New Agency Is Made to Fight FHA Scandals

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell today created a new unit in the justice department's criminal division to handle a mounting number of cases arising from scandals in the federal housing administration.

At the same time, the attorney general said he is assigning Max E. Goldschein, a top criminal prosecutor in the department, to assist U. S. Atty. Leo A. Rover in presenting housing matters before a special grand jury opening here today.

The department said the special grand jury will "inquire into bribery and other criminal conduct in the federal housing program, and specifically into the conduct of Clyde L. Powell, ousted assistant FHA commissioner.

Meanwhile, Powell sought a court order to block the grand jury investigation. Through his attorney, Daniel B. Maher, Powell filed papers challenging the validity of the grand jury. He had been scheduled to appear before it this morning.

Maher's petition asked the U. S. district court to "take judicial notice of countless, predictions in newspapers and political forecasts that there would be political indictments returned against members of the former administration prior to the November election."

Today's developments came in Senate banking committee yesterday that Powell demanded and received $10,000 from a Washington architect before he would approve an application for increasing an FHA-insured loan on an apartment project here.

The committee also heard testimony that Powell banked almost three times his salary over a period from 1945 through last April, although he reported only his salary on federal income tax returns.

Maher, in addition to contesting the validity of the special grand jury, specifically asked what a subpoena for Powell's appearance be quashed.

Band Aides Net Over $1,000 on Annual Cakewalk

Regular meeting of the Artesia Band Aides was held last night at the high school band room with president Ott Strock presiding. Strock expressed his appreciation to parents and members of the band for their cooperation in making the cakewalk a success. He said after all expenses of the event had been paid, the profit from the cakewalk amounted to nearly $1,000.

Part of this profit will be used to finance new uniforms for the junior high Hornet band. Herb Seasley, director of that organization, exhibited two types of uniforms of a light-weight style which are being considered by the Aides. Strock appointed a committee to investigate purchase of the uniforms and details pertaining to cost, type best suited, and other incidents.

Bride's Father, Brother Held in Groom's Murder

BECKLEY, W. Va., (AP)—A young Army corporal was shot to death 20 hours after his wedding and state police said the father and brother of the bride would be charged with murder.

The victim yesterday was Antonio Garcia Miramontez, 27, of Rock, Tex., who formerly was stationed near Beckley with the 10th Army Engineer Co. Miramontez and the former Nina Eva Wehovich, 21, of nearby Lane were married Monday night at the First Christian Church here.

State Trooper C. M. England said the bride's father, Charles Wehovich, 64, and his son, Joe Wehovich, 31, orally admitted shooting. The father and son, coal miners, were placed in high county jail here last night after lengthy questioning by state police.

England said a grand jury would be asked to indict both on murder charges.

He had been a rancher in the Weed area for 39 years.

Welfare Fund Is One of Biggest Agencies in Chest

Artesia's local welfare fund, one of four participating organizations in the 1955 Community Chest campaign, has the largest single request in the drive—$6,486.

According to L. W. Brummett, general chairman of the drive—"All of this money is used locally for the relief of the needy in our own community. All money for local welfare is deposited in Artesia and is disbursed by local people."

Brummett points out that money given to Artesia local welfare through the chest is used for two purposes. Part of it is used for administrative expense, including the rent and utility bills of the headquarters located at 408 W. Texas and for the salary of the professional worker, Mrs. Mildred Chipman.

A floating fund is also set aside for welfare cases from which purchases of food, clothing and other emergency items are taken care of.

"It is impossible to detail the number of emergency and needy cases that are handled every year by the welfare agency," Brummett declared.

"But it is the only agency in our city set up to supply relief to these particular cases," he adds. "If it were not for local welfare, supported by local people, our needy cases could not obtain proper help."

In pointing out that all donations to the Community Chest can be earmarked for both participating and non-participating agencies, and can be paid over a period of time, rather than all at once, Brummett said "The need is greater this year than ever before, not only for Local Welfare but for other worthy agencies such as the Girl Scouts, United Defense Organizations, and the New Mexico Heart Assn."

Rains to Slow Down Cotton Picking, Ginning in Area

Rain in the Artesia area will have a short slowing down effect on the cotton processing activity in this area's gins but no actual damage to grade of the crop is expected, according to local reports.

Everett Crume, manager of the AAGA mill gin, said this morning the slowness of the arin probably didn't knock very much cotton off the plants and didn't cause enough dampness to effect the grade.

The main bottleneck will be in waiting for the cotton to dry out so it can be processed. Approximately 100 wagons are estimated to have been waiting their turns to go through gins in the area and, according to Artie McAnally, manager of the AAGA.

If and when the sun comes out it will be around 48 hours before those dampened loads are dry enough to continue operations. McAnally said one of the most important things for farmers to do is to stay out of the fields until they are dry enough to keep seed from falling.

