Big Game Hunting Accident Record Better In State

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS New Mexico closed out its big game hunting season at sundown today with a somewhat better average record of slain, wounded and lost hunters.

The only death occurred early last week when a Truth or Consequences youngster was accidentally shot by his father. Two missing hunters who were sought last night showed up unharmed this morning.

Bob Akins, 15, of Santa Fe was found at 3:49 a.m. in the Pena Blanca area by Frank Garfield and Richard McGee of Santa Fe. State Police said the youth was "extremely tired" but otherwise in good shape after a night in the woods.

Earl Mertha, 32, of the Cuba area, returned to his home safe this morning. State Police had sent a missing report on him when he failed to return to camp last night.

Last year there were 19 gun accidents in New Mexico hunting, 12 self inflicted and three fatal. The State Game Department said today that carelessness was behind every hunting accident, every year.

The department said it is the more experienced hunter, rather than the newcomer, who causes most of the accidents. According to national statistics there are a higher percentage of casualties among hunters with six to 10 years experience than among those with one to two years of hunting behind them.

Large Crowd To Attend Meeting of Booster Clubs Artesia's enthusiastic adult football boosters—the Quarterback and Parent-Boosters clubs—are expected to turn out en masse Tuesday night for what they expect to be the peppiest and largest pre-rally of the year.

The organizations will meet in a session at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow at the high school cafeteria. Following the session will be a high school pep band and the members of the Pep Club. All members of the football team and their coaches will also be on hand.

In addition to urging a large crowd to the meeting, the clubs are also asking for a big gathering to be at the high school cafeteria, on Quay street, Wednesday afternoon at 5 p. m. when the team departs for Las Cruces.

Artesia and Las Cruces meet at 7 p. m. Thursday for the right to play Roswell for the state Double football championship a week later.

Firemen Pass By Park But Find Fire Firemen overshot their mark yesterday on a run south of town. The fire was reported three miles south but firemen say they only saw smoke until they had gone too far.

Minor "Davy" Hunts Prowler BOBBS—A 13-year-old modification of Davy Crockett took out an intruder in his hogpen last night and sent the prowling so fast he leaped a four-foot fence in stride. Harry Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Elliott, was lying on a cot when he heard his two dogs bark.

Artesia and Las Cruces meet at 7 p. m. Thursday for the right to play Roswell for the state Double football championship a week later.

Brown Claims Sen. Anderson Has Chance

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—State Democratic chairman Tom Brown believes the Democratic state convention next summer very likely will select a slate of delegates to the national nominating convention which will support Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM) for vice president and Adlai Stevenson for president.

Tom E. Brown Sr., Artesia, expressed his views on his return from a series of party conferences at Chicago the past weekend. It was Brown who last week tossed Anderson's hat in the ring for vice presidential nomination and went to the Chicago meetings of party leaders to seek support for the Albuquerque slogan.

"Clint's chances for the nomination are very much improved over a week ago," Brown said. "Clint had dinner with Stevenson, and I talked to members of Stevenson's staff. No one committed himself to Anderson, but they all said he would make a very fine vice president."

Anderson himself made this statement on his return from the Chicago $100-a-plate dinner Saturday night. "I did not discuss any candidacy of my own. I am more receptive to the nomination today than I was a week ago."

Anderson said that he went to the dinner "primarily to see if there was any great evidence of Democratic harmony and there was."

"I talked to Gov. Stevenson about the farm program," he added. Asked if he and the former Illinois governor are in accord on the farm issue, Anderson said: "I don't think we are very far apart. I talked to him about it because I make some farm speeches."

Anderson said he heard some sentiment at Chicago for a ticket composed of Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver (Tenn.). Sen. Kefauver, however, is considered a possible candidate for the presidential nomination.

Brown said that he discussed putting Anderson on the national ticket. (Continued on page four)

Motorist Hurt In Sunday Crash

A Lake Arthur man was injured in a two-car collision on the North Thirteenth Street road near Cottonwood about 7:00 p. m. yesterday and an estimated $400 damage was done to the two cars, Jesse Sosa, deputy sheriff, said here today.

Eugenio Martinez, 22, Lake Arthur, had stopped on the edge of the road after the lights of his car went out. As he was getting out of the car, a second car, driven by Ralph O. Pearson, Lake Arthur, collided with the rear of Martinez' car, knocking Martinez to the ground and bruising his shoulder and knee, Sosa said.

Sosa estimated the damage to the front of Pearson's car at $350 and damage to the rear of Martinez' car at $50. Martinez was driven to the Artesia General Hospital by Clarence Pearson, Lake Arthur, where he was treated for minor injuries.

Martinez was charged for driving without a license, Sosa said.

Pat Martinez, U. S. Department of Labor representative stationed here, said that the Eddy County Farm Bureau today shipped 95 Braceros back to El Paso. The Artesia Alfalfa Growers Association Saturday shipped out another 271 nationals, he said.

The Bureau and the Association are the two contracting agencies for Mexican labor in the Artesia area.

Christmas Season Events Are Listed By Chamber Of Commerce

Paul Scott, Chamber of Commerce manager, today released the schedule of opening day events for the Christmas season in Artesia Nov. 28.

Scott also gave out details of the Christmas Treasure Hunt, to begin on the opening day of the season and last through Christmas. The Christmas opening day schedule is as follows:

At 4:00 p. m. there will be a parade, tentatively scheduled to begin at the high school football stadium and proceed east on Main to Second street, right on Second to Quay and west on Quay to Fifth.

Santa Claus will be flown in at the airport, where he will be met and escorted to the parade. There will be a police escort and the high school band will march in the parade.

10 Killed In Nebraska Crash

WATERBURY, Neb. (AP)—A head-on collision, believed to have been the worst in Nebraska highway history, snuffed out 10 lives last night—those of six teenagers and four musicians.

