School Board Accepts Bid

On Remodeling

After having previous discussions in several school board meetings about closing a part of the windows at Dillman Elementary School to conserve energy, a bid was awarded Monday night by the board.

Joe Grimes from Lubbock presented four bids for the remodeling bid. Board members considered the bids, and awarded the bid to Hunter Co. of Lubbock. They will enclose a part of the south side windows and the east side windows at the school for $40,396.

According to Hunter Co., it will take approximately 150 days to complete the job.

A discussion was also held on the pending electric bid for the stage area at Muleshoe High School, however, the consideration was tabled for a special meeting at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, October 31, when board members will consider approving a bid to reconstruct the electrical system for the stage at MHS.

A 15-member textbook committee was approved by the board. They will be considering new textbooks to be used on all four school campuses in Muleshoe.

Lazbuddie Schools Name Four Outstanding Students

Lazbuddie Jr./Sr. High School has initiated an Outstanding Student of the Month program.

Each month, teachers will have the opportunity to nominate a high school boy and girl and a junior high boy and girl. These nominations will be based on attitude, scholarship, citizenship and service.

From the list of nominees, a five member committee will select the Lazbuddie students who best meet these qualifications.

For the month of September, Mia Jennings and Michael Williams were chosen as the Outstanding Students in High School and Jody Copp and Jarah Redwine were chosen for Junior High School.

Mia is the daughter of Hoppy and Marsella Jennings and is a senior at Lazbuddie High School. Mia is a class officer and senior class favorite. She is an active member of the National Honor Society and is a top student in most of her classes.

Mia is also involved in music. She was named to the 1989 TMEA All-Region Choir. She won a silver medal for vocal solo at the 1989 U.I.L. State Competition. She won a gold medal for piano in 1988.

Athletics are also an important part of her life. Mia finished sixth in the state individually and helped the Lazbuddie Golf team to a second place finish. She finished fourth in the mile at the Six-Man State Track Meet. Mia was an All-District Basketball player last year and was Lazbuddie's Outstanding Girl Athlete.

Mia was a member of the Lazbuddie Computer team which won the Region XVI Programming Contest last year. Mia has a special interest in her church, First Baptist in Muleshoe. She participates in many of their programs and activities.

Mia is now running on the Lazbuddie Cross-Country Team and will participate in the District meet on October 23. Mia also made the All 'A' honor roll this first six weeks.

Michael Williams, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Williams, is a senior at Lazbuddie.

He was an offensive and defensive starter on last year's

Amherst Falls To Lazbuddie Last Friday

Friday night, the Amherst Bulldogs visited Lazbuddie, and went home with a 58-8 loss to the Longhorns.

Kirk Jesko started the scoring off with a reception of a five yard pass from Michael Williams for a TD. Casey Russell made the extra point, receiving a pass from Eddie Zamora.

Next, Doug Barnes received a 25 yard pass from Michael Williams, and Williams kicked the extra points.

It was then time for a 21 yard TD pass from Michael Williams to Kevin McGehee. Michael also kicked the extra points.

Michael again connected with Kevin McGehee with a 34-yarder and again Michael booted in the extra points.

Then, it was time for Amherst to make their TD. Chris Johnson broke loose on a 60 yard gallop, followed by Jason Miles booting in the extra points.

Not satisfied with that, 'Horn Michael Williams returned a punt 70 yards to paydirt, and again made the extra points.

Matt Cozby broke loose on a 17 yard TD run, but this time, the PAT failed.

Then Manuel Marrufo slammed through on a four yard TD and Lelan Brockman made the extra point run.

At halftime, the score was 52-8.

With 9:18 left to play in the third quarter, the game was called on the six-man 45 point rule when Luiz Gonzalez smashed through the line on a six yard TD romp and received a pass from Paul Williams.

This Friday night, the Longhorns will tangle with the Three Way Eagles.

This should be quite a game to watch, as Eagle Head Football Coach was formerly an assistant to Head Lazbuddie Longhorn Football Coach C. W. Williams at Three Way.

Quarter-final football team. He is a captain on this year's team.

No Surprises In Contest This Week

If you thought the contest last week was hard, this week's football contest was relatively easy for most entrants.

But, if you missed more than four games, you were out of the 'running' for the week.

Each of the first and second place winners missed only three games, and the tiebreakers were used to determine the placings.

