Water Bond Is Accepted City Council

City council yesterday afternoon adopted the low bid of Bosworth Sullivan of Denver on $130,000 bond for Artesia general obligations. The firm was low with a bid of 7.64 per cent of the bonds, which are set up on a 15-year payment schedule, beginning in 1955 and slated for completion in 1969. The bonds would finance construction of a two-million gallon reservoir two miles west of the city and the connecting line of 16 18-inch pipe. Money is expected to be available by next year. Salvation Army Appeals for Final Campaign Windup

An appeal for contributors who have not already done so in the final appeal of the Salvation Army campaign was voiced today by E. B. Beck, chairman. Beck said "it is now 30 days before the Salvation Army begins its annual appeal here for funds. Response has been very good during the past 30 days, 160 contributors have responded to our appeal. We have, however, about 60 prospects who made donations in the past appeal. Some of these are from town and a very small number have told us they do not wish to give this year. Most have made no answer to our appeal for contributions. We hope they have every intention of giving so. We urge them to respond with their donations, which may be handed to or mailed to Miss B. Feather, treasurer."

Council Delays Discussion on Mulcock Bid

Proposal by J. B. Mulcock of Artesia that he buy city disposal plant water discharge for $1,000 a year was brought before city council yesterday afternoon when council met briefly on another matter. At the request of W. M. Siegen, attorney for W. T. "Doc" McMillan who now receives the water without charge under a 70-year agreement signed in 1940, further action on Mulcock's request was voted delayed until Haldeman returns to the city. Mulcock is now in California attending an Elk's convention. Mulcock presented his proposal Wednesday night at a special city council meeting called to study general obligation bonds bids.

Readers Asked to Identify Second of Mystery Farms

The second in a weekly series of mystery farms in the daily Artesia Advocate circulation area is being printed today. The first person correctly identifying the farm will receive as his prize a one-year subscription to the daily newspaper. Owner of the farm will receive without charge a glossy aerial photograph used to make the engraving. Photographs were made by the Zekan-Robbins aerial photo service of Harlan, Iowa. Plans for the farm covered more than 300 miles over North Eddy county in shooting 52 photographs of vicinity farms. The feature, exclusive with the Advocate, has aroused high reader interest. Telephones at the Advocate office last week began ringing as soon as the paper reached the street, and continued until late in the afternoon of the next day. Bob McAnally of Artesia was winner of the first contest.

Readers who can correctly identify the farm are urged to phone No. 7 with the identity. The farm's identity is not known to the serial photographer who took the pictures. Only through reader phone calls and a check with the farm owner after the calls is positive identity established.

Negro Parents Plan To File Petitions

By Associated Press. Parents of Carlsbad primary Negro school children will file a petition asking "complete desegregation" with the school board unless it acts on the matter before September. Hobart LaGrone, Albuquerque, president of the New Mexico chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the move would be taken to eliminate cross-town trips by some Negro children to Carver School. His statement came in response to one made by Tom Hansen, Carlsbad's new school superintendent. Hansen earlier said "We are dedicated to a non-segregated policy in the Carlsbad schools." He said the "long range policy" of the school board had been pointed towards non-segregation, and estimated a "phased policy" is about "three-fourths" completed. Hansen said the integration of Negro pupils had not reached the elementary level yet, but that the phased desegregation policy in Carlsbad will continue based on the availability of classrooms and personnel. LaGrone said that Carver school had been located in an area in which Negroes had been relocated following a flood in Carlsbad a few years ago. However, he said, Negro families in outlying areas not affected by the flood still had been told to send their children to the school, even though other primary schools were located closer to their homes.

The Carlsbad school board, he said, has never rescinded this ruling. He added that many Carlsbad Negroes were disturbed over the situation, and wanted to know what the school board in that town intended to do about the matter. LaGrone said no segregation exists in Carlsbad senior or junior high schools. Officials in Artesia and Clovis claimed today that action to bring Negro students into their public school is partly completed. At Clovis, school officials said the school board last week completed action to permit Negro children to attend junior and senior high schools. School Supt. Travis Stovall said that it no longer is necessary for all Negro children to attend Lincoln-Jackson school, but Negro elementary pupils still are limited to that school or La. Police Called to Let Businessman Out of Building

Police were called to the Booker building a little after midnight last night to let out a businessman who worked late and was locked in. The man, from Roswell, said he had been working on some papers in one of the offices and never thought about being locked in. Police called one of the workers in the building to come down and unlock the door.

Record State Budget Given Finance Board

SANTA FE (AP)—The state finance board waded today into budget requests of 88 1/3 million dollars for state agencies — believed a record high for New Mexico. This represented an increase of 3 million over the fiscal year which ended June 30. More than half the increase came in the highway department budget, with most of the rest coming in the welfare department. The finance board has no control over the highway budget, which is under the exclusive jurisdiction of the independent highway commission. State Comptroller Edward M. Hartman said before the board total budget requests of $8,329,029 for this fiscal year. This compares with estimated expenditures for the past year of $80,376,706. The increases were attributed by Hartman to rising costs along with increased activity by various departments. A large amount of the highway branch's $4,600,000 increase was due to increased federal aid for highway construction voted by Congress. For the first time the finance board had the new performance-type budgets to work from. Under this system, inaugurated by Hartman, the spending of the state agencies is broken down into each agency's major functions, giving officials a more concrete view of what the money is actually being spent for. A detailed budget analysis was presented the board for all departments except the highway department, land office and higher educational institutions which are under the supervision of the board of educational finance. These exceptions accounted for more than 50 million of the 88 million total. Hartman said the 88 million requested is believed an all-time high. Last year the original budgets asked by the departments came to 85 million before they were trimmed to 80 million by the finance board. By far the biggest operation is that of the highway department, which showed a budget of $32,969,000, compared with estimated spending of $26,363,000 in the year just ended. The welfare department asked an increase of $2,108,000 to $19,019,000 compared with previous spending of $16,907,000.

