Supreme Court to Hear Eyring Case

SANTA FE, (AP) — The $60,000 suit brought by Dr. Ed Eyring, former president of Utah State University, against the board of regents will be heard before the state Supreme court until Jan. 22, 1952 when the high court has set oral arguments for Sept. 29.

The board of regents appealed from Dist. Judge Walden H. Rogers' dismissal of the suit in San Miguel county. The court granted a defense motion for dismissal for failure to state a claim on which relief can be granted.

Eyring was president of High School from 1939 until he was fired in 1951. He refused to accept the dismissal and continued to work in his office at the university until Jan. 22, 1952 when he was forcibly ejected from the building.

Batchelor Is Slated to Get Decision Today

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP)—The defense believes the general court-martial of Cpl. Claude Batchelor may reach the decision stage Saturday.

The court-martial participants were idle today after hearing testimony from Frank "Pappy" Noel, Associated Press photographer who was long a prisoner of the Chinese communists.

Noel, called yesterday by the defense in Batchelor's general court-martial, testified that he and Batchelor were in the same prison camp and made plans together to escape.

Batchelor is being tried on charges of collaborating with the enemy and informing on fellow POWs. Back on the stand after Noel's testimony, Batchelor testified he recalled that the date for the escape attempt was set for May, 1953. He said it was after the attempt was called off that he decided to stay with the Communists.

Federal Power Commission Sets Hearing on Rates

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The federal power commission hears arguments today from independent natural gas producers protesting an order freezing their rates.

The FPC order resulted from a Supreme Court decision that independent gas producers selling to interstate pipeline companies are subject to the commission's control.

More than 100 independent producers have protested the FPC order which froze as of June 7 the prices they may charge for gas sold across state lines.

Many of the producers, in brief filed in advance of today's arguments, contended the commission's order was unlawful because it was issued without prior notice and hearing.

Hub Clothiers Prepare for Grand Opening This Week in New Store Location on Main

Now completely remodeled, the former Brainard-Corbin store at 327 W. Main is the new home of The Hub Clothiers. Featuring nationally-known merchandise, the firm is better able to serve customers in Artesia and from the vicinity.

The new store is 25 by 140 feet. The balcony and a 20 by 25 foot receiving room allow ample space for storage and leave over 2,750 square feet of selling space, more than triple that contained in the old store.

New display tables and shelves are arranged so that all merchandise is visible and easily available. The entire remodeling program was carried out with an eye to brightness and the shoppers' perspective. Convenience, light floor covering, light colored tables and shelving have contributed to the overall motif.

The store front has been replaced with new windows, raised for eye-level viewing, light colored tiling for the exterior and light background, as well as carpeting and new lighting and signs in keeping with the new bright look of modern stores.

LONG KNOWN for its complete stock, The Hub has now added Manhattan shirts, pajamas, neckties, and accessories and will be able to fit a man needing a shirt as large as 18 1/2.

The shoe department has been given enough space to ensure shopping in comfort and has been stocked with all styles of dress and work shoes, and with dressers and hunters boots.

Declarer Mrs. Dee Dee Wallace, who has been with The Hub clothiers for about five years, "For many years we have built a reputation for Western wear, and now we will have an even larger selection of Western apparel, riders, shirts and boots for all, and stockmen's suits too."

His Nibs, B.V.D. shirts, Lees in regular and slims, Levi, Carhart, as well as Springfoot boys sox are a few of the well-known brands comprising the boys' department.

HARRY MOGILL opened The Hub clothiers in the fall of 1941, moving here from Eunice, N. M. He stayed in the original location 13 years.

"Artesia looked good to me then and looks even better now," he says. "We have faith in Artesia's future and shall continue to grow with it," declares Bob Siegel, manager, who came here in March of 1947. He arrived here shortly after leaving the armed forces. Mrs. Siegel is the former Clarice McGill. They have one son, Joe Gilbert, a first grader at Central school.

REPS. WIN TRY FOR SENATOR

Two representatives in Congress whose names will be on ballots for U. S. senator as result of primaries. John A. Carroll, his wife (left) and daughter with him, receives a ballot (hand from right) at voting booth in Denver, Colo. A Democrat, Carroll's nomination in a bitter battle against the Mayor Quigg Newton. Mrs. Norris Cotton, New Hampshire Republican, who defeated Senator Robert Taft, the man appointed to fill term of the late Senator Charles McNary.

