

Goodell Pitches, Hits Artesia to 15-10 Win over Spudders; Move to Midland

SWEETWATER — The ram-paging Artesia NuMexers outlasted the Sweetwater Spudders 15-10 in a marathon Longhorn league tilt Tuesday night, the sixth straight loss for the stumbling Spuds.

The win gave Artesia a clean sweep of its two-game series with the Spudders at Sweetwater. Tonight, the NuMexers go to Midland for a two-game series before returning home to Artesia Friday night for a two-game stand with Sweetwater.

Left Fielder Charlie Tuttle was the bright spot of the Sweetwater faithful, smashing a grand slam homer in the fifth, rapping a solo round-tripper in the seventh and walking with the bases loaded in the eighth to drive in six runs.

Winning Pitcher Wayne Goodell helped his own cause with four singles in five trips. Left Fielder Mickey Sullivan and Second Baseman Paul Dobkowski each contributed four hits apiece to the 22-hit Artesia attack of loser Herb Dwire and Ollie Ortiz, who relieved him in the seventh.

Goodell gave way to Gilbert Johnson with the bases loaded in the eighth. Johnson hurled fine relief ball, forcing a double play in the eighth and striking out the side in the ninth.

Artesia Third Baseman Charlie Watts continued his phenomenal ability to get on base Tuesday night, getting two hits in three official trips, walking three times and reaching first on an error. Watts has reached first the last 13 times up, having gained the initial base seven times Monday night.

Second Baseman Eddie Gavilan got three singles in four trips for the losers.

The victory was the fourth in seven starts and Dwire's first loss in three outings.

Dallas Makes Biggest Trade in Texas League's History as Dick Burnett Tries Pull From Cellar

DALLAS — The biggest trade in Texas league history, involving five players and $20,000, brought Les Fleming and Jim "Buzz" Clarkson, Beaumont's league-leading sluggers, to Dallas today as Eagle owner Dick Burnett pulled out all stops in his effort to get his club out of the cellar.

In exchange for Fleming, the league's top batter with 377 and Clarkson, who leads in home runs and runs batted in, Burnett sent Bent Taylor, first baseman; Eddie Knoblauch, center fielder, and Howie Anderson, pitcher, of the anemic Eagles to Beaumont along with $20,000.

League officials and old-timers said they did not recall a trade of such proportions in the past although individual players have sold for more than $20,000.

Taylor was hitting only 256 and Knoblauch .281, while Anderson had won two games while losing seven as he appeared in 20 games this season.

Fleming, who has 98 hits in 260 times at bat, including 15 doubles, two triples, 12 home runs and 57 runs batted in, was deposed as manager of Beaumont only last week although he continued with the club as a player. Mickey Livingston, former Shreveport manager, became the Beaumont skipper.

Clarkson is the big Negro whose hitting 330 and 87 runs batted in figured in driving Dallas to the pennant and Dixie Series championship last year. But he was traded during the winter to Beaumont for pitcher Eddie Koniek. Burnett also paid Beaumont $7500 but Koniek never could click with Dallas and was sent to Galveston of the Big State league. Meanwhile, Clarkson was clouting .339, hitting 12 doubles, one triple, 20 home runs and had 77 runs batted in.

Beaumont, which drew only 64,134 for 47 games in the first half this season, was in need of cash to continue and the $20,000 will be a windfall. Even with Fleming and Clarkson, Beaumont is next to last in the league race.

Blows to Head Ordinarily Not Injurious to Boxers

By RENNIE TAYLOR Associated Press Science Reporter SAN FRANCISCO — Blows to the head in "well conducted fights" apparently do not produce either punch drunkenness or other brain damage, two New York university physicians reported today.

In cooperation with the New York state boxing commission, Dr. Harry A. Kaplan and Dr. Jefferson Browder studied the brain waves of 1043 professional boxers.

Brain wave patterns changed little over long periods, the two physicians told the American Medical Assn.

If a boxer is punch drunk, they added, the chances are that hereditary factors play a greater role in his condition than the punishment he has taken in the head.

Brain wave records failed to show any significant change in boxers who lost their fights by knockouts, the doctors said.

They did confirm, however, that some fighters are more susceptible to head blows than others. These are the types referred to as having "glass jaws." They just can't take blows in that area, but this does not mean they suffer greater brain damage than others.

Most head damage in boxing bouts comes from backward falls after blows to the head, Kaplan and Browder said, but added that these occurrences are very infrequent.

Loss of consciousness by a boxer frequently comes from blows to parts of the body other than the head, they reported.

Seven-Run Roswell Explosion Defeats San Angelo 11 to 5

ROSWELL — A seven-run explosion in the sixth inning enabled the Roswell Rockets to hand San Angelo an 11-5 licking here tonight.

The big frame was highlighted by Joe Bauman's 30th home run of the year. It came with one mate aboard.

Up until the sixth the veteran Audie Malone was coasting behind a 3-1 lead amassed after two innings. But in the sixth Roswell used six hits, three walks, an error and a sacrifice fly to do the damage.

Tom Agne relieved Malone and finished.

The Colts chased Rocket starter Pete Pestana in the third, with Gene Nalley relieving Nalley with the remainder of the way and received credit for his sixth win.

Dub Graves RBI single and a wild pitch accounted for the first two San Angelo runs and an error of omission by shortstop Ossie Alvarez sent Bob Gonsalves home in the first.

In the ninth walks to Gonsalves and Jim Morgan plus singles by Manny Temes and Agne accounted for the final Colt runs. San Angelo 210 000 002 — 5 11 3 Roswell 100 007 03x — 11 11 3 Malone, Agne (6) and Peacock; Pestana, Nalley (3) and Bell.