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—A teenage girl whose disappearance from her Pittsburgh home two years ago prompted a nationwide search turned up here last night as a contented wife and mother. As Peggy Ann Hewston, she fled her home Aug. 24, 1952, when she was 15. Now she is Mrs. Tom Cory, wife of an Air Force sergeant. "I had been planning it for a long time," she said in recalling her disappearance. "I couldn't stand that school (Edgewood high school) any longer, and my folks wouldn't let me go to another one. I had saved $70 and I knew I was going to do it. I didn't even leave a note." She changed her name and fled to Albuquerque, where she met and married Air Force S-Sgt. Tom Cory, 23, who attended her church here. Now a mother of six weeks, the 17-year-old Mrs. Cory says she "feels much better" since her deception is over. She was recognized by a Pittsburgh airman at the Sandia base hospital, where she was having her baby. The unidentified airman thought he recognized her from back home. He asked if she wasn't Peggy Ann Hewston. "I told him he was making a big mistake," she said. The airman notified the sheriff's department and Undersheriff Walter Geis got in touch with his brother Matthew, on the Pittsburgh police force. Mrs. Cory said she hadn't told her husband her real name until they had been married eight months. Then he wanted to take out some insurance and she was afraid insurance investigators would check up on the name she had taken from a Kansas City telephone book, that of Barbara Owens. "I was never homesick," she said. "I was so glad to be away and I was much too happy." Her husband, stationed at Sandia atomic weapons base, also is glad his wife's identity is revealed. Mysterious Theft Nets Over $30 From Ball Players

The mysterious baseball robbery of the year cleaned out Artesia Numexer billfolds and pocketbooks Wednesday night, members of the ball club said Thursday afternoon. An estimated $30 to $40 was stolen. A member of the ballclub recounted the incident this way: Before going to Carlsbad to play Wednesday night, the ballplayers changed at the Artesia ballpark into their uniforms, leaving street clothes in the clubhouse. Suspended pitcher Mickey Diaz worked out at the ballpark here after his teammates had departed. Then he showered, dressed, locked the door and left the club. When ballplayers returned to Artesia after the game, they discovered the robbery. A $100 bill was overlooked in Mickey Sullivan's billfold. Other players lost smaller amounts of money. The door was still locked when the club members returned. That has given rise to a theory the robbery was an "inside job." ojb: b-StaDexter, aea1bUaNdzt

Growers of Long Staple Cotton Ask Low Supports

WASHINGTON (AP)—A spokesman for Southwest growers of extra long staple cotton has asked Congress to lower price supports on the crop. He said Egyptian cotton and synthetics are taking over the market because of the high support prices. Mitchell Landers of Berino, N. M., spokesman for the Southwest Five State Cotton Growers Assn., said yesterday the price supports must come down "if we are to prevent the disappearance of extra long staple cotton from the American agricultural scene."

Pole-Kitty Gets Source of BO Removed By Vet

THE SMALL pole kitty a sleep on the operating table of Dr. D. T. Gabbard, veterinarian, no longer has constant BO, thanks to a painless operation performed by the Artesia doctor. (Advocate Photo) Lots of people like cats for pets but most of the time they are the ordinary meowing-purring variety. However, there is another type similar in some respects to the common fence cat, but known as a skunk, or pole-cat. House pets of this particular species are uncommon to say the least. There is at least one in the Artesia area, though the owner's name is unknown. Dr. D. T. Gabbard, local veterinarian, performed a descenting operation on the little "stinker" Thursday morning. Just a little over a handful, the pole-kitten was put to sleep and the source of his constant BO was removed in around 20 minutes. The unidentified owner picked the patient up Thursday afternoon and took him home. At last report he was doing fine.

Three New Polio Cases Reported

SANTA FE (AP)—Three new cases of polio were reported to the state health department last week, bringing to 19 the year's total so far compared with a five-year median of 21. Two of the latest cases were in Lea county and the other in McKinley. Related reports came in of seven cases of rabies in Curry county and another in Grant county. They brought the year's total to 30 compared with a five-year median of four. A health department spokesman said the seven cases in Curry were scattered over the period since mid-April and were reported all at once under a changed method of reporting.

Thunderheads Give Moisture, Not Measureable

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Those New Mexico thunderheads keep producing something resembling moisture—but over most of the state it isn't measureable. Santa Fe—the city different—was as usual different. It got a drizzle during its rodeo parade that amounted to a whopping .29 inch. Farmington got .04 inch, Gallup .05, Glenwood .03 and Roswell .01 in yesterday's and last night's showers. There were traces—not enough to measure—at Albuquerque, Zuni, Truth or Consequences, Columbus and Las Vegas. But more is in sight and perhaps even heavier showers. The five-day weather forecast from the District Weather Bureau in Albuquerque is for locally moderate to heavy precipitation. Roswell took honors for being the hottest spot in the state Thursday with 99 degrees. Grants and Las Vegas were coolest with 77 and Gallup was coolest overnight with 50 degrees.

Engineers Battle Contrary Little Pecos River Water Loss

By ROBERT A. BARNES. SANTA FE (AP)—The contrary little Pecos river which has vexed folks for longer than they like to think about is under attack from several directions. It doesn't have too much water to start with. It loses quite a bit to salt cedars. It loses more through caves in Lake McMillan between Artesia and Carlsbad. And further downstream, what is left becomes pretty much worthless because of salt which flows into the river in huge quantities.