Col. C. J. Sanders, head of the Nebraska safety patrol, said he could recall no other accident taking so many lives. The teenagers were returning to their farm homes near Ponca. The state safety patrol said a front tire apparently blew out. Their car rumbled head on into one carrying the musicians, bound for an engagement at Norfolk, Neb.

The car carrying four members of the Jimmy Palmer orchestra, James E. Matello, about 30, Springfield, Ill.; Jack Renn, about 25, Pittsburg; Lou Case Jr., about 25, Rock Island, Ill.; and Don Sheffield, about 25, of Vermont, burst into flames after the impact. The Nebraskans killed were Rodney Hanks, Gray Stark, Robert Rakow, Perry Book, Richard Kahn and a Ronald Nobbe.

Detective William Garn said the girl was Delores Birdtail, who lived at an unidentified Indian reservation in Montana.

Four Fined; Two Braceros Deported

In police court today Four men were fined for drunkenness and a fifth received a 15-day suspended sentence on a similar charge. Two Mexican Nationals were found guilty of petty larceny and released in custody of authorities for deportation.

Oscar Abner Jones, 49, a cook; and Cruz Munoz Aguilari, farm laborer, were fined $20 each on drunkenness counts. Gonzalo Rivera, 32, and Francisco Campo, Soto, 42, both farm laborers, received by police at 8 p.m. Saturday after he was observed three times staggering across the street against a red light while carrying an armful of groceries.

Arthur Hurley, Jr., 43 printer, received a 15-day suspended jail sentence on a charge of drunkenness. Eugene McCarra, 41, mechanic, was given 10 days in jail on a charge of loitering.

Manuel Rodriguez, 32; and Ramirez Alamos, 34, two Mexican nationals were found guilty on charges of petty larceny and released for deportation.

Two-hundred-and-fifty prize-winning numbers have been drawn and will be distributed to participating merchants who will put the numbers on display, either in their store windows or in the stores proper. More winning numbers may be issued later if they are needed.

Merchants will display prizes in their stores along with the winning numbers. Merchants are free to distribute tickets to their customers at their own discretion. It has been suggested one ticket be distributed with each $1 purchase of merchandise.

When a prize is claimed, the winning number which took the prize is removed. When a customer receives a ticket it is up to him to shop the other participating stores to see if his is a winning number.

A customer given a ticket at one store may find the corresponding number, if it is a winning number at any other of the participating stores.

Scott announced that merchants may pick up their tickets and numbers at the Chamber Wednesday.

Two Jima Crash To Be Probed

TOKYO (AP)—A board of U. S. Air Force officers flew to Iwo Jima today to investigate the crash of a giant C124 Globemaster that killed 10 of 11 men aboard.

The four-engine, double-decked transport crashed while taking off from the World War 11 battle site yesterday after ferrying cargo from Tokyo.

The lone survivor was flown to Japan and hospitalized. The Air Force withheld all names.

Artesian's Burro Missing

Fred Meyer, 912 Chisum, this morning reported to police that his burro was missing. Meyer described the burro as standing three-feet six-inches tall and having medium brown hair. It might also be assumed that it had long ears and brown eyes.

NuMexers Drop Operations As New Circuit Becomes Reality

Professional baseball in Artesia has apparently been buried. Last rites were performed over the NuMexers Sunday when Steve Lanning, president of the club, announced at Lubbock, Tex., the team will not operate next year.

Kefauver May Assay Giant Killer Role

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee apparently is going to assay a "giant killer" role in a battle with Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois for the 1956 Democratic nomination.

Friends who participated in a three-day party rally which wound up here this weekend reported Kefauver has firm pledges for more than $200,000 in campaign funds and is almost certain to take the plunge into the contest next month.

This would pit him directly against Stevenson, the 1952 nominee who is running again, while Gov. Averill Harriman of New York waits watchfully on the flanks for any sign of a stalemate. Stevenson, who formally announced his candidacy last week, appeared to have been installed as an odds-on favorite for the nomination by members of the national committee and state chairman who have most to do with the selection of next year's convention delegate slates.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.), Stevenson's 1952 running mate, said he thinks Stevenson is far ahead and will get stronger as time rolls on. "By the time next year's convention comes around, or even before then, I don't think there will be any doubt about Stevenson's nomination," he said.

However, Sen. McNamara (D-Mich) observed in a separate interview that "nine months is a long time to keep up the pace that Stevenson has set."

Harriman made it clear at a news conference here yesterday he isn't closing any doors to acceptance of the nomination if it should come his way. He maintained he isn't an "active candidate."

But he said he retains "the recognized right of a man to seek an office." (Continued on Page four)

License Plate Sale Opens December 15

Car license plates will go on sale here Dec. 15 at 120 S. Roselawn, Dorothy Miller, distributor has announced. Applications will be sent direct to the license distributors rather than to registered owners as in past years. Applications will be boxed and set up numerically by 1955 license numbers.

Current fee schedules, to be used for all 1955 registrations, will differ for trucks, driverless cars, taxicabs and commercial buses. A new category will be set up Jan. 1 for farm trucks. Fees for dealers or wreckers will be $50 for the first plate and $10 for each additional plate.

Dorothy Miller said that licenses actually expire at midnight Dec. 31. The customary grace period may or may not be extended this year, she said, and urged car owners not to penalize themselves by waiting until the last minute and then having to stand in line to get their plates.

Soviet Leaders Open Double Barreled Attack Against West

NEW DELHI, India, (AP)—Soviet chiefs Nikolai Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev opened a double-barreled attack on the West in the Indian Parliament today. They told the more than 700 members, in the presence of Prime Minister Nehru, that Russia was united with India in an "unending battle for peace."