Soto Rations Out Two Hits As Midland Sinks Broncs 4-1 man Pat Waters backed up Ramarico Soto's two-hit pitching with all the batting support he needed as he batted in three runs in Midland's series sweeping 4-1 win over Big Spring here tonight.

Waters struck a single in the fifth behind Scooter Hughes' double to break up a 1-1 tie and in the seventh led the fray with a home run over the right field wall with Hughes, who had reached first on Pete Simone's error, on first.

Earlier Waters brought home the game's run when Charles Terrasi singled with two on and shortstop Simone's desperate throw to cut down Waters at third went wild.

Big Spring's only run off Soto came in the fourth when Tony Martinez tripled and rode home on Julio de la Torre's hoist to right.

In winning their sixth in a row the Indians cooled off the Longhorn league's hottest pitcher, handing Bert Baez his second defeat in 12 decisions.

Soto gave up only two hits, the second coming in the eighth, a weak roller to short. Outside of that the Broncs were helpless as the Cuban fireballer hung up his fifth win in six verdicts.

NuMex Edges Russell, Guy Downs CVE

NuMex sneaked by Russell 11-9 and Guy Chevrolet did the same thing with CVE 11-10 yesterday in Little League play behind NuMex park.

Davis and Mitchell composed NuMex' winning battery, downing Foster and Whetsell for the Russell nine. The game was called after 4 1/2 innings, due to wind and dust. The NuMexers garnered their 11 runs on six hits, bringing five home in the big third inning. Russell's netted nine runs on seven hits.

CVE suffered their first defeat at the hands of the Guy Chevrolet squad. Cabasuella went the distance on the mound for the electric team. Stinnett relieved Esquivel behind the plate. The battery for the Chevrolet team was not available.

Thursday the First National bank will meet Guy Chevrolet and the Elks will take on the NuMex crew.

In Texas League Oriole Manager Feels for Turley

BALTIMORE — The ways the Baltimore Orioles find to lose games are bad enough for him, but Manager Jimmy Dykes thinks "it's a crime" that they can't at least help pitcher Bob Turley win some more.

"He's pitching great baseball," said Dykes after Turley took his seventh loss last night because one run wasn't enough for him to beat the Boston Red Sox.

"Sure, he got himself into trouble when he gave out a walk that was followed by a triple in the eighth to tie the score," said Dykes. "But any pitcher, no matter how good he is, should be allowed some leeway.

"Turley can't make a mistake. If he does, he's beat, because we can't score for him. He's got to be perfect every time or lose.

"That isn't fair."

Over Two Million Casualties Counted in '53 Wreck Toll

The worst automobile accident toll in the nation's history — more than 2 million casualties — was recorded in 1953, according to figures released today by the Travelers Insurance Companies.

Traffic deaths totaled 38,500, an increase of 900 over 1952. The injury count reached 2,140,000 compared to 2,090,000 for the previous year.

The totals are statistics from "The Passing Scene," 20th in an annual series of traffic accident data booklets published by The Travelers. Accident facts from every state in the country are collected and analyzed for the publication by Travelers statisticians.

Refreshments of gingerbread and punch were served to seven members and two guests.

Excessive speed was the most dangerous driving mistake in 1953. Speed killed 13,870 persons and injured more than 600,000. Drivers under 25 years of age were involved in almost 25 per cent of the year's fatal accidents although they constitute only about 15 per cent of the total of all drivers.

Week-end crashes accounted for 15,800 killed and 800,000 hurt during 1953. Forty-one per cent of the deaths and 36 per cent of the injuries occurred on Saturdays and Sundays last year.

The pedestrian record reflected the third consecutive year of improvement. Booklet figures show pedestrian casualties reduced by 50 to 8,600. Crossing between intersections, "jay walking," still is the chief cause of pedestrian deaths and injuries.

Eighty per cent of vehicles involved in fatal accidents were traveling straight ahead. Saturday was the most dangerous day of the week to drive. 1953 was the fourth consecutive year of increase in the death toll.

MORE STOCK SLAUGHTERED

LAS CRUCES — The agriculture department reports that three out of four 1953 auto accidents happened to passenger cars driving in clear weather on dry roads.

Entomologists say that three-quarters of the known kinds of animals are insects.

Congratulations to New Stores

TWO ESTABLISHED Artesia business houses are scheduled to hold grand openings in new locations tomorrow—Nelson's Appliance and Artesia Shoe Store.

Nelson's is operated by Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Nelson, Artesia Shoe by Tommy Brownlee.

Both buildings are so well designed with modern fronts as to be a high compliment to the community and perhaps, pace-setters for future modernizations in the city.

The go-ahead for these buildings on the part of store owners reflects their confidence, not only in the future of their own business houses, but in the continued well-being and growth of Artesia.

Both buildings feature innovations for their type of businesses; Nelson's, for instance, has a television viewing room and a model kitchen inside its new building, which is adjacent to Landsun theater. Brownlee's encloses the largest floor space of any shoe-handling business in the city, has striking display windows, and a tremendous amount of shelf space for ready availability of hundreds of shoes.

Both buildings, one on the 300 block of W. Main (Artesia Shoe), the other in 400 block (Nelson's), measurably brighten the blocks in which they have been built.

We are certain these store owners will find, as others have and others must, that housing a business in a building designed for display, and customer convenience will have a salutary effect on business.

Toggerly Shop was the first business this year, and Brainard-Corbin will be the next, to move into new locations. Others are to follow at a later date this year.

Each of these businesses deserve the warmest congratulations.

Hagerman Meeting Hears Stockton Urge Water Board

HAGERMAN — Alvin Stockton Republican candidate for governor, wants a permanent state water commission set up.

