POP Candidate Pledges Democrats

BERNALILLO — Alvin Stockton, Republican candidate for governor, today advised the voters to be skeptical of promises by his opponent to deliver more money to state agencies.

There is a delicate balance between income and expenditures in New Mexico and any candidate who promises to expand state services should be asked how he will accomplish it," Stockton said in a statement.

He was in Bernalillo today with a group of Republican candidates for a handshaking tour.

Stockton said governmental reorganization, such as he has suggested in recent days, is an excellent method of accomplishing savings which will help finance expansion of present agencies and help finance an increase in public services.

He advised voters to "examine carefully the promises of candidates for bigger appropriations for state agencies." He said his opponent, John Simms, has stated he would finance state agency expansions through "administrative savings" and through "rearrangement of the budget."

Stockton said such savings would be minor since "most of our offices are operating as efficiently as possible and budget rearrangement means only that the same amount of money would be juggled among some agency . . . robbing Peter to pay Paul."

Democratic Candidate Withdraws Charge Against Sheriff

ALBUQUERQUE — The Democratic candidate for sheriff of Bernalillo county has withdrawn a charge that the present Republican run sheriff's office "bungled" Tuesday's bank robbery.

Bob Wilson retracted the charge a few hours after he made yesterday, saying, "I apparently have been given some misinformation by a usually reliable source."

Meanwhile, Firemen's Fund Insurance Co., which insured the bank, raised its reward to $6,558 for capture of the gentleman bandit who got away with $11,168 Tuesday.

Wilson had said "the deputy taking the report of the holdup did not know the location and . . . deduced the bank had been held up . . . giving the robber 10 minutes in which to effect his getaway."

Sheriff Harold Hubbell, running for re-election on the GOP ticket, answered:

"No such thing happened. About 10 minutes after the call came in we were at the location."

Wife Says Story of Coed Slaying Complete Hoax

MALESTER, Okla. — A life-imprisoned convict who signed a "confession" in the 14-year-old slaying of a Penn State coed has admitted the entire statement was a hoax.

Jack Ray told a newspaper reporter in the state prison here yesterday that his lurid story of a rape ring, wild parties and illicit sex at State College, Pa., came from his imagination.

The 34-year-old convict said he had read a story of the Rachel Corrie slaying in a detective magazine and had carefully planted clues that he knew something about it with other prisoners, knowing they would reach officials.

He said he concocted the entire story in hopes of getting a release from a life term for another murder he also claims he did not commit.

Roswell Man Is Held Not Guilty of Hit-Run

D. E. Briggs, Roswell, was held innocent this morning by Police Judge John Ellicott after a combination was signed against Briggs charging a hit-and-run.

Teacher Tenure Viewed By Area School Boards

ROSWELL, (AP)—Six southeastern New Mexico cities were represented last night when the Eastern New Mexico School Board Assn. met here for a quarterly business meeting.

School officials and board members were present from Hobbs, Tatum, Artesia, Carlsbad, Lovington, and Roswell.

On hand to represent state professional educational groups were W. B. O'Donnell, executive secretary, New Mexico Education Assn., Santa Fe, and Charles A. Wood, field secretary of the same association. State school head, Tom Wiley, brought the views of the highest official state levels of education.

Proposed legislation which may affect education in New Mexico was main topic of the evening. Tenure laws and possible amendments to them held the most interest of the school group.

There was some sentiment in the group for asking the legislature to change present law to allow courts final jurisdiction in tenure cases, rather than the state board of education.

Wiley said some procedural suggestions which will help local boards to assist tenured teachers whose teaching may not be up to par.

Beautiful Texas Girl Refuses to Identify Beaters

CARLSBAD, (AP)—A beautiful 21-year-old Dallas girl is on her way back to Texas today, still carrying with her the secret of a beating she apparently suffered 22 miles east of Carlsbad on Wednesday afternoon.

The girl, identified as Helen Coosley, was found lying beside U. S. Highway 180 by a dove hunter. He took her to a hospital here for treatment.

Officers said the girl apparently had been beaten. They said Miss Coosley told them she had been beaten by her former employer and another man at El Paso and later in the automobile, and then dumped from the vehicle.

However, she declined to sign a complaint and left this morning by bus for Dallas.

City-Wide School Survey Bring Wide Improvement

Remember the community-wide surveys made last year on Artesia's school program?

The findings of that survey, in which the community made its wishes known on education, are bearing fruit. According to a report by Supt. Vernon Mills to the board of education, many changes based on survey findings have been put into effect.

Mills reports "Realizing that probably our social science department was one of the weaker spots at our high school, we added a full time social science teacher to take care of the overloading with the classes. We have also added a half-time biology teacher."

