

This Is Artesia

Rain didn't dampen the kids' enthusiasm this morning but it certainly played hobs with the booth vendors along Main street. But who can complain about water in this state?

Chisum Dedication Lauds Past

Queens Sever Ribbons and Open Highway

The dedication today of the Chisum Trail, major Golden Jubilee event in significance, looked not only backward into pioneer days of legend, but forward into an expanding period in perfecting the region's communication network. The historic rite was struck by Tom Brown, Sr., chairman of the dedication, when he recounted how a John Chisum herd had passed over this very spot where we now stand about this time of year just 88 years ago. The forward-looking vista was opened by State Highway Commissioner Eber McKinley, of Alamogordo, who announced that two contracts for highway construction important to the Artesia area had been advertised only today. They are the Maljamar-Caprock road and a 5-mile stretch, including a new bridge over the Penasco, near Dunkin.

McKinley said also that he feels sure that modernization of the road between Alamogordo and Artesia can be accomplished within the next two years because "a lot of money will be spent on the stretch between Mayhill and Elk this fall and more later on other sections." In his remarks, Chairman Brown paid tribute to the Old Timers whose "efforts in developing this area make possible our dedication of this fine highway today." Tribute to the newly completed $500,000 urban project also was paid by Mayor W. H. Yeager, who characterized it as another step in making Artesia the "finest city in New Mexico." Wet Streets Fail To Halt Happy Children's Parade

Undaunted by wet streets and drizzling skies, Artesia boys and girls gleefully rode, strode and bicycled in the Kids Parade today. Enthusiasm made up for what the parade lacked in length and panoply. The kids splashed through the puddles with the ready joy of childhood, broke ranks to yell at their parents and friends, hopped and jumped to catch up again. Clearing the way was a police car, its siren going, and after that came the gay-colored little Santa Fe miniature train, bell ringing cheerily. The famous train, consisting of locomotive, refrigerator car, box car, cattle car, flat car and caboose, was a favorite with the spectators. Winners were announced in four divisions. Prizes were $15 for first, $10 for second and $5 for third. In cases where a team won, the prize will be equally divided. (Continued on Page Four)

'Scene Of Carnage' Truck, Car Collision Fatal To Six

CLINES CORNERS — A grinding crash between a huge truck and a Louisiana car yesterday took six lives creating a "scene of carnage" as the truck rolled over the car. State police said parts of bodies and wreckage were spread over the highway and it took hours to identify the victims. The smashup raised the toll for the year on New Mexico's bloody highways to 197 compared with 200 at this time last year. Alarmed at the rapid rise, only this week New Mexico officials had promised a stringent crackdown on the highways.

At Least 19 Die as Blast Rips Apart Ohio Restaurant

ANDOVER, Ohio — A roaring blast and swirling flames tore a path of death last night through a row of buildings on the village square. Many of the victims had taken refuge there from a storm. There were 19 bodies accounted for, most of them in a makeshift morgue inside a garage three blocks away. The injured numbered at least 18. In the confusion, there were reports of at least 2 persons missing.

Badger Burden Takes Top Cash As Bronc Rider

An atomic bomb on four feet by the name of Red River exploded with all the sun-dodging, corkscrewing tricks under his big brown hide at the V-J Day rodeo's opening performance last night. But Badger Burden of Roswell clung to the saddle like a cockle-burr on a horse's tail and won first money in the saddle bronc riding contest. Bucking horse devility and the orneriness of Braham bulls contrasted with the beauty and grace of the ceremony in which Terry Jane Gray, 16, was crowned Rodeo Queen of 1955. Second place in saddle bronc riding was won by Jim Vandagriff of Artesia. Other first night results: Calf Roping 1—Charlie Taylor, Artesia, time :12.7. 2—Jack Strickland, Odessa, Tex. Morgan, pastor of the church will be in charge of the services. Mrs. Bynum died at her home, 608 W. Missouri, where she has lived for 33 years. She had 23 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. Burial arrangements are under the direction of the Paulin Funeral Home. Interment will be at Woodbine cemetery.