He said the gravity of New Mexico's water shortage makes such a group necessary.

Speaking to the Chaves County Farm Bureau at Hagerman, he said he advocates five other actions. They are:

- 1. Repeal of the pre-primary convention law.
- 2. Enactment of an effective registration law.
- 3. General use of voting machines with possible state aid for smaller communities in buying the machines.
- 4. Correction of ballot form and elimination of the lever on the left side of voting machines to make it possible for voters to register choices for individual candidates instead of for "incompetent men who might be placed on a ticket headed by a popular candidate."

Enactment of legislation empowering the corporation commission to enforce its decisions and prevent utility companies from collecting rate increases which the commission has disapproved.

Mercury Shatters Weather Records At Farmington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Mercury busted to a high of 103 degrees Wednesday in Farmington to shatter a long-standing record there and hang up a new high mark for that northwestern New Mexico city.

The all-time temperature mark fell as unseasonal warm weather continued to parch most of the state, broken only by a few scattered thundershowers — widely scattered and very light for the most part — over the central and southern sections.

Zuni was the only other district weather bureau reporting station to report 100 or above yesterday with an even century mark. Light showers kept marks down in many places.

Santa Fe reported 32 inch moisture yesterday with Roswell getting 0.3 inch. There was an official reading of a trace at Albuquerque, but the north valley got about half an inch. Skies remained clear to partly cloudy.

Albuquerque was high over night with 73 degrees and Otto was low overnight with 52 degrees.

The weather bureau said unseasonable temperatures would continue today, broken by only a few very widely scattered thundershowers.

Chamber Presses Racket-Busting Program for City

A service most people in the city don't realize they are getting is a protective arm of the Artesia Chamber of Commerce in warding off the area would be quick profit makers and promoters out for a legal but immoral "buck."

The chamber keeps a file on nearly all promotion schemes which could possibly come into the city. It also makes promoters register in the C of C office if they do come in.

All "outside" organizations working in the community find it necessary to check in at the office before they are officially recognized as healthy businesses and not loop-hole schemes.

However, a chamber spokesman said if more people realized that this service is offered for their protection, Artesia would quickly build up a name as a tough place to do any behind-the-back operation.

Excavators Unearth What May Be Second Oldest Spanish Fortress Known in Continental U.S.

By ROBERT A. BARNES
SANTA FE — Excavators have uncovered on a hill overlooking Santa Fe the remains of what may be the second oldest Spanish fortification in the United States.

Its age is put at someplace in the vicinity of two centuries by Bruce T. Ellis of the laboratory of anthropology, who heads a three-man team doing the work.

"The building seems to have been an outpost fort," Ellis said. "Used originally as a fort, it later apparently became a Spanish jail. Some writers refer to it in the Mexican period as a customs house, but I doubt that is the case."

When the Americans came in and built Fort Marcy a few hundred yards above it, the structure was used as a guardhouse for American soldiers, some writers say.

Only a mound was visible when Ellis began excavating 10 days ago. Now the heavy foundations are open to view, revealing most of the floor layout.

In addition to the old fort itself, the workers found indications of an Indian ruin which Ellis said apparently had been deserted for some time before the Spanish came in sometime in the 1700s to build the fort. The fort was built on top of the abandoned ruin.

Large quantities of pottery indicate the Indians occupied the site roughly between 1200 and 1350. Among the finds was an infant burial, accompanied by a few shell beads and a carved red stone ornament.

"The building was rectangular with two bastion towers at the corners," Ellis said. "There was a long center hall with two rooms on either side plus the two bastion rooms. The walls were of two to three-foot thick adobe, with the foundation or rough stone."

The Palace of the Governors was built before the fort, sometime prior to 1680. Ellis said the fort was on the hill which is highest immediately around the plaza area, indicating the Spanish soldiers situated it to help command the vicinity. It is referred to in some of the early writings as Garita, which means fort or prison.

"It is of interest that, although there are casual mentions of the fort throughout literature of the area, it is never described except by some of the oldtimers who remember the way it looked when the walls were up," Ellis said.

"There is still doubt about the exact building date, but we expect eventually to learn the exact date."

One historian says it is the second oldest Spanish fortification in the country, but that has not yet been confirmed. The Palace of the Governors was not primarily a fort, serving mainly as the seat of government.

Ellis said traces of a door were set down in the floor were found, as was the outline of what was a fireplace. Handmade iron nails as used by the Spanish were found by the diggers.

Photographs taken in the 1880s show the roof still on, Ellis said. He has other pictures taken from 1900 on showing the once-formidable building in various stages of deterioration.

The excavation by Ellis and two graduate students from the University of New Mexico was supported by the Historical Society of New Mexico. Ellis said the job would be finished today.

Peace Officers to Testify In Vaughan Murder Trial

LORDBURG — Three peace officers were expected to be among state witnesses called today in the trial of Marvin Vaughan, 33, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., charged with murder.
The witnesses were Sheriff Dick Richards of Hidalgo county, Sheriff Ed Darnell of Midland, Texas, and Capt. Billy Patterson of the Midland police force. The latter two arrested Vaughan in Midland. Vaughan is accused of shooting to death Amos Burgess, 49, unemployed Arizona lumberjack, Feb. 13.
Mrs. Burgess was the only witness called yesterday. She told the jury of six men and six women she was afraid to ask anyone for help while she was being taken from Lordsburg to Midland, Texas, by Vaughan.
"I was afraid some innocent person might get hurt," she said. "I was scared. When I reached Midland, I was just about at the breaking point."
She remained calm on the stand most of the time, but occasionally she became excited under questioning by defense attorney R. W. Tunnell of Lordsburg. He declared when he began cross-examination, "The defense will prove that Marvin Vaughan did not fire the gun."
Guided by Mrs. Burgess, officers found the body four days after the shooting. It was hidden in brush near where she told them she had been sexually attacked by Vaughan. The body was about 75 steps from the right of way of U. S. 70-80 about 7 1/2 miles east of Lordsburg.
Mrs. Burgess repeated her story of being forced to accompany Vaughan and his wife on to Midland, where, on Feb. 15, she slipped a note to a service station attendant who summoned police.

