House Passes Bill Outlawing Communist Party, Stripping Red Unions of Rights

Compromise Farm Bill Wins Okay

WASHINGTON — A compromise farm bill carrying out most of President Eisenhower's requests was agreed upon today by a Senate-House conference committee.

It must still go back to the House and Senate for final approval. Passage appeared likely despite the rush for adjournment by the end of the week.

A deadlock which threatened to tie up the bill indefinitely was broken by agreement of a majority of House conferees to accept a lower level of dairy supports voted by the Senate.

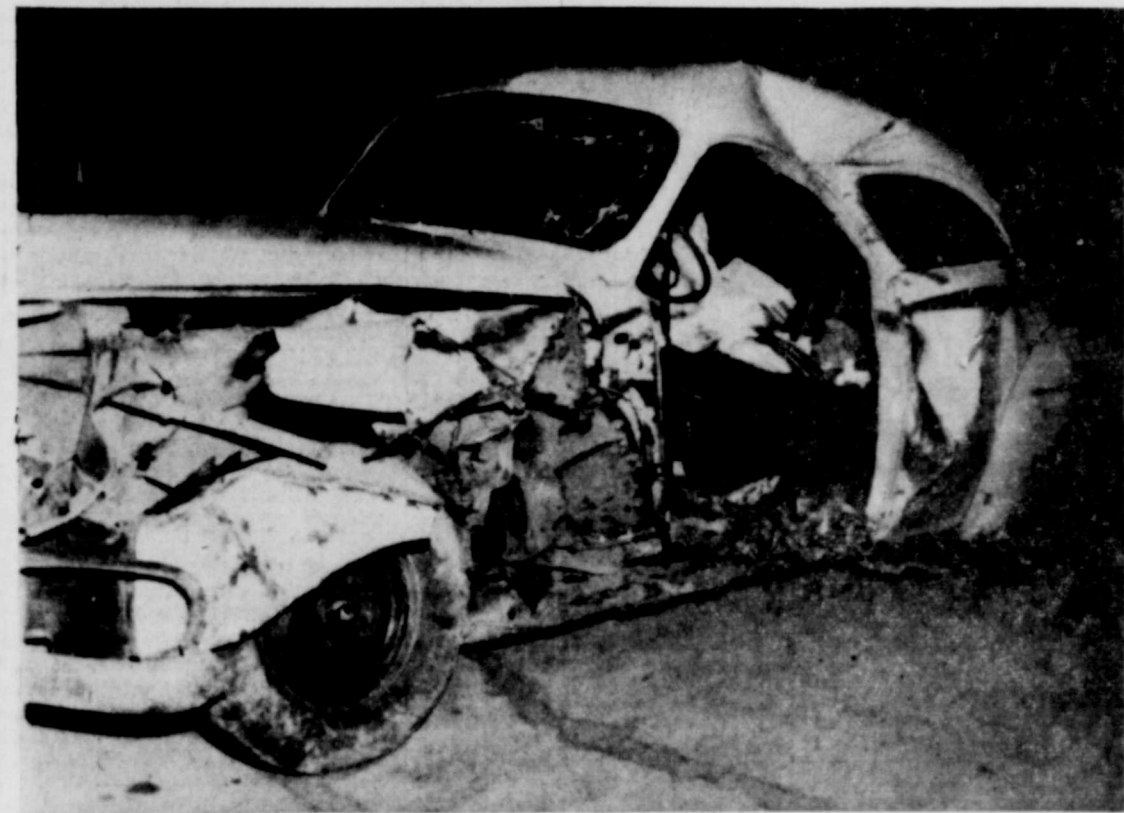

Only Sen. Young (R-N.D.) of the eight Senate conferees, and Rep. Anderson (R-Minn.) of the five House spokesmen, refused to sign the hardfought compromise which calls for dairy price supports at 75 per cent of parity.

Anderson insisted upon the higher dairy supports of 80 per cent voted by the House.

Senate conferees have said this is the last major roadblock to complete agreement on a farm bill that would carry out President Eisenhower's plan for a shift to flexible price supports on five basic crops.

Aiken, with powerful backing from Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Benson, wants hold price supports for butter, cheese, milk and other dairy products at the present level. Benson last April cut dairy crops from 90 to 75 per cent of parity.

