Cub Scouts Receive Awards; Advance To Webelos Scouts

You could have heard a pin drop during the impressive and awesome services conducted in the fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church on Friday evening. The occasion was the 'graduation' or advancement of Cub Scouts to Webelos, conducted by a group of Indian dancers and their leader from Lubbock.

After presenting Indian dances, the group of Indian dancers met on the stage and told old Indian legends to the Cub Scouts from Troop 620, their parents, and guests.

This was followed by calling the Cub Scouts who were advancing to Webelos to the front of the room, along with their parents.

Each was greeted and admonished by the Indian leader to follow the traditions of Scouting. The Scout was then painted on each side of his cheeks with brilliant red paint to signify his advancement. As the Scout and his parent crossed the 'bridge' from Cub Scouts to Webelos, they were greeted coming off the bridge by Leader Terry Hutto.

Around 20 Cub Scouts advanced to the Webelos, with some 13-15 of them being present for the solemn ceremony.

This was preceded by a covered dish dinner, prepared and served by mothers of Cub Scouts.

Presiding over the meeting was Cubmaster Betty Griswold, who also introduced her new board chosen to help her coordinate local Scout affairs.

A special guest at the Cub Scout banquet was Jim Lutz, who is the Kiwanis Club Scouting coordinator. He is the liaison between the Cub Scouts and sponsoring organization.

Members of the Webelos posted the flags, then Fred Beversdorf assisted Mrs. Griswold in presenting awards.

Leaders and co-leaders accompanied their Cub Scout Packs to the front of the room to present badges earned by the different Cub Scouts.

Members of Tiger I are Ricky Rudd, Joshua Maddox, Blake Gable, Bradley Thomason, Cody Turner, James Hancock, Stephen Shelburne and Tad Lutz.

MAHD Board Schedules Meet Thursday Night

Board of Directors of the Muleshoe Area Hospital District will meet in regular session on Thursday (today) at 7 p.m. with the following items on the agenda:

After the meeting is formally opened, the Administrator's reports will include Hospital Financial and Statistical Reports and Healthcare Center Financial Statistical Reports.

Under unfinished business is to consider office renovation bids.

New business will include the 1990 audit by Mason, Warner and Company; appointment of Robert E. Trivalos, CRNA to the anesthesia staff; report on IRS progress and report on FmHA progress.

Management matters will include report on collections and report on patient collections.

The board will also meet in executive session, with appropriate action to the taken after the session.

In an effort to obtain more funding for the restoration of historical buildings at the Muleshoe Heritage Foundation complex in northwest Muleshoe, Cara Juan Schuster and R. A. Bradley met with the Muleshoe City Council Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Schuster told council members where the MHF is at this time in restoring the current buildings, as well as plans to move more buildings to the complex.

She said three more buildings are scheduled to be moved to the complex, including the servant's quarters from the former Janes Ranch House location east of Muleshoe; John Fried's log cabin, which is to be restored back to its original two-story cabin, complete with dormer in the roof; and the old Santa Fe pumphouse. She said the pumphouse will be located near the Old Depot.

At this time, the first two floors of Janes Ranch House have been painted, and they are ready to start acquiring furniture, circa 1900.

The group has removed a lot of dirt and debris, and have added bottom ash from Tolk Station to help keep sand from blowing the land away from around the complex. They have added posts to the front of the Old Depot, to keep vehicles from driving right up to the building and have renovated a small room in the Depot into an office for Depot Hostess Lou Knowles.

Several fund-raisers have already been conducted, added Mrs. Schuster, and more are planned during the upcoming summer months.

She praised the community for the many individuals who volunteer their help at the complex, and said she had been contacted by the probation officer, who will be assigning people to work at the complex after they have been sentenced to do community service projects. She said they would be working under supervision.

Mrs. Schuster also told the council that the Santa Fe Foundation is sending information on pumphouses and how they were being used. She also said floor plans are being obtained from the grandson of the man who originally constructed the John Fried log cabin in Oklahoma, so it can be returned to its original condition.

The Muleshoe Ranch Cookhouse, already at the complex, will be lowered on the foundation, as it is "too high at this time." This will involve a cost of some $13,906.

The Heritage Foundation duo presented the MHF financial statement, including a notation where they had to replace the 3-tab shingles on the roof of the Old Depot.

At this time, the Heritage Foundation is checking into a security system for the Old Depot and Janes Ranch House. The security system will be installed to go into the Muleshoe Police Department.

