compared with the figure totaled in that month last year.

Scott said the figures for the first six months of this year show a $63,807 increase over the same period last year.

W. Scott, manager of the Artesia Chamber of Commerce, said the increase is "very substantial" but added the month of June saw a decrease of $18,564.

A slight drop in retail income may be experienced this fall due to decreased agricultural income, pointed out Monday by County Agent Richard Marek.

Agricultural income is expected to drop because of extensive damage to alfalfa and decreased cotton acreage.

The local economy may also suffer slightly because of a decrease of 1,300 in the number of Mexican Nationals contracted to aid in the North Eddy county cotton harvest.

However, Scott has pointed out a many-sided Artesia economy will prevent extensive dips in retail income.

MURDERED PROVING GROUND. Soldier buddies of Roy Pohl sang high mass for him today after collecting between $300 and $400 to send his parents in Omaha, Neb., where he is being buried today.

White Sands public information office reported that Pohl was on his way to Omaha to bring his wife, who is expecting a baby, back with him to New Mexico when he was killed.

Pohl's classmates at the Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Ala., are sending flowers to the funeral. Pohl attended guided missile training there before reporting as a missile repairman to White Sands.

SANTA FE (AP)—Vice President Richard Nixon is going to be one of the major speakers for the Republican cause in New Mexico this fall.

Gov. Mechem's office announced Nixon will speak at Albuquerque Oct. 9. He probably will make another stop or two, perhaps in eastern New Mexico, the same day.

The arrangements were made by Mechem, who is the GOP candidate for the U. S. Senate.

Nixon's Albuquerque appearance will be at night, at the University of New Mexico stadium. It is to be under auspices of the citizens for Eisenhower Committee whose 1954 program is to try to elect a Republican Congress.

Revised Opinion On Reciprocity Licenses Issued

SANTA FE (AP)—Asst. Atty. Gen. C. C. McCulloch has advised the state reciprocity commission that reciprocal agreements on license plates do not exempt vehicles from other states from paying New Mexico's mileage tax.

The opinion is a revision from the position given by the office April 8, when it held that vehicles from states with reciprocal licensing pacts were exempt from this state's mileage tax.

It had been estimated New Mexico was losing $10,000 a month while giving the exemptions.

NEW YORK (AP)—How many people in America today are afraid of teen-agers? Physically afraid, I mean.

Teen-agers in every generation have annoyed or amused their elders, and generally been written off as pretty worthless unless there happened to be a war on, and they were needed to carry guns.

THE YOUNGEST and oldest polio victims in Rutland, Vt., compare notes on their treatment with Dr. Carroll B. Ross, 94, hero of the 1894 Otter Creek Valley epidemic. Mrs. Sarah Jones, 62, in wheelchair, was the youngest victim in that first recorded mass attack of polio in the United States. Beside her is Ralph Broadwell, 4. Their recovery is being aided by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, now conducting an Emergency March of Dimes.

Santa Fe Eyes Fiesta as Zozobra Shakes in Gloom

SANTA FE (AP)—There's a bustle about things in this old city of manana. People who usually put things of fare moving faster than usual.

You hear hammering and shouting all day long. There's music and laughing and lots of parading. And all the while death drays nearer for one of the city's best-known personalities.

On Friday night with groans you can hear clear across town. Zozobra—Old Man Gloom—will go up in flames, touching off Santa Fe's 242nd annual fiesta.

Santa Fe's narrow streets, never famous as speedways, were filling up today and traffic which is always slow here moved even slower. Visitors from far and near were pouring into town, eager to have some fun or watch others having it.

One of the high notes of this fiesta will be the visit of Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York, who will take part in some of the religious ceremonies which are held in conjunction with the merry-making.

The fiesta started in 1712 in honor of the bloodless reconquest of the city and area by Gen. de Vargas.

Zozobra burns at 8 p. m. Friday after coronation of Fiesta Queen Angelina Teresa Oyaca and her court will take place in the plaza.

From then on various entertainment is scheduled that night.

Six Mild Polio Cases Hit City in One-Month Period

Six cases of polio—most of them the "mild" type—have been reported in Artesia over the past month, according to Dr. O. E. Puckett, of Carlsbad, district health officer.

Dr. Puckett said gamma globulin has been supplied the county health nurse at Artesia and made available to Artesia doctors for protective injections.

The injections are intended for those who have been in direct contact with polio cases or "near-contact"—those who live near polio victims.

Dr. Puckett said the mild outbreak is not alarming, but that gamma globulin is being administered in an attempt to stem further outbreak.

The veteran Eddy county medical officer the current outbreak is the most severe since he took office in 1927, the year 30 cases were reported in the county.

Gamma globulin has been placed in the office of Mrs. Naomi Buckout at 408 W. Texas, Artesia, for polio immunization shots, Dr. Puckett said. The shots are intended only for those who have been in contact or near contact with polio victims.

Gamma globulin is also available to Artesia doctors. There is no charge for the gamma globulin, which is a public health weapon and furnished without charge.

The six cases so far reported are those of Robertson Denton, 7, July 24; Courtney Gwynne, 12, July 29; Fairy Smith, 6, Aug. 7; Mary Jane Mortenson, 24, Aug. 18; Regina Sue Brady, 2, Aug. 23; and Alice Ann Wicker, 3 1/2, Aug. 28.

A case at Maljamar was reported Aug. 24, Dr. Puckett said. "All these cases are reasonably mild," the health officer said.

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—A national advertising budget of perhaps 15 billion dollars a year is possible by 1975, Dr. Royal H. Ray told convention delegates to the Association for Education in Journalism today.

Dr. Ray is head of the department of advertising at Florida State University.

Predicting a national income of 500 billion in 21 years, Dr. Ray said he felt the ratio of advertising expenditures to national income will be not less than 2 per cent nor more than 3 per cent by then.

Dr. Ray cited several reasons for his predictions, including: 1. A new marriage boom and family formation rate, eclipsing by a "wide margin" the marriage rate during World War II.

2. Decline of personal selling. But advertisers will need to place "more emphasis on product information and less on pretty girls," Dr. Ray said. He added that he believes consumers are weary of extravagant claims about products.

And advertising, he said, will be needed in increasing amounts during the next 20 years to inform the public of thousands of new products and services.

