Police Seeking Car In Roadside Murder East Of Cloudercroft

ALAMOGORDO, Oct. 22 (AP)—Police today practically discounted robbery as a motive for the murder of M. M. Rutherford of Alamogordo and indicated they believed he was shot five times by someone he knew.

Rutherford's bloody body, hit five times by slugs believed to be from a .45 caliber pistol, was found Friday in an arroyo 200 yards off State Road 83 eight miles east of Cloudercroft.

Two of the five slugs went through Rutherford's head, one severing the jugular vein. He apparently was bleeding profusely. His body was discovered by a resident of the area who noticed blood on the small sideroad bridge from which his body had been dumped.

Dist. Atty. C. C. Chase of Las Cruces and State Police spent the entire day in the Cloudercroft area questioning residents. A fingerprint expert was called from El Paso to go over Rutherford's car.

It was thought at first that the motive for the crime was robbery but police just about junked the theory. Although Rutherford's wallet was missing, his wife in Alamogordo said he seldom carried money in his wallet. At first she said she thought he had $20 on him when he left Alamogordo Friday to go to Hobbs. Later she said he had only $10 and a receipt for about $4 in gas was found on Rutherford.

Police said they believed the killing was done by one man and (Continued on Page Four)

Police Close Saar Frontier On Vote Eve

SAARBUECKEN, Saar, Oct. 22 (AP)—Police shut the frontiers of this rich industrial basin today because officials said they feared gangs of rowdies might come in and try to intimidate voters and vote counters in tomorrow's historic plebiscite.

Promptly at noon, red and white poles were lowered across all roads leading into the Saar, effectively sealing off the 991-Square mile area. Until midnight Sunday, after the votes on the statute proposing to "Europeanize" the territory have been counted, all incoming traffic from West Germany, France and Luxembourg will be stopped, with certain exceptions, to insure that 664,000 Saarlanders can vote freely.

The voters, steamed up by three months of hot campaigning, will simply mark an X beside yes or no. If the majority vote yes, the Saar will become a supranational state, smaller than Rhode Island and with a population of between 900,000 and a million, in the industrial heart of Europe.

The coal-rich steel-producing valley would continue its close economic ties, including a customs union, with France; and control its own internal government. Foreign (Continued on page four)

Funeral Services Set Monday for 9-Month-Old Girl

Funeral services will be held Monday morning for the nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zarazua of 309 Cleveland Ave.

The baby, little Maria Teresa Zarazua died Friday at her home. Services will be held from Our Lady of Grace Church with the Rev. Stephen Bono reciting the requiem mass. Burial will be in San Marcos cemetery with Paulin Funeral Home in charge.

She is survived by her parents, one brother, Raul, and a sister, Virginia.

Annal Boy Scout Fund Drive Opens With Breakfast Tuesday

An annual Conquistador Council budget campaign will get underway in Artesia, Tuesday, with a kick-off breakfast for an estimated 125 fund workers.

Artesia campaign chairman, Glen Clem, says the council-wide goal is $94,875, with no fixed allocation for any part of the council.

Clem says the following "majors" have been appointed to head groups of fund-raising teams: C. G. Clark, Vernon Mills, Clayton Menefee, Tommy Thompson and George White. The majors each have recruited five "captains," who in turn have recruited five workers, each.

Charles Johnson, of Artesia, is Conquistador campaign chairman, while Clyde Guy, of Artesia, is Gateway District Chairman.

Clem says this year's record budget goal exceeds last year's by approximately $11,000. The increase, says Clem, is to increase the number of paid personnel in order to bring scouting to more boys.

The Artesia Chairman points out that funds raised in Artesia will stay in the area for use as it is needed.

Meanwhile, Harvey Yates, chairman of an advance gift portion of the drive, expressed satisfaction over the results, thus far.

Harriman Urges 90 Per Cent Farm Support Parities

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 22 (AP)—Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, called today for 90 per cent price supports for farmers.

Harriman assailed Republican agricultural policies and said the farmer presently is being treated "like some kind of economic delinquent."

The governor, considered a contender for the Democratic presidential nomination, told an Iowa State Democratic dinner in a prepared address.

Authorities Appeal for Aid On Clues to Slayer of Boys

CHICAGO (AP)—Authorities, who have watched one possible clue after another fade as worthless, made a new bid to the general public today for help in solving the murders of three boys.

In issuing the plea, State's Atty. John K. Gutknecht promised to "protect" anyone supplying information.

Also, he warned that, by having and withholding a lead to the crime, a person "may be an accessory for or after the fact."

Planes Arrive as Senators Continue To Deny Requests

MADRID, Spain (AP)—The first of two special U. S. military transport planes has flown in from Washington to bring three U. S. senators home from Europe. The senators continued to deny they ever asked for them.

A four-engine DC6 plane with more than 60 seats landed at Madrid airport to pick up Sens. McLellan (D-Ark) and Stennis (D-Miss.) and their wives. A second plane is due in Paris to bring Sen. Chavez (D-N. M.) home Nov. 3.

Cost of the two special flights is estimated at $20,000, compared to the $3,000 it would cost the three senators and their wives to return to the United States aboard (Continued on page four)

Chancie L. Snyder of Silver City today was named new state president of the New Mexico Game Protective Assn. He succeeds Arthur Welsh of Albuquerque.

Snyder was elected by GPA delegates at the end of the three-day 35th annual convention of the organization this afternoon.

Other officers elected for the coming year include Robert E. Pritchett of Carlsbad first vice-president; Emil P. Bach of Artesia, second vice-president; and Ben Sherman, Deming third vice-president.

Ray Hogan, Albuquerque, was named treasurer and Roger Neill also of the Duke City, executive secretary.

The delegates heard a bid from Clayton for the 1956 convention but left the decision up to the organization's board of directors to announce at a later date.

Before concluding the GPA members approved a number of resolutions prepared by a special committee, including one which asks the state game department to prohibit shooting of hen pheasants.

They also asked the game department to fix the second Saturday of each November as the annual date for opening of big game season in New Mexico.

Gov. John Simms came in for praise at the windup of the meeting as the GPA hailed the chief executive's pledge to keep political influence out of game department management and supported the GPA program.

In a unanimously approved resolution at the wind up of the three-day state convention this morning, the GPA said "We express our more sincere thanks . . . for his helpfulness and encouragement (Continued on Page Four)

Sen. Anderson Urges All-Out GOC Formation

ALBUQUERQUE, Oct. 22 (AP)—Sen. Anderson (D-NM) Saturday warned of the importance of a civilian-manned Ground Observer Corps as "Russia has more jet fighter planes than we have in the hands of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization."

He told more than 200 persons gathered for the opening of Albuquerque's Ground Observer Corps Fil'er Center that "Russia has more jets than we . . . more new fighter planes than we . . . more first rank planes in the hands of their satellites."

He also said we have put a "handful of fine new intercontinental bombers — the B52 — but Russia has a parallel, if not an equivalent, in its TU37."

The senator stressed the importance of building up a strong Ground Observer Corps because "radar isn't enough" to detect enemy planes. He said modern aircraft speeds and the fact that planes can come in low to avoid being detected make it necessary to have civilian volunteers to scan the skies. "We don't wait only for ourselves but for Detroit, Los Angeles, New York and even Washington," he said.

EASTERN STAR MEETS

LAS CRUCES (AP)—Business sessions of the 53rd annual meeting of the grand chapter of New Mexico's Order of the Eastern Star opened today at New Mexico A&M College. Mayor James Neleich of Las Cruces and Dr. Roger Corbett, president of the college, welcomed the delegates. F. Wayne Laws of Raton, most worthy grand master, are figuring tentatively on letting Eisenhower check out of the hospital about midway of the week of Nov. 5-12, although a definite date has not been set.

White and a team of doctors gave the chief executive a complete medical checkup this morning at Fitzsimons Army Hospital. White presided at a news conference afterward at the Denver White House.

As the doctors see it, it still probably will be Jan. 1 before the chief executive could return to his duties in the White House. When he leaves Denver he probably will fly to Washington, spend a day or two in the White House, and then go on to his farm at Gettysburg, Pa.

During the convalescence period there the President should be able to step up conferences with Cabinet members and other administration officials, or even hold a meeting of the full Cabinet.

And possibly he might turn the procedure around and go the (Continued on Page Four)

British Public Ed Up With Romance Delays

LONDON, Oct. 22 (AP)—Princess Margaret rode into the heart of London's tough Limehouse district to deafening Cockney cheers and the frantic waving of home-land banners.

"Good luck, dearie—and I hope you'll be happy," shouted one fan.

Standing shoulder to shoulder, police struggled to keep back fans, shouting crowd as the princess—wearing a sea-green velvet coat and a broad, bright smile—stepped out of her Rolls-Royce to greet a new church community as part of her regular royal duties.

She was being given her first meeting since her recent public appearances with 40-year-old Capt. Peter Townsend, a Labour member of Parliament deposed by the government put up to the national guessing game that has Britain groggily—she or won't she marry the freed war hero?

"The public," said Lt. Col. Marjorie Lipton, "is getting fed up with long drawn out business."

Apparently they love one another and if someone is holding up marriage, then let him say so. "It may be the Church, or something else. But anyhow, let's stop this guessing."

Never-Say-Die Bulldogs Win 20-19 Thriller Over Hobbs

SMU Crushes Kansas 33-14

LAWRENCE, Kan., Oct. 22 (AP)—Halback Don McIlhenny scored four touchdowns today as Southern Methodist, capitalizing on virtually every major break, scored a 33-14 football victory over Kansas today.

The prolific McIlhenny scored three times on plunges on a yard dash and skirted left end for 12 yards for the other tally. Fullback Hal O'Brien dived a yard for the fifth Mustang score.

Kansas' sophomore battery of quarterback Wally Strauch and Jim Letcavits accounted for the Kansas touchdowns.

Sooners Explode Colorado Dreams

NORMAN, Okla., Oct. 22 (AP)—For 3 minutes of the second quarter, Colorado floated in football heaven today, riding high on a 14-0 lead over third-ranked Oklahoma. Then the Sooners exploded the dream with 21 points at half-time and wound up with a 56-21 victory to roll on undefeated in 24 straight games.

The victory, which keeps Oklahoma on top in the Big Seven Conference, was triggered in the five-touchdown second quarter that erupted with swift excitement for the partisan, overflow crowd of 59,000.

Oklahoma had figured on trouble from Colorado—a big obstacle in the Sooners' path to an eighth straight conference title—but nothing as bad as what the Buffs started dishing out at the beginning of the contest with their single-wing formation.

Colorado turned two Oklahoma fumbles into touchdowns within 5 minutes of the second period in what appeared to be the making of a fantastic upset.

But the Sooners, who had played listlessly in the first 20 minutes and didn't get past the 50, then brushed Colorado aside for three touchdowns in quick succession to make a 21-14 lead at the intermission Colorado never recovered from the blow.

Michigan State Tops Illini 21-7

EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 22 (AP)—Earl Morrall calmly passed and ran Michigan State to a 21-7 victory over Illinois today in a pivotal Big Ten football game.

Morrall's 30-yard pass to John Lewis set up State's first touchdown in the first quarter. Hiss' bullet throw to Dave Kaiser was good for a 60-yard touchdown play that broke a 7-7 tie 56 seconds after the second half started.

The tall senior from Muskegon, Mich., put the game on ice with a 23-yard touchdown pass to Bob Jewett in the end zone near the end of the third quarter. He had set this one up with a 16-yard run when he couldn't get off a pass.

Lobos Dropped By Montana In Close Game

MISSOULA, Mont., Oct. 22 (AP)—Montana University stopped a New Mexico touchdown drive in the last minutes here today to take a 19-14 Skyline conference victory in a football game decided by the breaks.

A 47-yard touchdown run by Montana's speedy Don Brant in the fourth quarter proved the deciding margin in the game watched by 3,500. The touchdown put Montana ahead 19-7.

