Drillers Rally, Down Odessa In Ninth, 15-14

Overcoming a six-run deficit going into the bottom of the ninth, Artesia's Drillers pounded out seven runs in the last frame to upset Odessa 15-14 last night in Driller Park.

The two teams return tonight to Driller Park at 7:30. A gift event is planned for tonight. Last night's win broke a string in which Artesia lost three successive games this weekend to the Oilers.

Weakening Oiler pitching filled the bases with walks to set-up Artesia's "power row" last night. Odessa Leads.

Odessa had scored four in the first, two apiece in the second and fourth and three apiece in the sixth and ninth, while Artesia scored four in the first, two in the second, one apiece in the fourth and fifth to put the score at 14-8 as the Drillers glumly started their half of the last frame.

Then Carson walked Les Mulcahy, Joe Fortin, and Bill Haley in succession, loading the bases. Zraggen relieved Carson, but Armando Sanchez tripled to score four runs.

Joe Calderon then singled, pinchhitter Bob Pressley doubled, Jackie Wilcox was walked, and Vince DiGiantomasso doubled.

Bob "Pepper" Martin, Oiler manager, thereon relieved Zraggen, intentionally walked Joe Bauman, and was hit for a single by Les Mulcahy, putting Artesia ahead and ending the ball game.

Fidel Alveraz started for Artesia, lasted until the sixth, when Monahans relieved. Monahans was given the win. 15 Artesia Hits.

Artesia knocked 15 hits against 11 for Odessa, committed four errors. (Continued on Page 8)

Third Running of Famed Artesia Turtle Derby Scheduled Thursday Afternoon

Third running of Artesia's renowned Lions club Turtle Derby has been scheduled to begin promptly at 2 p. m. Thursday at Morris Field at W. Main and Thirteenth.

According to A. F. Patterson, general chairman, racers for the burned grass country's outstanding speed event were completely painted in a late-evening session last night.

About 600 turtles are being groomed for Thursday's race, Patterson said, and time trials are now being held to eliminate slow runners.

Two complete races will be held Thursday, with several heats for each race. Entry Fee $1.25—

New Schedule For Longhorn League Announced

Revised schedule for the Longhorn league to compensate for drop-out of Big Springs was announced Monday afternoon by Earl Perry, Artesia Driller general manager.

The schedule for tonight places Odessa at Artesia in the last of a two-game series, Midland at Roswell, and San Angelo at Carlsbad, Aug. 5 and 6 Midland will be at Artesia, San Angelo and Roswell, and Odessa at Carlsbad.

Hal Sayles, Longhorn league president, said team schedules will be pushed to team managers as soon as possible.

Perry also reminded Artesia residents of these special events: Wednesday night will be gift night.

Thursday night will be National National Guard unit in uniform Guard night. Members of Artesia will be admitted free to the Midland-Artesia game.

Perry said arrangements have been completed for an exhibition by an Artesia National Guard drill team during Thursday night's ball game.

Whatley Moves to Lake Arthur As New School Superintendent

Herbert M. Whatley, new superintendent of Lake Arthur school, has arrived with his family and is settling in the Paul Robinson house formerly occupied by the B. E. Cross family.

Entry fee for every turtle is $1.25. Turtles may be brought to the grounds by racing fans, or purchased from the Lions club.

Heats—six per race—and the two grand finale races.

No participants in the first race can compete in the second race, Patterson said.

Lions club this year established a minimum measurement of the three inches across the breast shell of competing turtles.

"With this improved stock we are hoping to set a track record," Patterson said.

Proceeds from the Lion's club project will go toward financing its program to beautify Balsh park, the large park in front of Veterans Memorial building.

Then more heats are held, with the first three winners in each being put aside for the grand finale race.

In turn, owners of the first three winners of the grand finale race will be given prizes.

And then it starts all over again with the second race and its qualifying heats.

Turtle owners have a maximum of 42 chances to win Thursday, Patterson pointed out, since there will be three winners in each of 12

Chavez to Ride In Opening Day Parade, Entry

Lt. Gov. Tibo Chavez has accepted an invitation to be guest of honor on opening day Aug. 12 of Artesia's annual V-J Day Ranch Hands Rodeo.

Chavez accepted an invitation extended by the Chamber of Commerce through J. B. Mulcock, co-chairman of the chamber's parade committee veterans' division.

Chavez will fly to Roswell, where he will be met by chamber and rodeo officials.