When completed, the Janes Ranch House, as well as the log cabin, will both be types of museums, open by appointment. Cont. Page 6, Col. 1

Tax Rebate Reflects A Sound Economy

"Texas cities and counties will enjoy a tidy post-Christmas bonus, because this month's total local sales tax rebates are the largest in the state's history," State Comptroller John Sharp said late last week.

The Comptroller's office mailed checks totaling $177.4 million to cities and counties across Texas that collect the local sales tax.

"February's total rebates are always large because they include sales taxes collected by annual, quarterly and monthly taxpayers, but these broke by $19.5 million the old record set in February of 1989," Sharp said. "That's an increase of 12.4 percent."

Reports filed by monthly taxpayers reflect sales made in December.

"Christmas retail sales may not have been as bright as some folks had hoped, but the state's economy still looks good when compared to the nation as a whole," Sharp said.

Local sales tax rebate checks to cities increased 11.5 percent over last February's payments of almost $144 million for a total of $160.5 million.

"A good portion of that increase is due to Texas' stronger economy last year, but part of the rise is because 65 cities in Texas increased their local sales tax rates last year. There are also more cities collecting sales tax now," Sharp said.

Muleshoe's latest rebate was in the amount of $25,856.54, up 2.53 percent from last year's payment at this time in the amount of $25,219.64. To date for the year, Muleshoe has received $42,694.17, an increase over last year's payments of five percent. To date at this time last year, Muleshoe had received $40,662.46.

From Cochran County, Morton reported receiving a current payment of $6,493.76, up 4.64 percent over last year's February payment of $6,205.85. To date for the year, Morton reports an increase of 0.19 percent in collections. They have received $11,018.66 to date this year, compared to a total of $10,998.14 a year ago.

Littlefield received a current payment of $30,410.61, compared to the $27,286.81 they had received at this time a year ago, for an increase of 11.45 percent. To date for the year, Littlefield shows 7.68 percent increases in

School Board Sets Election For 2 Trustees

At its regular meeting on February 18, the Board of Trustees of Muleshoe Independent School District called for the election of Trustees representing District 1 and District 4. The election is scheduled for May 4.

Currently representing District 1 is Curtis Shelburne, who has filed for re-election. Representing District 4 is Lyndon Huckaby, who has not as yet announced his intention for re-election. Arnold Price has filed for election to District 4.

Filing for a place on the ballot began February 18 and ends at 5 p.m. on March 20. Those wishing to file as a write-in candidate have until April 4 to do so. Filing for either a place on the ballot or as a write-in candidate is done at the Administration Building, 514 W. Ave. G.

This is the second year Muleshoe ISD voters will elect their Trustees to represent single member districts. While a candidate does not have to reside in a district to be elected to represent that district, only the voters residing in District 1 and District 4 are eligible to vote for the Trustee to represent that district.

Absentee voting will be from April 15 through April 30. Absentee voting is being conducted at the courthouse. On election day, May 4, the polls will be open 7 a.m.-7 p.m. at the high school cafeteria for voters from Districts 1 and 4 to elect the person to represent them for the next three year term.

They are shown here with Billy Gilbert, center, assistant manager of Servall Thriftway. They said they wanted to do more for people who have helped them than just say "Thank You." (Journal Photo)

To Anthony's Treasured Customers It's Business As Usual.

"You'll see the same friendly, personal service Anthony's has long been known for. Our promise is, it's business as usual."

Our hope is that you'll always be an Anthony's customer. Today ... and for years to come."

-John J. Wiesner
Chairman, Chief Executive Officer

The news that Anthony's has filed for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code should not be met with concern or alarm.

This action is as much a reflection of the nation's sensitive banking climate as it is of a tough retailing environment and Anthony's itself. It in no way dims the bright future that we see ahead for our company.

The fact is, a group of our banking partners have, for reasons of their own, chosen to no longer accommodate our needs for the short-term credit every retailer needs to run its business. Prior to this notification, we'd never missed an interest payment to a lender, made all payrolls, paid all of our suppliers and remained current on all our leases and taxes.

New lenders are now ready, willing and able to extend us the financing we need to go forward with our operations. Recognizing its responsibilities, the leadership of the company has acted in the best interests of our customers and 5,300 employees.

Continued Progress.

Since being purchased in 1987 by private investors, Anthony's has expanded, relocated or remodeled over one-third of the stores' square footage. And we've assembled an experienced, enthusiastic management team that's ready to lead us forward.

Reorganization means we'll continue to look for ways to operate more efficiently and perform more effectively in a manner that makes Anthony's stronger and stronger.