Ex-POWs Face August 1 Limit On Claim Filing

The deadline for claims for benefits arising from former prisoners of war or their survivors has been extended to Aug. 1, the veterans administration reminded those concerned today.
The deadline was originally set for April but was extended due to many deserving persons not knowing of the arrangements. The law pertaining to the benefit-claim has to do with persons who were subject to treatment while being held prisoner that was outlawed by the Geneva convention. Such persons, or their survivors, are entitled to set benefits if their claim is valid.
Claims can be filed through the local VA representative. They go to Washington to be passed on finally by the war claims commission. Those who have already filed need not file again, it was stressed here.

Congratulations to New Stores

TWO ESTABLISHED Artesia business houses are scheduled to hold grand openings in new locations tomorrow—Nelson's Appliance and Artesia Shoe Store.

Nelson's is operated by Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Nelson. Artesia Shoe by Tommy Brownlee.

Both buildings are so well designed with modern fronts as to be a high compliment to the community and perhaps, pace-setters for future modernizations in the city.

The go-ahead for these buildings on the part of store owners reflects their confidence, not only in the future of their own business houses, but in the continued well-being and growth of Artesia.

Both buildings feature innovations for their type of businesses; Nelson's, for instance, has a television viewing room and a model kitchen inside its new building, which is adjacent to Lansdown theater. Brownlee's encloses the largest floor space of any shoe-handling business in the city, has striking display windows, and a tremendous amount of shelf space for ready availability of hundreds of shoes.

Both buildings, one on the 300 block of W. Main (Artesia Shoe), the other in 400 block (Nelson's), measurably brighten the blocks in which they have been built.

We are certain these store owners will find, as others have and others must, that housing a business in a building designed for display, and customer convenience will have a salutary effect on business.

Toggery Shop was the first business this year, and Brainard-Corbin will be the next, to move into new locations. Others are to follow at a later date this year.

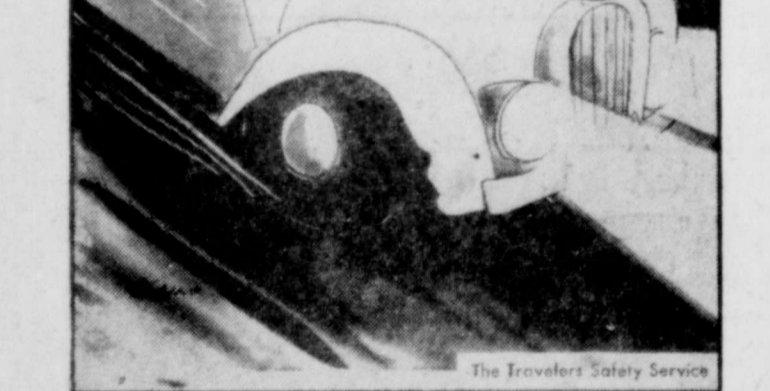

Each of these businesses deserve the warmest congratulations.

Mercury Shatters Weather Records At Farmington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Mercury busted to a high of 103 degrees Wednesday in Farmington to shatter a long-standing record there and hang up a new high mark for that northwestern New Mexico city.

The all-time temperature mark fell as unseasonal warm weather continued to parch most of the state, broken only by a few scattered thundershowers — widely scattered and very light for the most part—over the central and southern sections.

Zuni was the only other district weather bureau reporting station to report 100 or above yesterday with an even century mark. Light showers kept marks down in many places.

Santa Fe reported .32 inch moisture yesterday with Roswell getting .03 inch. There was an official reading of a trace at Albuquerque, but the north valley got about half an inch. Skies remained clear to partly cloudy.

Albuquerque was high over night with 73 degrees and Otto was low overnight with 52 degrees.

The weather bureau said unseasonable temperatures would continue today, broken by only a few very widely scattered thundershowers.

Chamber Presses Racket-Busting Program for City

A service most people in the city don't realize they are getting is a protective arm of the Artesia Chamber of Commerce in warding off the area would-be quick profit makers and promoters out for a legal but immoral "buck."

The chamber keeps a file on nearly all promotion schemes which could possibly come into the city. It also makes promoters register in the C of C office if they do come in.

All "outside" organizations working in the community find it necessary to check in at the office before they are officially recognized as healthy businesses and not loop-hole schemes.

However, a chamber spokesman said if more people realized that this service is offered for their protection, Artesia would quickly build up a name as a tough place to do any behind-the-back operation.

Excavators Unearth What May Be Second Oldest Spanish Fortress Known in Continental U.S.

By ROBERT A. BARNES
SANTA FE — Excavators have uncovered on a hill overlooking Santa Fe the remains of what may be the second oldest Spanish fortification in the United States.

Its age is put at someplace in the vicinity of two centuries by Bruce T. Ellis of the laboratory of anthropology, who heads a three-man team doing the work.

"The building seems to have been an outpost fort," Ellis said. "Used originally as a fort, it later apparently became a Spanish jail. Some writers refer to it in the Mexican period as a customs house, but I doubt that is the case."

When the Americans came in and built Fort Marcy a few hundred yards above it, the structure was used as a guardhouse for American soldiers, some writers say.

Only a mound was visible when Ellis began excavating 10 days ago. Now the heavy foundations are open to view, revealing most of the floor layout.