Despite forecasts for more cloudy skies and occasional rains on farms in the Artesia end of the county, the general consensus on the part of farmers and others connected with the business is that this certainly isn't the worst situation ever to occur here in spite of the slowing down of the crop-gathering process.

Anderson Rejects Petition for Grand Jury Supina Probe

CARLSBAD, (AP)—District Judge C. Roy Anderson has rejected a petition for a grand jury in Eddy county to investigate the Francis T. Supina case.

Mrs. Supina has been in jail since July 6, 1953, in lieu of payment of a $1,000 fine for contempt of court.

Judge Anderson, in rejecting the petition, said it contained fewer than the required 75 signatures of Eddy county taxpayers.

In a statement, the judge also recalled that a grand jury in September of 1953 had investigated the Supina case and "failed to find any violation of her civil rights."

It is doubtful, he said, that a grand jury "would have any jurisdiction in the Supina matter."

Republicans Continue Steady Fire at Democratic Candidates; Anderson Atomic Work Is Praised

Blast 'Hypocrisy' Of Brown, Simms Campaign Talks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. State Republicans, sweeping through southern New Mexico, today continued their steady blasts at Democratic candidates while the Republican campaign manager in Santa Fe said that "the hypocrisy of the Simms-Brown campaign has reached a new height."

In Deming, Charles Battiste, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, said today the voters are "still waiting for an answer from Joe Montoya."

Battiste, traveling with gubernatorial candidate Alvin Stockton and other GOP candidates, referred to a newspaper report that should Montoya, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, be elected, his brother, Tom Montoya would take Joe's seat in the state Senate.

The charge of "hypocrisy" against the Democratic leaders came from GOP Campaign Manager Peter Cable, Cable, referring to a denial by John Simms Jr., Democratic gubernatorial candidate, that the Democrats plan to settle the auditing section of the state comptroller's office, said:

"This is astounding hypocrisy. The plan to go back to the old way of auditing agencies was made by a high official in state Democratic headquarters in Santa Fe. Obviously he was speaking for the party." (Continued on Page Four)

Johnson Cites Fight to Stop Atomic Monopoly

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. A Democratic senator from an Eastern atomic center today flew from Clovis to Albuquerque filled with praise for Sen. Clinton P. Anderson and his fight "to prevent politics from taking over the Atomic Energy Commission."

Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.) called for the re-election of Anderson, saying Anderson's work "on the joint atomic energy committee has been a noteworthy service."

"I think there will be much more work for him to do because there already are indications that a political job is being undertaken to discredit the whole atomic energy program prior to 1953 and to make of it a political agency," Gore said.

Meanwhile, Anderson drew more Democratic support on a national level as Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) in a filmed television interview in Albuquerque cited Anderson's fight "to protect our people against an atomic monopoly."

Johnson, the senate Democratic leader, said Anderson first "alerted" the Senate on the presidential proposal for private companies to develop the power. Johnson said Anderson also figured prominently in all major legislation which passed through the Senate.

Anderson himself spoke in Artesia last night but kept away from the question of the atomic energy (Continued on Page Four)

S. P. YATES, Artesia oilman, is finance chairman of the Conquistador Boy Scout Council budget drive being held this month with an $80,000 goal. Yates prepared for the job last summer by attending a two-week training session at Philmont Ranch in northern New Mexico.

Three Inches Recorded in Some Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Soaking rains ranging up to nearly three inches puddled most of the drought-weakened eastern half of New Mexico today and waterlogged overcast skies continued to pour moisture at midmorning.

Stretching in a wide blanket from far north to far south, the rains came less than a week after the District Weather Bureau's climatologist said there were unmistakable signs the drought is ebbing in at the edges. He added the East Side needed the moisture more than other sections.

Starting last night, a cool and moist front from the Gulf blanketed the eastern sections and sent slow general rains which measured officially up to 2.33 inches at midmorning.

The Weather Bureau said there are indications the rains will continue, only of lighter nature, throughout today and tonight and forecast scattered light rains and showers for most of the state tomorrow.

An early morning reading of 1.20 inches at Roswell had turned the Eastern New Mexico fair grounds into a mass of giant puddles, but there was expected to be little complaint from farmers and ranchers exhibiting at the 32nd annual exposition.

Roosevelt county, uncannily skipped in many of the late summer rains got a good share of the precipitation fall. Portales reported 2.20 inches at midmorning with the stuff still falling. Clovis got 1.67.

Artesia reported 1.7 inches fairly early and "still raining."

Lea county, in the far south-eastern corner, ran up the most impressive rain gauge readings. Early morning reports gave Oil Center 2.33 inches, 2.07 officially in downtown Hobbs, 1.67 at the Hobbs airport, 2.67 at Jal, 2.06 at Tatum, 1.90 at Eunice and Lovington 2.03.