Roach, were brought into the Domestic Relations Court where charges were preferred against them.

SANTA FE (AP)—State Democratic Chairman Tom Brown bitterly criticized today a cartoon booklet he said was issued anonymously but was prepared and paid for by the Republican party.

The cartoon purport to illustrate things which the Republicans claim happened in the long ago past," Brown said in a statement.

"It is just another of their efforts to try to escape the reality that John Simms—a man whose integrity and reputation are unquestioned—is the Democratic candidate for governor.

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Artie Pullin, 4, had had enough of the hospital.

He underwent an emergency appendix operation at Crozer hospital Friday. Yesterday while his nurse was out of the room, he climbed out of his crib, slipped his bathrobe over his pajamas, stuffed lollipops, comic books, crayons, color books and a toy gun in a paper bag and sneaked out a side door. He had forgotten only his sippers.

Bus driver Herbert Fagley was among the first to spot him, at a crossing, heading for the center of town.

Lodge Opposes Admission of Reds Into UN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., said today he has proof that the Chinese Communists five years ago were given the job of spearheading "an organized Communist attempt to conquer all of Asia."

Lodge, U. S. representative to the United Nations, told the American Legion in a prepared talk that this is one of several reasons why admitting Red China to the UN "would be an insult to the entire principle of collective security."

The ambassador spoke to weary delegates, on the final day of their 36th annual convention, as they struggled through a business pile, dominated by anti-Communist resolutions and including several strongly opposing UN membership for the Peiping regime.

In addition to acting on a flock of policy statements, Legion delegates choose today a new national commander before adjourning their convention sometime this afternoon.

They worked overtime yesterday, passing a flock of resolutions reaffirming their stand for preferential treatment of veterans in government employment and for other benefits, but the business built up into a heavy carryover.

The convention defeated attempts to place curbs on the Legion's fun-loving subsidiary, the 40 and 8 society, after a heated floor fight with overtones of the racial segregation issue.

The convention upheld the action of its committee on constitutional amendments in rejecting a resolution that would have deprived the 40 and 8 of Legion sanction until it eliminates from its constitution a restriction on membership to "white males" only.

'Pauper's Oath' Drought Relief Appeal Is Filed

CLOVIS (AP)—The question of the "pauper's oath" goes back to Washington for clarification after about 300 farmers here insisted it should not be required in the new federal loan for irrigation purposes.

Farmers feared that they would be forced to show they couldn't raise money elsewhere before being given funds from the Water Facilities Act signed last month.

Cyril S. Allen, chief of the water facilities loan branch of the Farm Home Administration, said the question had not been cleared up yet, but promised to take the views of the farmers with him back to Washington.

The question arose when Allen described the provision of the new act at a meeting of farmers, ranchers and businessmen here. Sen. Anderson (D-NM) a big backer of the bill and mediator at the meeting, quickly turned the question back to the audience to sample its opinion. Opinion was strong against the pauper's oath requirement.

The bill increases coverage under the old FHA Water Facilities Plan to include the entire nation, raises the loan limit, provides government-insured loans and makes funds available for soil conservation.

Other irrigated row and truck crops are good. Seeding of winter grains continued in the eastern counties and early fields were up to good stands.

Ranges in the western and northern mountains were generally good and stock continued to gain where there was adequate forage. In the drier sections some supplemental feeding continued with cattle in only fair condition in these areas.

The moisture has improved prospects for some dry land feed crops although few sorghums are expected to produce.

The state employment service reported the labor problem is in good balance at the moment, though shortages are expected to develop as the cotton harvest gets in full swing.

But it does seem some strange kind of mental bug is infecting our young. Parental authority is crumbling. Juvenile delinquency is growing. The kid gangs of yore used to think they were pretty daring when they joined in mass fist fights or made a midnight raid on a watermelon patch; the kid gangs today have gone a long step farther. They want to rob a grocery store, steal a car, carry a shiv, ambush a grownup and kick him into a pulp.

The other night I was walking with my wife on a Manhattan street. A group of teen-age boys approached in full uniform — T-shirts and blue jeans. They were laughing, mauling each other and shouting boisterously, as cubs have done since time began.

"Don't say anything to them," said Frances, clutching my arm nervously.

Santa Fe Eyes Fiesta as Zozobra Shakes in Gloom

SANTA FE — There's a bustle about things in this old city of manana. People who usually put things of fare moving faster than usual.

You hear hammering and shouting all day long. There's music and laughing and lots of partying. And all the while death draws nearer for one of the city's best-known personalities.

On Friday night with groans you can hear clear across town. Zozobra — Old Man Gloom — will go up in flames, touching off Santa Fe's 242nd annual fiesta.

Santa Fe's narrow streets, never famous as speedways, were filling up today and traffic which is always slow here moved even slower. Visitors from far and near were pouring into town, eager to have some fun or watch others having it.

One of the high notes of this fiesta will be the visit of Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York, who will take part in some of the religious ceremonies which are held in conjunction with the merry-making.

The fiesta started in 1712 in honor of the bloodless reconquest of the city and area by Gen. de Vargas.

Zozobra burns at 8 p. m. Friday afterward coronation of Fiesta Queen Angelina Teresa Oyaca and her court will take place in the plaza.

From then on various entertainments is scheduled that night.

Roswell Cotton Is Near 'Best Ever'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The weekly weather and crop bulletin from the U. S. weather bureau lists the Roswell area as having close to the best cotton crop ever produced.

The recent heavy rains are listed as the prime factor in the good crop. Picking is about to start, and should be in full swing in about a week.

The rains have done much towards improving the crop picture throughout the state, the bulletin said, though they did delay cultivation in some areas.

Tucumcari, Clovis and Las Cruces all were reported with very good cotton crops.

The alfalfa crop also is doing well, the bulletin said, with the fourth cutting completed in some areas, and the fifth about to start.

Brown Hits Anti-Demo 'Comic Book'

SANTA FE — State Democratic Chairman Tom Brown bitterly criticized today a cartoon booklet he said was issued anonymously but was prepared and paid for by the Republican party.

The cartoon purport to illustrate things which the Republicans claim happened in the long ago past," Brown said in a statement.

"It is just another of their efforts to try to escape the reality that John Simms — a man whose integrity and reputation are unquestioned — is the Democratic candidate for governor.