Veto on Senate Also Exercised By Womenfolk

By JANE EADS
WASHINGTON — The President isn't the only one exercising veto power over the Senate. Often it's the little woman who makes the big decision. Take Mrs. George, wife of the Democratic senator from Georgia, for instance.

It's well known that the Democrats—and all of the Senate for that matter—wanted George, one of its most astute and revered members, to be on the committee investigating charges against Sen. Joe McCarthy (R-Wis.). George made a decisive speech on the floor of the Senate during a precedent-setting debate to censure a member, Sen. Bingham, some 25 years ago. His friends thought he would have some influence in the current issue. Miss Lucy, as the Senator's wife is known down Georgia way, is said to have voted definitely against it. Miss Lucy, it seems, wanted to go home and get her husband some rest.

It's a matter of public record that Mrs. Johnson, wife of Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), who is serving on the committee, vetoed flatly and finally her husband's return to Congress, in which he has served for 18 years. The rumors and counter-rumors over whether the rough and tumble Coloradan would run for re-election this fall were bluntly laid to rest when the senator finally blew his top and announced his wife just wouldn't stay here any longer.

The Johnsons, who occupied a small suite in a small hotel on Capitol Hill, never moved on the local social circuit.

People are saying that the fact Mrs. Johnson is letting her husband run for the governor of Colorado, which post he occupied before coming to Congress, is a concession for getting him to go back home. Also, knowing they were going to leave, Mrs. Johnson decided to let her husband have one final fling by serving on the special committee in the McCarthy ruckus—or so rumor has it.

On the other side of the fence, the person wielding the most influence in the life of the controversial senator from Wisconsin is his young, good-looking, keen-minded wife, Jean. She's been sitting attentively in her plunging neckline dresses in the gallery, intermittently exchanging notes written on fancy blue stationery with her spouse whenever crucial developments arise. McCarthy's friends were glad when he married his secretary, Jeanie's the only one who can control the senator, they say.

RECOMMENDS MORE 'DROUGHT DISASTER' STATES

AGRICULTURE SECRETARY Ezra Taft Benson points to drought disaster areas (shaded) on map in Washington and announces recommendation that five more states (checked), Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee, also be declared drought disaster areas. Marathon Phone Hearings Slated To End Today

SANTA FE, (AP)—The marathon Mountain States Telephone Co. hearings may close down today after the wage increase question has been battled back and forth since Aug. 9.

In yesterday's meeting, a company official outlined what factors he felt would keep rates from continuing upward. P. E. Remington, MST&T vice president, said if the company could keep its present business, avoid wage increases and cease expansion, rate rises would stop.

"And it might bring about some progress in the other direction," he said.

He also said the company's board of directors would welcome New Mexico representation.

The hearings actually concern two increase requests. The company wants an interim increase. Then it wants an open-end agreement under which rates would be determined by a survey of running needs.

Company officials had earlier described "a fair zone of reason-

Rash of Injuries Rises To Plague Grid Players

A rash of injuries have hit the Artesia Bulldogs and the club will face its toughest sledding so far. Coach Reese Smith told the Quarterback club last night.

He said, Ray Gressett, injured in last week's game, would probably see "a little action" this week, but that Donnie Price received some pulled ligaments in his knee during practice yesterday. Continuing, Smith said Freddy Sanders has a painful split lip and Clyde Bratcher pulled a leg muscle, recurrence of an old injury.

Smith said coaches were pleased with the performance of the team against Alamogordo, but that Portales is, from all scouting reports, "really pointing for us." Smith said Portales promises to be a good deal bigger handful than either of the first two teams the Bulldogs have played.

Coaches Verlon Davis said the coaches were pleased with the B team's appearance last Saturday and said the team is improving in its hustle. He said only Joe Ornelas was hurt and will miss some games.

Walt Bynum said the A team is showing improvement in "every department" and should be ready for the "big ones" when they roll around.

Bynum said the B team's Billy Jones looked good enough in last week's encounter to get the call up to the A team. "That's the object of our work," he declared.

Bud Wilborn reported on the Junior high squad and said the team is rapidly developing "some good high school material." He said the team had no injuries and both the backfield and line are showing "good prospects."