The district weather office in Albuquerque, in its 5:30 a. m. reports from over the state, listed these precipitation amounts:

Three Held in Bank Robbery Can't Post $155,000 in Bond

PHOENIX, Ariz., (AP)—Three persons today were in the Maricopa county jail charged with robbing a bank because alert employees of a Phoenix dog racing track spotted an unusual number of new two dollar bills.

Officials at plush Washington Park Track alerted the FBI and the trio—two men and a woman—were arrested at Sky Harbor Airport here Monday. They are held in lieu of a total of $155,000 bond.

They are charged in connection with the $111,168 robbery of an Albuquerque branch bank last Sept. 14. A lone gunman, apologizing that "something led me to it," held up the bank and fled with the money after locking six employees and a customer in a vault.

Most of the bond, $115,000, was for Henry George Rixinger, 27, of Albuquerque, charged with robbery and conspiracy.

Charges of robbery, conspiracy and receiving and possessing stolen money were filed against Dennis Logan Dages, 31, of Phoenix. His bond was set at $20,000.

Mrs. Sara Dages, wife of Dages, was charged with conspiracy and receiving and possessing stolen money. Her bond also was $20,000.

A. R. Salazar, manager of the Albuquerque bank, and Helen Sanchez, bookkeeper, were flown to Phoenix Monday night and, on their return to New Mexico, said they were "positive" Rixinger was the gunman who robbed them. They said they had never seen Dages.

D. A. Bryce, agent in charge of the Albuquerque FBI office, said Dages had definitely been placed in Albuquerque at the time of the holdup.

U. S. Atty. Paul Larrezola of Albuquerque called for a speedy return of the prisoners and said (Continued on page four)

Eisenhower May Notify GOP Leader of Campaign Role

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

DENVER, (AP)—President Eisenhower may notify Republican leaders at a political strategy parley here Friday that he has decided to play a more active role in the GOP campaign for continued control of Congress.

Presidential aides at the Denver White House said today the chief executive still had made no firm commitments, but they indicated he is showing increasing concern about reports from party leaders that Republican candidates face a hard fight in November election contests.

Eisenhower's decision whether to make more campaign addresses than he had planned may be made after he has had a chance to talk over the situation with vice president Nixon.

Nixon is scheduled to arrive in Denver late tonight and he probably will report to Eisenhower tomorrow on GOP prospects. The vice president is on an extensive campaign tour of the country.

Eisenhower and Nixon will team up Friday evening in a nationwide television-radio address on behalf of GOP candidates for the Senate and House.

They will broadcast from the 6,000-seat Denver Municipal Auditorium at a big political rally. And aides have said it will be the President's hardest hitting speech of the campaign.

Two hours before Eisenhower and Nixon go on the air they will meet here with Republican congressional leaders. The President called the conference yesterday for a general discussion of the political situation and a review of international problems.

At this time the president has only two more political speeches definitely scheduled during the campaign—the one on Friday night, the other Nov. 1, election eve.

Scheduled to arrive at the Denver White House tonight a few hours in advance of Nixon is Robert J. Cutler, the president's aide in charge of national security council affairs.

Murray Snyder, assistant press secretary, described Cutler's visit as "routine" to keep Eisenhower posted on security developments.

Runaway Pythons May Be Friends At Texas Fair

DALLAS, (AP)—A couple of runaways, back in comfortable captivity now, may become fast friends at the State Fair of Texas, Oct. 9-24.

They're Phyllis and Pete, the pythons.

Cliff Wilson, owner of Phyllis, invited Pete over from Fort Worth in a telegram to Pete's proprietor, Harry Jackson.

Pete is probably the most famous snake since Phyllis' notoriety died down in the 1930's. He ran away from the Fort Worth zoo and returned of his own accord

Chamberlain Picks Wisconsin Over Rice, Purdue Over Duke, Iowa Over Michigan, Ohio to Win

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO — They laughed when the Ol' Swami opened the window. They thought he was going to jump. Maybe he should have. Wisconsin 20, Rice 13—the Owls are hooting it up after piling up 75 points in victories over Florida and Cornell and think their Dicky Moegle is just about the hottest thing in football. He scored on runs of 18, 40, 10 and 78 yards last week and in two games has averaged 13.7 per carry. But the unbeaten Badgers won't be awed by such statistics and should show a national television audience why they have become the top favorite for the Rose Bowl trip.

Purdue 27, Duke 14 — Duke's split-T brought a lopsided triumph over Penn and a 7-6 decision over Tennessee, but the Southerners had better have an ironclad pass defense if they hope to ambush the Boiler-makers. Sophomore Len Dawson, who pumped four touchdown passes against Missouri and repeated the same dose against Notre Dame, is "Back of the Week". Purdue now is ranked No. 5 nationally and Duke No. 6.