Youngster Makes Hospital Escape, With Lollipops

CHESTER, Pa., (AP)—Artie Pullin, 4, had had enough of the hospital.

He underwent an emergency appendix operation at Crozer hospital Friday. Yesterday while his nurse was out of the room, he climbed out of his crib, slipped his bathrobe over his pajamas, stuffed lollipops, comic books, crayons, color books and a toy gun in a paper bag and sneaked out a side door. He had forgotten only his slippers.

Bus driver Herbert Fagley was among the first to spot him, at a crossing, heading for the center of town.

French Souffle Is Taking U.S. Kitchen, Dinner Table By Storm

By CECILY BROWNSTONE Associated Press Food Editor SOUFFLES ARE BUSTING OUT all over Long a staple of French culinary art, Americans seem to be going for these light-as-a-summer-breeze desserts. There is even a cookbook devoted entirely to souffles scheduled for publication.

Irma Rombauer, author of the beloved "The Joy of Cooking," says that the souffle is the "misunderstood woman" of the culinary world! Although it has a reputation of being hard to master, actually a souffle is a simple and useful everyday dish.

In souffle making we have found that the size of the baking dish is of utmost importance. Put a souffle in a casserole that is too large for the recipe and no matter how carefully you have combined the ingredients, it will never rise to any great heights.

You also have to pay attention to the eggs in your souffle. You may separate the yolks from the whites when you take the eggs from the refrigerator, because they separate best when they are cold. It won't hurt to let the separated yolks and whites stand at room temperature, because whites beat up well when they are not too cold. But never, never beat those egg whites until just before you are ready to combine them with your other ingredients.

The recipe we are giving you, using quick-cooking tapioca instead of flour, is for an American-type souffle. Adding the tapioca is no trouble at all: you simply combine it with part of the liquid called for in the recipe and bring to a boil. Then the rest of the liquid, flavoring, butter and beaten yolks are added. Finally the beaten whites go in. In about an hour your souffle will be delicate but firm from its oven baking, ready to serve.

After this Orange Tapioca Souffle with sliced fresh peaches. Or, if you do not mind using tapioca both in the souffle and the adornment, you might like to serve the souffle with the following Fresh Peach Sauce. (The sauce, by the way, is excellent on squares of fluffy white cake or slices of hearty cottage pudding.) To further gild the lily, top souffle, sliced peaches or Peach Sauce, with whipped cream.

Orange Tapioca Souffle

Ingredients: 1/3 cup quick-cooking tapioca, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup water, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, 1 cup strained orange juice, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 eggs (separated).

Method: Put tapioca, sugar, salt and water in sauce pan. Cook and stir over moderate heat until mixture comes to a boil. Stir in orange rind and juice; remove from heat and stir in butter. Allow to cool slightly while beating eggs. Beat egg yolks with rotary beater (hand or electric) until thick and ivory colored. Add tapioca mixture to egg yolks and mix well. With clean beater, beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; fold tapioca mixture into egg whites. Turn into buttered 2-quart baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 50 to 60 minutes or until souffle looks firm.

Method: Mix peaches and sugar together in sauce pan; let stand 15 minutes. Add tapioca, water and dash of salt. Cook and stir over moderate heat until mixture comes to a boil. Stir in lemon juice; remove from heat. Cool 15 minutes, then stir. Serve warm.

Ingredients: 2 cups sliced fresh peaches, 3/4 cup sugar, 1 1/2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, 1 1/2 cups water, salt, 1 1/2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Berlin Isn't Complaining Over Failure

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — Irving Berlin hasn't had a new hit song in 3 1/2 years, but he isn't complaining.

Some songwriters are. They claim that their established talents are passed up by the record companies and disc jockeys in favor of unknown writers of novelty songs. The issue has even reached the courts. But Berlin is staying out of it.

"Sure, I haven't had a hit since I did 'Call Me Madam,'" said the veteran songsmith. "I put out a couple of songs that I thought were pretty good. One of them, 'For the Very First Time,' was recorded by Tony Martin, and I thought it was a good ballad. But it never got off the ground."

"FOR THE PAST 3 1/2 years, I have been living off my ASCAP fees (payment when a song is performed). They tell me there are more pianos being sold than ever before, but people don't buy sheet music. My music publishing firm doesn't make money."

"But I don't think you can knock the songs you hear today. I think songs like 'Tennessee Waltz' and 'Goodnight Irene' are as good as any you can find. Sure, there are a lot of crazy songs, but we had 'em in the old days, too."

"I wrote things like 'Sadie Sadie, Go Home' and 'When Yiddle Plays His Fiddle.' A guy comes along with a trick title like 'Yes, We Have No Bananas' and it's a hit. It's cute. Why knock it?"

Berlin will doubtless get back in the hit column this fall when his new film "White Christmas" is released. He has several new songs in the show. He believes three—"Count Your Blessings," "Love, You Didn't Do Right by Me," "The Best Things Happen While You're Dancing"—have hit possibilities.

"BUT HOW CAN YOU tell?" he signed. "You never know what the public will go for. I had a song in 'Annie Get Your Gun' which was meant to be only an introduction to another song, 'You Can't Get a Man With a Gun.'"

"I needed something for Frank Butler to sing to Annie Oakley, telling her the kind of a woman he wanted. I called it 'The Girl That I Marry.' Nothing much happened to it at first."

"Then Frank Sinatra did a record of it. Before anybody knew it, the record had sold a million copies and the song was a big hit."

Carlsbad Project Hosts Democratic State Politicos

The directors and prominent members of the Carlsbad irrigation project at Carlsbad were hosts to John Simms, candidate for governor of New Mexico at a luncheon in Carlsbad this week.

Following a short address by candidate Simms concerning the water conditions in New Mexico, many present asked various questions pertaining to proposed legislation to correct difficulties of water users in the state.

Representative Cole adhered to his usual procedure and stated he was a good listener but did not express himself in any way at this time.

He did state that he believed the legislation concerning water for irrigation purposes in New Mexico was the No. 1 item to be presented to the legislature in its next session in January.

Early People Of America Made Gadgets

CINCINNATI — If you want a shiny new lock for your front door or some hardware for your new metal windows, Walter Hartke will sell them to you in his store. But he is never too busy selling the latest gadgets to show you around his private museum devoted to the beginnings of a mechanized America.

