Artesia Digs Out, Flood Death Toll Rising

Damage Costs Undetermined, Digging Starts

ROSSELL. (AP)—Search crews in boats and on horseback sloughed today through the mud and debris of the most devastating flood in years in the rich irrigated Pecos Valley for traces of nine missing persons.

The savage waters, pouring off the eastern slopes of the Sacramento Mountains, also left four known dead. It hit, to some degree, half a dozen communities and an untold number of farms and ranches.

One of the missing is Frank Thomas, general manager of the New Mexico Transportation Co. which operates in New Mexico and West Texas. One of the dead is James McCutcheon, nephew of the owner of the firm.

They were swept away yesterday as they attempted to aid overdue buses.

The other known dead are Willie Salo, 68, Manuel Hernandez, 85, and Ben Tolliver, 9-year-old Negro boy from Salina, Tex.

STILL MISSING are Mrs. Minnie Juarez and her three children, 11-year-old Eva, 5-year-old Tony and 3-year-old Helen, all in the same house with Salo and Hernandez; the three-month-old brother of Ben Tolliver, Tony Tolliver; and three Mexican national farm workers, Francisco Morales Fernandez, Manuel Vales Rodriguez, and Nicholas Costa Ortega. Except for McCutcheon and Thomas, all the dead and missing were in the Hagerman area south of here.

A sheriff's posse is probing the Berrendo River area northwest here for traces of Thomas and the pickup. More than 150 men have joined the Hagerman search. Both were launched as waters continued to recede over the 80-mile stretch of the valley and the flood appeared over.

The damage cannot yet be estimated, but it will run in the millions.

PROLONGED HEAVY RAINS sent the waters tumbling into the Pecos Valley, bringing swollen rivers, creeks and arroyos bubbling into parts of Roswell, Carlsbad, Dexter, Hagerman, Artesia and Lake Arthur.

By nightfall last night, the flood threat had eased considerably and the streams of muddy water began to subside. But fresh rains in the mountainous area to the west of here were reported late last night and officials continued a close watch.

Severed communications, washed out highways and bridges, broken rail lines and livestock missing remained today for the cleanup. The normally placid, and in recent days dry, Rio Hondo crested at 22 feet at its peak yesterday afternoon, pouring into the west end of Roswell up to seven feet depth. An estimated 200 families were forced to leave their homes here.

TO THE SOUTH, in the Dexter, Hagerman and Lake Arthur areas, it picked up momentum from waters pouring off the watershed into other streams and arroyos, but confined its damage mostly to the agricultural area. At Artesia, further to the south, it forced partial evacuation of one residential area but failed to touch downtown Artesia.

The Pecos River, into which the creeks and streams feed, ripped through Carlsbad, taking boat docks, diving towers and other similar structures with it. But it stayed within its banks and started subsiding.

The rest of the dead, presumed dead and missing are in the Hagerman area. The dead are two (Continued on Page Four)

Mechem Making Personal Survey Of Flood Area

ROSSELL. (AP)—Gov. Edwin L. Mechem today made a personal aerial survey of the flood disaster area in southeastern New Mexico's Pecos Valley.

He stopped at Carlsbad, Artesia, and Roswell before going on to Hobbs.

Mechem said he had no immediate plan of action in mind for the stricken area.

"The main thing is to get relief to these people," Mechem said in Artesia. "When I get to Hobbs I'll have telephone conferences with Santa Fe."

The governor said there is extensive damage to crops and houses near the rivers and streams in the Carlsbad-Artesia area. He said about 38,000 acre feet overflowed into the Avalon area north of Carlsbad.

"This is not a record," Mechem said, "since they've had 72,000 feet in the past."

The chief executive said the water is spilling over into the Avalon reservoir and Lake McMillan. McMillan can hold 30,000 feet.

Mechem's survey was confined to the most part to views of the scene from the air. He was only to make a short stop in Roswell, not planning to visit the town. At his various stops, Mechem conferred with local officials. He said he was getting a first hand view to better his plans to the federal government.

Anderson Makes Re-Election Bid On Atomic Plane

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS A bid for re-election is being conducted on an atomic plane by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, Democrat.

Anderson recently lit astride a controversy over a new book on the hydrogen bomb, calling it a libel on the people of Los Alamos. Since that time, he has been praised by national speakers for his part in blocking an "atomic monopoly" during the last session of Congress.

The theme continued Thursday in an Anderson address at El Paso where he said the race between the United States and Russia in the atomic power field "is as vital as the competition in stockpiling and perfecting atomic weapons."

Anderson is leading a Democratic campaign caravan into the southern and eastern parts of the state.

Under a Democratic majority in the Senate, Anderson is expected to become chairman of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy.

Red Cross, Veterans Care for 80 Refugees; River Overflow Threatens

By ED BOYKIN Approximately 88 homeless were still taking refuge in Veterans Memorial building this morning after being evacuated from houses in the path of flood waters.

According to Mrs. Mildred Chipman, head of the Artesia welfare agency, and Red Cross secretary, that number were served dinner yesterday and breakfast this morning after spending the night of coats and mattresses donated by local citizens.

Spearheading the relief program besides Mrs. Chipman are Clayton Menefee, chairman of the North Eddy county Red Cross; Hugh Kidley, First Aid Chairman; and Floyd Green.

Mrs. Chipman said 34 of the refugees are from the inundated Lawrence ranch north of Artesia. Of that number 22 are children. In all, she said, there were 45 children being taken care of in the building.

The refugees ranged from 16-day-old Reuben Hernandez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Hernandez, to Mrs. Elliner Forest, 81, affectionately called "Mother" Forest by everyone at the Veterans Building.

Mrs. Chipman said the 88 taken care of at the building included many bracers and transients. She said two truck drivers came in last night to spend the night and told her it took them 14 hours to come to Artesia from Roswell. The pair were up early this morning and continued their trip east.

Mrs. Chipman said many of the families had already been taken home about 10 this morning. She said more were gradually leaving as waters receded from their homes.

Mrs. Chipman said the Red Cross is footing the bill for all the necessities being afforded the refugees. But, she added, many other local agencies have had their hand in the taking care of the homeless. Among these she named the American Legion, Disabled American Veterans, and others.

Some Can't Pass Chance for Funny Remark at Flood

Although grief and misery accompanied the raging waters which hit Artesia Thursday, there were those who could not pass the temptation to give a sly and humorous remark.

One man, whose home in the Vasswood Addition was nearly flooded out, was asked by a friend if he still had a house. The reply came without a moment's hesitation: "Yea," he said, "I've still got a house but the front and back yard is disappearing fast—and as you can see, so am I."