New Mexico took the initiative from there and tallied midway in the period on a four-yard plunge by Jerry Apodaca, voted the outstanding back in the game by sportswriters. The touchdown was set up on a 45-yard pass from Jerry Lott to End Dick Drake that put the ball on the Montana 4.

The Grizzlies were forced to punt following the New Mexico kickoff and then the Lobos started their futile drive that stopped on the Montana 34.

The Grizzlies took over on downs and froze the ball.

It was the Grizzlies second conference win in 5 games. New Mexico has not won in 3.

The Lobos went in front in the opening minutes when a Montana punt by male Shupe went only 10 yards to the Grizzly 20.

A 13-yard pass from Lott to Clark Manwarren put the ball on the 7. Four plays later Lynn White went over from the 2. Porky Leyva converted.

Montana tallied two touchdowns in the second aided by a fumble and a pass interception.

Defensive quarterback Roy Bray recovered a Lobo fumble on the New Mexico 46 to start the Grizzlies to their first TD of the game.

An 11-yard pass and runs of 9 and 15 yards set the ball on the Lobo 11. Four plays later Don Williamson went around end from the 4. Bill Kaiserman converted.

Minutes later, Williamson intercepted a New Mexico pass at mid-field and ran it to the Lobo 38.

Kaiserman then ran 38 yards to score on a Statue of Liberty play. Kaiserman kicked the goal and it was Montana 13-7.

Brant's 47-yard touchdown run came in the fourth. It climaxed a drive begun by the Grizzlies on their own 2.

Ratliff Mixes Air and Ground Victory Potion

A never-say-quits Artesia team Friday night lost and re-won a thrilling District 4AA conference tilt here in the last five minutes of the ball game as they topped the Hobbs Eagles 20-19.

But from the start of the second half it was anyone's football game as a tricky Hobbs squad fought back from a 14-0 Bulldog edge at the half. In some of the finest ball handling seen in the conference this season, Eagle quarterback K. P. Ross dazzled the Bulldog three times on sparkling reverses and double reverses out of a single-wing formation.

Ross gambled

Trailing by one point at the five-minute mark in the last quarter, Ross gambled brilliantly on a fourth down on his own 36 and sent end Cornelius Patterson racing around the left side 64 yards and a TD on a double reverse. The score put the Eagles out in front 19 to 14.

But Artesia Quarterback Max Ratliff refused to concede. Taking the ball on their own 49, the Bulldogs captured by Ratliff mixed a ground and aerial attack that took them into paydirt and final victory in seven sustained plays. The Bulldog wall, which had been shattered several times by Hobbs, dug in and held the Eagles behind their own 30-yard line for the final two minutes of the game.

It was the straight T against the single-wing all night and the deception and speed of Ross and Company was almost perfectly balanced by the heavy drives of Bulldog Fullback Clyde Bratcher on Ratliff's top-notch strategy. Artesia's offensive line ripped big gaps early as the Bulldogs mounted a 74-yard scoring drive ending in Ratliff's 26-yard pass into the end zone to end Bill Jones.

Another TD Pass
The Bulldogs capitalized on an interception early in the second quarter on the Eagles' 45 and Ratliff fired another touchdown pass from the 20, this time to Halfback George Struck.

Hobbs struck back with a fired-up team early in the second half with Ross and blocking back Phil Wegener carrying the load in six ground and air attacks for a TD. A fumble recovery on the Bulldog 38 late in the quarter was converted to the second Hobbs tally in the opening minutes of the final period. The last Eagle score ending in Patterson's long run of the night started with a pass interception on the Eagles' own 26.

Hobbs took to the air 21 times and connected for six against Artesia's 12 pass tries for four completions.

Ratliff shines

Max Ratliff, completely recovered from last week's roughing, first at the hands of Farmington and later by The Advocate's sports writer, played his finest game of football Friday night.

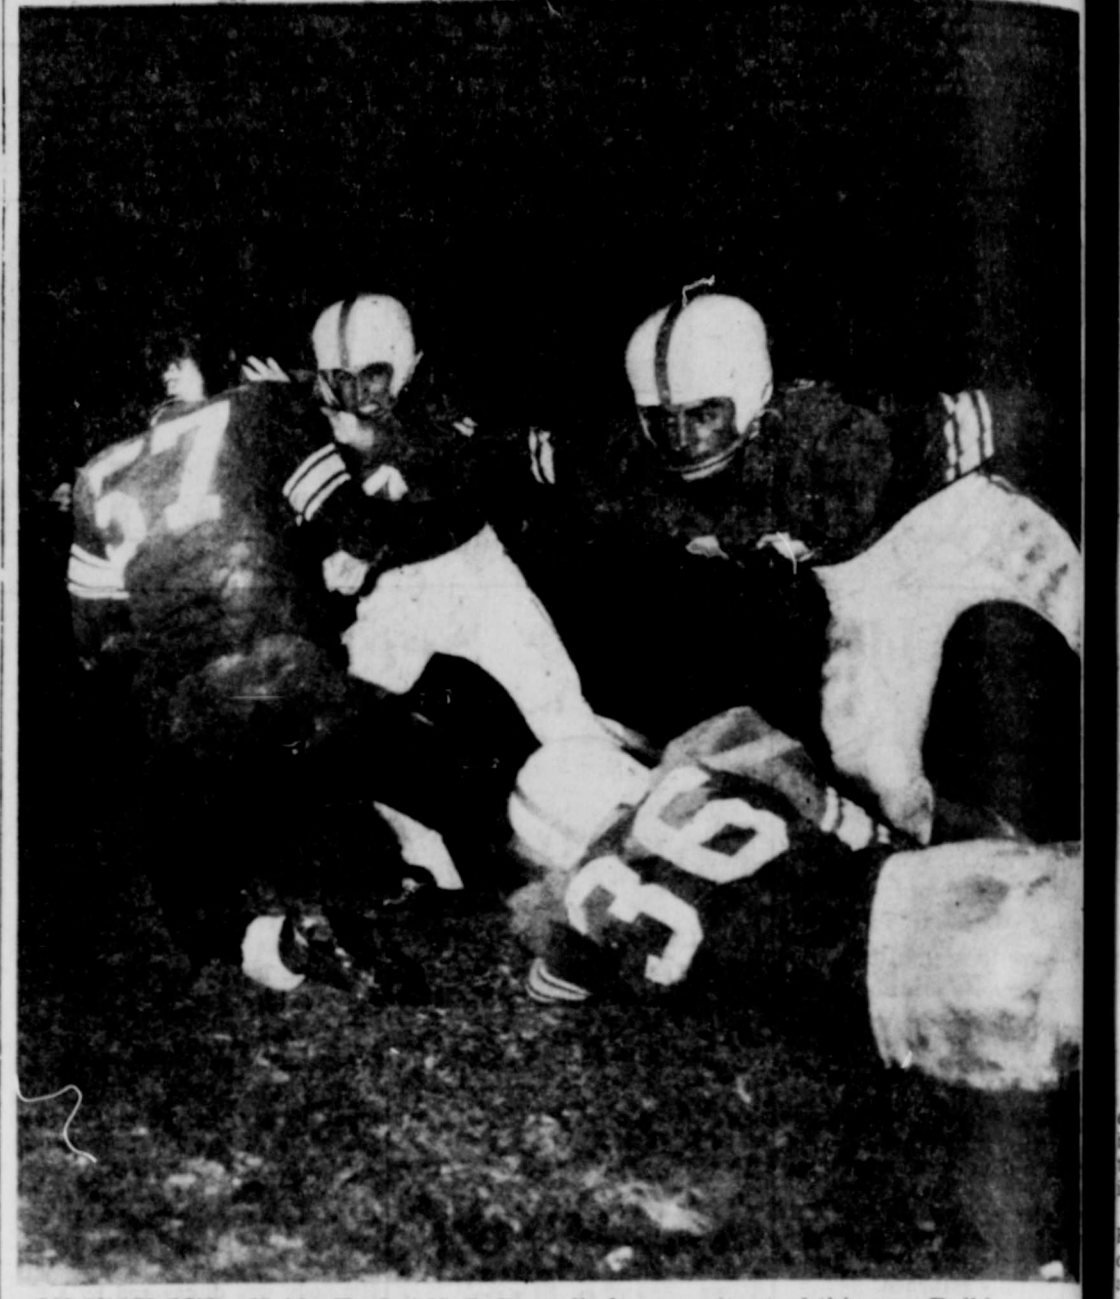

Calling signals with the brilliance that he had so ably demonstrated early this season, Ratliff led and inspired Bulldog squad to victory.

Much of the credit for the win goes to the hard-fighting linemen sparked by Larry Haney and line backer Bratcher. The holes were there when Ratliff called for them to send either George Price speedy Don Long or steamrollerman Bratcher down field. And they gave Ratliff enough time to write home to the folks before having to pass as they screened out the offensive attacking Eagles.

Pigskin Roundup Across Nation

ATLANTA, Oct. 22 (AP)—Georgia Tech unwrapped its passing game for the first time this season today and mixed it with a strong ground attack to trounce ambitious but outmanned Florida State 34-0 in a football mismatch.

Tech Coach Bobby Dodd used his two units to build a 20-0 lead then emptied the bench to complete the rout before a shirt-sleeved crowd of about 30,000.

WAKE FOREST, N. C., Oct. 22 (AP)—Reserve quarterback Charlie Carpenter threw two touchdowns and scored once himself as Wake Forest's demon Deacons scored four times in the last half and overwhelmed frustrated North Carolina 25-0 in an Atlantic Coast Conference football game today.

Numerous penalties and fumbles marred the game between the old neighborhood rivals before a crowd of 13,000.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Oct. 22 (AP)—Unbeaten West Virginia passed its stiffest football test of the season today, coming from behind to beat inspired Penn State 21-7. It was the only time in the history of a series dating back to 1904 that the eighth-ranked Mountaineers have defeated the Nittany Lions three years in a row.

This was their most decisive victory by far, and WVU's fifth this season.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22 (AP)—Quarterback Eddie West, playing with a fractured left thumb, paced North Carolina State today as the Wolfpack outdrove fumbling Villanova 34-13 at the Wildcats' suburban main line football stadium.

West, a rangy 195-pounder from Alexandria, Va., passed for two touchdowns and scored a pair on sneaks.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP)—The smooth power of Princeton's single wing attack overcame the Tigers' own mistakes and the individual brilliance of Billy DeGraaf and Bo Roberson today and Princeton rolled to a 26-20 victory.

There wasn't much that was sensational about the Tigers' play except the crispness of their blocking and the consistency of their ground-gaining. The big feature was the emergence of Sid Pinch as a first-rate tailback.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP)—A churning 72-yard run by substitute Peter Lash highlighted a cascade of Army touchdowns which smothered fangless Columbia, 45-0, today to break a two-game losing streak for the men of West Point.

After his fleet infantry troops had rolled to four touchdowns in the opening half, Coach Earl Blaik obviously called off the dogs and sought to show the Lions some mercy.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 22 (AP)—Colgate's fast-charging line shook Frank Nardulli loose on a 15-yard run early in the final period today and he scored the touchdown that gave the Red Raiders a 7-0 triumph over Yale. It also inflicted the first defeat of the season on the losers.

Until 2:09 of the last quarter, it had been a terrific battle of lines with Colgate's forward wall dominating and, in the end, deserving the victory, the first over Yale since 1915. They had played scoreless ties in the two meetings since then prior to today's encounter.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP)—Powerful Maryland, ranked No. 2 in the nation, bolstered its chances of a post-season bowl invitation today by manhandling Syracuse 34-13 behind a solid line that opened the holes for Ed Vereb, Phil Perlo and Jack Healey.