Miss Monica Swint, daughter of Kay Swint, a high school senior has been chosen as AAUW Girl of the Month for January. Each month the American Association of University women chooses a junior or senior student who demonstrates outstanding leadership qualities at school, and in her church and the community. Miss Swint is an excellent athlete and has been a member of the basketball and track teams all of her four years in high school. She has been also a member of the cross country team as a freshman, junior, and senior. She has been a four-year member of Future Teachers of America and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. As a sophomore Monica acted as the school mascot. Monica was nominated this year as a candidate for homecoming Queen and was honored at homecoming for this honor. She has also served as secretary of her class.

Through her membership in SCAC, Monica helps work to improve relationships between the school and the community. She works through this club to help preserve some of this area's heritage by contribution, both money and time to this end.

Monica is a member of the First Baptist Church. The members of AAUW say congratulations Monica, on your outstanding accomplishments.

MICROWAVE TIPS

How long does it take to thaw a pound of ground beef? While microwaves vary, here's an average:

Microwave on Defrost for three minutes on one side. Microwave the same time on the other side.

Then, break up the ground beef after scraping off the already-defrosted outsides, and microwave for two or three minutes more. With larger portions of ground beef, a second scraping and breaking may be necessary.

GIVE THE BOYS YOUR SUPPORT

Muleshoe Fire Boys are busy this week with a plan to raise funds for furnishing their new club room at the City Hall. The new quarters are just about finished and they want to get the place fixed up just as soon as possible. However they are not meeting with much success which they have a right to expect. Many residents of the city hesitate to cooperate with the boys in raising funds, evidently not thinking what the Muleshoe Fire Department means to every home and business in town.

These boys are volunteer firemen, and there are none better in the country. There are always some of them on the job, just in case your house should catch fire or your business building. They serve without pay day or night, good weather or bad. It's a thankless job in many instances, but they handle it well and the citizens of Muleshoe should assist them in every way possible. There is probably no other organization which calls on the public for help as seldom as the fire boys.

Through their efforts Muleshoe has a 25 percent good fire record credit, which is the limit under the law. It is possible for the law to work just the opposite, and get a 25 percent charge. With this fine volunteer fire company, your charge per hundred on insurance is 12 cents. If we did not have it the charge would be 30 cents. Think things over, and when the boys call on you, give them your support. Certainly They Deserve It!!!

EXENCIONES DE RESIDENCIA

PUEDEN REDUCIR LOS IMPUESTOS QUE PAGA POR SU CASA

Una exencion de residencia le ayuda a reducir los impuestos sobre la propiedad que tiene que pagar por su residencia reduciendo el valor que se utiliza como base para calcular sus impuestos. Por ejemplo, si su casa esta valorada de $50,000 y usted recibe una exencion de residencia de $5,000, usted va a pagar impuestos de residencia como si su valor fuese de $45,000.

Usted puede recibir una exencion de residencia si usted era el dueño de su casa el primero de enero y la usaba como su residencia principal en la misma fecha. No importa si su residencia es una casa, un condominio o una casa remolque.

Hay exenciones que cualquier persona que es dueño(a) de su residencia puede usar para rebajar sus impuestos escolares. Exenciones adicionales se ofrecen a dueños de residencia que están incapacitados o tienen 65 años o mas. Otras exenciones pueden ofrecerse a propietarios por distritos escolares, condados, ciudades y distritos escolares.

Solicite todas

las exenciones que usted puede recibir en la oficina local del distrito de valoración en la dirección que se cita abajo.

Si usted recibió una exencion para su residencia actual en 1990, usted no necesita solicitarla para 1991 a menos que el jefe de valoración pida que haga una nueva solicitud.

Sin embargo, si usted cumplió 65 años o quedó incapacitado antes del primero de enero haga una nueva solicitud para recibir exenciones adicionales.

Si usted no ha recibido una exencion para su residencia actual o si se cambio de su casa, haga una nueva solicitud para 1990.

Usted tiene que hacer su solicitud antes del 1 de mayo de 1991. Comuníquese con su distrito de valoración antes de esa fecha si necesita mas tiempo para hacerla.

Para tener mas informacion usted puede recibir una copia gratis del folleto los Derechos, Remedios y Responsabilidades del Contribuyente de Impuestos en la oficina del distrito de valoración o puede pedirla del Consejo Estatal de Impuestos sobre la Propiedad (State Property Tax Board) en Austin.

'Ragin' Cajun Dinner Benefits Special Olympics

The second annual "Ragin' Cajun" Dinner, to benefit the various programs of Texas Special Olympics, Area 17, will be held on Saturday, February 23, from 11 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. at Tommy's Place, 302 E. 82nd Street in Lubbock. Tickets are priced at $15.00 for adults and $5.00 for children age 10 and under, and are available at all three Cardinal's Sports Centers in Lubbock. Deadline for reservations is Thursday, February 21.