Asked by Mulcock if he preferred to ride in a car or on a horse, Chavez said "get a horse ready for me—a gentle horse."

Ride in Parade—The popular lieutenant governor indicated he would be in Artesia for the opening day parade, which begins at 10 a. m. a week from tomorrow to open the four-day rodeo.

Chavez indicated he hoped to stay in Artesia for opening performance of the rodeo, but because of other commitments could not promise.

Meanwhile, chamber officials called for entries in the big rodeo parade, the first in a full-day of events leading up to opening night of the Ranch Hands Rodeo at 7:30 Aug. 12.

An entry blank for business houses, civic organizations, and individuals wishing to take part in the parade is printed in today's Artesia Advocate.

Deadline for turning entry blanks into parade chairman Charles Baldwin is Monday noon, Aug. 10, two days before the parade.

Floats may be entered in any of three divisions—commercial, civic, and children's. First, second, and third cash prizes will be awarded in each division.

Leading the parade will be Walker Air Force base's big marching band. (Continued on Page Eight)

Lake Arthur

By MRS. RAY PATE

Mrs. W. F. Whatley was hostess to the Lake Arthur Extension club at the home of her mother, Mrs. Kersey Funk, at the regular monthly meeting Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary B. Nelson, Chaves county home agent, gave a very interesting and enlightening demonstration on "What's New in Fabrics and How to Treat Them." Mrs. Nelson quoted the government experts and specialists in clothing as advising the homemaker "Don't lose respect for the natural fibers—wool, silk, cotton and linen."

This is the so called year of miracle fibers. Mrs. Nelson had samples and charts.

During the business meeting which followed the demonstration, Mrs. Delbert Robinson and Mrs.

Carroll Jackson, Sr., were delegates to be voted on at next Chaves county council meeting to represent Chaves county at the state HDA meeting scheduled for Aug. 17-18-19 at Portland.

Pesant craft leaders appointed by the president, Mrs. May Donald, to take the training were Mmes. Jimmie Funk, Grassie and W. F. Whalley. Leaders will in turn bring demonstration back to the members at next regular meeting in August. Orders were taken in August. Orders were taken in August. Orders were taken in August.

As Team, Artesia Drillers Lead Longhorn Teams In Batting, Placed Second in Club Fielding

While Artesia players as individuals fail to stand at the top of baseball's statistics, the Artesia Drillers' record as a working team continued to be in top spots this week as third quarter statistics were released.

Artesia through July 25 was still leading the league in batting with a .311 and was second in team fielding behind league-leading San Angelo.

As of July 25 the Drillers were still leading the Longhorn league in second base hits with 207 (compared to 170 for second-place Carlsbad), and home runs with 108

Artesia's .311 in team batting was followed by Carlsbad's .309, Roswell and Midland at .301 each, San Angelo .287, Odessa .286, and now-defunct Big Spring .272.

In team fielding San Angelo leads with .951, followed by Artesia with .952, Carlsbad .951, Roswell .950, Odessa .949, and Big Spring .941.

George Hine, Jr., league statistician, in rating pitchers for the third quarter, did so with earned run average per game (ERA). Artesia's Bob Pressley was sixth with 3.62 in five games (two of them complete), and Len Ruyle eighth with 4.02 in 32 games, 21 of them complete.

Lowest ERA in the league was held by Jimenez of Odessa with a 2.47. He also led, percentage-wise with .733.

ERA for other Artesia pitchers includes Fidel Alvarez with 4.87, Herman Reyes 6.24, Andy Alonso 6.44, Pat Monahans 7.52.

Percentages for Artesia pitchers give Pressley 1.000 for winning, two, losing none, Ruyle .667 with 14 won, 7 lost; Alvarez .667 with 12 won, 6 lost; Reyes .462 for 6-7; Alonso .294 for 5-12; and Monahans .571 for 4-3.

In individual batting Carlsbad's

Oilers Come From Behind Saturday Night to Give Drillers 5-2 Defeat

Odessa's Oilers came from behind Saturday night to win the second straight contest from Artesia's Drillers 5-2 at Odessa.

Artesia was ahead 2-0 going into the third inning, when Odessa sent two across the plate. A single run in the fifth and a pair in the eighth put the game away for the Oilers.

Orland Zraggen allowed five hits to the Drillers. After being hit five times in the first three innings, Zraggen wound-up the game by pitching no-hit ball for the rest of the night.

