Four Killed in Weekend Auto Wrecks

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Four persons died over the weekend to boost New Mexico's traffic toll to 185 so far this year—12 less than had died during the same period in 1953.
Dead are Elba H. Miller, 45, of Artesia, who died in a collision with a car; Mike Montano, 64, killed Sunday afternoon in Albuquerque; a motorist who failed to stop at Seneca, 22, killed in a one-car accident near Albuquerque Saturday night and Alice Kurtz, of Las Cruces, who died Saturday from injuries received in an accident July 10.
Miller, an employe of the Lea County Highway department, was killed in a collision between his car and one driven by Marvin King, 43, on a Hobbs residential street Sunday. Mrs. Miller was treated for shock. All were in Hobbs.
Police said Montano, an Albuquerque resident, was struck by a speeding car within the city limits, died about four hours later in Albuquerque hospital.
A witness said the elderly man was struck by a light colored 1948 (Continued on Back Page)

Disabled Veterans Organize Drive for Memberships

"Now is the time for all Disabled Veterans to come to the aid of our cause."
That's the official membership campaign slogan adopted by the Disabled American Veterans as it began its new membership drive.
F. F. Blessing, commander of the Artesia chapter, said the DAV ended its 1953-1954 fiscal year June 30 with a new membership record, marking the 12th consecutive year new high has been reached.
"The official slogan is especially descriptive because now more than ever the disabled must unite in a strong organization," Blessing said.
The house affairs committee has given the DAV a clean bill of health, but our enemies are strong-organized. They are attacking all veterans organizations and their programs of rehabilitation for disabled veterans," said the commander.
"For example, a group that calls itself the 'Committee on Federal Tax Policy'—a non-governmental agency—has been bold enough to propose reduction of veterans benefits by one-third with a view to reduction and drastic revision of compensation for disabled veterans."
"The best way to fight back is to join with other disabled veterans in the DAV and present a solid front so that the public may know our aims and objectives and the reasons for continuing this nation's excellent rehabilitation program (Continued on Page Six)

U.S. Charged with Holding Out Homestead Oil Right

WASHINGTON (AP)—The possibility the federal government withheld unlawfully oil and gas rights from patents issued homesteaders in New Mexico over a quarter of a century ago has been raised in the United States Senate.
The attack on the government's hold on the now valuable mineral right in certain sections of southeastern New Mexico was made by Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) in behalf of an elderly widow, Mrs. Pearl O. Marr of Crossroads.
Although the senator's bill specifically affects the 280-acre homestead of Mrs. Marr, if the Senate enacts the bill the principles could be far-reaching in effect. Chavez said he feels it will involve rich oil lands in Lea, Eddy, Chaves, San Juan and Rio Arriba counties among others.
"No one knows just how many titles might be involved, but it could involve hundreds," the senator said. "It may reach into other states."
The controversy has been the subject of lengthy correspondence between the Marrs, the Department of Interior, and various congressmen since early 1927.
The widow's claim to full oil and gas rights, withheld by the Interior Department when issuing the

State Slates Ban on Oil Well Flares

SANTA FE (AP)—New Mexico will issue a no-flare order in about two weeks, weeks which William B. Macey, director of the Oil Conservation commission, said will affect about 2500 oil wells in southern Lea county.
The order, to become effective Nov. 1, will prohibit oil well operators and gasoline plants south of the Eunice-Monument Pool from flaring or burning the casinghead gas produced by the oil wells.
Operators already are barred from flaring dry gas.
The order will be intended to prevent waste, Macey said, and will require operators to sell the gas. At present some wells are (Continued on Back Page)

Five Youths Are Charged in Theft

Five Carlsbad youths, ranging from 16 to 18 years old, were picked up by county juvenile authorities Sunday after pilfering two cars in the Artesia area.
According to North Eddy county juvenile officer J. D. Josey, one of the five was caught Saturday night while attempting to remove a battery and some wheel accessories from the car of Felix Gonzales.
Gonzales, employed on the Jesse Funk farm at Cottonwood caught the youth around his car, which was parked on North Roselawn.
The other four were picked up Sunday by the juvenile officer.
The quintet also were charged with pilfering the car of S. V. Simmons, 313 W. Chisum. Two fenders, skirts and some new car parts were taken from Simmons' car.
Josey said two of the group were released to the custody of their parents because it was their first offense and they were not so heavily involved. The other three will be held for the juvenile court at Carlsbad.
Juvenile officer Josey said the arrest of the quintet bears out a theory that local law officers have