Both criticized the West on the grounds it was "attempting to follow policies based on a position of strength." Soviet Premier Bulganin and the Communist party First Secretary Khrushchev are here on a good will visit expected to last more than two weeks. At a state banquet last night, Nehru warned them not to expect that their good will invasion would lead India into the Communist bloc. Bluntly, he said India was "in no camp and no military alliance."

Gretchen Thorp Dinner Honoree

Gretchen Thorp who is moving to Dallas, Texas, to make her home was honored with a farewell dinner on Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Gray in Cottonwood. Hostesses were Sally Scott, Betty Burch, and Terry Jane Gray.

Turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served. The table was covered with a gold cloth centered with a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums and white tapers in holders decorated with bronze leaves.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a corsage and a remembrance book which was filled with pictures made during the evening, and the entire group presented her with a gift of costume jewelry.

Those present were the honoree, Mabel Kinney, Ann Storm, Sandra Hubbard, Abbie Pearson, Norma Jo Thigpen, Jackie McNeil and the three hostesses.

Movie Industry Protests Prior Film Censorship

WASHINGTON (AP)—The motion picture industry today protested to Congress against prior censorship of its output by state and local agencies.

The Motion Picture Assn. of America volunteered its statement to a judiciary subcommittee on constitutional rights, which has not scheduled testimony on censorship.

The statement said "constitutional guaranty of freedom of expression has been seriously eroded" by recent Supreme Court decisions.

It said a 1952 decision "made the motion picture a member of the press, which the First and 14th amendments protect," but "declined to confer upon films the same immunity from censorship accorded to other media."

Contending that the restrictions on films might be extended later to other media, the statement said that if this and related decisions stand, they could offer a threat of censorship for newspapers, magazines, radio, television and other media of mass communication and information.

The film spokesman said censorship now is applied to their product by five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and Kansas—and 50 to 200 municipalities.

NUDE BEAUTY FOUND MURDERED

NEW YORK authorities are investigating the double murder of a Queens hair removal specialist, Mae Gazzo, 32, and her client, Kathleen Egan, 25 (below), whose nude body was found in the Gazzo shop. Nearby was body of Miss Gazzo. Assistant District Attorneys Bernard Patten (left) and James McGratten are shown examining Miss Gazzo's body as it lies on floor. Authorities theorize the two were surprised during a hair removal treatment, and that robbery was the motive. Miss Egan was engaged to be married to a fire lieutenant in January. (International)

Air Force May Have New Secret Weapon - Women

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—The Air Force may have turned up a new secret weapon to man its bomb-dropping operations—women.

Nearby Mother Air Force Base told this story:

The list of incoming students for a recent class in the week-long radar bombing familiarization course contained the name "Dr. E. B. Norris."

The "E," it turned out, stood for "Eugenia" and Dr. Norris turned out to be a perfectly charming female.

Taking her place in a course that heretofore had been attended only by men, Dr. Norris not only scored the lowest bombing error in her class, but also placed second best on the lowest bombing error on record for the course.

The purpose of the course is to teach fundamentals of the observer profession to Air Force commanders and others working in that technical field.

Dr. Norris is a psychologist, currently doing research into observer training methods.

A resident of Sacramento, she is engaged in another section at Mather Air Force Base.

Green Light On For Producing Salk Vaccine

By ALTON BLAKESLEE AP Science Reporter KANSAS CITY, (AP)—Polio experts say the green light is on for full-scale production of safe, potent vaccine through removal of a troublesome bottleneck.

Simultaneously, they answered some doubts and questions raised by some health officers concerning the vaccine at a meeting of the American Public Health Assn.

In essence, experts said there is no reason to doubt the efficiency or safety of the Salk polio vaccine.

One spiked a rumor that Canadians stopped making vaccine because they kept finding live virus in the vaccine. Dr. R. D. DeFries of Toronto said the reason was they're building a bigger plant to carry on a much bigger vaccination program next year.

Others, including Dr. Jonas E. Salk, who developed the vaccine, cited evidence that the vaccine could protect very young infants, that vaccination had nothing to do with the outbreak of this year's epidemic in Massachusetts, that use of even a single shot had drastically reduced paralytic polio in the United States this year.

But a couple of health officers held to their reservations that some inoculations of vaccine might have been the cause of spread of polio to other members of the family. Virus experts disagreed, or said the assumption was by no means proved.

A committee of experts appointed by the U. S. Public Health Service reported the cause of a troublesome bottleneck in vaccine production had been found and corrected. It lay in differences in ways manufacturers earlier this year strained or filtered "soups" of live virus.

This filtering is done before the viruses are exposed to a lethal bath of formaldehyde, to kill all the viruses used in the vaccine. The purpose of filtering is to ensure that all viruses are separate, equally exposed to the chemical.

But the committee found evidence that sometimes the filtering was perhaps too coarse, or else done too far in advance. Sediments or clumps of viruses inside the clumps could not be exposed to the chemical and could survive the bath.

A change in filtering methods and timing, already put into effect, prevents this, the report said. It means manufacturers should consistently get batches of vaccine free of live virus, and not have to discard or rework batches when live particles are detected by safety tests. This is the key to increased production.

All vaccine released since May 26 has already passed the consistent safety tests, the Public Health Service said.

my new york

BY MEL HEIMER

NEW YORK—Things one New Yorker thinks about:

If one does not think that these are strange and troubled times, one should ponder the case of Sidney Ascher. The onetime president of the Society for the Prevention of Disparaging Remarks About Brooklyn has moved to Teaneck, N. J. The actual moving date was the day the Dodgers lost the second game of the World Series, and there were bitter remarks made about Sidney behind his departing back, in Flatbush. . . . The most striking item in town these days is a press agent named Bunny O'Connell—who has nearly white hair, a white poodle and a white Jaguar. . . . and had until recently, 38 tan-colored parking tickets that cost her a total of $1,800 in fines.