Radio Announcer Jim Heald, who handled evacuation news during the first hours of the flood, was asked by a friend to wake, threatened to evacuate himself many times over the air, before finally being forced to do so.

But at one instance during the flood, he was asked how things were going—to which he replied, "The water's comin' up, were off the network, the teletype, is off the wire and nothin' seems to be working except this dern phone."

Other wise, evacuations took place from 3 Thursday morning well into the night with still a few homes and families being evacuated today.

The National Guard of Artesia "saved the day" with their large Army vehicles, responsible for the evacuation of the 25 families in Artesia, plus the constant chore of pulling other trucks and cars from muddy roads and alleys which temporarily turned into swiftly flowing rivers.

Every Possible Transportation Used in Rescue

Every possible device for rescue work was put into operation Thursday, ranging from motorboats to ropes, and including the faithful friend of man—the horse and dog.

There were spots where even the powerful 6 by 6 Army trucks could not go, but one evacuation which took place southwest of Artesia was completed successfully when they brought the "Ole Gray Mare out and forded the rampaging waters to safety."

Ranchers west of Artesia accented the saving of many flocks of sheep to the almost human-like thinking of sheep dogs which kept and guided the herds to safety when high waters approached.

Deputy Sheriff Oscar Lusk remained stationed at the Pecos River bridge east of Artesia for approximately two hours, with a lariat in his hand in hopes the missing person who was last seen clinging to a capsized boat near Hagerman might have drifted into the Pecos and could be saved.

Sportsmen brought out their pride and joy boats, placing them in the muddy waters of the Pecos to rescue people stranded at the Lawrence Ranch. The big Army vehicles and even the small quarter-ton pickup trucks were used to help evacuees to safety.

Battiste said that instead of talking about the real issues, "the machine mind which dominates the Democratic party leadership has made entertainment out of the campaign."

He said he referred to an East Side tour led by Simms at which the Democrats "had to offer savings bonds to entice people into their circus tent and had to give away beer with the food to attract a crowd."

Battiste accused Simms and State Democratic Chairman Tom Brown of "refusing to give the public the issues upon which they can make a decision."

Mechem Visits City on Flood Examination

Latest reports on the Pecos River level measurements at the bridge east of Artesia recorded 13.75 feet. Meanwhile, police report another body found near Roswell and Chaves county cotton damage of $5 million.

By EVAN MAHANEY First you dig in, then you dig out—the basic fundamental steps of a flood in the Artesia area, but today Artesians are trying to decide whether they should keep digging in or go on with the work of cleaning up destroyed property.

Following a harrowing 18-hour fight against mounting waters from Eagle Draw and other smaller arroyos flowing in the general direction of Artesia, citizens were still met this morning with the prospect of more rain to come.

The immediate area of Artesia suffered its worst flood since 1941, with home on every edge of the city reporting "high water. Only the center of town was dry and unaffected by flood waters from the now-teared Eagle Draw.

Urban property damage is well over the $100,000 mark and growing rapidly, not to mention the yet unestimated loss of some cotton crops which probably will reach at least the million dollar mark.

APPROXIMATELY 25 local citizens were evacuated from their homes Thursday when flood waters from Eagle Draw alone reached the doors of many residential homes in the Vasswood and Catalina Drive area, plus most of the homes along the draw as it spits the city.

According to the National Guard at least 60 families were evacuated from the Artesia area, including many farm families and Mexican Nationals who were near the rampaging Pecos River.

The largest mass evacuation completed in the Artesia area was formed by state police when they sent out a call for all Artesia sportsmen owning motor boats. The men turned out to help in the rescue of approximately 45 people at the Lawrence Ranch, six miles northeast of Artesia.

Other wise, evacuations took place from 3 Thursday morning well into the night with still a few homes and families being evacuated today.

Stockton Bangs At Democrats for Dodging Issues

By The Associated Press Republicans continue to hammer away at the theme that their opponents won't talk about the issues.

Alvin Stockton, Republican candidate for governor, said in Truth or Consequences last night the Democrats have "shied away from them."

"I have found people who have no idea at all about the stand of John Simms on such issues as the primary election system and internal governmental changes," the GOP leader said.

And another Republican candidate got into the act.

"All the people are being told is that Johnny Simms is a nice person," said Charles Battiste, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor.

"That's not enough," he added. They want to know where he stands."

Battiste said that instead of talking about the real issues, "the machine mind which dominates the Democratic party leadership has made entertainment out of the campaign."

He said he referred to an East Side tour led by Simms at which the Democrats "had to offer savings bonds to entice people into their circus tent and had to give away beer with the food to attract a crowd."

Artesia Woman's Club Celebrates Anniversary Wednesday Afternoon With Special Program

Artesia Woman's club observed their golden anniversary Wednesday afternoon at the clubhouse. Past presidents who attended were Mrs. C. R. Blocker, Mrs. F. G. Hartell, Mrs. G. U. McCrary, Mrs. E. M. Perry, Mrs. E. J. Foster, Lockney, Texas; Mrs. H. R. Paton, Mrs. Carl Lewis, Mrs. S. M. Laughlin and Mrs. B. A. DeMars. The clubhouse was decorated with an arrangement of bronze dahlias. Over the speaker's table was a large white scroll and on it in gold letters was "Golden Anniversary 1940-1954". Mrs. Louis F. Hamilton, president, conducted a short business session. Official call to the 33rd annual convention of the Third district of New Mexico Federation of Women's club was read. It will be held in the Veterans Memorial building, Artesia, Nov. 9-10. Mrs. William M. Siegenthaler inroduced the two visitors, Mrs. E. J. Foster, Lockney, Tex., and Mrs. H. J. Townley of New Orleans, sister of Mrs. Hamilton. Mrs. E. M. Perry, chairman of the clothing drive for school children, reported collection of 450 garments. This does not include pajamas, socks and underwear. They also received $25 to be used for shoes. Mrs. Max Ratliff, finance chairman, announced a rummage sale for Saturday, Oct. 9 at the former site of Artesia pharmacy. Officers of the Woman's club were dressed in old fashioned clothing. For the program Mrs. Clyde Dungan sang a collection of old familiar songs namely: "When You And I Were Young Maggie," "Grandfather's Clock," "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and "Auld Lang Syne." She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. R. E. Glaze. Mrs. G. Taylor Cole introduced Mrs. B. A. DeMars who wore a dressing belonging to Mrs. Albert Blake who was president in 1907-08. She talked on Artesia in 1904. She displayed a scrap book belonging to Mrs. S. W. Gilbert that had been kept in that year. Mrs. C. R. Blocker talked on past presidents of the local woman's club. The table was covered with a lace cloth. The centerpiece was asters with a white ribbon run through the center with the gold lettering "Artesia Woman's Club, 1904-1954." Mrs. E. J. Foster presided over the silver coffee service. Refreshments of individual white cake decorated with green horse shoe, nuts, mints, and coffee were served. Past Presidents were the hostesses for the afternoon.