Mrs. Phillips Is Winner in Latest Farm Guess Series

Mrs. J. B. Phillips of Artesia was the first to identify the latest of the Artesia Advocate's mystery farms as the Earl Collins farm, south of Artesia.
Mrs. Phillips phoned what proved to be the correct identification at 4:05 p. m. Friday.
Collins confirmed the identity Saturday morning.
Identity of the farm proved to be the most difficult of any published so far.
Second correct guesser was John Gibson, and third Mrs. Edward Boans.
Collins will receive without charge the glossy aerial photo of his farm from the engraving used in Friday's Advocate was made.
Other correct guessers in the contest included A. G. Samora, Mrs. Bill Rogers, Lee Orona, Mrs. Don Menefee, F. D. Hornbaker, T. A. Southard, Mrs. Adolph Zeleny, Stanley Rogers, R. L. Vogel, Mrs. O. S. Brewer, F. Ray Zumwalt.
A number of others calling in identities failed to correctly identify the farm.
However, those who missed winning the year's free subscription to the daily Artesia Advocate this week have another 49 weeks to entering the contest.

Residents Report Reckless Drivers

City police today were on the lookout for three cars which city residents reported were driving recklessly over the week-end.
The Artesians said they would be glad to swear out complaints against operators of the three vehicles if they were caught. They gave descriptions of the three cars to police officials.

Socorro County School Remedies Sought By Board

SOCORRO (AP)—A resolution asking that "immediate action be taken to remedy" conditions in Socorro county schools has been presented by the new county board of education.
The resolution, signed by 14 teachers and others, says "it is widely and notoriously known that the conditions of the rural schools of Socorro county have been for quite a long recent period under siege of unsteadiness, and under a revolutionary, unsound and maniacal status."

Roach Urges Tougher Local Traffic Law Enforcement

By JULIUS GOLDEN
SANTA FE (AP)—State Police Chief Joe Roach has called upon local police and sheriff's officers for a crackdown on flagrant traffic violators in their own localities to cut the state highway death toll.
"I'd rather have such a crackdown than another 100 men," he said.
Roach, taking note of a National Safety Council recommendation for another 100 state policemen, said he would use all the men he could get but indicated the problem is not that simple.
"I'd much prefer more cooperation from local police and sheriff's officers," he said. "It's not that they're not cooperating now but some of them are tolerating the flagrant local violator and nothing is done until there is a serious accident."
Roach had great praise for county safety councils "such as these in Lea and Eddy counties."

"Now that people in these counties are conscious of safety, there is a tremendous drop in fatalities over last year," he said.
The Eddy County Safety Council recently suggested that short jail sentences of from two to five hours for speeding drivers rather than fines would prevent many persons from speeding and accidents. A council spokesman said a $15 fine means nothing to one man but hurts another. He said "everyone has just 24 hours a day and a two-hour jail sentence would penalize the rich and poor equally."
Roach said in lots of cases the fines do good "just on the grounds of embarrassment." But he said he believed a short jail sentence would go further "if it could be worked out."

Mendes-France Responsible For Progress

By EDDY GILMORE
GENEVA (AP)—A high Western source said tonight a cease-fire agreement on the Indochina war is almost certain to be reached before French Premier Pierre Mendes-France's deadline of Tuesday midnight.
This source, who declined to be identified by name but who is well informed on the course of the long, difficult negotiations for peace, said the momentum of Mendes-France's drive for peace was carrying the movement along.
The informant conceded some details remain to be ironed out and that the peace drive could "hit a snag." But it was obvious this was not expected.
The informant said it is unlikely that a peace agreement will be signed before tomorrow. Apparently no definite hour has been set.
Mendes-France was confident himself as he met reporters briefly today when his deadline for achieving peace was little more than 24 hours away.
Another Western official said through 15 children under 10 will be admitted without charge. Teenagers over 15 will be charged adult admission.
Roping club officials pointed out lower admission fees for the 1954 rodeo are made possible by federal tax reductions earlier this year.
Among new events to be added to the 1954 rodeo is the exciting "double mugging" contest.
Two riders work a grown steer in double mugging. As one rider hazes the steer to keep it on course, the other drops down on the steer's shoulder, grabs its horns, and seeks to throw it.
Winner is the rider who can "pin" his steer in the shortest time.
The rodeo will be again produced by Bob Chipman, who has staged the past three V-J Day rodeos here as well as others throughout the Southwest.
The rodeo is closed to professionals, since the roping club has announced its intention "to return the rodeo to the men who started it and who still do it best—the ranch hands."