Smashing over two touchdowns in the first period with Perlo blasting 6 yards for the first and Vereb throwing 17 yards to Russ Dennis for the second, Maryland was threatened seriously only once.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22 (AP)—Unbeaten Navy, with star quarterback George Welsh on the bench, its bag of tricks in the locker room and a junior varsity quarterback directing the attack, sailed to its fifth straight victory today, smashing down-trodden Penn 33-0 before 34,543 fans at Franklin Field.

Coach Eddie Erdelatz, confident his deep squad could handle anything the peaceful Quakers and third-string players musters could muster, used some of the way and apparently ordered his quarterback to use nothing but simple run and pass play. Navy, the nation's fourth-ranked team, has a date with Miami next week and seemed determined to keep Irish soccer the dark.

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 22 (AP)—Baby-faced Gene Newton, a split-T operator and a fabled runner, sprinted 49 yards for an early touchdown and guided the Bulldogs' ground attack to take up the slack.

DURHAM, N. C., Oct. 22 (AP)—Twice-beaten Pitt smashed previously undefeated Duke, the nation's fifth ranked football power, 26-7 today while holding the Blue Devils' highly touted rushing attack to a dismal 20 yards.

Pitt rocked the fumble-plagued Dukes with a 249-yard rushing tack and added enough of an edge threat by quarterbacks Pete St. and Corky Salvaterra to blast Homecoming festivities for a crowd of 31,000.

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Oct. 22 (AP)—Fullback Paige Cothren led the University of Arkansas line shreds and used his skillful play to lead the University of Mississippi to a 17-7 football victory today.

Cothren scored 11 points in a touchdown, a field goal and conversions to boost his season record to 6.

Mississippi's victory was to be Yale's second in the series.

Arkansas moved to play Columbia in the district contest.

Arkansas' victory would be only the second in the series since 1925.

Roswell Coyotes Eye Gridiron Crown After Beating Highland

By ROBERT GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Roswell Coyotes, hopefully eyeing the state high school football crown worn by Highland, has taken a giant step toward a spot in the playoffs.

The Coyotes Friday night bashed Highland 36-13 in a District 2AA contest and threw Highland into a precarious position in defense of its crown.

Otherwise around the state, Farmington, El Rito, Santa Rosa and Lordsburg clinched their district titles, three others moved into strong positions in their league races, and three unbeaten records were preserved.

But the big news was Roswell's victory over Highland. It was the first defeat in the state for the Hornets and ran Roswell's season record to 6-1. The only Coyote loss was to Ysleta, Texas.

Roswell, however, hasn't clinched the title. The Coyotes still have to play Clovis, idle this week in district competition. A Roswell victory would put it in the playoffs. A Clovis victory would put the district into a three-way tie.

Dave Miller and John England led the Roswell attack as the Coyotes moved into contention with Las Cruces as the team to watch in New Mexico's big school race.

Las Cruces remained undefeated, taking victory No. 6 with a 41-0 walloping of Burgess of El Paso. The Bulldogs now have only one stumbling block in their path—Albuquerque—towards the 3AA title.

Oct. 22, it smashed Duke, the football player holding the touted rushing 120 yards.

Miss., Oct. 22, Cotchen of Arkansas led his skillful team to victory today, 11 points to 0, and boost his season record to 11-0.

Logart Whips Gil Turner in Thrill Mixup

NEW YORK. (AP)—Isaac Logart, who once fought a main event for $1.50 in his native Cuba, today was headed for boxing's big money following his thrilling victory over experienced Gil Turner in Madison Square Garden.

The 22-year-old flash from Kid Gavilan's home province of Camaguey not only earned about $5,000 for last night's 10-round unanimous decision but clinched a Dec. 2 date in the Garden against an opponent to be selected.

"We may put him in with Don Jordan who beat Joe Miceli in California, Virgil Akins, or have him fight Turner again," said Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club. "The kid made a big hit and we want to use him often."

A 13-10 underdog, Logart won the thrilling slugfest by copping the feverishly paced last round. The whole fight hinged on the final heat and Ike earned it by beating his 25-year-old, heavier rival in several furious exchanges.

All three officials awarded that frame to Ike. Had it gone the other way, Turner would have won. Referee Al Bert and Judge Jack Gordon scored it 5-4 while Judge J.Joe Angello made it 6-4. The AP card had the Cuban in front, 5-4-1.

Gil, 10th ranking middleweight contender, outwitted his rival 152 3/4 to 147. The Philadelphia attempt to use his weight advantage in the close quarter mauling by bullying Ike with his shoulders.

TCU Passing Tops Miami By 21-19

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Anybody who says TCU can't pass wasn't around last night—the ground-slinging Frogs beat Miami 21-19 and two touchdowns came on sensational tosses.

Chuck Curtis, the gangling Frog quarterback, was the big show. He pitched 24 yards to Jim Swink for one touchdown, flipped to O'Day Williams for a second and then plowed through the line for a yard and the third touchdown.

The Frog line was most important in the victory. Once the massive Purple wall stopped Miami on the 1-foot line and one two other occasions halted the Hurricane as it whirled down to the Frog 20.

A crowd of 44,045 watched the game. Swink, a great runner, got loose on a 59-yard dash to set up the second TCU touchdown that put the Frogs ahead 14-12.

Miami scored on a 65-yard drive. The next Miami score was with a 71-yard drive climaxed by Paul Hefti's 3-yard smash. Scarnechia passed to Jack Losch for a 63-yard gain and the final Miami touchdown in the fourth period.

The winning touchdown was brought about by the alertness of TCU's Don Cooper. He fell on a fumble on the Miami 21 to put the Frogs in shape to push to the score.

Dick Hilinski, Ohio State Star Killed

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Dick Hilinski, brilliant tackle who helped lead Ohio State to a Rose Bowl victory and the mythical national football championship last year, was hurled to his death last night from a foreign make car out of control on a back Michigan road.

The accident happened 15 miles northeast of Ann Arbor, home of the University of Michigan, Ohio State's biggest football rival.

Hilinski, 24, all Big Ten and third string All-America tackle last year, was riding with Sylvester J. Blake, 25, of Columbus, Ohio. The two were heading for Fenton, Mich., to attend the wedding today of a friend, James H. Morse.

Bake was treated at a hospital for a minor head injury. Hilinski completed his football eligibility last season but was assisting the Buckeye coach staff this year while attending medical school.

Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes said Hilinski was "as great an offensive tackle as we ever had" and was "just about the most brilliant boy I ever knew."

The six-foot-two, 231-pound tackle started first at Cleveland's Cathedral Latin High School. He attended Notre Dame for one year, then transferred to Ohio State.

The name Michigan comes from an Indian word Mishigamaw, meaning great water. Students believe the dandelion reached America in the ballast of the ships used by early colonists from Europe.

Pennsylvania Athletic Czar Charges Rackets in Boxing

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—One of Pennsylvania's three athletic commissioners makes the blunt charge that "racketeer elements" have a close association with boxing.

Alfred M. Klein, a Philadelphia attorney, said yesterday "there is a much closer association between boxing and the underworld than I ever thought."

Klein said there was an urgent need for a congressional investigation of nationwide boxing. Meantime, the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission is continuing its own probe, he said, even going out of the state to get witnesses.

Professional boxing in Pennsylvania had been suspended most of the summer after it was discovered Harold Johnson, a light-heavyweight, had been drugged before a May bout he lost in the Philadelphia arena.

Who drugged Johnson, and how, has not been discovered but Klein said that the commission — which held hearings for many weeks and suspended Johnson and a number of his associates—is still trying to solve that mystery — and "some day we'll find out."

Klein also disclosed Johnson wasn't the only boxer doped in Pennsylvania, but he gave no specific details. "There have been others and we investigated them," he said.

Klein, who was associated with Sen. Estes Kefauver when the Tennessee Democrat conducted his nationwide probe of gambling, said he favored a congressional investigation because it affords subpoena power.

Witnesses who decline to testify, he said, can be cited for contempt of Congress and jailed. Klein said that one witness before the Pennsylvania commission could reveal a lot of information, but that he is keeping mum.

He also disclosed "a number of star witnesses link underworld characters with the boxing sport," adding: "They are not all Pennsylvanians. They are good reputable witnesses who have given us important information."

West Texas Pro-Am Play Opens Tuesday At Country Club

Nearly 40 professional and some 55 amateur golfers from New Mexico and West Texas will participate in the annual West Texas Pro-Am Tournament which opens here Tuesday at the Artesia Country Club. Qualifying rounds will be played Tuesday and 54-hole medal play for the pros will begin Wednesday with the chip shot artists shooting at defending champion Horace Moore of Plainview, Texas. Amateurs will begin 54-hole match play on the same day with finals for both classes on Friday.

Nearly $3,000 in cash is at stake for the pros and about $1,000 in prizes and merchandise awaits the winning amateurs.

Jim Morgan, Lovington, who last week won the Carlsbad Pro-Am amateur side is considered top threat for the Artesia tourney as is Ted Martinez, Artesia Invitational champ.

A woman's flight is also scheduled with Jo Boswell of Roswell as top contender. Other pro favorites entered include Dick Turner of San Angelo, Fred Atkins of Carlsbad, Gene Mitchell, Lubbock, Jake Mann and Joe Lopez of Brownfield, Joe Estrada of Artesia and Abe Beckman of Midland who holds the Artesia Country Club course record.

Cotton Bowl Tickets to Go on Sale For 25,000 Fans Starting Monday

DALLAS, Oct. 22 (AP)—The Cotton Bowl will sell its 25,000 tickets available to the public starting Monday to Thursday midnight. A drawing will determine who may buy the tickets since the demand always is three times the supply.

The Southwest Conference champion ordinarily is the host team. Should Texas A&M win the title, some other school would have to represent the conference in the Cotton Bowl. A&M is on probation for recruiting violations and can not appear in a post-season game.

The visiting team usually comes from the Southeastern Conference. Last year it was Georgia Tech.

Howard Grubbs, secretary of the Cotton Bowl, said no applications will be accepted except in the designated 4-day period, so those desiring tickets must mail their applications until Monday.

Tickets will be limited to four per person and each application must be accompanied by a check price is $5.50 per ticket, plus a and an addressed envelope. The 25-cent mailing fee.

The game will be on Jan. 2, Jimmy Demaret Leads Ryder Cup Team Into Play

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP)—Jimmy Demaret led a challenge team into doubles competition with the Ryder Cuppers today confident his men would make a good showing over the long Midland Country Club course.

Chick Harbert heads the Ryder Cup team which includes such links stars as Cary Middlecoff, Sam Snead and Doug Ford.

The matches, which close tomorrow with the singles, have a pot of $12,500. The winning professionals will get $800 each and the losers $450. The Ryder Cup tournament fund will receive $2,000.

Pairings for today's play were (Ryder Cuppers first): Middlecoff and Snead vs. Vic Ghezzi and Mike Souchak; Ford and Jack Burke vs. Demaret and Bo Wining; Tommy Bolt and Chandler Harper vs. Al Besselink and Fred Hawkins; Marty Furgol and Harbert vs. amateur Don Cherry and Billy Maxwell.

Demaret said his team was more suited to a lengthy course than the Ryder Cuppers. The Midland layout is 7,035 yards and has a par of 72.

Ben Hogan and former baseball star Dizzy Dean teamed up in an exhibition yesterday to best Demaret and the Midland pro, Boyd Huff, 1-up. Hogan had a 70, Dean 75, Demaret 71 and Huff 72.

Pigskin Roundup Across Nation

ATLANTA, Oct. 22 (AP)—Georgia Tech unwrapped its passing game for the first time this season today and mixed it with a strong ground attack to trounce ambitious but out-manned Florida State 34-0 in a football mismatch.

Tech Coach Bobby Dodd used his two units to build a 20-0 lead then emptied the bench to complete the rout before a shirt-sleeved crowd of about 30,000.

