Atomic Commission Chairman Testifies Dixon-Yates Feud Not Affecting Weapon

Strauss Views Murray Idea As Misleading

WASHINGTON — Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission said today the Dixon-Yates controversy "has not affected our weapons program."

"I'm afraid," Strauss told the Senate-House committee on atomic energy, "there has been a misleading impression conveyed" during hearings on the controversial power deal "to the effect that the weapons program has been impaired."

"In my opinion," he declared, "it has not."

Strauss gave the committee his views under questioning by Sen. Anderson (D-N.M.) obviously inspired by earlier testimony from AEC Commissioner Thomas E. Murray.

Murray on Nov. 6 told the committee it would be impossible to estimate the degree to which "top level commission attention has been diverted from its grave primary responsibilities by an issue only distantly related thereto" and asserted:

"I can assure you that the time spent on this highly controversial and political matter is increasing, neither our weapons know how nor our weapons production at time when this is of the utmost importance."

STRAUSS was called to the stand in what Chairman Cole (R-N.Y.) of the joint committee hoped would be the windup public session on the proposal to funnel private power into lines of the Tennessee Valley Authority as replacement for energy furnished to atomic installations.

The contrast with the private utility group was formally signed by the AEC yesterday with consent from Murray. He avoided full endorsement of the deal but said late changes in the government's favor had met some of his major objections and he now feels "it is in the public interest to sign it."

Strauss in today's hearing said "there never has been a degree of expansion in our production comparable to that which we are presently enjoying."

Six-Person Hot Check Ring Smashup Solves Local Case

ROSWELL — Smashing of a six-person check writing ring that had adapted the straight line that had produced idea to make a dollar grow where only a blank check grew before has been the latest big case of the Chaves county sheriff's office.

Checks were floated in both Artesia and Roswell.

The straight line idea on the check writing took two forms. One was for the group to write a check, others to pass it out; second, for one of the group to write part of the check, a second another section, and so on.

To Marvis Butts, Dexter marshal, goes credit for snaring four of those charged. He acted on a pick-up ordered by the sheriff's office here.

This information included a description of a 1939 Chevrolet coupe bearing NM license plates 4757.

However, it was found a switch had been made and a Texas tag, BB-1783 was on the car.

Deputy Jones said the Texas plates had been obtained from a junkyard in Lamesa.

Wilbur Davidson, 22, Roswell, was arrested in Dexter Nov. 8 by Butts.

Lois D. M. Davidson, 21, wife of Wilbur, was arrested at the same time, charged with forgery in connection with a check on the First National bank in Roswell. Edward Barnett, 28, Roswell, was arrested with the Davidsons.

Kenneth Jones, 26, Dexter, was taken into custody Nov. 4.

A 17-year-old Van Buren, Ark., girl was arrested along with the Davidsons.

Indian Scorns Bow-Arrow, Prefers Rifle

STRINGTOWN, Okla. — Turner Bear, full-blooded Creek Indian, bagged a 10-point, 124-pound buck deer near here yesterday.

Asked whether he used a bow and arrow, as many hunters are doing, or a rifle, he replied: "Indian use 30-30 rifle. Bow and arrow for white man."

Woman Dies In Wreckage Of Streamliner

NASHUA, N. H. — The crack Montreal-Boston overnight train Red Wing jumped the tracks just north of the Nashua station early today, killing one woman and injuring 19 persons.

Six sections of the train overturned and a mailcar was dented, its wheels in the air.

The dead woman was identified by police as Mrs. Mary Buckley, 47, of Manchester, N. H. Her body was trapped in the wreckage of one of the coaches.

The first of two diesel locomotives halted about 30 feet north of the station after ramming an express truck. The second diesel tipped over.

The coaches and baggage cars were scattered over the four lanes of tracks completely tying up traffic which had to be rerouted from Manchester, N. H., and Lawrence, Mass.

O. C. Hardy, New Hampshire superintendent of the Boston & Maine railroad, described the accident as a "general derailment."