"The above teachers have all been in the academic field, but because we are able to hire a biology vocational ag teacher combination we have also added in the vocational field a half-time teacher."

His report notes that "to overcome some of the weaknesses that the administration and the curriculum committee found within the

And while Mechem and Anderson were chatting with the Farm Bureau in Portales, Democrats hurled charges in Socorro and made announcements of proposals in Hobbs on the state's warming political front.

In Hobbs, Democratic gubernatorial candidate John Simms announced that if elected he would recommend to the Legislature that it appropriate not less than $100,000.

Southern Pacific Sells Bonita Lake To Alamogordo

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The Southern Pacific Co. today announced an agreement whereby it will turn over water rights to Lake Bonito to the City of Alamogordo, N. M.

The transaction will double the city's water supply.

A spokesman for the SP issued this statement:

"The Southern Pacific today executed an agreement with the City of Alamogordo, Nogal Water Users Assn., and the Town of Carrizozo for the sale of real property and water rights subject to certain exceptions and reservations including all improvement on fee lands, Bonito Lake, Nogal Reservoir and pipe lines appurtenant thereto.

The sale price is $25,000. The agreement provides for the manner of payment, execution of deed, and handling of transaction through escrow."

The transaction is expected to make about three million gallons a day available to Alamogordo. The city is also expected to transact a deal with Holloman Air Force Base making some of the water available to the installation.

Last month a large group of Alamogordo residents drove to the lake to look at the reservoir. This came after Mayor Walter Mullins announced the community had obtained an option March 3 to buy the lake and related water rights.

When full, the lake is 81 feet deep at the dam and covers an area of 63 acres. It furnished up (Continued on page six)

Police Pledge No Arrests At Grid Contest Tonight

Football fans and players need have no fear they'll be arrested if they go to Morris Field tonight and see the Artesia-Alamogordo football game.

Chief of Police Frank Powell has the situation well in hand. "Somewhere," he says, "there's an old ordinance that put the city limits this side of Morris Field. When everyone goes to the football game, they may be outside the city limits and we can't arrest them."

Chief Powell smiling, gave his statement as the latest development in the Advocate tongue-in-cheek revelation of an old city ordinance which prohibits sports where body contact with others is the gist of the game. It makes participants and spectators subject to a $100 fine apiece, and 30 days in the city jail.

A host of city officials yesterday laughingly declared that ordinance "applies only to the other team if they get ahead of us."

Nevertheless, Chief Powell says, there have been "several" phone calls from people wanting to know if they'll be arrested if they go to the football game tonight.

"No one will be arrested," Chief Powell says. "I'm sure that ordinance is in the books somewhere."

Bureau Asking School Chief Be Appointed Officer

ALBUQUERQUE, (AP)—The New Mexico Farm and Livestock Bureau wants the state school superintendent appointed—rather than elected—on the basis of experience and background in educational administration.

At a meeting of the bureau's executive committee in Albuquerque, Claude E. Leyendecker, director of education and research for the organization, said:

"It is our intention to try and keep politics out of education in this state and to have a board representing all the people."

He said a resolution calling for appointment of the state school head would be submitted to the legislature.

Batchelor's Mother Declares Son Was Always 'Good Boy'

SAN ANTONIO, (AP)—Cpl. Claude Batchelor's mother testified today that as the Texas soldier accused of collaborating with the Communists grew up he was a good boy who went to Sunday school and never talked about politics.

Batchelor is being tried by a general court-martial at Ft. Sam Houston on charges that he played along with his captors in Korea and informed on fellow prisoners of war.

The 22-year-old soldier from Kermit, in West Texas, was one of 23 Americans who decided to stay with the Reds when the Korean War ended. Last New Year's eve, he changed his mind and came back.

Mrs. O. L. Batchelor, his mother, said Claude was brought up to follow the principles of the Bible and frequently attended Baptist Sunday school. For years he was a boy scout and a good boy, she said.

As a high school student, she testified, there was nothing outstanding about him, but he played some football and was a trumpeter in the band. He showed no interest in politics. Mrs. Batchelor said he quit school at the age of 16 before finishing the 11th grade. She did not say why.

When he was 16 Batchelor enlisted in the Army. In 1950 Mrs. Batchelor received a long, pencil-written letter, announcing his marriage to a Japanese girl in a Shinto ceremony in Tokyo.

For less serious addicts—the kind who can stay away from the stuff for a week without getting delirium tremens—Dent prescribes three or four days treatment at home.

Instead of that frequent martini or triple slug to calm the nerves, "the patient lies down, puts a tablet of apomorphine in the pouch of his cheek and lets it dissolve waiting 10 minutes before swallowing."

The dosage is repeated, on a carefully regulated schedule, until the craving for drink is gone.