Lutheran Leader Sees Renaissance In U.S. Religion

TORONTO, (AP)—Dr. Elton Trueblood, chief of the United States Religious Information Service, says a religious renaissance is moving "across the length and breadth of the land." He told 1,500 Lutherans from the United States and Canada last night the resurgence of faith "makes you glad to be alive in this time of ours." "It is one of the great periods in the history of Christianity," he said. Dr. Trueblood, a philosophy professor on leave from Indiana's Earlham college to head the religion department in the U. S. information service, said: "The remarkable thing in this age has been the real recovery of the Lutheran doctrine of the priesthood of all believers. This has released one of Christianity's great sources of power." Dr. Trueblood said the "great new notion" that each person's occupation is a field for Christian service has "listed the whole Christian movement to the level of the ministry." "The ways of the ministry are as multitudinous as the lives of men," he said. "All have a holy calling. Whatever a man's work, it is not detached from his faith." "Each of us must be concerned with becoming a lay apostle," he said. Dr. Trueblood spoke at a dinner held during the 19th biennial convention of the United Lutheran Church of America.

Artesia, Clovis to Clash in Top State Game Here

Wet Field Causes Bulldog Hopes to Skid Still More

Artesia's undefeated Bulldogs today a one-touchdown underdog in a game with a heavy Clovis tonight, slipped a little more in the last two days as the result of heavy rains resulting in a damp field of play.

The light Artesians, relying on the offensive thrusts of light but fast backs, may be going rougher than the heavy Wildcats, who have had the charges of Coach Smith in keeping a clean record so far.

Artesia has an edge in games with four wins, due to the Wildcats dropping a tie to Dumas.

However, the Clovis team made a clean sweep of New Mexico play with victories over Mori and a 20-7 verdict over the laden Carlsbad team, one of the pre-season favorites to capture the 2-AA title.

Clovis bases its offensive maneuver on the bull-like charges of 205-pound fullback Milt Barron. The deterrent so far to that potential has arisen during the last few days when halfback Bob Dugan was put on the questionable list as far as eligibility goes. The back's parents live in Texas and state officials are conducting an investigation to determine what his status is in state play.

As a result of the investigation, Dugan will probably not see action tonight because, if he is declared ineligible, Clovis will not wish to cause a default if they do win tonight.

The Artesia team, in addition to its lightness as compared to Clovis, has also suffered injuries to key men in the line. Guard Donnie Price may see limited action despite a knee injury received in the Alamogordo game. He has seen no action since that time but has been responding to treatment on the joint.

Aside from that injury, the Bulldogs are in good shape despite a rash of minor injuries received in the Albuquerque game last week-end.

Johnny Riddle lost one front tooth in the affray and halfback Leo Barker pulled a leg muscle, but the two are expected to be in going condition for tonight's grid battle.

The only comparative scores which possible final counts of tonight's contest can be based upon are the 27-0 win by Clovis over Albuquerque and the Bulldogs' 13-0 decision over that team.

However, observers are paying slight attention to that set of scores due mainly to the unpredictability of final outcomes in games between teams in the eastern section of the state. Artesia rapped almost this same team from Clovis 27-7 in their meeting last year, but dropped the game the year before after winning five straight.

Set for 7:30 p. m. at Morris Field, the game will be the center of all eyes in the state this week-end. Artesia is virtually the only hurdle for Clovis' title hopes but the Bulldogs will still have to master Carlsbad and Hobbs if they take the verdict tonight.

Another game—this one played last week—gave the Wildcats from Clovis some worry. That was the one in which they beat Carlsbad 20-7. But if the New Mexico High School Activities Assn., now conducting investigations, rules they had an ineligible player, the game will be forfeited to Carlsbad.

And Carlsbad, revived with that happy prospect in the offing bringing one of the East Side's toughest teams to Albuquerque to test the unbeaten Highland Hornets.

In the A conference, two games at Silver City and Lordsburg were postponed because of an outbreak of polio.

Confusion, High Hopes, Few Fears Mark State Football

By ROBERT GREEN
AP Sports Writer

Confusion, disease-torn schedules, high hopes, a few fears, and a host of top games crowd the program as New Mexico's high school football teams prepare for their week-end action.

One game—Artesia's project battle with Clovis—was still in the doubtful stage this morning as officials wondered whether the Clovis team could get into flood-torn Artesia.

Another game—this one played last week—gave the Wildcats from Clovis some worry. That was the one in which they beat Carlsbad 20-7. But if the New Mexico High School Activities Assn., now conducting investigations, rules they had an ineligible player, the game will be forfeited to Carlsbad.

And Carlsbad, revived with that happy prospect in the offing bringing one of the East Side's toughest teams to Albuquerque to test the unbeaten Highland Hornets.

In the A conference, two games at Silver City and Lordsburg were postponed because of an outbreak of polio.

The week-end play actually got started last night when St. Mary's of Albuquerque surprised Las Cruces 18-13 at Las Cruces. The Cougars used a three-touchdown rally in the last half to overcome a Clovis unbeaten in five starts this season, but has an out-of-state tie on the record. The Wildcats' victory over Carlsbad was the first district game for rough 2-AA.

13-0 Las Cruces lead at the half. The big ones on the slate tonight, however, were the Artesia-Clovis match—if it happens—and the Carlsbad-Highlands meeting.

Artesia, one of the three big schools still unbeaten, has three easy victories over class A schools and last week proved they could handle the big boys by knocking off Albuquerque 13-0.

The only other unbeaten class AA team, defending state champ Roswell, plans to get its fifth straight at the expense of class A Portales tonight.

A district game between Albuquerque and Santa Fe in district 1AA, and Hobbs' journey to Monahans, Tex., completes the slate for the big schools.

Down in the C conference, however, unbeaten, untied, unscored upon Corona puts that spotless record on the line. Corona, seeking its fifth straight, has Capitan to contend with.

Southern Cal to Risk Its Title Against Frisky TCU

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
AP Staff Writer

Southern California, which may be one of the nation's best college football teams, risks its unbeaten record against a youthful and unpredictable Texas Christian team tonight (Friday), but whatever the talented Trojans do is likely to be forgotten once the rush of Saturday's big games gets underway.

So far this season, Southern California has crushed Washington State and Pittsburgh and barely squeaked past Northwestern—a three-game record that hasn't impressed the experts enough to earn the Trojans a top rating.

The TCU youngsters were fast and fiery enough to throw a scare into Oklahoma, now the No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll, but they followed that by dropping a close decision to Arkansas.