Parity is a price standard said by law to be fair in relation to farm costs.

Congressional Leaders Seek Senate Okay

WASHINGTON — A bill outlawing the Communist party and stripping all legal rights from Communist dominated unions today won House approval.

The votes was 305 for the bill and two against.

Congressional leaders agreed at a White House conference earlier to try to push through Congress a new bill to outlaw the Communist party as such.

In a session with President Eisenhower, the decision was to get the House to pass a measure declaring the Communist party is unlawful and without any rights.

It would not make membership in the party by individuals unlawful. But Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) and Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.) said the government already can go after individual Communists, and is doing so, under the Smith Act, which makes it illegal to conspire to overthrow the government.

The new approach is intended to supplant a bill that whipped through the Senate last week which would make it a crime to belong to the Communist party provided a person committed an overt act while a party member.

Ferguson explained the plan agreed upon today approaches the question from the standpoint of the Communist party as such rather than individual members.

Martin and Ferguson, the latter chairman of the Senate Republican policy committee, said the new plan is acceptable to the administration. They said Atty. Gen. Brownell sat in on the White House discussions this morning.

Reyes Rodriguez and Manuel D. Onizure, both of Artesia, were fined $100 apiece this morning in city court, in the first of a concentrated attack by local law enforcement agencies on carriers of deadly weapons.

The pair are also charged with fighting and have entered pleas of innocent to that charge. Two more local men, Enrique Orozco and Victorio Fuentes, who were involved in the fracas Saturday night, have pled guilty to the fighting charge.

The charges against the four are scheduled to be heard before Judge John Ellicott this afternoon at 4 p. m.

Officers Continue Probe of Death in Fort Sumner Riot
FORT SUMNER, (AP)—Sheriff's officers today continued investigation into the death early Sunday morning of Gilbert Gallegos—fatally stabbed during a dance hall riot involving 300 persons.

Sheriff Sam Martin said he was holding six Portales men ranging in age from 20 to 53 in connection with the stabbing of the 25-year-old Fort Sumner native. No charges have been filed.

The riot broke out about 1 a. m. after peace officers had left to chase a drunk driver. When they returned about five minutes later, Martin said, Gallegos was dead and several persons injured.

Gallegos died instantly from a stab wound in the heart, Martin said.

Josie Armijo, Portales, was hospitalized at Portales. She may lose the sight of one eye hit by a rock.

Martin said the six were picked up by Portales police at his residence.

Get-Tough Policy On Juveniles Set By Officers Here
A get-tough policy with juveniles as a result of a recent gang fight in which a 17-year-old boy was fatally stabbed by a 13-year-old has been set in motion in Artesia.

Juvenile officer J. D. Josey said Saturday morning one boy, 15, already has been jailed for carrying a deadly weapon—a two-foot section of tire chain.

The boy was arrested in a local theater where he was fighting. The chain was in his pocket.

Juveniles who carry deadly weapons, including chains, pocket knives with long blades, and homemade blackjacks will be jailed, Judge Josey said.

The youth is being held in the Artesia city jail until next Wednesday. Judge Josey said sentences for youths found carrying deadly weapons will be set for "a few days" while he investigates their background.

The new policy follows a conference of local law authorities concerned over the circumstances which led to the fatal stabbing of Nick Gomez, 17, of Artesia Aug. 7 at a Catholic church here by 13-year-old Eulalio Solgado of Carlsbad. Charges of first degree murder.

Underground Survey Launched In Roswell Basin

An initial survey and analysis of underground water in the Roswell artesian basin, which supplies irrigation water for the Artesia area, is scheduled to start within a week.

The survey will be conducted by Dr. S. M. Hantush, according to a telegram received by John F. Russell, attorney for the Pecos Valley artesian water conservancy district.

The survey is costing the district $20,000 annually.

The survey, estimated to take six months in its first phase, is designed to assemble and analyze all recorded data recorded on the underground water in the basin.

Recommendations will be following the study to the district, which will then decide whether a full survey will be to be launched on the basis of initial findings.

The full survey would present an accurate long range picture of water potential in the basin.

The survey was ordered through basin-wide concern water in the Roswell artesian basin is being overruled and continuous extreme use will ruin the valley's basic farm economy, as well as municipal water supplies.