Speaking of Brooklyn—visiting firemen some- times think it's a city in itself. We'd it isn't—it's one of New York's five boroughs. . . . and had until 1898. . . . I am told there's a delicatessen in Brooklyn calling the Lox Box. . . . A girl with a famous name—Cristiani—is working as a hatcheck girl in the Hotel Edison's new $250,000 ballroom. She's pretty Antonia Cristiani, once a member of the famous acrobatic and bareback-riding circus act. . . . All the acting hams aren't in Sandy during the day. Large crowds have been watching the dismantling of the Third Avenue elevated—and the torch welders have been playing up to the audiences something fierce.

I MUST SAY the scariest news of the week comes from Utah where a Hollywood studio is shooting "The Lone Ranger" there for the movie cameras. The great white stallion, scourge of desperadoes and the only creature on four legs that can out-pace Tommy horse Scout—has been suffering violent sunburn on the nose. The report is that make-up men have coated his proboscis with zinc oxide and the trusty steed is carrying on bravely. . . . I've just found out what Gotham means and I'm insulted. Washington Irving first applied the name to New York in 1807, in one of his Salmagundi Papers—taking it from a village in Nottinghamshire, England, whose inhabitants were proverbial for their stupidity and conceit.

The St. Moritz hotel, on Central Park South, is just 25 years old—and consider these impressive figures: Nine hundred twenty couples have wed there; nine million meals have been served; ten million phone calls have been made by guests; 250,000 ashtrays have been swiped or disappeared; 11 million sheets have been used, and two million bars of soap have been washed away. The old inn, famed as the hangout of wealthy Europeans, was opened in 1920 at a cost of $7 million. Its guests over the years have included Greta Garbo, King George of Greece, the King of Siam and Sarah Churchill, who acts.

MORE STARTLING STATISTICS: In one day in New York, a couple of weeks ago, there were 351 major crimes reported, including 171 cases of grand larceny and 71 separate burglaries. . . . The NBC Matinee Theater on TV seems strikingly adult fare for a daytime program. The lovely Julie Bennett was seen on its first program recently and seems headed for a career of playing Other Women. . . . Realty man William Zeckendorf is worried about the suburbs mushrooming up and threatening to gulf Manhattan's urbanity. He says they may strangle the old town and have turned the city's environs into a vast sprawling area that is neither city nor country." Mr. Z. is right.

If the tune from Audie Murphy's new movie is haunting you these days, it's understandable. It's called Dog Faced Soldier and was written in 1942 by two New York boys, Bert Gold and Ken Hart, who were brooding over the fact that the GI had no new marching song. It's being played everywhere now and congressmen are reported pleading for its official adoption. . . . I'll bet you've always wanted to know where the Curb Exchange got its name. I am told that in 1921, when its building was completed, brokers and customers met on the street near the curb.

"No, Don, you didn't interrupt—we've got a phone in the den now, so we can take our calls in here."

Order your additional telephones now, for those places where you're most likely to be when you need them. The cost is only 3 or 4 cents a day each. The installation charge is small, regardless of location. Phones are now available in a selection of eight decorator colors, for a nominal, one-time extra charge. Auto Makers Beat Congress Legislation in Next Session
'To the Punch' on Safety May Force Use of Devices

Special to Central Press Association

WASHINGTON—Since they now are producing and Congress is not, the automobile manufacturers have beat the lawmakers to the punch by adopting new safety features which are at least optional. Legislation may be introduced at the next session of Congress, starting in January, to force use of such devices as thick sponge rubber cushions on dashboards.

Senator Richard Neuberger (D), Oregon, believes well-intentioned safe-driving campaigns are sufficient to cut down the mounting highway toll. It reached 435 deaths over the Labor Day weekend alone.

Neuberger favors safety belts on all seats, strong devices to prevent car doors from springing open in a crash, and shatter-proof glass.

The senator contends that cars should be required to have safety devices just as trains, buses and planes.

Actually, some of the 1956 models now rolling off the production line are equipped for seat belts, and other safety devices which are being featured in advertisements for the first time.

MAIL ORDER—The people lined up before the United States exhibit at the Berlin International Trade fair intrigued a visiting congressman so much he got in line.

Eventually he got close enough to see what everyone was waiting to reach. It was an American mail order catalog.

Rep. Frank T. Bow (R), Ohio, said 40 copies were on display, four on each of 10 tables set about a room with chairs so that the visitors could leisurely look through the bulky catalogs.

The congressman said the United States government and industrial firms had many other interesting exhibits at the fair, "but the big attraction was the mail order catalog."

NATO FAN—A trip to Europe has made Senator Thomas H. Kuchel (R), California, an ardent NATO fan. He says he considers the North Atlantic Treaty organization "a miracle" in bringing nations used to dealing at arms-length into a collective defense set-up.

Kuchel, who visited NATO bases in England and on the Continent, declared it would be "tragic" if Congress were to cut down on the United States contribution. He says he is convinced defense needs must be put ahead of balancing the budget.

OVERCONFIDENCE—Democratic political brass are now worried, believe it or not, about overconfidence as they prepare for next year's campaign. The overconfidence, of course, stems from the belief that President Eisenhower will not seek re-election and that the Democrats can beat any GOP candidate offered in his place.

Committee chairman Paul M. Butler and his top aides are spreading words of caution both publicly and privately that the Democratic party has its work cut out for it and that the Republicans will be no pushover.

Naturally, they recall that no one thought President Truman could win against Thomas E. Dewey in 1948. They also cite recent polls which show increasing sentiment for Republicans as far as Congress is concerned. They point out, too, that the GOP may be gaining enough strength in the northeast and west to offset the Democratic advantage in the south.

The Democrats are also beginning to realize that even if the President does not run, his endorsement of the GOP candidate and a well-timed speech or two will improve Republican chances greatly.