Donald R. Quarles Named USAF Chief

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower today named Donald A. Quarles—top man in the earth satellite project—as the new secretary of the Air Force. Quarles is now assistant secretary of defense for research and development. He is 61, a native of Van Buren, Ark., and more recently a resident of Englewood, N. J. He is a Republican. Quarles will succeed Harold Talbott who resigned Aug. 1, effective this Saturday, after the Senate Investigations subcommittee publicly explored Talbott's outside business interests and raised a question of ethics. The appointment will be subject to Senate confirmation when Congress reconvenes in January. White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Quarles was recommended to Eisenhower by Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson.

Tragedy Is 4th Worst in Air History

STUTTGART, Germany (AP)—Two C-119 Flying Boxcar transports collided and crashed into the Black Forest today. The U. S. Air Force announced 66 men were killed.

The Air Force said the death toll included the crews of the two American aircraft as well as soldiers being transported. The Flying Boxcars have a normal seating capacity of 87, with a maximum capacity of 78. The planes were two of a nine-plane flight which had just taken off from Echterdingen field, near here on a training mission with troops from the U. S. 7th Army. The Air Force announcement said: "Initial reports said that one plane went down immediately. The second plane flew level for almost one minute, then went out of control and nosed into the ground." The announced death toll would make this the fourth worst air disaster in history. A total of 129 U. S. servicemen died in the flaming wreckage of a C124 Globemaster near Tokyo in 1953. In 1952 another C124 crashed on taking off from Larson Air Force Base in Washington state, killing 87. In 1950 a commercial plane carrying soccer fans crashed at Cardiff, Wales, with a death toll of 80 persons. Today's was West Germany's biggest postwar air disaster and also the biggest military death toll in an air crash in Western Europe. The Air Force said today's crash occurred less than 15 minutes after takeoff.

Seven Artesia Area 4-H'ers Win in Final State Trials

LAS CRUCES (AP)—Youths from 4-H clubs in all areas of the state competed in final rounds today at the 31st annual New Mexico 4-H Club encampment. State winners in the various contests will be selected tomorrow. Local winners in contests yesterday were presented with blue, red or white ribbons. Among contests judged were crop judging, food demonstration, grass judging, home economic judging, livestock demonstrations, poultry and rabbit demonstrations, public speaking, talent contest and tractor operators contest. Blue ribbons are tops, red second and white third. Grass judging contest blue ribbons went to Freddie Crawford of Lake Arthur and the Home Economics judging contest was taken by Marion Simmons, Donna Hand, and Arlene Yarbrough of Artesia, team of Joyce Duncan. Tractor operators contest, blue ribbon, Donald Jones, Artesia; white ribbon, team of Stanley Rogers, Artesia. (Continued on Page Four)

JUBILEE JAMBALAYA

To illustrate the pull of Artesia memories on those who have ever lived here, take the case of Emmett Klopfenstein. He came here with his family in 1905 but left for Los Angeles in 1922 to accept an important post with a contracting firm. Recently he had been on vacation in Pennsylvania. Hearing about the Golden Jubilee while en route back to California, he changed routes and drove far out of his way to be here for the celebration. (Continued on Page Four)

Furious Winds Whip Eastern Coast in Advance of Storm

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—Towering waves and furious winds slammed into the Carolina coast today as hurricane Connie edged ominously toward the mainland. Tree limbs, shingles and other debris flew through the aid of winds of 80 miles an hour and higher whipped through exposed resort areas. The dangerous storm which threatened a vast stretch of the seaboard from Georgetown, S. C., north, was piling up sand and water in the streets of some North Carolina beach towns. Most vacationers and many permanent residents had sought shelter inland. Hardly Stand Up "It's blowing so hard you can hardly stand up," Police Chief M. E. Williamson reported from Wrightsville Beach, east of Wilmington. The tide at Swansboro, north of here and near Jacksonville, was reported higher than it was during the same stage of hurricane Hazel. Communication lines were going out in many areas feeling the force of Connie's extended outer gales. A fishing pier on the north end of Wrightsville Beach, which was destroyed by Hazel and rebuilt, reportedly was swept away again. New England was told, meanwhile, it could relax. The Boston Weather Bureau announced Connie "no longer appears to threaten the New England area." A special bulletin said the hurricane was not likely to threaten that region within the next 36 hours. Small craft were told they could resume normal operations. 75 Miles An Hour By 8 a.m. winds were near hurricane force of 75 miles an hour near Cape Fear, some 30 miles south of this port city. The eye crept along at about five to seven miles an hour toward the northwest. A long stretch of coastline from Georgetown, S. C., to Cape Lookout, N. C., braced for the mounting fury of the storm. Connie still threatened the whole Eastern Seaboard from Savannah to Block Island, R. I.