Most of those taken to Memorial and St. Joseph's hospitals, suffered minor injuries. Among them was Katherine Buckley, 11, daughter of the dead woman.

The train crashed into two parked freight cars on a parallel track and pushed them through the wall of the Johns Manville Co. warehouse opposite the station.

The accident occurred at about 5:50 a. m. Arthur Furbush, 55, of Boxboro, Mass., a trainman, said: "I just stepped into the baggage car when it happened. We were rolling all around in there."

Mail clerk Lester Hyde of Medford, Mass., said: "There was an awful lot of noise. Five or six of us in the mail car were tossed around like tin pins. We were in the car for about a half hour before anyone could get to us."

Richard Stinchfield of Hudson, N. H., a Johns Manville employe, said: "I rushed from the building and saw the cars toppled over on the left side. There were screams from the inside of the cars. With a group of men I boarded the train and carried the victims out."

Conductor of the train was H. J. Sanborn of Lebanon, N. H. Samuel Burns, 62, of Saugus, Mass., was the engineer, and J. P. LaFlamme, 64, of Nashua, the fireman.

Carcass of Deer Found Abandoned in City Dump

The abandoned carcass of a doe deer was found in the city Artesia city dump by North Eddy County Game Protective Assn. officials this morning.

GPA Pres. Earl Bolden, protesting dumping of the deer carcass, declared "it's plain wastefulness."

Meanwhile, a state police officer stationed in Artesia said he had found the bodies of three does and a spike buck in the Sacramento mountains.

State Patrolman D. A. Bonine said probably the animals were wounded and died in the mountains. He also reported finding heads and skins of several animals left along the highways west of Artesia.

However, Patrolman Bonine said waste has not been as obvious in the Artesia area as in other parts of the state, reported yesterday by the Associated Press.

Bolden said this morning the doe probably weighed about 80 pounds. It was tagged and "in perfect condition when she was shot."

"We heard there was a bunch of deer out there," Bolden said, "but so far all we know about is one deer. A woman at the junk yard said there were several on which skinning had started, then stopped."

GPA officials in Artesia and throughout the state are being vigilant for further cases of game waste, Bolden said. "There's no (Continued on Page 4)

Game Protective Association Asks Hunter Education

ALBUQUERQUE — The New Mexico Game Protective Assn. today urged its local chapters to start a campaign of education for hunters to reduce heavy waste of slaughtered deer.

The campaign was prompted by the finding on Hobbs and Carlsbad dumps and elsewhere in the state the carcasses of abandoned bucks, does and fawn.

Roger Neill, GPA executive secretary, urged local GPA chapters to start program:

To urge hunters to become more thoroughly familiar with the proper methods of taking care of deer to prevent spoilage.

Not to bring their deer out tied on the car hood where heat from the motor is apt to spoil the meat.

If the hunter doesn't wish to keep the carcass "urge him to give it to some institution which can use it."

"To kill game and then discard it is a deliberate waste of good wildlife and certainly not the act of a real sportsman," Neill said.

"It is the job of the GPA to educate the uninformed, the indifferent and careless individual in the fundamental principles of conservation of our wildlife resources and true sportsmanship."

STATE POLICE officer A. J. Smith of Artesia inspects carcass of doe deer found in Artesia city dump. Only one carcass has been discovered at the Artesia dump so far, although several had been reported. (Advocate Photo)

Censure Panel Old Johnson Changes Views

WASHINGTON — McCarthy's censure developed in Senate today that Sen. Edwin C. Cannon (D-Colo.) once expressed himself as believing Brig. Gen. W. Zwickler was "evasive and arrogant."

Johnson replied he had since completely changed his mind.

Cannon is a member of the special committee which recommended censure of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) for alleged abuse of power.

Johnson said his view after Sen. Walker (R-Ill.) had read an Aug. 20, 1954, letter written by Johnson.

Johnson acknowledged that he was his and accurately reflected a view he held at the time Zwickler and some other military men were "evasive and arrogant" about having a congressional committee investigate military matters.