He's been collecting such items since 1939 when he saw a museum display.

"I realized I had things like that lying around so I started collecting others," he says.

His items have come from all parts of the country and are displayed in a special room back of his store. Although most are old, he also has some modern foreign items like a Japanese lock found by American troops invading Japan and a German lock found in Trieste.

These can be compared with a huge padlock used on an American stockade during the war of 1812 and a lock taken from a door in the house, built at Bardtown, Ky. in 1750, which inspired "My Old Kentucky Home."

There is a wooden meat grinder made about 1800. Development of American craftsmanship is shown in a metal grinder using the same principle which was made in Cincinnati many years later. The manufacturer is still in business, but has no record of manufacturing the metal grinder which bears his name.

The beginnings of modern bank vaults which can be opened only through the cooperation of two or more men are seen in an old lock of uncertain date which required two keys, one to operate the tumbler and the other to retract the bolt.

Keeping house required a lot of muscle in the old days, Hartke's collection indicates. Some of the ironing devices weigh many times as much as modern electric irons. There is one that was heated by burning charcoal and other which took pieces of hot metal into its interior.

Hartke says he has never attempted to place a value on his collection and admits that the exact age of many items are unknown.

"You just have to wait until someone says, 'Oh yes, my grandmother had one of those and she

Mrs. Nina McCarter Returns From College Tour of Mexico

Mrs. Nina McCarter returned to Artesia Friday morning. Mrs. McCarter was on the staff serving as chaperone for a group of girls who were part of a party of students travelling and studying in Mexico under the auspices of Texas Christian university.

With the students were Dr. Curtis Nunn, who taught American History and Dr. Jerome Moore, who taught Spanish.

Two weeks were spent at Technological Institute in Monterrey, one week in San Luis Potosi, and two weeks in Mexico City. They returned to the institute at Monterrey to take examinations, then home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown, who are on the faculty of the Artesia schools, were on an educational tour with a group from East Central Teachers college, Ada. They entered Mexico at Laredo. Each day they took a tour to place of interest including the Floating Gardens, Mexico National Art Gallery, Cathedral and the palace of Maximilian, Carlotta.

In Mexico City they met Helen Gormn, Miss Katherine and Miss Luisa DeAnda were on a trip to Mexico. This was an unexpected and pleasant surprise for all. The three ladies spent two weeks in Mexico entering El Paso, going as far as Mexico City and Cuernavaca before entering up the east side to Laredo and returning to Artesia.

was married in 1840? They can figure out some idea of age."

Sometimes the old hardware has amusing implications. A lock is operated by a set of tons. If you press the button correctly, the lock opens, other a gong sounds inside the house. And the combination can be changed easily. It might be changed by a wife whose husband tries to sneak in late at night when she is asleep, Hartke says.

Hartke says he has never attempted to place a value on his collection and admits that the exact age of many items are unknown.

Southwest Grid Conference Promising Pass-Happy Year

By JOE BENHAM
Associated Press Staff

Southwest conference grid hopefuls went into the second day of training for what's already being looked like a pass-happy year.

Drills opened at all seven schools Wednesday. The schools ranged from a South session to a solid four hours of conditioning drills at the Texas A&M camp in Junction, Tex.

From throughout the circuit and more aerial warfare. Austin, University of Texas, Ed Price admitted that he was more passing than usual in the 66 candidates for the varsity who turned out today.

They put the co-champions in a pair of two-hour sessions. It was satisfied that the teams would have a good run. Therefore, he plans to pass, particularly the Texas which Texas used occasionally last season.

Southern Methodist opened its drills with a single session which featured pass defense and ball handling. The Mustangs were to go on a two-a-day drill schedule Thursday, although their first game isn't until Oct. 2.

More than 60 players reported to coach Chalmer Woody Woodard and his staff.

Baylor Coach George Sauer gave special praise to his crop of sophomores when the first day's practice was over. The group includes Temple's Doyle Traylor, one of the top schoolboy passers of two seasons back.

Paul "Bear" Bryant, beginning his first season at the Texas A&M helm, got things under way by switching one of his top sophomores from the backfield to an end slot. Jack Pardee, a 190-pounder, was the leading ground gainer of the freshman team last year while running at fullback. The Aggie annex camp at Junction drew 45 boys to open training.

Two Prospects Encouraging First Day of Fall Practice

By JOE BENHAM
Associated Press Staff

Coach Bob Baker used the word "encouraging" yesterday at the University of Texas when he described the first day of practice of the football practice of the team, who had 43 prospects greet him on the first day.

Titchell, said most players are of good shape. "And that's encouraging."

There's only 12 more days left before we play Young.

The Lobo gridders made a complete time change yesterday. They started running practice at 10:30 a.m. Titchell combined his backfield combinations and said there would be no "first" team for some time.

Backfield combinations are to break us this year. "We want to be sure we have the very best boys in every position."

TKO Protested in City Bout With Trigo

By ROBERT GREEN
Associated Press Staff

Immediately following the bout, Trigo's manager, Norman Lockwood, leaped into the ring, grabbed the microphone from the announcer's hand and told the screaming crowd he was calling a meeting of the Albuquerque Boxing Commission to protest the fight.

Aragon had dropped Trigo to the floor three times during the fifth round. Trigo was on his feet, but obviously groggy and taking a terrific beating when the fight was stopped.

Lockwood's protest was that Aragon had hit Trigo, who registered from Cuauhtlan, Mexico, at least twice while the Mexican fighter was on his knees following the second knockdown of the round.

Qualifying in State Amateur Tourney Opens

By VIC JAMESON
Hobbs News-Sun Sports Editor

HOBBS (AP)—They started championship qualifying today in the fortieth annual New Mexico State Amateur golf tournament, with no body yet tabbed an outstanding favorite in the five-day event.

Verne "Spec" Stewart, who has been collecting state crowns since 1920, was considered as much a favorite as anyone as the 18-hole qualifying got underway. Sharing the spotlight with him were Ralph Johnson, Hobbs club champion who recently tied the course record for nine holes, and Walter Garcia of Los Alamos, winner of the 1954 Santa Fe Invitational tournament.