WAKE FOREST, N. C., Oct. 22 (AP)—Reserve quarterback Charlie Carpenter threw two touchdown strikes and scored once himself as Wake Forest's demon Deacons scored four times in the last half and overwhelmed frustrated North Carolina 25-0 in an Atlantic Coast Conference football game today.

Numerous penalties and fumbles muddled the game between the old neighborhood rivals before a crowd of 13,000.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Oct. 22 (AP)—Unbeaten West Virginia passed its stiffest football test of the season today, coming from behind to beat inspired Penn State 21-7. It was the only time in the history of a series dating back to 1904 that the eighth-ranked Mountaineers have defeated the Nittany Lions three years in a row.

This was their most decisive victory by far, and WVU's fifth this season.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22 (AP)—Quarterback Eddie West, playing with a fractured left thumb, paced North Carolina State today as the Wolfpack outdrove fumbling Villanova 34-13 at the Wildcats' suburban main line football stadium.

West, a rangy 195-pounder from Alexandria, Va., passed for two touchdowns and scored a pair on sneaks.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP)—The smooth power of Princeton's single wing attack overcome the Tigers' own mistakes and the individual brilliance of Billy DeGraaf and Bo Roberson today and Princeton rolled to a 26-20 victory.

There wasn't much that was sensational about the Tigers' play except the crispness of their blocking and the consistency of their ground-gaining. The big feature was the emergence of Sid Pinch as a first-rate tailback.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP)—A churning 72-yard run by substitute Peter Lash highlighted a cascade of Army touchdowns which smothered fangless Columbia, 45-0, today to break a two-game losing streak for the men of West Point.

After his fleet infantry troops had rolled to four touchdowns in the opening half, Coach Earl Blaik obviously called off the dogs and sought to show the Lions some mercy.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 22 (AP)—Colgate's fast-charging line shook Frank Nardulli loose on a 15-yard run early in the final period today and he scored the touchdown that gave the Red Raiders a 7-0 triumph over Yale. It also inflicted the first defeat of the season on the losers.

Until 2:09 of the last quarter, it had been a terrific battle of lines with Colgate's forward wall dominating and, in the end deserving the victory, the first over Yale since 1915. They had played scoreless ties in the two meetings since their prior to today's encounter.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP)—Powerful Maryland, ranked No. 2 in the nation, bolstered its chances of a post-season bowl invitation today by manhandling Syracuse 34-13 behind a solid line that opened the holes for Ed Vereb, Phil Perio and Jack Healey.

Smashing over two touchdowns in the first period with Perlo blasting 6 yards for the first and Vereb throwing 17 yards to Russ Dennis for the second, Maryland was threatened seriously only once.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22 (AP)—Unbeaten Navy, with star quarterback George Welsh on the bench, its bag of tricks in the locker room and a junior varsity quarterback directing the attack, sailed to its fifth straight victory today, smashing down-trodden Penn 33-0 before 34,543 fans at Franklin Field.

Coach Eddie Erdelatz, confident his deep squad could handle anything the peaceful Quakers and third-string players could muster, used the early and apparently overworked his quarterback to use nothing but simple run and pass play. Navy, the nation's fourth-ranked team, has a date with Notre Dame next week and seemed determined to keep Irish scouts at the dark.

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 22 (AP)—Baby-faced Gene Newton, a split-T operator and a fancy runner, sprinted 49 yards for the early touchdown and guided ADDD—SPTS Roundup lane to a 14-0 upset victory over Georgia in a Southeastern Conference football game today.

Tulane stopped Georgia's air attack when it counted and Bulldogs' ground attack could take up the slack.

DURHAM, N. C., Oct. 22 (AP)—Twice-beaten Pitt smashed previously undefeated Duke, the nation's fifth ranked football power 26-7 today while holding the Devil's highly touted rushing tack to a dismal 20 yards.

Pitt rocked the fumble-plagued Dukes with a 249-yard rushing tack and added enough of an air threat by quarterbacks Pete Ely and Corky Salvaterra to blast Homecoming festivities for a crowd of 31,000.

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Oct. 22 (AP)—Fullback Paige Coltrien of the University of Arkansas led shreds and used his skillful lead the University of Mississippi to a 17-7 football victory today.

Coltrien scored 11 points on touchdowns, a field goal and conversions to boost his season's record to 10 touchdowns.

Logart Whips Gil Turner in Thrill Mixup

NEW YORK, (AP)—Isaac Logart, who once fought a main event for $1.50 in his native Cuba, today was headed for boxing's big money following his thrilling victory over experienced Gil Turner in Madison Square Garden.

The 22-year-old flash from Kid Gavilan's home province of Camaguey not only earned about $5,000 for last night's 10-round unanimous decision but clinched a Dec. 2 date in the Garden against an opponent to be selected. "We may put him in with Don Jordan who beat Joe Miceli in California, Virgil Akins, or have him fight Turner again," said Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club. "The kid made a big hit and we want to use him often."

A 13-10 underdog, Logart won the thrilling slugfest by copping the feverishly paced last round. The whole fight hinged on the final heat and Ike earned it by beating his 25-year-old, heavier rival in several furious exchanges.

All three officials awarded that frame to Ike. Had it gone the other way, Turner would have won. Referee Al Berl and Judge Jack Gordon scored it 5-4-1 while Judge JJoe Angello made it 6-4. The AP card had the Cuban in front, 5-4-1.

Gil, 10th ranking middleweight contender, outweighed his rival 152 3/4 to 147. The Philadelphia attempted to use his weight advantage in the close quarter mauling by bullying Ike with his shoulders.

Alfred M. Klein, a Philadelphia attorney, said yesterday "there is a much closer association between boxing and the underworld than I ever thought."

Klein said there was an urgent need for a congressional investigation of nationwide boxing.

Meantime, the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission is continuing its own probe, he said, even going out of the state to get witnesses.

Professional boxing in Pennsylvania had been suspended most of the summer after it was discovered Harold Johnson, a light-heavyweight, had been drugged before a May bout he lost in the Philadelphia arena.

Who drugged Johnson, and how, has not been discovered but Klein said that the commission — which held hearings for many weeks and suspended Johnson and a number of his associates—is still trying to solve that mystery — and "some day we'll find out."

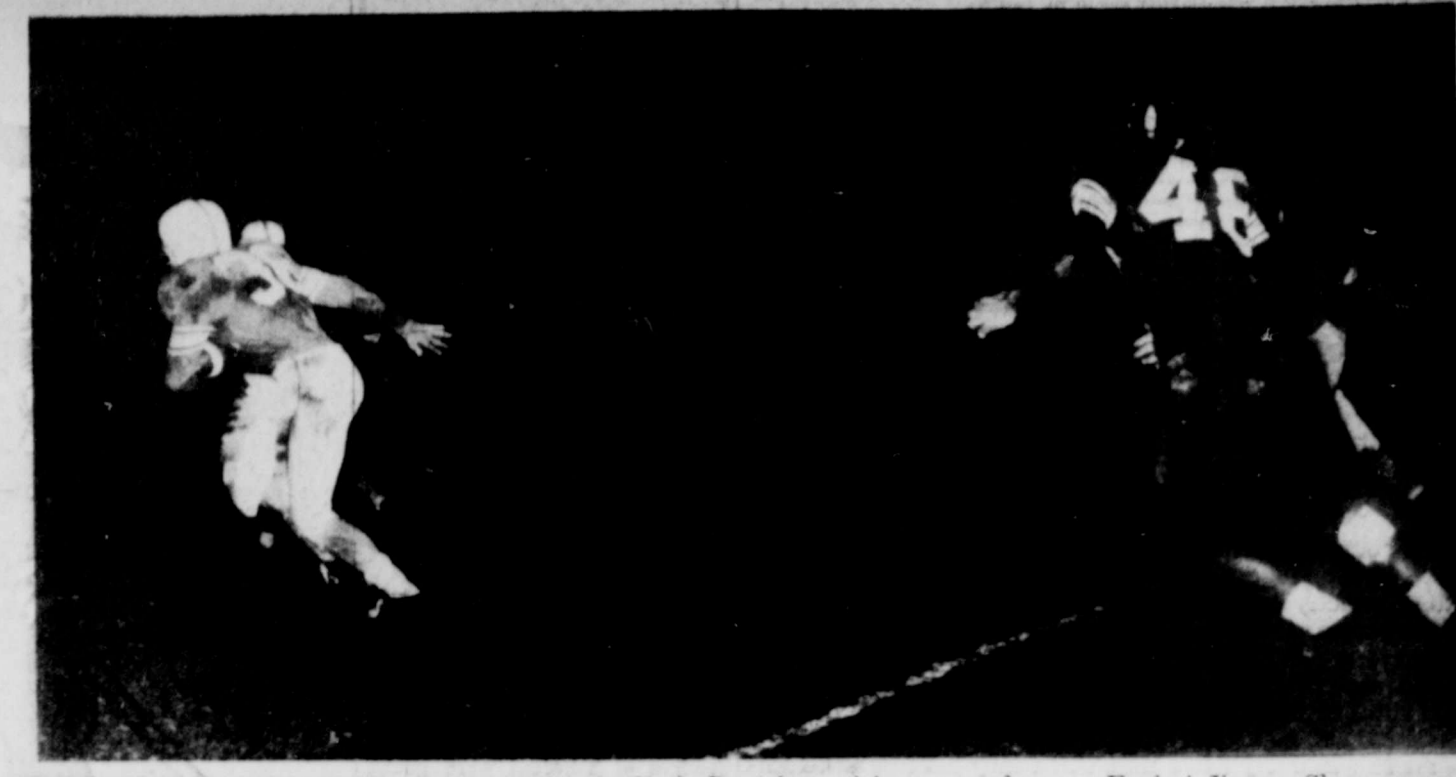

Klein also disclosed Johnson wasn't the only boxer doped in Pennsylvania, but he gave no specific details.

"There have been others and we investigated them," he said. Klein, who was associated with Sen. Estes Kefauver when the Tennessee Democrat conducted his nationwide probe of gambling, said he favored a congressional investigation because it affords subpoena power.

Witnesses who decline to testify, he said, can be cited for contempt of Congress and jailed.

Klein said that one witness before the Pennsylvania commission could reveal a lot of information, but that he is keeping mum.

He also disclosed "a number of other witnesses link underworld characters with the boxing sport," adding: "They are not all Pennsylvanians. They are good reputable witnesses who have given us important information."

Pennsylvania Athletic Czar Charges Rackets in Boxing

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—One of Pennsylvania's three athletic commissioners makes the blunt charge that "racketeer elements" have a close association with boxing.

Alfred M. Klein, a Philadelphia attorney, said yesterday "there is a much closer association between boxing and the underworld than I ever thought."

Klein said there was an urgent need for a congressional investigation of nationwide boxing.

Meantime, the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission is continuing its own probe, he said, even going out of the state to get witnesses.

West Texas Pro-Am Play Opens Tuesday At Country Club

Nearly 40 professional and some 55 amateur golfers from New Mexico and West Texas will participate in the annual West Texas Pro-Am Tournament which opens here Tuesday at the Artesia Country Club. Qualifying rounds will be played Tuesday and 54-hole medal play for the pros will begin Wednesday with the chip shot artists shooting at defending champion Horace Moore of Plainview, Texas.

Amateurs will begin 54-hole match play on the same day with finals for both classes on Friday.

Nearly $3,000 in cash is at stake for the pros and about $1,000 in prizes and merchandise awaits the winning amateurs.

Jim Morgan, Lovington, who last week won the Carlsbad Pro-Am amateur side is considered top threat for the Artesia tourney as is Ted Martinez, Artesia Invitational champ.

A woman's flight is also scheduled with Jo Boswell of Roswell as top contender. Other pro favorites entered include Dick Turner of San Angelo, Fred Atkins of Carlsbad, Gene

Roswell Coyotes Eye Gridiron Crown After Beating Highland

By ROBERT GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Roswell Coyotes, hopefully eyeing the state high school football crown worn by Highland, has taken a giant step toward a spot in the playoffs.

