County to Get Emergency Hay Drought Help

County ranchers and farmers are eligible for aid under the emergency hay program, county offices of the farm home administration have announced.

The hay is being made available through designated counties in the state through federal and state government programs.

Local FHA committees will determine eligibility for hay as well as loan programs.

Free dealers who expect to participate in the program should contact ASC offices for further information on the program's operation, according to Elmer C. Beck, Jr., ASC administrative director.

The FHA committee are Neal Denny Moore, and Roy Simpson. That committee is charged with responsibility for determining eligibility in the state for grain programs.

Recommendations for reinstatement, suspension, or other county responsibility for the program will be made by the former county committee. It includes a farmer or banker, FHA county supervisor, and the county members of the committee.

County members are John Runyan, Artesia; J. E. Robertson of Hobbs; Joe Gideon of Carlsbad; E. O. Moore, Jr., of Carlsbad; and County Agent Richard Beck.

Water Cuts Need For Irrigation

More excitement than property damage was caused by flood waters which hit west and south Artesia yesterday and again this morning, a comprehensive survey by the Artesia Advocate has disclosed.

The rain had its highly beneficial effects for farmers, ranchers and city residents trying to care for lawns, and in the drought-stricken farm and ranch country to the west of the city brought new hope and optimistic plans.

After the initial "flood" yesterday, water again swirled through the city shortly before midnight, and continued through the night, with many reports it was higher than the flow of yesterday. Precautions taken after the initial flow yesterday left most property immune to flood threat.

Rain in the mountain country west of Artesia this morning was reported as being very light, lessening the menace of higher waters for the present.

At Artesia airport, however, A. H. "Shug" Hazel said more rain is forecast for the mountain country this afternoon.

A second crest reported rolling toward the city yesterday afternoon and expected in mid-afternoon did not reach Artesia until last night.

Damage was reported in the Lakewood area, but its extent was not fully nor accurately surveyed this morning.

Artesia's rainfall was brought to 5.56 inches by rains since Sunday, including a scant .02 inches last night. Rains falling in the city, however, did not contribute to the flood's depth.

WATER COMING into the city originated in the sloping "flat lands" west of the city and the foothills of the Sacramento mountains.

Mrs. Ethel Altman at Hope reported 2 of an inch of rain fell at Hope last night, bringing the total to 2.4 inches since Sunday. Irvin Cox, 4 miles west of Hope, reported 3 inches of rain since Sunday.

At Mayhill, Mrs. Jim Mayhill said a gauge at Mayhill Mercantile measured .12 inches of rain last night. "It looks beautiful up here now," she said, adding farmers and ranchers were optimistic over prospects for improved conditions.

Water actually entered the homes in the Twentieth and W. Main area, but covered only floors at the rear of the houses and did little damage.

WATER DID threaten but did not enter Britain Furniture Co. and Jim's Park-Inn grocery on the northwest corner of Thirteenth and W. Main.

The T. A. Hart home on the northeast corner of Thirteenth and Chisum seriously threatened by waters flowing down N. Thirteenth toward Eagle Draw, but a quickly-improvised barrier of straw protected the house and diverted waters on down Thirteenth and Chisum streets.

Mrs. James Dew, a friend of the family, said water appeared higher at the Harts this morning than yesterday, but the barrier prevented damage.

The Joe Nunn cotton field just south of Vaswood addition, through which water flowed heavily yesterday, this morning was reported to be brown in color, and it was feared over-watering may have damaged it.

Vaswood addition residents joked over reports police asked them to evacuate, saying the addition was never seriously menaced, although residents yesterday afternoon did turn out with shovels to divert the flow of water near the addition.

AT ARTESIA Alfalfa Growers Assn. Harold A. Buman said he had heard frequent comment by Artesia area farmers the rain has been highly beneficial.

Catholic Prince's Visit To Highlight Santa Fe Fiesta

SANTA FE — The scheduled presence of a prince of the Catholic church, His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, will be a highlight this year of the annual Santa Fe Fiesta.

The fiesta is one of the country's oldest folk festivals. Some people call it the oldest community celebration in North America. Its roots go back to 1712, when the then governor of the Spanish province of New Mexico decreed:

"It is our desire to hold a fiesta in honor of the elevation of the Holy Cross and the bloodless conquest of the city of Santa Fe by General Don Diego de Vargas.