Fashions Turn Back Half Century Here In Jubilee Events

Fashion went back half a century at Central Park yesterday. The Jubilee queen candidates set the style of the day, with the winner, Mrs. Mary Gilbert wearing an Old-Timer's wedding dress of white and a big hat with plumes. She has a secret. The Old-Timer whose wedding dress she wore was more willing to lend it than to tell that she did.

Mrs. Nora B. Clayton, Mrs. Harry Carder, Mrs. Vena Newman and Mrs. W. T. Amstutz, the other candidates in the Story League Contest, sat on the stage at the park in their best 1900 attire.

After the ceremony they were assisted down in the manner of the Gay 90's by gentlemen standing by, for fear they might tear their best Sunday dresses or get them spoiled by threatening rain it was announced by Dave Button of KSPV. They mingled in the crowd and settled themselves in comfortable chairs to be honored and admired not far from the wishing well.

Others in the crowd who were in the height of fashion were Mrs. Shirley Hager and Mrs. Beatrice Blocker.

Seen wandering around under the trees talking to Old-Timers were Mrs. Taylor Ross and her husband who came to Artesia in 1902. She wore a printed calico and a big hat. The dress was made, she said, with her own hands for this celebration and she made it partly by pattern and partly by guess.

Mrs. A. E. Jernigan, who was born here in 1907, wore the gold badge of Host pinned on a dark blue satin gown, high-topped laced shoes borrowed from Mrs. Robert Cole, and a blue hat with red plumes. The dress had a lace yoke and high lace collar. Her father came to Black River from Texas in 1884.

Mrs. Landis Feather, another of the host committee wore a red and blue flowered chais that she made for the Golden Jubilee. But in her hand she carried a fan that was her grandmother's.

Mrs. Charles Bullock was attired in a white dress that was worn by Mrs. Bunch at her wedding in 1910. It was made of white batiste with embroidered insertion and pink satin bows, and dozens of tucks with a lace ruffle at the neck. It was in perfect condition and the best style of the day. Mrs. Bullock comes from the Hillary White family who arrived in Hope in the year 1892.

Mrs. Alec McGonagill wore a beautiful white handkerchief linen trimmed with lace and embroidery that she borrowed from a neighbor. They came to the Pecos Valley in 1902 and still live on the same ranch.

Mrs. John Boren, wife of Boren who operates the Sanitary Barber Shop, was seen on the sidewalks of Old Artesia yesterday wearing a black dress that is perhaps 75 years old.

The gold watch and chain attracted attention to her costume and made it in perfect style for the gay 90's. And the watch still runs, she said, fingering it as it was fastened to the left side of her basque waist, and the chain dangled in a loop.

To top off the black, wasp-like waist and long skirt of the black dress and gold watch, Mrs. Boren wore a small hat tied on with a veil. She wasn't afraid the wind would blow her hat away.

The entire wardrobe belonged to Walter Stolt's mother, and he thinks that she wore it when she was a young married woman, slim of figure. His mother has been dead many years, but his wife thinks the outfit may have been fashionable 75 years ago.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Puerifoy of Bryan, Texas, are here visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Terry and other relatives. Mrs. Puerifoy is a niece of Terry.