Johnson said his view as Zwickler was completely changed by Zwickler's testimony before a special Senate committee held hearings on proposed censure of McCarthy.

Malone (R-Nev.) earlier had the Senate he thought McCarthy had been made "the whipping boy in a move aimed 'to destroy investigative powers' of the state.

Malone was engaged at the time in a mild exchange with Republican Leader Knowland (Calif.) over Senate's working schedule.

Knowland said he would fight any curtailment of the Senate's investigating powers.

Chairman Watkins (R-Utah) and Case (R-SD) used Wednesday and Thursday this week in outlining their views as members of the committee.

Taking up the task today, Sen. Dennis (D-Miss.) said the censure recommendation stemmed from McCarthy's "attitude" of "moral contempt" of the Senate, and declared, "The attitude" continues to this very day."

Lighter Season in Duck Seen by Game Groups

Duck and goose season got off a start today at 12 noon, but in contrast to the heavy big game season, game officials expected a lighter duck season this year.

So far only 10,497 duck stamps were purchased, against 11,405 last year. The season will close Jan. 10. Game officials remind hunters they have to have the federal duck stamp as well as a New Mexico license this year.

The Artesia show will center around the Homecoming theme, featuring a tribute to returning alumni. During the middle of the show, Perry Zamwalt, student body president, will conduct coronation ceremonies for the 1954 Homecoming queen.

She will have been chosen from among four candidates by a vote of the entire student body. The candidates are Kay Ingram, DeWanna Berry, Jo Nunn and Annette Connor.

Roswell's band, under the direction of J. M. Ayres, will be sporting new uniforms tonight. Lack of uniforms has kept the ensemble off the football fields so far this year.

Eisenhower Will Seek Reelection, Newspaper Says

AKRON, Ohio — The Akron Beacon Journal said today President Eisenhower has promised Republican leaders to run for reelection in 1956.

This promise was made, said the newspaper, at a highly secret meeting at the White House shortly after the election. The article did not specify the date nor name any of the party leaders at this meeting.

Clyde Mann, political writer for the Beacon Journal, continued: "At the meeting, party leaders told the president the party would be without leadership if the president decided to retire."

"Party leaders attributed the GOP loss of the House and Senate to more than just the traditional off year election losses."

The story of this meeting, said Mann, was obtained from a person very close to the president.

Mann also stated that: "Several members of the president's personal staff will be replaced soon with persons skilled in the art of practical politics."

This definitely, however, will not include presidential assistant Sherman Adams, he wrote. Adams, he said, will continue on as an extremely important member of the President's advisory staff.

Fans Give Artesia Edge, Coaches Battle Confidence

While confidence in an Artesia victory over the Roswell Coyotes tonight is being heavily, not only in Artesia but in Roswell, the Bulldog grid squad is being told by its coaches today Roswell is an upset team which could very easily repeat its 1953 performance.

On the eve of the game, Coach Reese Smith pointed out "Roswell gears its strategy to the opponent it faces. They're undefeated so far this season because of that. Don't count Roswell out."

If he was hedging about Artesia's chances tonight, Smith could be confident that his Bulldog squad is in tip-top shape for what will be the deciding 2AA championship game tonight.

When the two clubs meet at 7:30 tonight at Morris Field, there will be no injuries to either the Bulldogs—or, for that matter, the Coyotes.

Artesia's sparkling backfield is at full strength, as is Roswell's. Both will go into tonight's contest outweighted. Artesia's line tonight will average 100 pounds against 173 for the Bulldogs, on the basis of program statistics.

The backfields will check in at 100 pounds average for Artesia, and 173 for Roswell, a development which is used to and doesn't care for the least bit.

Artesia wins tonight it takes the 2AA title. If it loses, Roswell still must defeat Carlsbad. Development of mos afns consider highly unlikely as a Coyote victory tonight.

Conversation both in Artesia and Roswell gives the Bulldogs a 12-0 lead going into tonight's contest. Both teams are undefeated in the district.