Chicago Bears Top Detroit To Take Western NFL Lead

By RIP WATSON The Associated Press

Twenty years ago Alabama sent Don Hutson up to the National Football League and he proceeded to make life miserable for opposing pass defenders for the next decade.

Now Alabama has contributed Harlon Hill to the NFL, and the Chicago Bears' star promises to be just as much of a problem for the defense as his illustrious predecessor. Hill looked like Hutson at his best yesterday as he twice faked Detroit defenders out of the way for the touchdowns that brought the Bears a 24-14 victory, their sixth in a row, and first place in the NFL's Western Conference. With three games to go, the Beats 63 have a half-game lead over the Los Angeles Rams 5-3-1, who were held to a 17-17 tie, by Baltimore. Hutson's old team, the Green Bay Packers 5-4, trail by a game after Tobin Rote passed for two touchdowns and ran 9 yards to set up a third in a 27-21 victory over San Francisco.

In the Eastern Conference, Cleveland bounced back from its upset defeat by Philadelphia a week ago to trounce Pittsburgh 41-14 and remain a game in front of Washington's surprising Redskins, 31-0 winners over the Chicago Cardinals. New York vaulted from last place to a tie for third with Pittsburgh by clipping the Philadelphia Eagles 31-7.

Unless the second-place teams get some unexpected help, it looks very much like the Bears vs. the Browns in the pro championship playoff, scheduled for Monday, Dec. 26, or Sunday, Jan. 1, in the park of the Western Conference championship.

Truck Highway Accident Record Improving

SANTA FE, (AP) — State traffic officials have voiced praise for a recent improvement in the highway accident record of the trucking industry.

The officials said they saw a definite link between the improvement and the fact that one big trucking company has been cited by the Corporation Commission to appear and explain its accident record.

That company, Ferguson-Steeer, is scheduled to appear here on Nov. 12. SCC Chairman John Block said there will be no further postponements in the twice-dead case, as far as he is concerned at the moment.

Block and State Police Chief Joe Block and Jess Holmes, director of the New Mexico Traffic Safety Commission, unanimously spoke of improved safety record among trucks. They all gave part of credit to the New Mexico Motor Carriers Assn.

It was on Aug. 26—less than a week after the start of Gov. John's general highway safety crackdown—that Block announced the summoning of the Ferguson-Steeer Co. to explain "an accident record that seemed to be entirely out of line with good safety practices." This promptly was disputed by a company executive.

Statistics compiled by Holmes' staff showed the following decline in highway fatalities involving heavy duty trucks: August, seven; September, two; October, one; and so far in November, none.

The ratio of road accidents reported to the commission was as follows: August, 2.3 per cent or 37 vehicles; September, 3.2 per cent or 52 vehicles; October, 2.4 per cent or 33 vehicles; and so far in November, 0.9 per cent, or six vehicles.

"Their record in November is definitely on the decline," Holmes said. "And our fatals as a result of heavy truck operations have declined steadily since August. There has been a definite improvement."

"We attribute this to reaction following the summoning of the Ferguson-Steeer Co., and to the part played by the New Mexico Motor Carriers Assn. They recognized the problem immediately and called a meeting of the industry. They also have called on the industry to help to bring about improvement."

Block, saying his office had noted fewer accidents involving trucks and less serious accidents of a serious nature, declared: "I think actually, that was the main purpose of the citation we issued. We don't want to take out after any one individual concern. But the citation did serve notice on all truckers that we certainly were going into these accidents from now on and keeping an eye close upon their operations. I think that was one of the things our office could do to contribute to the governor's program."

"We don't want to penalize good truck operators, but if anybody in doing the trucking industry harm, we would want to correct it."

A. H. Crossett, executive vice president of Ferguson-Steeer, said the day the hearing was announced that he would welcome a thorough impartial hearing, because "it wouldn't be a black picture at all. We think we have one of the best safety records in the nation."

Block had noted that company trucks had been involved in accidents in which 14 persons had died since November, 1953.

Crossett said: "The number of deaths means little unless you know the number of hours exposed. Our record is slightly less than the national average for the number of miles travelled." He added the company did not feel it was liable for any of the 14 deaths.

On Oct. 26 at Alamogordo, a jury assessed the company damages of $30,000—the maximum possible—as the result of an accident causing deaths of three Texas Western students Nov. 22, 1953. The company gave notice of an appeal.

On Nov. 5 at Albuquerque a federal jury returned judgment for $30,000 in the deaths of three persons in an accident involving a Ferguson-Steeer truck in August, 1954.

Ex-Convict Death Of Boy

WEST GREENWICH, R. I., (AP)—Police today were seeking an expert in the death of 4-year-old Sarah Conlon, whose bedsheet-covered body was found in a shed Saturday.

A murder warrant was sworn for William H. Crough, 29, of Athol, Mass. Police said he has long prison record, including six-year Massachusetts prison term for armed robbery.

The child, one of three children Mrs. Beatrice Conlon, 30-year-old divorcee, died of internal injuries, it was reported by Medical Examiner Arthur E. O'Leary.

Mrs. Conlon said Crough, also named, had been staying with her children. She added they planned to marry in January.

Police said a note was found near the child's body in the shed at her home. They said it said that the child was hurt in an accident on a swing and that Sarah had left since nobody would believe him because of his prison record.

The note added, police said, that Crough tried to revive the child but gave up when he realized she was dead.

State police found the child's body during a search after Mrs. Conlon reported her missing on her return home Friday from her job as a waitress. She said Crough and Deborah were left behind at the house when she went to work.

She got to the cupboard and much to her despair,
Found that the cupboard was empty and bare.
So she jerked on her coat and rushed down the street,
To Aaron's grocery where they had some good
Old Aaron fat hens, fryers, ham and turkey,
Steak, roast, hogona and jerkey.
It all looked so good she couldn't make up her mind
So she bought some of each and everything was fine.

Remember When...