Personal Mention Men on Capitol Hill Mum on 'Newest Look'

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — Believe it or not, the boys on Capitol Hill won't talk about the newest "new look" of the fashion world's pacesetter, French designer Dior, which is rocking the rest of the world.

Deadlier to the solons perhaps than the H-bomb is the subject of the H-line, so-called because that's what Dior's new style is supposed to make a woman look like. Yes, an H, says Dior. The Dior creations, much like American flapper styles of the early '20s—straight, flat, bustless, with waist-line at the hips—are to my mind, pretty frightening.

Senators and Congressmen, ordinarily willing to talk about anything they think their constituents are interested in, take a firm stand privately but don't want to stick their necks publicly out on this one.

Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.), who's had a great deal to say about Sen. Joe McCarthy of Wisconsin, says that "for the moment I'm concentrating on other matters" and "I don't know whether I'm competent to comment on this style."

Sen. Ellender (D-La.) went a bit further: "Why women fall for any fashion started some place else I don't know. Those designers are just trying to get women to buy more clothes. Some women will wear anything to draw attention. Take the hat fashions. They're hideous, absurd. I doubt if they'll ever get a whistle with this flat look."

Rep. Bender (R-O.) who used to be in the ladies ready-to-wear business back in Cleveland, says he used to be concerned about Dior but found that women make up their own minds about fashion. "And listen, lady, I'm running for the Senate, and there are more women voters than men," he said. "Also I have a wife, two daughters and two granddaughters, and know what to keep my big mouth shut."

Congress' youngest member, Rep. Wampler (D-Va.), is noticeably against the new look, hoping nobody he knows ever gets ticked up like that and can't imagine any woman would want to, "except for a joke." He probably won't have to worry. His pretty wife, Mary, daughter of Rep. Baker (Tenn.) studied art and designs her own clothes.

Rep. Javitz (D-N.Y.) "believes in the greatest friendship with the French" but hopes American women will stay the way they are. "I don't want to change them at all," he said.

Manager Charley Grimm of Milwaukee Braves says his feat, playing a left handed banjo to the easy choice. Just turn himself the banjo upside down.

"BLESSED ARE THEY..."

As the little birds trust the mother bird, so let men trust God. If a sparrow cannot fall without God's attention, if He counts the hairs of our head... why do we fear (Mat. 10:29-31)? Worry about future security? God is the security for those who trust Him. Your Heavenly Father feeds the birds, and you are of far more value than they (Mat. 6:26). "Blessed are they who hunger for God's good things; they shall be filled." In childhood we needed mother and welcomed her... as adults we need God and ignore Him. In prosperity we forget God, the Bible, the church; but when disaster comes we want them all.

As your days so shall your strength be (Deut. 33:25). He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings shall you trust (Psalms 91:4). Then why not trust God where you cannot see; the plan is His, the promise yours. "Blessed are they."

You In The Church... The Church In You

Form a combination for good. We should attend church regularly. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the CHURCH. Be faithful! Be a Churchman!

Actual Building Slated to Start On New Mansion

SANTA FE — Actual construction now is being started on the new executive mansion for New Mexico's governors. A building permit for the construction has been issued to contractor Robert E. McKee. The city building inspector said the value of the permit was $91,617.

The new mansion is to be in the New Mexico territorial architectural style similar to the group of state capitol buildings, also designed by Kruger.

The mansion is being built by the Capitol Building Improvement Commission. The site is in the hills on the north edge of town, between the Taos highway and Bishop Lodge road. Work has been in progress for some time on the road leading to the site.

Military, Atomic Energy Personnel Still Can't Vote

ALBUQUERQUE — Military and atomic energy officials say several hundred persons living on federal land at Sandia Base and Kirtland Field don't have the right to vote in spite of legislation aimed at giving them the franchise.

The officials said the new law—passed as a rider on the atomic energy bill—gives the right to vote to only those residents of the AEC housing area at Sandia Base.

Sen. Chaves (D-NM), who co-sponsored the bill with Sen. Anderson (D-NM) said the bill was designed "to cover all living areas at Sandia and Kirtland bases."

The land affected by the new legislation has been under federal jurisdiction and will be returned to the state when accepted by the state. Officials say that probably means when the area can be accepted by Gov. Edwin Mechem. Mechem said he is seeking information from the attorney general's office before accepting the land.

NuMexers Squeeze out 2-1 Victory for Series Lead

Brilliant Pitching Duel Game Feature; Clubs Idle Tonight

CARLSBAD, (AP)—Dan Howard's infield pinch-hit single in the top of the ninth inning ignited a two-run rally which gave the Artesia NuMexers a 2-1 victory over Carlsbad in the third game of the Longhorn league final playoff series here Thursday night.