One of Spellman's appearances here will be to crown the statue. This will take place at 6 p. m. Sunday, Sept. 5, in front of St. Francis Cathedral. The statue will be returned to its home parish the day before after its unprecedented travels this summer to all parts of the archdiocese as a feature of the Marian Year celebration.

Cardinal Spellman also will preside and deliver a sermon at a pontifical mass at 10 a. m. on fiesta Sunday. The mass will be celebrated by Archbishop Edwin V. Byrne.

This year's fiesta formally runs from Sept. 3 through Sept. 6. The week-end will be the occasion for many private parties and celebrations, in addition to the public events on the program.

Moisture Bars State's Rain From Falling

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — New Mexico had so much moisture yesterday it didn't get much rain.

If that sounds screwy to you, you and the U. S. weather bureau are in complete agreement.

The situation was that heavy cloud cover over most of the state kept the temperatures so low that enough heat couldn't build up to trigger the water-loaded clouds, the weather bureau said.

The moisture-bearing air is about stationary over New Mexico today bringing a forecast of continued heavy shower activity over the eastern two-thirds of the state and scattered showers in the western portion.

A freak storm at Hobbs sent winds of 85 miles an hour racing across the Hobbs airport, machine-gunning parked planes with quarter-inch hailstones.

One-third of the Hobbs airport roof was ripped off by the hurricane-force winds and seven planes were damaged. Pilots said the storm was only about five miles in extent and lasted only about five minutes, dropping a full inch of rain in that time.

Hobbs topped the total rainfall list for the state with 1.17 inches. Artesia, where .05 inch fell, was fearful for a time that cloudbursts in the nearby Sacramento mountains would send flood waters into homes. Water ran in the streets this morning from heavy rains above Artesia yesterday.

Rotarians Study Development of Scholarship Fund

Rotary clubs in 89 countries and geographical regions throughout the world are united in an endeavor to promote international understanding, good will, and peace.

Dr. B. D. Roberts, told Artesia Rotarians yesterday.

Roberts, governor of district 170 of Rotary International addressed the Artesia Rotary club Tuesday noon following a conference with local Rotary officers and committee chairmen, Monday night.

Roberts explained, "in addition to the activities of Rotary's 8300 clubs, Rotary International has spent more than $1,500,000 in recent years through its program of student fellowships which enable outstanding college graduates to study for one year in countries other than their own. Really good will ambassadors."

Roberts said, that since the program was established in 1947, 606 Rotary Fellowships have been awarded to students in 57 countries. This district now has a student, Glen Houston of Hobbs, studying in Australia. Another student will be selected this fall for the school year 1955-56. Houston will return in December, 1954.

"With fellowship and service to others as its keynote, Rotary provides a common ground for 389,000 business and professional executives throughout the world, regardless of differing nationalities or the political or religious beliefs," the governor emphasized.

Roberts, who is making his official visit here, has been head of the department of mathematics of Highlands university since 1932. He was graduated from Indiana University and received his Ph-D from Iowa State University.

He has been a member of the Rotary club of Las Vegas for the past 20 years and is past president of that club.

Visiting Rotarians were: Jess Miley, Joe W. Lackey and Bill Dean all of Roswell.

Stockton Declares State Takes Care Of 'Basic Needs'

By The Associated Press — Alvin Stockton, Republican candidate for governor, said today he believes New Mexico is doing "an excellent job of taking care of the basic needs of its people in almost all fields."

The Raton legislator, speaking in Hobbs during the GOP tour of the east side, cited figures for expenditures on education, welfare and highways.

He said New Mexico spent $62.44 per capita on educational purposes in 1952 to lead the nation; in the field of welfare activities, the state ranked 12th by spending $17.77 per person, and the state ranked 24th in highway building by spending $30.53 per person.

But Stockton said that in one field, health, figures indicate New Mexico can do much more than it apparently is doing.

He said figures show the state spent $5.77 per person for health and hospitals and ranked 36th in the nation.

Two others of the top GOP state candidates on the tour spoke up today. They were Warren Cobean and Thomas Childers, seeking seats in the U. S. House of Representatives.

Cobean, former mayor of Roswell, said the rights of witnesses before congressional investigating committees should be more carefully protected. He also said the scope of activities of such committees should be more limited.

STATION FIGHTS TAX — SANTA FE — The revenue bureau files its brief this week in radio station KOB's challenge of the state sales tax. The bureau has been collecting 2 per cent tax on gross receipts of the station's broadcasts originating within the state. The station contends all its broadcasts are heard in other states, constituting interstate commerce which is immune from state taxation.