This game tons a slender Friday night card that also includes Miami, Fla. vs. Holy Cross, Denver vs. Montana and Davidson vs. Presbyterian.

Then on Saturday come such games as Oklahoma vs. Texas at Dallas, Wisconsin vs. Rice, the televised Game of the Week Purdue vs. Duke and Stanford vs. Navy.

Oklahoma moved to the front in the national ratings last week while refraining from competition in anticipation of the Texas game while other leaders were being engulfed in a wave of upsets. With Gene Calame, their star quarterback, still out of action and sophomore Jim Harris taking his place, the Sooners may be in for a bad time this week.

Oklahoma coach Bud Wilkinson admits he has a better than fair team and he thinks Harris can do the job. But Texas, beaten by Notre Dame two weeks ago, looks on this game as an opportunity to reinstate the idea that it is by far the best team in the Southwest.

The Rice-Wisconsin meeting brings together two of the season's most talented and colorful backs on any major teams. It's Rice's Dicky Moegele, a speedy, elusive runner against Wisconsin's Alan (The Horse) Ameche, a mobile mountain who crushes opposing tacklers. Wisconsin is the No. 3 team in this week's AP poll behind Oklahoma and UCLA.

Purdue, which had its day of glory in beating Notre Dame, runs into a well-balanced, experienced Duke team that has a wealth of good backs. They're fifth and sixth, respectively, in the weekly ratings.

Stanford, a lightly regarded team until it whipped Illinois before the TV spectators last week, can establish itself more strongly by beating a high-scoring Navy team in the day's top game on the Pacific Coast. Second-ranked UCLA has a comparatively soft one against Washington.

HOT COFFEE for evacuees was handed out by the local unit of the American Red Cross during the flood plague when approximately 60 families were evacuated from their homes. Decision Pends On Eligibility Of Bob Dugan

CLOVIS.—Halfback Bob Dugan may be ruled ineligible and the Clovis Wildcats may be deprived of their victory over Carlsbad last week by forfeit because of a residence violation.

The decision will be announced within a few days, possibly Monday, by U. G. Montgomery, executive secretary of the New Mexico High School Activities Assn.

Montgomery was in Clovis Wednesday and investigated Dugan's status. Travis Stovall, superintendent, reported in a special press conference this morning. Stovall said the Clovis high school administrative office had inquired about Dugan's status through correspondence with Montgomery early in September because the athlete's parents had gone to Midland, Tex.

If a student's parents are not bona fide residents of a school district, the boy is not eligible for athletic competition.

Montgomery informed the Clovis school that if Dugan's parents had moved to Midland and had closed their residence here, the boy was not eligible. Montgomery's correspondence was dated Sept. 12.

Huge Crowd to See Oklahoma, Texas Contest

DALLAS, (AP)—The Southwest's largest football crowd in history was moving into Dallas today for that well-known "family" game—Texas vs. Oklahoma.

A Texas flavor? Well, the game opens the State Fair of Texas; the University of Texas has only Texas boys on its squad; Oklahoma has 11 Texas boys. Whichever way the battle may go, it'll more or less remain in the family.

Gene Calame, the T-formation coach of gridiron legerdemain, would be able to play and that makes way for another Texan, Jim Bowers, who hails from Terrell, back down the road from Dallas, will be the quarterback when the Red, rated No. 1 in the nation, meets Texas tomorrow for the first time, with 76,204 in the stands.

Starting tackles for Oklahoma are Don Brown of Kermit, Tex., and Edmon Gray of Odessa, Tex. Jerry Tubbs of Breckenridge, Tex., may be the fullback.

The absence of Calame is causing the oddsmakers to shift in favor of Texas and chances are the Longhorns will be about a point favorite at the kickoff at 2 p. m. CST. This despite the fact that the Longhorns are rated 15th in the nation and lost a 21-0 decision to Notre Dame while Oklahoma is undefeated in its last 11 games. Also, Texas has won over the Sooners only once—in 1951—since 1947. The game shapes up as a rib-cracking ground duel since neither team is very adept at passing. And thereby hangs a powerful Texas advantage. A big, powerful line and powerhouse backs make it pretty certain the Longhorns will gouge huge chunks of yardage out of the Sooner defense.

SCOTTISH RITE MEETS
SANTA FE, (AP)—The 113th reunion of the Scottish Rite of New Mexico ended yesterday with conferring of 31st and 32nd degrees. Elden V. Taylor of Albuquerque was class president. Other class officers included Richard F. Foster of Clovis, Robert T. Boese of Alamogordo, vice presidents; Henry P. Shackelford of Hobbs, orator; and Eugene R. Edson of Alamogordo, candidate for 32nd degree.

Johnson to Push Light-Heavy Bid In Fight Tonight

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—Harold Johnson, bidding for his seventh shot at lightweight champion Archie Moore, and "Boardwalk Billy" Smith, seeking his fifth bout with the elderly champ, meet tonight for the first time in a 10-round fight at the arena.

Johnson, rated No. 1 contender for Moore's title, is quoted as a 14-5 favorite here in his home town. His last outing was in a championship scrap Aug. 11 when, with victory within his reach, he was knocked out by Moore.

That snapped a 12-bout winning streak for Johnson, whose record is now 40 wins and 6 defeats. Five of the defeats were at Moore's hands and the other was a knockout loss to former heavyweight champion Jersey Joe Walcott.

Johnson will have the advantage of age—he's 26 and Smith is 33—speed and skill. Both boys have good punching power. Johnson has KO'd 30 in winning 56, losing 20 and fighting 4 draws. In four bouts with Moore, he lost three and drew one.

Smith is rated No. 4 in the light heavyweight division and is undefeated since coming East from Oakland, Calif.

SCHOOL DEBT UP
SANTA FE, (AP)—The bonded debt of public schools in the state increased 43 million dollars last year to hit a new high of $29,198,220 at the start of this fiscal year, the Taxpayers' Assn. says. School districts voted some $7,000,000 worth of bonds for school construction during the last fiscal year, the association said.

Giants, Cleveland Cut Up Record Series Income

NEW YORK, (AP)—Both the New York Giants and the Cleveland Indians cut up record World Series shares this year. Twenty-eight Giants, plus their trainer and clubhouse attendant, received $11,147,90 each, while each Indian collected $6,712.50.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick announced the breakdown yesterday. The full Giants' share was $2,867,22 more than the previous record of the New York Yankees of 1953. The Indians, who distributed 35 1/2 shares, also set a record for a loser.

All told, the players' share of the receipts came to $881,783.72, an all-time high. Included was $83,000 for a pre-game World Series TV program. The players get 60 per cent of the receipts for the first for games with 70 per cent going to the competing teams.