Artesia now leads in the final series, two games to one. There will be no game Friday night as the two clubs take the day off in deference to a high school football game here.

Artesia's rally punctured a brilliant hurling duel waged by Carlsbad's Don Fornall and Artesia's Vic Stryka. Until the ninth inning Fornall had yielded only two hits and hadn't walked a man.

But with Carlsbad leading 1-0 in the top of the final inning, Howard pinched hit for shortstop Reuben Smartt with one away. He rapped a grounder to the left of first base, and first baseman Elias Osorio fielded it and threw to Fornall. Howard was called safe by umpire George Thomas over the protests of the Carlsbad infield, and moments later he scampered to third on Paul Dobkowski's single to left center. Dobkowski took second on a slow throw to the infield.

John Goodell then walloped a long triple to deep left center, scoring both base-runners ahead of him and putting the Artesians out in front. Next-up Floyd Economides popped to shortstop Raul Dieppa in shallow centerfield, and when Goodell made a false start toward the plate, Dieppa threw wildly past third base. Third sacker Goldie Gholson recovered in time to throw to the plate, where Goodell was tagged out on a close play.

Carlsbad got its run in the second inning by combining two singles with one of the two walks Stryka surrendered during the game. Ike Jackson led off with one bingle and moved to second when Gholson drew a walk. Pedro Osorio's sharp line single to left center brought Jackson home.

That was all the scoring until Artesia's two runs in the ninth as both Fornall and Stryka pitched magnificently. The game was played with a minimum of wasted motion and took only one hour and 23 minutes to play.

Next game in the series will be here Saturday night.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROUNDUP—Durocher Thinks Pennant Bound Dodgers 'Greatest'

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

Beaming with pride over his pennant-bound New York Giants, Leo Durocher today called his 1954 league leaders a greater club than his 1951 miracle team that came from way behind to defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers with the never-to-be-forgotten flimsy.

The voluble little manager, gushing with good will and in a blasphemous attitude, lauded his Giants as the "greatest" team that ever walked out on a field following what probably was their happiest day of the season.

Combining brilliant pitching, a tight defense and timely hitting, the Giants twice whipped the Milwaukee Braves, by 6-2 scores yesterday to sweep the three-game series and stretch their first-place lead over Brooklyn to 4½ games. A 9-3 defeat inflicted by Cincinnati upon the Dodgers helped the Giants pick up a game and a half in one afternoon.

"Did you ever see such a club as this one?" boomed Leo in a voice loud enough to drown out the clubhouse din. "This is the greatest club I ever managed. And one of the best. Certainly better than the '51 Giants. It has more pitching, a deeper bench, and an improved Willie Mays.

"Maybe my 1941 Dodgers were better. But I'm not even sure of that. Anyway, these guys of mine are great. Simply great. All of them."

Durocher had good reason to be proud of his team. Once again when the chips were down they came through like champions. The more precarious their position, the harder they have played. Four times during the last four weeks, the Giants' lead shrunk to three or fewer games and each time they have come through with resounding victories.

Houston Gets Playoff Win In 17 Frames

FORT WORTH — (AP) — Two home runs and a tremendous pitching job by rookie Karl Spooner proved only a second-best effort in the Texas league last night as Fort Worth dropped a 3-2 decision to Houston in 17 innings.

The victory gave the Buffs 2-1 edge in the best-of-7 playoff for the pennant. Spooner went 16 innings for the Cats, serving up an assortment of southpaw stuff of which Houston collected seven hits. In the 17th, however, he weakened to give up two hits and a walk, and wound up with a loss when his mates failed to score in the bottom of the inning.

Howie Phillips' double sent winning pitcher Bobby Tiefenauer home with the deciding run. Mel Waters came in then to retire the side for Fort Worth with no further damage, and when Tiefenauer blanked the side in the bottom of the inning, the 4-hour marathon was over.

Tiefenauer had taken over from Houston starter George Condrick in the 10th with the score knotted 1-1. Houston's first score had come on Willie Brown's hit in the first inning, while Fort Worth had tied it on Cal Felix's seventh-inning homer.

Each side added a run in the 11th, Houston on another hit by Brown and Fort Worth on Glenn Gorbous' homer.

Underdogs Come Up With Wins In WT-NM Series

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The underdogs had their night in the West Texas-New Mexico league Thursday night. Amarillo and Abilene, trailing 3-1 and 3-2, respectively, each came through with victories in their best-of-seven playoff series to prolong the activities at least one more night.

Abilene edged out Pampa, regular season champs that needed just one more win to wrap it up, 4-3 in 10 innings. Amarillo had an easier time of it in knocking their series 3-3 with Clovis. The Blue Sox came up with an 11-4 decision. Blue Sox outfielder Joe Ellison was the man of the hour for Abilene. After striking out three times, Ellison lined a single to center in the 10th inning to drive in the winning run and preserve Abilene's chances in the playoffs.