Military Pumping Millions into NM

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Active contracts for construction at military installations in West Texas and New Mexico totaled a whopping 78 million dollars during the fiscal year ended June 30, Colonel Lynn C. Barnes, district engineer, announced today.
The area is under the Albuquerque district of the corps of engineers.
Approximately 100 new contracts, totaling 28 million dollars, for new construction at 11 military installations in New Mexico and West Texas were let during the last 12 months. Some 4½ million man hours were required for the military construction in the area last year, Col. Barnes said.
Of the 28 million in new contracts, Army and Air Force installations in New Mexico got 18 millions. And of this 18 millions, Albuquerque, with Kirtland AFB and Sandia Special Weapons Base, got eight million. Ft. Bliss at El Paso got five millions in new construction and Biggs Air Force Base one million.
At the beginning of the past fiscal year, Kirtland and Sandia at Albuquerque had a total of 10 million under contract. New work worth six million was let at Kirtland and two million at Sandia.
Active construction at the two bases today is about 10½ million dollars.
New contracts worth $2,300,000 were let at White Sands Proving Ground near Alamogordo during the last year. About five million is now under construction. The largest single project now under construction is a frequency coordination laboratory and missile assembly building.

Also near Alamogordo, $3,300,000 was let for work at Holloman AFB during the last year. A two million dollar airfield paving contract is the biggest single item.
Approximately 21 million dollars of military construction was under contract in the Fort Bliss-BIGGS area at the beginning of the past fiscal year. New contracts totaling six million dollars were let in the El Paso area, where today active contracts total almost 11 millions.
A three million dollar hangar contract is the biggest active one at Biggs. At Fort Bliss, an eight million dollar contract for construction of barracks constitutes the major work now under way.

Salvation Army Offers Slightly Used Dog, Car

According to E. B. Bullock, chairman of the local Salvation Army committee, the Artesia unit has one dog and one car, both slightly used, for sale.
The two articles are the result of a good deed on the part of Artesia's Salvation Army unit.
Friday night a man and his wife and their five children ranging from 27 years old, and the dog, were passengers in the car which broke down between Artesia and Hope.
The family spent the night in the car and then managed to get into Artesia Saturday morning. They went to the Chamber of Commerce for aid and that office sent them to the Salvation Army here.

Bauman Denies Seeking Minor Homer Record, Has Lefthander Trouble

By ROBERT GREEN
SWELL — (P) — Folks are wondering if Joe Bauman is going to break the minor league record this year.

He says he will. Some say he should not. Bauman said: "I don't know."

There are lots of fans in Class C Longhorn league city wouldn't be surprised if their 32-year-old first baseman did erase the minor's round tripper mark this season.

The record is 69. Joe Hauser set it in 1933 with Minneapolis. Bob Crues tied it with Amarillo, Texas, in the West Texas-New Mexico league in 1948.

And Bauman, a six-foot-four, 240-pounder, apparently has the best chance of smashing the record since Crues. Bauman had hit 45 in the first 89 games of the season. With a 140-game season that would put him at either 70 or 71 of the big ones for the year if he continues his current pace.

Bauman says he isn't going for the record, nor is he putting forth an extra effort to hit homers this season.

"I'm not hitting for the fences any more than usual," the big first sacker said. "In fact, I'm playing it just about as I usually do. No changes in swing. No changes in stance. Just no change.

"I'm having my best year. But a big part of that is because I haven't been hurt any—no bad ankles or shoulders or anything. I've been able to play every inning of every game—and that counts a lot. The park helps, too.

"And I've been pretty lucky," the big veteran said.

Should Big Joe fall short of the record, he apparently is assured of cracking the league record. He set it last year with 53, playing with Artesia in the Longhorn.

That was the third time Bauman had led the minors in home runs. He first did it with Amarillo in 1946 with 48, and again in 1952 with Artesia when he hit 50.

And Bauman isn't just a home run hitter. He has been leading the league or near the top in total bases, doubles, runs scored, runs batted in, and percentage since the season started.

"Valuable to our organization?" asked Stubby Greer, co-manager of the Roswell team. "You could say he is our organization. Joe's playing fine defensive ball, hitting more to left and just tearing up the league in general.

"If he didn't have to hit against anything but right handers he'd hit 150 homers this season," he said.

But Joe, a lefthander who has little liking for southpaw pitching, gets a great abundance of them.

"He sees all the left handed pitching in the league," Greer said, "and when some team doesn't have a lefty ready to throw, they'll bring in a left handed outfielder or first baseman to pitch to Joe."

"Sure left handers bother me," Joe said, "but not any more than usual."

He lists left handers as the biggest trouble he has had since breaking into organized ball back in 1941. The highest he reached was a short stay in the Southern Association.

And Joe says he doesn't plan on trying to go any higher now.

"I've bought a filling station here in Roswell," he said. "I'll right here."

Herron Pitches Numexers to 8-2 Win over Midland; Teams Here Tonight

Midland, (P)—Artesia used a series of breaks to score five times in the seventh inning, break up a pitching duel, and score an 8-2 victory Sunday in the final game of the Longhorn All-Star series at Indian Park.

When the Indians return home after the Longhorn All-Star series they will report to new quarters at Hog Park north of the city.