Artesia and North Eddy county parents, teachers, and school administrators will get together in a discussion of their schools when the annual three-day pre-school conference gets down to business tomorrow.

The program covers a wide range of common interests, ranging from school and community relations to discussion of teacher specialty fields.

This afternoon new teachers met at the administration offices, then conferred with their principals.

Highlight of the conference is a panel discussion on "School and Community Relations" moderated by Paul W. Scott, C of C manager. Speakers and their subjects include: Mrs. C. S. Powell, Mrs. E. E. Kinney—"How Might the Schools and Parent-Teacher Associations Work Together for the Good of the Child?" Mrs. Ruth Joss, Mrs. Naomi Buckout—"What Would Constitute a Good Visitation Program and How Effective Might It Be in Our Artesia School System?" Mrs. Margaret Bildstone, Rev. S. M. The panel session was arranged by Mrs. Helen Sperry, Mrs. Kathleen Hamrick and Miss Jewel Ford.

Tomorrow afternoon a general meeting of school personnel is scheduled for 1:15 to 2. (Continued on page four)

Violence Flares In Brazil After Vargas' Death

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil — Violence flared in Brazil's capital today immediately after a plane departed for southern Brazil with the body of Getulio Vargas. Troops fired on a crowd trying to attack the Air Ministry. Two persons were injured.

Vargas, the country's strong man, chose yesterday to give up his presidency by suicide rather than force. He fired a bullet through his heart after 58 Air Force and Army generals forced the 71-year-old political leader to resign.

This morning while Army troops stood by, thousands of Brazilians followed the body of Vargas from the presidential palace to the city's downtown airport. The plane took off for southern Brazil, where Vargas will be buried in an unblest grave.

Afterward a crowd gathered in front of the Air Ministry. Air Force personnel and the crowd became involved in a dispute and troops were rushed to the scene. Shots were fired in an attempt to restore order.

The troops also prevented the crowd from attacking an automobile carrying Air Force officers.

Clashes were reported in other sections of the city. Three persons were killed and 30 injured yesterday in clashes in Brazil.

Anti-American demonstrations and other riots left three dead and 30 others injured in the wake of Vargas' suicide.

AT ARTESIA Alfalfa Growers Assn. Harold A. Buman said he had heard frequent comment by Artesia area farmers the rain has been highly beneficial.

NM Cattle Growers Win Postponement Of Land Hearing

ALBUQUERQUE — The New Mexico Cattle Growers Assn., Gov. Edwin Mechem and Rep. Dempsey (D-NM) have received approval of their request that a land hearing be postponed until studies are complete.

The hearing was to be in Alamogordo Sept. 8-9 on the Defense Department's bid for more land in southern New Mexico to add to the Fort Bliss firing range.

The cattle growers protest addition of the 778,000 acres to the firing range. The Army says it needs it.

The studies include how natural resources and tax structures will be affected and how such a deal would affect school income from land involved.

No certain date was set, but a spokesman for the cattle growers said the chairmen of the Senate and House Armed Services committees had agreed that the meeting could be postponed until November.

The armed services are to be invited to outline their land needs and unclassified claims for future land needs in the state.

Sherwood Culberson of Lordsburg, president of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Assn., said the group "appreciated" the efforts of Gov. Mechem and Dempsey to get prompt action on the postponement.

Another reason for the postponement request was the illness of Horace Hening, secretary of the stockmen's group.

Matching Pajamas For Dad, Junior Are Easily Made

By DOROTHY ROE AP Women's Editor

The sewing chore that will net you the most pride and applause is a set of matching pajamas for Dad and Junior, tailored to a man's taste.

Pajamas are surprisingly easy to make on your sewing machine, if you follow the detailed instructions on a standard pattern and employ the finishing tricks suggested by local sewing center experts.

Choose a handsome sturdy striped cotton, which holds up well on wash day and appeals to the male taste. After following pattern directions for cutting and sewing, use the cording foot of your machine to stitch the braid trim on collars, cuffs and pockets; your buttonhole attachment will turn out professional, sturdy button-holes in jig time.

It's a smart idea to make the boy's pajamas with wide hems on trousers and cuffs, to allow for growth. The drawstring waistline on the trousers allows for considerable expansion.

The man's pajamas described are made with Advance Pattern 6584; boy's pajamas, Advance Pattern 6582.