Engineers are tackling all these problems, trying to find a way to beat them. Texas, New Mexico, and the federal government all are in on the fight. The two states, through the Pecos river commission, have hired a full-time engineer to try to cure some of the river's faults and make its water more useful. One of the most serious problems—loss of water from Lake McMillan—appears on the way to elimination with building of a long dike to wall off the caverns through which the water is escaping. Part of the dike is finished, and the second and final phase is just starting. A sample of what is disturbing officials is what took place after Roswell's damaging flood two months ago. They measured 19,160 acre feet of water passing the Artesia gauging station at the bridge just east of that city. That is enough water to cover an area of 30 square miles one foot deep. Of that amount, only 10,080 acre feet arrived at Lake McMillan, a few miles downstream. That meant that about 9,000 acre feet of flood water dissipated itself in the McMillan delta, going to the salt cedars or possibly yescaping by unknown underground channels. This could have been cut to 2,000 to 3,000 feet by proper measures, engineers estimate. Some of the engineers working on the situation are proposing that about 75 observation wells which were drilled in past years through the salt cedar area be re-claimed and another 25 new wells be drilled so that the area is blanketed with wells which can be used to measure the water depth. The purpose is to find out what happens to the water. In addition it is proposed to build about 16 miles of new floodway for low water which will be about 10 feet deep, 30 feet wide across the bottom and 75 feet wide across the top. A 2,000-foot wide floodway would be cleared to handle flood waters. The cedars range from one to three miles wide.

Studies are being made to try to find a feasible solution to the impounding of brine at Majaga Bend. Engineers expect eventually the brine will have to be pumped away and disposed of in a dry lake bed. So far definite plans have not been made on the salt cedar or floodway situation. The Pecos river commission has urged the bureau of reclamation to complete its report on the water salvage program in the delta area and the bureau is trying to get the report out this year so it will be ready for Congress next year.

New Lotions Keep Every Inch of Body Skin Soft

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeature Beauty Editor

Time was when beauty lotion was used merely on the face. Later it became popular for neck and hands. Nowadays there are lotions to keep every inch of body skin soft and pliable.

Besides making you feel good after a summer swim or shower, body tone lotion helps maintain baby-soft skin all over. It is refreshing and stimulating, putting you in a delightfully feminine mood.

If you get the habit of applying a body lotion from the smallest toe to the nape of your neck, you'll appreciate the effect as summer wears on. Your tanned legs and shoulders will take on a lovely sheen; your feet and hands will look softer. Girdles and stockings will slide on with greater ease, too.

One of these body toners has a shaker top, making it easy to shake the preparation into your hands so that every drop may be used to good advantage.

Other good grooming points for keeping yourself at the top of the summer charm chart include:

1. A pedicure or touch-up at least once a week.
2. Manicure check-up. Look for hang nails and chipped polish from gardening.
3. A shampoo and wave set as often as your hair can tolerate it.
4. Use deodorant every day.
5. Keep white things sparkling clean. That includes glove, handbag, collars, cuffs, necklaces and earrings.

Cadillac

No Compromise This Time!

It was over twenty years ago that he took title to his first motor car—and, since that time, he has owned and driven almost a dozen different automobiles.

And yet, every time he accepted the keys to a new car, he knew in his heart that it was a compromise.

For—like so many millions of his fellow men—he had his heart set on a Cadillac!

Well, there's no compromise this time! The magic moment has arrived. The papers are all in order... the keys are in his hand... and the car of his dreams is waiting for him to take the wheel. It's his!

And, if you could but ride with him on that first journey, you'd understand what it means to have a motoring dream come true.

You'd see excitement in his eyes as he rolls majestically through the city's traffic—and puts his Cadillac through its thrilling paces on the open road.

You'd see honest pride in his face as he sits, calmly and serenely in the driver's seat, and catches the admiring glances of his fellow motorists.

And you'd sense the joy in his heart as he turns down that familiar street and heads for the happiest homecoming of the year!

In short, you'd witness a motorist in his finest hour—living out an experience that has no counterpart in the world of transportation. It is a thrill and an inspiration and an education—all rolled into one.

A friend of ours put it this way. "There are two kinds of automobiles," he told us. "There are Cadillacs—and there are all the others."

Whether or not you've driven "all the others," we can't say. But of one thing we are certain: Until you've spent an hour in the driver's seat of a 1934 Cadillac, your motoring education is not complete.

Why not come in soon and do so?

BOOK of LIFE

Is my name written there?

Am I ready for the roll call? Am I listed in "Who's Who of America?" Does Dun & Bradstreet have my rating correct?—WHAT IS LIFE? Could I mistakenly think it is just a crashing of the upper "400"? No! Friend, Life is much more than that. IT IS A PERIOD TO MAKE READY... TO GO TO CHURCH... TO ACKNOWLEDGE GOD. Life is a "sheet of paper white, whereon each one of us may write his word or two and then comes night." IS MY NAME WRITTEN THERE?

NuMexers Lick Carlsbad 8-6 to Tie Roswell Again for Longhorn Lead

Artesia Returns to City Tonight to Launch Series

CARLSBAD — (AP) — The Artesia NuMexers used the home run ball almost exclusively here tonight to defeat the Carlsbad Potashers 8-6 in the finale of a two-game series. Fourmasters by Paul Dobkowski and Mickey Sullivan accounted for five of the Artesia runs. Although the Potashers also had a pair of four baggers and fought back all the way, they were unable to catch up.

Last night's win, coupled with Roswell's loss to Big Spring 7-6 at Roswell, tied the two teams again for the Longhorn league's lead. The win put Artesia 4 percentage points ahead of Roswell, however.

