MISS JOANNE WHEATLEY

Beautiful, Talented Joanne Wheatley to Return 'Home' for Civic League Concert on October 11

Joanne Wheatley, an Artesia girl known across the country for her appearances with Fred Waring, top popular records, and now making her night club debut, will return "home" this fall to present a concert.

Miss Wheatley, under sponsorship of The Civic Music League of Artesia, will appear in concert here at 8 p. m. Monday, Oct. 11. Tickets at $2 each will go on sale Monday Sept. 6. They may be obtained from members of the Civic Music League, at the Chamber of Commerce office, or at Floore Floral.

Miss Wheatley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Wheatley of Artesia, who live at 801 W. Main. Miss Wheatley has come a long way since her entry into the world of music.

Exciting, dramatic, thrilling, beautiful—this is Joanne Wheatley today—a far cry indeed from the little girl born in Artesia, who wore braces on her teeth and played flute in the school band. Joanne would have you know that she entered and won the Tri-State Music Proficiency Contest as a flut-lowship hall, 9:30 a. m. Wednesday, Sept. 1—Artesia Woman's club, first fall meeting and luncheon at Artesia Country club, 1 p. m.

ist when she was eight years old (but she prefers to keep secret the fact that she was the lone flute entrant from the three states of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.)

Joanne's interests as a youngster encompassed such diverse activities as Girl Scouting, study of the piano, archery, tennis, and singing with the local church choir.

It was not until Joanne entered Occidental college at Los Angeles that she discovered her real vocal talents. While majoring in sociology, she devoted much of her time to such endeavors as singing leads in college operas, giving concerts for most of the local civic organizations and broadcasting over a local radio station.

The balance of her time was spent on part time jobs, the money from the same enabling her to support herself while continuing her college studies. Upon graduation and election to Phi Beta Kappa, Joanne was forced to decide between trying for a career in music and the somewhat more secure field of education.

She picked the latter, and journeyed eastward to Columbia university, many months of making ends meet with her earned income of approximately 80 dollars per month, and the completion of study for a master's degree in Sociology. The overwhelming desire to sing, however, prompted Joanne at last to try her hand in the professional music world of New York City.

Success followed Joanne Wheatley from her first venture as a singer on a small New York radio station. She was soon appearing on such shows as the CBS Symphony and the RCA Victor program. Robert Shaw, the famed choral director, heard her sing and took her to Fred Waring, who agreed with Mr. Shaw that Joanne could be one of the country's top singers of popular music. She became an instantaneous hit as a featured soloist on the Fred Waring radio and television programs, and was almost immediately one of the Waring shows' leading personalities for four and a half years.

Her wonderful charm and thrilling voice soon won for Joanne a fabulous coterie of devoted fans from coast to coast. And her striking beauty became a topic of conversation among her thousands of television followers.

She has made numerous Decca recordings, but her personal favorites are "Hello Young Lovers," "Something Wonderful," and "I've Gotta Right to Sing the Blues." Recently singing a major recording contract, Joanne is expected to become one of the nation's leading recording stars.

Joanne has guested many times on the Lucky Strike Hit parade, and most recently was the female singing star of Paul Whiteman's "American Music Hall" via ABC.

And now, her night club debut—to put another feather in her cap—has proved to be one of the most exciting events in many years in show business. The critics raved, and the audiences have cheered this exciting and dynamic performer. Her voice is thrilling, her vocal styling is dramatic and different, her wardrobe is somewhat fantastic (recently appraised at over $1,000 per gown), her performance is indeed magnetic.

Longhorn Teams Blast West Texas - New Mexico

WT-NM's action Wednesday in admitting El Paso to its fold for 1955. Most owners regarded the move as an invasion of Longhorn territory and the Longhorn league was determined to woo El Paso away from the WT-NM.

James' statement follows: "The Longhorn league at a continuous five-hour meeting accomplished a great deal in finishing up its business and the league was confident it had carried out its baseball program as promised in the spring, namely one offering fast, honest baseball.

"The league's objective through the coming winter and next year will be to gain further public confidence for professional baseball, knowing that we must give the people honesty in the front office as well as on the field of play. And the Longhorn league is going to contact El Paso people to prevail upon them that the Longhorn league has more to offer them than any other league in this territory.

"We are confident that the business people of El Paso and newspapers of El Paso will back the league in stating that El Paso belongs in the Longhorn league territory since the Longhorn league comprises a portion of El Paso's trade territory in the fabulous southwest."