In addition to the old fort itself, the workers found indications of an Indian ruin which Ellis said apparently had been deserted for some time before the Spanish came in sometime in the 1700s to build the fort. The fort was built on top of the abandoned ruin.

Large quantities of pottery indicate the Indians occupied the site roughly between 1200 and 1350. Among the finds was an infant burial, accompanied by a few shell beads and a carved red stone ornament.

"The building was rectangular with two bastion towers at the corners," Ellis said. "There was a long center hall with two rooms on either side plus the two bastion rooms. The walls were of two to three-foot thick adobe, with the foundation or rough stones."

The Palace of the Goernors was built before the fort, sometime prior to 1680. Ellis said the fort was on the hill which is highest immediately around the plaza area, indicating the Spanish soldiers situated it to help command the vicinity. It is referred to in some of the early writings as Garita, which means fort or prison.

"It is of interest that, although there are casual mentions of the fort throughout literature of the area, it is never described except by some of the oldtimers who remember the way it looked when the walls were up," Ellis said.

"There is still doubt about the exact building date, but we expect eventually to learn the exact date."

One historian says it is the second oldest Spanish fortification in the country, but that has not yet been confirmed. The Palace of the Governors was not primarily a fort, serving mainly as the seat of government.

Ellis said traces of a door wall set down in the floor were found, as was the outline of what was a fireplace. Handmade iron nails as used by the Spanish were found by the diggers.

Photographs taken in the 1880s show the roof still on, Ellis said. He has other pictures taken from 1900 on showing the once-formidable building in various stages of deterioration.

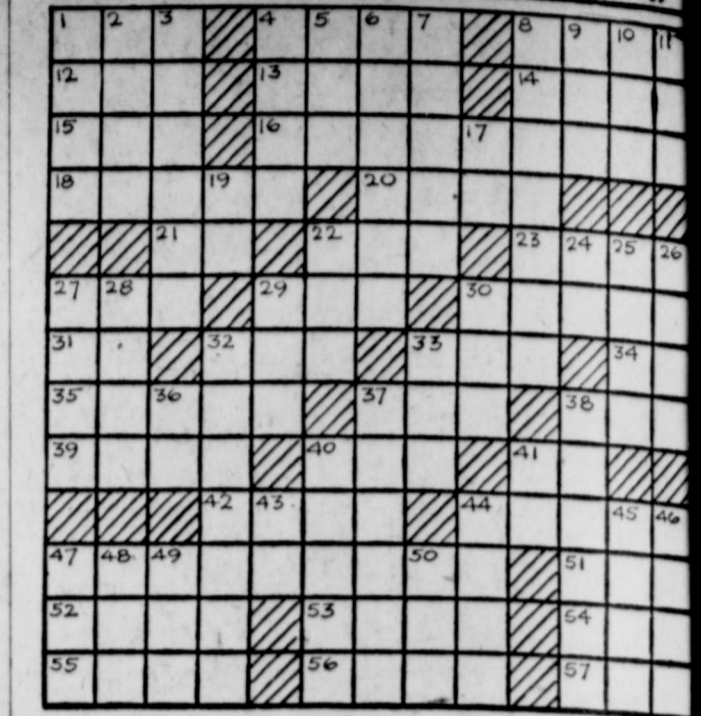

The excavation by Ellis and two graduate students from the University of New Mexico was supported by the Historical Society of New Mexico. Ellis said the job would be finished today.

Peace Officers to Testify In Vaughan Murder Trial

Three peace officers were expected to be among state witnesses called today in the trial of Marvin Vaughan, 33, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., charged with murder.

The witnesses were Sheriff Dick Richards of Hidalgo county, Sheriff Ed Darnell of Midland, Texas, and Capt. Billy Patterson of the Midland police force. The latter two arrested Vaughan in Midland.

Vaughan is accused of shooting to death Amos Burgess, 49, unemployed Arizona lumberjack, Feb. 13.

Mrs. Burgess was the only witness called yesterday. She told the jury of six men and six women she was afraid to ask anyone for help while she was being taken from Lordsburg to Midland, Texas, by Vaughan.

"I was afraid some innocent person might get hurt," she said. "I was scared. When I reached Midland, I was just about at the breaking point."

She remained calm on the stand most of the time, but occasionally she became excited under questioning by defense attorney R. W. Tunnell of Lordsburg. He declared when he began cross-examination, "The defense will prove that Marvin Vaughan did not fire the gun."

Guided by Mrs. Burgess, officers found the body four days after the shooting. It was hidden in brush near where she told them she had been sexually attacked by Vaughan. The body was about 75 steps from the right of way of U. S. 70-80 about 7½ miles east of Lordsburg.

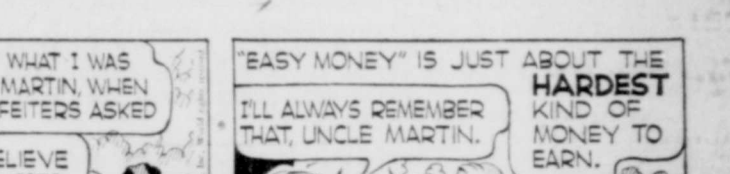

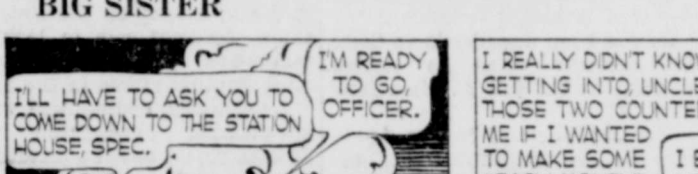

Mrs. Burgess repeated her story of being forced to accompany Vaughan and his wife on to Midland, where, on Feb. 15, she slipped a note to a service station attendant who summoned police.