50 YEARS AGO

The board of town trustees failed to meet Tuesday afternoon. Mayor Richey was in Texas, Alderman Kemp was too busy, he said. Alderman Runyan had forgotten and gone duck hunting, and Alderman Gage and Cleveland couldn't make a quorum of themselves, so all business went over until next Tuesday.

Mr. Joyner of Roswell, the father of Mrs. Jim Emerson, is the guest of his daughter this week.

Edgar McNatt, the affable manager of the Pecos Valley Drug Company's business at his place, spent Sunday in Roswell.

 ticket with other party leaders in Chicago and added that he concluded that "Clint's chances are very good."

"I heard some talk for Kefauver and Sen. Hubert Humphrey (Minn) for vice president," Brown said.

"But some of the arguments I heard advanced by party leaders at Chicago are that the campaign heard advanced by party leaders next year will be short and that television will be used quite a bit."

"They said that Anderson is both photogenic and makes a good speech and is known throughout the country I found that everybody knows Clint and you don't have to tell anyone who he is."

Brown said that he will talk to Paul Butler, the national chairman, here tomorrow about Anderson. Butler will be the principal speaker at a party dinner at the Hilton tomorrow at 7 p.m.

Asked how many of the state's 16 votes at the national convention he felt could be counted upon for Anderson, Brown said:

"My personal opinion at this time is that the state convention to select delegates very likely will have a delegation which will not include a single vote opposed to either Anderson or Stevenson."

Asked if the recent statement by Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) that the support of Stevenson by Anderson and Gov. John F. Simms was only a personal one, Brown said:

"Sen. Chavez can speak very well for himself, but from what I can gather from his statements Chavez thinks the candidate for president should be chosen in open convention. I do, too. I also gather from Chavez's statement that he is indicating an indecision as between Stevenson and Gov. Harriman."

atomic weapons which a disgrace to modern civilization."

The prospect of Russian assistance to India's industrial development appeared to be emerging as the leading topic during the Soviet leaders' visit. They brought up the subject for the third day in addresses to a children's meeting earlier today.

Khrushchev told the children they must help India industrialize rapidly and increase agricultural production quickly, and that in this they could count on the help of Russian youth.

"We old men have got together and now it is for the young boys and girls to continue that friendship for generation after generation," he said.

At a private luncheon, informed sources said Nehru and the two Russian discussed economic cooperation. There has been much said in the past months about Russian economic aid to India but little done about it.

A spokesman for the natural resources ministry told questioners in Parliament today, however, that nine Soviet mining experts are due to arrive soon to help prospect for oil and other minerals.

A spokesman for the iron and steel ministry said 300 Soviet technicians are expected in about a year to work on a million ton steel mill India is buying from the Soviet Union.

Nehru, in his banquet speech last night said the only camp "we should like to be in is the camp of peace and good will."

Workers are expected to attend the dinner here tomorrow night. State Rep. Jack Campbell of Roswell will be the toastmaster.

U.S. Rep. John J. Dempsey and A. M. Fernandez, both of Santa Fe, are expected to attend. Sen. Anderson and Gov. Simms also will attend. There was some doubt that Sen. Chavez would be here for the dinner.

other office" when he was asked if he felt he ought to serve out his term of governor, which has three more years to run.

Harriman, who said he has an "understanding" with Stevenson on which he wouldn't elaborate, said he doesn't agree with the Democrats ought to pick a "moderate" candidate or write a "middle-of-the-road" platform.

He said he subscribes to former President Harry S. Truman's view that the party must bear a "liberal" label if it hopes to win the presidency and Congress next year.

Truman said Stevenson "made the best New Deal speech I ever heard" at Saturday night's $100-a-plate dinner, which wound up the party rally.

Commenting in Washington on Stevenson's speech, the chairman of the Republican National Committee, Leonard W. Hall, said the attack on the Eisenhower administration was "bunk."

Stevenson, said Hall, "made it clear why he was repudiated by the voters so completely in 1952 that he could carry only nine states."

"Stevenson's attack on an administration that has an all-time record of 65 million Americans working at the best jobs they ever had and enjoying the highest standard of living known to man, will get him absolutely nowhere. The Republican tactics 'have lost us every friend we have in the world,'" he said.

Stevenson told the 2,800 Democrats that "special interest" Republicans offer the country nothing but an uneasy peace, shaky prosperity and stagnation.

He said the cold war "is still in a deep freeze" despite President Eisenhower's efforts. He said the economy of 20 million Americans on farms is "sinking."

Kefauver called the conduct of foreign policy by the Eisenhower administration a "failure." He charged it is "the deliberate policy of the Eisenhower administration to liquidate the small farmers of this nation."

Truman sailed into the administration's handling of international problems, declaring that the Republican tactics "have lost us every friend we have in the world."

Astrology Reaches It's Peak At Last - IT Has Gone Feline

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Astrology has reached its peak at last. It has gone feline. They now have a book out on how your cat, too, is controlled by the stars.

The book is called "Horoscopes for Pussy Cats," and the author is Bootsie Campbell.

A no'te about the author says: "At the moment she is stretched out on a sunny window, tail curled around, contented and delighted with everything and everyone: She is very special."

What makes her so special? A publisher friend of mine says this would describe any author he has ever known.

I am glad to see this book on astrology for cats published.

For years I suffered from an allergy to cats, which, happily, I was able to conquer. For many more years, however, I have suffered from an allergy to people who believe in astrology. This allergy fight it though I try, I can do nothing about.

Even the dictionary defines astrology as a "pseudo science," and the dictionary usually has a new word for everything. The idea that people actually believe events on earth are controlled by the position of the stars and planets thoroughly depresses me with the future of the human race.

When I see a man who attends church buying an astrology magazine I cannot help wondering who he is trying to make a fool of—his God or himself.