Asked about class B baseball in the West Texas and New Mexico areas, James stated, "for any league in this territory to think of class B baseball at this time is ridiculous since no league in this territory has demonstrated its ability to support class C baseball."

"Also it's hardly believable that a league would ask for a city, as member, necessitating that team to travel through a minimum of one city and sometimes as many as three cities of another league's territory to play an opponent.

"The Longhorn league promised at the beginning it would end up in fair position and we are proud to be able to state that we have strengthened our structure over the season," James concluded.

Seven of the present eight clubs asserted they intend to operate in 1955. The eighth franchise, currently operating in Sweetwater, is owned by the league. It is this franchise the league hopes to place in El Paso.

Change of Punches Tops Mas Pair Over Tulsa

Joe Benham, Associated Press Staff

Antonio's Missions missed to dry the ink on the details of a playoff berth in the league Thursday night when he hurled 7-1 before the home crowd of Beaumont's stadium.

Left the fourth-place team still has five games ahead of Fort Worth and therefore owns a bare chance at fourth place in the playoffs.

Antonio's Missions would have won five in a row had he pitched better than he did Thursday night.

Shacked Tulsa 12-5 and the Shreveport 10-3 in the series.

Dallas made it two in a row over Tulsa in a contest made lively by two big Eagle innings and a fist fight. The Texans jumped ahead early with a seven-run spurge in the second and wound up their scoring with five more in the fourth. Jodie Beeler and Jim Basso homered during the fourth-inning spree.

Bill Bagwell got the victory and little boxing practice as well when he and Tulsa outfielder Joe Szekely tangled in the ninth inning after two were out. Bagwell hit the Oiler with a pitched ball, whereupon Szekely hurled his bat at Bagwell and headed toward first base.

Bagwell met him on the way and they exchanged punches before both were tossed out of the game.

Tall Sweeney Moves Up in Amateur Golf

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR. DETROIT, (AP)—The least noticed, and possibly the best, of the prominent golfers in the 1954 National Amateur Championship is Robert Sweeney, who moves in the best social, financial and golfing circles of Long Island, Palm Beach and London.

He's a tall, debonair man with a touch of gray in his hair at the temples and a touch of Oxford in his accent. He's an American citizen, born in Pasadena, Calif., 43 years ago, but he divides his time between this country and England and Europe. He has played in the British Amateur Championship many more times than in the American.

Going into today's 36-hole semifinals, he was the only "name" player left in the tournament and his name was one that had been half-forgotten by everyone but his opponents until he came through yesterday with a sharp 4 and 3 victory over Dale Morey, last year's runner-up.

The other survivors were Arnold Palmer, a 24-year-old former Coast Guardsman and Wake Forest College player who is rated tops among the rising young amateur stars; 36-year-old Eddie Meister, who may have won more matches in this tournament than anyone around; and Dr. Ted Lenzyk, 33-year-old Newton, Conn. dentist whose golf reputation has been obscured by that of his sister Grace.

NuMexers Keep No Shut-Out Record With Ninth Inning Run by John Goodell

All-Star High School Athletes Enter Basketball, Football Camps at University of New Mexico

By JULIUS GOLDEN ALBUQUERQUE — At least 25 New Mexico high school athletes will enter the University of New Mexico as freshmen this fall, including strong Skyline conference contenders in years to come.

In the list released by the university—de-emphasized but athletic-conscious—are 17 football players and eight basketballers. Five of the gridgers started this past year as all-state-all star men.

Dean of Men Howard Mathany said there may be some additions before school gets underway. He said a good number of the players have applied for scholastic scholarships. There no longer are athletic scholarships.

University President Tom L. Popejoy today said the Albuquerque Boosters club is trying to raise money for scholarships. He said they realize full well the money they raise could very well support an anthropology student as well as an athlete.

An all state back for the Los Alamos eleven last year tops the list of freshmen athletes. Monte Hamilton not only is a potential college great in football but he was a mainstay of the North all-star basketball team earlier this month.

Bob Bursley, all-state from Anthony, is a triple-threat athlete who will see action at the university. Bursley is a speedy football and basketball player and is outstanding in track.

Besides Hamilton, all state-all star warriors are Ed Schenk, tackle from Farmington; Wayne Gares, tackle from Tucumcari; Louis Campanella, fast Artesia guard; and Harold Riley, Carlsbad center.

Prominent all star freshmen will be Stan Bazant of Albuquerque, who also holds the state shutout record, Kenny Morris of Capitan, single wing power Gary Sloan of Hobbs, Shell Denison of Fort Sumner and Jerry Nesbit of Clovis.