Midland will be Artesia's guests in a one-night stand tonight. Tomorrow night Sweetwater comes to the city for the first of two games.

Then Thursday comes the Longhorn league all-star game.

Last night at Midland Bob Herron checked the Indians on six innings to gain the decision over Julio Torres.

After Shaky Start, Burns Wins 8-3 Carlsbad Victory

CARLSBAD, (P)—Rookie Ralph Burns survived a shaky start to pick up his second victory of the campaign here tonight as the Carlsbad Potashers kept pace in the Longhorn league race with an 8-3 victory over the Odessa Oilers.

The Potasher win gave the defending loop champs a sweep of the two-game set.

Burns gave up all three of the Oiler tallies in the initial frame as he was battered for home runs by Bob Bauer and Earl Caldwell.

But Burns' teammates got him back in the ball game in their half of the inning when they unceremoniously exposed their own that saw starter Wess Ortiz derailed and replaced by Hank Gonzales, the eventual loser.

The Potashers marked with four hits, including Goldie Gholson's three-run homer, during the first inning. They added one more run in the sixth on a pair of Odessa miscues and a sacrifice fly, and completed their scoring in the eighth as Ike Jackson walloped a two-run homer.

After the first inning, Burns was master of the situation as he displayed almost flawless control. He struck out four and walked two.

NuMexers Drop League Bat Lead to Roswell Rockets

Averages released by the Longhorn league's official statistician over the weekend show Artesia's NuMexers still leading the loop in several categories.

The averages include games of Tuesday, July 13, except San Angelo at Sweetwater, May 6; Midland at Sweetwater, May 19 (2nd); Big Spring at Sweetwater, May 22 and San Angelo at Odessa, July 13.

The NuMexers have a 319 team batting mark to lead the closest rival, Carlsbad, who has 314. However, they are trailing Roswell in the team fielding phase, 944 to 949.

In individual batting, Frank Gallardo sets the pace with .408 followed by Charlie Watts, .365; Johnny Goodell, .357; Mickey Sullivan, .341; Paul Dobkowski, .334.

Floyd Economides, .328; Bob Herron, .327; and Reuben Smartt, .324. These eight are among the first 32 hitters.

Dean Smith, Bob Boyd, and Mickey Diaz round out the list of NuMexers with averages of .293; .287, and .261.

Herron is in a triple tie for the three-bagger race lead with 10. He and Dobkowski lead the locals in the home-run department with 13 apiece.

In pitching records, Ken Foster, with a 5-1 mark stands at 833; Wayne Goodell with 10-5 has 667; Gil Johnson's 6-3 count is also 667; Bert Damaggio 6-4 for 600; and Vic Stryka, 4-4 for an even 500.

DiMaggio leads the strike-out contest with 91 whiffed.

Sporting Goods Salesman Wraps Up Tennis Title

CHICAGO (P) — In scoring his first major tennis victory, southpaw Bernard Tut Bartzten proved his 135 pounds are not to be taken lightly hereafter by the game's big guns.

Bartzten, San Angelo, Texas, sporting goods salesman, wrapped up the National Clay Court crown yesterday with a 6-2, 4-6, 6-0, 6-2 victory over the nation's premier amateur, Tony Trabert of Cincinnati.

Prior to that championship match at the suburban River Forest Tennis Club, Bartzten had whipped the country's second-ranked player, Viv Seizas of Philadelphia, 7-5, 6-4, 6-2, in a semifinal.

Trabert was ranked No. 1 for the clay court meet; Seizas, No. 2; and Bartzten, No. 4, with Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., a semifinal victim of Trabert, No. 3.

WEEKEND ROUND-UP—NuMexers Split Weekend Pair, Hold First Place

Artesia's NuMexers split a weekend pair of games but retained their 2 1/2 game lead since second-place Roswell also lost.

Friday night at Artesia the NuMexers won 10-4. Saturday night at Midland the Indians jumped on Artesia 9-3.

Saturday night starter Vic Stryka, still hampered by a sore arm, was knocked from the game after he hit one player and threw a wild pitch.

Midland jumped in with both feet, grabbing two runs in the first and three in the second.

Artesia's game was brightened only by Mickey Sullivan's homer in the fourth. Frank Gallardo later singled, then homed on Midland errors.

Joe Rainey homered for the Indians in the fourth with one aboard, and Tom Barton whammed a four-master in the sixth.

Stryka, relieved by Gil Johnson in the first frame, was tagged for the loss, his fifth.

Friday night the NuMexers broke up a 4-4 seventh inning tie with a four-run attack in the seventh and two more in the eighth to down Big Spring the second night in a row.

Big Spring had jumped to an advantage with two runs in the first inning, earned when Julio de la Torre homered with mate Johnny O'Neil aboard after two outs.