Coach Francis Robinson, who scouted Carlsbad last week, said the Carlsbad team looks like a college outfit because of its size and reported the Boyer-coached eleven has a line average of 190 and a backfield that averages 170. He said Carlsbad is "really loaded."

The meeting ended with showing of the Lovington and Alamogordo games films, described by coach Jack Barron.

Bulldogs Amass 800 Yards In Offense in Two Games

Although the opposition hasn't been class AA caliber, the Artesia Bulldogs in two games have piled up an amazing 800 yards total offense.

The Bulldogs have amassed 27 first downs to 16 for the opposition from the class A conference, and netted 187 yards passing.

Johnny Riddle, deceptive, capable Bulldog quarterback, has accumulated 149 yards rushing in the two games to lead that department and completed four passes for 144 yards, a total offensive performance of 293 yards in the two games.

Leo Barker has gained 103 yards in two games, Ronald Price 30, Don Lewis 75, Freddie Sanders 100 even, Clyde Bratcher 66, Jim Blevin 25, and Max Ratliff 8.

In the two games the Bulldogs have netted 22 first downs on rushing, one on penalties, and four on passing.

They have netted 646 yards rushing and 199 passing. Of 29 passes attempted the Bulldogs have completed six.

In the two contests Artesia has been assessed 110 yards in penalties, against 60 called on the opposition.

Artesia has punted four times for 147 yards, kicked off 13 times for 459 yards.

NMMI Football Plans Unveiled By Godfrey

Special guests at the regular meeting of the Artesia Quarterback club last night were NMMI athletic director Lt. Col. L. T. "Babe" Godfrey, and coaches, Capt. Monroe Harnelson, and Capt. George Ivis.

Godfrey, who brought along Artesians now playing on the Institute football team—Roy Johnson, James Baker, and Barry Hager—was introduced for a short talk on the NMMI football and athletic program.

In connection with the current method of colleges of going out and getting their football players, Godfrey said the institute has gone through three definite periods. The first, he said, lasted from the start of school up to the time of the second World War.

During that period, says Godfrey, the school didn't have to chase its prospective players. They came without drafting and made up teams that played Texas Western, New Mexico A&M, New Mexico University, and West Texas State, and ended such contests with at least an even count.

The second period of the Institute's program was extended from World War II through the 1950s, said the athletic director. At that time, he declared, the school was "Simon pure" in that it didn't give any special help to athletes or try to interest them more than the ordinary to go to that school.

The third period has been since 1950, Godfrey declared, and has been an interval when the school has started giving scholarships of a sort and has entered the edges of semi-pro athletics. This was a necessity, Godfrey said, if the Institute was to go on with its many sports programs.

Of the team this year, Godfrey said, the line and the backfield are both "kind of shy" but the coaches are looking forward to both units coming through.

Meetings to Make Up Minds on A's Called By Owners

PHILADELPHIA — The current owners of the Philadelphia Athletics called a series of closed door "let's make up our minds" meetings today amid reports the club will be sold within a matter of hours.

Almost everyone but the principals involved seemed ready to concede the A's would be sold to Arnold Johnson of Chicago and the franchise moved to Kansas City, now an American Assn. city. The big question appeared to be "when?"

The Chicago Tribune reported last night it had learned from high authority the A's would be sold to Johnson within 24 hours. Johnson declined to comment on that time element but said his previous offer to buy the ball club still stood.

Roy and Earle Mack, who own the controlling stock interest in the A's along with their father, Connie Mack, Sr., gave indirect credence to the general belief something was afoot by scheduling a series of meetings today.

The whole deal showed every sign of still being in the talking stage but reaching the limit of that phase. A major league rule forbids the transfer of a franchise except between Oct. 1 and Dec. 1. That gives any interested parties slightly over two months to wind things up.

The Associated Press was told authoritatively last night that sale of the Athletics couldn't possibly be completed in a matter of hours.

Brown told Mining City police someone took 11 $100 bills from his wallet.

He said they were of the king-size variety, discontinued back in 1928.

Coach Ed Price lost only four starters from his Southwest conference co-champions of 1953 and has excellent replacements for them.

He will start four seniors, six juniors and one sophomore and his unit already has made an impressive debut with a 20-6 triumph over capable LSU.