Iowa 21, Michigan 10 — After that romp over Montana, the Hawkeyes are in fine fettle to continue Big Ten action. But they'll have to be wary. Coach Forest Evashevski alma mater Michigan is bristling for an upset after a canooding by Army.

Ohio State 28, Illinois 14 — It was a year ago against the Buckeyes that the Illini and J. C. Caroline blossomed with a 41-20 upset. But in losing to Penn State and Stanford Coach Ray Eliot's team looks greatly overrated this season, sadly lacking in fundamentals of tackling and blocking. However, they could jell at any time.

Minnesota 20, Northwestern 13 — Halfbacks Bob and Dick McNamara are striking up quite a fanfare for the Gophers who are clicking with surprising ease off Coach Murray Warmath's Split-T introduction. The Wildcats are improving and nearly knocked off sluggish Southern California.

Michigan State 14, Indiana 7 — After absorbing two Big Ten losses the Spartans may be ready to explode. Their fuse is Leroy Bolden and he is sidelined with an injury. With him, the Hoosiers and Milt Campbell could make it close.

Notre Dame 27, Pitt 13 — Two of last week's beaten outfits try a comeback. The Panthers have made it close against the Irish in the past, but they may have lost all their claws in stumbling 46-7 against Minnesota.

Marquette 20, Cincinnati 18 — It is time for the Warriors to hit the warpath.

Big Ten Individual Contests Shaping Up on TV Football

By JOE MOOSHIL
CHICAGO — The Big Ten's kick for regional television appears out of bounds these days. Three conference teams have already appeared on the national screen with a fourth and possibly the best coming up.

Two weeks ago TV fans saw Iowa whip Michigan State. Last week Stanford humbled Illinois and on Saturday's menu is the Wisconsin-Rice encounter.

Not only will the TV-viewer see a Big Ten favorite up against the Southwest Conference defending co-champion and Cotton Bowl victor, but shaping up is a contest of individuals.

Wisconsin's Alan "The Horse" Ameche vs. fabulous Dicky Moegle of Rice.

Moegle is the same youngster whose runs so infuriated Alabama in the Cotton Bowl last January that a 12th man got off the bench to tackle the Owl speedster when he was clear and away to a 95-yard touchdown jaunt.

Moegle hasn't let up since. Against Rice victims Florida and Cornell this year, he has averaged 13.7 yards in 16 carries. The first four times he got his hands on the ball against Cornell, he swept for touchdown runs of 18, 40, 10 and 78 yards.

Rice publicist Bill Whitmore, telling the Chicago football writers about Moegle yesterday, brought out that Dicky was quite a player even before the bowl game.

"He was sixth in rushing nationally last year, with 833 yards," said Whitmore. "Of course he was in the shadow of All-American Kosse Johnson, our fullback last year. Johnson rushed for 944 yards but plode. Their fuse is Leroy Bolden and he is sidelined with an injury. With him, the Hoosiers and Milt Campbell could make it close.

Notre Dame 27, Pitt 13 — Two of last week's beaten outfits try a comeback. The Panthers have made it close against the Irish in the past, but they may have lost all their claws in stumbling 46-7 against Minnesota.

Marquette 20, Cincinnati 18 — It is time for the Warriors to hit the warpath.

Smith Sees Clovis As 'Game of the Year'

Columbia's Little Says Grid Upsets Are Misnomers

NEW YORK, (AP)—Football upsets are not upsets at all, says Columbia's Coach Lou Little, who refuses to concede that the anti-platoon rule has proved the "great equalizer" of the autumn sport.

"It's no upset when Purdue scores 27 points on Notre Dame," the bespectacled ringmaster of Morningside Heights said. "It's no upset when South Carolina beats Army and Army beats Michigan."

"These are teams playing within their own class and in this modern game of football the fortunes of a game shift swiftly—a couple of good passes and a breakaway run can turn defeat into victory."

"I think football games today are won by superior coaching and superior personnel. A team takes advantage of its opportunities and wins—but it's not an upset unless the team is playing out of its class."

Still a strong proponent of the unlimited substitution rule, Little said this year's all-star college football game in Chicago proved that the one-platoon system is not a leveler of strength.

"The pros had to discard the unlimited substitution rule and play with the college restrictions," he said. "This was supposed to make it a closer game. Instead, the pros Detroit Lions won 31-6. They could have won by twice as much."

Temple Seeking Major Tie-Up

TEMPLE, (AP)—Temple, which lost money operating in the Big State league last season, is interested in playing again in 1955 but wants a big league tieup in order to do it.

C. D. Brown, president of the club, told league president Howard Green efforts were being made for such a tieup.

Green pointed out that Big State league clubs now had a better chance of agreements with the big leagues because they were heaving to a salary limit and using more rookies and limited service men. The salaries are not high and the big league clubs can place their players.