Ellison's blow was the clincher, but two solo home runs by Glenn Burns and a sly pitching performance by Roland Jones kept the Sox hopes up until the 10th.

At Clovis, Amarillo smashed in eight runs in the three middle innings to make it easy the rest of the way. A homer by Goose Goff was the big blow as Amarillo tied the series.

State's AA Conference Gets Started in Weekend Games

By ROBERT GREEN AP Sports Writer

New Mexico's big school conference—the AA—gets its first taste of league warfare this week-end to add flavor to the state's football stew.

Down in the A, B, and C conferences, most of the state's 67 teams swing into action, some of them for the first time, to lend body. The seasoning is added when New Mexico squads take on teams from four neighboring states—Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado and Arizona in this week-end's games.

But rising to the top of the brood are the scheduled league games in district 1AA. Highland and St. Mary's tangle in one of these, while Farmington and Santa Fe square off in the other.

Though both Highland and St. Mary's are unbeaten as they go into tonight's game, the Hornets are given a little edge in most betting. Both picked up wins, but not by they margins they would have liked against lower class teams last week. St. Mary's got Fort Sumner 12-0 and Highland stopped Alamogordo 20-7.

Farmington has lost one, 6-0, to Durango, Colo., while Santa Fe got past Los Alamos 20-13 in its opening game. They're rated pretty close in most quarters. This one is Saturday night.

Game Department Cracks Down on Colorado Party

Deviating from the current football and baseball path, a report of prosecutions for the month of August by the state game and fish department says that a party of hunters from Antonio, Colo., and one Chama man slightly overstepped the law when it came to bag limits.

Eight Coloradans and the New Mexican were charged with a succession of violations including: possession of illegally taken grouse, squirrels, and non-game animals and birds; possession of illegally taken grouse, squirrels, snowshoe rabbits and robins; possession of illegally taken grouse, and squirrels.

Aiding and abetting in a game violation; aiding and abetting in illegal killing of protected game; and aiding and abetting in taking protected game illegally.

Two of the charges were adjudged not guilty and the others resulted in fines amounting to $210. A raft of other fines this month resulted from a list of charges, some of which were: fishing without a license, 16 charges; fishing with more than one pole, five charges; exceeding daily bag limit of trout, three charges.

Illegal possession of catfish, four charges; and charges ranging from fishing for trout after legal hours to shooting fish and frogs with a shotgun and rifle in a clear drain.

Another over-zealous hunter killed three pheasants in closed season and was fined $105 for his efforts. The game department's enforcers have been busy.

FOOTBALL really gets wound up in Artesia this week with games scheduled for the Bulldogs with Alamogordo here Friday night, the Junior high Hornets with Hobbs Junior high at 2 p. m. Saturday, and the B team against the Alamo Bs Saturday night.

Both the younger Artesia football clubs have been working hard and from all appearances will be out to follow their big brothers' example and take a win in their first contests.

The Junior high aggregation especially appears loaded for beef. Coaches Bud Wilborn and Francis Roaches have already stated the Hornets are "really loaded" this year.

Morgan Is Slated For Start Berth At University

BOBBY MORGAN Bobby Morgan, 1951 graduate of Artesia high school, appears headed for one of the starting end positions on the 1954 UNM football team, according to recent releases from Albuquerque.

Morgan, playing his fourth year for the Lobos, is looking for his fourth numeral from the university. He entered as a freshman in 1951 and started on the varsity that year.

A former all-stater on the 1950 Artesia Bulldog team, Morgan married the former Alice Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Martin, in April. They are both at the University now where he will put the finishing touches to work on his degree.

An industrial arts major, Morgan has a tour of service duty slated after he is graduated.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Morgan, Albuquerque, the former Bulldog is teamed at the end spots with a Winthrop, Me., product, Ray Guertie. Both players have held down their opposite end positions for the last two years.

Going into their third year they give the Lobos a set of veteran ends to throw against Skyline conference opponents, in what is supposed to be a passing year for UNM.

Heavyweight Title Fight Scheduled Again for Tonight NEW YORK, (AP) — Yes, folks, heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano and challenger Ezzard Charles still are waiting around to fight for the title. The 15-round, twice postponed, is scheduled for Yankee stadium at 8 p. m. MST tonight.

Note, it says scheduled. Rain washed out the return bout on Wednesday and Thursday to equal the heavyweight championship postponement record set in 1948 by Joe Louis and old Jersey Joe Walcott. The game weatherman, sticking his chin out again, says it will be "mostly fair" this afternoon and tonight.