Herman Reyes was on the mound for Artesia for 4 1/3 innings, giving up five hits for three runs to take credit for the loss. Len Ruyle, relieving in the fourth, was tagged with four hits for two runs in the eighth.

The game was Artesia's eighth loss in its last 10 road games.

Joe Bauman hit his 31st homer of the year in the third—but with no one aboard.

Artesia was checked for three errors, Odessa one.

Odessa Oiler Manager Takes Mound Against Drillers, Credited for Win

Pepper Martin, Odessa Oiler manager, after looking all over the place for a relief pitcher Friday night, found himself available, went to the mound, and took credit for an 8-5 win over Artesia's Drillers.

Martin did have a little help via seven runs knocked by his boys in the seventh inning to put Odessa back in the game with a bang.

Martin allowed nine runs spaced them so none walked four, fanned three.

Driller Starter Len Ruyle knocked from the mound seventh with a wide-eyed dive.

Artesia had salted away the fourth against one for Then came the offensive seventh.

Three singles in a row runs, then another triple triple started things with Ruyle from the mound to Alvarez to take over.

A single and a homer punched out as a walk Alvarez, ending the offense. Artesia put over single the eighth and ninth—Sanchez' homer doing the eighth.

Odessa Cleans Up Series With 14-4 Artesia Rout

Odessa's Oilers cleaned-up a three-game series against the Artesia Drillers with a 3-0 advantage Sunday night by routing the New Mexico club 14-4 at Odessa.

Tied-up going into the eighth inning, Odessa pounded across 10 runs on seven hits, including a brace of triples plus a homer by Felix Castro.

Two of Artesia's four runs were on homers. Andy Alonso banged a round-tripper in the seventh with none on, followed in the same frame by Joe Bauman, who also found none on when he banged out his four-master.

Artesia scored once in the first, another single in the second. Odessa shoved over one in the second, then three more in the third.

After three scoreless innings, Artesia sent over two in the seventh to tie-up the game 4-4.

Then came the eighth inning, with triples, a homer, and solid singles all but blasting Andy Alonso off the mound. Alonso was tagged for 14 hits in the game.

Carson allowed the Drillers nine hits.

Bob Martin was the hitter of the evening with a pair of homers in the second—none on—and the third with one aboard.

Artesia was credited with three errors, Odessa two.

VA Issues 19,006 Insurance Policies to Korean Vets

Nearly nine times as many veterans now have the special post-Korea GI term life insurance policy as had it a year ago, veterans administration has announced.

In April 1952, only 2,265 of these policies were in force with a value of $19,136,000. A year later, or on April 30, 1953, the number of policies in force had increased to 19,006, and the amount to $157,938,000.

These policies are the five-year non-convertible, non-participating term life insurance for which eligible post-Korea veterans must apply to VA within 120 days of their discharge or separation from service.

Eligible for this insurance are those post-Korea veterans with service in the U. S. armed forces anywhere in the world since June 27, 1950, the start of the Korean hostilities, who were ordered to active service for a period in excess of 30 days and who were entitled to the free indemnity protection of the law.

Control of Pink Bollworm Possible in Cotton Areas

Ways of controlling the pink bollworm, cotton's greatest insect threat are discussed in a new U. S. department of agriculture publication, "The Pink Bollworm — How We Fight It."

This leaflet (339) was prepared by cotton insect specialists of the USDA's bureau of entomology and plant quarantine to help growers prevent damage, and in turn help stop the spread of this serious pest into presently unfested cotton growing areas.

The pink bollworm has been in the United States since 1917, but until the last few years, has been principally confined to the lower Rio Grande Valley and along the Mexican border of Texas and limited areas of West Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona.

However, since 1950, conditions have favored the pest and it has spread throughout Texas, and into southern Oklahoma and western Louisiana. It threatens the entire cotton-growing South.

The department's new leaflet discusses the value of widespread stalk destruction as an effective pink bollworm control measure, as well as other cultural practices which are carried out largely after harvest. Growers who live in areas where cotton can be harvested before frost are advised to pick the crop as early as possible and then immediately destroy the stalks

Herman Herring Nears Completion Of 16-Weeks Training in Missouri

Pvt. Herman E. Herring, son of Mrs. Kathleen Herring, Artesia, is nearing completion of a 16-week training course with a unit of the 6th Armored Division at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

HERMAN E. HERRING

As a trainee, he received eight weeks basic training in the fundamentals of Army life and the use of infantry weapons. He is now completing an additional eight weeks engineer training.