Smith Bearing Down on Line In 'Dog Practice'

According to one of Head Coach Reese Smith's assistants, Walt Bynum, the head man is really bearing down on the Bulldogs this week in trying to impress them with the importance—and the predicted toughness—of this week's game with Clovis.

Bynum told the Quarterback club that Smith told the squad this game will tell who's in shape and who's not and said everyone would have to go until he had to be carried off the field. "If fact," Smith stated, "we might as well start in practice today."

Last night, after three hours of workout, Bynum relates, Smith spotted center Ray Gressett sprawled on the field. Pointing at one of the sideline replacements, Smith said, "Go give Gressett a breather."

A couple of plays later, according to Bynum, Smith spotted the supposed substitute still standing on the side. "I thought I told you to go in for Gressett," he hollered. Replied the substitute, well-in-doctrinated with the don't-come-off-until-you-have-to-be-carried doctrine, "I did, Coach, but he was still breathing."

Tampa Welcomes Al Lopez With Big Celebration

TAMPA, Fla. — This is Al Lopez day in Tampa, the day of the official welcome for the manager of the Cleveland Indians.

Lopez returned yesterday but city officials agreed to give him a day at home before putting on the big celebration.

Dedication of Tampa's new baseball park as Al Lopez Field was the first event on the day's program. Mayor Curtis Hixon will present keys to the field and to the city to the hometown baseball star.

Time was that the big league clubs couldn't compete with the independents because players on Big State League clubs were making more than the majors wanted to pay.

Approximately 55 members of the Artesia Quarterback club attended the regular meeting at the high school cafeteria last night and heard Head Coach Reese Smith declare, "The chips are down this week now we'll see what kind of team we've got."

Smith, in commenting on the power of the big Clovis team, declared "we'll have to be tight up the middle in order to stop this Barron, the big fullback."

Smith said indications from his scouting reports are that the big fullback is the main weapon of the Wildcat aggregation and that he runs well inside the ends and also on scoots around the wing-men.

Smith revealed Bill Mayes still will be on the bench for about two weeks after this game and also said Ronnie Price may see limited action if his knee continues to respond to treatment "in the next 48 hours."

"If we can get through the line we can beat 'em," the coach declared. "We've just got to outscore them."

Coach Jack Barron seconded Smith's observations about the game this weekend and also declared the coaches were pleased with the Bulldogs' performance last week.

"It's a pretty good team that can win despite being penalized 100 yards, not to mention the 60-some odd yards Albuquerque refused hoping to gain a down on us," Barron said.

All the coaches agreed that the reason so many penalties were caught by the Bulldogs is that a different brand of football is played by the northerners and they are not used to some of the practices carried out by the southern teams.

"They don't go along with the use of the flipper like we do down here," said Smith, meaning the use of the arm to extend the blocking surface of the shoulder.

Junior high coach Bud Wilborn said his team ran into its toughest opponent to date last week when it eclipsed Carlsbad 19-7. "For the first time, we played a team that was bigger than us. But," he added, "if you've got a bunch of fast backs, it doesn't matter how big the other team is."

In business action at the meeting, Pres. Leland Price, appointed two men from each block to take care of the sign-painting in their respective blocks.

Such slogans as, "Beat the Wildcats," will be painted on store windows starting late today by a painter hired by the club. The cost of each sign will be about $1 and the business receiving the sign will be asked to go the cost.

Program Chairman Harold Saurensig also announced the Quarterback club is planning a joint meeting with the Artesia Parents and Boosters club, the Pep club and the pep band. That session will probably be held the Tuesday before the Carlsbad game Nov. 5.

The meeting was adjourned after members saw films of the Albuquerque game and watched a film showing highlights of the 1949 Southwest conference play.

Ted Williams Is Still Insistent Career Is Over

MIAMI, Fla. — Ted Williams was back in Miami today to look after his fishing tackle business and other interests, but he gave no indication he will play baseball next year.

Williams told Jimmy Burns, sports editor of the Miami Herald, on arrival from Maine last night that his retirement from baseball is official—"right as I feel at this moment."

"Williams' good nature was ruffled slightly when I persisted on the retirement theme, reminding him that a sports writer friend of his said in a Sporting News article, Ted will be back," Burns wrote. "I'll appreciate it if you don't ask me again," Burns quoted Williams.

The slugger is a partner in a fishing tackle business and also is interested in a business venture with golfer Sam Snead which he said "shows great potentialities."

"I've got a lot of things to do and a lot of places to go," Williams said. "I'm going to be a busy man."

We Need County Court

WITH ALL OF THE TALK and conversation about the justice of the peace courts over the state and the need for better qualified men to serve as judges in these courts, it now seems the only answer is to set up county courts with county judges.

Besides helping to eliminate problems that result from justices of the peace serving it also would help lighten the load of the district courts. Many of the cases that now go to the district courts could be handled in the county court.