The NuMexers return to Artesia tonight for the first of a four-game home series. The opposition tonight and Saturday will be Odessa. San Angelo's Colts will face Artesia Sunday and Monday nights.

Carlsbad loaded the bases on Ken Foster, the third Artesia hurler, in last night's ninth inning but were unable to dent the plate.

Robert Weaver's personal winning streak of six was snapped. He now has a record of 11-6. He was the Carlsbad starting hurler.

The NuMexers hopped on Weaver in the third inning for four runs when Dean Smith led off with a Texas league single and advanced to second on Gil Johnson's fielder's choice sacrifice. Both runners were safe. Reuben Smartt forced Smith at third and then Paul Dobkowski lofted the apple over the left field wall, scoring Johnson and Smartt. John Goodell drew a free pass and went to third on Charley Watt's single. Mickey Sullivan fielded out to dep center, Goodell scoring after the catch.

Artesia added two more in the fifth on Mickey Sullivan's homer with Dobkowski aboard. The NuMexers' final tallies came in the seventh on back to back doubles by Goodell and Watts and a single through the box by Frank Gallardo.

The Potashers scored lone runs in the fourth and fifth, and added two more in the sixth on a single by Elias Osorio and a homer by Oliver Hardy. They added an additional two runs in the eighth on Pedro Osorio's single and Elias Osorio's fourmaster, but they were still two runs short.

In the ninth, Raul Dieppa singled to open the inning and moved to second on a single by Pedro Osorio. Elias Osorio struck out and both runners advanced on Pancho Valdez's sacrifice. Goldie Gholson was given an intentional pass to load the sacks, but Hardy grounded out to end the inning and the game.

Gilbert Johnson, bespectacled righthander, the Artesia starter, was credited with the win.

APPROACHES RECORD

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals is approaching the National league consecutive game hitting streak record. The switch-hitting second baseman singled in four trips last night against Cincinnati to extend his skinn to 27 games, the longest in the majors this season. The record is 37 games.

The junior national sailing championships will be held at the Macatawa Bay Yacht Club, Holland, Mich., beginning Aug. 30.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROUNDUPS—

Dodgers Do All Battling Among Selves to Add To Confusion of Low-Ebbing National Race

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

Collapse or slump? Take your pick. It depends upon whether you are anti or pro Brooklyn.

Not since they "blew" the flag in the dog days of 1951 have the Dodger fortunes been at such a low ebb. Within a space of 10 days the tired and dreary Dodgers fell from the National league lead to a poor runner-up spot, 6 1/2 lengths off the pace.

To add to their confusion, the Dodgers, meek as lambs against Giant pitching, reportedly are doing all the battling among themselves.

After Brooklyn had dropped its sixth straight to the Giants yesterday 11-2, pitchers Russ Meyer and Don Newcombe reportedly almost came to blows in the clubhouse and had to be separated by teammates. Both players denied it, however.

Newcombe admitted he questioned Meyer about a pitch Russ threw which hit Monte Irvin of the Giants in the seventh inning. Irvin, who barely had escaped being hit with the previous pitch, became angered at what he called a "de-liberate" duster and called Meyer several uncomplimentary names, among them "gutless." It took some fast interference by the umpires to avoid further complications.

"What does he (Irvin) think he is?" Meyer growled. "Does he think he is a privileged character that we can't throw at him? They throw at our fellows. This is baseball, not tea and crumpets."

Once again it was Willie Mays who led the Giant charge. The spectacular center fielder smashed his 29th and 30th homers to drive in five runs. It gave him four homers in the three-game set and nine in 12 games against Brooklyn pitching this season.

Ruben Gomez, the Puerto Rican screwball pitcher, limited the Dodgers to seven hits and fanned eight for his eighth triumph. Hours later, Gomez registered at a hospital for a tonsilectomy to be performed today.

Only four other games were played yesterday. Cleveland's American league-leading Indians boosted their margin over the idle New York Yankees to four games, defeating Baltimore 4-1 behind the seven-hit hurling of Bob Feller. Homers by Jim Hegan and Wally Westlake were all the runs Feller needed.

Detroit's Steve Gromek dropped Chicago seven games behind Cleveland, shutting out the White Sox 2-0 on seven hits. The Tigers' Ray Boone drove in one run with a double and scored the other. He also had two singles.

The St. Louis Cardinals bunched four singles in the second inning to defeat Cincinnati 2-1 and gain a tie with the Redlegs for fifth place. Harvey Haddix chalked up his 13th triumph.

Randy Jackson walloped his 17th home run early in the game, then singled in the 14th inning to drive in the run that gave the Chicago Cubs a 9-8 victory over Milwaukee. Rookie Bill Tremel pitched seven innings of scoreless relief for his first major league victory. Bob Buhl was the loser.

Dallas Thumps Fort Worth For 8-2 Win

By JOE BENHAM
Associated Press Staff

The team that's in first place and the one picked to wind up there meet Friday night in the Texas league as Shreveport moves into Houston for a four-game stand.

Shreveport holds a two-game lead over the rest of the Texas loop pack, the widest margin owned by a leader since June 28. Whether they can hold it during their clash with the league's pre-season favorites will be the big question this week-end.

The Sports doubled their lead over second-place San Antonio Thursday night as they rode the two-hit pitching of Lefty Bob Smith to a 1-triumph over the Missions.

Other games included Houston's 14-2 walloping of Beaumont, Dallas' 8-2 victory over Fort Worth and Oklahoma City's split with Tulsa, the Indians winning the first game 1-0 and Tulsa bounding back to take the second one 7-1.