The Broncos kept the lead until Artesia countered with two in the bottom of the fourth on a double by Johnny Goodell and rookie Mickey Sullivan's homer.

The NuMexers jumped ahead 4-2 in the fifth when Dean Smith was safe on de la Torre's error, then Paul Dobkowski was walked, Goodell singled, and Charlie Watts bunted.

But the Broncos countered in the sixth with another pair on consecutive singles by Floyd Martin and Bob Doe, and a walk to Pete Simone, loading the bases. One run came in during a double play, and Tom McKenna doubled in the other. Foster was relieved by Goodell at that point.

While Goodell rationed out one hit and no runs over the last three Bronco frames, the NuMexers upset Pepper Martin's strategy in the seventh. McKenna intentionally walked two with one on to load the bases. But Frank Gallardo, next up, smashed a double that plated all three and Economides singled him home.

The NuMexers grabbed another pair in the eighth with a walk, a single, a double, and a Bronco error.

Despite Topnotch Pitching All Way, Legion Loses to Alamo

Artesia's American Legion junior baseball team went down to a 5-0 defeat Sunday at Alamogordo despite a two-hit pitching job by Bob Cerny.

Cerny turned in a smooth pitching performance except for three wild pitches which meant the difference in final scores. His mates gathered only three hits off Ortega. Alamo pitcher, in what turned out to be a close contest all the way.

The local Legion nine, which with Sunday's game now has a 2-3 record in district play, is scheduled to meet Roswell July 22. But, according to G. C. "Red" Goodwin, game to the following day to pre-efforts are being made to shift the event interference with the Longhorn league All-Star game.

Roswell is leading play with a 3-2 mark and Alamogordo has a 2-2 count. District play-offs will probably start some time next week, Goodwin said.

Midland emerged from that present but ran into trouble in the seventh when Reuben Smartt pitched out an infield hit and Paul Dobkowski walked, Mickey Diaz successfully hunted with a two-out count and the amazed Roswell batted the ball into right field, driving two runs to score. Frank Herron followed with a bad hop to right and Sullivan rapped a hop triple off the second baseman's head to complete the

Rockets Snap Three-Game Loss Streak

ROSWELL, (P)—Roswell's Rockets snapped their three-game losing streak with a 11-6 victory over San Angelo here tonight.

Steve Nunez went all the way for the Rockets, allowing eight hits in posting his 10th win of the campaign.

The veteran Audie Malone went the route for the Colts and took his eighth setback against 10 wins. Malone slammed a three-run homer in the ninth for the last three Colts runs.

Rookie Earl Symank poled a leadoff homer in the first to give the Colts a 1-0 lead, but Roswell came back fast in its half to score three times. Weldon Day shot a leadoff homer over the centerfield wall. A hit by Stubby Greer and a pair of San Angelo errors accounted for the tallies.

The Colts tied it up in the third on Jim Morgan's double and a single by Bob Hobbs.

Ossie Alvarez singled Greer in from second to give the Rockets a 4-3 lead in the fifth and the Roswell team went on to score twice in the sixth—Joe Bauman's line double off the centerfield fence doing the trick.

Three of the four Roswell runs in the eighth were unearned.

Rightfielder E-to Gonzalez made the catch of the night when he hauled in Duane White's drive in the eighth.

CVE Softballers To Play Final Carlsbad Game

CVE softballers travel south again tonight to play their last league game in the Carlsbad reaction loop against PCA.

The CVE team has a 16-1 record in the league, which makes its tops among league members. The closest rival is IMCC which has a 15-3 record.

Regardless of the outcome of the game tonight the Artesia team will be the league winner as the IMCC delegation has already finished its regular loop play.

Indications are that ace-burlier H. D. Coor will start on the mound for the locals with Dub Shields behind the plate.

Roswell's Nalley Jumps, Placed on Suspended List

ROSWELL, (P)—Roswell pitcher Gene Nalley has been placed on the indefinite suspended list, Rocket officials announced Sunday night.

The righthander, who had posted a 6-5 mark to date, "jumped the club" Friday night and was allegedly headed for his home in Louisville, Ky.

The official notice to George Trautman's office was mailed last night, league Pres. Harry James said.

Four NuMexers Elected to Longhorn Loop West All-Star Team for Classic Thursday Night

Shreveport Widens Lead, Dallas Wins

By ROBERT E. FORD
Associated Press Staff

Shreveport, No. 1 team in the Texas league, widened its lead over the three top challengers Sunday in a round of contests marked by a first-rate rhubarb at Houston.

The Sports beat Oklahoma City, the No. 3 team, 3-2; San Antonio, second in the standings, lost to last-place Dallas 6-5; and Houston, in fourth place, fell to Fort Worth 7-1. In the other game, Tulsa bested Beaumont 4-0.