In the third place, each of the contestants missed four games, so once again, the tiebreakers had to be used.

Kathleen Hayes was first place winner this week. She only missed three games, and was 41 points off on the double tiebreakers.

In second place will be a very familiar name, John Graves. He also missed three games, but, was 56 degrees off on the tiebreakers.

In third place was Jerry D. Gleason, who missed four games and was 32 points off on the tiebreakers.

Other contestants who missed four games, and their tiebreaker scores include Steve Pollard, 37; Keith Hicks, 42; Wade Cargile, 43; Raul Lozano, 48 and Richard Orozco, 50.

People Urged To Take Flu Shots

Influenza season is on the way and the flu strain considered most likely to appear this year is one that frequently brings a higher mortality rate, according to researchers at the national Influenza Research Center of Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

Particularly susceptible to possible complications from this A-Shanghai strain of flu are older people, reports Dr. W. Paul Glezen of the Flu Center.

There is good news, however, because this year's flu vaccine covers A-Shanghai, as well as A-Taiwan, considered the second most likely strain to make an appearance during the 1989-90 flu season.

Glezen considers it unlikely there will be much influenza B this year, in large part because it has appeared the past two years, lessening the chance of an immediate recurrence.

But, he cautions that a new strain of influenza called B-Yamagata has appeared in Asia and could make its way to the United States; however, it, too, is covered by this year's vaccine.

Glezen said four categories of people should receive flu shots:

--People with heart and lung disease, including asthma and chronic bronchitis.

--People aged 65 and older.

--People with diabetes, chronic kidney disease and chronic anemia, including sickle cell anemia.

--People likely to come into contact with those in the three high-risk groups.

People in high-risk groups are more prone to life-threatening infections, such as pneumonia, after contracting influenza.

Health-care workers should be vaccinated, Glezen said. "The vaccine will help prevent them from contracting the flu and spreading the virus to their patients."

The flu vaccine is available from most physicians and at community health clinics.

The U.S. Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta and the Food and Drug Administration in Washington, D.C., decide on the composition of the coming season's influenza vaccine based on viruses circulating worldwide.

Influenza usually strikes suddenly and produces symptoms such as fever, generalized muscle pain, weakness and a dry, hacking cough. It is caused by variants of types A and B influenza viruses. Variants are classified according to where they were first identified.

Texas A&M sociologist feels strong social bond best medicine for elderly

COLLEGE STATION — Keeping up a social network for the elderly is probably an inexpensive form of preventive medicine, says Dr. William McIntosh, Texas A&M University sociologist who examines the influence of social support systems on the elderly diet.

People with high-quality social relationships take better care of themselves and maintain other better health practices, McIntosh said. People tend to care less about what they eat, for example, when isolated.

"In studying social relations and body indicators, we found that social network characteristics — such as the size of the network, the frequency of interaction and the perceived quality — are linked to the fat and muscle stores in the body," he said.

"We need to remind people that their elderly friends and relatives shouldn't be isolated," McIntosh explained.

Seminole To Host Hurricanes Saturday

Among major college football teams, Florida State, without a doubt, received the biggest shocks in successive season openers in 1988 and 1989. The Seminoles were shut out and embarrassed by Miami 31-0 in game #1 in 1988, and this year Southern Mississippi upset them 30-26.

The Miami defeat was Florida State's only loss in 1988 as it went on to post a 10-1 season and beat Auburn in the Sugar Bowl.

The Seminoles host the powerful Hurricanes Saturday, and certainly the 31-0 shellacking has not been forgotten. Unfortunately, Florida State had a tough contest with Auburn last week while undefeated Miami had the day off. It will be a difficult challenge for the Seminoles, but we think they're going to handle it... barely.

Arkansas is running into a juggernaut Saturday in its quest to repeat as Southwest Conference champion. The Razorbacks meet Houston in Little Rock, a team that has rolled up 249 points while giving up only 41 in its first five games. The Cougars were finally stopped by Texas A&M two weeks ago, 17-13, but they appear to be an offensive power that will give the Razorbacks more trouble than they can handle.

Year after year in the Big Eight, the game that everyone waited for all season, the one that determined the conference champion, was the Oklahoma-Nebraska confrontation. Times have changed.