SANTA FE, (AP)—The city council will consider an ordinance next week providing for a city manager form of government for Santa Fe. The proposed ordinance was drafted by a committee named by Mayor H. Paul Huss.

Hurricane Hazel Is Still 1,200 Miles From Gulf Coast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hurricane Hazel wheeled her might toward the Texas Gulf Coast Friday but her 115-miles-an-hour winds were still more than 1,200 miles away.

The powerful hurricane in the Southern Caribbean was moving toward the west-northwest, aimed at the Yucatan "slot" at about 13 miles per hour.

It was the aftermath of such a tropical hurricane that brought torrential downpours to Southwest Texas and Northern Mexico during the summer. One of the greatest, most damaging floods in Rio Grande Valley history resulted.

There was no immediate alarm on the Texas coast as the storm turned its power in a direction that might eventually rake the Texas-Louisiana coastal areas, but in Mexico—almost from one end to the other—nasty weather prevailed. Towns were flooded, roads were closed and air flights cancelled. Tampico, an important Mexican oil port, was paralyzed Thursday night by 72 hours of steady rain.

Water was five feet deep in some sections of Tampico and an estimated 50,000 acres of farmland was inundated. Crop losses were reported heavy, but there was no known loss of life.

Drizzle, fog and heavy cloudiness again was darkening the Panhandle-Plains country of Texas. But in South and East Texas mostly clear skies were reported Friday.

Lubbock was cloudy and reported light drizzle and fog. It was about the same way at Amarillo and Childress. Dalhart reported a 60-degree thermometer reading

Artesia Woman's Club Celebrates Anniversary Wednesday Afternoon With Special Program

Artesia Woman's club observed their golden anniversary Wednesday afternoon at the clubhouse. Past presidents who attended were Mrs. C. R. Blocker, Mrs. F. G. Hartell, Mrs. G. U. McCrary, Mrs. E. M. Perry, Mrs. E. J. Foster, Lockney, Texas, Mrs. H. R. Paton, Mrs. Carl Lewis, Mrs. S. M. Laughlin, and Mrs. B. A. DeMars. The clubhouse was decorated with an arrangement of bronze dahlias. Over the speaker's table was a large white scroll and on it in gold letters was "Golden Anniversary 1940-1954." Mrs. Louis F. Hamilton, president, conducted a short business session. Official call to the 33rd annual convention of the Third district of New Mexico Federation of Women's club was read. It will be held in the Veterans Memorial building, Artesia, Nov. 9-10. Mrs. William M. Siegenthaler introduced the two visitors, Mrs. E. J. Foster, Lockney, Tex., and Mrs. H. J. Townley of New Orleans, sister of Mrs. Hamilton. Mrs. E. M. Perry, chairman of the clothing drive for school children, reported collection of 450 garments. This does not include pajamas, socks and underwear. They also received $25 to be used for shoes. Mrs. Max Ratlif, finance chairman, announced a rummage sale for Saturday, Oct. 9 at the former site of Artesia pharmacy. Officers of the Woman's club were dressed in old fashioned clothing. For the program Mrs. Clyde Dungan sang a collection of old familiar songs namely: "When You And I Were Young Maggie," "Grandfather's Clock," "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and "Auld Lang Syne." She was accompanied by the piano by Mrs. R. E. Glaze. Mrs. G. Taylor Cole introduced Mrs. B. A. DeMars who wore a dressing belonging to Mrs. Albert Blake who was president in 1907-08. She talked on Artesia in 1904. She displayed a scrap book belonging to Mrs. S. W. Gilbert that had been kept in that year. Mrs. C. R. Blocker talked on past presidents of the local woman's club. The table was covered with a lace cloth. The centerpiece was asters with a white ribbon run through the center with the gold lettering "Artesia Woman's Club, 1904-1954." Mrs. E. J. Foster presided over the silver coffee service. Refreshments of individual white cake decorated with green horse shoe, nuts, mints, and coffee were served. Past Presidents were the hostesses for the afternoon.

Former Artesia Man, Barry Wood, Weds in Houston

Ann Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Todd Wood of Houston, Tex., and Barry Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wood of Stephenville, Tex., were married in a ceremony held at 8 p. m. in the Methodist church at Houston. Miss Janice Wood, sister of the bridegroom, was a bridesmaid. Gerald Wood, a brother, was groomsmen. The young couple will make their home in Denton, Tex., where Mrs. Wood is a student at North Texas State Teachers college. Barry graduated from the Artesia high school and will be remembered as an outstanding basketball player. He has received a degree in business administration from North Texas State college and at the present time is taking further training as a lieutenant colonel in the ROTC at the college. After completing his training he plans to enter the Air Corps. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. P. M. aVsbinder of Artesia. An aunt, Mrs. E. A. Poe and an uncle, June Wood, also live here.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Pierson returned Tuesday from spending six months at Andrews, Texas, where Pierson was employed with a drilling company. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gaskins, Charles, Jr., and Sandra, Gene, and Robert Lowery saw the parade and attended the fair in Roswell, Tuesday. Mrs. Albert Seals, Jr., and her three children left Thursday evening with her mother and brother, Mrs. Horace Glaze and Jimmy for Augusta, Ga., where she plans to make her home. Mr. and Mrs. V. Thorp were in Roswell Tuesday morning to see the parade. Marshall Martin of Crockett Texas, arrived in Artesia Thursday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Christian Women's Fellowship Board Plans Anniversary

Lutheran Leader Sees Renaissance In U.S. Religion

TORONTO, (AP)—Dr. Elton Trueblood, chief of the United States Religious Information Service, says a religious renaissance is moving "across the length and breadth of the land." He told 1,500 Lutherans from the United States and Canada last night the resurgence of faith "makes you glad to be alive in this time of ours." "It is one of the great periods in the history of Christianity," he said. Dr. Trueblood, a philosophy professor on leave from Indiana's Earlham college to head the religion department in the U. S. information service, said: "The remarkable thing in this age has been the real recovery of the Lutheran doctrine of the priesthood of all believers. This has released one of Christianity's great sources of power." Dr. Trueblood said the "great new notion" that each person's occupation is a field for Christian service has "listed the whole Christian movement to the level of the ministry." "The ways of the ministry are as multitudinous as the lives of men," he said. "All have a holy calling. Whatever a man's work, it is not detached from his faith." "Each of us must be concerned with becoming a lay apostle," he said. Dr. Trueblood spoke at a dinner held during the 19th biennial convention of the United Lutheran Church of America.

Artesia, Clovis to Clash in Top State Game Here

et Field Causes Bulldog Hopes to Skid Still More

Artesia's undefeated Bulldogs, by a one-touchdown underdog game with a heavy Clovis tonight, slipped a little more the last two days as the result of plays resulting in a damp of rain.