LAKE ARTHUR NEWS— Clyde Niharts Return Home Following Portales Visit

By MRS. RAY PATE

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nihart returned home early this week from Elida and Portales where they have been visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chandler and sons, Skipper and Mike.

While there they attended graduation exercises at Eastern New Mexico university where their son-in-law, Albert Chandler, received his master of arts degree. Albert, who is a native son of Lake Arthur, is teaching in the commercial department of the Elida schools.

Mrs. Albert Chandler, the former Dorothy Nihart, a registered nurse, has been appointed city health nurse of Portales. She will drive from her home in Elida daily accompanied by her younger son, Mike, who has enrolled in preschool kindergarten at ENMU. Skipper who is a second grade pupil will continue at Elida where his father teaches.

Mrs. Claude Taylor and children, Billy, Dick and Marilyn Jane arrived Wednesday for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Hedges.

The Lake Arthur Extension club will meet Friday, Aug. 27 at 2 p. m. at Lake Arthur city hall for their regular session. The demonstration will be "Dabbling in Paint" and all ladies in the community interested are invited to attend.

Please bring extra newspapers, rags, plastic cover or oilcloth and card table or what you have of each item mentioned so that you may paint too.

All of the teachers who are in town at that time have a special invitation to attend this meeting so we may become acquainted. Vern Hart who operates the Hart Grocery store and filling station in Lake Arthur, returned home Thursday night from St. Mary's hospital in Roswell where he has been confined for about 10 days, following an illness. He is still in bed but improving.

Linda Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor of Lake Arthur, returned home Tuesday morning from a three-week trip to Jamestown, Ohio. She accompanied her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Murphy Hayhurst of Artesia, and Mrs. Hayhurst's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Syferd also of Artesia.

This was Mrs. Hayhurst's first visit to her childhood home in 39 years. She visited relatives there. Linda stated that the most enjoyable event for her on the trip was a ride in a huge boat on Indian Lake. She said there were islands with beautiful dwellings and long bridges. Linda will enroll in the 3rd grade this term.

Mrs. Emma Lee Flowers has been redecorating her home and the apartments and refurbishing them with some modern pieces of furniture which carry out the latest in decorator colors. She also converted a small house on the back of the lot into a useful garage for her tenants, who are Mrs. Lucile Britain, 4th grade teacher and Miss Wilma Jo Young of Hope who will teach the 3rd grade.

The Methodist church has installed a new gas range in the parsonage where the Gene Sooter reside. Mr. Sooter is the Fifth and Sixth grade teacher and high school music teacher.

Mmes. Chris Merritt and John Havener, Jr., were co-hostesses of a stork shower honoring Mrs. A. Ripley recently at the City Hall in Lake Arthur.

The hall was decorated in green yellow and white streamers, which colors were carried out throughout the refreshments and so forth. A soft yellow cluster of roses were used in the center of ceiling which was a very clever and unusual idea. Bouquets of garden flowers were used throughout the entertaining room.

Several appropriate games were played with a prize going to Mrs. Tom Crook for winning the Telegram game and Mrs. W. F. Whatley winning the prize for Cross Word Puzzle. Mrs. Ripley opened her daintily wrapped gifts which were admired by all.

Individual decorated cakes were in white with yellow rosebuds and green leaves and frosted punch was served to about 30 guests, by the hostesses Mmes. Merritt and Havener, who were assisted by Misses Dorothy Reynolds and Barbara Funk.

Twelve Billion Dollars

UNCLE SAM'S "HANDOUT" FUND—it is called the Mutual Security program—is or will be some $12 billion. There is a total $9 billion in the fund now and apparently another $3 billion will be made available.

Everyone should give this a good "thinking" and then after they get through thinking about it we should do some letter writing.

Congressman J. J. Dempsey has fought and opposed the increase in the fund because he is about convinced that our expenditures have been a waste of American dollars.

But there are the others perfectly willing to go along with the socialist planers, who want Uncle Sam to give them money on which to carry out their vast experiment.

The fact is that we cannot cite a single instance where we have won a country as a friend and held that country by our loans and our gifts to them.

You can't make friends and keep friends by making gifts to them and by making loans to them. Sooner or later they turn against you after they have gotten all they can get. Some of our so-called allies turn against us before they get all they can get from us.

While we are spending this money to make friends in Europe and Asia and elsewhere we find our military forces are taking homes and houses from Germans in Germany for their own use. If you think that makes friends you better think again.