The Colorado Buffaloes are on a stampede. The Oklahoma Sooners are at home against the Buffaloes, and this could be the only advantage the Sooners will have. It was close last season, Oklahoma winning 17-14, for the 34th Oklahoma victory in 43 meetings with Colorado. There was one tie. Colorado is our choice in this 1989 feature match-up.

We slipped a bit in the forecasting area, but we're still holding our own. Through games of Saturday, October 14th, we were 963 and 324 for a .748 average.

Finally, Michigan will nose out Indiana... Notre Dame will clip Pittsburgh... and Washington will nip U.C.L.A.

RECIPES FROM CALF FRIES TO CAVIAR

FOOTBALL SOUP
1 large can tomato juice
4-5 shakes Worcestershire sauce

1 cup water
salt and pepper to taste
1 pkg. dry onion soup
5 shakes tabasco
garlic salt
1/2 teaspoon accent

"THE ULTIMATE" DESSERT

1 cup butter
2 cups sugar
1 tablespoon vanilla
1-2 cups pecans, chopped
3 tablespoons cocoa
4 eggs
1 cup flour

In a medium saucepan melt butter. Add cocoa and sugar and stir until dissolved. Remove from heat and add eggs, vanilla, flour and pecans. Stir as little as possible. Pour into an 8x8x2" buttered dish. Place this dish into a larger pan that has 1 cup hot water in it. Place in a preheated 300F oven and bake for 1 hour and 10 minutes. Serve warm or cold, it's delicious either way. (The secret is in the mixing, stir only to mix.) Yield: 6 servings.

STREETS ARE BEING GRADED AND PUT IN SPLENDID CONDITION

Work started last Saturday on grading all of the principal streets of town. This is something that has been needed for many months and besides having all the streets leveled uniformly, the neat appearance will mean much to the town. A few more good side walks will help too, and it is hoped that more attention will be directed to this feature.

One of the large county graders and tractor is being used and the recent rains has made conditions perfect for grading.

JARMAN COTTON YIELDS MORE THAN BALE PER ACRE

If the Orby Jarman cotton field is any indication, Bailey County production this year will be high.

The Jarman's harvested 3.1 acres of cotton at the north edge of Muleshoe. The patch yielded 1545 pounds of lint cotton, or more than three good bales.

This early in the season, the first picking, there should be at least that much or more, yet left. The cotton of course was harvested by hand.

MHS STUDENT COUNCIL HOLDS BLOOD DRIVE

It's easy to pick up the papers, any of them, and read about all the "bad" things kids do, but what about the good things? All too often, the "Good" things are omitted or played down.

Not so in Muleshoe Thursday when the Muleshoe High School Student Council sponsored a blood drive at high school. By the time the day was over at 3 p.m. at the school, the Student Council had rounded up 50 pints of blood for South Plains Blood Service.

And who contributed this blood? Most of it was from high school students themselves. Time elapsed before all the young people who were willing to contribute a pint of their blood could be processed.

Rotary Speaker Talks About European Tour

Nelda Merriott was guest speaker for the Muleshoe Rotary Club Tuesday at noon. She spoke about a trip she and Ellen Ladd took to Scotland and other countries last year.

She was introduced by Randy Field, who was in charge of the program for the day.

The speaker started out by telling about acquiring passports then the trip to London where they stayed for a couple of days before going to Aberdeen, Scotland to visit in the home of her niece.

She also showed a video of scenes in Scotland and Austria, one of the European countries they visited while gone.

She told about a side tour she and Mrs. Ladd took.

The excursion was to Austria, where they spent five nights; then a couple of days in France, Germany and Italy.

She showed a lot of the countryside in Austria and Scotland.

Mrs. Merriott said the five nights in Austria were spent at a Pension (hotel) and they were typical tourists during the day.

She said the tour cost a total of $407 for 10 days, including lodging and food, and "was well worth the trip."

On some of the videos were Austrians performing song and dance, and said the Austrians went a long way to entertain their American visitors.

She said there are no flying insects in Europe, no flies and no mosquitos, and there are no window screens.

She talked about the architecture, and how the government requires that all homes be constructed exactly alike. The only difference noted, was in the outside colors of the homes.

According to Mrs. Merriott, American politics is one of the most popular subjects for Europeans, commenting, "They know more about American politics than we do."