Law Biggest Tax Revision In History
By CHARLES F. BARRETT
WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower today signed into law the biggest tax revision program in history—what he called a "monumental" overhaul that will benefit all Americans.

The new law, Eisenhower said in a statement, will "help millions of Americans by giving them a fairer tax treatment." At the same time, he added, it "will help our economy expand and thus add materially to the strength of our nation."

The new law brings about tax reductions for millions of individuals and nearly all corporations. In all, the initial year's tax cuts will total about $1,363,000,000. This will be increased later as the new program takes full effect.

School Enrollment Opens, See 10 Per Cent Increase

An increase of 5 to 10 per cent in enrollment is expected to be shown during school enrollment which opens today, and the first days of school, George P. White, director of instruction, said today.

School will start Monday, Aug. 23, two weeks from today.

Pre-school registration started today at 9 a. m. and will continue through this week and the first three days of next week.

Principals are in their offices at Artesia schools from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. daily, White said.

Parents are urged to accompany their youngsters during registration, school officials said. They urged parents of children entering Artesia schools for the first time to bring children's birth certificate or baptismal record.

White said school officials expected the increase of 5 to 10 per cent at elementary school levels, but "we are not certain what the picture will be at the high school level."

First Drunk Driving Case Since Decision Is Heard
The first DWI case to come before city police judge John Elliott since the recent ruling by the state Supreme Court permitting the hearing of such cases, resulted in a $100 fine this morning for Martin Hernandez, Artesia.

Hernandez pled guilty to that charge and also to a driving without-a-license charge and was fined $110 total. His license was suspended for an additional year.

Such cases were barred from city courts after a ruling by District Judge C. Roy Anderson. However, the state's high court ruled that the city courts could hear the cases.

The ruling resulted from a difference of opinion among district judges in New Mexico. Some held DWI cases could not be heard there and others held they could.

City ordinances in Artesia carry a $50-$300 fine for the charge or imprisonment of not less than 30 days nor more than 90.

Hernandez' fine was paid and he was released.

Artesia Win, Roswell Loss Ups NuMexer League Lead to 7 1/2 Games

Chester Holds Indians Down To Two Hits

After being hit out of a shut-out win with a last minute Indian rally Saturday night, Artesia blanked Midland here 2-0 Sunday night behind the two-hit pitching of Al Chester.

The win and a Roswell loss to Odessa 7-3 put the NuMexers 7 1/2 games into the Longhorn lead, the widest margin held by any first place team this season in the league.

Tonight Midland returns to Artesia Municipal park for the last of a three-game series. The NuMexers then go to Sweetwater for a two game series under a schedule change.

Chester walked two in the last frame with two outs, but Scooter Hughes, who started Saturday's rally, flied out.

Frank Gallardo, Artesia second baseman, was credited with both Artesia's RBIs, while Reuben Smartt, NuMexer shortstop, got both runs.

Loser Ralph Atkinson yielded only seven hits, scattered over four innings.

One pair came in the fourth, when Smartt singled and Gallardo doubled him home. Another pair came in the eighth when Smartt doubled and Gallardo singled to home him.

It was Chester's second win of the campaign since joining the NuMexers, against one loss. Atkinson now holds a 12-8 record.

Odessa Oilers Get Second Straight Over Roswell, 7-3

ODESSA — (AP) — The Odessa Oilers, for the second time in a row, defeated the second-place Roswell Rockets, 7-3, Sunday.

Mike Sotelo held the hard-hitting Rockets to eight safeties in chalking up his ninth win against six defeats. The two clubs meet in the final of the series at Oiler Park Monday night with Ray Mink (3-0) scheduled to work for Odessa against Tom Sawyer.

Odessa drew first blood Sunday when Barney Batson singled home Mink. The Rockets took a 2-1 lead in the fourth on Pat Stasey's homer following Joe Bauman's triple. But the Oilers charged back with four runs in the bottom of the sixth, the tallies coming on four hits and two Roswell errors. Stubby Greer singled home Ros-well's Hernandez in the seventh to cut the margin to 5-3 but the Oilers got the run back in the bottom of the same inning when Batson sent Mink across on a sacrifice fly. Mink had tripled. The final Odessa run came in the eighth when Hank Gonzales drove in Jamie Fals on a force out.