Mrs. Marie Weska and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Steve Weske left El Paso Tuesday by plane for their homes. Mrs. Weske returned to Los Angeles. She had been here visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Terry and her brothers, The Savoies. Mrs. Weske had been to Hobbs to visit her mother, and returned to her home in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Temple E. Wallace, former Artesians, were in town Wednesday renewing acquaintances. They opened the Southwest Relay Co. with Friend Burham. For the past three years they have been in Argentine, and have returned to the states awaiting a new assignment.

Clyde Dunn and son, Mike, of Bellflowers, Calif., arrived Sunday, coming to attend funeral services for his grandfather, Preston Dunn. He will spend a week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Dunn. ## Scores of Former Artesia Residents Back In City to Take Part in Jubilee Festivities

"For old acquaintance sake" a large number of former Artesians from a distance are here to participate in the two-day event.

One of the oldest men and certainly the one who came the longest distance is an 82-year-old man who came from St. Petersburg, Fla., and did all the driving alone. G. W. Berkier, who first came to the valley in 1902, was so intent on talking to his relatives and friends at Central Park that he failed to take the prize for coming the longest distance.

Brookshier is the father of Mrs. Nevil Muney.

Martha Harrison who came to the Pecos Valley in a covered wagon with her family in 1903 returned from her present home in Springdale, Ark., for the Golden Jubilee. She is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Abe Conner, Mrs. Nora Conner and Mrs. Naylor; her two brothers, Fred and Will Henderson.

Mrs. Bertha Richards Johns, her daughter, Joyce, and sister, Velma Spivey, came all the way from San Jose, Calif. They are house guests of Mrs. Russell Hill, and all three women are daughters of the late J. O. Richards, older brother of Albert Richards.

The Richards family came to the valley before these women were born.

Ruth Brainard, now of Roswell, was seen in the park yesterday and she claims to be a graduate of the first four-year class in Artesia, graduating in 1909.

There was another woman standing near her who had a record that beat that, Betty Chisholm Daugherty, Abilene, was the first high school graduate in 1905 or 1906.

Lois Chisholm, El Paso, Texas, a sister of Mrs. Betty Chisholm Daugherty, said she graduated from the Artesia high school in 1918. Louise Daugherty of Abilene, Texas, came with her mother and said that the Old Timers she had heard so much about were made more real to her yesterday.

They are visiting Mrs. J. C. Floore, a former neighbor and friend. The Floores came to Artesia in 1913.

Later in the day, former Artesians who have more recently moved to Carlsbad, came into the Advocate office, and asked for a Jubilee edition.

Among the group from Carlsbad was George Gage who was born in Hope in 1893 and spent anywhere between 35 to 38 years here, 28 of them on the highway. He is with the Carlsbad Chemical Potash Co. now.

Big Spring Errors Give NuMexers Head Start On 8-5 Win

Jordan's Two Homers Tally Victory Edge

The NuMexers capitalized on the Big Spring errors in the first three innings last night to turn an otherwise even ball game into a victory.

Three runs materialized from a pair of Big Spring first-inning errors. The missplays negated the pitching job of Newberry for visitors. He did not allow a strikeout and struck out nine.

He went all the way on the field for Artesia. He walked and tallied eight strikeouts.

He came from Jordan's bat. He had two homers, one in the sixth and one man on and the other in the eighth with none on. He was aided with three RBIs and a single. Coscia hit three singles in Artesia in four times up.

He was the Big Spring catcher. He was in the fourth with two on and got a double and four runs. Last night was the last home of the NuMexers until Aug. 14.

Final Plans Made For Horse Show

SANTA FE, (AP)—Final preparations for the Santa Fe Horse Show Friday through Sunday, are being completed.

Hunters, jumpers, Arabians, quarter horses, Tennessee walkers, American saddle bred and thoroughbred horses are entered in the show. It is billed as one of the biggest outdoor horse shows in the Southwest.

Advance ticket sales indicate a record-breaking attendance, Russell Lloyd, ticket sales chairman, said. The show will be held at the Santa Fe rodeo arena.