She also talked about towels being provided, but no washcloths; and bottom sheets, but no top sheets, being provided here, fluffy comforters which slip off the bed all night.

She also showed the Rotarians memorabilia from her European visit, especially from Scotland.

Before the program, President Terry Hutto asked the Rotarians to vote on whether or not to place an ad in the Muleshoe High School annual this year. The proposal was approved.

He also talked about the upcoming Rotary-Coach basketball game as a community service to help the athletic departments of the school.

President Hutto proposed a "Meet The Mules" for the basketball teams, saying they need recognition as well as the football teams.

He said the project is being headed up at the school by Coach Leon Hagerman, and that wives of the coaches will operate a concession stand.

President Hutto will be working with the coaches to get a date, time and information about the upcoming game.

He said the next four programs will be by Clifton Finley, Bob Finney, Jay Feagley and Tommy Gunstream.

Visitors at the Tuesday meeting included Mario Flores, Willard Pitman, Carol Cox, Tom Alvis, Herb Parks and Eddy Lantz.

Seminar To Be Held In Amarillo, November 11

Practical advice on the problems and the promise of operating a business at home will be provided at a seminar Nov. 11 at the Texas A&M Agricultural Research and Extension Center in Amarillo.

"A home-based business can be an asset to family financial management, strengthen family life and provide self-fulfillment, but it also can be a complex, stressful and unprofitable undertaking," said Wynon Mayes, Randall County home economics agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The seminar will address common problem areas, such as record keeping and regulations, pricing and management of personal and family time and space, explained Don Taylor, director of the Panhandle Small Business Development Center at West Texas State University in Canyon.

The program, co-sponsored by the Extension Service and the small business center, will be from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. The Texas A&M center is at 5600 Amarillo Blvd. West.

Advance registration is $15.

which covers lunch and seminar materials. Participants may register with their local county extension agent or by telephoning Mrs. Mayes at Canyon, (806) 655-7001, extension 325, and paying the fee at the door. Advance registrations must be made by 5 p.m. Nov. 6.

Those who don't register in advance may register at the door, space permitting, but the fee will be $20 and doesn't include lunch.

The opening general session will examine the necessities for starting a home-based business and preparation of a business plan. Nancy Granovsky, family management specialist with the Extension Service, will explore business personalities and the effect a business will have on others in the household. Taylor will show how to prepare a carefully thought out business plan and where to find free or inexpensive sources of assistance.

Participants then may choose from two concurrent sessions. In one, Jim Million, national sales director for Sales Training, Inc., who conducts management training for major national corporations, will cover time management. The concurrent session on legal issues and risk management will cover such things as business structure, registration and zoning requirements and protection of your business name.

After lunch, participants may attend two of four concurrent sessions. One will repeat the session on legal issues and risks. Another will explain the use of marketing and advertising.

Texas A&M survey reveals principals' duties less than satisfactory

COLLEGE STATION — Texas public school principals give poor grades to their preparation for the responsibilities they currently hold because administrator preparation courses are often taught by the least effective method, reveals a Texas A&M University survey.

"Principals view lecture and discussion as minimally effective in training them as administrators," Dr. Laurie Witters-Churchill of the Texas A&M Principals' Center said. "Opportunities for internships, along with more group and clinical work, need to be expanded."

However, internships and other field-based training are perceived as expensive by many universities, says Dr. David Erlandson, head of the Principals' Center and Texas A&M's Educational Administration Department. Administrator preparation programs are sometimes averse to change, he added.

"Departments may agree philosophically they need to be doing preparation differently, but they comfortably do it the same way they always have done it," Erlandson said.

Similar studies currently being conducted in California, Michigan and New York are expected to generate the same results, Witters-Churchill said.

"If we can get principals in key states involved, we can get some action," Erlandson said. "This could put pressure on programs, and we hope that will lead to changes."

The third will cover the basic records needed for financial decisions and tax purposes, allowable business deductions and computer applications. The fourth session will discuss the benefits of and ways to achieve a professional business image.

Texas A&M researcher says depression is less likely in college women

COLLEGE STATION — Women attending college are less vulnerable to depression than women of the same age not pursuing a degree, although it's not clear why, notes a Texas A&M University psychologist who researches the components of depression.

"A survey of literature on the subject shows that college women are not typical of most women when it comes to vulnerability to depression," says Dr. William Rhoads.