Stewart has an even dozen championships to his credit, making him by far the most successful competitor in the history of the tournament. Only one other former champion, two-time winner Edd Ammonett of Roswell, is expected to participate.

Russ Milne, 1953, titlist, has moved from the state and is not eligible to defend his crown.

Match play begins Friday with the course described by Pro. E. E. "Doc" Forrester as "in the best shape ever." Thirty-two players will be paired in the championship flight and 16 in each of the other flights including a special senior division for linksmen over 50 years of age.

At least 160 entries are expected.

NuMexers Collect Two Home Runs, One Brings Rhubarb

SAN ANGELO (AP)—The San Angelo Colts kept the Artesia NuMexers from clinching the Longhorn league pennant here tonight scoring a narrow 9-8 victory.

The NuMexers will be facing Audie Malone in the final game in San Angelo tonight but Jimmy Adair didn't announce who would hurl for the visitors.

After tonight's game in the San Angelo ball park, the NuMexers will leave for home, where they entertain Carlsbad in two games Friday and Saturday, and Roswell in a doubleheader Sunday.

Home runs figured heavily in the contest last night, the Colts hitting three out of the park to only two for the NuMexers. However the last one of the game by Reuben Smartt set fire to a five-minute argument.

With two men on and one out, Smartt hit a long drive which base umpire Paul Foster ruled hit the scoreboard and three runs came in to narrow the margin to 9-8.

Bob Hobbs caught the ball on the rickshot and threw to the plate and Ed Peacock tagged both runners for an apparent double play. Hobbs claimed he caught the ball off the wall but Foster upheld his ruling and the scores counted.

Dan Howard, the NuMexers' sensational rookie, staked his team to a two-run lead in the first inning with a drive over the right field fence.

The Colts tied it up in the bottom of the first with two tallies on two singles and a double. Dub Graves hit a two-run blast in the second and Peacock hit a two-run drive in the third.

Bob Hobbs parked his 36th blast of the season in the seventh with no one on for the eventual winning run.

Ewen won his 11th game of the year and went all the way. Vic Stryka started and was charged with the loss. Bart DiMaggio and Jose Gallardo came in for relief, neither of the three hurlers going over three innings.

Pampa Moves Up Within Half Game Of WT-NM Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pampa Oilers swept a twin bill from the Albuquerque Dukes Wednesday night to move to within one-half game of West Texas-New Mexico League-leading Clovis.

The Oilers edged the Dukes 5-4 in the opener and took the nightcap 8-7 to bury the Dukes deeper in the league cellar.

Clovis beat Abilene 10-7 to hold onto first place while in the other game, Amarillo downed Lubbock 9-7.

Lubbock had one consolation. Manager Frank Benites, who took over the team in July in his first managerial assignment, was named the league's manager of the year. League President Hal Savles said the selections were made by vote of the managers, sports writers and radio broadcasters.

Red Dial, in trouble all night for the league leaders, tightened up in the clinches and earned his 24th victory.

Pampa combed three Duke hurlers for 11 hits in the opener, most of them coming in the big second inning in which all five runs tallied.

Yanks in Business Again, Stengel Says After Win

NEW YORK (AP)—"Yesterday we were out of business; today we're back in it."

Manager Casey Stengel was in an expansive mood after the New York Yankees' 4-1 "musty" victory over Cleveland yesterday that sliced the Indians' first-place margin over the defending champions to 4 1/2 games.

"It was a game we had to win," said Stengel, "and just as we've been doing for six years, we won it. That's why you can't count us out yet. Never sell the Yankees short until they are mathematically eliminated."

"The other guys don't have it wrapped up yet. They just think they have. Don't forget they haven't had a slump all season. But if we can beat them again tomorrow and keep the pressure on them, we might scare them into one."

"I'm not saying they'll choke. They never have. But they could slow up a little. I know one thing, we better not choke. We can't afford to lose any more."

First Studio-Home National TV Fight Makes History

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Boxing history was made last night with the first "studio-home audience" nationally televised fight show, but the only happy faces were those of four unheralded preliminary fighters.

It took a case of mumps to fulfill a prediction by the late Mike Jacobs, renowned New York promoter, that the day would come when prize fights would be held before unpaying audiences.

Kid Gavilan came down with the mumps Tuesday, 24 hours before he was scheduled to make his eighth title defense against Johnny Saxton. The promoters—Herman Taylor and the International Boxing club of New York—were faced with the prospect of no show at all.

Rather than break the uninterrupted four-year Wednesday TV fight show series, Taylor and the IBC put together a double win/program of six-rounders.

Bauman Misses Homer, Hits Two Doubles—Roswell Wins

ROSSELL (AP)—Joe Bauman missed hitting a home run last night as the Rockets belted Midland 14-7 behind the relaxed 16 hit hurling of Ray Faust.

The big Roswell first sacker picked up two doubles and a single, a sacrifice fly, and struck out once in five appearances at the plate.

Mgr. Pat Stasey inserted Bauman into the leadoff position in the batting order and said that is where he will bat the remainder of the season. The Rockets have five games to go and Bauman needs one homer to tie the pro baseball mark of 69.

Bauman's first double brought the crowd to its feet with a roar—but the ball hit the top six inches of the rightfield wall and bounded back into the field.

Stasey supplied the batting punch for the Rockets, lining successive homers in the first, third, and fifth innings good for a total of seven RBIs.

Roswell scored at will off Harold Hacker, running up a 14-3 margin after seven innings.

Chuck Terrasi and Scooter Hughes hit solo homers for the Indians, who outbit Roswell 16-14.

Odessa Ousts Brones 10-0 in Near-Finale

ODESSA (AP)—Scoring 'em two at a time, Odessa built up a 10-0 advantage here last night and held on to beat Big Spring, 10-5, in the next-to-last home game of the season for the Oilers.

Rookie Bob Feller, in chalking up his sixth win against 15 losses, blanked the Brones on three hits for six innings. He weakened in the seventh and Pete Braun came on to save the decision.

Lee Snead, who gave up six runs and eight hits in two-plus innings, was the loser. Mgr. Pepper Martin then used four other hurlers, including leftfielder Luis Caballero and shortstop Pete Simone.

Bob Bauer hit a homer for Odessa to lead off the sixth. Ray Mink and Mgr. Barney Batson paced Odessa, both getting four for six and driving in two runs.