One weakness may be pass defense and Notre Dame undoubtedly is primed for a passing attack behind Ralph Gugliemi.

Fullback and right half, the latter manned by a sophomore, are highly questionable spots in the Irish backfield, and down the middle may be vulnerable.

The Old Irish try certainly will be there to make 26-year-old Terry Brennan's coaching start a success.

Carter to Meet Herman Tonight In Warm-Up Fight

SAN FRANCISCO — Ex-lightweight Jimmy Carter meets Freddie "Babe" Herman here tonight in a 10-round warmup for his twice delayed title fight.

This fight replaces the championship battle in which Carter was to have met Paddy DeMarco, who came up with a sore elbow. Their title battle was rescheduled for Nov. 17.

Carter is favored, but it's difficult to pin down odds.

Two years ago Herman, from Los Angeles, fought a 10-round non-title draw with Carter when he was lightweight champ.

Lobos Get Strict Orders To Pass Against San Diego

ALBUQUERQUE — Postmaster Hugh Cooper wrote the headquarters of the anti-visitation organization that they had better tell whoever it is here who is putting their posters on the postoffice wall to stop.

Cooper said it's illegal.

The organization wrote back that they were sorry, they don't have any representatives here. They enclosed more posters.

The Lobos won the conference match 21-12, breaking the opening game jinx started several years ago by BYU.

This is the first time in more than a decade the Lobos have had any semblance of a passing attack. Much of this week is being spent in drills on passing and sharpening a defense which showed poorly on the BYU field. As one Lobo spokesman put it:

"It looked as if the boys thought BYU would be afraid of our 'Steel Wall' title and the Cougars were having none of that."

Titchenal also was disappointed at the meager five passes thrown by Lobo Sophomore Porky Leyva of Carlsbad at BYU—despite the fine payoff.

"There ought to be at least 15 passes every game," Titchenal said. "It will come with time. We've got the passers and the receivers. San Diego better look out for our passes."

Schmidt Is Picked As Buff Starter For Dixie Series

18-game winner Willard Schmidt to the mound tonight in quest of his second straight victory over Atlanta in the Dixie series.

The Texas league champions opened the best of seven set with a 10-4 victory over the Southern Assn. titlists last night.

Cracker starter tonight will be Leo Cristante, whose 24-7 record was the best of the season in the Southern. Schmidt's 18-5 mark was the winningest in the Texas league, but was the best percentage-wise among the league's regulars.

Cristante was one of three Atlanta pitchers who didn't see action last night in trying to stem the Houston attack which netted 10 runs on nine hits and 11 walks.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROUNDUP—

Joe Nuxhall Comes Up Hard Way to Make Big League Grade, Pitches Twelfth Victory

By BEN PHILEGAR AP Sports Writer

Roosevelt was president and Leo Durocher was managing Brooklyn when a 15-year-old high school boy from Hamilton, Ohio, took the mound for the Cincinnati Reds one gray afternoon in June, 1944.

The youngster, missed the catcher completely with eight of his first nine pitches and finally staggered through one inning with five runs scored against him on five walks and two hits.

Ten years later Joe Nuxhall has made the grade in the big time.

The lefthander, who was the youngest player ever to wear a major league uniform and probably the wildest, has conquered his control problems and has a tidy 12-4 won-lost record for the fourth place Redlegs.

His 12th victory came yesterday and was the best of the dozen. He gave the Milwaukee Braves only six hits, struck out six and walked but two in winning his third straight complete game and his first shutout, 5-0.

Nuxhall pitched only one other inning in 1944. It was for Birmingham in the Southern Assn. and it was even worse, five walks and six runs. The youngster dropped to class D in 1945 then quit for a year and went back to high school.

The road back has been a long one—Muncie, Tulsa, Columbia, S. C., Charleston, W. Va., Tulsa again and finally Cincinnati in 1952. In the past two seasons with the Reds he won 10 and lost 15.

In the American league yesterday the New York Yankees set a record and the pennant-winning Cleveland Indians didn't. The Yanks beat Washington 3-1 for their 101st win—the most games ever won by a runner-up in the junior circuit. The Indians, needing only one game to tie the all-time mark of 110 victories in the league, lost to Chicago 9-7.