The fact is that our whole program is not co-ordinated and never has been. If giving away "handouts" would help—we have never thought they would—some other branch of our government would be destroying this friendship we are seeking to buy.

If Uncle Sam would spend some $12 billion in our own country trying to develop some of our natural resources and halt the destruction in our nation we believe we would free ourselves of some of our problems.

We are firmly convinced if the $12 billion wouldn't do the job it would go a long way in eliminating the floods along the Missouri and the Mississippi and in bringing that water to the arid Southwest.

And we know of no finer thing that could be done for our nation than to save those states now flooded from these floods and by insuring water for irrigating of our crops.

We are still convinced we have the "know how" in this land of ours.

Coffee Talk

Flood Traffic

One of the most severe problems residents battling flood waters had to deal with yesterday was heavy traffic by naturally curious fellow-citizens.

On Chisum avenue and Catalina drive householders finally blocked off the streets so sightseeing motorists wouldn't drive through, raising the water level and pushing water over still more on low-lying areas.

Downtown traffic was virtually nil at the noon hour, with most motorists climbing into their cars for a personal inspection of the reported flood areas.

In any disaster, whether flood, fire, auto accident, or what, the problem of traffic is a key one.

Band Fliers

Hazel Flying Service had a busy day yesterday, flying newsmen over the city and the area to the west from which floodwaters came. The passengers included the Advocate's Ed Boykin, who got a dozen aerial photos of flood scenes.

Picture taking of the areas was made especially difficult by the water's muddiness, which combined with an overcast day, blended very well into the landscape, making it difficult to tell in a photograph which is water and which is dry land.

Prayer Meeting

C. C. Graham of Artesia brought in a copy of the Fulton Daily Leader of Fulton Kentucky-Mississippi the other day, telling of a weekly businessmen's religious series which is stirring widespread interest.

The series was reported in a recent issue of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce "Washington Report," complete with pictures. The Leader reports.

Attendance at the weekly series has been "rising steadily as more businessmen find inspiration in them."

The same type of weekly series was inaugurated in Artesia last year and, we understand, will start again this fall. It is an excellent idea, one which we hope will also find widespread acceptance here.

New Typewriters

The news side of the Artesia Advocate is now equipped with new typewriters, much to the delight of everyone concerned.

But there is something regrettable in discarding an old machine to which one has become accustomed, despite all its idiosyncrasies. And a new machine is different in touch, in lay-out, and "feel."

The new machines are wonderful, and we wouldn't want the man who signs the checks to think otherwise—heavens no. But the battered Woodstocks which have stood up under nearly 10 years of assorted hammering by frenzied newsmen nevertheless have wrapped in their cussed, obstinate, infuriating, unfeeling insides something of the effort that goes into producing a newspaper.

Band Quarters

Anyone who hasn't yet had a chance to see Senior high's new, enlarged band quarters should certainly take the opportunity to do so whenever the first chance presents itself.

Built at low cost, the new addition is a band rehearsal room finished in acoustical tile and now arranged for a 60-piece band. Director Justin Bradbury says eventually it can accommodate 80.

As an example of the economy with which it was built, the flooring grain is the tiers of which the band is set, comes from the Atoka school gym, where it was warped by water during the Christmas 1953 holiday freeze.

School custodians get credit for the job, we find.

Everyone Helps

Everyone helped to get out the Advocate yesterday when two of three "floor men"—the guys who put the paper together after type is set—were called home to the Vaswood addition by the threat of rising waters.

Foreman Harry Haselsky and F. J. "Nap" Gaspard worked with other Vaswood men to divert flood waters which slowly crept toward homes in that area.

The clumsiness of substitute personnel delayed the paper slightly, but the two returned in mid-afternoon and finished the job after their homes were made secure.

SCHOOLS APPROVED
GALLUP —The county school board has approved plans to use federal help in absorbing about 1,000 more Indian children in four county schools. The schools are at Thoreau, Ramah, Zuni and Crownpoint. In addition, plans are to take in another 500 in Gallup's west end and east end schools.

SENTENCE COMMUTED
SANTA FE —Gov. Mecham has approved a second commutation of sentence for Juan Uranga, sentenced for second degree murder from Dona Ana County Sept. 26, 1952, to 99 years in prison. The latest commutation reduces the sentence to 20 to 25 years.