Big Spring combined five hits with one Oiler error and a hit batsman for its five runs in the seventh.

Thursday night the two managers—Batson and Martin—will start on the hill for their clubs.

Fort Worth in Fourth Place By Full Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Man-sized helpings of crow are in order for all those who said Fort Worth was washed up a week ago as a Texas league playoff contender.

The Cats moved into fourth place by a full game Wednesday night as they whacked Oklahoma City 14-1 while San Antonio was losing a pair to Beaumont 5-2 and 4-2.

It was the sixth straight triumph for Al Vincent's exuberant youngsters. They followed the lead of 6-hit pitching by Mike Lemish and home run hitting by Hoy Hartsfield, Cal Felix and Ray Coleman to gain the victory.

The Oklahoma City loss dropped the Indians into a second-place tie with Houston, which defeated Shreveport 7-1. Dallas blanked Tulsa 4-0 in the night's other game.

Four Oklahoma City pitchers tried to stem the Fort Worth tide without success after the Cats broke loose on Al Pappi for seven hits in the 7-run sixth inning.

At Beaumont, home runs beat San Antonio in both ends of an argument-marred twin bill. Mission manager Don Hefner was bounced from both contests and Beaumont boss Mickey Livingston got the thumb in the opener.

Eddie Kazak gave the Spudders their first-game margin with a three-run homer in the first inning. In the nightcap, Ford Garrison and Ben Taylor knocked a pair out of the park.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROUNDUP—Sensational Warren Spahn Wraps Up Chance Of Winning 20 Games as Braves Down Pirates

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

Warren Spahn, whose sensational return to form in midseason made the National League pennant race a three-team affair, still is firing away with amazing precision although time probably has run out for his Milwaukee Braves.

After a mediocre spring and early summer during which he lost 10 games, Spahn hit his winning stride on July 18. He won his ninth game that day, beating Pittsburgh. Last night, again against Pittsburgh, he won his 17th. In between he's gone unbeaten.

With 25 games left, a minimum of five more starts for the 32-year-old lifer, Spahn stands a good chance of winning at least 20 games for the sixth time.

He won 23 while losing only 7 a year ago, the best of his nine seasons with the Braves. He also won more than 20 in 1947 and from 1949 through 1951. His worst big league season was 1952 when he was beaten 19 times while winning 14.

When Spahn started to win regularly so did the Braves. They jumped from 15 games behind in late July into the thick of the race by mid-August.

Spahn's 3-1 victory over the Pirates moved the Braves within 6 1/2 lengths of the first-place New York Giants and within 2 1/2 of second-place Brooklyn, both losers Wednesday.

Cincinnati beat the Giants 9-7 in a game played under protest from the third inning on by the New Yorkers. Chicago defeated Brooklyn 9-5 for its seventh straight triumph.

Philadelphia replaced St. Louis in fifth place with a 5-2 victory over the Cardinals.

The New York Yankees kept their pennant hopes alive with a 4-1 conquest of Cleveland, cutting the Indians' first place margin to 4 1/2 games. The Chicago White Sox split at Boston, losing the day game 7-2 and winning the night game 6-3. Washington defeated Detroit 4-0. Baltimore and Philadelphia weren't scheduled.

'They Tried to Get Me'

THAT IS THE TITLE of an interview with Congressman Martin Dies as it appears in "U. S. News and World Report."

Congressman Dies was the first active chairman of an Un-American activities committee—in other words, he headed the first committee of congress fighting the "Reds."

There had been a committee prior to his taking over his duties in 1938 but it had not accomplished a thing.

But for seven years this outstanding American and Texan fought the Reds, the Red front organizations, the administration, the attorney general's office, the cabinet members and others. During these seven years, however, the congress of the United States stayed with him.

But he makes it clear that not only the Reds tried to get him but that the President of the United States—Franklin D. Roosevelt—Mrs. Roosevelt, the attorney-general, John L. Lewis, other union leaders, all tried to get him to halt. They tried to kidnap his son; they threatened his family; they threatened him.

Back in those days he exposed some 2,000 federal workers—all members of the Communist party or of Red Front organizations—and among those was Alger Hiss.

But he says President Roosevelt wanted the support of the unions and needed it to win elections so he backed them and their members, who were Reds.

After seven years Congressman Dies health failed and he retired but two years ago he was returned to congress by a record majority as a congressman-at-large. Today he has grown in stature because of the fight he made and because time has proven he was right and the things he and his committee disclosed were true.

So he was not surprised at what has happened to Sen. Joe McCarthy or to anyone else who fights the Reds. He expressed the opinion that maybe Sen. McCarthy has made some mistakes but he admits he made some too and others who follow will make them.

But he does emphasize that the complaints are about methods and procedure and there is nothing there to criticize. He declares that when a witness ridicules, defies and refuses to testify before a committee that means must be found to make that witness respect that committee. There is nothing wrong with the procedure or methods.

They tried to get him—now it is McCarthy.

Eisenhower Signs Bill on Mineral Rights in Lea

FRASER, Colo. — President Eisenhower changed his mind today and signed into a law a bill he previously had announced he was killing.

"It now appears that an error was made," the President said in a prepared statement. The bill directs the secretary of the interior to turn over to Mrs. Pearl O. Marr, of Crossroads, N. M., the oil, gas and other mineral interests which were reserved by the government at the time the property involved was deeded to her husband John.

Eisenhower said he decided last Friday to "pocket veto" the bill—kill it—because the Interior Department had advised him "there were no special equities" in the case to warrant a departure from precedent.

The President added he later was advised by Secretary of the Interior McKay that "his attention had been directed to new evidence which indicates that special equities do exist in this case."

Terms of Copper Strike Agreement Still in Dispute

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Late last night the Bayard, N. M., local of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (Ind) ratified an agreement with Kennecott Copper Corp.

Terms of the new agreement, however, are in dispute. Kennecott says the contract calls for a general wage increase of 2.7 cents an hour.

The union claims benefits amount to about 9 cents, including the 5-cent hourly boost. The union's miners in the West previously earned $14.71 to $15.55 a day and laborers earned $12.76 to $13.85.

The Bayard group was the last local in Utah, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico to ratify the agreement reached by union representatives and Kennecott officials last Friday.