Artesia has eight victories in the district. Roswell has been defeated by a strong Kermit team in out-of-state play.

Statistically, Artesia is the more progressive team. While Roswell has averaged 143 yards rushing in its district games to date, the Bulldogs have piled up a 264 average. Roswell has a total of 1,145 rushing yards, 2,111.

Coach Smith in mapping out tonight's strategy simply says that they step us on the ground. He'll take to the air. The aerial game, good for two touchdowns against Carlsbad last week, may be the answer, for Roswell has been unable to stop only half its opponents' aerial attempts.

Star quarterback Johnny Riddle, despite a flipper in the face which lacerated his nose and de-capped his teeth during the Carlsbad game, is ready to go tonight, as is the rest of the star Artesia backfield—speedy Freddy Sanders and Leo Barker, and workhorse breakaway specialist Don Lewis.

It is probable Artesia may be able to concentrate on stopping Roswell's Sherman. Sherman, who teamed with Loyd Taylor last year to whip Artesia's ears, also critical contest.

After tonight's game Artesia has to face Carlsbad, while Roswell competes with Carlsbad to win the district 2AA race. If Artesia wins tonight and next week, it will undoubtedly be matched with Albuquerque Highlands in Thanksgiving Day state championship game.

Pioneers Slightly Favored to Whip Utah in Skyline

DENVER — The Utah Aggies take a crack tomorrow at the Pioneer Pioneers, rolling toward their first undisputed Skyline conference football championship after finishing last in 1953.

Beaten only by Wyoming in night games, the Pioneers are favorites to whip the Aggies, but the Denver offensive is sure to miss quarterback Rusty Logan, sidelined by injuries.

Wyoming's Cowboys, beaten only once and still in the running for the championship, close out their campaign against Brigham Young University at Provo, Utah. The Cowboys are heavy favorites to whip the Cougars but Wyoming can't win the title unless Denver wins to Utah State or Colorado A&M, the Pioneers' last opponent.

Colorado A&M, gaining each week under the guidance of quarterback Gary Glick, bumps into the husky New Mexico defense at Albuquerque in the only other game in action. Glick's place-kicking has been the climatic factor in A&M's last two victories over Montana and Utah.

Utah's Redskins, dethroned after three years as kings of the Skyline, try to salvage a disappointing season by conquering Colorado of the Big Seven in a conference game at Salt Lake City.

A similar non-league rivalry matches Montana of the Skyline against Montana State, undefeated champion of the Rocky Mountain conference.

Coyotes Don't Have Four-Quarter Gumption

By EVAN MAHANEY
Friend Buck Lanier from Roswell seems to think, at least in public, his pampered Coyotes will whip the Bulldogs but good tonight. It's going to be a good game, but we seriously doubt if the Coyotes have enough gumption to play four good quarters of ball, as the Bulldogs can.

From all indications, the Roswell boys play just good enough to get by their opponents—a kinda "hot and cold" team which lets down when it gets in the lead.

The Bulldogs, on the other hand play hard, fast ball from the starting kick to the finishing gun. They never let up, no matter what the score may be—or in what direction. This one quality, we feel, has been the deciding factor in many of Artesia's past games, especially Carlsbad, and will be the deciding feature in future ones.

SUPERINTENDENT of Schools Vernon Mills wrote a letter to John Alexander yesterday, thanking him for the way he and the Current-Argus handled publicity on the Carlsbad-Artesia football game.

Mills said he hopes the spirit of friendliness will continue to grow between the two rival towns. "Rivalry and competition, under the proper feeling, can be a healthy thing for both schools," Mills said.

Vernon said some of the boys in the vocational shop at high school have been thinking about building a "fierce looking" replica of a pre-historic Caveman, to present to the Carlsbad student body for their trophy case next year.

Rest of New Mexico Eyes Roswell-Artesia Game As Top Contest; Highland Whips Santa Fe

By ROBERT GREEN
AP Sports Writer

Roswell and Artesia swagger to the center of the New Mexico high school football stage tonight while Highland and Las Cruces still era listening to the echoes of applause for their shows.