The Coyotes Friday night bashed Highland 36-13 in a District 2AA contest and threw Highland into a precarious position in defense of its crown.

Otherwise around the state, Farmington, El Rito, Santa Rosa and Lordsburg clinched their district titles, three others moved into strong positions in their league races, and three unbeaten records were preserved.

But the big news was Roswell's victory over Highland. It was the first defeat in the state for the Hornets and ran Roswell's season record to 6-1. The only Coyote loss was to Ysleta, Texas.

Roswell, however, hasn't clinched the title. The Coyotes still have to play Clovis, idle this week in district competition. A Roswell victory would put it in the playoffs. A Clovis victory would put the district into a three-way tie.

Dave Miller and John England led the Roswell attack as the Coyotes moved into contention with Las Cruces as the team to watch in New Mexico's big-school race.

Las Cruces remained undefeated, taking victory No. 6 with a lopsided 41-0 walloping of Burgess of El Paso. The Bulldogs now have only one stumbling block in their path—Albuquerque—towards a 3AA title.

Albuquerque redeemed itself at least a little in chalking up an impressive 14-6 victory over an improving Carlsbad team. The Bulldogs were never headed in the non-district game.

Artesia got off to a flying start in its District 4AA race. Reese Smith's team edged out Hobbs 20-19 in a thriller that saw Hobbs come from behind with 13 points in the last quarter but fall in the face of a Max Ratliff-directed drive late in the game.

Farmington hurried past Valley 21-12 to take the title in the District 1AA chase. The Scorpions will meet the winner of the 2AA battle in the semi-finals of the playoffs.

Down in Class A, Gadsden and Sal Gonzales continued on their merry way. Gadsden, which had previously clinched its district crown, bashed Western of Silver City 41-12 for its 28th straight victory. Gonzales, a two-time all state fullback, scored three times.

Tucumcari and Los Alamos moved into strong positions in the District 2A and 4A races.

Tucumcari rushed past Lovington 25-6 in a league battle and now has only to face Portales. The Rams were upset 40-27 by Class B Fort Sumner.

Los Alamos, leading the pack and apparently on its way to a playoff berth, crushed last place Taos 24-12 in 2A. The Hilltoppers are unbeaten but once-tied for the season.

Alamogordo and Raton, out of the races but anxious to polish their races, looked good in winning Raton smashed Cobre 41-9, while Raton got past Espanola 16-12. Both were league games.

In other Class A games, Deming got Belen 21-0, and Gallup edged out Socorro 13-6 in a District 1-A battle.

Three of the Class B district races were settled.

El Rito, though suffering a blemish on its otherwise spotless record got the 2B title. El Rito was tied 13-13 by a determined West Las Vegas team, but it was all El Rito needed to cinch the title. That gave it a 4-0-1 district record.

Santa Rosa emerged from the Jumbled 3B race with the crown. The Lions got past Eunice 14-13 and had to fight all the way. Santa Rosa actually ended in a tie with Fort Sumner in the district race.

Both have 2-1 league records, but Santa Rosa whipped Fort Sumner and so will be awarded the playoff spot.

Lordsburg had the easiest time of all in cinching its 4B crown. Lordsburg routed hapless Los Lunas 48-0, while in other Class B games, Cathedral whipped Aztec 13-7, Springer beat Immaculate Conception 32-6 and Hatch edged out Hot Springs 13-12.

Ruidoso, of course remained the talk of the Class C circuit. The Warriors took their seventh straight victory and have yet to be scored upon. They stopped Melrose 30-6 in a cross-district tussel. So far this season, Ruidoso has out-scored its opponents 218-0.

TCU Passing Tops Miami By 21-19

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Anybody who says TCU can't pass wasn't around last night — the ground-moving Frogs beat Miami 21-19 and two touchdowns came on sensational tosses.

Chuck Curtis, the gangling Frog quarterback, was the big show. He pitched 24 yards to Jim Swink for one touchdown, flipped to O'Day Williams for a second and then plowed through the line for a yard and the third touchdown.

The Frog line was most important in the victory. Once the massive Purple wall stopped Miami on the 1-foot line and one two other occasions halted the Hurricane as it whirled down to the Frog 20.

A crowd of 44,045 watched the game.

Swink, a great runner, got loose on a 59-yard dash to set up the second TCU touchdown that put the Frogs ahead 14-12.

Miami scored on a 65-yard drive. The next Miami score was with a 71-yard drive climaxed by Paul Hefti's 3-yard smash. Scarnechia passed to Jack Losch for a 63-yard gain and the final Miami touchdown in the fourth period.

The winning touchdown was brought about by the alertness of TCU's Don Cooper. He fell on a fumble on the Miami 21 to put the Frogs in shape to push to the score.

Dick Hilinski, Ohio State Star Killed

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Dick Hilinski, brilliant tackle who helped lead Ohio State to a Rose Bowl victory and the mythical national football championship last year, was hurled to his death last night from a foreign make car out of control on a back Michigan road.

The accident happened 15 miles northeast of Ann Arbor, home of the University of Michigan, Ohio State's biggest football rival.

Hilinski, 24, all Big Ten and third string All-America tackle last year, was riding with Sylvester J. Blake, 25, of Columbus, Ohio. The two were heading for Fenton, Mich., to attend the wedding today of a friend, James H. Morse.

Bake was treated at a hospital for a minor head injury. Hilinski completed his football eligibility last season but was assisting the Buckeye coach-staff this year while attending medical school.

Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes said Hilinski was "as great an offensive tackle as we ever had" and was "just about the most brilliant boy I ever knew."

The six-foot-two, 231-pound tackle started first at Cleveland's Cathedral Latin High School. He attended Notre Dame for one year, then transferred to Ohio State.

The name Michigan comes from an Indian word Mishigamaw, meaning great water.

Students believe the dandelion reached America in the ballast of the ships used by early colonists from Europe.

Cotton Bowl Tickets to Go on Sale For 25,000 Fans Starting Monday

DALLAS, Oct. 22 (AP)—The Cotton Bowl will sell its 25,000 tickets available to the public starting Monday to Thursday midnight. A drawing will determine who may buy the tickets since the demand always is three times the supply.

The Southwest Conference champion ordinarily is the host team. Should Texas A&M win the title some other school would have to represent the conference in the Cotton Bowl. A&M is on probation for recruiting violations and can not appear in a post-season game.

The visiting team usually comes from the Southeastern Conference. Last year it was Georgia Tech.

Howard Grubbs, secretary of the Cotton Bowl, said no applications will be accepted except in the designated 4-day period, so those desiring tickets must not mail their applications until Monday.

Tickets will be limited to four per person and each application must be accompanied by a check price is $5.50 per ticket, plus a and an addressed envelope. The 25-cent mailing fee.

The game will be on Jan. 2, since New Year's Day falls on Sunday.

There are 75,504 seats in the Cotton Bowl. Bond holders and the competing schools get 50,000.

Jimmy Demaret Leads Ryder Cup Team Into Play

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP)—Jimmy Demaret led a challenge team into doubles competition with the Ryder Cuppers today confident his men would make a good showing over the long Midland Country Club course.

Chick Harbert heads the Ryder Cup team which includes such links stars as Cary Middlecoff, Sam Snead and Doug Ford.

The matches, which close tomorrow with the singles, have a pot of $12,500. The winning professionals will get $600 each and the losers $450. The Ryder Cup tournament fund will receive $2,000.

Pairings for today's play were (Ryder Cuppers first): Middlecoff and Snead vs. Vic Ghezzi and Mike Souchak; Ford and Jack Burke vs. Demaret and Bo Winger; Tommy Bolt and Chandler Harper vs. Al Besselink and Fred Hawkins; Marty Furgol and Harbert vs. amateur Don Cherry and Billy Maxwell.

Demaret said his team was more suited to a lengthy course than the Ryder Cuppers. The Midland layout is 7,035 yards and has a par of 72.

Ben Hogan and former baseball star Dizzy Dean teamed up in an exhibition yesterday to best Demaret and the Midland pro, Boyd Huff, 1-up. Hogan had a 70, Dean 75, Demaret 71 and Huff 72.

That Is Never Good

WHEN our politicians and public office holders and those elected to our governing bodies do what they are supposed to do strictly on a basis of getting votes that is not good for the people.

There is too much of that done today. And one political party is just as guilty of doing things to get votes or delaying doing things until they face no danger of losing votes as the other.

There was a day and a time when they did this and nothing was said about it but today it is openly and frankly admitted.

Common sense tells anyone that a governing body is elected to serve the taxpayers, the voters and the citizens. Those things good for the state or the nation should be done whether it is good politically or not. When they refuse or delay acting until such a time as it will aid and help them win votes—that is not good for the country.

Some of those voicing opposition to any increases in taxes and voting additional taxes during the special session of the legislature decided they were doing Gov. John Simms and the Democratic party a favor by not voting any more taxes now with the election set for next fall.

We were told following the regular session of congress that a good many things were not done because they would get more votes if they were done during the next session of congress. For instance funds for the schools, highway funds; extension of the social security program; improvement in health insurance; facing the problem of postal deficit, etc. These things, both party leaders admitted, were delayed because it would be better for them to be done next year which is an election year.

That definitely was given as the reason there was no cut in the income taxes. Next year we are told we will get a cut because it will help get more votes for the party which provides such a program.

But the manner in which we are now adopting legislation is not good for the nation. If things are done only for political reasons or if they are not done because of politics—then we can expect little to be done in the future unless it helps win votes.

Members of the congress and of the various state legislature are elected to serve the people and to carry out the programs and the projects which bring the greatest good to the greatest number regardless of whether it is good politics or not.

and especially for his unqualified pledge to support our basic policy; complete independence of our State Game Department from political interference and pressures.

The all-important resolutions committee also got full approval on a plan to establish eight GPA regions throughout the state, made up of chapter members in the respective regions.

The plan drafted by the GPA board of directors is aimed at making regional sportsman's problems easier to cope with on a local basis. Regional council meetings will be held quarterly and each region will be represented on the state board of directors.

In Region 1 will be Taos, Mora, Espanola, and Santa Fe.

Region 2: Albuquerque, Delen, Socorro, T. or C.

Region 3: Reserve, Silver City, Hurley, Deming, Lordsburg.

Region 4: Las Cruces, Alamogordo.

Region 5: Carrizozo, Roswell, Artesia, Carlsbad.

Region 6: Eunice, Hobbs, Lovington.

Region 7: Clovis, Ft. Sumner, Santa Rosa, Tucuman.

Region 8: Gallup, Farmington.

All was peace and harmony at the convention drew to a close with a threat of heated discussion on the Clayton Dam project skillfully turned to satisfaction.

Charles Seery, chairman of the resolutions committee, said that no specific recommendation was to be made on the project despite early GPA disagreement on the costs.

"The dam has been built and New Mexico sportsmen will benefit by it," Seery said. "We do have several other resolutions which call upon the state game department to be more extensive in their pre-project studies and to make their findings known prior to construction."

In the elections the GPA also picked the following members of the board of directors:

another car entered the picture. It was theorized that Rutherford knew his killer since he had pulled up behind a car parked at the side of the road. His killer then moved to Rutherford's window and shot. All the bullets entered from his left, two going through his mouth and out his neck. Two more went through his body and the fifth struck his wrist. All the bullets passed through his body. No slugs were found. Police were checking the upholstery of the car in an attempt to discover slugs.

An autopsy was performed on Rutherford's body this morning and a coroner's jury convened at the scene of the murder and returned a verdict of death by gunshot wounds administered by person or persons unknown.

Police pieced the crime together from tire marks and footprints at the scene. They gave this picture: Rutherford left Clouderoft after having a drink between 1 p.m. and 1:30 p.m. He was seen entering his car alone and police discounted earlier theories that a hitchhiker had murdered the novelty company operator.