An Hour for Each Mile

WITH THE EFFORTS being continued here and over the state to halt speeding and careless driving to try and reduce the number of accidents, several suggestions are being offered.

One offered recently might help get the job done—that is bringing individual drivers down to within the speed limit. This suggestion was that the cash fines be forgotten and that the speeders be sentenced to jail to one hour for every mile he or she was exceeding the speed limit.

This, of course, probably wouldn't prove very popular and yet we are going to have to do something if we halt speeding and if we reduce the accidents that are occurring. A great many of these accidents are due to speeding.

Handing out fines of $5, $10, $25 or even $50 hasn't as yet done much to slow down the drivers. They are caught speeding and the next day they are right back doing the same thing again.

Maybe giving them some time in jail to think the matter over wouldn't help either but we are inclined to believe it would.

We have not only permitted speeders to get away with light sentences but we have been too light on the drunken driver. After all that individual who becomes intoxicated and then drives on the highways is more dangerous than the individual who goes out with a gun shooting down the road.

We would take that gun away from that individual fast but we let the individual driving that car with its weight and at high speed go right ahead and that weapon is more deadly than the gun because it is larger and it is out of control with a drunk driver operating it.

We have also become too lenient on individuals who violate other laws and because we have become soft in handing down these sentences we are having more law violators and law breakers.

We still believe we are going to have to take more drastic steps than we have taken up to now if we expect to reduce the accidents on the highway. We know that the present system of giving individuals a small fine doesn't halt them from speeding.

Maybe if we give them a sentence of one hour in jail for every mile they were exceeding the speed limit it wouldn't halt the speeding but we at least would have these speeders off the highway for that period of time they were spending in jail. Chances are they also would think twice the next time before they did any speeding.

Newspapers Delivered Home Are Mostly Thoroughly Read

By JESS TRUETT
Last of Two-Part Series on The Daily News
 Newspapers delivered to the home are the ones read thoroughly, from advertisements to comic strips. In general conversation with your neighbors you will observe his interest in news items most closely observed by him.
 The editorial pages are given careful study by civic-minded citizens due to editorials being intended to express not only the views of the paper, but the consensus of opinion of the community insofar as the editor is able to ascertain by contact through his profession.
 The editorial page, considered the backbone of the paper, is intended to be directed toward advancement in the general welfare of community, state, and nation. The good old newspaper has a rough time trying to please every reader with their being interested in different items.
 News publishers take the attitude that every item printed is of interest and value to some one or they would not take the time and space to print it. The postoffice department takes the attitude that every piece of mail deposited to their care and delivery is of importance and the sender would not take the time and trouble to mail it in the first place. We have heard the department cussed and discussed by the addressee for mail in which he is not interested being placed in his postoffice box. News publishers are cussed and discussed for printing news in which some readers are not interested while it would mean much to other readers.
 Neither the postal service or the news service is considered expensive to the patron. Both are practically a free service to the public.

BEATING OUT 26 other coeds for the National Queen title, Ginger Stein, 19-year-old daughter of a Philadelphia butcher, poses with her trophy at Ashbury Park, N. J. She is working her way through Temple university as a disc jockey and will receive $5,000 in prizes. (International)

If it physically suits your purpose, you can do anything you want with it to make it fit decoratively, he says. You can have it finished natural, bleached, pickled, stained or waxed.

When buying unpainted furniture make sure the bottoms of the drawers are secure and not too thin. Check also to see if the back of the case is screwed on well.

Before painting, says Ogrig, sand the wood as smooth as possible to avoid tell-tale grooves and holes. This saves 25 per cent of the labor in finishing the furniture.

If the furniture is made of wood with an open grain he suggests it be painted or enameled. In straight grained woods, practically anything can be done without.

After you sand the surface take white or black shellac enamel and brush it on. Then dip a rag in alcohol, wipe the surface and let it dry for two hours. Sand it lightly, dust, take fresh white shellac (one part shellac to three parts denatured alcohol) and brush freely on wood grain and let it dry for at least one hour.

Give it a second coat after you sand lightly and dust with a dry brush. Let it dry overnight. Sand and dust again. For good results use a good paste wax and buff.

Paste wax should be applied as thin as possible. Let it dry one hour before buffing.

Shellac applied this way gives a satin finish. But if you want it flat, rub the surface after the third coat with a fine pumice or rubbing oil.

CHRISTIANS ARE AMBASSADORS OF CHRIST

Scripture—Matthew 5:13-16; John 1:40-42a; Acts 4:13-20; 8:4-8, 26-40; 11 Corinthians 5:11-20; 1 Peter 3:13-16.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
SO MUCH material is assigned to this lesson, the last of this series, that we must condense it a good deal.

