed in the newspaper. Usually the publicity has merit, and we are glad to extend our services.

Sometimes the request for space, however, is accompanied by a more vehement request that publicity be printed in the paper just as it is submitted. It is a request which has aroused newspaper people's ire for years, for it implies that the person submitting the publicity better knows how to prepare newspaper copy than do the newspaper people.

Perhaps out of pure cussedness, such copy gets the blue pencil liberally, while the copy submitted by a person who casually says "you are in the business, you know how to fix it" often runs just as it is submitted.

Being of service to the entire community is a prime object of any newspaper. Requesting those services with a little tact and diplomacy usually produces more beneficial results.

Taking Care of Dogs

SEVERAL WEEKS AGO we reported in these columns that Artesia's dog population, according to licensing records at City Hall, was 90. A mid-week check now reveals the canine population has risen to 105, not including puppies under six months old.

We'll bet any Artesian taking a random drive around the city during the day could count that many in a few blocks. City ordinances require that all dogs six months and over be licensed. This is for the owner's and the dog's protection, as well as the general public.

Dogs are becoming such a great nuisance in Artesia that residents of this city are inviting someone fed up with the nuisance to start placing poison bait where it will do the most good. We have no sympathy for the dog poisoner; his is one of the most detestable acts. He is punishing the wrong element, for it is the dog owner who is to blame.

Dogs which are allowed to run loose often gather in packs, causing damage. Many loose dogs delight in chasing cars, which is a decided traffic hazard.

The dog is the innocent victim. Dog owners do a half-way job of domesticating their animals, which is not the dog's fault. Many owners fail to protect the dog by licensing or rabies inoculation, required by law. While the owner neglects his dog on one hand, the dog hater punishes the dog for the owner's neglect.

We think man's best friend is a sucker to put up with such shabby treatment from his supposed friends. We think many dog owners ought to be ashamed of themselves.

What Other Editors Are Saying

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

As reported by Superintendent Jaffa Miller, of the New Mexico Industrial School for boys at Springer, New Mexico, the total expenditures for the year ended June 30, 1952, were $111,402.06, as compared with $111,785.41 for the previous year. In both years the expenditures were held within the budget approved by the State Board of Finance. At the present time this institution has no outstanding bonds or indebtedness.

For both years the total cost of current maintenance was approximately $105,000, in spite of the fact that for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1952, the number of inmates was 139, as compared with 124 for the previous year, an increase of 15 per cent. The yearly cost per boy was $761 for the year ended June 30, 1952, as compared with $848 for the previous year, a decrease of 10 per cent. Up to April 20, 1952, the number of boys received for the year was 175, as compared with 162 for the previous year. Of the 175 boys, there were 46 repeaters, or 26 per cent, while for the previous year for the same period of 162 there were 62 repeaters, or 38 per cent. This shows a reduction in the repeaters of 12 per cent. In submitting this report, Superintendent Miller writes: "The most important part of my efforts has been rehabilitation of boys, and there is only one way that we can judge results, and that is by the number of repeaters we have. As you can see in the report, we have accomplished a lot, but there is much more to be done in the future."—New Mexico Tax Bulletin.

KING BUSINESS IS SHAKY

This king business gets more shaky by the year. King Farouk, of Egypt, has been shoved out of the snug nest he occupied for a long time, to chalk up the latest casualty in the king racket.

But he escaped from Egypt in pretty grand style, and probably will be able to live in London, Paris, and the watering places of Europe without having to make any great sacrifices for himself or his family.

The king business has been one of the best in the world. For generations the people where kings held on have lived in poverty to some extent, while the royal family enjoyed enormous wealth, and idleness. The services they performed for their people were of so little value that one would be hard pushed to put an estimate upon it.

But royalty has been a symbol of government

WATER SHORTAGES

You just can't appreciate Silver City's summer climate until you have to endure others.

Of course, there's nothing too bad in the arid Southwest, but it's wonderful to be up about a mile during the warm season. This writer has recently briefly sampled everything from here to Santa Fe, all up and down the eastside and the Texas Panhandle, Santa Fe, of course, is cool like Silver City. Men even wear ties and coats. They wear these things elsewhere, too, but the wearers look pretty unhappy.