He drove about eight miles east and saw the second car parked on the side of the road. He pulled in behind it although normally a person stopping for another person he does not know would be expected to pull alongside.

The murderer then walked back to Rutherford's car and fired his volley.

The murder, police said, then drove Rutherford's car with Rutherford's body in it a half-mile down State Road 83. He turned off on a side road and drove 200 yards to a small bridge where he dumped the body down the arroyo.

Police said Rutherford's car was driven back to the second vehicle and the murderer left Rutherford's car there and drove away in his own. The fact that these several trips were necessary indicated to police that only one man was involved.

Police said also that whoever drove the Rutherford car to the arroyo probably came away full of blood since the 50-year-old Alamogordo man had bled profusely from his jugular vein and other wounds.

Rutherford operated the Apache Novelty Co. in Alamogordo. He came here from Amarillo, Tex., about a year ago. He is survived by his widow and a daughter in Alamogordo and another daughter in California.

Chavez told reporters here, "I didn't request the Air Force for a doggone thing. If the Air Force felt it should send special planes for us that's up to them."

Stennis said he was told before leaving Washington "all transportation was arranged and I assumed I would return on a regular (MATS) Military Air Transport Service run which was carrying returning soldiers and their families. Any report or intimation that I requested a special plane or declined to wait for scheduled flights is absolutely false."

McLellan said he, too, assumed he would be returning on a regular MATS run.

He described as "false in its implication" a statement made in Washington yesterday by Robert Tripp Ross, assistant secretary of defense for legislative and public affairs, that the senators had rejected flight dates proposed by the Pentagon as unacceptable because they involved delays of two or three days.

Tripp said due to the senators' objections there was no alternative but to provide special aircraft to meet their request.

Gettysburg to Washington for occasional meetings.

In response to a question, White said that Eisenhower's recovery has gone along "almost exactly" according to the schedule he outlined on his last previous trip to Denver two weeks ago.

He quoted a letter from Dr. Eugene Lepeschkin, a cardiogram expert at the University of Vermont Medical School, as saying that while electrocardiograms during the first 10 days after the President's Sept. 24 heart seizure indicated that "the healing process appeared delayed, it has now caught up with the time sched-policy would take in this respect. There was no mention of the President's "open spy" proposal for reciprocal aerial inspection. The Soviet Union, however, already has announced it has not closed the door on that question.

Some Western observers here feel the primary aim of Moscow at the Geneva foreign ministers conference opening Thursday is some form of disarmament. Diplomats here say if there is any significant progress at Geneva at all, it will concern that question. They see no chance for Moscow to withdraw from its adamant position on the reunification of Germany and they do not believe the United States will give in to Soviet efforts to have Western bases liquidated.

It is very important, he said, to obtain such information as the healing process goes on.

Eisenhower, he said, has come through his conferences with government officials "very well" and "taken them in stride."

Eisenhower has seen Vice President Nixon and three Cabinet members in the last two weeks and White said "We all feel they have helped rather than hurt him."

HELP ON WAY

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Three trucks are on the way to the northern edge of the Navajo Reservation with food and clothing for the tribesmen. The mercy mission is sponsored by Gov. J. Bracken Lee and State Road Commissioner H. J. Corleissen, who said, "We want to see that not one of the Indians suffer from malnutrition or exposure."

RATHBUN SENTENCED

DENVER, (AP)—An Albuquerque man, Floyd L. Rathbun, 41, has been sentenced to a year and a day and a $1,000 fine for threatening the life of a Pueblo man in a telephone conversation last year. Rathbun says he will appeal the U. S. Federal court sentence.

White said that confirms what he and the other doctors attending the President believe.

Starting tomorrow, White said, Eisenhower will begin taking a few steps. He said the physicians hoped to put him on the scales in a day or two to check on his weight.

Starting the week after next, White said, the chief executive is expected to be walking about much more on one level, and strolling on the hospital sundeck.

"In all probability, at the end of two weeks from now," he said, "he will be quite mobile and able to dispense with his wheelchair most of the time."

Next week and in the weeks ahead, White said, the doctors plan to take X-rays of the President in a standing position so they will get a better idea of the size of his heart.

Industries Of Artesia

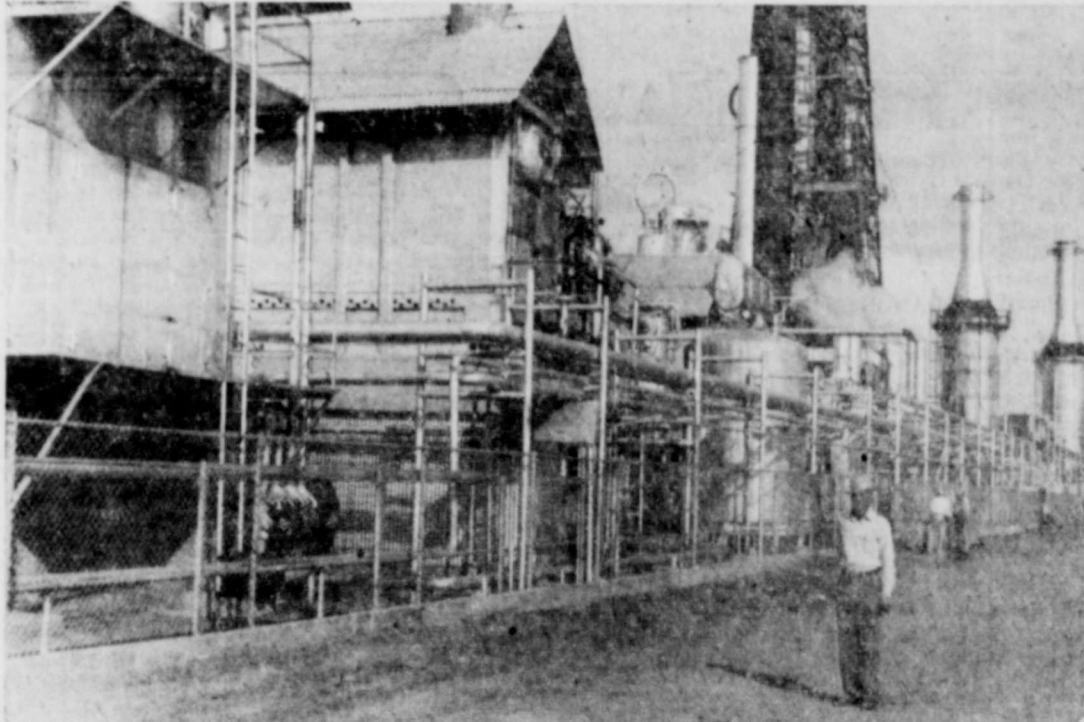

Through the maze of pipes and valves and tanks of Malco's Artesia refinery flow 10,000 barrels of crude oil every 24 hours. The finished petroleum products range through everything from jet fuel to asphalt. Malco took over its present plant here two and a half years ago, from the New Mexico Asphalt and Refining Co. Lowell Naylor, 1001 Ray St., has been plant superintendent since Malco took over. As one of Artesia's leading industries, the Malco refinery has contributed much to the economy of the community.

In the picture at the upper left is seen the crude oil distillation tower where the fractionation process separates the different petroleum products.

At the upper right are shown the de-salters and the cooling towers and the tanks where the finished products are stored.