Nelson Appliance Opening Slated Thursday

Free Prizes, Store Tours Top Opening

Free prizes and a glimpse of a modern appliance store will feature the grand opening of Nelson Appliance company, 412 W. Main, scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The store will be open from 7:30 a. m. until 8:30 p. m. all three days, giving curious and prospective customers plenty of time to look around and register for the two grand prizes to be given away Saturday evening at 7.

The prizes are a Motorola television set and a Necchi sewing machine, both sparkling new. It will be possible to win one of the prizes only if you attend one of the grand opening days.

Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Nelson, owners and operators of the store, will be on hand to greet and show about visitors. Mrs. Ellen Phillips, Raymond Bennett and Dennis Wright of the service and delivery department round out the complement of personnel.

New Nelson Store Boasts Pioneering Customer Features

The new Nelson Appliance Co., having its grand opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday, has two unique features which set it apart from the common appliance store.

In the rear corner is a permanent kitchen display, complete with dishwasher, which is automatic in every detail. Ask one of the Denzil Nelsons, or Mrs. Ellen Phillips to show you through.

In the other corner, a separate room, complete with acoustic tile, is set off for TV set buyers to look at their prospective set in a setting similar to the home living room. A divan, a rug on the floor, and three different sets to look over make this installation one of the most unusual stores in the area.

Shoes Need Regular Care,

Shoes Need Regular Care, Especially in Hot Summer

Timely tips on the care of shoes, especially in summer when leather-harming perspiration is most serious, comes from the staff of Artesia Shoe Store.

Perspiration and constant wear are hard on leather, and so it's good for everyone to have at least two pair of shoes for general use so one pair can "rest" between wearings, points out Tommy Brownlee, Artesia Shoe Store owner. Leather has the good feature of regaining its shape if allowed to rest and dry out naturally, he points out.

Shoe trees or shoe forms the same shape as the shoe should be used. Properly treed shoes hold their shape longer and look better. Poorly fitting trees harm shoes more than none at all.

Shoes should be kept on shoe racks, in shoe bags or on shelves away from dust. This will not only save unnecessary cleaning but will keep the shoes looking better, long, er.

An abundance of light will afford the customer the opportunity of viewing his purchase under ideal conditions—folks like to see row things look in daylight. The lighting stimulates sunlight.

Shelves line three of the walls, and there are storage areas on the east side and in the rear of the store, where Brownlee will maintain his office.

On-the-floor mirrors afford the customer a view of how his shoe looks.

Brownlee said that the Artesia Shoe Store will afford the widest variety of goods comparable to that offered in the largest cities.

The day-long opening event introduces Artesia Shoe Store's modern new building to the general public. Once occupied by Sprouse-Reitz Co., the building has been redesigned through Artesia Paint & Glass and re-built by Charles Brown, general contractor.

In a statement Brownlee said today:

"Our many friends have made possible our move to this new location. Through their patronage we are able to offer a bigger, better, more beautiful store. It is through them we are able to grow with Artesia."

Paraffin from peatbogs, potash formerly from Germany, and rosin, tar, and turpentine from the coniferous trees of the Carolinas. Zinc dust as deoxidizer and lard for lubricators. Artesians Take Part in Churches Of God Conclave

Rev. Brady Dennis, state overseer of the Churches of God of New Mexico, is supervising a camp meeting and state convention which started in Roswell Tuesday.

The meetings will be held at the Church of God at S. Kentucky and W. Forrest streets. Convention days are Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 22 through 26. Meetings are held all day beginning at 9 a. m. Evening services begin at 7 p. m. and are given by Rev. C. R. Spain, overseer of the Churches of God of Indiana.

Rev. H. L. Chesser, general secretary-treasurer of the churches of God, is at the convention representing headquarters from Cleveland, Tenn.

Newell Crouch, Artesia, is serving on the publications committee for the convention.

Local pastor, Rev. J. E. Mitchell, is to speak at the services at 11:15 Thursday morning.

Personal Mention

Mrs. J. F. Hoover, 503 S. Fifth, is confined to her home with illness. She has been sick a week. Mr. Hoover is with Featherstone Drilling Co., which is drilling for potash near Carlsbad.

Mrs. G. C. Falrey of Odessa, Texas arrived Friday to visit her two sons, J. A. Falrey and G. E. (Pat) and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thompson returned Sunday from a five day trip to Oklahoma. While there they visited the Will Rogers memorial at Claremore.

Heels should be repaired as soon as they become crooked, says Artesia Shoe Store. An uneven heel soon twists a shoe out of shape. Such shoes neither protect the feet nor properly support the body.

A husband and wife were in sharp disagreement over what suit he should purchase. Finally, the wife relented saying: "Well, go ahead and please yourself. After all, you're the one who will wear it."

In a meek voice the man replied: "Well, dear, I did figure that I'd probably be wearing the coat and vest anyway."

Artesia Shoe Opening Slated Thursday

THE ARTESIA ADVOCATE

ARTESIA, NEW MEXICO, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23, 1954

New Artesia Shoe Store Building Is Long Way From Old Fashioned General Store Predecessor

Artesia Shoe Store's new location is a long way from the non-specialized and today old "general merchandise" store of the past which sold everything from dry goods to penny licorice sticks. The trend has been toward a specialized store, special equipment and specially-trained personnel to afford the customer the best of service.

Today's shoe store is one devoted to the sale only of shoes and attendant merchandise—shoe, hosiery, and handbags for the ladies. There are accompaniments which include shoe polish and brushes. The new Artesia Shoe Store contains some 300 square feet more of selling space than did the former location, Tommy Brownlee, owner, explained, and is fully departmentalized. Generally, the three departments are for the men, women and the children.