Santa Fe has had plenty of water, too, and it's its own bright green self again. Not so elsewhere this writer found over the nights oppressively warm. One large eastside town just wasn't watering its trees and lawns. Water is in meager supply almost everywhere except where there is surface irrigation. The cost is high, too. One town in Western Oklahoma, that gets far more moisture than most, finds itself with inadequate domestic supply from wells.

Water is something that most communities have least of. Just now Silver City has an adequate supply. But for how long! Larger places in New Mexico and neighboring states are frantically seeking supplies miles from home and at costs running into millions of dollars. This community better be on the lookout for future needs.

Also this area—indeed all New Mexico—will be prudent if it looks to its watersheds. There's no use quarreling over the ground waters—the meager flow that finds its way from the higher mountains.—Silver City Daily Press.

for so many generations that it has been hard to replace it with government of any other nature, and it remains a thing that the peoples who have put up with it appear to need. In Egypt, the king's baby son has been proclaimed king, which proves the point, inasmuch as it will be many years before he can have the mental requirements that government demands.

Where royalty has been allowed to remain and to prosper, it has come to mean very little, except in the taxes that are levied against the people for the support the royal family has to have to maintain its standards of luxurious living.

Good Queen Beth, of England, is no exception, as did her father, and his father, and so on. But she represents that peculiar something that the Britishers demand, and which comes pretty high.

Blind, Crippled, TB Vets to Get Bigger Checks

Almost 120,000 blind, crippled and tubercular veterans of all wars and peace-time service will receive increased payments in their compensation checks due Sept. 1, 1952, under public law 427 signed recently by the president.

Veterans administration said the increases are automatic for those veterans who are receiving compensation checks for the disabilities specified by the new law. However, veterans who are not on the compensation rolls and are covered by the new law should apply at their nearest VA regional office.

The new law is effective Aug. 1. Increases will be reflected in checks usually received by the veterans on Sept. 1.

Check Requirements—

Veterans who will receive the increased checks are those who have been awarded statutory allowances for the loss, or loss of use, of either or both hands or feet, for blindness, and for total deafness (in combination with total blindness).

Veterans receiving a minimum monthly rate of compensation for arrested tuberculosis will also receive increases.

Statutory allowances are paid in addition to the basic compensation rates which are based on the degree of disability and range from $15.75 to $172.50.

The new bill authorizes for the first time for World War II veterans and veterans with service since the beginning of the Korean conflict a minimum monthly rate for arrested tuberculosis and a statutory allowance for the loss, or loss of use, of a creative organ. Up to now these benefits have been available under existing law to certain World War I veterans only.

The new law made the following increases for veterans disabled in wartime or since the Korean conflict started.

1.—Monthly statutory allowances for the anatomical loss, or loss of use, of one hand, one foot, or blindness of one eye (having only light perception) increased from $42 to $47. This is payable in addition to monthly rate of compensation.

2.—Monthly rate of compensation for the anatomical loss, or loss of use, of both hands, both feet, blindness, a total deafness (in combination with total blindness), and various combinations of such disabilities increased from a range of $240 to $360, to a range of $266 to $400.

Additional amounts are payable for a wife, children, or dependent parents in these and all other service-connected cases where the veteran's disability is rated 50 per cent or more.

Minimum Rate—

3.—The minimum monthly rate of compensation for service-incurred tuberculosis which has been arrested is increased from $60 to $67 and extended to cover World War II veterans and veterans with service since the start of the Korean conflict.

4.—Monthly statutory allowance for loss, or loss of use, of creative organ is increased from $30 to $47 and extended to cover World War II veterans and veterans with service since the start of the Korean conflict.

5.—Certain seriously disabled World War I veterans, with service-connected disabilities, will receive increased monthly payments—from $198 to $220 for totally blind veterans; from $258 to $286 for totally blind veterans who need the regular aid and attendance of another person.

These new wartime rates also are payable for peacetime service if the specific disabilities were incurred in line of duty as the direct result of armed conflict or while engaged in extra-hazardous service, including service under conditions simulating war. Rates of compensation for disabilities incurred during other peacetime service are 80 per cent of wartime rates.