In basketball, outstanding frosh will be all star John Teel of Carlsbad, Walter Kincaid of Las Vegas, Ernest Melendez of Hurley, Billy Barelais of Albuquerque, Orlen Coupland of Socorro and Walt Schuman of Highland, considered one of the best in the state.

Among the double threat men are Hamilton, Sloan and Bursley. The other high school athletes who will enter the university this fall include:

Odessa to Invade Artesia Tonight for First of Two

Artesia narrowly missed losing what would have been its first shut-out loss of the season last night, but the league leading NuMexers couldn't avoid a 3-1 defeat at the hands of the San Angelo Colts.

Tonight the NuMexers are host to Odessa in the first game of a two-game series at Artesia Municipal Park. Preceding the game at 7 p. m. will be a Field Night staged by players of the two clubs.

Last night's loss by Artesia left the team's Longhorn league first place standing still at seven games, since Roswell also lost, Midland edging the second-place Rockets 2-1.

Probable starter for tonight's game against Odessa is Bart DiMaggio.

While San Angelo scored its runs early in last night's game, not until the ninth inning did Artesia get a man beyond second and drive in the one run which saved Artesia's no shut-out loss in the 1954 season.

In the fourth San Angelo drove in two runs with a single by Bob Hobbs, walk to Ed Peacock, Art Cicchetti's single, and walks to Bob Gonsalves and Russ Agne.

The Colts added another in the fifth when Jerry Fineman and Hobbs were walked and Peacock singled to home Fineman.

Russ Agne rationed five hits to the league-leaders, picking up his eighth win of the season—against 13 losses—and holding the NuMexers under perfect control throughout the contest.

In the ninth, lead-off man John Goodell singled for the NuMexers and after two outs came home on a fielder's choice on Mickey Sullivan's blow.

Artesia used three hurlers in an attempt to keep the Colts in check. Rookie Wayne Goodell, first of the trio, was tagged for the loss. He lasted until midway through the San Angelo fifth, then was pulled in favor of Ken Foster. Foster finished the fifth, then Al Chester came on at the top of the sixth to finish the game.

Only extra base hit of the game was Agne's double as lead-off man in the ninth.

Last night's loss gave Goodell an 18-6 record for the season.

Clovis Slugfest Keeps Half Game Edge Over Pampa

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Clovis, fighting to stay in first place, and Albuquerque, battling to stay out of the cellar, staged a real slugfest in the West Texas-New Mexico league Thursday night.

The Pioneers maintained their half-game edge over Pampa in the tight league chase by winning 10-7 to snap a three-game winning streak for the Dukes. A total of eight pitchers saw action, five for the Dukes.

Pampa defeated Lubbock 10-6 to stay close to the Pioneers and leave Lubbock still one percentage point in the cellar behind the Dukes. Abilene edged Plainview 6-5 in the other game.

Veteran Red Dial was the third Clovis pitcher and got credit for the victory, his 10th since coming into the league four years ago.

Late home runs by Doug Lewis and Rudy Tanner helped Pampa to its victory over Lubbock.

Plainview loaded the bases with one out in the ninth at Abilene but a quick double play ended the threat and gave Andy Alonso the victory, his 22nd of the season.

Carlsbad Hits Sweetwater For 11-6 Win

SWEETWATER — The cellar-dwelling Sweetwater Spudgers dropped their 10th straight game here Thursday night as the Carlsbad Potashers clubbed eight extra-base hits in pounding their hosts, 11-6.

Second baseman Oliver Hardy led the way for Carlsbad at bat, banging out a double and triple in five trips for three RBIs.

Ralph Burns, who was relieved by Don Fornall in the seventh frame, gained credit for his eighth victory of the season. He has lost two.

Ollie Ortiz went the distance for Sweetwater and was tagged with his 15th loss against only seven wins.

Carlsbad scored two runs in the second stanza, added one in the fourth and two in the fifth to take a 5-0 lead before the Spudgers managed to break the ice with a single tally in the home half of the fifth.

Sweetwater pulled back into the game in the sixth by chasing across three runs, cutting Carlsbad's lead to only one run, 5-4.

However, the Potashers bounced back with two runs in each of the final three frames while Sweetwater could muster only one in the eighth.

WT-NM League Cuban Hot on Base-Theft Mark

ABILENE, Texas — Base-stealing isn't a lost art as far as Osmond Walker, 20-year-old Cuban is concerned.