Artesia, unbeaten in New Mexico and currently leading the rugged district 2AA race, puts its hopes for a district title on the line tonight against the defending state champs, Roswell, though unbeaten in eight starts this season, is a very slight underdog as it goes into what may be its toughest game of the season.

In Veterans Day games yesterday, Highland tightened its iron grip on first place in the District IAA standings with a 19-6 victory over Santa Fe. Highland rolled up a big statistical edge and held the Demons down until the last minute of play in taking the decision.

Las Cruces chalked up its first league victory of the season against winless Valley of Albuquerque. The southern Bulldogs romped to a 32-0 edge though surprising Valley held them to 7-0 at the half. That leaves Valley alone in the district cellar, winless in six league starts, while Las Cruces moves up to sixth place.

Tonight, while Artesia and Roswell bang heads in the high school game of the week in Artesia, one school will tie down the first state championship of the season.

Tularosa and Central of Kirtland tangle in Tularosa for the Class C state title. Each got semi-final playoff victories last week. In Albuquerque, the attention-getter will be the Albuquerque-Farmington IAA battle. The home-standing Bulldogs rate mild favorites to knock off the Scorpions and enter a tie for second place in the district standings with St. Mary's.

St. Mary's, meanwhile, will go to Belen for a non-district game. At Hobbs, Carlsbad will attempt to gain back some lost prestige against the hapless Eagles. Carlsbad fell into third place in the loop standings last week following their one-point loss to Artesia.

Otherwise on the fight slate, Deming visits Socorro. Lovington tries New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell and Fort Wingate travels to Gallup.

The Lovington-NMMI clash is down as a District 4A game, but Lovington already has cinched the district title.

Another A conference title-holder was in action yesterday, and had to go the limit in taking a District 2A victory. Champion Raton was trailing 6-0 at the half before getting organized for a three-touchdown push in the last half that brought them a 20-6 victory over Clayton.

Los Alamos staved off a last quarter rally and capitalized on conversion in taking a 34-31 cross-district battle from Espanola while Tucumcari needed a third-quarter push to get a 12-6 victory over little Santa Rosa.

Halfback Charlie Pettes was the big gun in Las Cruces' victory, striking twice for touchdowns and leading the attack that rolled up 415 yards on the ground.

Russians Pick Up Olympic Strength, Official Reports

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK — An all-out effort and the sternest possible competition will be necessary if the U. S. hopes to match the powerful Russians in the 1956 Olympics, says a veteran official who has seen Soviets in recent action.

"The Russians claim to have seven million registered athletes and from that number they're bound to have a great number of exceptional athletes," said Dan Ferris.

"The gray-haired executive secretary of the AAU saw the tremendous job the Russians did in Helsinki in 1952 and witnessed their performances in Switzerland last summer.

"The Russians are building up in every sport," he said in an interview. "We must have competition and more competition," replied Ferris. "We must have more summer competition in every sport, particularly in track and field. We hope to get the program rolling next summer and follow it up in 1956 the year of the games."

Arkansas, SMU to Choose Southwest Loop Leader

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
The Associated Press

Arkansas and Southern Methodist capsule their season into one big game Saturday and from their conference football leader.

An outright championship and the Cotton Bowl cash will go to Arkansas if it can beat SMU for the first time in eight years. A strong leg on the title will go to Southern Methodist if it can remove Arkansas from the nation's undefeated, untied class.

Arkansas for one of its infrequent times is favored to win and close out the championship race with a perfect record.

This game is the only one meaning anything for the day in the Southwest conference, but two other contests matching bitter foes are on the schedule. At Fort Worth, Texas Christian seeks to defeat its old enemy, Texas, after a 4-year drought. At College Station, Texas A&M hopes to finally "beat somebody" as it clashes with Rice.

can topple Arkansas. Only in that way can Baylor hope for a share of the championship.