Light Artesians, relying on the offensive thrusts of light but fast backs, may be going rougher than the heavy Wildcats, who have the charges of Coach Smith in keeping a clean record so far.

Artesia has an edge in games with four wins, due to the Bulldogs' dropping a tie to Dumas.

However, the Clovis team made a clean sweep of New Mexico play with victories over Mori and a 20-7 verdict over over-laden Carlsbad team, one pre-season favorites to cope with 2-A-A title.

Clovis bases its offensive maneuver on the bull-like charges of 200-pound fullback Milt Barron. The deterrent so far to that potential has arisen during the last few days when halfback Bob Dugan was put on the questionable list as far as eligibility goes. The back's parents live in Texas and state officials are conducting an investigation to determine what his status is in state play.

As a result of the investigation, Dugan will probably not see action tonight because, if he is declared ineligible, Clovis will not wish to cause a default if they do win tonight.

The Artesia team, in addition to its lightness as compared to Clovis, has also suffered injuries to key men in the line. Guard Donnie Price may see limited action despite a knee injury received in the Alamogordo game. He has seen no action since that tiff but has been responding to treatment on the job.

Aside from that injury, the Bulldogs are in good shape despite a rash of minor injuries received in the Albuquerque game last week-end.

Johnny Riddle lost one front tooth in the affray and halfback Leo Barker pulled a leg muscle, but the two are expected to be in going condition for tonight's grid battle.

The only comparative scores which possible final counts of tonight's contest can be based upon are the 27-0 win by Clovis over Alamogordo and the Bulldogs' 13-0 decision over that team.

However, observers are paying

Confusion, High Hopes, Few Fears Mark State Football

By ROBERT GREEN
AP Sports Writer

Confusion, disease-torn schedules, high hopes, a few fears, and a host of top games crowd the program as New Mexico's high school football teams prepare for their week-end action.

One game—Artesia's project battle with Clovis—was still in the doubtful stage this morning as officials wondered whether the Artesia team could get into flood-torn Artesia.

Another game—this one played last week—gave the Wildcats from Clovis some worry. That was the one in which they beat Carlsbad 20-7. But if the New Mexico High School Activities Assn., now conducting investigations, rules they had an ineligible player, the game will be forfeited to Carlsbad.

And Carlsbad, revived with that happy prospect in the offing bringing one of the East Side's toughest teams to Albuquerque to test the unbeaten Highland Hornets.

In the A conference, two games—at Silver City and Lordsburg—were postponed because of an outbreak of polio.

The week-end play actually got started last night when St. Mary's of Albuquerque surprised Las Cruces 18-13 at Las Cruces. The Cougars used a three-touchdown rally in the last half to overcome a Clovis is unbeaten in five starts this season, but has an out-of-state tie on the record. The Wildcats' victory over Carlsbad was the first district game for rough 2-A-A.

13-0 Las Cruces lead at the half. The big ones on the slate tonight, however, were the Artesia-Clovis match—if it happens—and the Carlsbad-Highlands meeting.

Artesia, one of the three big schools still unbeaten, has three easy victories over class A schools and last week proved they could handle the big boys by knocking off Albuquerque 13-0.

The only other unbeaten class AA team, defending state champ Roswell, plans to get its fifth straight at the expense of class A Portales tonight.

A district game between Albuquerque and Santa Fe in district 1AA, and Hobbs' journey to Monahans, Tex., completes the slate for the big schools.

Down in the C conference, however, unbeaten, untied, unscored upon Corona puts that spotless record on the line. Corona, seeking its fifth straight, has Capitan to contend with.

Southern Cal to Risk Its Title Against Frisky TCU

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
AP Staff Writer

Southern California, which may be one of the nation's best college football teams, risks its unbeaten record against a youthful and unpredictable Texas Christian team tonight (Friday), but whatever the talented Trojans do is likely to be forgotten once the rush of Saturday's big games gets underway.

So far this season, Southern California has crushed Washington State and Pittsburgh and barely squeaked past Northwestern—a three-game record that hasn't impressed the experts enough to earn the Trojans a top rating.

The TCU youngsters were fast and fiery enough to throw a scare into Oklahoma, now the No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll, but they followed that by dropping a close decision to Arkansas.

This game tops a slender Friday night card that also includes Miami, Fla. vs. Holy Cross, Denver vs. Montana and Davidson vs. Presbyterian.

Then on Saturday come such games as Oklahoma vs. Texas at Dallas, Wisconsin vs. Rice, the televised Game of the Week Purdue vs. Duke and Stanford vs. Navy.

Oklahoma moved to the front in the national ratings last week while refraining from competition in anticipation of the Texas game while other leaders were being engulfed in a wave of upsets. With Gene Calame, their star quarterback, still out of action and sophomore Jim Harris taking his place, the Sooners may be in for a bad time this week.

Oklahoma coach Bud Wilkinson admits he has a better than fair team and he thinks Harris can do the job. But Texas, beaten by Notre Dame two weeks ago, looks on this game as an opportunity to reinstate the idea that it is by far the best team in the Southwest.

The Rice-Wisconsin meeting brings together two of the season's most talented and colorful backs on any major teams. It's Rice's Dicky Moegele, a speedy, elusive runner against Wisconsin's Alan (The Horse) Amosche, a mobile mountain who crushes opposing tacklers. Wisconsin is the No. 3 team in this week's AP poll behind Oklahoma and UCLA.

Purdue, which had its day of glory in beating Notre Dame, runs into a well-balanced, experienced Duke team that has a wealth of good backs. They're fifth and sixth, respectively, in the weekly ratings.

Stanford, a lightly regarded team until it whipped Illinois before the TV spectators last week, can establish itself more strongly by beating a high-scoring Navy team in the day's top game on the Pacific Coast. Second-ranked UCLA has a comparatively soft one against Washington.

BOB DUGAN

Decision Pends On Eligibility Of Bob Dugan

CLOVIS — (AP) — Halfback Bob Dugan may be ruled ineligible and the Clovis Wildcats may be deprived of their victory over Carlsbad last week by forfeit because of a residence violation.

The decision will be announced within a few days, possibly Monday, by U. G. Montgomery, executive secretary of the New Mexico High School Activities Assn.

Montgomery was in Clovis Wednesday and investigated Dugan's status. Travis Stovall, superintendent, reported in a special press conference this morning. Stovall said the Clovis high school administrative office had inquired about Dugan's status through correspondence with Montgomery early in September because the athlete's parents had gone to Midland, Tex.

If a student's parents are not bona fide residents of a school district, the boy is not eligible for athletic competition.