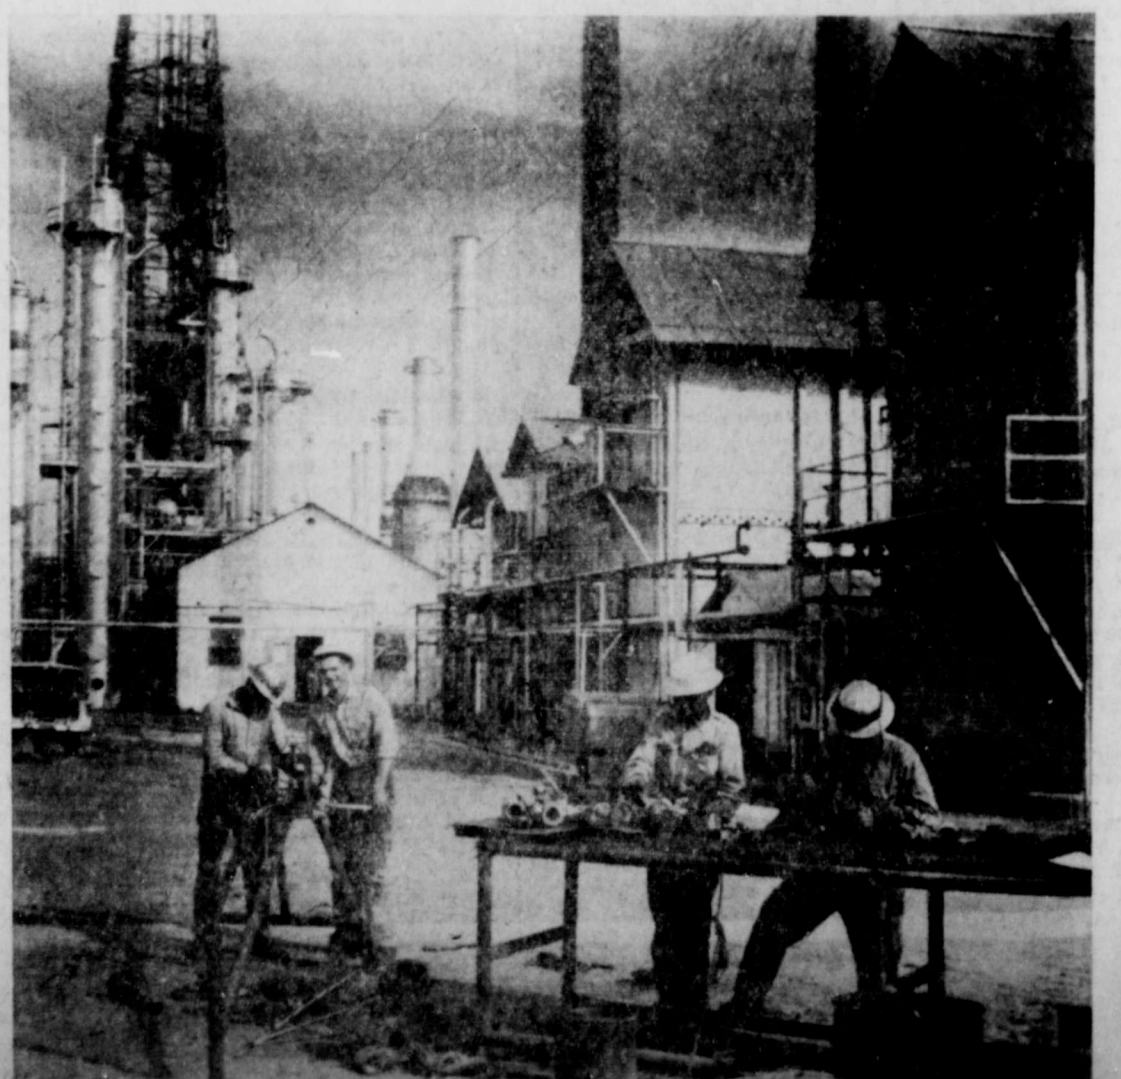

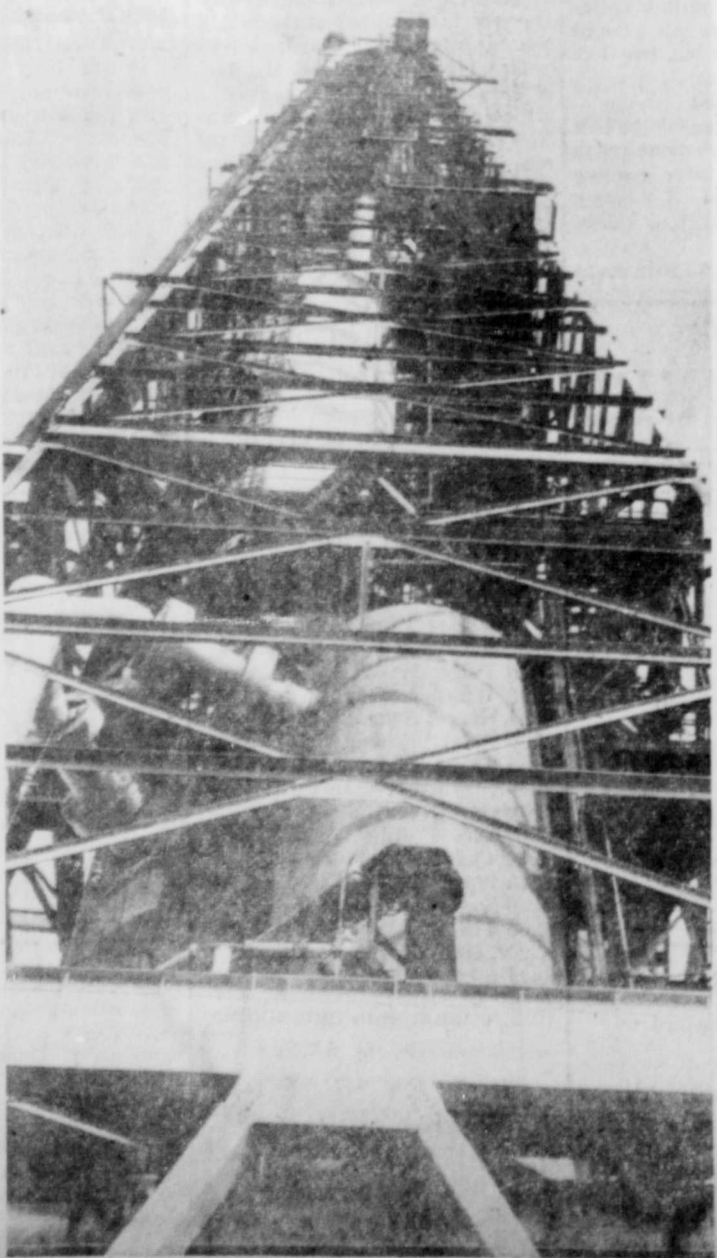

The picture at center, left shows the refinery control board. Standing at the panel is H. R. Gleghorn, board man; J. O. Parker, Don Bartlett, and James Griffin, workers at the plant.

New Members Are Initiated Into DKG Sorority

Miss Fern Haas, Mrs. Emile Montgomery and Mrs. Edith Riddle were initiated into Xi chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma on Thursday evening at the Artesia Country club.

Miss Haas, escorted by Miss Lorene Tyson, is a first grade teacher at Hermosa school. Mrs. Riddle escorted by Miss Nancy Haynes, is a second grade teacher at Park school. Mrs. Montgomery escorted by Miss Ruth Russell was accorded honorary membership as a friend in the cause of education. Mrs. Montgomery was a pioneer teacher in the Artesia schools.

Miss Marion Wood, first vice president of Xi chapter, conducted the ritual for initiating these new members into the national honor society, according recognition for their service to education, progress of humanity and their high ideals toward the teaching profession.

Assisting with the initiation were Mrs. Milton Parker, second vice president; Mrs. Edna McGuffin and Mrs. Morene Short. The ritual was concluded with the singing of the official Delta Kappa Gamma song. The traditional red rose was presented to each new member.

The initiation was preceded by a banquet, arranged by Mrs. Kathryn Hamrick. The centerpiece was red roses, and the T shaped table was decorated with dry arrangements of gilded Yucca, embellished with red, to carry out the society's colors of red and gold. Individual place cards were crested with the society's Greek letters. Places were laid for 33 members.

Christmas Seal Committee Meets With Area Director

Planning committee for the 1955 Tuberculosis Association Christmas Seal sale met Thursday evening with Mrs. Tess Potter, area director of Tri-County Tuberculosis Assn. in the area office.

It was announced that Nov. 18 will be the mailing date of Christmas Seals. Plans were made to distribute Christmas seal posters in the business houses.

Members urge the community to purchase the seals as tuberculosis can be prevented, yet approximately 17,000 Americans died of tuberculosis last year, 113 of them in New Mexico. There are 3,750 active cases of tuberculosis in New Mexico. Tuberculosis is a chronic disease caused by a germ, the tubercle bacillus. It can attack any part of the body, but the most common form affects the lungs. Tuberculosis can be cured, buy and use TB Christmas Seals.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Ray Bartlett, member of tri-county advisory council; Mrs. E. N. Russell, chairman of banking committee; Mrs. Grant Ivers, secretary-treasurer of TB Seal sale; Mrs. Ray Thompson, publicity chairman; Mrs. Bill Fowler, tri-county secretary and Mrs. Potter.

Las Cruces Pastor To Hold Revival Here Next Week

Revival services will be held each evening at the First Methodist church, Sunday through Thursday, with preaching by Rev. Nelson Wurgler, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church of Las Cruces. The evangelist will preach his first sermon Sunday evening at 7 p. m. Through the week, the services will begin at 7:30 p. m. There will be a breakfast each morning at 7 a. m. for the men, at which time Rev. Wurgler will give a devotional message.

The Rev. Wurgler has been pastor of the Methodist church in Las Cruces since May of 1953, having been sent there from Marfa, Tex., where he was pastor of the Methodist church for nine years. Bro. Wurgler has served throughout his ministry in the New Mexico Conference of the Methodist church and has held many positions of leadership.

Restoring Founder's Home Is Girl Scout Unit Project

The restoration of the Juliette Low home in Savannah, Ga., has become a project of the two senior Girl Scout troops in town, which they are pushing with a silver tea to be held Monday, Oct. 31 from 4:30 to 6 p. m., at the Fellowship Hall of the Methodist church.

Troop 11 and the newly formed senior troop, 17, being led by Mrs. E. A. DeMars, will be hostesses at the Halloween affair to which all scout workers of the area within the Girl Scout organization are invited to attend.

The 14 scouts of the two troops will be hostesses assisted by their leaders, Mrs. DeMars and Mrs. J. K. Woodlee.

The old home for which the money is being raised is the birth place of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scout movement in America. The national organization plans on using it as a permanent display hall for Girl Scout arts and crafts and as a memorial to the founder of the 50-year-old organization.

CFW Gathers at Thursday Meeting

General meeting of Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian church was held at the church Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Orvan Gilstrap opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Bennie Juarez, president, was in charge of the business session. Mrs. John Gilmer was lesson leader, her subject was "Informed Women Read" and she was assisted by Mrs. Gilstrap, Mrs. Earl Darst, Mrs. Norman Stewart, Mrs. E. T. Gore and Mrs. Clifford Bradshaw. Mrs. Joe Walker gave the worship program and Rev. Gilstrap gave the Bible study on the book of Romans.

The hostesses, Mrs. Wirt Rooney and Mrs. Tommy Wilkerson served refreshments of spiced tea and donuts to 18 members.

Loco Hills Church Continues Revival

A real religious revival and community awakening enters its second week in the Loco Hills-Malamar community where Dr. C. A. Clark is pastor.

Rev. Grady McCullough, pastor of Tularosa Methodist church, a very fine musician and worker with young people is doing the preaching and assisting in the revival. Services will continue through Thursday evening at 7 p. m.

A special service of baptism and reception of members will be held at the 11 a. m. services today.

The meeting is a part of the conference-wide revival and program of evangelism being led by the Methodist church.

Quilting Bee Has All-Day Meeting

An all-day meeting of the Quilting Bee was held Thursday in the home of Mrs. C. L. Helley. Mrs. Addie Pierson was co-hostess.

At noon, a covered-dish luncheon was served. The day was spent in visiting and quilting.

TUNA AND ASPARAGUS, CASSEROLE STYLE

Ingredients: 1 can (14½ ounces) green asparagus, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 4 tablespoons flour, milk, salt, pepper, 1-3 cup grated Parmesan cheese, 2 cans (7 ounces each) tuna, 4 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese, paprika.

Method: Drain liquid from asparagus into a measure; add enough milk to make 2 cups. Melt butter in 1 or 1½ - quart saucepan over low heat; stir in flour. Add milk all at once; cook and stir constantly until bubbly and thickened; allow to bubble a few more minutes; add salt and pepper to taste. Stir in 1-3 cup Parmesan. Cool, then refrigerate. At serving time, arrange asparagus in 4 individual casseroles, each holding at least 1 cup. Drain tuna; break up; arrange tuna over asparagus; spoon sauce over; sprinkle with the 1-4 cup Parmesan; dust with paprika. Bake in hot (425 degrees) oven until hot and bubbly—10 minutes or longer. Makes 4 hearty servings.

Note: Individual heat-resistant glass pie dishes (about 6 inches across and 1 inch deep) are fine to use for this recipe.

Stevenson Comes Out in Support of 90 Per Cent Parity for Farm Crops as Demo Campaign Issue

By The Associated Press Adlai E. Stevenson stirred political talk among Midwest Democratic leaders yesterday with a strong endorsement of 90 per cent parity price supports for basic farm crops. Sen. Kefauver, Tenn., another prominent possibility for the Democratic presidential nomination next year, also hit heavily on the farm problem in his first major political speech of the fall. And New York's Gov. Averell Harriman, likewise talked of for the Democratic nomination, was billed for a major address on farm matters tonight. No Endorsement None of the three possible Democratic candidates won endorsement from Henry A. Wallace yesterday, however. Wallace, a one-time New Deal Cabinet member and vice president under President Roosevelt who now calls himself an independent, said in South Salem, N. Y., he favors President Eisenhower for president again next year "to further the cause of world peace." Wallace, the Progressive party nominee for president in 1948, said he had "the greatest admiration and respect" for Stevenson. Kefauver and Harriman. But Eisenhower "represents more than any other man the world's hope for peace," Wallace said, and "this outweighs all other considerations."

WHO DOES IT?

Backstage New Mexico

By the New Mexico Staff of The ASSOCIATED PRESS
What drives a cop to remain a cop?

What drives a man to keep a job that offers little thanks, financially or otherwise, and entails plenty of work—and sometimes danger—under adverse physical and moral conditions?

These questions were posed to one Albuquerque officer recently. "There is a sense or feeling of accomplishment in a job that helps somebody," he said. "No field can offer this kind of satisfaction as much as police work. It's a personal gratification. If you can divert one person from a life of crime or straighten out one person, you've done a hell of a lot."

Then the officer asked: "Why is a doctor a doctor? Why is a lawyer a lawyer? Each treats or advises his patient or client. A cop? He takes care of everybody. I see everybody's troubles—the doctor, the lawyer—and I try to help."

An officer's job "isn't all going out and latching someone and throw him in the clink." Charged with the protection of life and property and the prevention of crime, the easiest job of a cop probably is catching the criminals. "Everyone frowns on a criminal," he said.

"The toughest problem a cop runs up against is the public," he said. "Nobody likes to admit he's wrong—even if he is wrong. He wants to argue about it. All his life a guy's been taught to push back when he is pushed, and I think the greatest problem a cop has is his temper. He must control it."

"People don't realize that they make the law—we only enforce it." Catching a criminal involves no problems other than finding the criminal, the officer said. But catch a guy running a stop sign, and you've got a problem.

"He thinks he's innocent because he didn't hit anyone," he said. "But he doesn't realize that one-tenth of a second can make the difference between a record of manslaughter and a speeding violation."

Most officers today have quite a bit of education, he said, and they have to study and keep on studying if they want to be a policeman. "Being a cop is a profession, and it's getting to the point where people realize it," he said.