Pvt. Herring is being taught the use of pioneer and power tools, construction of fixed and floating bridges and related subjects besides additional combat skills.

At the end of the 16-week training cycle with the famed "Super Sixth" the men completing training here will be sent either to specialist schools or as replacements to other units.

stockholders' equity, which was a high water mark from the low point of a mere 2.7 per cent which they hit in 1933. Last year's earnings were 19.3 per cent of the stockholder's equity.

Passes Heyday—
On the basis of lowered earnings in the past two years, it looks, Edgel says, as if banking has passed its recent profit heyday and is caught in the long term trend of interest rates which has been down for several centuries.

Edgel lists three reasons for the current drop in bank earnings. First of all there is the notable shift of earning assets for loans to investments, particularly in government bonds, largely because the amount of money available to banks has grown faster than their loans have grown.

In a word, banks today have more money available than borrowers have stepped up to ask for, so the banks have plowed in back into securities.

Since the interest on securities is not so high as the rate paid by bank borrowers, the banks' earnings have hit the skids.

Interest Down—
A second reason for lowered earnings is the long term decline in interest rates which has adversely affected the banks despite the recent tendency toward tight money.

A third reason is the decline in the proportion of total bank assets which have been put to use earning money in the past two years.

Although Edgel thinks that these recent developments in banking indicate a rapid growth of capital in the state, he points out that there is still heard the perennial cry that industrial expansion is handicapped by the lack of ready money.

The explanation, he says, is that the increase in the supply of short term banking funds adds nothing to the supply of "venture capital" which is necessary to industrial development.

Edgel also suggests that the industrial expansion of the state may not be suffering any handicaps and that it may be taking place right under our noses.

Slow Process—
The transition from an extractive-agrarian economy to an industrial one is a slow process which is not readily observable.

Yet, according to the UNM researcher, "If you look at the growth of manufacturing employment in New Mexico during the last few years, you get the distinct impression that the state is getting pretty well along in its progress toward more manufacturing."

He cites an increase in manufacturing employment of 75 per cent over the 1947-49 average as pointing to the conclusion that New Mexico is undergoing considerable industrial development right now.

Banks Are Public Service, But Must Make Profit, Too

Banks serve the public and are as essential as post offices but they are businesses that also must make a profit to keep their doors open.

Bank earnings were down in 1952, the latest issue of New Mexico Business, monthly publication of the University of New Mexico, states and the fact is brought home that profits of state banks are coming harder each year.

This does not mean that banks are having any real difficulties, the bureau points out. Even though 1952's profits were below the 1949 figure, last year's earnings were good in comparison with prewar standards—better, in fact, than in any one year since 1929.

Prof. Ralph L. Edgel, UNM bureau director, said that earnings for 1949 for New Mexico state banks were 23.8 per cent of the Federal Encroachment Into Schools Warned Against By Taxpayer Group

Warning of an impending federal encroachment in public school systems was voiced here today by the Taxpayers Association of New Mexico.

This warning was based on a measure recently introduced in Congress (Senate Bill 2294), for an allocation of federal funds for public school construction.

It has been proved that except in certain emergencies, when the federal government accepts federal aid, a definite measure of federal control inevitably follows," said Albert K. Nohl, acting director of the tax organization.

The measure in question would authorize $100 million a year for distribution to the states for new school buildings, the allocation to be based on a complicated formula, for the next three years.

"This proposition might seem inviting if it were not for several adverse factors," Nohl stated. "By federal standards, New Mexico needs public school construction totaling 58 million dollars — an average of $1,800,000 per county.

"That figure was somehow deduced despite the fact that recent school construction costs have ranged from $9 per square foot to $30 per square foot throughout the state."

through tax revenues, whether collected at national or local level, and cited danger of the loss of local control of public school matters if federal aid should be authorized.

"We have learned that lesson by having federal control forced on us as regards public welfare, public health and the construction of major highways in New Mexico," he said.

"Furthermore, in view of the fact that the Federal Government is still operating in the red, the proposed 300-million-dollar allocation could only add that amount to our existing national debt."

He suggested that all New Mexico residents opposed to the proposition communicate their feelings in letters to Senators Clinton P. Anderson and Dennis Chavez, at Washington.