State TB Center Provides Care For Needy People

Several months ago a child a year old was brought to the state tuberculosis sanatorium near Socorro. His feet were flat against the back of his neck from tuberculous meningitis.

The department of public welfare, which administers the TB program at Socorro, does not believe such a child is expendable. Today that child is sitting up and learning to walk.

Tuberculosis is a serious disease in New Mexico, according to Alva A. Simpson, Jr., state director. In 1949 only Arizona had a higher death rate than New Mexico, and in 1950 only Arizona and the District of Columbia death rates exceeded that of New Mexico. Incomplete figures for 1951 indicate that the situation has in no way changed for the better, Simpson said.

The latest figures for bed occupancy at the tuberculosis sanatorium were quoted by Simpson as being 166 patients, 28 of whom are children Among these is Bob, who weighed 9 pounds at six months old on date of arrival. Today at three years of age he weighs 27 pounds. There are Jose and his twin sisters, Juanita and Conchita, whose mother died last year. And there is black-eyed little Eva, who says whenever she sees Dr. James J. Barfield, medical superintendent, "Doctor, gee, I like you. Give me some candy."

The state tuberculosis sanatorium, Simpson said, is designed to provide medical and surgical care for needy residents of the state who are unable to purchase private sanatorium care.

The welfare director pointed out that 20 people in Eddy county died last year of tuberculosis. In New Mexico 767 persons died of the disease during the same period.

Olympic Win Nets U. S. | Reds Entered Big Game

Heavy Propaganda 'Edge' | Certain They Would Win

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—The United States victory in the Olympic games gives America a heavy "propaganda stick" to wield over Russia and her satellites. America, in fact, felt that it had to win the Olympics because the Soviets most certainly would have made propaganda capital of a Russian victory.

Despite her loss to the United States, Russia is expected to boast as loudly as she can about U. S. S. R. wins in the various events. It was well known in advance that Russia entered the game only because she felt certain she could win—or come close to it.

Running a close second to the United States, the Soviets proved to be difficult competition. However, the Kremlin lost a golden opportunity to get all-out in its propaganda campaign when Soviet athletes finally were nosed out for national honors.

Washington ● WORRIED HOMEBUILDERS—The housing industry, heartened by the promised lifting of housing credit controls, is wondering whether buyers won't hold off until lower down payment requirements go into effect Oct. 1.

The present down payment on a $25,000 home for a non-veteran is 40 per cent. The homebuilders feel prospects won't sink that much money in a house when they can wait and pay only five per cent down. On low cost homes, where required down payments are close to five per cent anyway, the promised relaxation won't have too much effect.

The Federal Reserve Board is required to ask no more than five per cent down on new homes if in any three consecutive months the number of new homes started under construction is at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of less than one million, 200 thousand. Deadline for this action is Oct. 1 but the home builders hope the easier credit terms may come before then.

● EXIT THE KING—Many Washington observers of the Middle East are secretly amused over the deposing of Egyptian King Farouk by the so-called "young guard" element of the army.

These experts believe the final straw that set off the revolution was not the much publicized corruption issue or even smouldering feelings over the poor showing of the Egyptian army in the late war with Israel, but something that would be far more believable in a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta—an officer's club election.

The Cairo officers' club is one of the swankiest establishments in the world, and it has always been controlled (until recently) by personal friends of the king. An election was called recently, and when it became apparent that the younger officers might win, it was called off.

Gen. Mohammed Naguib insisted that it go on and a "rump" election was held with the "young guard" winning hands down. Farouk declared the election null and void, and insisted the old-guard officials be re-installed. A short time later Naguib scored with his coup d'etat.

● GOBBLEDEGOOK—Here's a recent example of government doubletalk. Comes from the Agriculture department:

"The United States Department of Agriculture today announced the minimum (fair price) conditions under which processor-producers of 1952 crop sugar beets will be eligible for payments under the sugar act of 1948.