A "Boiling Pot" of fresh, tangy Cajun style seafood and vegetables will be served made with secret stuff, paprika, garlic, more secret stuff and more spices. The recipe is borrowed from the Cajun Bayou Country. Early Texans used the old cast iron boiling pot steaming over a live-oak fire pit to feed a crowd. While early recipes called for a French or Spanish Explorer to be thrown into a live-oak fire pit to feed a crowd.

While early recipes called for a French or Spanish Explorer to be thrown into the pot, modern cooks prefer crabs, and shrimp since these are easier to clean. Crab legs, shrimp, corn, potatoes and other choice ingredients, along with our own special seafood boil, makes a great feed.

Chairman Rayma Patterson says, "This is a different way to dine for the whole family. We invite you to come and 'try it our way'. And because of the success we enjoyed last year we have extended the hours and will be serving continuously from 11 a.m. to 8:30 p.m."

Casual dress is highly recommended. You will be given a mallet for cracking your crab legs, paper towels and a bib.

Texas Tech athletes and coaches, along with TV and Radio personalities, will serve you as celebrity waiters and will be on hand to help with your needs. Ponte Bone, a Cajun musician from Austin will entertain. Many groups will also perform throughout the entire event. A silent auction will be held and Special Olympics memorabilia will be available for purchase.

Special Olympics is founded on the belief that people with mental retardation can, with proper instruction and encouragement, learn to enjoy and benefit from participation in individual and team sports, adapted as necessary to physical limitation.

Twenty years ago experts said "that a man walking on the moon was impossible." Experts also said that persons with mental retardation couldn't run a hundred meters, swim the length of a pool, or play a game sport like basketball. As with lunar landings, the experts have been proven wrong.

"The true greatness of a society can be measured in how it treats its least fortunate members," John F. Kennedy.

Public Radio Intrudces New Music Programs

Four faculty members from the College of Fine Arts at Eastern New Mexico University are using their music knowledge and enthusiasm to produce three innovative music programs for public radio KENW/KMTH-FM (89.5 MHz). Dr. David Eisler, Dean of the College of Fine Arts; Dr. David Willoughby, Professor of Music; Lynn Ledbetter, Assistant Professor of Music; and Rob Radmer, Director of Orchestral Activities are contributing to public radio's efforts to introduce different types of music to the people of Eastern New Mexico and West Texas in a manner that entertains, inspires and educates.

Dr. Eisler presents Strike up the Band each Sunday at 4 p.m. (Mountain Time). Strike up the Band is an hour-long radio show dedicated to bringing the listening audience the best in band music. The program features recordings by professional, military, university, high school and junior high school band organizations. "Band music is the most widely practiced art form in our country, yet it is almost exclusively ignored on our airwaves. Strike up the Band is out to change that!" says Dr. Eisler, who hosted the radio show for ten years on three Alabama radio stations. Dr. Eisler was employed by the music department of Troy State University in Troy, Alabama, before going to Eastern last year.

Red Back Book, a program hosted by Dr. David Willoughby on Sunday nights at 9 (Mountain Time), presents different American classical, jazz, and folk music pieces, along with interesting music facts, music history and informed commentary. The program debuted in 1983 and is now coming back on the air after a three-year break. A frequent on-air guest is Karyl Lyne, ENMU's Director of Student Academic Services and Willoughby's co-host for the early programs. Special "encore" presentations of the best previous editions of this popular program will also be broadcast. Dr. Willoughby teaches music appreciation, jazz, contemporary music and music business at Eastern New Mexico University, and he has written for publication in the music field.

Lynn Ledbetter and Rob Radmer are the hosts for Turning the Tables, which airs each Sunday at 10 p.m. (Mountain Time). Lynn and Rob are professional musicians who are passionate and articulate about their music. This husband-and-wife chamber music ensemble is known as "The Paganini Duo," and both like to talk about music. They are also, by their own admission, wild and crazy, saying they want to bring classical music as close to as many people as possible without scaring them away. To do this, Ledbetter and Radmer present a wide variety of features such as "The Classics and how to recognize them," "Musician's Bizarre Deaths" and "Treble on the High C's". It is a program which promises to be a delightful blend of conversation, information and music.

Public radio specializes in providing quality, alternative radio programming. With the addition of these locally produced programs, KENW/KMTH-FM hopes to attract more people to public radio, people who are not familiar with the different types of music available on public radio or the quality fine arts activities of Eastern New Mexico University.

ment, said Mrs. Schuster.