Nohl pointed out that all school construction costs must be met

Local Doctor Discusses Cause Of Insomnia

Sleep, as everybody knows, is a normal unconsciousness, the purpose of which is to refresh the body. Insomnia is the inability to get proper sleep because some abnormal condition within the body prevents it.

Worry is a great sleep destroyer. If the worry comes from a physical ailment which chiropractic can help, the cause of that worry can be removed.

Pain and inability to relax (muscle tension) are often sleep preventives. These conditions may be due to a nerve pressure which pinches the nerves to such an extent that the nerve supply cannot get through to the muscles of other parts of the body, thereby interfering with their normal activities.

The modern Chiropractor is now trained and scientifically equipped to locate the exact points of nerve pressure in the spine and to remove that pressure. Once the pressure is removed, the body receives its full nerve supply, is able to relax and function normally, and normal sleep is possible.

It is not true to say "we are doing everything possible" unless Chiropractic is included.

For further information about Chiropractic, you are invited to consult Dr. Kathryn Behnke, Palmer Graduate Chiropractor, 408 W. Richardson, phone 861.

More than six times as many men of your age will die of lung cancer this year as died in 1935. Our research scientists still don't know why. They do know, however, that over half of those who will develop lung cancer can be saved... if they get proper treatment while the disease is still in the silent, symptomless stage. Greater Coverage

WE HAVE DISCUSSED many times the advantages of sick and health insurance, hospitalization insurance, accident insurance, as well as life insurance. We feel they are fine and that everyone who can possibly protect themselves and their families should do so.

There are long lists of individuals who, without this type of insurance in an emergency, would spend a long period of time paying hospital and doctor bills.

There has been an increase in the coverage available and today many buy different kinds of protection that were unavailable only a few years ago.

It is true that in many instances full and complete coverage for surgery and for hospital care are not available now. In many instances the insurance does not cover the cost. Every individual, however, can determine what his policy does or does not cover by checking it even before he buys it. The more coverage we buy the greater the cost.

There is a real need today for coverage of illness at home. No policies provide this type of coverage or for doctor bills when the patient is cared for in the home and when the doctor visits the home to provide care and attention.

We presume there would be many instances when no coverage would be granted even in these cases. For instance, the price for coverage of colds or a slight case of the flu would be almost prohibitive. However, there are cases of illness in the home which extend over a long period of time when medical care is needed.

And there is a need for this kind of protection for the patients in order to be able to pay for medical care and for medicine. This can run into huge amounts in various cases.

Today that coverage is not provided in most of the policies sold for sick and health benefits. It might be that such a policy would be prohibitive in price. But we know that it is needed and there are those able to buy it and pay for it.

We hope that sooner or later some company or firm will come along with this kind of coverage so that individuals buying insurance will have full protection in the hospital or in the home.

There Is No Connection

WE BELIEVE TWO of the surest ways to get a newspaper man or woman to lift their eyebrows and get off on the wrong foot with them is to ask that some news item be left as it is submitted and be printed on page one and to say they have run so much advertising they are entitled to the news story.

Most editors feel they are qualified to write a news story, to edit a story, and to determine whether it rates front page or whether it should go on some other page. They also feel that their paper does not have just one page—the front page. They are rather thoroughly convinced that space on the other pages is just as good and just as valuable. After all that is the space which advertisers buy and pay for.

But when the comment is made that the individual should have a news story because they have bought so much advertising—then the editor really sees red. In the first place if the story warrants being published it doesn't matter whether they have bought any advertising or not.

THIS LAND OF ENCHANTMENT—

Parts of State Form Happy Hunting Ground For Modern Prospectors in Uranium Search

Portions of New Mexico make a large part of the happy hunting ground for uranium—the stuff of which A-bombs, war, and peace are made, notes the Associated Press.

The atomic energy commission in its 14th annual report last week stressed domestic exploration for uranium. It was concerned with "probing potentialities of low grade sources (of uranium) such as phosphates, shales, lignites, and fluorospar."

It also reported testing new processes for extraction and setup of new production facilities.

In New Mexico, Anaconda is completing an experimental plant near Grants, and Kerr-McGee oil industries is protesting a plant at Shiprock to process flow-sheet.

SAN JUAN COUNTY HAS lost its free janitorial service. A prisoner Dist. Judge David Carmody sentenced for five months had voluntarily served as janitor of the jail without supervision or an attempt to escape.

When he left, he told officials he'd turned over a new leaf. A short time later he was back, charged with burglary. For a while he took up mopping and sweeping where he had left off. But last week the prisoner was sentenced to 5 to 15 years in the state penitentiary.