Crowds totaling more than 90,000 will see the three games with the best turnout at Fort Worth where 30,000 are expected to watch the TCU-Texas melee. Up at Fayetteville, where Arkansas and Southern Methodist have their showdown, there will be about 27,000—that's all that can get into the stadium. College Station looks for 25,000.

Arkansas has only to tie SMU to sack up the championship and make plans to visit the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1. SMU, which is a half game behind because of a 13-13 tie with Texas last week, can take over the leadership by licking the Razorbacks. Then the Methodists would have Baylor and Texas Christian to beat to win the championship. But should Baylor finish undefeated in its remaining games—with SMU and Rice—the Bears would tie Arkansas for the title. Arkansas still would be in the Cotton Bowl, however, since the Razorbacks beat Baylor in regular season play.

Stockton Spends $1,219 to Seek Governor Office

SANTA FE, (AP)—A GOP source says Alvin Stockton spent $1,219.20 in his campaign for election as governor of New Mexico. The amount included $1,000 as a contribution to the Republican state central committee, the balance for long distance calls. The expense report had not yet been filed with the secretary of state's office this morning. It did not include travel expenses.

A meeting of the GPA Thursday Dec. 2, will discuss the matter and may launch a program to educate hunters. Boulden said. "It's up to organizations like ours to stop this kind of waste," Boulden declared. "We're going to continue to check dumps and roads to see if we can find out who does this kind of thing," Boulden said. "There is no excuse for such waste of our natural resources and game. It is uncalled for and unportsmanlike." "If hunters don't need the deer meat, there are several institutions which can make good use of it—for instance, our own hospital out here would be helped out, and the welfare office certainly knows families which can make good use of deer meat." "Like the fellow said at Hobbs, it would be better to feed deer meat to dogs than let it go to waste."

Premier Fail to Get Socialist in Coalition

PARIS — (AP) — Premier Pierre Mendes-France's bid to enroll the Socialist party in his coalition government appeared today to have failed. A party convention decided last night that six Socialists invited to take Cabinet posts should refuse unless the government accepts the party's basic program. It seemed unlikely that the Premier would agree to such terms since he has refused to bind his coalition government to any single party program. Earlier, the Socialists voted 2,817,454 to support the London and Paris accords to rearm a sovereign West Germany within the Western defense alliance. Ninety-three delegates abstained.

President Eisenhower has said since the election that he will seek a bi-partisan development of foreign policy and will consult with Democratic leaders. The Democrats likewise have been talking about cooperation in this field. Dulles and former Secretary of State Cordell Hull helped lay the basis of bipartisanship in 1944 with an agreement to keep the United Nations issue out of heated political debate in that year's presidential election. Dulles was a national figure in the field of foreign policy for years prior to that.

How to Get More Cash, Lower Taxes?

MAYOR W. H. "BILL" YEAGER presented to city council Wednesday night for their study a plan under which taxes for the operation of the city government could be assessed over and above the 20-mill limit now set by New Mexico law. In presenting the tax plan to the city council, Mayor Yeager urged the council's favorable consideration because the city, like all others in the state which are growing, is over the barrel on its financing.

Its citizens demand services on the one hand, but protest tax increases on the other hand. By the time you get together a few of the many proposals for which, their backers argue, there is surely a little money tucked away in some corner of the city cash register, you have sizeable financial demands. If the cities of New Mexico have been hard-pressed financially, consider the schools. Artesia has voted its bond limit every time it has had the chance since the war's end, and its physical plant is still short of today's need for school housing. However, state law preventing schools from assessing a figure over 6 per cent of the district's assessed valuation keeps the schools in the hot spot they are. Consequently they are always behind.

City government in Artesia is now largely financed through income from the city-operated water and sewer system, the largest single source of income available to it. It also derives income from parking meters, occupation tax, gasoline tax, and other sources.

The city's growth has made it difficult to keep spending within the limits of income, for utilities and services are constantly demanding expansion if the city is not to woefully lag behind.

While proponents of the property tax increase argue for an additional 20-mill levy, Mayor Yeager points out Artesia would not need more than 2 to 5 per cent.