Four Houston players and manager Dixie Walker were chased from the Buff-Cats game in an argument over a called strike. The strike was called on George Lerchen and resulted in Lerchen, Walker, Howie Phillips and Dick Rank being ordered off the field. In the next inning, Willard Schmidt was chased. Umpire Frenchy Arceane called for police to escort the Buffs from the stadium, and he and Umpire Bill Valentine left under police escort amid a shower of cushions at the game's end.

Ray Coleman's two homers, one with a man on, were the big hits in Fort Worth's attack.

A homerun smash by Les Fleming in the eighth inning brought the Dallas Eagles home in front. The lead changed hands four times. Pitcher Rocky Contreras was the winner. He now has won two games in the last three innings he has pitched.

Four Artesia NuMexers have been named to the Longhorn league's West All-Star team, which will meet the East in the annual Longhorn classic Thursday at Carlsbad.

The four are Flody Economides, second-place catcher on the West team; Paul Dobkowski, second base; Mickey Sullivan, outfield; and Charlie Watts, utility.

Midland dominated the East team, picking up eight players. Pitcher Frank Pickens was a unanimous choice. San Angelo Mgr. Hillis Layne was the third favorite at third base.

In the West, pitchers Bob Weaver, Carlsbad, and Mike Rainey, Big Spring, were named on all ballots. Infielders Joe Bauman and Ossie Alvarez of Roswell were unanimous also.

Carlsbad and Roswell each placed five players on the team. Respective players will be polled to select a manager for each squad. League Pres. Harry James said this announcement would be made Tuesday.

James announced the agenda for the day in Carlsbad. A meeting with league umpires is scheduled at 11 a. m. A manager and umpires' luncheon is scheduled at noon, and league meeting, open to the press, is on tap at 2:30.

James said that he still has not changed his attitude on the salary violation and other rules in the bluebook. "The only salvation of minor league baseball is that it must comply with all the rules in the book, starting with the small ones and if they are observed to the letter, the large ones will take care of themselves."

The teams were selected by a poll of manager, sportswriters and radio-casters.

Hope Springs Eternal

MOST OF US continue to hope for the good things of life. If today has been bad—we hope for a better one tomorrow. If our luck has been against us—then we figure it will improve. If mis fortune has been our lot we always hope there will be another day.

Likewise we believe in giving most everyone a second chance.

One mistake should not ruin the life of any individual, seems to be our philosophy and even in the case of a "bad apple" we are willing to forgive.

And so we presume hope springs eternal insofar as peace is concerned in this world of ours. We step in, saving certain nations, pay the bills of the war, provide for rehabilitation after the war and then try to provide defenses and war materials for those nations we have thought have been with us.

We went into World War I to save the world for democracy. Did we do it? You answer the question.

A few years later we fought World War II to save the world for democracy. And then we went into the Korean war—we fought the war for nations in the United Nations with the exception of three or four. We definitely paid the bill.

But apparently by this time we had got around to the point where we realized we could not save the world for democracy and so on this occasion we fought the world to save it from the Reds? Have we? You answer that.

So we still hope by peaceful means, reduction of war armaments, helping others and peace pacts, to bring about world peace. We are still willing to listen to England, to France, and to others—ones we have saved in the past. It is England that wants to trade with the Reds and tell us what to do and yet where would England be today without America?

The same is true of France. We are surprised we didn't have a group of Americans caught in the Delta when France gave up this section of Indo-China to the Reds. It must have been an accident.

Back in World War II we were told we couldn't trade with Hitler or do business with the Nazis. Today we have learned we cannot do business with the Reds.

And the day and time should be here when we have learned we cannot trust and depend on our so-called Allies.

Today England is more interested in an appeasement program and being able to trade with the Reds than she is in the friendship of America or perhaps it is merely a continuing of her long time program of being able to lead us around by the nose. She has done that for years.

France has used us at every opportunity but we frequently find that when we need France or England they are conspicuous by their absence. They didn't even support our move in the Guatemalan affair in the United Nations.

So knowing we can't trade with the Reds; knowing we can't trust them, knowing that appeasement never works, we sometimes wonder just how long we are going to continue to be lead around by those we have aided and helped and how long we will continue to do things our own experience tells us won't work.

It is going to be a long time before we live down our experience in Korea. But it is past time, we have thought for a long time, to stand up for what we believe; have our say right out in the open and to tell those we have backed, supported and saved for years what we are going to do and what they are going to do if they want to keep our friendship.

We believe you can count our true friends among the nations on one hand and have fingers to spare. The day may come, if we continue, when we will have to go it alone anyway. At least we might retain our self-respect and adopt a little "get tough policy." It worked for Tito with Russia, and it can work for us as long as we make the decisions instead of letting France and England make the decisions for us.