De Vargas Mass in the cathedral at 7 a. m. Sept. 3 and the burning of Zozobra at 8 p. m. that night are the first events on the formal program. When Zozobra burns at Fort Marcy Park on the north edge of town, his writhings and groanings are witnessed by many thousands who jam the park and line nearby highways and hillsides.

With gloom's effigy thus disposed of, the fiesta will be well under way. The burning will be followed by the coronation procession of the queen's court and the 9 p. m. coronation of Fiesta Queen Angelina Teresa Oyaca. The queen's show and a 10 p. m. fiesta dance conclude the first day's program.

Water Cuts—

He said reports had been heard of damage in the Lakewood area by North Seven Rivers but had not been checked.

City Supervisor W. D. "Doug" Fowler said water damage to city streets and other property had been so light as to be negligible.

All four utilities with headquarters in Artesia reported "We've been lucky—no damage here."

Mrs. Altman at Hope reported rain and small hailstones at the Anderson Young farm 4 miles northwest of Hope, and a downed telephone line prevented communication with the Youngs.

New Organization Designed to Aid Industry in State

ALBUQUERQUE, (AP)—Plans are being wound up for an independent Industrial and Employment Planning Committee to promote more state industry and therefore more jobs.

The man who is to head the new group, M. I. Tillery, has returned from a survey of similar organizations in Utah.

The committee, which would replace the Economic Development Commission which expired last year for lack of state funds, will be strictly non-partisan, said Tillery.

"What we want here," he said, "is a non-political, non-bureaucratic, all-join-in for effort the development of state's resources and industry."

He said civic and service organizations throughout the state will be asked to cooperate.

Fourteen Foreign Boy Scouts Are Impressed By NM

RATON, (AP)—Fourteen foreign Boy Scouts who sampled Western life and lore for three weeks have started back home.

The scouts, representing six countries, were brought to the United States by the U. S. Air Force and shown around the nation. They came here to Philmont Boy Scout Ranch and participated in a program that included a pack-animal expedition, visit to the Kit Carson Museum, and visits by some members to a local family of their nationality.

Swimming Pool Is Closed for Summer

City swimming pool has closed for the 1954 season, Mgr. John Daugherty has announced. The action came following a conference with the city council park committee headed by George Ferriman.

Daugherty said the pool is being closed because of cooler weather and falling gate receipts.

He described the recent season as "fairly successful," although it was slightly under 1953's, he said, due to more dust storms this summer.

British Courses Develop Golfers' Character, Will

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. — Bill Campbell, beaten in the final round for the British Amateur golf championship, likes British courses as "character developers."

"It's hard to put into words," he says. "Bobby Jones picked up on the 13th hole on the Old Course at St. Andrews in 1926. The weather was terrible. It rained. The wind blew every which way."

"But in 1930 I hew on at St. Andrews. The conditions were just as bad as in 1926, but he had learned to adapt his play to the conditions. And now at St. Andrews they pass out charts showing how Jones played the course."

"I feel that the course helped him develop character. And it's a lesson for any golfer to play under such conditions."

Campbell concedes there is much to say for both "bold" and "conservative" types of play.

He cites Billy Joe Patton, amateur sensation of the 1954 Master's and Open, as a "go for broke" player.

"He takes sensational chances and frequently he hits. Billy always shoots at the flag, but Hogan doesn't do it."

Campbell doesn't take chances unless he feels "the conditions and the course call for it. And then only on the fairways, not the green."

Old Automobiles Worth Fortune, Held By Student

AP Newsfeatures
INDIANAPOLIS — There's a gold mine of antique automobiles in the old Cole Auto Building but collectors can't exploit it.

The seven Coles in the basement, ranging in age from a 1912 "30 Flyer" to a last-model 1923 sedan, belong to Jim Cole, Harvard University student.

There's no hope for other antique auto enthusiasts to buy any of the Coles because Jim collects them himself. In fact, he thinks he has the market pretty well cornered.

His grandfather, the late Joseph J. Cole, Sr., founded the company which was one of several automobile factories that flourished in Indianapolis in the pioneer days of the auto car industry.

Six of the cars are in running condition—almost in showroom condition. Off in a corner is the remains of another Cole that was cannibalized to recondition some of the others.

RHODES TRIP DELAYED
ALAMOGORDO — Unsafe roads caused the postponement of a scheduled caravan to the grave of famous New Mexico writer Eugene Manlove Rhodes. The trip was originally planned for Aug. 29 but the Chamber of Commerce advised that rains had damaged roads leading into Rhodes Canyon.