People who believe in astrology I cannot help but classify with those who have a blind confidence that picking up a toad will give them warts and that if they grab a horse's hair in a bottle of water for six weeks it will turn into a snake.

Recently I picked up a Cleveland paper and was astounded to see it estimated that 60,000 people in the area read astrology publications regularly. For days I've pondered what to do to save them from themselves. Is there no anthropic society willing to find propaganda into Cleveland and let these lost 60,000 souls about the wonderful life is in the outside world?

Paganism is at least worth philosophical consideration, but astrology? Never!

For humans, that is. A cat shouldn't find it too hard to believe in astrology. After all, a cat doesn't believe in people, so it has to believe in something.

The volume at hand, "Horoscopes for Pussy Cats," offers this sound warning to cats born under the Sign of Aries, from March 21 to April 19:

"You are susceptible to backaches and weakness of the kidneys. Don't eat too much catnip or you may suffer from a hangover 100 more milk."

Perhaps this is a hidden warning to the 50,000 astrology fans in Cleveland. Who knows?

Once you believe in astrology what can you be sure of?

Texas Loop To Close Schedule

We Forget The Veterans

A VETERAN in a city in the state after nine years has received a waiver on the premiums on his insurance. Yet today that veteran is almost blind and unable to do much work around his own farm and is unemployable.

The Veterans' Administration, of course, has sought to establish that the blindness did not result from service or while he was in service yet there are those in the same community now where this man resides who served with him. They know his trouble started while he was still in service.

It is perfectly possible his trouble might have started before the army took him but that is Uncle Sam's fault. If they accepted him and did not reject him then, he is their responsibility today.

But the efforts of a Veterans' administration worker after nine years has won for him a waiver on his insurance premiums. It is the first benefits he has received.

Congress voted the funds for the Veterans' programs. It has provided the money to take care of those veterans who suffered injuries while in service that have handicapped them in making their own living after they have come out of service.

They operate bureaus and hospitals and medical staffs to take care of these boys.

Yet it takes a long and a hard fight at times for veterans who do deserve and should receive consideration to receive it. Many perhaps are receiving benefits with less handicaps and perhaps less deserving and yet this former GI has had little or no consideration nine years after he was discharged from service.

We believe it is time for the members of congress from this state to take an interest in his case and to see that he receives the consideration he should receive.

The local Veterans workers can make recommendations and do all they can do but they do not have the final say. In this case we would say the veteran deserves the benefits provided by congress for those so handicapped they can not accept employment because they are not able to do their job.

And certainly this veteran who has lost his eye sight is entitled to the benefits provided for ex-service men.

Stevenson Puts Finger On Main Problem Facing Demos.

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News
 WASHINGTON (AP)—Adlai Stevenson himself, without saying so, put his finger on the No. 1 problem facing the Democrats in trying to persuade the voters to throw the Republicans out in 1956.

"America," he said in a speech Saturday night, "is well and strong above all nations in all times. We are the luckiest people in the world and we know it."

If that's the case, the voters might ask, why should they take a chance on changing administrations in next November's election? Stevenson's reasons seemed to add up to this: "We can do everything better."

He was very vague on how that can't be held against him at this time. This was his first speech after announcing he wanted to be president. It was just a general outline of what he'll say later.

It was also pretty much the outline of what the Democratic party will be saying. There were no surprises. It was pretty much along the lines on which the Democrats already have indicated they will attack the Republicans.

It was just enough of an outline to show there are no fundamental differences between the two parties and that the differences which do exist are matters of degree more than of kind.

Stevenson attacked the Eisenhower administration's farm program. On this subject he seems unusually hazy and, it has a solution, he has kept it to himself.

He was critical of the administration's foreign policy but did not indicate specifically what was wrong with it except to complain there was too much tough talk and backing away from it.

And there was no surprise about this—he accused the Republicans of being the party of "special interest," meaning it was too cozy toward big business. This has been a steady complaint of the Democrats for generations.

Stevenson complained - or seemed to be complaining - that this country was not giving enough foreign aid to nations outside the Communist bloc.

"Sen. Chavez can speak very well for himself, but from what I can gather from his statements Chavez thinks the candidate for president should be chosen in open convention. I do, too. I also gather from Chavez's statement that he is indicating an indecision as between Stevenson and Gov. Harriman."

Week's Grid Playoffs Highlights State High School Schedule

By The Associated Press
Gadsden's mighty Panthers this week go after their third straight Class A high school football championship for a host of traditional games and a semifinal playoff.

Gadsden, boasting a string of 31 straight victories stretching back to 1932 will take on tough St. Mike's in Santa Fe Saturday afternoon for the Class A title.

Otherwise, the week's play is dominated by traditional Thanksgiving Day battles among the Class AA teams. The big one, of course, is the Las Cruces-Artesia match, a bi-district playoff. The winner of that will meet Roswell the following week for the state championship.

Roswell, Gadsden and St. Mike's won their spots in the playoffs in last week's action. Santa Rosa, in another playoff game, took its Class B championship with a 12-7 victory over defending champion Cathedral of Gallup.

Roswell raced past Farmington 18-0 in a bi-district match at Albuquerque, while Gadsden stopped Raton 32-6 and St. Mike's whipped Portales 26-13 in Class A semifinals.

Coach Dewey Johnson's Coyotes, shooting for their second state title in three years, this week have a in a continuation of one of the state's oldest rivalries.

The rest of the slate pits Highland and Albuquerque in a cross-town affair Thursday, while Hobbs and Clovis tangle in Clovis in the only Friday game to be played this week.

Las Cruces, the only Class AA team in the state with an unbeaten record, holds a slight favorite's edge against Artesia. Coach Reese Smith's Artesia crew has compiled a 6-2-1 mark, while Las Cruces has a spotless 8-0 record. Both teams have beaten Albuquerque and Carlsbad. Las Cruces, however, stopped Alamogordo 19-18 while match with downtrodden Carlsbad Alamogordo beat Artesia. Gadsden, powered by all state fullback Sal Gonzales, has rolled to nine victories this year, including a 39-6 victory over Socorro, the only foe it has in common with St. Mike's. St. Mike's has a 7-2 mark, including a 19-0 victory over Socorro.