Hernandez gave up six runs in seven innings but only one was earned. He struck out eight, six of them in a row. He got the last Oiler in the third, retired the side on strikeouts in the fourth, and got the first two in the fifth.

NuMexers Split Weekend Pair, Maintain First Place Lead

Seesawing over the weekend, the Artesia NuMexers clubbed Big Spring 16-6 at Big Spring Friday night, but turned in an error-riddled performance to lose 6-5 to Midland here Saturday.

Despite the loss Artesia retained its 6 1/2 game lead in Longhorn league first place, since Roswell also lost Saturday.

Saturday night leading 5-0 to going into the top of the ninth, the NuMexers fell before a Midland last-minute rally which put the Indians on top in overtime 6-5.

The Indians slammed five runs in the ninth to tie the score before the NuMexers could get any outs. Then the league leaders pulled themselves together and retired three in a row to send the game into extra innings.

In the 10th Rudy Briner went first on an error at shortstop. Scooter Hughes was safe on a fielder's choice which put Briner out, and he stole second. He was homed on a play from Artesia hurler Bart DiMaggio to first.

Artesia had scored one in the first, two in the fourth, and another pair in the eighth. DiMaggio until the ninth had held Midland to three hits and no runs.

Then Briner started with a single, followed by Hughes and Terrasi. Julio Ramos was safe on an error, and Ben Jones singled and Tom Barton doubled to clean the sacks.

Ramos picked up his 16th win of the season against nine losses. Artesia left no margin for error in the final innings, as they did the previous night, when they clubbed Big Spring 16-6 Friday evening in the final meeting of the year between the two clubs.

San Francisco 49er Star Hurt In Victory Game

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — The San Francisco 49ers broke the New York Giants' jinx yesterday, but their come-from-behind 43-35 National Football League exhibition game victory may be costly.

End Cordy Soltau, leading NFL scorer last year with his pass receiving, converting and field goal kicking, suffered a shoulder separation which will keep him out of action for two months.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROUNDUP—

Milwaukee Spree Shows No Sign of Letting Up Despite Brooklyn's Three Wins Over Giants

By JACK HAND A Sports Writer

Brooklyn's glee over dumping "them Giants" three in a row is tempered by the knowledge that giddy Milwaukee, on a nine-game spree, shows no signs of running out of firewater.

The Giants' lead, once a bulging seven games, now measures only half a game over the Dodgers. The Braves are 3 1/2 games behind.

If Brooklyn beats the Phillies tonight in the only game scheduled, they'll trail New York by only .002.

Brooklyn bumped off New York yesterday 9-4 for a sweep of their three-game series, while Milwaukee squeaked past Chicago 2-1.

St. Louis barely survived, 14-12, over Cincinnati when Gus Bell, Ted Kluszewski and Jim Greengrass hit successive homers in the ninth inning. Pittsburgh won its fourth straight 9-6, its longest streak of the year, at Philadelphia and rallied to tie the second game 6-6 in the eighth when the curfew forced play to be suspended.

Cleveland moved three full games in front of New York in the American league race. The Indians ran their winning streak to six by downing Baltimore 5-2 and 3-1.

The Yanks scored eight in the first inning on the way to a 14-9 decision over Boston, their seventh straight. Chicago was practically eliminated from the pennant race by losing twice to Detroit 2-1 and 8-7, dropping 9 1/2 games behind Cleveland. Johnny Schmitz pitched Washington to a 4-1 victory over Philadelphia.

Billy Loes' pitching was a most important factor in Brooklyn's success against New York. The young right-hander calmly set down the Giants with seven hits for his sixth straight triumph. After Jim Hearn's wildness presented the Brooks with three gift runs in the second, the sluggers took over. Duke Snider and Gil Hodges homered and Jackie Robinson contributed two doubles. Willie Mays hit No. 37—his first since July 28—and Ray Katt, Al Dark and Hank Thompson also hit home runs for New York.

Gene Conley, the Braves' lanky rookie, won his 12th with a seven-hitter that included six infield hits. Joe Adcock's double and Johnny Logan's single in the fourth provided the winner after Milwaukee scored an unearned run on Vern Morgan's wild throw in the third.