Coach Smith Bemoans Loss Of 17 From Champion Squad

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Some indecision appeared evident at the Albuquerque coaching school as to who will be the next head of the New Mexico High School Coaches Assn.

A nominating committee already has selected a man from the board of directors as its choice for the presidency next year. Members of the committee were reluctant to name their choice and there was talk that "there may be a change" in the nomination today.

There is, of course, always the possibility that nominations for the top spot will be made from the floor when elections are held Saturday, as a part of the week-long coaching school.

Dewey Johnson of Roswell, this year's president of the association, professes not to be interested in a second term.

"We try to pass these things around on a rotation basis," he says, adding "Look, this is a tough job. A guy can work his tail off very easily."

Making a pretense of dragging out the proverbial crying towel, Coach Reese Smith of Artesia High School, says he cannot be considered as a contender in New Mexico high school football circles this fall.

"And I can give you 17 good reasons why," Smith says.

He explains that he lost 17 members of his district champion squad of last year and has only one starter returning to the fold when practices start next week.

Smith is not completely despondent, however, and says that two years from now he expects Artesia to be back in the running with the possibility of a surprise or two before that time.

The shadow of last year's disciplinary action against the Clovis football team continues to be a topic of discussion at the coaching school.

There is pro and con discussion, of course.

Clovis Coach Phil Harmon has adopted a philosophic attitude toward the whole proceedings, saying "perhaps it was all for the best in the long run."

Harmon bemoans the action which took his team out of competitive running, however, describing last year's team as "the dream team of a coach's lifetime."

He says within two or three years he hopes to approach that standard again.

Top Spot Crowded In WT-NM Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The West Texas - New Mexico League is getting a little crowded at the top of the standings.

Amarillo Wednesday night barged into a tie with Albuquerque for the No. 1 spot while Pampa, in third place, was just one game back of the co-leaders.

Amarillo got into the first place tie by beating El Paso 11-7 while Albuquerque was taking a 6-3 drubbing from Clovis. Pampa got a 10-8 10-inning decision over Lubbock to stay just one length back.

In the other game Abilene got past Plainview 7-5.

The teams all continue three-game stands in the same locations Thursday night.

New Mexico A&M football team next fall.

The Aggies gained a certain amount of notoriety last year by failing to win a single game. There are optimistic hints that the story may be entirely different this year.

Among other things the Aggie club will have 50 new people, including a sizeable number of experienced junior college transfers.

Athletics Spoil White Sox Lead, Cleveland Takes Over

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
Whoever thought the Kansas City Athletics would have a voice in the American League pennant race? Yet it's been the A's who have had the big say in the snarled flag chase over the past two weeks.

In that span, Lou Boudreau's sixth-place also-rans have thwarted the big contenders in five of nine meetings. And last night, they rapped the Chicago White Sox out of first place with a 5-4 decision, leaving the way clear for Cleveland to claim the lead for the first time since May 21 as Ralph Kiner smacked a ninth-inning grand slammer to trim Detroit 6-4.

That left the Tribe two percentage points ahead of the White Sox, who in turn are four points to the good over New York after the Yankees' 3-2, 13-inning victory over Boston. The defeat sent the Red Sox two games behind.

Lopez Turns Trick
The A's who took two of three from Boston and split a four-game set with the Yanks before matching Chicago 1-1 in their three-game series, belted the Chisox for two first-inning runs on back-to-back triples by Vic Power and Enos Slaughter. Hector Lopez then put them beyond reach with a home run and single that made it 5-2.

Chicago had just four hits in seven innings off winner Alex Kellner, one a two-run homer by Minnie Minoso, while the A's were belting Harry Byrd. Then when reliever Tom Gorman opened the eighth, the Sox got two more runs, one on Bob Nieman's homer, before the righthander fanned Minoso with the bases loaded.

Cleveland had home runs by Al Rosen and Hal Naragon his first in the majors, but trailed the Tigers 4-2 on the strength of Earl Fergeson's two-run shot off Mike Garcia in the seventh. Then after pinch singles by Vic Power and Hank Foiles and Al Smith's bunt single, Kiner put Al Aber's first pitch over the left-field fence.