Montgomery informed the Clovis school that if Dugan's parents had moved to Midland and had closed their residence here, the boy was not eligible. Montgomery's correspondence was dated Sept. 12.

The powerful hurricane in the Southern Caribbean was moving toward the west-northwest, aimed at the Yucatan "slot" at about 13 miles per hour.

It was the aftermath of such a tropical hurricane that brought torrential downpours to Southwest Texas and Northern Mexico during the summer. One of the greatest, most damaging floods in Rio Grande Valley history resulted.

There was no immediate alarm on the Texas coast as the storm turned its power in a direction that might eventually rake the Texas-Louisiana coastal areas, but in Mexico—almost from one end to the other—nasty weather prevailed. Towns were flooded, roads were closed and air flight cancelled. Tampico, an important Mexican oil port, was paralyzed Thursday night by 72 hours of steady rain.

Water was five feet deep in some sections of Tampico and an estimated 50,000 acres of farmland was inundated. Crop losses were reported heavy, but there was no known loss of life.

Drizzle, fog and heavy cloudiness again was darkening the Panhandle-Plains country of Texas. But in South and East Texas mostly clear skies were reported Friday.

Lubbock was cloudy and reported light drizzle and fog. It was about the same way at Amarillo and Childress. Dalhart reported a 60-degree thermometer reading.

Huge Crowd to See Oklahoma, Texas Contest

DALLAS, (AP)—The Southwest's largest football crowd in history was moving into Dallas today for that well-known "family" game—Texas vs. Oklahoma.

A Texas flavor? Well, the game was the State Fair of Texas; the University of Texas has only Texas boys on its squad; Oklahoma has 11 Texas boys. Whichever way the game may go, it'll move or less remain in the family.

Gene Calame, the T-formation expert of gridiron legerdemain, won't be able to play and that makes way for another Texan, Jim Harris, who hails from Terrell, just down the road from Dallas.

He'll be the quarterback when the Red rated No. 1 in the nation, faces Texas tomorrow for the time, with 76,204 in the stands.

Starting tackles for Oklahoma are Don Brown of Kermit, Tex., and Edmon Gray of Odessa, Tex. Jerry Tubbs of Breckenridge, Tex., may be the fullback.

The absence of Calame is causing the oddsmakers to shift in favor of Texas and chances are the Longhorns will be about a point favorite at the kickoff at 2 p. m. CST. This despite the fact that the Longhorns are rated 15th in the nation and lost a 21-0 decision to Notre Dame while Oklahoma is undefeated in its last 11 games.

Also, Texas has won over the Sooners only once—in 1951—since 1947. The game shapes up as a rib-cracking ground duel since neither team is very adept at passing. And thereby hangs a possible Texas advantage. A big, powerful line and powerhouse backs make it pretty certain the Longhorns will gouge huge chunks of yardage out of the Sooner defense.

Johnson to Push Light-Heavy Bid In Fight Tonight

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—Harold Johnson, bidding for his seventh shot at lightweight champion Archie Moore, and "Boardwalk Billy" Smith, seeking his fifth bout with the elderly champ, meet tonight for the first time in a 10-round fight at the arena.

Johnson, rated No. 1 contender for Moore's title, is quoted as a 14.5 favorite here in his home town. His last outing was in a championship scrap Aug. 11 when, with victory within his reach, he was knocked out by Moore.

That snapped a 12-bout winning streak for Johnson, whose record is now 40 wins and 6 defeats. Five of the defeats were at Moore's hands and the other was a knockout loss to former heavyweight champion Jersey Joe Walcott.

Johnson will have the advantage of age—he's 26 and Smith is 33—speed and skill. Both boys have good punching power.

Johnson has KO'd 30 in winning 56, losing 20 and fighting 4 draws. In four bouts with Moore, he lost three and drew one.

Smith is rated No. 4 in the light heavyweight division and is undefeated since coming East from Oakland, Calif.

SCOTTISH RITE MEETS

SANTA FE, (AP)—The 113th reunion of the Scottish Rite of New Mexico ended yesterday with convening of 31st and 32nd degrees. Elden V. Taylor of Albuquerque was class president. Other class officers included Richard F. Foster of Clovis, Robert T. Boese of Alamogordo, vice presidents; Henry P. Shackelford of Hobbs, orator; and Eugene R. Edson of Alamogordo, candidate for 32nd degree.

SCHOOL DEBT UP

SANTA FE, (AP)—The bonded debt of public schools in the state increased 43 million dollars last year to hit a new high of $29,198,220 at the start of this fiscal year, the Taxpayers' Assn. says. School districts voted some $7,600,000 worth of bonds for school construction during the last fiscal year, the association said.

Giants, Cleveland Cut Up Record Series Income

NEW YORK, (AP)—Both the New York Giants and the Cleveland Indians cut up record World Series shares this year. Twenty-eight Giants, plus their trainer and clubhouse attendant, received $11,147,90 each, while each Indian collected $6,712.50.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick announced the breakdown yesterday. The full Giants' share was $2,867.22 more than the previous record of the New York Yankees of 1953. The Indians, who distributed 35 1/2 shares, also set a record for a loser.

All told, the players' share of the receipts came to $881,763.72, an all-time high. Included was $83,000 for a pre-game World Ser-

You Ask the Questions

DURING THE PAST few weeks and during the remaining days between now and Nov. 2 the political candidates seeking the votes and support of the voters of the states have been indicating what they plan to do if they are elected.

They were seeking the support of those qualified to ballot in that general election on Nov. 2.

The voters will hear a good many promises during the next few days—far more promises than will ever be kept. Some of them will be so ridiculous that no one could keep them. Others will be made in good faith but the candidate doesn't know that he or she can't possibly keep them.

But while the candidates are making all of their promises is a good time to do a little questioning ourselves of these candidates. It all just helps us to be better able and qualified to ballot when Nov. 2 arrives.

Most citizens want to know whether the candidate will try to cut down the costs of government and whether he will work for economy measures and against extravagance. Most of us want to know whether the candidate can be relied upon to resist any move to increase existing taxes.

Most of us want to know whether he will lend his best efforts toward modernizing the state tax structure and work for a fair and equitable distribution of the tax burden. We want to know whether he will support those improvements, we can afford and oppose those costing more than our ability to pay.

We in New Mexico, because of limited means or income, have many problems that need real study and they need a solution. We have a problem providing adequate funds for our various state institutions; for improving those institutions; for creating additional institutions we have not provided.

We face a problem of providing more school plants and certainly we need more work to be done on our highways.

The members of our legislature and our state officials will have a great deal to do with either continuing to ignore these problems or seeking to solve them.

And since we, the voters, will name the officials the time to determine where they stand on these matters is before and not after they are elected.