Detention Home Plan Rolling

EFFORTS FOR a juvenile detention home for the tri-county fifth judicial district are rolling in high gear following final approval of plans by the steering committee.

The highly commendable plans for the home, approved by the committee meeting here last week under chairman Harvey Yates of Artesia, now will circulate among contractors in the district.

Contractors will make their estimates of the detention home's cost for study at another meeting of the committee July 29. Estimated cost has been set at around $40,000.

The modern structure will house about 20 boys under skillfully designed maximum security conditions. Boys who district judges do not wish to send to Springer Industrial School for Boys, often described as a finishing school for would-be youthful criminals, will be sent to it.

Maximum "sentence" to the home would be 30 days.

The home was organized under an act of the 1953 legislature which permitted judicial districts in New Mexico to erect such homes and provided $3,000 to each county in the district—in this case, three—for salaries involved in the home's operation.

Funds for operation will probably be allotted by the county commissions in Eddy, Lea, and Chaves counties.

Residents in the district may play a key role in the construction of this home, the first of its type to be planned in the state since the act was passed.

To lower costs in construction, materials and labor may be sought on a voluntary basis. By thus reducing cost, the fifth judicial district could demonstrate to other, less well-heeled districts, the home is financially possible.

EDUCATORS MEET

SANTA FE, (AP)—New Mexico educators meet in Santa Fe July 19 for a series of three one-week workshops in school administration sponsored by the state committee of the New Mexico cooperative program in educational administration. Charles Mills, Hobbs school superintendent and permanent chairman of the sponsoring group, said an attendance of about 100 educators is expected.

OIL ALLOWABLE DROPPED

SANTA FE (AP)—New Mexico's allowable oil production for August was reduced by the New Mexico Oil Conservation Commission from 40 to 39 barrels in the first cutback since December. Blaming the reduction on the fallen market, the OCC brought the total production allowable to 235,521 barrels a day, of which 10,000 is allocated for new production. The July allowable was 238,185 barrels.

U.S. Housewives Get Their Say Appliance Design

(AP) Newsfeatures
CHICAGO—The American housewife is beginning to have her say on how home appliances should be designed.

One appliance manufacturer sent out a questionnaire to women on the cooking range.

A total of the results showed 61 per cent want the oven on the right while 23 per cent want a range with two ovens.

Sixty-four per cent want the four surface units clustered on the left side of the cooking top. Only 11 per cent said they want a divided arrangement with two units on each side.

Two storage drawers for pots and pans were desired by 75 per cent, and 37 per cent want one wide drawer across the bottom.

Pushbuttons and rotary switches across the back were desired by 53 per cent. Only 15 per cent checked yes for front controls.

Thirty-nine per cent said they must have minute timers and automatic controls and 51 per cent said "would like."

Almost 50 per cent said they wanted a range equipped with a plug-in surface griddle or deep-fat French fryer.

OBEYED ORDERS

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Patrolman V. A. Napier asked a man in the passenger's seat of a car parked in a prohibited zone to move it. The man complied, backed in to another automobile and was charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants. He was acquitted in court although tests showed he was intoxicated.

WHEN will we find a real CURE for CANCER?

ONE BY ONE, most of man's natural enemies have become only bitter memories. HOW ABOUT CANCER? THE TRUTH is that this terrible disease can already be completely cured in about half of the cases... if caught in time. THE OTHER HALF can be helped. They cannot yet—be saved. RESEARCH aimed at a final, complete solution to the cancer problem is proceeding as fast as available funds permit. Last year, with the help of $5 million allocated by the American Cancer Society from donations made by Americans everywhere, encouraging progress was made. BUT "ENCOURAGING PROGRESS" is not enough. More money is needed. After all, $5 million is less than four cents per American per year. When your American Cancer Society Volunteer calls on you, this year, won't you please try to manage a really generous contribution? A big check, if you please... it's really needed!

AMONG pictures brought back from his recent trips down the San Juan river by Jack Frost of Artesia are these three. Photo at top shows member of party preparing food against magnificent backdrop of cliffs rising from river level.

CENTER: Low water level in the river encountered by Frost this year disclosed these tracks embedded in rock. Frost figures they must have been made by prehistoric animals, but declines for time being guess on what animal may have been. Rock has been unheaved since tracks were made.

RIGHT: This is Frost, at peace with the world, as would anyone who "gets away from it all" so successfully as he does in annual San Juan trips.

United Nations Shoeshine Boy Learns Tongues

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
New Features
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.
James Rinaldi is perhaps the only living shoeshine boy who can say "shoe shine" in 27 languages...

It goes very big in my business, he explains. "That's why I picked it up."
If he sings out in Spanish, for example, somebody may ask, "Are you from Honduras?" and one thing leading to another, pretty soon he has sold a shine for 15 cents plus tip.