IRRIGATION DRAWS 200
TUCUMCARI — The fourth annual Irrigation Field Day here yesterday drew almost 200 Quay county farmers. Speech subjects included irrigation hints, wheat control and cattle roughage uses.

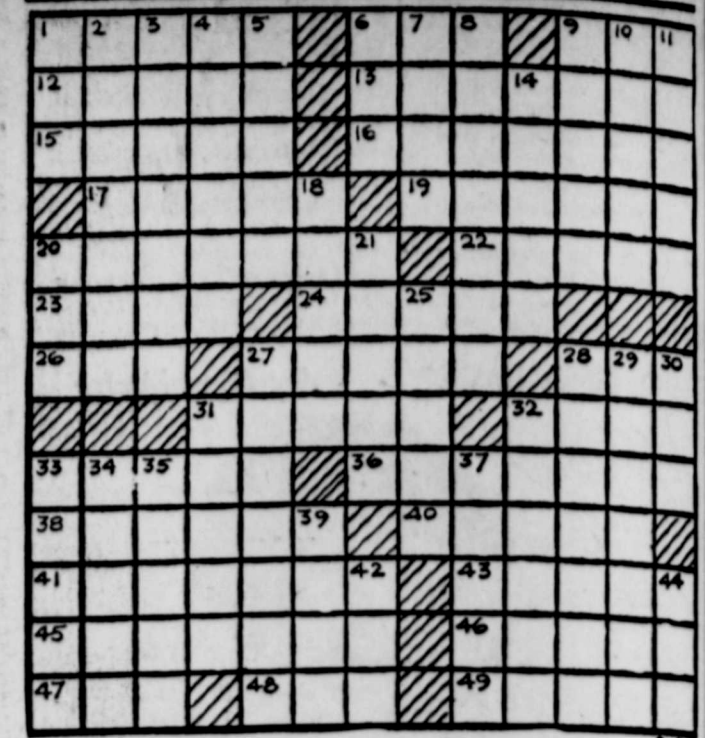

WRITER LAUDS EMMONS

Armstrong, a former Republican congressman, has been touring Western Indian reservations in preparation for articles he plans to write.

Scuffed Luggage Made Like New With Floor Wax

If your luggage is scuffed and worn, you can brighten it up easily and quickly with an application of floor wax, says Miss Marjorie Howell, county home demonstration agent.
If you use paste wax, apply it with a damp cloth for easy spreading. Put a thin coat on a small section at a time and polish with a clean soft cloth while it's still a little moist.
To both clean and brighten your luggage use a cream wax or a liquid cleaning and polishing wax. Don't use a damp cloth to apply this type of wax though. Use a soft dry cloth instead. Polish it right after you apply the wax.
Miss Howell points out that it's a good idea to put coat of paste wax on new luggage too. A protective coat of wax on luggage before it's

Permanent State Funds in NM Up 22 Per Cent

Permanent state funds of New Mexico's institutions and public schools now total over $87 million, up by more than 22 per cent in the last year, as shown by figures of the state treasurer's office.

$2 million during the current fiscal year, the Taxpayers Association of New Mexico reported today.
Approximately three-fourths of the over-all total is in the common (public) school permanent fund. The state schools for the deaf and blind have permanent funds of more than $4,780,000 each.
New Mexico Military Institute has a permanent fund of over $3 million; the penitentiary has more than $1,850,000; and the University of New Mexico around $1,630,000. Other state institutions have smaller permanent funds, with earnings available for inclusion in their annual budgets.

LAKE ARTHUR NEWS—

New Teachers Arrive in Community, Make Homes

By MRS. RAY PATE
Mrs. Lucile Britain, who will teach the fourth grade in the Lake Arthur school system this year, is settled in her apartment in the home of Mrs. Emma Lee Flowers.
Mrs. Britain, a widow, is very enthusiastic about her teaching career and is looking forward to an interesting year in Lake Arthur. She will be near her family who recently moved to Artesia from Portales. Her father, H. G. Rowley, is in poor health.
Mrs. Britain has had 11 years of teaching experience in New Mexico schools, having taught at Portales, Carlsbad, and Artesia.
She attended the University of New Mexico and Eastern New Mexico University at Portales. She received her BS degree in 1952 at Abilene Christian college, Abilene, Texas.
In 1948-1951, Mrs. Britain was hostess in Zellner Hall at ACC when she decided to get her BS degree mentioned above.
In 1952-1954 she was supervisor in Maude Carpenter Children's Home, Wichita, Kans.