WOULD BE SAFECRACKER made so much noise over at Las Cruces the other night he attracted most of the night police force.

Clarence B. Reynolds, 24, of Washington, D. C., is charged with attempting the robbery. He was spotted by city officers at a lumber company. The officers saw the company safe, door battered but still intact, sitting in view of the street.

An investigation revealed Reynolds, who admitted taking tools from the store stock in an attempt to crack the safe door.

Even though Reynolds beat off the safe's handle, a gas cylinder failed to explode.

WARDEN MORRIS ABRAM told a wire service correspondent "there was nothing else to do" with state penitentiary prisoners after the prison's most recent riot except put them in "The Hole."

At one time the Hole held six men within its five by seven feet.

Abram said "it was an emergency situation. After that vicious riot we had to do something."

ting or not. If th story is not worthy of publishing then if they had bought the entire paper that would not justify it being published.

Creating white space costs money whether it is for news stories or for advertising. The newspaper has onl tywo things to sell—the paper and the white space.

And the very merchant or individual who may contend he is entitled to a news story because he buys advertising doesn't practice that particular plan in his own business.

For instance, if you drive into a filling station and buy so much gasoline and you need a quart of oil—the service station owner does not give you the oil because you bought the gasoline. If you buy a pound of coffee and need some sugar the grocery store doesn't give you the sugar because you bought the coffee.

If you buy a suit of clothes and need a hat—the merchant does not give you the hat because you bought the suit.

It is also true with newspapers. They sell white space. The mere fact someone has bought advertising space doesn't mean he is entitled to so much white space for a news story. It just doesn't make sense.

If the story warrants being published it will be printed without any consideration as to any advertising space bought.

Is It Cease Fire?

WITH SIGNING of a truce in Korea, we are tempted to turn our attention away from the Far East, a land of which we know relatively little and with which we lack the historic ties that have marked our relations with Europe.

Yet we should be warned that because of a Korean cease-fire and perhaps settlement in the coming months, Communist designs to bring Asia within its sphere will not slow.

Communist China has been seen as the key to Asian conquest by so qualified a writer as Frank Robertson, special correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor.

And Robertson finds that the picture of China today is one of growing strength. Its government has tight control over 500 million people, and, Robertson believes, there is little hope for revolt.

China has an army of 180 to 200 divisions due to its role in the Korean conflict, has built an air force, and according to reports, is training a navy, with many of its personnel getting lessons in Russian submarines.

Economically, however, China is not well, reports indicate, and the hope that truce in Korea may lead to more Communist trade with the rest of the world perhaps played a key part in the Communists' decision for a truce.

China most of all needs a period of peace until its five-year program is well underway, Robertson believes.

Meanwhile, we may expect Communist emphasis to switch to Indo-China from Korea. The French are heartily sick of the costly, continuing war, and if in a negotiated peace they should withdraw from Indo-China, they would leave a poorly-trained people alone to cope with Communist designs on the rich lands for which Indo-China is a gateway.

No Let Up in Safety

THE MERE FACT that the plan for requiring brake and light stickers and checks of brakes and lights on cars from now to January 1 has been dropped should not result in us letting down any in being sure we have good lights and good brakes.