Bob Grim, a 24-year-old bartender from Brooklyn, became the first Yankee rookie in 34 seasons to win 20 games. He gave up only four hits, all singles, in running his record to 20-6.

In other action yesterday the New York Giants continued their winning ways with a 5-2 triumph at Brooklyn. Chicago took a doubleheader from the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3 in 10 innings and 3-2 in 6½. The Boston Red Sox beat the Philadelphia Athletics twice by 4-3 scores. The first game ran 10 innings.

The double loss and a 4-3 Baltimore victory over Detroit consigned the Athletics to the American league cellar.

The Philadelphia Phillies and the Pittsburgh Pirates were rained out.

Giants Infield Healthier Than Indians for World Series

Editor's Note:—This is the first of three articles comparing New York and Cleveland as the World Series draw near.

INFELDERS By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK — The New York Giants, with a solid defensive performer at each position, will take a smoother-working and healthier infield than Cleveland into the 51st World Series next week.

With Whitey Lockman, Davey Williams, Alvin Dark and Hank Thompson, the newly-crowned National league champions rate the edge over the Indians' quartet of Vic Wertz, Bobby Avila, George Strickland and Al Rosen. Only at shortstop where Strickland is considered a shade the better fielder than Dark does Cleveland shine.

That's defensively. At the bat, the Giants' infielders cannot match the power of Wertz and Rosen or the consistency of Avila, the American league's leading batter.

Whether Rosen physically will be at his peak is questionable. The latest report has Al's fractured finger of mid-June thoroughly healed. But he's now suffering from multiple ills—a charley horse in his right thigh, calcium deposits in his left foot and muscle spasms in his back. He'll be ready for the opener in the Polo Grounds next Wednesday. But how ready?

Strickland, too, may pose a problem for Mr. Al Lopez. Only two weeks recovered from a broken jaw, George has batted .095 since his return to the lineup with only 4 hits in 42 at bats.

At first base, there's little to choose between Lockman and Wertz. Both are converted outfielders, but Whitey made the switch in 1951, the Giants' last pennant-winning campaign and Vic shifted in June of this year, shortly after his acquisition from Baltimore. Wertz is more of a home-run threat. Lockman, New York's leadoff hitter, is more consistent.

Avila, with a .336 batting mark to Williams' .225, is the better hitter by far. Davey's strength lies in his ground-covering and pivot-making abilities, no small factor in the Giants' pennant drive. Avila, too, has improved considerably in the field this season.

Dark, with 186 hits and a .295 batting average, presents a hit-and-run threat in the No. 2 spot in New York's hitting order. Strickland is hitting .215 for the year.

Off his Most Valuable Player performance of 1953, Rosen has had a disappointing season. His 300 average sprinkled with 24 home runs and 101 runs batted in is nothing to sneeze at. But last year he hit .336 with 43 circuit blows and 145 RBIs.

Thompson, the Giants' third base man, is a first-rate glove man. He's come on strong the last month and currently shows 26 homers and 86 runs batted in.

Both clubs have versatile infield reserves.

Cops Speedily Answer Alarm Demonstration

PHILADELPHIA — Manager Ralph Matter of a mid-city savings and loan company eased up to teller Hedy Sarcevic yesterday and asked her: "What would you do in event of a holdup?"

"I'd reach down here and yank this alarm," she replied, pulling a lever that set off an elaborate system of bells and sirens.

Four police cars, with sirens open, sped to the scene.

Mythical All-Star Team Chosen By Two Managers

By ED BOYKIN An all-star team picked by managers of the two finalist Longhorn ball clubs has been put together on special request of the Advocate.

Attendance of well over a million at home games did the trick. The Tigers managed to break even in 1953, but that was due to $175,000 in rental of Briggs Stadium to the Detroit Lions of the National Football League.

A NOTE ON GOLF: Joe Estrada, pro at the Artesia Country club, journeyed over to Hereford, Tex., Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week to take part in a pro-am contest and a professional go-round all at the same time.

Joe came off with second place in the pro-am event and finished fifth in the professional division.

The big guy is still adding to his store of trophies and honors and is an asset to the Country club here.

At the moment he's all tied up with the running of the Artesia city golf tournament and declares the golf balls are really getting some good licks as the playing starts to narrow down the field of contestants.