If anything, the schools are in even worse shape than the city, for the schools have no other source of revenue than taxes, while the city does have goods and services for sale, as well as taxing power.

The problem of financing these governmental agencies is fierce. Neither, in the opinion of most people, is spendthrift. The schools have built structures without ornamental frills, at a cost which probably is something of a record low for schools in the state's larger cities.

On the other hand, there are few people who would welcome tax increases, or be able to see how indeed they are justified. While on one has proposed a tax increase of large proportions, it is the multitude of small taxes which combine into the individual's whopping tax bill, most of it paid through "hidden" levies.

School and city officials will have to do a large-scale sales job if they would have additional taxes. The public is resistant to increases, as well it should be.

New Fords Are Put on Display in City Today

Ford will introduce an entirely new line—the high-styled Fairlane series—as the leader of its four lines of 1955 passenger cars to be shown at Artesia Auto Company today. Modern styling inspired by Ford's new Thunderbird personal car distinguishes the new Fords. Retaining definite characteristics which have won Ford style leadership, the 1955 Fords also have a wrap-around windshield and a new, lower silhouette. The Crown Victoria—a new model—is the first Ford sedan under five feet in overall height.

Ford, which offered the first V-8 engine in the low price field in 1932 and has built 14 million V-8s since, introduces for the first time three new engines:

A high compression Y-block V-8 engine of 272 cubic inch displacement and an 8.5 to 1 compression ratio.

A powerful V-block V-8 engine of 272 cubic inch displacement and a 7.5 to 1 compression ratio.

An improved 6 cylinder I-block engine of 223 cubic inch displacement and a 7.5 to 1 compression ratio.

Dual exhausts, which provide extra power, are standard on all Fairlane V-8 and station wagon models.

Ford's new high compression engine available only with Fordomatic transmission in the Fairlane series, has a four-barrel carburetor with automatic choke and special intake manifold; special vacuum controlled distributor; high compression cylinder heads and high capacity radiator. Ford's popular V-8 and 6 cylinder engines are available with any of the 16 Ford models for 1955.

JUNIOR HIGH—Daugherty Named to Position

John Daugherty, Junior high faculty, has been appointed assistant principal of Artesia Junior high school. Daugherty, a graduate of Eastern New Mexico university at Portales, has been in the Artesia school system 3 1/2 years. He is married to Betty Cyfert Daugherty and is the father of two small children, Debbie and Johnny.

Eddie Motter, a blind gymnast, will play at the National Assembly at the Junior high school Nov. 16 at 9 a. m. Motter has a program and a message which should interest every boy and girl.

The Junior High Hornet band will play at the Home and Ranch show Nov. 18, at 7:30 p. m., at the Joe Mitchell and Son Farm Machinery company.

Hornet band members were measured for their new band uniforms this week. The uniforms, royal blue and gold, will arrive in February in time for the Music Festival.

Six-weeks tests will be given at the Junior high school next week Nov. 16 and 17. Don Riddle, principal, urges all students to be present for the tests.

An audio test and health appraisal is being given students in the seventh grade under the direction of Mrs. Holly Oberleas, school nurse.

No Injuries Are Reported in Two One-Car Wrecks

Two one-car accidents with no reported injuries have been reported to state police, both taking place near Hope.

John Summers, 21, Dallas, Texas, drove his car off a washed-out bridge one mile south of Hope late last night. According to state police, he failed to see the detour sign. The car fell approximately 15 feet, landing on its nose, then turning upright.

Summers was not injured, nor was his companion, Louise Poff of Portales. Police said extensive damage was reported to his car.

Harry Wilson of Artesia, 15 miles west of Hope, had a blow-out on a front tire in his pickup truck. Wilson told police he turned over once, but received no injuries from the accident. A complete report on the accident has not yet been made.

Both men had been deer hunting police said.

Vermont Woman Widowed Second Time By Crash

WINOOSKI, Vt. (AP)—Mrs. Shannon Smith, mother of two small children, has been widowed by the second time in 10 years.