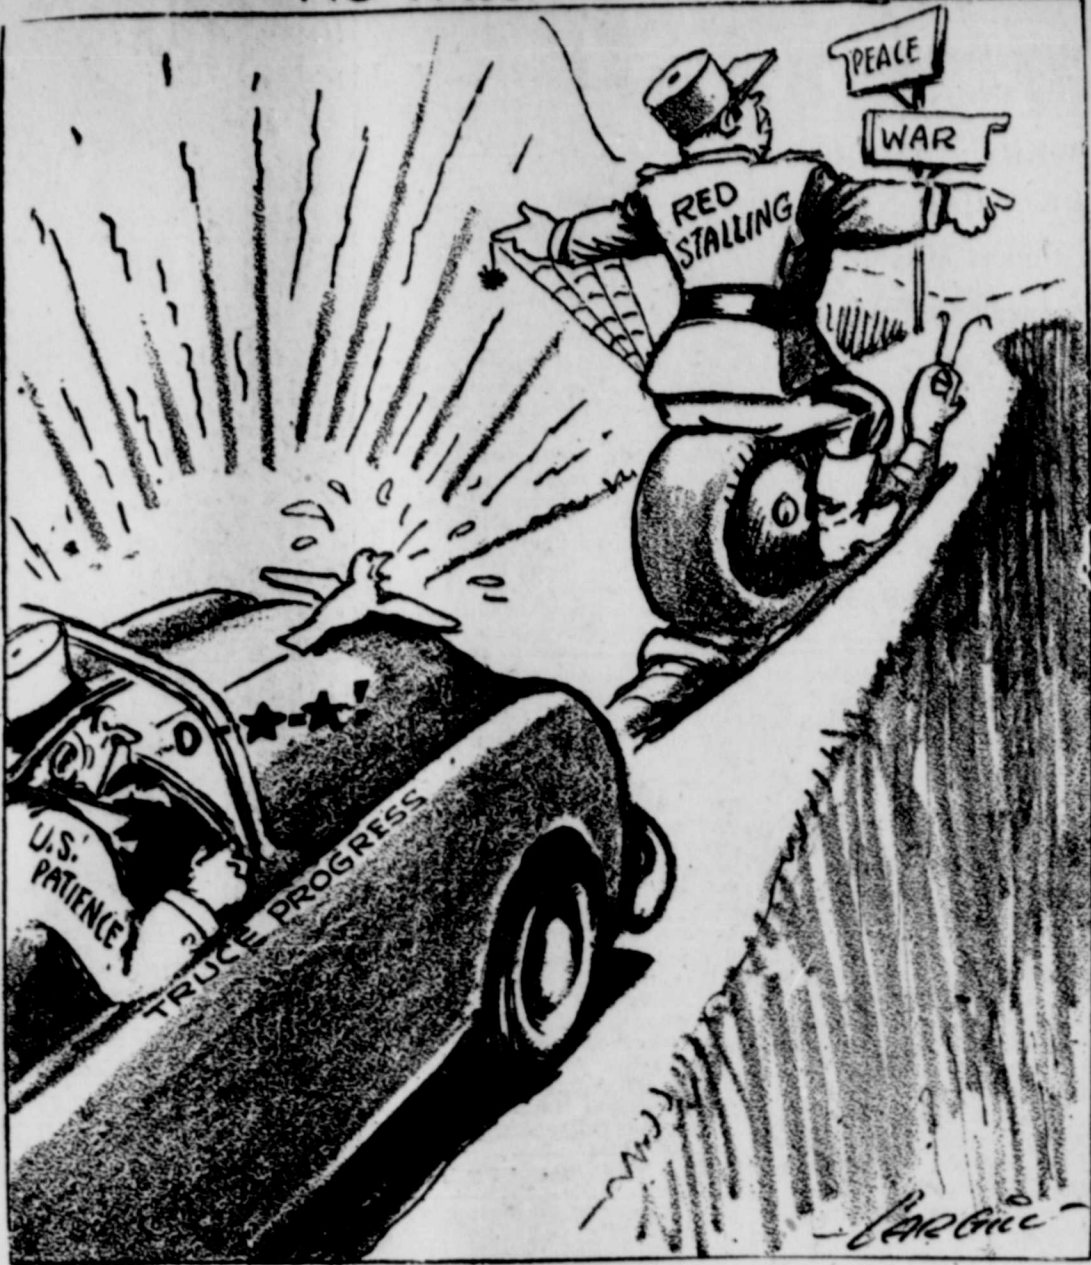

Dropping of requirements for brake and light stickers between now and the end of the year is being done to inaugurate a new program.

We hope that the new program can and will be more successful than the old program, for despite the efforts of the state many an automobile was permitted to be operated when it should have been sent to a shop for repairs.

On the other hand a good many of those selling brake and light stickers thoroughly checked a car before they issued the sticker. There is just one purpose in checking brakes and lights—to see that the car is in good condition from the standpoint of lights and the brakes.

But it wouldn't be a bad idea for everyone to do a little checking of their own or have a check made even though the law does not require they have this done again before January 1, 1954.

NO PASSING ZONE

NEW MEXICO EDITORS ARE SAYING—

Recent Actions By Governor Indicate Slipping From 'Big Man' Course to Petty Politicking

GOVERNOR SLIPPING
Governor Mechem is a bigger man than some recent actions on his part would indicate. On the same day this week, he replaced a state fair board member for breaking a "hot" news story without his permission and he blamed someone else for blocking a federal appointment, as if the man had done something wrong.