Some of our states have county courts with county judges. They conduct most of the arraignments on more serious cases; they handle the probate matters and they serve as a lower court and replace the justice of the peace courts.

Only trained and qualified attorneys can be elected as county judges. This provides a judge not only with legal training but with the experience and ability to judge and weigh evidence in all cases and it raises our courts above the "kangaroo courts" we now have in some places over the state.

Eddy county has been extremely fortunate in the type of men who have served as justices of the peace. They have been far above the average found in many places in the state and have seemingly been more concerned with justice prevailing in their courts than with anything else.

But this is not true in a good many counties in the state. We have justices of justice of the peace court only interested in money. And as result they always find the defendant guilty to please the arresting officer. They do this so that the officer will continue to bring other defendants to the court.

That is not good and it does not make for justice. All of us do want justice to prevail in our courts. We want the defendant's rights considered and we want these rights extended to him.

But apparently we are going to have to set up courts where legally trained individuals serve or we are definitely going to have to raise the qualifications of those who can run and be elected as justices of the peace.

Were all counties as fortunate as Eddy county this problem would not exist.

Medical Effort Against Home Child Poisoning Gains Speed

By FRANK CAREY AP Science Reporter

CHICAGO — A new medical effort is being organized against a potential danger in your own home—the accidental poisoning of children by swallowing common household materials like furniture polish and bleaching agents.

Spearheaded by a group of Chicago doctors who have set up a "poisoning control center," similar projects are operating or being developed in Boston, Cincinnati, New York, Phoenix and Washington, D. C., the American Academy of Pediatrics was told today.

The idea is to have a systematic, centrally controlled network within a city whereby quickest action can be taken in treating a poisoned child and follow-up steps can be taken to try to prevent possible recurrences or independently be instances of the same emergency.

Dr. Edward Press of the University of Illinois and several associates described the Chicago program in a scientific exhibit at the AAP's 23rd annual meeting. Dr. Robert B. Mellins of the U. S. Public Health Service, who is participating in the Chicago program, supplied further details.

They said the commonest substances swallowed among 375 children treated for poisoning in the last year in Chicago were aspirin; petroleum products such as kerosene; rodent killers and insecticides; bleaching agents; and turpentine.

With the Chicago board of health acting as a clearing house for information and follow-up action, some 20 hospitals in the Chicago area have been supplied with an 80-page manual outlining poisonous constituents of various household materials and the most recent approved methods of treatment.

Individual doctors who might be house-called on a poison case can call a "Poison Control Committee" member of the Board of Health or one of the participating hospitals if he needs help. "We're prepared," Dr. Mellins told a reporter, "to contact the manufacturer of a given household product in case its chemical constituents—and hence possible antidotes—may not be immediately known."

"We would like," he added, "to stimulate clearer labeling on various products and, in the case of the more dangerous substances, precautionary warnings which would help remind parents of the potential danger of carelessly placing such products within reach of children."

(Continued From Page One) The rains were expected to lighten in the central sections during the day. The 1.52 inches at Otto, east of Albuquerque and on the east side of the Sandia Mountains, coupled with the 1.11 reading at Las Vegas and fairly heavy amounts at Truth or Consequences indicated the rain belt extended almost to the Rio Grande.

Stermer, executive secretary of the State Youth Commission, turned down a suggestion parents be made liable for their children's actions. He said the contempt laws are sufficient.

Court Decision Points Up—Buyers Get Bargain-Hooked

AP Newsfeatures A recent decision in U. S. District Court at Springfield, Ill., pointed up for amateur gardeners the necessity of care in selection of the company from which to purchase and order shrubs, trees, plants and garden necessities.

A well-advised nursery mail order operator was fined $17,000 and sentenced to one year in jail for using the mails to defraud.

The indictment alleged that customers of the firm were subjected to misrepresentation in advertisement, poor-grade plants and trees, and stalling tactics on refunds.

The testimony in the case revolved around so-called "Red African Violets," dwarf fruit trees and a crabgrass-resistant seed. The prosecution contended the buyers in many cases got dead and dying stock instead of the bargains they thought were forthcoming.

Dist. Atty. John B. Stoddard Jr. said the 1952 gross sales of the firm were 3 1/2 million dollars. Innocent homeowners and garden lovers dug down into their well-worn jeans for millions of dollars of false dreams.

For years, legitimate, reputable nurserymen—who are in the majority—have shuddered at the occasional unethical practices of black sheep of the trade.

At this time of the year, when late summer and fall planting is underway, you're ordering by mail or purchasing from local nurseries your trees, evergreens, roses, bulbs, shrubs, grass seed.

How, you ask, do I know that the company I deal with is reputable?

There are many ways to determine this, but to me—and to you—the easiest and simplest guide is right in your own community, which is full of experienced and purchase-wise gardeners.