Her husband, Capt. Mahlon A. Smith II, 30, Sioux City, Iowa, was killed yesterday when he veered his Sabrajel plane onto a field to avoid landing in a thickly populated area.

In 1944, Mrs. Smith's first husband, Lt. "Ish" Abbott, disappeared in Florida while piloting a plane on a training flight.

Toynbee Predicts No War Between Russia, America

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — British historian Arnold J. Toynbee does not expect a third world war involving the United States and Soviet Russia. The research professor in international history at the University of London said in an interview last night that he looks for the present "cold war" between the West and Russia to continue "for a long time" with no "sensational ending."

Toynbee, here to address the autumn meeting of the American Philosophical Society, said, "We ought not be frightened by the competition. We ought to persuade the world that the West is better."

Premier Fail to Get Socialist in Coalition

PARIS — (AP) — Premier Pierre Mendes-France's bid to enroll the Socialist party in his coalition government appeared today to have failed.

A party convention decided last night that six Socialists invited to take Cabinet posts should refuse unless the government accepts the party's basic program. It seemed unlikely that the Premier would agree to such terms since he has refused to bind his coalition government to any single party program.

Earlier, the Socialists voted 2,817,454 to support the London and Paris accords to rearm a sovereign West Germany within the Western defense alliance. Ninety-three delegates abstained.

The overwhelming favorable vote made it possible for Mendes-France to virtually assure American officials the French National Assembly will ratify the pact. The Premier leaves for Washington tomorrow on a state visit.

On the question of taking part in the government, the Socialists voted 1,775 for participation on their own terms to 1,091 for participation with no strings attached. There were 498 votes against joining the Cabinet under any conditions.

The Socialist program calls for an increase in minimum wages, reduction of indirect taxes on basic consumer goods, more public works and withdrawal of state aid to church institutions.

Oldtime Artesia Family Has First Meeting in 38 Years

A longtime Artesia family which had not been together in 38 years met this week at the Tom W. Heflin home, 901 Main.

Guests in the Heflin home this week were his brother, R. W. Heflin of Benton, Calif., and his sister, Mrs. U. B. Jones, of Nevada, Mo.

The Heflins had come to Artesia in 1902 in a covered wagon from Seguin, Texas. They recall Artesia then had yet to build its first school.

While the two brothers and a sister have visited one another through the years since R. W. Heflin and Mrs. Jones left the city about 35 years ago, all three had not been together since before 1920.

Mrs. Jones recalls she could not go to school in Artesia, and Tom Heflin remembers his first year in school here was in a one-room building.

R. W. Heflin is now maintenance superintendent for a district of the California highway department in the eastern part of the state. Tom Heflin is a widely-known local contractor.

R. W. Heflin left the city this morning. Mrs. Jones will stay in Artesia for a few days' further visit.

Earthquake Hits California, Panic Reported

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A sharp, rolling earthquake shook this city at 4:26 a. m. today.

It made houses creak and started suspended objects swinging, but there were no reports of damage.

Fred S. Robinson, amateur seismologist, rated its intensity at 6.0 on the Mercalli scale which ranges up to a maximum of 12.

Robinson said the tremors started at 4:26:51 and lasted five or six minutes. He estimated the jolt's center at about 70 miles southeast of here. That would put it in a sparsely settled area below the California border in Lower California.

The seismologist said he thought the quake could have caused damage at or near its center.

He described its motion as rolling north and south at the start, then moving into a complete roll in all directions.

Awakened residents swamped newspapers and police switchboards with inquiries. Robinson said some who called him sounded panicky.

The quake was felt at El Centro, approximately 110 miles east of here, but likewise without report of damage.

When I survey the wondrous cross
 On which the Prince of glory died,
 My richest gain I count but loss,
 And pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it Lord, that I should boast
 Save in the death of Christ, my Lord;
 All the vain things that charm me most,
 I sacrifice them to His blood.

See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
 Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
 Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
 Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
 That were a present far too small;
 Love so amazing, so divine,
 Demands my soul, my life, my all.