An innovation will be the addition at a later date, of a play area for children, to keep the toddlers occupied while their parents make (Continued on Page 8)

Footwear Needs Special Care If It Becomes Wet

Rubbers and galoshes protect shoes and should be worn in rain and wet weather. When shoes get wet, care must be taken in drying them to preserve their shape and pliability of the leather.

Moisture draws the oil from the leather, making it hard, brittle, and uncomfortable.

If shoes become soaked, use shoe trees or stuff with paper and allow to stand at room temperature for 12 to 14 hours before wearing a gain.

Damp shoes should not be placed near stoves, radiators, heat, outlets, or on any surface having heat greater than the hand can bear.

Heat is very injurious to leather, causing it to crack or break.

Shoes should be polished only after thoroughly dry. The uppers on work shoes or boots can be oiled with castor or neetsfoot oil or any other of several commercial products on the market for this purpose.

Protection for Suede, Nappy Leathers Told

Suedes and nappy leathers can be protected from the friction of rubbers and galoshes by wearing the little heelless socks which are now being manufactured, reminds Artesia Shoe Store.

These gadgets are also convenient as shoe covers when traveling or when packing away dainty evening slippers.

City's Friendliness Drew Brownlee

Thomas W. "Tommy" Brownlee, owner-operator of Artesia Shoe Store here, was attracted to Artesia by the "friendly people and the progressiveness of the city itself," he said here in an interview attending the opening of his new store's location.

A native of Kansas, Brownlee, 32 year-old ex-Air Force pilot, has lived in Artesia since Jan. 20, 1950, when he came from Los Alamos, N. M. to take over the store here. He had left Kansas in 1937 to move to Alamosa, Colo., to finish out two years of high school. At Adams State, he had four years of college before entering the service in World War II. He piloted a ship in the European Theatre of Operations in the troop carrier command, the 52nd Wing, 313th Group, 47th Squadron.

He took part in the invasion of Sicily and Italy before returning to England where his outfit dropped troops in Holland and on the Rhine in the fateful drive into the heart of Germany.

Upon his discharge from the service in September of 1945, he married. The Brownlees have two boys, John Charles, age 5, and James Richard, two.

He is a member of the Presbyterian church, Lions club and Elks, and is a member of the local American Legion.

As to the move to the new location, Brownlee explained: "We simply needed more room. The store was growing, and we had the privilege of growing with Artesia. Our faith in Artesia has been justified, and we hope to continue to warrant the goodwill of the public."

TOMMY BROWNLEE

Cutting of Ribbon Slated In Morning

Artesia Shoe Store will highlight its grand opening in a new location Thursday with special ribbon-cutting ceremonies attended by city and civic officials.

Owner-manager Tommy Brownlee has announced ribbon-cutting for the new store at 321 W. Main will begin at 10 a. m.

Mayor W. H. Yeager and Chamber of Commerce Mgr. Paul W. Cott will participate in the ceremonies.

An on-the-spot broadcast will be made by Dave Button, radio station KSPV manager, through the station's remote broadcast facilities.

To mark the opening, free gifts will be presented all attending opening day festivities at the store tomorrow, Brownlee said.

Gifts include flowers for the ladies, special gifts for men, and treats for youngsters.

Officials of International Shoe (Continued on Page 8)

Shoe Material Imported From Across World

Material for shoes comes from all over the world, says Artesia Shoe Store, making shoes one of the most cosmopolitan products in the world.

Hides and skins come from all the countries on the earth. Before World War II, rubber came from the tropical jungles of Africa and South America, Ceylon, and Malay.

We again are receiving crude rubber imported in sufficient quantities to satisfy our requirements today. Cotton from our Southland and from Sea Islands and Egypt. Silk spun by the worms of Italy and elsewhere. Flax from the emerald hills of Ireland. Tannins from all the continents and hemispheres. Metals (steel, iron, brass, zinc, tin, copper) from the mines of the earth.

Coal from the anthracite mines of Pennsylvania to the smoky bituminous fields of Illinois. Wood pulp for carton and container (Continued on Page 8)

Cleaners, Dressings, Polish Keep Shoes in Good Condition

Cleaners, dressings, and polishes are available at Artesia Shoe Store for every type of leather and fabric.

Cream or liquid dressing of neutral color is best for kid, reptile, calf, kangaroo, and other lightweight, colored leather since it cleans and dresses the shoe at the same time. Heavyweight, smooth leather, used in men's shoes, should be cleaned and polished with paste polish, which gives a higher luster.

Many people prefer the time-tested custom of a light application of vaseline, then rubbing their patent leather shoes. Let's not forget that sudden temperature changes tend to cause patent leather to crack for instance, don't put patent leather shoes in a cold closet in winter. Rosite, or oil treated leather, found in some of our men's top grade boots and heavy work shoes, can be best preserved by occasional applications of mineral seal or castor oil.

Spots can be removed from fabric shoes by using cleaning fluid. Directions given with the product should be followed carefully. Usually a light rubbing with a swab is sufficient. Oil dressing or waterproof polishes keep the surface clean and resistant to moisture. Some liquid polishes and dyes contain n-rosbenzene which is poisonous. These polishes and dyes may cause illness or even death if they are applied while shoes are on the feet. When they are used, shoes always should be dried thoroughly before they are worn.

Clovis 6-4 after defeating the Pioneers 7-4.

The Amarillo win stopped the Pampa steamroller at nine games but the Oilers still control the league by a slim seven percentage points. Plainview was stopped at six games.

Third-place Albuquerque whipped Lubock 5-4 as the Dukes halted a 13th-inning Hubber dally one run short of the tie. Abilene had little trouble in defeating Berger 20-5.