Union officials at Bayard said pickets were being pulled off Kennecott copper property there. Earlier yesterday Kennecott issued a back to work call which ended the 16-day walkout. Today full crews are expected at the Bingham Canyon open pits and at the mill in nearby Magna, Utah. Reporting times for the returning men will depend on how soon the local mines and mills can ready their plants.

With the ratification at Bayard, more than 10,000 men that have been idle in the four states will return to work Nevada, Utah, Arizona and New Mexico properties of Kennecott have been idled by the strike.

SANTA FE, (AP)—The Supreme Court in a 3-2 ruling has ordered dismissal of attorney Thomas B. Forbis' claim for one-eighth interest in some oil and gas leases or $15,000 as his fee for some legal work.

The majority held the Sierra county district court lacked jurisdiction and the case should have been filed in San Juan county, where the land is located.

Do-It-Yourself Trend Invading Yachting Field

By DION HENDERSON AP Newsfeatures The Do-It-Yourself trend has moved into yachting.

Times have changed a good deal since J. P. Morgan frostily told the fellow that if he had to ask what running a yacht cost, he couldn't afford it.

Yachts have changed, too, and maybe that's the secret. The term nowadays includes craft that can sail all day on a puddle where Morgan's 302-foot Corsair would have reached from shore to shore.

For instance, there are the 12-foot sailing dinghies called Penguins, and the 15-foot Snipes—most popular design in the world, with 10,000 owners in 30 countries. There are even top racing hulls in small designs, like the International class 14-footers. Lightnings, at 19 feet, can carry five persons and are increasingly popular for family combination sailing.

You can buy a sailboat kit—even an outboard cruiser once called the poor man's stinkpot—for under $500 and emerge with a boat just about as good as your craftsmanship merits. Or you can turn chicken at the last minute and buy a good used Lightning or National class boat for very little more.

Upkeep, which used to be the big thing, has been subjected to the same home labor — ("This week-end we'll scrape, kids, won't that be fun?") — trimming. Boating families do nearly all of their own maintenance work, and the cost may average less than $150 a year.

Yachts, after all, aren't like autos. They don't come out in new models every year and practically force you to buy a new one to keep up with the neighbors. A new boat may outlast you, if it's cared for, and the harder you work taking care of it the better its chances are.

So there's nothing local about this upswing in yacht interest. Of course the plushy clubs at the seashore are still there, busier than ever.

But also you can hear seafaring conversation so far inland that the only salt air in town is the aura over the grocery store's pickle barrel.

Permanent Pleats Easily Laundered By Simple Care

AP Newsfeatures You can launder permanently pleated skirts with about 50 per cent man-made fibers reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Hot water and mild soap or detergent will not harm the pleats or fabric whether washed by hand or in a machine. But if an automatic washer is used, remove the skirt before the spin dry cycle. Then simply press the pleats, with your fingers and hang the skirt up straight. A mild breeze helps remove wrinkles.

Don't wring the skirt dry if you wash it by hand or in a non-automatic washer. Let it drip dry and finger-press the pleats after some of the moisture has dripped out. You also can lay the skirt flat on a towel and pat out excess water before hanging it to dry.

OUTDOORS—Fishing Best Inland During Last of Fall

By DION HENDERSON
AP Newsfeatures
The vacation fisherman who hears the familiar resort-lake phrase, "you should have been here yesterday when they were biting," can be understandably depressed about the whole thing. What he has really done—thoughtful husband and father that he is—amounts to taking the family to a pleasant spot when swimming is fine, the weather calls the family outdoors for sun and play, and where the fishing is good—practically any other time of year. For it is an unfortunate irony that most inland fishing is best earlier in the summer and later in the fall. But old Dad can get a few crumbs while the family is eating his cake, if he knows how. After all, the popular vacation lakes all contain fish, or they wouldn't have become popular vacation lakes in the beginning. And it's a fact that sport fishermen can't take all the fish out of any reasonable lake. It's more likely that a busy resort lake is overpopulated, with fish actually stunted from overcropping. The vacation angler can take his cue from that. He can look out of his cottage window and see the evidence. On a sunny summer day, the shoreline reounds with the porpoising of families in swimming. The lake itself buzzes with motor boats and cruisers. But let him look at the same water by the dawn's early light, or on those cool drizzly days when everyone else wants to stay indoors. For instance, in the black bass range which is virtually border to border, the man drifting quietly a few yards off shore a half-hour before daybreak may find a lunker greeting his frog or plug or popping bug close to where the young ones will be shrieking four hours hence. In the off hours, he'll find that even the busiest lake reverts largely to its native type. And at mid-night when the walleyes move inshore things look just about the way they did when the only tracks on the beach were made by moosehorns. And he may be the fellow they mean when they tell a new guest tomorrow, "You should have been here yesterday."

Blue whales can swim as fast as 20 knots for brief intervals.

Color By Crayons Gives New Touch To Simple Dress

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor
Remember what fun you had as a little girl, filling in the pictures in your coloring book? Now, using the same wax crayons, you can draw designs on your party dresses, to give them extra glamor. Local sewing center experts have worked out a unique system of crayon coloring which is bright, permanent and washable. Here's what to do: First choose a sheer fabric such as lawn or organdie, so the color will penetrate. Using any standard pattern, cut out and make your party dress. Then carefully sketch your design on a piece of wrapping paper, and getting the placement just right, use carbon paper to trace the outline onto the dress. You may choose any design you like—flowers, fruit or even animals. Then, using non-tarnishable metal thread, fashion stitch the outline of the design on the dress, using your sewing machine. Now comes the fun. Using ordinary wax crayons, carefully fill in the design with whatever color you like. Sand with a piece of brown wrapping paper to absorb excess wax, and press with a warm iron. The wax melts out and the color remains. The design may be washed but not dry cleaned, so be sure the fabric of the dress is washable. Yachtsmen on Grand Lake, Colo., say theirs is the nation's highest anchorage—8,369 feet above sea level.