The homers by Bell, Kluszewski and Greengrass tied a record held by many clubs but couldn't save Cincinnati from defeat. Joe Cunningham's homer with two on and Stan Musial's 31st helped the Cards win a wild one.

Broncs Defeat Sweetwater By 8-3 Sunday

BIG SPRING — (AP) — In a game which saw Luis Caballero play every position in the lineup, Big Spring handed the Sweetwater Spudders their 19th straight defeat by gaining an 8-3 verdict here Sunday afternoon.

Caballero, a Negro rookie from Cuba, started out as the Steeds' third sacker and wound up as their catcher.

He served a one-inning stint on the hill in the eighth and fanned two of the three batters to face him.

As the third sacker, he made an important save on a line drive that killed a Sweetwater rally.

Offensively, he made his presence felt, too. He delivered two singles in five tries, scored a run, and stole a base.

To prove himself human, he committed an error on a fly ball while playing at second base.

Bertie Baez worked eight innings on the mound for Big Spring to receive credit for his 15th victory of the season. Baez is experiencing his best season since 1947, when he won 17 decisions for Big Spring.

Huck Ode and Jim Zapp got the Broncs off on the right foot with first inning homers, each coming with a man on base.

Wayne McMillan, a pitcher filling in in the outfield for Sweetwater, clubbed a sixth-inning four-master for the Spudders.

Clovis in Financial Tough Spot, Launches Fund Drive

CLOVIS, (AP) — West Texas-New Mexico league officials today kept their fingers crossed as the debt-ridden Clovis member started a last ditch fund raising campaign.

The club announced over the weekend that it must raise $8,000 by Thursday or the franchise will be turned over to the class C league Friday.

But both club officials and league Pres. Hal Sayles expressed confidence Clovis fans would rally to the support of the team as they have in past seasons when the going got rough.

"I am confident that we will raise the money," said Bern Gantner, president of the club.

He said the team had been forced to similar drives in recent seasons and "our Clovis fans have always come through."

"I am sure they will meet the crisis again this year."

Sayles, contacted in Abilene, said he had not received any formal notice from the Clovis club but that he knew of its plight. He said he felt sure the club would find a way to stick out the season.

"I have full confidence of the club's ability to operate for the remainder of the season," he said.

Gantner said the club's financial troubles result from a $9,000 tax obligation from last year, the heavy cost of current operations, and a decline in attendance for the past two home stands.

"You can say that we can definitely finish the season if we get this money this week," he said.

The league now is operating with seven teams as a result of the collapse about a month ago of the Borger club due to financial troubles.

Desert Becomes Hotbed of Progress

DON'T LOOK NOW but the desert country of the Southwest—semi-arid, we prefer to call it—is being hailed as the center of what is practically a revolution in living.

No less an authority than the authentic U. S. News & World Report declares "a vast new farming and industrial empire is springing up on what was once the dry desert area of Arizona and New Mexico. Both of these states are now being 'discovered' by business—and the desert country is booming."

These two states, the magazine points out, are the fastest growing states in the union. There's new money pouring in, people not-footing it into the region, mines shovelling out nature's wealth, more shops and factories opening every month. "People prospect for water just as Texans hunt for oil," the magazine says.

The region is a crossroads for transcontinental routes, whether in the air, on the rails, or the highways, its climate is fabulous, soil rich, markets growing rapidly on all sides, and unlimited space available for industrial expansion.

The boom in the desert has resulted in big firms like Hughes Aircraft (Tucson), Goodyear Tire & Rubber (Phoenix), and AResearch (Phoenix), moving to the Southwest. In Albuquerque more than 500 small factories and shops now turn out a variety of products from auto trailers to pianos.

The critical problem, U. S. News & World Report points out, is water. Underground water is being used up. As water levels drop, wells must be dug deeper and pumps run longer. That adds to farming costs, already squeezed by falling prices.

The magazine reports the move that Colorado river water be tapped for the Central Arizona Project and the San Juan diversion project, both blocked so far by already water hungry California.

We would like to make two points:
1—Those who jibe at the comments in this space of possible industrial growth for Artesia, as well as for all New Mexico, are old fogies who don't know what's going on around them, and,
2—Water is the critical problem facing those who would get behind this region's growth and push it. Work on that problem can as well begin here in always aggressive Artesia as anywhere else.