"The condition is that prices not less than those provided for in the 1952 crop purchase contract between a processor-producer and a producer shall be used as a basis for settlement for sugar beet purchased from a producer and processed by the processor-producer. A processor-producer is a producer who directly or indirectly is also a processor of sugar beets."

What it boils down to is this: The "fair price" will be the same this year as last year.

Yowell to Visit Artesia Next On August 18

Ralph H. Yowell, field representative of the Roswell social security administration office, will be in Artesia next Monday morning to assist local residents in making application for old-age or survivors insurance benefits and to give information concerning the 1952 amendments to the social security act. He will be at the office of the New Mexico state employment service, 511 W. Main street, between 10 a. m. and 11:30 a. m.

Yowell will soon complete his fourth year as servicing representative of Eddy county. He visits Eddy county four times each month. On the first and third Mondays he is in Artesia. He visits Carlsbad on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Purpose of Yowell's visits is to assist local residents in making application for old-age and survivors insurance benefits; contact employers in connection with problems relating to their social security reports; and give information concerning all phases of the social security program.

In addition to servicing Eddy county on a regular basis, Yowell takes care of the administration's activities in Lea county, Lincoln county, part of Chaves county, and at intervals visits the other five southeastern New Mexico counties serviced by the Roswell social security office.

Yowell has had wide experience with the administration. On January 4, 1937, he went to work for the Baltimore accounting division of the old social security board. He was transferred to the field service at Clinton, Okla., in 1938, and since that time has worked in the Clinton, Texarkana, Oklahoma City, and Roswell field offices. Although born in Texas and reared in Oklahoma, he is now a New Mexico "citizen" by choice and has become quite a supporter of this southeastern section of the state.

A handy guide to food freezing, from apples to turnip greens, is available in the new bulletin, "Home Freezing of Fruits and Vegetables," obtainable from the Office of Information, U.S.D.A., Washington 25, D. C., or your local county extension agent.

The bulletin gives planning pointers, tables of approximate yield of frozen food from fresh fruits and vegetables, descriptions of containers and their uses, and directions for preparing and packaging each food for the freezer. Information is also given on thawing and using fruits, and timetables for cooking frozen vegetables in a small amount of water, in steam, and in pressure saucapan.

Films on Cancer Education Made Available in New Mexico

More than 1,500 New Mexicans witnessed educational films on cancer since the New Mexico Cancer Society of the American Cancer Society began its year-long education campaign in January.

M. Giese, executive director of New Mexico division, said the aim of the organization is to make the cancer films available in every county in the state and to as organizations as possible.

The films are constantly on circuit and may be borrowed by any individual organization. Mrs. Giese said the film library consists of 16 films, mostly 16 mm. films, with sound. A few are silent and white films and one 35 mm film is available. All of them are designed to explain cancer and familiarize the public with the danger signals in order to avoid the possibility of early diagnosis and treatment.

The films available for public use are: "Breast Self-Examination," designed for presentation to adult women's groups; "Doctor Speaks His Mind," de-

A loan of $249,000 to the Roosevelt County Rural Telephone Co-operative, Portales, has been recently approved by the rural electrification administration. This is a non-professional film.

Two Aerial Acts Signed By Harms For State Fair

Les and Vera Kimris and Eddie Geyer, two sensational aerial acts, have been booked for the grandstand show of the New Mexico State Fair Sept. 27 through Oct. 5. Leon H. Harms, secretary-manager of the fair, announces the signing of contracts and completion of arrangements for the appearance of the thrill raisers.

Les and Vera Kimris laugh at death from a rigging 90 feet high, supporting a miniature airplane from which two trapeze bars are suspended. The mechanism is geared to revolve at a terrific speed with the Kimris duo performing breath-taking antics and acrobatics that will fill the thrill-hungry spectators to the hilt.

Eddie Geyer's nerve-jangling stunts are performed from the top of a 130 foot pole. They include one-hand stands, push-outs, assorted acrobatics and the balancing of all his weight to one side of the pole, causing it to bend in the middle, almost to the breaking point.

Kimris, a former circus star, first came to public attention as a daredevil fighter pilot in the French Air Corps during World War I. During his war career he was shot down seven times and is reported to have shot down 33 enemy