Walker, playing with Abilene of the West Texas-New Mexico league, has blazed around the base paths for 60 pilfered sacks this season and is hot on the trail of the league record of 67 set in 1938 by Bob Decker of Big Spring. He has more than 20 games left in which to do it.

Osmond's efforts compare quite favorably with the men of 30 years ago who thought nothing of swiping 75 bases in a season.

But for a shoulder injury, Osmond might already be over the league record and aiming at the immortal Ty Cobb at Detroit in 1915.

Although he was a dangerous man on the paths while playing a year in the Cuban league, Walker never was turned lose in the United States until Abilene manager Jay Haney saw his possibilities this season.

Sped and timed are Walker's secret. As a high school student

Artesia Sports Season Tickets on Sale for Bulldog Grid Games

By ED BOYKIN

The Artesia high school season just around the corner will feature a series of season tickets and the boosters clubs have started today and to the fans.

The last two classes—AAAA and AAA—swung into the grind today. Classes AA, A, B and six-man had begun fall practice Monday.

The reason classes AAAA and AAA had to wait five days was because they had spring training. The other classes did not.

First games will be played next week, with this confined to the lower four classes.

Classes AAAA and AAA are not permitted to play opening games until Sept. 10.

against the NuMEXer's secret weapon, namely Dan—Hurry Up—Howard.

THE WEST TEXAS-NEW MEXICO league should be happy now that they have El Paso in their loop.

As for El Paso being happy, maybe they are now but we think when they start flying all over the Southwest their tune might just change.

backs and linemen are getting together for scrimmages. Most of the time, are tough on the games. These workouts really give you an eye for what the Dawgs will be doing this year if you've got the watch.

NIGHTS AT BASEBALL are always interesting to read and comment upon. Especially the contests include scrums as long distance throwers and races.

NuMexers certainly should be on the edge of those two events and the handy arm of Mickey Diaz and the group of hurry-up runs by Dan Howard.

at-the-barrel on second should be easy pickings for Economides and Bob Foster. They've got a head start on their contestants including Fineman, all the Odessa en-

Russians, Despite Few Stars, Still Lack Depth in Track

By MILT MARMOR BERN, Switzerland — Just how far have the Russians come since Helsinki in their calculated drive to build a track and field team that can rival America in Olympic competition?

They have made marked progress, it's true, as results in two days of competition in the European Track and Field Championships here have shown.

But they still lack depth once you get past their outstanding stars.

And you need those seconds and thirds in world class competition.

The Soviets also don't appear to have a well-rounded squad when they face the outside world.

Here yesterday at Newfield Stadium they failed to place a man in the 100-meter final.

Werner Heinz Futterer of Germany had a time of 10.5 and he was the only finalist who could measure up against America's crack sprinters.

Such top Russian men as hop, step and jump world record holder Leonid Scherbakov and 400-meter hurdles world beater Yrjy Lituev appear able to hold their places as No. 1 in their specialties.

Aradalon Ignatjev ran 400 meters almost coasting in 47 flat in the semi-final and looks capable of battling anyone for first place.

But there's no one too outstanding in the 800 or 1,500 meters.

UCLA's only defeat in football last year was a 21-20 setback at the hands of Stanford. The latter was beaten three times in 1953.

King Edward III in 1349—ordered the Sheriffs in England to break up such "idle practices" as football.

Jack Dempsey never wasted time in the ring. He knocked out Carl Morris in 14 seconds on Dec. 18, 1918 at New Orleans. At Harrison, N. J., on July 27, 1918 he flattened Fred Fulton in 18 seconds.

About 91 million Americans have insurance which provides for hospital care.

About half a million Americans have peptic ulcers.

Boost for Flood Project

THE MINOR FLOOD hitting Artesia this week has been properly seized on as offering residents convincing proof Artesia is vulnerable to Eagle creek flooding and is in need of carrying to completion the Army engineer-proposed Eagle creek flood project.

With only two inches of rain in the country to the west of Artesia, Eagle creek shoved enough water through Artesia to raise the Pecos river level seven feet.

While its damage was only minor, it came so close to menacing homes that residents easily could see what only another two inches of rain might have done to the flood level in the city.

Here's what remains to be done on the Eagle Creek flood control project: Right-of-way must be secured for construction of the 5.7-mile levee which would swing from the road south of the airport to U. S. 285 south of Artesia near the Ranch House. If that land must be purchased, its cost would make the project prohibitive to local interests.

Funds also must be raised for an estimated $2,000 annual maintenance cost.