Mrs. Cecil Pollard Guest Of Honor at Stork Event

By MRS. RAY PATE

Mrs. Cecil Pollard was honored at a pink and blue shower at the home of Mrs. Clarence Melvin Pearson on Cottonwood Friday night.

The honor guest was presented with a pink feathered corsage which held a tiny bluebird. She was attired in an attractive aquad and navy silk dress.

Several clever and original games were played and prizes were awarded. The hostess was the originator of some of the games.

The honoree was assisted in opening the huge assortment of dainty gifts by her mother, Mrs. Charlie Nelson, who chose a pastel blue dress for the occasion.

Mixed bouquets in pastel hues decorated the entertaining rooms.

Mrs. Pearson, hostess, who had not fully recovered from being ill for several days, was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Alois Goodson and cousins, Barbara Peters, and niece, Sue Ingram.

Individually decorated cakes, iced in white with a blue question-mark and pink rosebuds were served with frosted punch, mints, and nuts.

Friends present and who sent gifts were: Mmes. John Lane, Earl Jones, John Havener, Jr., August Nelson and daughter, Jeannette; Charlie Nelson, Alois Goodson, Betty Jean Heine, T. E. McCullough, Jimmie Funk, Clarence Pearson, Ed Shrock, C. F. Smith, Pat Coor, Ray Pate, Ruth Pearson, Roy Ingram and daughters, Sue and Betty, and Barbara Peters.

Safety Mark Set By Southwestern Public Service

Southwestern Public Service Co. employees have now worked two-million consecutive man-hours without a lost-time accident, the longest continuous accident-free period in the company's history, and one of the top safety records among the nation's electric light and power companies.

Only seven other electric companies in the country have achieved the two-million mark for the entire company, the records of the Edison Electric Institute reveal. The EEI award for recognition of million man-hour or more safety accomplishments was inaugurated in 1943, and to be the eighth out of nearly 300 member companies

POOLER, Ga. — Churchfolk had identification troubles when C. E. Smith was pastor of the First Baptist Church and C. E. Smith, Jr. (not the other's son) was pastor of the Methodist church.

The Methodist Smith was transferred and replaced by Gilbert Ramsey. But that didn't solve everything because the pastor of the Rothwell Street Baptist church is Carter Ramsey.

THE NEW TAX LAW— Farmers Get Tax Cuts By Building Ponds, Ditches

(This is the seventh in a series explaining how the new tax revision law affects individuals.)
By CHARLES F. BARRETT
WASHINGTON — A farmer can now get a tax cut by building himself a pond . . . or digging a ditch.

This is one of the special effects of the huge tax revision law. In passing out scores of tax benefits, Congress didn't forget the farmer in this congressional election year. The law permits a farmer to deduct from his income, on tax returns, many outlays for soil or water conservation. Even at the minimum 20 per cent tax rate, each $100 in new deductions means a tax cut of $20.

The deductions for that purpose are limited in any one year to 25 per cent of the taxpayer's gross income from farming. Note that if you have income aside from farming, you can't deduct 25 per cent of your total income.

IF YOU SPEND more than 25 per cent of your farm income for soil or water conservation in any one year, you can carry forward the amount over 25 per cent and deduct it on your return the next year. You can keep on carrying these expenditures forward as many years as needed to get your full deduction—but you still can't deduct more than 25 per cent of farm income in any one year.

Soil and water conservation expenses involve moving or treating dirt. They can include such things as leveling, grading, terracing, contour furrowing, construction of diversion channels, drainage ditches, controlling and protecting watercourses, ponds, earthen dams, elimination of brush or planting of windbreaks.

In the past, expenditures for most of these things generally have been added for tax purposes to the original cost of the land. Usually no deduction was allowed for them unless the land was sold. Then they could be counted in figuring whether you made a profit on the sale.

EXPERTS BELIEVE a half million farmers will claim new deductions under the new law. They figure the farmers will get tax cuts amounting to 10 million dollars. The revenue loss would be greater, except many farmers already pay little or no income tax.