Friday night's slate sends Shreveport to Houston, Tulsa to Dallas, Fort Worth to Oklahoma City and Beaumont to San Antonio.

Jockey Jimmy Stout won nine stakes during the 1953 season at Monmouth Park.

Indians Split Doubleheader With Odessa

ODESSA, (AP)—Odessa and Midland split a twin bill here tonight, the Oilers taking the first 8-3 and the Indians winning the nightcap 5-1.

Odessa played flawless ball in support of newcomer Harold Braun in the opener but committed six errors in the nightcap. Midland was reversed, making two errors in the opener and none in the second.

Tony Di Primo's three-run homer in the third was the big Odessa blow in the opener. Midland Manager and Catcher Rudy Briner hit a solo in the first game and Bud Hull and Vince Terrasi each hit two-run homers in the nightcap.

Hull's came in the first inning and was his 32nd of the year. Harold Hacker stymied the Oilers in the nightcap. Though he was nicked for eight hits his mates kept him out of trouble by reeling off three doubleplays.

FIGHT OFFERED
BOSTON — (AP) — Lightweight boxing champion Paddy DeMarco of Brooklyn will be offered $50,000 for a title defense against Georgie Araujo of Providence, R. I., if Araujo defeats welterweight Tony DeMarco of Boston next Monday night in Fenway Park.

Promoter Sam Silverman of the Callahan A. C. said last night he would stage the bout in Fenway Park late in August.

Jim Greengrass, Cincinnati Redlegs' outfielder, played third base and pitched in the minor leagues.

Great Baseball Diamond Drought Reaction Due

NOW THAT THE Longhorn league is riding the "spit" ball boys, it is to be expected that the loop's resourceful managers will find a counter-measure in this land of great drought.

According to a former pitcher for whom we have a great deal of respect, few Longhorn league hurlers know what an actual, honest-to-goodness, fully-loaded spit ball is.

This business of moistening the fingers with one's tongue, or touching sweat off the neck, forehead, or forearm, serves merely to help the pitcher get a grip on the ball. Says our friend, it doesn't put anything on the ball, other than what the pitcher would be able to put on it if not plagued with dryness.

The problem, as this ex-hurler sees it, is that it's so blamed dry in the Southwest it's hard for pitchers to get hold of the ball without a dry, slippery ball.

Even the oft-used resin bag is said to be ineffective when conditions are absolutely dry. It's relayed to us that just plain dry resin, without a touch of moisture, just lubricates the ball that much more.

The answer may be for pitchers to pour a little water on their uniforms, say on the thigh. Mr. Mickey Diaz, now under a 10-day suspension, for allegedly spitting smack-dab on the ball the other night at Roswell, could for instance dump a glass of water on his left trouser leg. As he winds up, he could slip his fingers over the wet portion. If the ump's object to that, he could pour the water on his uniform shirt.

Burnett Sparks Dallas Drive for $5 Million for Major Baseball

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS, (AP)—Five million dollars in $500,000 chunks was sought today by the men who would bring major league baseball to Dallas.

Admittedly it was a difficult assignment for the time allotted—just three days—but the spearheads of the drive for a big league franchise, E. E. "Buddy" Fogelson and R. W. Burnett, Dallas oil men and the latter owner of the Dallas club in the Texas league, said time was the essence.

They had to get the money in a day or somebody would beat them to the franchise.

The campaign for a big league berth, which started Monday night with the statement that all that was necessary was the knowledge that Dallas wanted the franchise, had simmered down to a stock-selling, fund-raising campaign.

Backers of the drive got the unanimous endorsement of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce board of directors yesterday but only an unofficial pat on the back from the Citizens Council, the organization of business leaders that just about runs Dallas.

Only 10 of the 25 members attended the meeting and that wasn't a quorum. But J. L. Latimer, president of the council, said it was the "consensus that a major league team successfully operated would be a fine thing for this community."

After these meetings Burnett and Fogelson got together and worked out plans for a quick campaign aimed at getting 10 men to put up $500,000 each.

Two million more would be needed to enlarge the Texas league park to major league size along with purchase of a big league franchise but Burnett said it would be easy to obtain that from the general public—the small investors in stock.

"They'll buy if they know major league baseball is coming here," Burnett explained.

A major league franchise can be obtained as soon as Dallas can put up the money to meet big league provisions, Burnett said.

It was obvious that Burnett was thinking primarily about the Philadelphia Athletics.

Burnett said that only eight half-million dollar stock buyers were needed since he and Fogelson already had subscribed.

Czech Sees First Baseball Contest in Artesia Visit

Cass Scheff, formerly of Czechoslovakia, now a British citizen, saw his first baseball game when in Artesia last week-end.

Scheff, who eagerly watched the contest and afterwards proclaimed "it's great," was among home guests at the T. E. Brown home over the week-end.

He eagerly followed the course of the Artesia-Carlsbad game, and was briefed on its progress by Marion Brown, who with his wife was also a guest at the T. E. Brown home.

Scheff joined in the general enthusiasm as Artesia captured a win-over Carlsbad in the game.

He is a former Royal Air Force pilot and has only recently arrived in the U. S. He is a member of an ice show — "The Ice Cycles" — troupe.

Accompanying him to Artesia was Miss Sharon Holmes, his skating partner.

Two Penetrations Rulings Adopted By State Panel

ALBUQUERQUE — The New Mexico High School Activities Assn. has adopted two recommendations on penetrations to aid in deciding the winner of the football games.

The first regulation provides for the referee to call time out after a team has penetrated inside its opponent's 20-yard line. He will then face each team's bench, and cross his arms in front of his chest to signify that the penetration is official.