He works eight hours a day, five days a week, at his stand just outside the cafeteria on the fourth floor of the secretariat building, or sometimes going from office to office, wherever he is invited. He guesses he averages about 55 shines a day.

Europeans at first showed sales resistance; their habit is to shine their own shoes or else leave them outside hotel rooms overnight to be shined while they sleep. But by now many of them have come around to being customers of Rinaldi's.

The action will incidentally serve as a preventative measure to prevent widespread flaring of casinghead gas in event future Federal Power commission action should cut the price of that type of gas at the wellhead, Macey said.

His bond has been set at $100.

Accusations Are Hurlled in Fight Over Hall Estate

DALLAS (AP)—Charges and countercharges of "slander and hearsay" were hurled in a preliminary conference on who is to handle what parts of the multi-million dollar estate of a late New Mexico oilman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hall killed in a private plane wreck last year, left a will which named the Citizens National Bank of Abilene and the Albuquerque National Bank to handle the affairs of the state in Texas, and New Mexico, respectively.

The largest part of the estate, however, is in stock of the Condor Petroleum Co., of which Hall was the principal owner. The estate is estimated at 12 million dollars.

The wrangle between the two banks is over which will administer the stock in Condor.

Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson, before whom the conference was held, said the estate would be "dissipated" if "legal wrangling" is unchecked.

Also confronting the estate and Condor is settlement of a federal inheritance claim reported amounting to "several millions of dollars."

The three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Richard, Charles and Jim, all of Albuquerque, have hired a team of lawyers and have protested being made partners to the civil suit pending over which bank will handle the Condor stock. Their protest is based on being made a party of the suit without being told what the banks want to do with assets of the estate.

A pre-trial conference for "every-one" interested in the estate has been scheduled July 29 in Dallas.

said there is nothing stopping the jailing of violators.

"I considered doing this in 1950 when I was a police judge in Eddy county and I heard of a Arizona judge fining violators an hour a mile over the speed limit," Robinson said. "I used to fine a dollar a mile."

It would be legal to detain a speeder if the ordinance allows, Robinson said. He added most ordinances provide for a fine or a jail sentence.

Roach said the coming of extensive four-lane highways to the state will not increase the number of speeders materially.

"Radar and our patrolmen will take care of that," he said. "Our radar now is taking the place of 10 or 12 men. Recently we checked La Bajada Hill near Santa Fe—a four laner—for several hours with radar and only found three speeders."

"The high speed highways won't be the problem. It's education and understanding of the danger by drivers."

Police said a medical examination showed Montano had cataracts on his eyes and that his vision was probably very poor.

Secena, a Sandia Base military policeman, died when the car he was driving failed to make a curve 4½ miles east of Albuquerque on U.S. 66 Saturday. The car plunged down a 65-foot embankment, killing Secena and injuring two others. Police blamed excessive speed.

The injured are Billie E. Hill, 21, and Ronald Lukas, 21, both of Sandia Base. Hill is listed in critical condition with head, chest and internal injuries in a Sandia hospital.

Miss Kurtz was the third person to die as a result of a flaming car-truck crash near Las Cruces July 10. Gilbert and Pauline Garcia died in the wreck. Miss Kurtz, who was riding in their pickup truck, was Mrs. Garcia's sister.

More Showers, Thunderstorms Predicted for NM

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Continued shower and thunderstorm activity is forecast for New Mexico for today and Tuesday—but the storms are expected to be less numerous than they were over the weekend.

The storm activity kicked up considerably over the weekend, but the amount of moisture the showers left behind was almost negligible. What it did accomplish was to hold temperatures below the century mark.

Portales received the most rain with 22 inch during the 24-hour period ending at 5:30 a. m. Monday. Santa Fe was next with 19 inch. There were traces at Las Vegas, Hobbs and Albuquerque.

Other precipitation amounts included .13 at Socorro, .06 at Gallup, .04 at Roswell, .02 at both Columbus and Clovis and .01 at Zuni.

The high Sunday was 99 degrees at both Carlsbad and Tucumcari while Las Vegas had the lowest maximum, a reading of 81 degrees. Carlsbad had the high overnight temperature with 75 while Gallup was low with a maximum of 53 overnight.

Hundreds Return To Strikebound A-Bomb Factories

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP)—Hundreds of AFL construction workers returned to work on two strike bound atomic plant projects today following a back to work plea from union leaders.

Other hundreds again refused to cross picket lines thrown up by striking AFL laborers in defiance of a court order banning picketing near the jobs.

There was no immediate estimate of the total returning to work.

Sheriff's deputies stood by at at least three of the six gates to the plants' area at the request of the atomic energy commission to "insure employees reporting to work are permitted to enter their work areas."

There were no reports of any incidents on the picket lines as the back-to-work movements got under way.