Two innings earlier, Aber had relieved rookie Jim Bunning to fan Kiner with the bases loaded.

13 Grand Slams
Only Lou Gehrig, 23, Jimmy Foxx 17 and Babe Ruth 16, hit more grand-slam homers than Kiner, who has 13, in the majors.

An error by Billy Klaus and a drawn-in outfield that enabled Andy Carey to line a run-scoring single over the head of Ted Williams, broke up the Yank-Red Sox

St. Louis smacked 11 hits, three each by Stan Musial and Alex Grammas, while Tom Poholsky held the Braves to six. Musial got his 1,000th extra base hits with a double.

Ted Kluszewski hit his 37th homer, his 200th lifetime, and the Cubs' Ernie Banks tied Brooklyn's Duke Snider for the major league lead with his 38th in the second game as the Redlegs snapped Chicago's six-game winning streak.

Rookie Don Gross won his first major league decision in the opener.

A bases-loaded single by Jerry Lynch won for the Pirates, who had an early 2-0 lead on Frank Thomas's two-run homer.

Artesia Half Game Behind, Tie on Points

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Artesia's NuMexers Thursday tied themselves in the confusing confusion of being in a tie for the top spot in the Big Spring League lead, on the basis of percentage, but still a half game behind San Angelo.

When Wednesday night's play started, Artesia trailed San Angelo a game and a half. Artesia tied Big Spring 8-5, while San Angelo lost to Carlsbad 8-6. That tied Artesia still a half game back.

But because the NuMexers have had fewer games, they have the percentage as San Angelo, who San Angelo has a 67-45 record, Artesia 64-43.

In the only other game, Roswell topped Midland 8-6 in 10 innings. Games at Hobbs was postponed because of rain.

The teams switch around Thursday night with Artesia at Midland and Carlsbad at Odessa, Hobbs at San Angelo and Big Spring at Roswell.

Our Memories Are Short

MOST of us have a short memory until we need to recall something.

Likewise as a whole we are rather ungrateful and unappreciative for what is done for us.

In this respect we are no different from the folks in other communities or for that matter in other countries.

We have outstanding examples in this world of ours where our government has been more than kind to the people of some other government. That does not mean those governments or those people appreciate it.

One of the outstanding examples of this is Japan following one of its disastrous earthquakes when America responded with food, clothing, medical supplies and workers to assist them. Following this they declared they would never forget the great help of America at a time when they needed help. They didn't—they tried to blast our navy off the fact of the earth's oceans and almost accomplished it.

But organizations, groups and individuals are like that, too.

We seldom appreciate fully what some individual or some institution or some business concern has done for us.

Office holders—public officials elected at the polls—are accused probably more often of having short memories than anyone else. Sometimes it appears they do have short memories for they not only forget the friends who helped to elect them but they likewise forget the promises they made when they sought the offices.

Here, institutions, business firms, professional people and business people can cite instance after instance where they have been kind, considerate, generous and liberal and yet they have been forgotten by those actually obligated to them.

The public is taken by something new; something different; or some new concern and they forget those who have extended them credit; special consideration; those who have helped our growth and our progress as a community.

Yet sooner or later there always seems to come a time when we not only remember but we also are inclined to show our appreciation for what has been done for us despite the fact it appears at times we will never recall the past.

We especially are good at remembering when it becomes necessary to protect ourselves, our family, our community or when we want to show our gratefulness for all that has been done for us.

AUGUST 1905
The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will meet with Mrs. Dennis Robertson Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Miss Carrie Covington and Miss Ruth Topkins have been engaged to teach in the White Oaks public schools for the coming year.

After a pleasant visit with her father, J. J. Rascoe and family at Roswell, Mrs. Lizzie Bogle has returned home.

Mrs. A. V. D. Old, of Baxter, Texas, accompanied by her little granddaughter, Bevie Kirkpatrick, is in town visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Benson.

Mr. L. V. Reed, of Big Spring, Texas, an old friend of Mr. E. A. Clayton, spent yesterday in town looking after some investments and meeting our people.