Eisenhower TVA Program Runs Into Twin Senate Inquiries

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower's plan to send electric power from a private plant over Tennessee Valley Authority public power lines headed today into dual Senate inquiries which may run simultaneously.

The atomic energy commission confirmed yesterday it has approved the form of the Dixon-Yates contract to put the politically controversial plan into operation.

Angry protest came from Senators Langer (R.-ND.) and Kefauver (D.-Tenn.), who disclosed plans to step up their investigation of the project as members of the Senate Antimonopoly subcommittee.

Langer and Kefauver said they will resume their now-recessed inquiry Oct. 13, five days after the tentatively scheduled start of another review of the proposal next Wednesday by the Senate House atomic energy committee.

Langer and Kefauver said the AEC had not shown "proper respect" for their inquiry.

Sen. Hickenlooper (R.-Iowa), who will preside at the atomic committee's hearings, is due back today from a trip to South America. He may confirm or change the tentative hearing date.

Eisenhower's proposal has been buffeted in public vs. private power debates in and out of Congress for months. He directed AEC to negotiate a contract with two privately owned power companies headed by Edgar H. Dixon and E. A. Yates.

The plan calls for the Dixon-Yates group to build a 107-million-dollar steam generating plant at West Memphis, Ark., to deliver electricity to the TVA, to replace current which TVA delivers to AEC plants.

In a letter to Langer, the subcommittee chairman, AEC General Manager Kenneth D. Nichols confirmed that the commission has approved the form of the proposed Dixon-Yates contract. But Nichols said AEC has neither signed the contract nor made any binding commitment to Dixon-Yates.

Anderson— (Continued from page one) ported to areas in need of power and that Russia will have won a "great propaganda victory" if they succeed in becoming the first to furnish underdeveloped areas of the world with atomically produced energy for peaceful purposes.

He also said that atomic energy may provide the key to what probably will be the nation's major problem in the not-too-distant future: How to feed a world which is becoming overpopulated, he said, at the rate of about 20 million people a year.

game will still be played despite a muddy field which will slow Artesia's fleet backfield, school officials announced.

The Associated Press reported shortly before noon buses at Clovis were being prepared for the trip to Artesia, which will be slowed due to debris on U.S. 285 between Roswell and Artesia.

Course Changed— Some residents in the southwest part of the city have reported a hastily-prepared ditch and dike on the west side of S. Thirteenth street diverted the course of yesterday's flood waters.

Water which previously drained down Hermosa and Catalina yesterday invaded a larger area of the city, entering several homes in the southwestern part of the city.

Water came down Bullock, Washington, Centre, Dallas, Missouri and a number of other streets previously untouched by flood waters. Residents reported an unofficial inquiry was being made into source of responsibility for the change.

City Damages— Damage to city facilities has taken its biggest toll in sewer lines, according to City Supervisor W. D. "Doug" Fowler.

"It's the first time most of them have ever had any water on them and they've just caved in," Fowler said. He added water had washed out unpaved streets in the Eagle Draw area and also washed out many in the southern part of the city.

"Most of the damage there," Fowler pointed out, "is around Centre street between Thirteenth tesia area. He told police today "the main thing to do is get relief to these flood-hit people."

No fatalities in the Artesia area were reported, according to present reports, although several rescues were completed by flood workers which might have been fatal had help not come when it did.

The National Guard is still on call today, working with city, state and county officials. Many guardsmen and patrolmen have gone for 40-hour stretches without sleep in their continued effort to see that all possible means for evacuation and transportation are at a maximum.

Only the Lovington highway was open Thursday, but according to reports this morning, the Roswell highway is now open and the Carlsbad route, although it is still impossible to reach Carlsbad, as part of the road near the Cave City is still washed out.

Motorists can get to Hope but no further, since the highway west of that city is still washed out. The Lovington highway may be closed today if waters in the Pecos continue to rise. The level at noon today was one foot from the maximum water level.

In Macomb, Ill., House Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts told a Republican rally failure of the GOP to win a strong majority in the next Congress would lead to "the chaos of an opposition party blocking the program of the President, twisting progress for political profit."

The Arizona suit, filed in January, 1953, was designed to settle conflicting claims of Arizona and California as to the amount of water to which each was entitled.

California, in asking the Supreme Court to name the other four states in the suit, said they are necessary parties since they are affected by the Colorado River Compact and other documents involved in the dispute. The brief said their participation would expedite a final decree putting the whole Colorado River controversy to rest.

Nationwide Eisenhower Talk Slated

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Eisenhower steps up to the political firing line again tonight for what an aide said would be the President's "hardest hitting" speech of the campaign for control of the next Congress.

Eisenhower and Vice-President Nixon were due to go before television cameras and radio microphones at 7:30 p. m. MST from Denver's Municipal Auditorium.

The summer White House said the TV coverage would be the most extensive of any political speech ever made.

As the head of the Republican party prepared for his big TV-radio appeal to American voters, Adlai Stevenson spoke in Wichita, Kan., of what he called "the foolish boasts and broken promises" of the Eisenhower administration.

Stevenson, the Democratic standard bearer who Eisenhower defeated for the presidency two years ago, told a rally he detects in Kansas a revolt against "the family quarrels and hopeless divisions of the Republicans and against policies at the expense of the many."

In Denver, Eisenhower was pictured as being in a fighting mood as he awaited the hour to make what Murray Snyder, assistant White House press secretary, said would be a "straight from the shoulder" speech patterned after the President's Hollywood Bowl address two weeks ago.

After a conference with Eisenhower yesterday, Nixon announced the President has agreed to make at least one additional major address, but the vice-president stressed the President is not swerving from his policy of not campaigning for individual GOP candidates.

The only presidential campaign talk on schedule after tonight is a get-out-the-vote appeal on Nov. 1, election eve.

Other Democratic and Republican figures were holding forth yesterday, with the big ballot box test now less than four weeks away.

In Washington, Democratic Sen. Olin D. Johnston of South Carolina charged administration officials with "distortion, untruth and political immorality" in claims concerning separation of alleged security risks from the federal payroll.

In Macomb, Ill., House Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts told a Republican rally failure of the GOP to win a strong majority in the next Congress would lead to "the chaos of an opposition party blocking the program of the President, twisting progress for political profit."

In Chicago, Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California said he expects the GOP

Mendes-France Faces Fire In French National Assembly

By CARL T. HARTMAN PARIS — Premier Pierre Mendes-France faced a cross fire of questions today in the French National Assembly on the London agreement to rearm West Germany.

Bundestag. German Socialists, holding 151 seats in the Bonn chamber, voted against the motion backing West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's pro-Western policy and the outcome of the London parley.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU
 Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.