"Probably the FBI has done more to raise police to a professional status than any other outfit. There's no politics and no bowing in the FBI and every police department is trying to emulate the FBI."

The conversation was warm now and the officer was going to town. "You can't pin a badge on a guy and say 'You're a cop.' You need cops that are smarter than crooks. And criminals are pretty smart, too. Hell, today everybody's got an education, including criminals. And some of our criminals are doctors and lawyers and other professional men."

"It takes a smart cop to catch a smart crook. And the cop has got to be a little smarter." The officer, who was off duty and in a hurry to get home to his wife and kids, then gave a classic example:

"Take confidence games. Now if a crook is smart enough to sell the Brooklyn Bridge to a doctor, how are you going to catch him? Buster, the cop has to be just a little smarter. And that takes education. It takes professional men."

"Why am I a cop? Because I'm helping somebody all the time. It's personal gratification."

SOMEONE ASKED the scientist in charge of the recent sodium emission or artificial moonlight test at Holloman Air Development Center the name of a specially-designed instrument to watch the cloud. He commented: "We don't give names to instruments we build ourselves—we use names only for the things we have to buy."

A busload of travelers bound from Roswell to Alamogordo recently were amused—and enlightened—by the comments of one gentleman taking his year-old grandson back to the daughter's home in Alamogordo. Someone asked the old gent how much Roswell had grown recently. He said: "Not once but several times—well, I don't know exactly. But I do know that the city had two trash trucks when I went to work for the garbage department 13 years ago, and now it has more than 20."

A college professor says those misspelled signs you see along the highways indicate "not just one man's mistake, but an area of ignorance."

Dr. Roland Dickison, head of the English department at Florence State Teachers College,

Florence, Ala. made the observation after a recent trip to his old home in Colorado Springs, Colo., then out to California and back through New Mexico to his job.

He says those misspelled signs indicate "the painter didn't know the correct spelling, the man who hired the painter didn't know, no one in the employer's family knows, none of his friends knows, and none of his enemies knows or he probably would learn the correct spelling through ridicule."

Dickison recalls these misspelled words: "Cabens" for cabins, "minners" for minnows, "cheif" for chief, "wattermelon" for watermelon and "machanic" for mechanic.

He also recalls a tire company sign which said: "Best of it's kind."

Dickison says he wouldn't trade with that company. "If the management is careless in its signs, it may be careless in its work."

IT SOUNDED like the Navajos were staging some kind of ceremony inside the tribe's cafe at Window Rock, Ariz. But investigation showed the drum beats and chants were coming from a record in a juke box. A number such "platters" vied with the usual assortment of Westerns and modern dance tunes for popularity among the tribesmen. And the Indian chants and dances were holding their own. Around the cafe sat several tribal juniors and seniors slipping nickels into the juke box to hear their own music.

John McFee, former information officer for the Indian Service at Window Rock, Ariz., and now editor of Bisbee, Ariz., daily newspaper, tells this story of a visit to the Hopi Reservation a few years ago to watch a snake dance:

His attention was attracted to a group of wealthy onlookers who made an annual trip to the reservation to watch the ceremony.

Many Problems Facing Oilmen For Next Year

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—The oil industry can expect a number of problems of "far-reaching" importance in the coming year, independent producers heard this week.

Russell Brown, general counsel of the Independent Petroleum Assn. of America (IPAA), sent a letter to members listing these as among problems he said must be met "squarely and with resolution."

Increasing "excessive" imports. Federal regulation of natural gas producer prices. "Repeated attacks on depletion." The present law permits oil and gas operators at 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance for income tax purposes.

"These," Brown said, "are matters which require a solution during the immediate months ahead." He said action mapped at the IPAA meeting in St. Louis, Oct. 21 to Nov. 1, "will determine the success we may expect in seeking satisfactory solutions."

"The oil problem continues without signs of solution short of government action under existing law." Total imports of crude oil and refined products in 1955, Brown said, would exceed levels recommended by the cabinet committee on energy supplies and resources policy by 112,000 barrels daily.

The group combined the event with a bit of "roughing it." There was a slight difference, however, between them and the usual camper. They had elaborate equipment and they brought servants along. One of the party, McFee noted, always was attended by a man who carried a big thermos bottle. From time to time the man of wealth took a sip. John's curiosity got the better of him, and he asked what was in it. The contents? Martinis!

Petroleum Institute Creates Finance, Accounting Division

NEW YORK—Creation of a new division, to be known as the Division of Finance and Accounting, was announced today by the American Petroleum Institute.

President Frank M. Porter said the new division will replace the Financial and Accounting Committee, which has been in existence for 30 years.

The vice president for the new Division will be appointed by the Institute's Board Chairman.

President Porter said the reasons for the organizational change are as follows:

1. To recognize within the Institute the tremendous evolutionary advances which have taken place in the corporate financial and accounting structure of the oil industry.

2. To bring within the democratic framework of the Institute organization the industry's enlarged and continuously expanding financial and accounting functions.

3. To give the Financial and Accounting Organization sufficient depth and breadth to enable it to assume on an industry basis appropriate responsibilities.

The recommendation for divisional status was made by the Financial and Accounting Committee itself, which is headed by P. C. Saloman, of Socony Mobil Oil Co., Inc., New York, is the current Chairman.

Scope of the new Division of Finance and Accounting, as approved by the Institute's Executive Committee at its September meeting, is as follows:

1. To study through committees and forums the financial, accounting, and income tax problems of interest to the membership.

2. To provide a channel of communication and cooperation between the petroleum industry and governmental agencies on industry financial and accounting matters of mutual concern.

NEW YORK—These autumn days, Chinatown lies sleepy and quiet in the pale sun that drifts streetward through the rusting and disused pillars and tracks of the abandoned Third Avenue El. Occasionally a noisy drunk from the east boundary of the Bowery finds his way into the silent community. Whenever I go through it, past the little curio shops and the chop suey joints, I marvel at how a place can change, almost suddenly, from one of violence and bloodshed into one of comparative tranquility.

Actually, it hardly has been three decades since the tong wars ended in Chinatown. For more than 25 years, staged in the tiny, winding downtown streets with the cloying fumes of opium mingling with the smoke from guns, they made the Chinese community a virtual mysterious abattoir. And I suppose most of the violence stemmed from the mind and soul of a stranger man called Mock Duck.

THE STRANGEST CASUALTY in the wars, I guess, was Ah Hoon. He was a Chinese comedian and member of the On Leongs, who was so unwise as to needle the Hip Sings from the stage of the Chinese theater, situated at the "Bloody Angle"—a section of Doyers street in which it is believed more men have been murdered than at any other place of like area in the world. The Hip Sings told him flatly he would be murdered and informed him of the exact night.

That night, Ah Hoon nervously performed at the theater, and then went home, escorted by police. On Leong henchmen, all in shirts of mail, guarded the doorways of his house all night. In the morning, Ah Hoon was found dead in his locked bedroom. The Hip Sings had lowered a boatman's chair from the roof until one of their gunmen had been opposite Ah Hoon's window, from where he had aimed and fired.

After Mock Duck went to prison, the tong wars cooled down a bit, but they lasted until the mid-Twenties, branching into the Bronx and Brooklyn from Chinatown.

Today, there are no—at least not visible—tong wars in Chinatown. Life there is much duller, but, all in all, better.

Mock Duck appeared in Chinatown at the turn of the century. Until that time, Tom Lee was the unofficial boss of the area. A huge man who wore the customary shirt of chain mail affected by those who lived precariously, in such times, Lee was head of the On Leong tong. What this amounted to, actually, was control of the huge and busy gambling industry in Chinatown. There was another tong, Hip Sing, but it got only crumbs. The On Leongs ran things, and Tom Lee—who also was a New York deputy sheriff—ran the On Leongs.

MOCK DUCK THEN TURNED UP. He was fat and little, he carried two guns and a hatchet and he wanted to be "emperor" of Chinatown. He was quick to use his guns and, in a macabre way, funny. He would sink to his haunches, shut his eyes and fire away at his enemies and anyone else nearby. Only his wife seemed to have him buffaloed. It is remembered that once she found him in another woman's flat and led him home by the nape of his neck, cuffing and kicking him.

The little man gained control of the Hip Sings within a year after arriving here from the west. He immediately warned Tom Lee he wanted a half interest in the gambling privileges. Tom Lee laughed—and a few weeks later, two of his key men were burned to death in a boarding house in Pell street. An On Leong man promptly went out and hacked to death the first Hip Sing man he met in Doyers street.

From there on into the early 1920s, except for truces now and then, Chinatown was as sinister as its reputation. In 1904, Mock Duck was shot in the hip, but he recovered, and the Oriental gang wars, conducted on a kind of George Raft-Edward G. Robinson plane, blazed away hotter than ever. In 1912, Mock Duck went to Sing Sing on a charge of running a policy-slip game. When he emerged, he gave up tong wars and never returned to Chinatown.

Kefauver First Candidate For Democratic Nomination Tennessee May Toss Hat Into Ring By Month End

WASHINGTON—The outlook in Washington is that Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee will be the first Democrat to toss his hat into the ring in a bid for the 1956 presidential nomination. Kefauver supporters, already busy stirring up a boom for the senator, expect him to make an official announcement of his availability later this month after his return from overseas.

An announcement by the popular Tennessee may force the hand of other leading Democratic party aspirants earlier than they anticipated. They can't afford to let Kefauver get his handwagon rolling while they sit idly on the sidelines.

Announcement by Adlai Stevenson that he may actively seek the presidency which he unsuccessfully sought in 1952—may come sooner than expected because of the Kefauver factor. Stevenson was believed set publicly to declare his intentions on Nov. 19 but now it may come sooner.

The stepped-up political pace may also force New York's Gov. Averell Harriman to take a definite stand on his own candidacy. Currently there is a strong Harriman boom underway among Democrats with Carmine De Sapio, Tammany chief, spearheading it, but the move could bog down unless the governor spells out his intentions.

BACKFIRE FOR HALL—Meanwhile, accurate political observers feel that Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall may have unwittingly helped the cause of Stevenson's candidacy by charging there is a plot among Democratic leaders to "dump" the 1952 standard bearer before next year's convention.

Hall issued a statement listing former President Harry S. Truman and DeSapio as motivators in the move which would sidetrack Stevenson on Harriman's behalf.

Although the GOP leader's remarks were in the nature of a jibe, it may backfire to Stevenson's benefit. Truman, for instance, promptly declared Hall was totally wrong and stressed his friendship with both Stevenson and Harriman.

The ex-President's tactics also raised the possibility that he would like to see a Stevenson-Harriman ticket in 1956—a combination which might prove tough to defeat.

POPULATION CLIMB—Senator Clinton P. Anderson (D), New Mexico, predicts that the world's population may soar to seven billion people in another hundred years. The present estimated population is about two and a half billions.

Anderson points out that experts figure that the first doubling of the globe's population took about 950 years—from 700 A. D. to 1650. However, the next doubling took only 200 years and the third doubling required only a century as of 1950.

With the speed-up of world population growth and scientific, agricultural and medical advancements, Anderson is confident that the seven billion mark can be reached by the year 2055.

FAST "VEEPS"—The current vice presidential question posed by President Eisenhower's illness has prompted numerous comparisons to similar situations in American history. The National Geographic Society points out these:

The nation has been technically without a President on several occasions. George Washington, for instance, came in as the first chief executive nine days later than Vice President John Adams. Slow travel delayed congressional action in counting the electoral votes.

In the years when the March 4 inauguration day fell on Sunday several Presidents-elect were inducted on the 5th. James Monroe took the oath for his second term on March 5, 1821—and since administrations were then considered to end at midnight on the 3rd, theoretically there was no chief executive for a day and a half.

Shortest presidential and vice presidential terms were those of William Henry Harrison, who died after a month in office, and his successor, John Tyler, whose vice presidency was left vacant for virtually an entire term.