The second regulation, optional but recommended, requests a running tabulation of penetrations be kept on score boards. Both new rules go into effect for the 1954 season.

The New Mexico High School Activities Assn. also extended to 11 the number of football games that may be played in a single season. Class AA, B and C schools may play as many games as they wish between Aug. 18 and Nov. 30, the season limits.

Delaware Park has five race tracks: the main oval, two steeplechase courses, a 3/8-mile training track for flat runners and a steeplechase schooling course.

How Much Is Inch of Rain?

WE HEARD a man saying the other day that what this country (in the mountains west of Artesia) needs is a good two-inch rain. Matter of fact, he'd even settle for an inch.

Why's an inch of rain so precious?
A uniform coating of inch of rain over one acre of ground would weigh 113 1/4 tons. It would contain 27,143 gallons—or 603 barrels of 45 gallons each. It would fill a pool 20 feet square and nine feet deep.

But who wants to settle for an inch of rain? Like the man said, what we need is a good two-inch rain.

Home to Help District

PLANS FOR a juvenile detention home to serve the tri-county fifth judicial district have been submitted by an Albuquerque architectural firm to the committee charged with seeing the project through.

The plans are to be considered in the near future by the committee, composed of men from Eddy, Chaves, and Lea counties and headed by Harvey E. Yates of Artesia.

Tentative cost for the building has been set at $40,000 if the usual construction procedures are followed.

Indications are, however, that those procedures will be as unusual as the idea for the home.

The home cannot be a permanent home for juvenile offenders, but rather a temporary holding place where juveniles may stay as long as 30 days. It is designed to provide a place for holding juveniles while awaiting action by authorities, rather than lodging them in adult jail cells.

It will have a small area of land where crops may be raised, and will be supervised by a man who may also be the juvenile officer for the area.

In time it is possible the laws of New Mexico may be broadened to permit corrective measures be undertaken in these homes such homes as the one proposed for the fifth judicial district.

When this district's home is built, it will be the first in New Mexico to be constructed since passage of the enabling act by the 1953 legislature.

Since the home is a pioneer, its builders will use pioneering methods. It will turn to people of the district for voluntary offerings of building materials and other items needed in its construction. The only paid part, it is hoped, will be labor, and it is hoped that, too, may be paid by actual money contributions.

The idea is that if the fifth judicial district can do this successfully, it will set an example for other districts in this state, and perhaps other states also, showing the public's willingness to pitch in on a concrete step toward solving today's far-flung juvenile problems.

Country Needs Old Fashioned Family That Has Fun Together

AP Newsfeatures
What this country needs, says an expert on juvenile delinquency, is a good old-fashioned family that has fun together.

"There is a definite trend away from family activity," insists William N. MacKay, parole officer of the Connecticut Third District Juvenile Court.

"The mother has her interests, the father his, and the child goes his own way. Family activities in which parents and children work and play together are fast disappearing from the American scene."

MacKay thinks that in thus breaking up the family unit, our American culture is also promoting juvenile delinquency. It has two basic characteristics, he says, which cause most of our trouble with youngsters. They are:

1. Selfishness.
2. Delinquency, neglect, divorce, desertion, immorality, alcoholism and the acquisition of money to the neglect of family solidarity are all symptoms of our culture that are based on selfishness.
3. Our social thinking lags behind our ability to create.
4. We must teach our children to develop their social thinking so it can compete with their scientific skills. We can build a car that goes 100 m.p.h., but we cannot teach people to drive it without killing others. We build a hydrogen bomb, but cannot harness it for peace.

MacKay says there will always be problem boys and girls until an answer is found to the broken or emotionally disorganized homes that produce them.

"Neurotic and immature parents produce similar children who become the same kind of parents. Rarely does a child surmount the deadening frustration of a broken or disorganized home."

Of his cases, MacKay says, 40 per cent of the youngsters are from broken homes and another 40 per cent are from homes where the only surviving parent or both parents are working.

Juvenile offenses are symptomatic of underlying personal or family problems, explains MacKay. "You protect the community by treating the offense. To bring about a readjustment in the child, you must also treat the underlying causes."

Most delinquent or emotionally disturbed children suffer from definite lacks in their living patterns, MacKay says. A few are:

1. Lack of love and affection.
2. Lack of security—material and emotional.
3. Lack of recognition.
4. Lack of discipline.
5. Lack of variety of experience.
6. Lack of character training.

Chances are, if a child doesn't lack any of these things, delinquency will hold no appeal for him.

At First Base Rosen Again Has 'Most Valuable' Chance

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor
When Al Lopez called Al Rosen into his office just before the baseball season opened the Cleveland Indians manager solved one of his biggest problems.

First base has been an Indian sore spot for many years and since Luke Easter, Rocky Nelson and Bill Glynn failed to knock down fences Lopez decided he might shift Rosen there. In the days when Lopez played it was the rule that a first baseman should be one of the team's big hitters and play regularly.

Lopez knew he had such a man in Rosen for in his last four seasons Albert Leonard Rosen, 29, has averaged 117 runs batted in and 33 home runs. He averaged 153 games a season, too.

"Would you have any objections to playing first base," Lopez asked Rosen.

"I'll play first if you think it will help the ball club," Rosen replied.

Rosen's shift to first base has been the biggest move since Lopez has made since taking over the Indians in 1951.

Rosen has a chance to repeat as the American League's most valuable player. His transfer from third base to first enabled Lopez to bring rookie Rudy Regalado into the lineup as a third baseman. Lopez wanted Regalado's bat but he couldn't use him at first base, so he shifted Rosen.

Rosen was the first player in major league history to be chosen unanimously as most valuable player in 1953. His 336 batting average just missed catching Mickey Vernon for the hitting title but he did lead the league in runs batted in with 145 and in homers with 43.