Floyd Rigdon, Carlsbad publisher, was replaced on the fair board for no reason other than Rigdon's newspaper, published a story about the State Game Commission affairs that did not quite suit the tastes of Governor Mechem. Rigdon has been an able fair board member and one of the Governor's best friends. Governor Mechem has been popular with the state press, but he will never be able to dictate what a publisher or reporter places in his paper.

On the same day, the Governor blamed Laurence Lee, board chairman of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, for blocking the appointment of State Welfare Director Alva Simpson as U. S. Indian Commissioner. Lee is a brother of Floyd Lee, San Mateo rancher in Valencia county. If favoring someone else for a political appointment is wrong, it is news to us. Especially, since Mechem went down the line against Eisenhower in favor of Taft in the Republican nominating convention a year ago.

We suggest Governor Mechem take a rest, get over his petty feelings and return to normal. Otherwise he won't find himself as popular in 1954 when he runs for the U. S. Senate as he has been in two past campaigns for governor.—Belen News-Bulletin.

NO SIGNS HERE
The New Mexico Taxpayers association which has been a useful organization in the state if for no other reason than it has kept us posted on our own tax situations, probably has gone too far in trying to put a spoke in the wheel of federal aid for school buildings where military installations have increase local problems.

Albert Nohl, acting director for the association, has declared that whenever a community accepts federal funds for erection of school buildings that it sacrifices its own control of the schools. That is denied by the state superintendent of schools and the head of the state educators' association.

Roswell has accepted federal aid for erection of new schools to house the children of military personnel. The people of the city have felt that government was obliged to help out, inasmuch as it created the problem for the community.

However, we have not heard of Supt. J. D. Shinkle giving up any of his authority as head of the city school system, and we have not heard of the board of education surrendering any of its rights of control over a situation that is purely local.

Maybe accepting federal funds does pauperize us in some degree. But circumstances alter cases, and crowded school situations shape up one of the situations wherein we have to accept help or deny the rights of education to many children.

We suspect that the association director just talked a little too much with his mouth, and without checking up on the whole situation.—Roswell Record.

NEW GOP CHAIRMAN
It seems to us to be of some significance that the Republican party of New Mexico, when it came time to choose a new state chairman, picked a man from the state's traditionally Democratic East Side.

Frank Wortman, a Dexter rancher and Chaves county GOP chairman, was the man selected to replace Harry Robins of Albuquerque at the state Republican helm.

Chaves county deserted the usually solid bloc of Democratic counties along the East Side in 1952 and went Republican, from top to bottom. It may be that Wortman's selection was a recognition of this astonishing feat. Whatever else was behind the naming of the Dexter man, his selection was a bow of acknowledgement by the Republicans to the political importance of the East Side.

Republicans out of power for a long time and their vote hunger sharpened to a razor keenness, have been a little quicker to realize how the East Side, when it sticks together, can elect or reject and almost control the New Mexico political scene.—Carlsbad Current-Argus.

PRESSES LUCK
Artesia seems to be the only town in the Fifth Judicial District that is making a bid for a detention home for boys authorized by the last session of the legislature.

Down in the Eddy county town they refer to it by a better name, calling the proposed project a boys ranch, and that name better fits the authorized institution than detention home, as well as listening better to all concerned. The legislature provided that such homes be established in each judicial district of the state, if it was desired by the counties involved, and that they shall be financed by taxes equally divided between the counties of each district.

Obviously the counties in this district had lost sight of the law, or were indifferent to it until Artesia started the ball rolling. Whether any competition will develop now is a matter for conjecture, but the prospect seems fair that the Eddy County town has the bulge on the deal and may be left alone to complete its promotion.

Courts in this district have been reluctant to send boys convicted of minor crimes to the state school at Springer, which sometimes is populated with some pretty tough juvenile characters, and which comes more nearly fitting prison description than the proposed detention home.

Therefore, the plan fits into the feeling of this section, and probably will get considerable approval from the taxpayers of the counties.—Roswell Daily Record.

CIVILIANS AT WHITE SANDS
Sands Proving Grounds are loudly tapping their feet over a ruling barring civilians are barred from using commissaries on the base.

The original bill was meant to stop civilians buying at commissaries (at greatly reduced prices) when there were privately-owned groceries and other stores nearby. It made no exceptions.

But White Sands is 26 miles from Las Cruces, where families must now go to buy their groceries. Civilians can't see going 26 miles for groceries and toothpaste.