Check with a few of the veteran Green Thumbers in the area—and if you're new in the section, drive around until you see a fine garden, and talk to the gardener—he'll be happy to talk to you.

Local Doctor Discusses Cause Of Insomnia

Sleep, as everybody knows, is a normal unconsciousness, the purpose of which is to refresh the body. Insomnia is the inability of the body to get proper sleep because of some abnormal condition within the body.

Worry is a great sleep destroyer. If the worry comes from a physical ailment which Chiropractic can help, the cause of that worry can be removed.

Pain and muscle tension are often sleep preventatives. These conditions may be due to a nerve pressure which pinches the nerves to such an extent that the nerve supply cannot get through to the muscles and other parts of the body, thereby interfering with their normal activities.

The modern Chiropractor is now trained and scientifically equipped to locate the exact points of nerve pressure in the spine and to remove that pressure by adjustments which are practically painless. Once the pressure is removed, the body receives its full nerve supply, is able to relax and function normally, and normal sleep is possible.

It is not true to say "we have done everything possible" unless Chiropractic is included.

For further information about modern, scientific Chiropractic, you are cordially invited to consult Dr. Kathryn Behnke Rains, Palmer Graduate Chiropractor, 408 W. Richardson, phone 861. Office hours daily except Saturday after-

Draft Board Member Quits Over Batchelor

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Big Spring, Texas, draft board chairman quit his post in protest, and Robert A. Vogeler, former prisoner of the Reds in Hungary, has called the life sentence meted out to Cpl. Claude Batchelor "most unjust."

Batchelor, 22-year-old Kermit, Texas, youth, was sentenced to life in prison last week by a court-martial panel at Fort Sam Houston, Texas. He was charged with collaborating with the enemy and informing on fellow POWs while a prisoner of the Chinese Communists in Korea.

Vogeler said in Dallas yesterday that Batchelor's sentence was "the most unjust thing I have ever heard." Vogeler, himself a prisoner for 17 months while accused of being a spy for the United States, addressed a district Kiwanis club meeting.

World War II Navy Veteran H. W. Wright resigned as draft board chairman at Big Spring with the comment there that his conscience would not permit him to draft boys who might be subjected to the same penalties given Batchelor.

Vogeler, who was a representative of International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. at the time of his arrest in 1949, said the Communist methods of torture, starvation and intimidation used on him in Hungary were "the same procedure" as those used to persuade prisoners of the Koreans and Chinese to make propaganda broadcasts, germ warfare confessions and other "so-called acts of collaboration."

"We should blame ourselves at home for these deflections," the 43-year-old New Yorker said. "We failed to prepare them for an enemy which has no rules and violates every decency built up over the years."

He said military officials must "take a more realistic view toward this matter and consider the conditions under which these prisoners acted. If the court-martial board had been made up of men who were acquainted with brainwashing, the sentence would not have been so heavy."

Fifty Workers From Girl Scout Group Join In Campaign to Put 1954 Chest Campaign Over

Monday 50 Community Chest workers from the Girl Scout organization started a door-to-door residential drive to collect funds for all participating agencies, including Girl Scouts, the United Defense Fund, Artesia Local Welfare, and New Mexico Heart Assn.

They are working in four teams under the direction of Girl Scout leaders Mrs. Richard Gill, Mrs. Howard Lewis, Mrs. M. G. Goodwin, and Mrs. Creighton Gilchrist. All of these women give much of their time working in the Artesia Girl Scout Assn., but are willing to give more time now to the drive because they know the Girl Scouts are totally dependent upon its success for the income to cover operating expenses during the coming year.

The Artesia Girl Scout budget for 1955 includes only necessary expenditures and must be raised in full as the failure of 1953 drive to reach its goal has made it necessary for the Girl Scouts to use all of the money that was carried into the year as a balance.

Local needs include money for organizational materials for new troops, training materials for all leaders new and old, program needs, Leaders' club expenses, day camp supplies, and camping equipment for troops to go on camps-outs.

In addition the Artesia Assn. pays a pledge to the Southeast New Mexico Girl Scout Council, whose office is here in Artesia in the Ward building. This council is not an "outside" organization taking money out of town in any sense. In fact the Girl Scouts bring additional funds into Artesia since the other members of the council in Lincoln, Chaves, Eddy, Lea and Otero counties pay pledges here, too.

The money is banked in Artesia, office space is rented here, a secretary, Mrs. G. L. Beene, and an executive director, Miss Marvel Milliam, are employed and live here.

The Council has no outside control except as it is bound by the policies of the National Girl Scout organization. It is a banding together of Girl Scout workers in this section of the state to do the job of bringing the best possible Girl Scout program to all interested girls from 7-18 in this area.