He could be the third player in history to win the most valuable player award two years in succession. The others also were American Leaguers—Jimmie Foxx in 1932-33 and Hal Newhouser in 1944-45. Foxx also won the award in 1938. Since the voting by the baseball writers began in 1931 Stan Musial and Joe DiMaggio are the only other three-time winners.

Nearly half a million U. S. people work in banks, nearly double the number so employed in 1936.

NEW HOPE in the battle against CANCER

THE FIGHT against man's cruellest enemy is far from won. If present rates continue, 23 million living Americans will die of cancer—230,000 this year. And thousands of these will die needlessly—through cancer that could have been cured if treated in time.

ALL THE SAME, there have been victories. Thousands who once would have died are being saved—thanks, in part, to your donations to the American Cancer Society.

AND, LAST YEAR, the Society was able to allocate $5,000,000 of your donations to research aimed at finding the ultimate cure for all cancer. That's more money than ever before.

MUCH MORE, of course, remains to be done. So please make this year's gift a really generous one!

WAITING FOR FLOOD TO SUBSIDE

FLOOD-GUSTED residents of Piedras Negras, Mexico, sit atop a rocky hill on outskirts of their city, waiting for the overflowing Rio Grande to subside. They erected the cross to offer prayers for relatives and friends. An estimated 12,000 refugees were camped on hills in the area. (International Soundphoto)

Two-time American League winners are Hank Greenberg and Ted Williams and Carl Hubbell and Roy Campanella in teh National League.

Thus, Rosen has a chance this season to join a select group, not to mention sluggers like Foxx, Greenberg and Musial as fellow one position to another and still maintained their effectiveness as hitters.

"A great team man, Rosen, and a great guy," says Manager Lopez.

Michigan State's intramural athletic program includes 22 sports ranging from archery to weight lifting.

Girl Scout Leader Round-Up Registration Deadline July 20

The Southeast New Mexico Girl Scout council announced today that today, August 3 and 4, all leaders, assistant leaders, and persons interested in working with Girl Scouts are invited to attend a leaders "round-up" at Camp Mary White.

Purpose of the round-up is to exchange ideas, to learn more about nature and outdoor crafts, and to stimulate interest in the camping program. A registration fee of $1 must be sent to the Southwest New Mexico Girl Scout Council, 204 Ward Bldg., Artesia, by July 20, and is not refundable. A charge of $1.25 per day for adults and $1 per day for each child will be made to cover the cost of the food. Everyone is to bring their own bedding. There will be no facilities provided to care for small children.

The course officially opens on Tuesday morning and closes on Wednesday evening, but leaders are invited to come to camp on Monday evening, bring their own supper, and stay until Thursday morning if they wish.

The staff remaining in camp to offer the group a complete program will be Miss Marvel Millam, executive director of the council and director of Camp Mary White for the last two seasons; Mrs. Thompson of El Paso, arts and crafts counselor, and two or three of the unit counselors from the summer session at CMW.

not possible to tell much about the ship at the time. Now the British publication The Navy has printed an article with some details about her and deductions as to some other probable features. The article is digested in the July issue of The Military Review, published by the Army's Command and General Staff College. The Navy says the Sverdlov is 690 feet long with a 71-foot beam indicating a displacement of about 16,300 tons—a little less than the heaviest U. S. cruisers of the Salem class. Armament is reported to consist of four triple 6-inch gun turrets, 12 3.4-inch gun houses, which may be gas-proof and air-conditioned, 32 37-mm anti-aircraft guns in twin mounts, two sets of quintuple torpedo tubes and two chutes for laying mines. Belt armor is believed to be about four inches thick, deck armor one or two inches. "It was interesting to see," the Navy says, "that the Sverdlov carried both visual range finders, mounted in cupolas German fashion, as well as a certain amount of radar. The presence of the optical range finders suggests that they may be regarded as more than a stand by in case of electronic breakdown." The Navy said at least six of the Sverdlov class are in service and another six to eight reported under construction. "Very fast—34 to 35 knots—well equipped, and with the huge fuel supply their size warrants," it continues, "they will have an exceptional endurance." Sonny Dixon, lefthanded pitcher for the Washington Senators, was a boatswain's mate in the Navy during World War II. He saw action in both the European and Pacific theaters of operation.

Preliminary—

(Continued from page one) ment for which Boyd is charged was $3,074.88. Boyd originally was suspended by Hartman and fired by Comstock after a preliminary audit showed shortages of $3,263.35.

He signed a statement admitting the shortages but took exception to a $250 shortage in the burial fund, and said there must have been a mistake in the bookkeeping.

Prince said Boyd was not charged with any shortage in the burial fund and added there was no evidence to show any money had been taken from that fund.

Boyd's attorney is Harry Bigbee of Santa Fe.

The former business manager, listed as superintendent by the Welfare Department, had served in the job from July 14, 1952. He was dismissed June 30, 1954, after the preliminary audit.

Segregation—

At Artesia, School Supt. Vernon Mills said the school board would meet Monday to consider the racial segregation problem. He said the board has discussed the matter in the past but has taken no action.

Mills said segregation in Artesia primary schools exists, but has never been practiced in junior and senior high schools.

In Roswell, J. D. Shinkle, superintendent of schools said in response to questions regarding that city's plans to comply with the recent Supreme Court ruling outlawing school segregation that he had "no definite announcement yet."

He declined comment as to whether or not the matter would be discussed in the near future at school board meetings.

House Receives Bills on Mineral, Oil Leasing

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Senate passed and sent to the House yesterday three bills dealing with mineral or oil and gas development of public lands.