Roswell, pushed harder than it expected in stopping Farmington, hopes for a little rest this week against Carlsbad. The Coyotes have compiled a 9-1 mark, while Carlsbad is having one of its poorer seasons in recent history, 2-7. Artesia, Hobbs and Highland all have beaten Carlsbad while the Coyotes took easy victories over each of those teams. Both Roswell and Carlsbad have beaten Clovis.

For the first time in three years, there is nothing more vital than prestige riding on the annual Highland-Albuquerque tussle. The game is rated about a tossup, with Highland holding a very slim edge. The Hornets have a 6-2 record, while Albuquerque is 5-2-1 for the year.

Hobbs and Clovis have had unimpressive seasons. The Eagles are 4-5 for the year, while Clovis is 4-3-1. They have fared about the same against four common foes.

Amazing Aggies Battle Texas For Loop Title

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. —The Texas Aggies, who were supposed to be in the cellar at this stage of the football campaign, will be playing for the championship Thursday when they meet bitter rival Texas in the season's finale.

The Aggies have been regarded with awe for two months as they rolled inexorably toward the title that had eluded them by a long way for 14 years.

It's no surprise to some of the closest A&M followers, however, that the Aggies were placed on probation for violating the recruiting rules and told they couldn't play in a bowl game, it made them mad and determined to win the title, said such A&M backers as Joe U'lay, former Aggie football player and athletic council head.

U'lay made his statement in September as the season dawned. He predicted the Aggies would take the championship.

And so, Thursday, as 41,500 fans look on, Texas A&M will seek to break the stranglehold arch-foe Texas has held for so many years and at the same time notch the title. A loss probably would knock the Aggies out of the championship.

Coach Paul Bear Bryant, who came from Kentucky last season to pick up the flagging Aggie football fortunes and already has accomplished what is considered to be a miracle in the Southwest Conference, said he was afraid of just that—afraid that Texas would beat his team because Texas will be in spired and his team won't.

This will be the sixty-second meeting of the two state schools since they played the first inter-collegiate game in Texas in 1894. It is one of the oldest rivalries in the country.

With the sellout crowd here Thursday, A&M will have played before 400,000 fans for the season of 10-games—the largest attendance in Aggie land history. The contest will be televised nationally. (NBC)

Rose, Orange Bowl Have Some Foes As In 1954 Classics

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
It's Michigan State-UCLA in the Rose Bowl and Oklahoma-Maryland in the Orange Bowl Jan. 2. And if you think you've heard that song before, you're right.

Those same four powers met in the same two New Year's Day extravaganzas in 1954. Michigan State beat UCLA 28-20 and Oklahoma beat Maryland 7-0.

Once again, Michigan State and UCLA are once beaten. The Spartans lost only to Michigan 14-7 this season, while only Maryland upended UCLA 7-0. Maryland, the 1953 national champ, again has a 10-0 record, while Oklahoma, 9-0 with one game left and apparently heading for the national title, was once beaten and once tied going into the '54 Orange Bowl.

UCLA expected to receive official blessing from the Pacific Coast Conference today after a token poll of members. The Uclans won their third straight PCC championship by thrashing Southern Cal 17-7 Saturday.

Michigan State received its Rose Bowl credentials from the Big 10 yesterday although getting the bid as a runner-up. Ohio State, barred from two consecutive Pasadena pastimes, won the Big Ten title again by booting Michigan out of the picture 17-0 while Michigan State walloped nonleague Marquette 33-0.

Oklahoma and Maryland, the only major unbeaten-untied clubs remaining, got their bowl tickets before last weekend's games in which the Sooners won their 10th straight Big Seven title by whipping Nebraska 41-0 and Maryland clipped George Washington 19-0.

Half of the bowl berths now are filled, with Texas Christian gaining the Southwest Conference host spot in the Cotton Bowl by humiliating Rice 35-0. That leaves the Dallas bowl selectors still looking for another team.

The Sugar and Gator bowl committees also are still on the prowl and they'll have their teams by week's end with Mississippi, Georgia Tech, Auburn, Navy and Pitt waiting to say yes.

To give the selectors a good show, Mississippi plays Mississippi State, Georgia Tech meets Georgia Tech, Auburn takes on Alabama and Navy tangles with Army as college football takes one last fling this Saturday.

Pitt's record already is bound up for inspection with Saturday's 20-0 decision over Penn State capping a season that listed victories over Duke and West Virginia.

The Southeastern Conference champ generally fills one of the Sugar Bowl berths and Mississippi (8-1), Georgia Tech (7-1-1) and Auburn (7-1-1) are the contenders. Vanderbilt (7-2) also has a chance. Vandy plays Tennessee, knocked for a loop by Kentucky 23-0, this weekend.

Navy, which returned to the post-season business last January in the Sugar Bowl, likely will have a Cotton Bowl invitation in hand if it can beat Army. If the Mid-dies fail, Pitt or one of the SEC teams may make it.

Pitt also qualifies for the Sugar Bowl, although the New Orleans promoters could do worse than match a SEC pair.

The Gator Bowl, set for Dec. 31, probably will have to wait until after the Cotton and Sugar Bowls make their moves before getting replies to its bids.

DENIES BIG DEFICIT

SAN FRANCISCO — Damon Miller, president of the San Francisco Seals, Little Corp., says the Pacific Coast League baseball club is not as bad off financially as it has been pictured. Denying published reports that the Seals had a deficit of $200,000, Miller said "At the close of our fiscal period our final statement showed a deficit of less than $50,000."