Editor H. B. Ryther, of the Portales Herald, spent Sunday in the city, the guest of Mr. Roby and family.

Messrs. Davison and Sons sold a few days since, 920 acres of land with a well on it to Dr. R. L. Casburn and R. T. Camp of Carthage, Ill., consideration about $20,000. Mr. Davison considers the outlook in the valley very promising. He expects the largest immigration this fall, we have ever had.

Joe Ellis Wins Jubilee Title Of Oldest Man Around Artesia

Following the announcement of Jubilee queen winner, Mrs. S. W. (Mary) Gilbert at the Central Park Old Timer's contest yesterday by Chairman Beatrice Blocker, the master of ceremonies, Dave Button called up the winners of the other contests.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Stuart were winners of the family with the largest number of children, also having lived in the Pecos Valley. They received a gift with 1905-1955 engraved on it. They have ten children.

The oldest man contest was won by Joe Ellis, 94, who was able to walk up to the microphone unassisted, but he balked when it came to making a talk. Asked if he had anything to say to that crowd of people, he said, "No, I can't make any talk."

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Trotter would have been awarded the prize for being the oldest couple, but they were not present and it went to Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Ross, charter members of the Church of Christ, who came to the Pecos Valley in 1902.

Announcer Button said the Trotters were probably off riding a horse. They are both in their 92nd year.

Mrs. Jack Johns from California also took the prize for the longest distance away from G. W. Brooshier who came from Florida and who was so busy talking over old times he didn't think to get up when the contest was announced.

First prize of $25 went to fiddler A. J. Fisher, Mayhill; second, $15, Warren Tidwell, Pinon, and third, $10, Cotton Collins, Artesia.

The homicide rate of the United States is more than twice that of Canada and Australia, about three times that of Scotland and six times that of England.

First prize of $25 went to fiddler A. J. Fisher, Mayhill; second, $15, Warren Tidwell, Pinon, and third, $10, Cotton Collins, Artesia.

The homicide rate of the United States is more than twice that of Canada and Australia, about three times that of Scotland and six times that of England.

Mrs. Jack Johns from California also took the prize for the longest distance away from G. W. Brooshier who came from Florida and who was so busy talking over old times he didn't think to get up when the contest was announced.

Artesia Road Problems Are Talked Here

Aid of the State Highway Department in solving two street problems vexing Artesia and the surrounding area was sought unofficially today through Eber McKinley, of Alamogordo, highway commissioner.

McKinley, here for the Chisum Trail dedication this afternoon, listened to the problems as presented at a luncheon at Cliff's Cafeteria arranged by the Chamber of Commerce through Manager Paul W. Scott.

Present, in addition to McKinley and Scott, were: Ray Zumwalt, Eddy county commissioner; Mayor Bill Yeager, City Engineer Doug Fowler, State Rep. Fred Cole, City Councilman Homer Campbell, Tom Brown, Sr., J. B. Mulcock and Thad Cox, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce highway committee, and Paul Frost, C. of C. President.

First problem presented was the drainage situation on S. First St. that has developed since construction of the urban project. Councilman Campbell explained that the crown of the new highway is higher than the previous crown and constitutes a dam to obstruct drainage of water across and onto the Santa Fe right-of-way.

As a result, Campbell said, water backs up curb high on Centre and as far as Second and Rose-lawn after even moderate rains. Both the councilmen and the mayor said they had been told by the state highway engineers that the natural surface drainage of the section would be maintained.

Arrangements were made for McKinley to view the section later in the day, for possible cooperative action by the state department and the city and railway.

The second problem was posed by Commissioner Zumwalt regarding the proposed oil field cutoff road southeast of Artesia. Zumwalt said the road had been flagged and the county had intended blading it soon. The county, he said, has no funds to build the road.

McKinley stressed that while he would not say "no" to the request for state money to help, he considered such a grant as contrary to present policy of the department. He said that failure of Congress to pass a road bill and thus make federal matching funds available to New Mexico, the state has no money for any but primary and secondary road obligations already made.