At Pampa, Gold ox pitcher Ray Faust pitched a neat six-hitter in putting down Pampa batters in order most of the way.

The Amarillo victory actually was speled out in the second inning as the Gold Sox pounded away at Pampa pitcher Jim Lemons for five runs.

Clovis set up its nightcap at Plainview with a big three-run first inning and never was headed. The win went to Ernie Sadler, who pitched fine relief ball in protecting the Clovis lead.

In the opener, Jack Venable, who went all the way for Clovis, gave up three runs in the final seventh to hand Plainview the victory.

The Albuquerque 13-inning win at Lubbock came on a three-run homer by Johnny Walker in the top of the 13th and was barely enough as Lubbock came back in the bottom of the frame with two tallies.

It was a runaway for Abilene in a wild game which saw a total of 25 runs and 31 hits.

Flam, Rosewall To Clash Today In Wimbledon

By TOM OCHILTREE
WIMBLEDON, England — One Dangerous but slightly rusty Herb Flam today becomes the first American in the current Wimbledon tennis tournament to clash

Despite Five Million Investment, Baltimore Continues Drop, Loses Ninth in Row, 3-1

By BEN PHLEGAR

Browns or Orioles, St. Louis or Baltimore, the sad fact seems to be that it's a last-place ball club. More than five million dollars have been spent on the franchise since year ago today. The net result in the won-and-lost columns is a game and a half improvement.

The Orioles have won 22 games and lost 42. A year ago today the Browns stood 21-44.

The Browns of 1953 set a major league record for consecutive losses at home. Starting June 3 they dropped 20 games in St. Louis before finally winning on July 7.

The Orioles of 1954 lost their ninth in a row last night 3-1, to Boston in 12 innings. It also was their ninth straight loss at home.

And they are in last place, just like last year.

The only outstanding difference is in the crowds. The Browns lost in privacy. More than 130,000 with one of the top Australians. The crew-ut Beverly Hills, Calif. youngster goes against third-seeded Ken Rosewall in a second-round match on the famed center court.

This is a tough assignment for Flam, a semifinalist here two years ago, and he knows it. But it also is a big opportunity for an unseeded player to polish off a high-ranked performer.

Flam is a seaman in the Navy now and came here on a 30-day leave. At his San Francisco station, he played some week-end tennis but has been out of tough tournament competition for some time.

Still, if he can come up with a victory, he will add a big splash of prestige to the American contingent which is engaging in a personal battle with the Australians for the title.

Two other second-round matches also will occupy the attention of the experts. Top-seeded Tony Trabert of Cincinnati opposes Owen Williams of South Africa, and Lewis Hoad of Australia plays Ignacy Tloczynski, a Pole now living in England.

The Giants trailed 2-1 going into the last of the ninth. A walk, a sacrifice, a single by Don Mueller and a double by Willie Mays tied have suffered with the Orioles through their last nine defeats.

But the boos have started to echo in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. Civic pride is beginning to wilt.

The Orioles are 22 1/2 games behind the Cleveland Indians, who lost one game of their league lead last night. The Indians bowed to Philadelphia 4-1 while Chicago was beating Washington 7-5. This moved the White Sox within three games of the Indians.

The New York Yankees lost at Detroit 4-1 and stayed five games behind.

In the National League, the New York Giants continued to come up with hair-raising finishes, shading Milwaukee 3-2 on a bases-loaded single by Monte Irvin with two out in the ninth. Cincinnati mauled Brooklyn 13-1 for its fifth straight victory. Philadelphia defeated Chicago 4-1. St. Louis and the Pirates were rained out in Pittsburgh.

Baltimore's extra-inning loss came when Bob Turley walked Harry Agganis, the first man to face him in the 12th. Sammy White doubled and Billy Conso singled.

Al Sima did his ex-Chicago teammates a good turn by pitching the Athletics to a four-hit victory over Cleveland. It was the first victory for the left-hander, who was traded 10 days ago. He drove in two of the A's four runs off Early Wynn, who suffered his fifth loss.

Virgil Trucks joined Bob Keegan as the American league's 10-game winners in Chicago's victory over Washington. He needed help from Morrie Martin, however, as the Senators fought back from a 7-0 deficit.

Manager Casey Stengel was bounced for arguing for the third time this year as his Yankees bowed to Steve Gromek and the Detroit Tigers. The Yanks collected eight hits but couldn't score until the eighth.

The Giants trailed 2-1 going into the last of the ninth. A walk, a sacrifice, a single by Don Mueller and a double by Willie Mays tied

Movie on Wesley To Be Shown at Methodist Church

First Methodist church of Artesia is one of 500 across the nation to be granted a premiere showing of the new color motion picture "John Wesley", according to Rev. H. L. McAlester, the pastor.

He stated the church qualified for this special pre-release showing by making a contribution toward the cost of the feature-length color film.

Produced by the radio and film commission of the Methodist church the picture was filmed in England for the American church by the J. Arthur Rank organization.

The dramatic and influential life of the 18th century evangelist will be brought to the screen for the first time in this film which runs one hour and 17 minutes.

Wesley was the founder of the evangelical movement which grew into a family of Methodist churches in the world, one of which is America's largest protestant denomination.

Historians also credit his movement with creating such a transformation in the life of late 18th century England that the country escaped an experience of violence similar to the French Revolution.

Leonard Sachs, outstanding English stage and television actor, portrays the famous "horseman of the Lord", as Wesley came to be known as he rode up and down England winning thousands of people to a new understanding of religion and a transformed life. Date of the premiere showing at First Methodist church will be Friday and Sunday evenings at 7 p.m.