By working together it has found it can share professional help, operate the established camp, Camp Mary White, and have joint program activities such as Senior Scout trip camp and week-end camp outs.

The Southeast New Mexico Girl Scout Council has no other source other than the pledges from the town members. This pays for the salaries of the two professional workers, Miss Milliam and Miss Ellen Broadbeck.

A third worker is being sought to cover the large territory of the five counties, but the unit will not be able to continue with three workers without each town paying its full pledge.

In addition the area council expenses include office rent, office expenses, secretary's salary, travel allowances for professional workers only, insurance, and maintenance of Camp Mary White.

On the basis of these needs, it is estimated that it costs the local association approximately $12 per girl to provide the Girl Scout program for its members. This is in addition to the valuable service given by its volunteer workers whose contributions of time and effort can not be computed in dollars and cents.

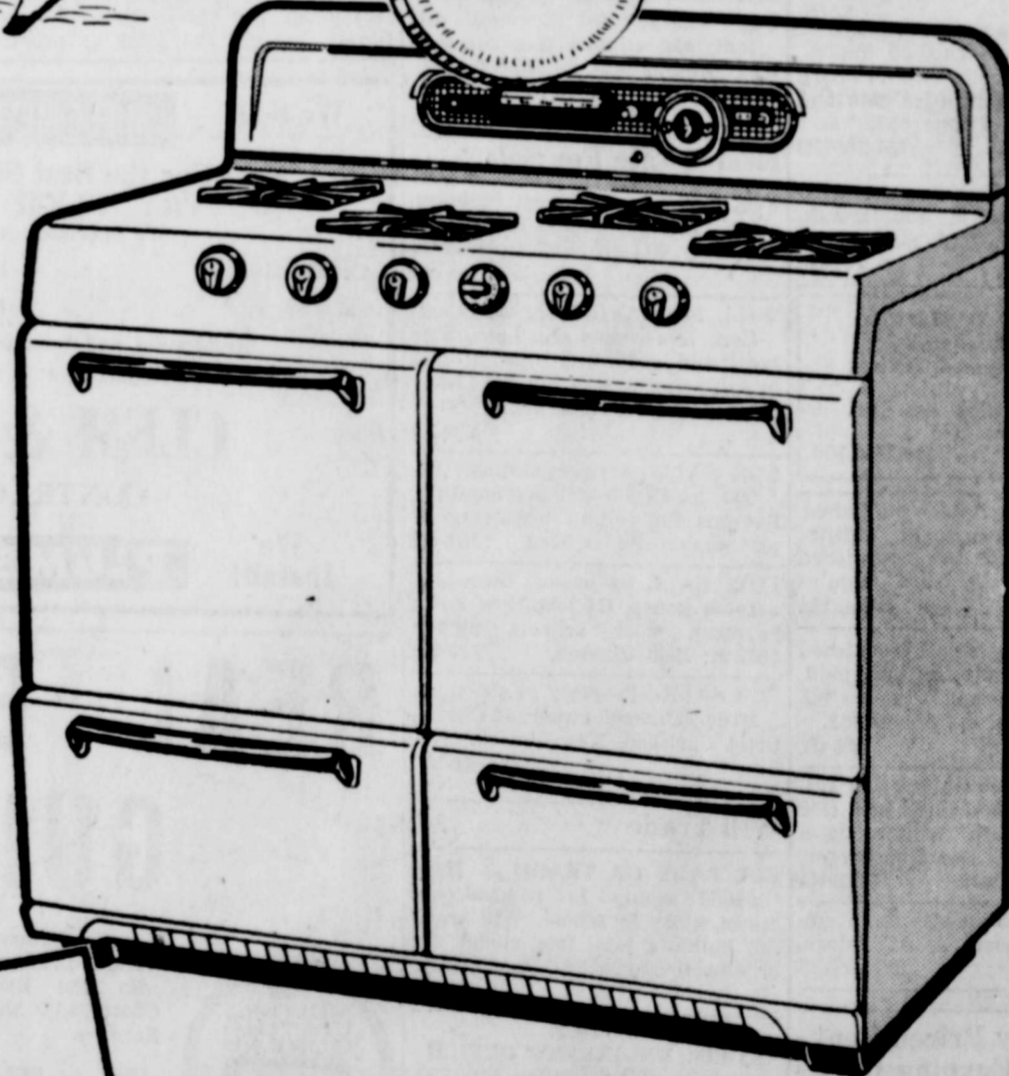

Organization spokesmen said would not want to have to take away girls from this character building program for want of a few more dollars from the community. Some people have inquired about the $1 registration fee does cover some of these expenses. The fee is sent directly to the National Girl Scout office for the maintenance of national and regional offices and their services.

Each adult volunteer worker receives her leaders' magazine from this as well as less tangible services in program planning, development, personnel recruitment for professional workers, training courses made available around the country, etc.