Aside from his personal expenditures the law permits a farmer to deduct special assessments by soil and water conservation districts if they are spent for purposes which would be deductible on the farmer's individual return. A farmer can deduct expenses starting last Jan. 1. But he must decide, in the first year he pays for such things, whether he wants to deduct them or still follow the old law. Once he reports his decision, he can't change his method without permission from the Revenue Service.

Another tax benefit for farmers in the new law provides that proceeds from sale or exchange of diseased livestock are not taxed if they are reinvested in livestock within one year.

Farmers also pay no tax on proceeds from sale of land necessary to meet acreage limitations under reclamation laws, provided they invest the proceeds into more land—presumably in another reclamation or irrigation district.

Law Biggest—

could have one as a souvenir. Holding up the 929-page bill, the President grinned and remarked: "I must say that represents a long, long bunch of work."

Eisenhower said the bill is part of a comprehensive program which since last Jan. 1, "will have provided for tax cuts totaling $7,400,000,000—the largest dollar tax cut in any year in the nation's history."

AS EXAMPLE of fairer tax treatment for individuals, Eisenhower singled out these: Parents of dependent children can keep them as dependents regardless of how much the children earn.

Retired persons will get extra tax credits. Taxpayers now will be able to claim some non-relatives as dependents.

Farmers will be allowed to deduct part of the cost of soil and water conservation. Deductions for medical expenses will be more liberal.

DEDUCTIONS are provided for working widows and many other mothers for child care expenses. People getting sick benefits paid by employers need not pay any tax on this income, up to $100 a week.

Provisions affecting business, the President said, will "help our people produce better goods at cheaper prices." The tax law, he said, "also will help create more jobs."

The contest will close at 11:30 p. m. Sept. 4 during a dance to be held. The coronation will take place at Veterans Memorial building Sept. 11. The cape and crown will be on exhibit at the Chamber of Commerce Aug. 16 through 23.

Dr. Pepper Route Salesmen Compete For Big Prizes

Route salesmen of the Dr. Pepper Bottling Company of Artesia, accustomed to driving a big truck around town every week, are pushing their trucks a little harder these days in hopes that they will be driving a different kind of vehicle this fall—a sleek new Cadillac.

It's no dream on the routeman's part, either. John F. Farmer, owner of the local Dr. Pepper plant reports that the parent firm, Dr. Pepper Co., has announced a $70,000 incentive contest, described as the biggest in the history of the soft drink industry.

Among the hundreds of prizes offered to routemen are 55 expense-paid, 3-day vacation trips to the company's national headquarters in Dallas and the Cadillac Plant managers, who are also included in the incentive program, will have to settle for a Ford Ranch Wagon.

Winners will be determined by percentage increase in sales between now and Sept. 11.

CHARLES HOWE GRUBSTAKERS

During the next four or five weeks you will probably be made an offer of two dollars for each dollar of grubstake money you have in the new outfit, suit yourself about selling of course, but before you sell, I want you to know the following:

I am putting the Vicksburg Consolidated mines and mill into this set up, this group of property includes the Ashdown mine which has produced around one million dollars and is not hardly scratched. All the heavy mill equipment is new, not even soiled. Water lines are in and camp building is ready to move into, including running water and even bathrooms, three of them I believe.

I am also working as fast as I can to close the deal on the great Sierra Estate in Northern California, which is 38,000 acres of privately owned mineral land. Everyone will get a bite in that also, one way or another.

There is also a lot of tungsten property going into the deal and undoubtedly considerable uranium property. Personally I am not crazy about uranium, it's pretty wild.

Our potential is at least one hundred times what it was when you entered into this Grubstake deal. I will say again that it is up to you if you sell or not when you are approached. BUT THINK FIRST ANYWAY. I will pass along more information as soon as I can. Right now I am up to my ears in work.

I may as well say also that the Artesia project is not out of the picture by any means and I'll be there. However, I am laboring through confusion which is nation wide and no particular persons fault as I can see. However we have that confusion to contend with and I am not immune. All I can do is the best I can as fast as I can.

Death of EDC Becomes Political Hot Potato in NM

SANTA FE — The issue of who killed the economic development commission of New Mexico has become a political hot potato.

Alvin Stockton, Republican gubernatorial candidate, charged Democratic candidate John Simms with trying to "brazen out" an "untruth that the GOP killed the EDC in 1951."