The first verses of the lesson, taken from Matthew, tell us of Jesus after He had delivered the Beatitudes in the Sermon on the Mount, probably in Galilee. Here He is talking to His own followers and disciples. He tells them that they are the salt of the earth, but, He says, "if the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing but to be cast out."

By its distinctive chemical nature salt not only seasons our food so that it is more palatable, but it often retards corruption in foods. He might have meant that the world is corrupt and corrupting. The work of the Christians is to exert their influence in society because their moral life is under the control of the Holy Spirit. It might also have been a reminder that if they became half-hearted in their work of redemption, it would be worthless.

Then Christ told these men, "Ye are the light of the world. A city set upon a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house."

What should the high priests do then? They counseled together, finally coming to the conclusion that as there was no gaining the fact that the miracle was performed and known to many, they should command these poor, ignorant men that they must stop preaching. To this Peter and John answered, "Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than God, judge ye. For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard."

Because of persecution of the Christians, they were forced to scatter widely. Philip, one of them, was a business man who was one of a number appointed to take care of the business matters of the early church, the distribution of funds to the poor, etc. He was not one of the apostles but with the others so selected, was filled with the Holy Ghost and was of fine character. He, with others, preached the gospel. He went to the city of Samaria to teach there. "And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles he did."

"For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them; and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed. And there was great joy in that city."

It seems a little strange that

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven."—Matthew 5:16.

MEMORY VERSE

men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

This does not mean that we should always be talking about the good we have done or are about to do, but that we should always be ready to do good and help others wherever there is need, and by our words and works show all those we meet what the life of a real Christian can be, so that they may glorify God.

Very briefly we might mention John the Baptist's teaching of the baptism of Jesus and what happened. One who heard John speak was Andrew. He went to find his brother, Simon Peter, and brought him to Jesus—Peter, who afterwards became the head of the church in Jerusalem!

You will remember the story of Peter and John, that after they had received the Holy Ghost, they healed a man who had been lame since birth. After that they were thrown into prison for a night, but released because the fact of the miracle was a fact, and the temple authorities could not deny it. Next morning the two apostles were brought before the high priest and others, and asked by what power or in whose name they healed the man. Peter told them at once that it was Jesus of Nazareth, whom they had crucified.

Alamogordo Thirsting For Victory

Alamogordo's Tigers, under the direction of coaches Fred Sell and Tom Hickson, come into town tonight boasting a two-pronged attack based on a combination of single-wing and T formations.

With a backfield that averages 133 pounds and a line that hits the 160-pound mark, the Tigers are set to match a light, but fast, charging eleven against the 1954 Bulldogs.

The western team lost its first game to a highly touted Highlands high school team from Albuquerque 20-0 and indications from Otero county are that the Tigers are on the prowl for their first win.

Ready to start for Alamogordo are: D. Caton, E. Cofield, J. Gil and J. Ortega, in the backfield and J. Garcia, T. Owens, J. Worley, J. Ramirez, A. Garcia, B. Savage and R. Black in the forward wall.

Co-captains for the night will be Savage and Kenneth Vawter, defensive right end. The only other changes in the lineup on defense will be Norvester Blake at offensive halfback and Gene Chenez at defensive tackle.

After Artesia, opponents on the Tiger schedule include Deming, Anthony, Silver City, Hurley, Valje High of Albuquerque and NMML.

BIRD LOVER
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—Rush hour traffic was tied up for several blocks because a baby blue jay was fluttering helplessly in the center of the street, two adult blue jays noisily hovering over it. Finally the driver of the big truck which had stopped in front of the jays got out and carried the young bird safely off the street. Then the long lines of cars began to move again.

RED GRADUATIONS
TOKYO—Diploma time has arrived in Communist China and Peiping radio says a "record number" of 40,300 students have been graduated from institutions of higher learning. Included are 15,000 engineers.

SWEET PORT
RICHMOND, Va.—This city is classed by the U.S. Custom Office as a "sweet port."

SSugar, which is widely used by the big tobacco industry here, was imported to the tune of $4,224,693 pounds in the past six months. What makes it sweet to the customs office is the import duty of close to a million dollars.

HEAVY SAVING
DES MOINES—When Mrs. Betty Keasling of Fremont, Iowa, bought a sewing machine here, she paid for it 72 Liberty Bell half dollars, 700 Roosevelt dimes and 2,558 pennies. She said she had been saving for the machine for three years.

MAROONED CAT
PERU, Ill.—Wandering Ratzy, a pure white cat owned by Mrs. William Janz, is back home after five nights out with a reasonable reason.