That type of program requires manpower, and the Chamber of Commerce is seeking just that to help it put over the Eagle flood control program, for which funds already have been appropriated by Congress.

Artesia is fortunate that it received at this time such a demonstrative show of power as Eagle creek sent toward us the first three days of this week. It would be folly not to heed the warning.

Child Safety Week in State

THE WEEK BEGINNING Aug. 30 has been proclaimed by Gov. Edwin L. Mechem as Child Safety Week in New Mexico. It is the week in which children are returning to school in Artesia and communities across the state.

According to J. T. Reese, secretary of the governor's traffic safety coordinating committee, our children are in danger because drivers refuse to accept responsibility for them and are unable to practice self-discipline.

But, Reese adds, "What can be done in the field of traffic safety has been demonstrated by our school bus drivers. The safety record compiled by these drivers is not a matter of luck, but rather one of study and hard work on the part of each driver."

School bus drivers, he points out, have not been charged with responsibility for an accident involving a fatality in the past eight years, even though school bus drivers now cover over eight million miles per school year.

The average driver can equal this safety record if he feels responsibility toward other drivers and toward pedestrians, and if he has the will-power to discipline his driving actions in accordance with known safety rules, the secretary concludes.

Check yourself: Can you and do you discipline yourself against impulse while driving? Do you accept the responsibility imposed in your control of a two-ton chunk of chromium and steel which is as violent an engine of destruction as it is pleasant a machine for convenience?

Coffee Talk

Lights Working

We were rather surprised that through all the water pouring down Thirteenth street working traffic lights at the intersection of W. Main and Thirteenth kept working straight through.

The lights are controlled by electric switches working from a gismo buried under the pavement. When a car passes over the gismo or "actuator" on Thirteenth street, it turns the signal, which in other words gives a clear light to traffic on W. Main.

The lights never stopped working despite the barrels of water going down Thirteenth.

City workmen and local electricians did a dandy job of installing that outfit.

weather" fancies — footballs snapped through the air, and to one eager woman of our acquaintance, Christmas.

Alamogordo Daily

Billy Holder and Co. of Alamogordo, who have taken firm hold of the Alamogordo News, are going to convert the newspaper into a daily by Dec. 1 this year.

Shortly after buying the paper the first of the year, the Holders switched the paper to twice-weekly publication, and have brightened its content and appearance.

The Alamogordo News' plans are another indication of Southern New Mexico growth.

Shooting Snakes

Several Artesia people were reported to be out on Eagle creek the other day, taking pot shots at snakes reportedly washed down by the pint-sized flood which hit the city earlier this week.

Snakes are a real menace in the flood's aftermath, and parents in the area through which Eagle creek flows, as well as elsewhere, are being urged to take proper precautions.

Thanks to Emil

Emil Bach came into the Advocate office the other day with enough tomatoes he'd raised to give everyone in the shop a half dozen of the luscious things.

Emil points out these home-grown tomatoes have a better flavor and higher vitamin content than the imported types.

He also points out a pink tomato kept outside an icebox but in a cool, dry place in a day or so turn as red as the ones customers like to buy in the store.

But Emil has prepared a full dissertation on tomatoes and their value to householders, which we shall present in the near future.

Bloody Nose

The senator said that will be different in the next session of Congress because Democrats will be in control of both houses. He said that upper Colorado projects approval next year will be made "much easier."

Another blow suffered by this state at the hands of the present administration, Senator Anderson said, was the refusal of the administration to increase the tariffs on imports of lead and zinc.

"I had my heart set on an increase of these tariffs to help the industry around Silver City where many men are out of work," he said. "But the administration which did not hesitate to raise the duties for the watch makers of this country would not do the same for the lead and zinc producers."

The senator said that with Sen. Wayne Morse, (Ind.-Ore.), announcing he will vote with the Democrats next year to organize Senate committees, Democrats need win only one more Senate seat to take control.

He said that one "sure winner" where the Democrats will pick up a seat is former Vice-President Alben W. Barkley. The former "veep" is seeking to unseat Rep. Sen. John Sherman Cooper.

Lowest estimates, Anderson said, show that Democrats will take control of the House in this fall's election by 30 to 40 seats.

STOCKTON SAID TODAY that changes in the office of the state purchasing agent and the state revenue bureau were "only two examples of the considerable shift since 1951 from self-service to service of the people as a whole." Stockton said he anticipates criticism from the Democratic candidates of "some of the things done by the Mechem administration, and there is no doubt that some of these criticisms will be sound. But he advised voters to understand "that in any job involving a vast change from years of self-service and party-above-principle, errors are bound to occur. An administration must be judged by the direction in which it is going and the attitude of its administrators."