Simms made that charge more than a week ago in a speech at Grants. He said the Republicans had cut off the EDC in 1951 when no funds were appropriated for the commission to investigate the possibility of bringing more industry to New Mexico.

The Republicans came right back and said both the House and the Senate were controlled by Democrats in 1951. Simms, this weekend, said the Democrats had split on the issue but the Republicans were solidly against it because Gov. Edwin L. Mechem had decided it must be killed.

Simms described the Republican countercharge as a "frantic election year attempt to cover up their own failing."

Stockton said Simms appears "stuck with his assertion which we proved to be untrue and is now trying to brazen it out." He said the facts were:

"Money was short in 1951. The Legislature had to decide where to cut. The Democratic chairman of the House appropriations committee said at the time 'I am of the opinion EDC is one of the agencies where we can eliminate.' His Democratic counterpart in the Senate agreed."

Stockton called for an end to the fuss over the EDC and said both he and Simms agree on the need for attracting industry to New Mexico.

The first letter was sent out to business firms in Artesia several weeks ago. The information requested for the brochure is an attempt to sell outside businesses to the fact that the local area has good conditions for business, Scott said.

State Petroleum Industry Council To Study Taxes

SANTA FE — Means of strengthening all state gasoline tax laws so as to prevent evasion of taxes and substitutions will be discussed at the fifth annual convention of the New Mexico Petroleum Industries Committee here Sept. 12-14.

The committee is composed of persons in the business of providing the state with every type of petroleum product. Executive Sec. Fred Linn said it was grown from seven companies and approximately 300 members from its formation here in 1933 to 17 producing companies and more than 3,000 members now.

Linn listed as the committee's chief objectives: Opposition to unreasonable increases in gasoline taxes; a policy that gasoline tax money should be used only for road construction and maintenance; opposition to unreasonable restrictions upon the operation of motor vehicles; and a belief that taxation of petroleum products should be left solely to the states.

quest after they left the dance hall and drove to Portales. They were returned to Fort Sumner. Eight others taken into custody by Portales police later were released.

Martin said "There had been quite a bit of drinking at the dance all through the night and several people were drunk." However, he said he did not know what set off the ruckus.

More than 300 people were at the dance when the riot started. Martin said most took part in the fight. Outside, as peace officers broke up the battle, rocks were thrown at cars and several were damaged. Three cars carrying the 14 persons back to Portales were battered by rocks.

Martin said Gallegos was stabbed with a sharp instrument believed to be a pocket knife now in the hands of the police. A coroner's jury ruled he died at the hands of person or persons unknown.

youth involved in the fight which ended with the stabbing.

His case was referred by Dist. Judge C. Roy Anderson to the Artesia justice of peace court, where charges of assault with a deadly weapon and handling a deadly weapon in a threatening manner were filed against him.

He entered pleas of innocent to the first charge and guilty to the second. Preliminary hearing has been set for Tuesday.

Lovington Police Force Dwindles By Firing, Resigning

LOVINGTON — This city is virtually without a police force over the weekend after two patrolmen were fired, a third suspended and the chief quit Saturday.

Two deputies from the sheriff's department were assigned to patrol the city upon an appeal for help from members of the Lovington board of trustees.

City officials said it started when Patrolman Foy Addison was discharged last Tuesday as an economy move. On Saturday Addison was joined by two companions—both members of the police department. According to city officials, they "celebrated" Addison's discharge.

Upon learning of the "celebration," city officials fired one of the policemen, identified as Leiland Hart. The other, whose name was not revealed, was on vacation at the time. He was suspended.

Then Chief of Police Joe Price announced he was quitting the force "in disgust."

Members of the board of trustees called a special meeting today to iron out the situation.

Gallup Ceremonial Ends, Thousands Begin Home Trek

GALLUP, (AP) — Another famed Gallup Indian ceremonial was history today as thousands of Indians from more than 30 tribes began the long trek home after four days of displaying their age-old customs.

Exhibitions, dances and awards to 12 Indian artists and a white woman, highlighted the annual event, which saw people from all over the country flock to Gallup—self-styled Indian capital of the world.

The ceremonial celebration on the whole was a relatively quiet affair compared to the ceremonials of years past. Officials feared attendance figures might have dropped despite the largest opening night crowd in the history of the