One permits multiple mineral development of the same tracts. Sponsors said a principal purpose is to permit exploration for uranium to go ahead on 60 million acres of public lands now covered by oil and gas leases.

The two other bills were: An omnibus bill to modernize the laws covering oil and gas leasing on public lands, and thus encourage exploration and development of oil and gas reserves. Among other things, it provides that leases on which production has ceased will not expire if production is resumed in 60 days and that a lease with a well on it capable of producing oil or gas in paying quantities will not terminate unless the lessee receives reasonable notice that he must place the well in a producing status.

A bill increasing the amount of public land that any one person, association or corporation may hold under oil and gas lease to 46,080 acres in any state and 100,000 acres in Alaska.

Low Water—

The council's session yesterday afternoon was a continuation of a special meeting held the night before. Wednesday night's meeting was continued to Thursday afternoon when a question arose over possible error in the bid of the state treasurer.

A check by City Atty. Neil Watson revealed the state treasurer had intended to bid 2 per cent on a five-year basis. City officials had thought the figure "1" might have been dropped from the "5" making it read 5 years rather than the 15 years desired by the city.

Watson was told the state is not interested in long term bonds and would bid 2 3/4 per cent on a 15-year issue.

Other bidders were Zaner & Co. of Kansas City, $67.50 premium and 2.35 interest, and Lucas, Eisen & Waeckerle, Kansas City, 2.35 per cent.

Missing Girl—

In Pittsburgh, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hewston, were overjoyed. Tears streamed down Mrs. Hewston's face. Her husband, a steelworker, said:

"Thank God. We've prayed so much that Peggy would turn up safe. And to think she is married and has a baby. Why, that's just swell."

"Did you ask if I forgave her for running away?"

"Hell, yes. I'm so happy I can hardly talk."

Navajo Education Chief Problem, Simms Declares

GALLUP, (AP)—Education of their youngsters was put at the top of Navajo problems by John Simms Jr., after conferring with some 280 of them yesterday.

Through an interpreter, Simms, Democratic candidate for governor, discussed problems and improvement of living conditions with McKinley county Indians.

He promised no immediate solution to some of the problems raised, since many of them, he said, involve federal jurisdiction. He listed these points as of primary concern to the Navajos to whom he had spoken:

- 1—Education of their children.
- 2—Speedier movement of Navajo products to the city through improvement of secondary roads on Indian lands.
- 3—Water development, especially Navajo rights to the San Juan River waters.
- 4—Land management, preferably through the Indian Bureau. He said the Navajos he talked to had expressed this wish, rather than through the Bureau of Land Management.
- 5—Hospitals and improved health services.
- 6—Better police protection.

PEFFER'S FINAL TRUTH TEST

PAUL A. PEFFER submits to his final lie detector test given in the District Attorney's office in Queens, New York. The three-day series of lie-detector tests were aimed at supporting Pfeffer's contention that he was innocent of the August 22 slaying of Edward Bates, a sailor, in Rockaway Beach, N. Y. Pfeffer was sentenced to serve 20 years to life for the Bates killing, which was also admitted by John Francis Roche. Dr. Fabian L. Bourke, who gave the tests, said that Pfeffer "cooperated fully and answered all questions." (International)

Senate Panel Passes Farm Bill

WASHINGTON — The senate agriculture committee by a 13-2 vote today approved a general farm bill containing many features opposed by the Eisenhower administration.

Chairman Aiken (R-Vt.) said he voted to send the controversial measure on to the senate because "I am confident that it will approve a bill acceptable to the President."

Aiken said Sen. Williams (R-Del.) and Anderson (D-N.M.), a former secretary of agriculture, voted against reporting the bill to the senate.

Simms, guest of honor at a McKinley county Young Democrats banquet, urged party unity in the November elections during a brief speech.

Small Boat Is Essential For Vacation Enjoyment

By DION HENDERSON AP Newsfeatures

Sometimes there is nothing quite as nice as a boat, as anyone who has been marooned on an island can tell you.

But quite aside from the fact that a boat beats walking where water is concerned, a small boat is just about essential if you want to get the most fun out of lakeshore vacation.

Without one, your fishing will be confined to the shore or the pier, which means that especially during the hot days of late summer you won't be able to follow those big ones out into the cooler depths. If there are daredevils in the family, will lack a valuable safeguard. And your scenic tours about your vacation abode will lack the viewpoint of looking in on those shorelines as well as out from them.

The vacationer will find that most inland boat livers chiefly offer rowboats 12 to 14 feet long. The smaller will handle three adult passengers, the larger four—and that plenty. If the boat doesn't carry buoyant cushions or a life jacket, bring your own because you never know when one of the children is going to decide to get out thinking he can walk home.

ALBUQUERQUE — Continental Airlines said today it would halt operations at four New Mexico communities Aug. 31 in compliance with a civil aeronautics board decision in Washington on Tuesday.

Las Cruces, Truth or Consequences, Socorro and Raton will lose commercial air service on that day.

Joe O'Connor, Continental manager in Albuquerque also said the start of service to the Alamogordo-Holoman Air Force Base area would begin Sept. 1.

cost them as much in the long run but it gives them the advantage knowing how dependable their motive power is.

Anyone considering this kind of a project should limit himself to motors of five horsepower or less because few rental rowboats will stand up under any more. The one and one-half is a popular size, and there are a number of lightweight really portable models. Costs range from around $100 to about $200 for these sizes.

In 1940 it required 47 man hours to produce 100 bushels of wheat on American farms. Now it requires 31 hours.

Greatest concentrations of highway traffic in New Mexico occur in the vicinity of Albuquerque and near Las Cruces.