(Continued from Page 1) vote to demand martial law. Continuing, Carter said: "I will take no club to any man unless I can't do it otherwise.

"I can't quit my job as moderator of the segregation committee under the circumstances. We are worse than under martial law because our leader has been held hostage."

The committee voted to telephone its attorney, Robert Dow of Lovington, for further advice.

Alcoholism

(Continued from page one) Stine said he could cite case after case—some pretty far gone—who have been treated by the commission's facilities and have remained cured for more than a year.

"It's the most wonderful, the most gratifying thing in the world, I'll tell you. It's like the difference between darkness and sunshine to see a man, happily reunited with his family, successful in his work and staying sober—after we have once seen them broken physically and mentally and financially."

When a person has had the cure, the commission tries to collect $61 as representing 50 per cent of the cost of the week's treatment. If the patient stays longer than the week of intense medication, it is on a room-and-board basis.

Such collections thus far this month are running about double last year's monthly average, Stine said. It was a onetime carelessness about collecting patients' fees that irritated state fiscal officials earlier this year when they reduced the commission to 24 employees, four less than last year.

"We're short-handed, no doubt of that," he says, "especially we need counselors for group therapy sessions. Most of our key people are working long hours seven days a week, because of keen personal interest in the problem of alcoholism."

Running in Lawn Sprinkler Holds Hazards for Children

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M. D.

AP Newfeatures
 The hotter the day, the more tempting a nice cool spray of water. Children love to put on bathing suits and run in and out of the spray of the lawn sprinkler.

It's fun and it seems harmless enough. However, there are a few hazards, especially for tiny tots.

If the day is very hot—and it's on such days that this idea comes up—the difference in temperature between the air and the water may be very great.

Little children chill quite easily. If a child becomes thoroughly chilled with this water play he's very likely to come down with a sore throat the next day.

It may seem like a paradox to get a sore throat from chilling in the high 90's. This is the sad truth just the same.

Corduroy Blazer, Slacks Easily Made at Home

By DOROTHY ROE, AP Women's Editor

It may be a struggle to get Junior out of his summer cowboy outfit and into the proper clothes to start back to school.

One sound plan is to make the school clothes the kind of rugged, comfortable garments preferred by men of all ages. Tough, washable corduroy has been a masculine favorite for generations, and has the added advantage of being ideal for home sewing.

Local sewing center experts suggest that you select a dashing blazer and slacks combination to stimulate Junior's interest in being well-dressed man. Made by a standard pattern, it's easy to do.

A tweed-printed corduroy is perfect for the trousers, with striped pattern. A good time saver is the assembly line technique of pinning the pattern to both pieces of fabric, and doing all the cutting at once.

You also should plan to do all pressing at the same time, and make buttonholes in both jackets at one fell swoop, while you have the buttonhole attachment on your sewing machine. Even buttons may be sewed on by machine, if you have one of the new automatic swing-needle machines.

It is recommended that corners of jacket pockets be reinforced with several extra rows of stitching, and that extra fabric be left in sleeves and trouser cuffs, to allow for later lengthening.

For rough-and-tumble small fry a stitched crease in the trousers is advised, to keep them looking neat.

The boy's outfit described is made with McCall's pattern 5251.)

Older children seem much better able to withstand a reasonable amount of chilling without bad effects. But the little tots, the twos, threes, fours and even fives, have not built up much resistance to this kind of abuse. Not all, of course, but a fair number develop colds and sore throats after chilling.

Since it's such a lot of fun to play in the spray, is there anything to do to make it safe?

Yes—avoid chilling.

Have your sprinkler play when it isn't so blistering hot. On a warm sunny day—not a very hot one—there's less danger that the air temperature and water temperature will be so far apart as to cause chilling.

Also if there is any way you can run a bit of hot water through the garden hose you have the problem solved for any day.

If you're going to permit it anyway, and take the chance, at least be handy with a towel and dry the child off quickly as soon as he comes out of the water. This at least cuts down the hazard, though it does not eliminate it.

If instead of a sprinkler you have a backyard wading pool, it's easy to see that the water isn't too cold. If you just put the pool in the sun for an hour before the children play in it, the shallow water will warm up. If your pool is in the shade, fill it with warm instead of cold water.

"Spring peepers," zoologically known as Hyla crucifer, are found from Manitoba to Kansas and eastward.