Another new teacher in the Lake Arthur school system, Mrs. Ray Williams, is no stranger to the residents of this area, as she taught here until she married one of Lake Arthur's native sons, Ray Williams, who is associated with the Cottonwood Gin Co. as a ginner. They maintain their home near the gin where she has been bookkeeper the past few years. She taught English and home economics in the local high school for a couple of years.
She also taught in the home economics and English departments in the Hope school for five years.
Mrs. Williams received her BA and MA degrees from Highlands university, Las Vegas, where she majored in English and minored in music and social science.
The Williams family includes a daughter, Joy, who will enter college this fall as a junior, and a son, David, who is a senior in high school.

R. E. Coleman of Cottonwood gin accompanied salesman Charles Lay who is with the Lumas Gin Co., El Paso, to south Texas for a week. The two men plan to visit Corpus Christi, Brownsville and other points while away.

Mrs. Emmarie Perce, a former teacher in the Lake Arthur school, called on friends in Lake Arthur last week. She was accompanied by Mrs. H. McAllester and daughter of Artesia.

Judge E. D. Cox returned via bus to Artesia Wednesday from Colorado Springs, Colo., where he had spent several days visiting his brother, John Wesley Cox. While in Artesia he is the house guest of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Cox and family who had driven him to Colorado the previous Friday.

"AN ELECTRIC FREEZER IS THE ANSWER TO A Sportsman's Prayer!"

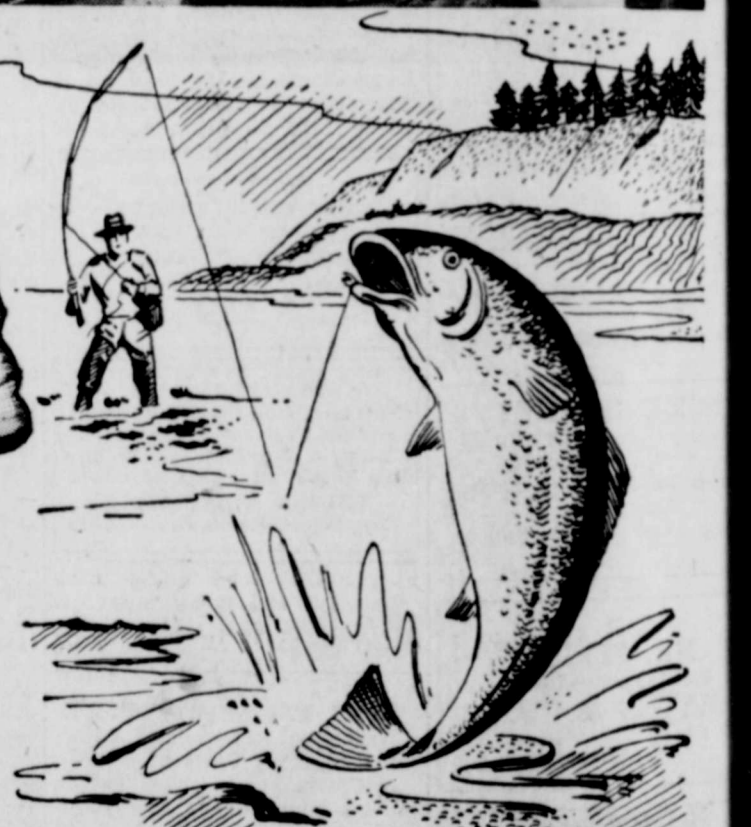

says Mr. H. L. McMAHEN of Stratford, Texas

"It sure is nice to have some trout or a piece of bear meat around whenever that's just what I feel like eating. I can live last year's fishing and hunting trip over again, and enjoy a good meal to boot. I recommend a freezer to anyone who goes hunting or fishing."

A sportsman like Mr. McMahan gets a real pleasure out of sharing his catch with friends. And Mrs. McMahan finds it easy to prepare a fish dinner in a hurry. Right after the catch, she puts cracker meal on the fish, cooks and freezes them. When friends drop in, a fresh fish dinner is just a matter of warming an already prepared meal.

Keep the pleasure and good eating of your hunting and fishing trips all year round. Keep your fish and game in an electric home freezer.

And, as for "Curly's" hunting and fishing trips, I'm like any wife, I sure enjoy eating what he shoots and catches.'