Ratzy was let out on a hot night and failed to wake up the family with its usual meows the following morning. A town-wide search failed to locate the cat. A passerby noticed a white cat on a roof a block away from Ratzy's home. It was aRatzy. The cat had climbed a pole about who feet from a building, jumped onto the roof but had been unable to make it back the same way.

dip alongside the corn chips, and let people help themselves by scooping up the avocado with the chips.

Rice is a "must" with chili con carne. Crusty French bread is a good go-along, too; as is a tossed green salad. For dessert fruit is best.

CHILI CON CARNE
Ingredients: 1 pound boneless lean beef stew meat, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 2/3 cup chopped onion, 1/4 cup chopped green pepper, 3 teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder, 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper, one 16- or 17-ounce can (2 cups) tomatoes (undrained), chili powder, one 1-pound can red kidney beans, 4 cups cooked rice.

Method: Cut meat into 1/2-inch cubes; place in saucepan or large skillet with butter, onion, and green pepper. Cook over moderately low heat, stirring often, until lightly browned—about 10 minutes. Add salt, sugar, garlic powder, pepper and tomatoes. Mix well. Stir in chili powder, 1 teaspoon at a time; taste after each addition so as to get desired seasoning. Cover, simmer until meat is tender—1 to 1 1/2 hours. Add kidney beans and heat. Serve over rice. Makes 6 servings.

Note: 1/4 to 1/3 cup of raw rice will yield 1 cup of steamed rice.

COOKING'S FUN— Economical Cuts of Meat Good Eating

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Food Editor

Economical cuts of meat, like beef for stewing, make wonderful eating if you know what to do with them.

Ever use small cubes of beef, stew meat, instead of hamburger, in chili con carne? Seasoned with chili powder, the meat takes on a zesty flavor. Once you become a chili addict, you will probably serve it often.

Stirl powder is a combination of a fruit (chili pepper), a seed (cummin), a leaf (oregano), a bulb (garlic) and a mineral (salt). Packaged, it is pretty well standardized as to strength; but if you buy it "loose," add it by teaspoonfuls because it may be "hotter" than you counted on.

We like to start a chili con carne supper with an appetizer of avocado and corn chips. Make sure the avocado is ripe and mash it fine with a fork; add finely diced onion, lime juice, salt and pepper to taste. Put a bowl of the avocado chili con carne? Seasoned with chili powder, the meat takes on a zesty flavor. Once you become a chili addict, you will probably serve it often.

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—Matthew 5:13-16; John 1:40-42a; Acts 4:13-20; 8:4-8, 26-40; II Corinthians 5:11-20; I Peter 3:13-16.

By Alfred J. Buescher

John the Baptist preached that Jesus was indeed the Son of God. One who heard him was Andrew, and he sought his brother, Simon Peter, saying to him that, "We have found the Messiah," and he took him to Jesus.

Peter and John were brought before the high priests who asked them in whose name they healed the man lame since birth. "Jesus of Nazareth," they said. Commanded to preach no more, they said, "We must obey God rather than men."

Because the Christians were persecuted, they were scattered. Philip went to Samaria and preached there. The people heard him gladly, and he performed many miracles of healing.

Bulldogs Strong as They Face Invasion By Tigers

Coming out of their first contest as winners minus injuries, the Artesia Bulldogs go after their second win in as many starts tonight as they tangle with a dangerous Alamogordo Tiger 11 at Morris Field, at 7:30.

Following concentrated work on weak points that showed up in their first game, Coach Reese Smith's charges pit their split-T of undetermined power against the Tigers' combination of single wing and straight T.

Smith has indicated that according to scouting reports, the Tigers gave a strong Highlands of Albuquerque team a strong fight before losing 20-0 and he declared the Bulldogs will have their "hands full" of Cat tonight.

With the main emphasis on strengthening pass defense and offense and down-field blocking throughout the past week, the Bulldogs contest tonight will give a statewide look at team strengths.

Scheduled to start in the grid battle tonight is the same team, which turned in only a little over one quarter of play last week.

The forward wall to be composed of Ends Ronnie Price and Clyde Bratcher; Tackles Wayne Westerman and Jay Mitchell; Guards Travis Scott and Donnie Price and Center Raymond Gressett.

SNAKE UPSETS TRIP
CLIFTON FORGE, Va.—Mr. and Mrs. Roy K. Dotson were en route by auto to some grocery shopping when Mrs. Dotson noted a four-foot snake under her feet.

While Dotson tried to swing off the highway to park Mrs. Dotson hurriedly transferred to the rear seat only to find the snake had beat a retreat underneath the front seat while she went over it.

Dotson cut his hand trying to kill the snake, which finally took refuge under the back seat. A reluctant Mrs. Dotson entered the car and kept a keen eye on the back while Dotson drove into town. He got medical treatment for the cut hand and help in dislodging the reptile.

It was identified as a harmless variety.