Dial Hurls Clovis To 8-0 Victory, Tie in Playoffs

CLOVIS — Clovis Pioneer Red Dial stubbed the toes of the Pampa Oilers last night as he pitched a four-hitter to lead Clovis to an 8-0 victory and tie the West Texas-New Mexico league best of seven final series at 2-2.

Clovis scored all its runs in the fourth inning—which saw five Pioneers cross the plate—began when center fielder, Pete Trabuco hit a three-run homer. The Pioneers added two triples and a double off loser Jim Lemons before the inning was finished.

Lemons was relieved by rookie John Coddington, who finished the game.

Dial, pitching the cool ball which has earned him the reputation of one of the aces of the class C league, spread four harmless singles through the game for Pampa. Displaying perfect control, he struck out seven batters and walked none.

Both teams again play here today for the fifth game in the series to decide the king of the league.

Mrs. Ralph Hill returned home Sunday from El Paso, where she has been in Providence hospital for two weeks.

Fisher doesn't know how the hat got into the costume department of the John B. Rogers Co. that is staging the pageant, but he is sure it is his old hat.

New Types of Insulin Aid Diabetic Patient

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D. THERE are now several different types of insulin, each with special advantages for different patients.

Until insulin was discovered, anyone suffering from diabetes was doomed to a short and sickly lingering period. In this disease, certain glands in the pancreas fail to pour out the right amount of insulin, one of the body hormones. This shortage leads to excess sugar in the blood stream. Insulin injections supply the missing hormone, and with it a new hope for the diabetic person.

Limited Action Normal, or regular, insulin was used for a number of years, but it had certain disadvantages. Its action is usually good for only six to eight hours. This means that the patient has to take frequent injections to keep his blood sugar at the normal level.

Later came the discovery of protamine zinc insulin which has a more prolonged action. It proved very effective in controlling certain types of diabetes, but had its falling in many others.

Other Advances Globin insulin was still another important advance. This type has definite advantages for many diabetics who need insulin with both quick and prolonged action.

QUESTION AND ANSWER J. L.: What foods should one with hardening of the arteries avoid? Answer: There is no one definite food which should be avoided. However, it is believed by some authorities that the restriction of certain foods high in cholesterol or fat is of aid in preventing the progress of hardening of the arteries.

FRUITA, Colo. — Ben Blumberg, 57, of Delta, Colo., was fatally injured yesterday when the wooden bar of a hay derrick snapped and hit him on the O. D. Gordon farm near Loma, Colo. He died about two hours later at a hospital.

PIONEER DIES ALBUQUERQUE — Joseph Barnett, 88, pioneer Albuquerque financier, died yesterday at an Albuquerque hospital. Barnett, owner of extensive downtown business properties, came to Albuquerque in 1889. Death followed a long illness.

Stress Their Rights, Too

ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS, newspapers, commentators, and others are constantly stressing the laws, sounding pleas to observe the laws and reminding citizens what they can't do.

Plea after plea is sounded regarding speeding, ignoring traffic lights, forgotten safety on the highways, and disregarding the rights of others.

Time after time warnings are issued concerning the violation of other laws. Without a doubt this should be done. But since it is just as much the duty of the law enforcement officer whether he is a city policeman, a deputy in the sheriff's office, a highway patrolman, an FBI agent, game warden or some other peace officer to see that citizens enjoy their right as it is their job to see they enforce the laws, may be the rights of citizens should be stressed a little more.

There was recently an outstanding example in this state where the civil rights of a citizen were ignored by a public official. That happens often.

We recall an instance where a public official was guilty of a little intimidation—threats that could only be interpreted as intimidation.

Often times the gun and badge inspire some individual to forget the rights of the citizen.

We expect there will be some cases where automobiles are searched without search warrants during the hunting season. If it is done without permission of the car owner then his civil rights have been ignored. The United States Supreme Court has ruled that a car is just as much the castle of an individual as his home is.

In far too many instances the rights of individuals are not explained to them when they are arrested or when they are cited into court. This should be done regardless of the crime or the charge or the offense.

It is time we hold a little schooling for some of our peace officers as well as some public officials. It is fine to stress what the citizens can't do without violating the law but it is also time they be advised of their rights and privileges so they are not denied them or so the citizen is not taken advantage of merely because someone is in a position to do so.