Women generally tend to be more "state-oriented" — more analytical and reflective — in their depression, he says. Such tendencies can lead to a vicious cycle of more depression for such state-oriented individuals as opposed to action-oriented persons who are less reflective and more oriented toward goals, plans and actions, he explained.

Depression does not occur in just one form, he says, and is measured by its persistence, recurrence and severity.

Rhoads also has found those people with a strong support system from family and friends can handle more stress and can prevent depression.

"Everyone goes through times of unhappiness and stress — it's all part of normal life," Rhoads said. "But when the symptoms don't go away and they are too severe for the circumstances, you're not dealing with the normal blues."

Safety Tips For Halloween

Halloween is almost here, and children everywhere are preparing for the big night by searching for scary masks and spooky outfits. Although having fun and filling up those trick-or-treat bags are foremost in their minds, children need to remember to follow safe practices. Parents should keep in mind the following tips provided by Scott & White Memorial Hospital in Temple:

* Make costumes short enough so the child won't trip when going up and down stairs.
* Use white colors or big patches of white on the costumes to ensure good visibility.

* Use fire-retardant fabric for the costumes or treat the material with a chemical fire-retardant.

* When making masks or hoods, cut out holes in them that are large enough to assure easy breathing and good vision. Using makeup or face paints instead of masks is an even better idea.

* If face paints are used, make sure that they are designed specifically for this purpose, they are non-poisonous and that the paint can be washed off easily.

* When lighting Jack O'lanterns, use small flashlights—not candles—in order to prevent fires.

* Have an adult accompany the children while they are trick or treating.

* Trick or treating should be done before dark, especially if you have young children. Set a curfew for the older children and enforce it.

* Instruct the children to stay in their own neighborhood and to call on only people they know and trust.

* Give each child a flashlight

DPS Seeking New Applicants

Major V.J. Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety in Lubbock has announced that the D.P.S. is seeking applicants for a recruit training school scheduled to begin March 27, 1990. He stated,
"We are seeking qualified men and women who are interested in becoming DPS Troopers."

Applicants will be accepted through January 19, 1990 at the Lubbock, Amarillo and Wichita Falls offices. Entrance examinations will be given beginning at 8 a.m. each Wednesday at the Amarillo and Wichita Falls offices and at 8 a.m. each Tuesday and Thursday at the Lubbock office. Tests will take all day to complete.

Approximately 140 men and women will be selected to begin training in exciting career of law enforcement. Beginning monthly salary is $1,622.00 while attending the 22 week academy, $1,865.00 a month upon graduation and $2,362.50 a month after completion of twelve months probation.

Applicants must be 20 to 35 years old, of good moral character, in excellent physical condition and a U.S. citizen.
Sixty semester hours of college or equivalent military or police experience are required.

Graduates of the DPS Academy will be assigned either to the Highway Patrol or Drivers license Service. After two years of service, DPS Troopers are afforded the opportunity to advance in the Criminal Law Enforcement division, which includes Narcotics Service, Criminal Intelligence Service and Motor Vehicle Theft Service.

After four years of service, they can compete for the position of Sergeant in the Traffic Law Enforcement division.

Major Cawthon said, "If you are interested in a career with the Texas Department of Public Safety, contact your local DPS Trooper or go by any DPS facility and pick up an application."

In recent months speculation has arisen about possible health hazards stemming from exposure from microwaves emitted by microwave ovens, some TV sets, etc.

All microwave ovens sold in the U.S., however, must meet rigid safety standards. If there is any danger, it could result from damaged oven doors which fail to close properly or from tampering with the oven door.

Working properly, a microwave oven will not turn on if the door is not securely closed.

If it does, it should not be used until repaired.

Money Talk

By Charles B. Carlson, Dow Theory Forecasts
The SEC commission recently issued a revised proposal that would change the rules under which corporate insiders would have to report stock transactions.

The proposal would exempt certain middle managers from having to file disclosure statements, requiring only top executives, officers, and financial executives to report stock transactions.

Certainly, the revised plan has its advantages in less paperwork for the SEC and fewer headaches for certain managers who otherwise would have to file information.

However, doesn't it seem worth the effort to know the trading activity of corporate executives? From an investment research standpoint, knowing the trading patterns of insiders has often been a clue as to the prospects of the company.