Husband's Bags Easily Packed For Traveling

By SANDRA NEMSER
AP Newsfeatures Writer
Vacation week-end trips often mean double packing for the woman of the house. If your husband's the type who likes to leave packed with only what he has on his back, here are some tips to keep him both well-dressed and happy. Carol Lane, women's travel director for an oil company, has devised a check list for a man's must and miscellaneous needs on a week-end trip by car. Her formula is to file the clothes in a logical and space-saving manner. Begin with the heavy items, such as shoes, shaving kit, alarm clock, military brush set and toiletries. Cover the shoes with an old pair of socks and fill them with the socks he'll want to wear. After the heavy things comes the extra suit, sport coat or slacks. Most wrinkle-free way to pack a suit in a small week-end bag: Lay trousers out flat and fold trouser legs over; fold coat bottom up and place in luggage. Wrinkles, like shirts and ties, are next in order. Miss Lane suggests you pack two dress shirts. You can protect the collars by filling the necks with handkerchiefs. Ties can be folded over the center pages of a magazine. Next come underwear and night clothes. Must items here include: house slippers, robe, one pair of pajamas and two pairs of shorts and undershirts. In the handy-to-have-along category, Miss Lane places styptic pencil, a box of aspirin, a sweater, a Navy style, a check book, nail clippers and a file. She also suggests a miniature whisk broom or gets a miniature whisk broom or gets a rubber bath sponge to remove lint from clothes, a small sewing kit and a book or other reading material.

Carlsbad Schedules Big Celebration for Labor Day

The big Labor Day celebration on Sept. 6 at Carlsbad is expected to draw crowds from outlying towns to the Municipal Beach where a full program of activities is planned for the day.

John Simms, Jr., Democratic candidate for governor, has notified the Labor Day planning committee that he will be happy to accept an invitation to be guest speaker at the Labor Day festivities.

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, Democratic incumbent running for reelection to the U. S. Senate, has sent his regrets, saying he would have been glad to attend, but has prior commitments for Labor Day.

The two Republican candidates, Alvin Stockton, who is opposing Simms for governor, and present Gov. Edwin Mechem who is trying to unseat Anderson for the Senate, have as yet to be heard from, according to the labor committee.

The El Paso Boat Club and any other boating club of the area who might be interested has been invited to put on exhibitions at the Beach on Labor Day. It was the opinion of the group that the boat races should be scheduled as a part of the over-all Labor Day festivities, with regular time set aside for that feature of the program, so as not to conflict with other events that have already been planned for the day.

The proposal of the American Legion and the Jaycees to have a registration booth at the Municipal Beach on Labor Day to give a boost to their voter registration drive was welcomed by the planning group.

Seven girls are candidates for Labor Day Queen, with the winner to be crowned "Miss Carlsbad Caverns." Winners of the first three places will be presented trophies. The crown and trophies will be on display at Crown Jewelers within the next day or two. The candidates are: Joyce Brannon, sponsored by Price's Creamery; Ginger Moots, sponsored by Local 459 of the Meatcutters' Union; Marie Heins, sponsored by Mandell's; Reba Foster, sponsored by the Red Chimney; Carolyn Raymond, sponsored by Local 415, Mine-Mill; Sherry Lambert, sponsored by the Carlsbad Potash Basin Union, Independent; and Alma LaVerne Kelley, sponsored by the DeLuxe Cafe.

Another meeting of the planning group will be held at the Machinists hall at 108 East Church street Tuesday night at 7:30.

Unions taking part in the planning and work for the Labor Day celebration are: the local unions of the Carpenters and Joiners, the Operating Engineers, the Laborers, the Electricians, and two locals of the Machinists Union, Locals 1265 and 1124, all affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. In addition to these, Local 415, Mine-Mill, and the Carlsbad Potash Basin Union, Independent, are participating in the plans for the Labor Day celebration.

Plans for the big celebration include the queen's contest, a big parade starting at 10:30 in the morning, an open-air dance, and possibly the boat races at the beach. There will also be a midway at the beach with booths serving hot dogs, hamburgers, cold drinks, snow cones and candy. Other booths will furnish entertainment with various games.

The city of Carlsbad is cooperating to the fullest extent by making the beach facilities available free for the day. The municipally-owned amusement rides will be operated all day with free rides for the children.

A 21-inch television set will be awarded also some time during the Labor Day festivities. It is now on display at Carlsbad appliance dealer, Bruce Brown's. Money raised from the Labor Day affair will be used to improve the change room facilities at the bathing house at the Beach. The labor committee selected this project because the Municipal Beach is one of the most popular recreational areas in the southeastern end of New Mexico, and attracts many visitors from nearby towns and is visited also by tourists during the summer months. The labor group felt that the change room facilities at the bathing house at the beach have not kept up with the growing use of popularity of the beach and that they need therefore to be expanded and made more adequate.

New Social Security Bill Signed as Law

FRASER, Colo., (AP)—President Eisenhower signed into law yesterday legislation expanding social security coverage to 10 million additional Americans and liberalizing other benefits.

He hailed the measure as "one of the cornerstones to build a better and stronger America" and outlined four important provisions:

1—It raises payments to all retired workers by at least $5 a month. It raises the ceiling of payments by $13.50 a month for retired workers and by $31.25 a month for families.

2—It eliminates the four or five lowest years of earnings from the computation of checks for workers who retire in the future. "This provision is of great importance to many people whose years of unusually low earnings would sharply reduce their benefits," the president said.

3—Retired workers may earn up to $1,200 a year without forfeiting checks, thus raising the ceiling on retired earnings. The annual exemption applies equally to wage earners and self-employed workers.

4—The act preserves the benefits right, under old age and survivors insurance, of those workers regularly covered under the program who became totally disabled for long and indefinite periods.

Capitol Whirl Is New Dance Step, Sweeps City

AP Newsfeatures
Want to be a politician? Government teacher? Social gadabout? Or just in the know?

Then you'll want to get acquainted with the Capitol Whirl—not a book or a song title but a dance.

Created by Arthur Brugh, president of the National Assn. of Dance and Affiliated Artists, the Capitol Whirl goes through nine movements to the standard three-quarter waltz time.

Step No. 1 for the novice is the Washington Walk, during which you are sure to lead into the Senatorial turnaround. While you're there you can't miss that Eisenhower Windup or the Eisenhower Swing. You might even bump into the Independence Movement followed sometimes by the Executive Hesitation.

When things really are bad you hit hat old Capitol Runaround and the impenetrable Pentagon Maze. And just like Don Quixote you might end up fighting the Congressional Windmill.