Under this program, the Indian bureau contracts with school districts in towns near the reservation to accept a certain number of Navajo children in their classrooms. The Indian bureau pays the school costs for their education, and also operates dormitories and cares for the children in the towns.

Mrs. Thompson said school contracts have been entered into with districts in the cities of Gallup and Artee, N. M.; Winslow, Holbrook, Soap Lake and Taylor, Ariz.; and Richfield, Utah.

The Winslow school, at last reported, had not opened, but when

There are already a record number of entries in the county booth division—21 for this year.

New construction, in keeping with the fair's year-by-year expansion, is ready for opening of the gates Saturday, with the new structures headed by a needed new dairy building and other edifices.

The fair runs from Saturday through nine days winding up Oct. 3.

ON THE HEELS of the critical drought eased only a little by the late August and early September showers, it's hard to tell at this stage how the crowds will be. Crowds make or break an exposition, regardless of the excellence of the exhibits or the tastiness of the midway cotton candy and hot dogs.

Case for encouragement is the popularity boom in New Mexico of watching the horses run. New records were set during the season at both La Mesa Park in Raton and Ruidoso Downs at Ruidoso. State Fair officials are hopeful that the nine-day program on the track here will pull a good portion of the crowd needed to make the fair a success.

Better than 500 horses have been at the track for several weeks training for the races.

Tentatively, the weather outlook for the exposition is good. The Weather Bureau sees nothing in sight to mar opening day nor probably for several days thereafter.

prices and the incentive level on which is limited to a maximum 110 per cent of parity.

Parity is a formula used to assure growers a fair return in relation to their costs.

Such information as the cost of labor and materials required in maintaining flocks for wool production, and the prices which farm wools bring laid down at mills in this country, is expected to be reviewed in detail.

Congress is authorizing the new program, which takes the place of the price support loans now in effect, declared wool is a strategic material vital to the national defense and that the domestic industry should be maintained as an insurance against times of war.

PARLIAMENT EXPLOSION
LONDON—A small explosion occurred today in the basement of the House of Commons. The blast, presumably caused by escaping gas, slightly injured two men and two women building employees. No damage was done. Parliament now is in recess.

Charges Expected Following Road Force-Off Try

M. L. Payne, Albuquerque, registered a complaint with local police last night after being on the receiving end of an attempted force-off by two cars 15 miles south of Roswell.

Payne, who said he would sign a complaint against both of the drivers, was on his way to Carlsbad when the action occurred.

He told police here one of the cars was a 1950 Mercury with dark skirts and an out-of-state license, the other a 1952 or 54 Ford convertible, two-tone. He gave no other description of the second car.

The incident was reported by Payne last night at 1:45. Police received a report from Roswell this morning that Air Police had picked up the subjects and Payne is expected to file his complaint from Albuquerque.

Whopping Bid of $101,500 Is Made In Lease Sale

SANTA FE — A whopping bid of $101,500 for 560 acres took the limelight in the state land office's monthly sale of oil and gas leases.

The bid, which figured out to $181.25 an acre, was offered by Joe G. Sauer of Midland. The choice acreage is in T15S-R35E, which is northeast of Lovington.

In all the sale grossed $552,365. The second best per acre bid was Gulf Oil Corp's $152.51 or $18,301 for 120 acres in T18S-R37 3/8, northeast of Hobbs.

In oral bidding on nine tracts the best price was $86.25 an acre or $6,900 for 80 acres in T15S-R31E near Maljamar. That bid was offered by Howard W. Jennings of Roswell.

Honeymooners Get Out of Jail 24 Days After Rite

PORTALES - Estelle Marie and Harry Newton Allsbury are looking forward to the 25th day of their honeymoon. That's when they will get out of jail.

Their wedding trip was interrupted three hours after the nuptial knot was tied in Roswell when a state patrolman stopped the car in which they were hitching a ride, because it was traveling 85 miles an hour. The driver was charged with driving while intoxicated, and the bride and bridegroom were charged with drunkenness.

They didn't have the money to pay their fines of $25 each. The unhappy bridegroom spent his last $22 making long distance telephone calls, in vain. Now they are writing letters to relatives.

In separate cells, in different parts of the jail, they are able to communicate by shouts through the windows.

So far they have earned $7 each toward their fines by staying in the lockup. They have just 18 more days to go.