In the proposal presented to the city council was a letter from MISD Assistant Superintendent Elizabeth Watson, as she outlined the advantages of having a museum in Bailey County, and some of the activities which could be recreated for the education of not only Bailey County school students, but also for students from surrounding schools.

Two windmills are scheduled to be moved to the complex and added to the scene.

Ongoing expenses, and minor repairs are handled through the MHF Thrift Shop, explained Mrs. Schuster, who also said she is actively seeking grants for restoration. At this time, she is working with 22 Foundations seeking grants.

Mayor Darrell Turner explained that the Hotel-Motel Tax brings in about $17,000 in four quarters in Muleshoe. The city is presently paying the water bill for the Heritage Foundation payments. They have received a total to date for the year of $45,968.35, compared to $42,689.55 received at this time last year.

In Parmer County, Friona received $14,268.89, up 9.68 percent from the $13,009.00 they received for February last year. They show an increase this year of 10.05 percent. They have received to date this year, $22,256.04, compared to the $20,476.50 they had received at the same time a year ago.

The city of Houston received the state's largest check of $26.8 million. Dallas received the state's second largest payment of $15.7 million. San Antonio received $8.9 million and Austin received $6.4 million.

Checks to counties totaled $16.9 million, up 23 percent from last February's checks of $13.7 million. The hefty increase is largely due to more counties now collecting sales tax than did at this time last year.

Merchants collect the state and local sales taxes and send them to the Comptroller's office with their tax returns. The state retains its share and rebates cities and counties their local portion of the sales tax each month.

All city and county sales taxes must be approved by area voters. Most areas put the money in their General Fund and use it for local operations like fire fighting, maintaining roads and law enforcement.

He said that by law, up to 50 percent of the Hotel-Motel Tax could be used for this type of operation (restoration projects) which would be about $8,500, less the $300 already paid by the city for water. The city had already approved $5,000 each year to be set aside for the Heritage Foundation. Mayor Turner assured MHF representatives that they are qualified applicants for the funds, adding, "This is an ambitious undertaking for your group. You need community support, and a big dose of it."

R. A. Bradley said, "This thing (the Heritage Foundation Complex) does not belong to us, the Heritage Foundation. We need people to realize it belongs to the community."

After a little more discussion, the council approved $8,200 for the Heritage Foundation to use in the restoration project.

Mrs. Schuster also told the council about three MHF board members who went to Washington, D. C. to receive an award for the MHF. She said the board members each personally paid their own expenses to make the trip.

In other action, the city council discussed the financial statement ending January 31, 1991, the first third of the current fiscal year, and set May 4 for election day. This year, a mayor will be elected. Current Mayor Darrell Turner announced his intention to seek reelection to his post.

City Manager Dave Marr said bids for the annual street seal coating, and for liners for the pond at the sewer treatment plant will be opened at the next meeting of the city council. He also asked council members to accompany him on a tour at the airport and the city wastewater treatment plant.

Anthony's Restructuring; Closing Some Stores

Anthony's, a specialty retailer of moderately priced family apparel based in Oklahoma City since 1922, has filed for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U. S. Bankruptcy Code.

John J. "Jack" Wiesner, Chairman and CEO of the $336 million company, cited actions taken recently by its bank lenders as the main reason for the filing.

"Our bank lenders, led by Continental Bank N.A. of Chicago, refused to fund our seasonal line of credit following a technical default of our loan agreement," said Wiesner.

"We believe their action was

Film Shown

To Rotarians

Two programs were introduced for the Muleshoe Rotary Club Tuesday at noon.

Terry Hutto was in charge of the program, and the first segment was a discussion on the new Precious Beginnings Birthing Project for the Muleshoe Area Medical Center.

Richelle Watkins, labor and delivery supervisor for the hospital introduced Kay Swint, director of nurses, prior to explaining what the hospital is attempting to do.

Mrs. Watkins described the project, and said the hospital had agreed to purchase a birthing bed at approximately $8,000 and the nurses were helping obtain funds to renovate the O.B. ward at the hospital.

She said, "Our goal is to compete with Lubbock. Both Methodist and St. Mary's Hospitals have beautiful Birthing Centers, and we want to be able to compete with them and keep our baby business at home."

"You are all businessmen. You know that by going to Lubbock, or to Clovis, they will be going back and forth for nine months. And, while in Lubbock or Clovis, will be doing their shopping while they are there."

"We want to give them an inviting atmosphere to have their babies, and keep the money they will be spending in Muleshoe."

The Rotarians took the request for funds under advisement. A checking account has been opened at First Bank, and as funds are available in the Precious Beginnings Birthing Project, work on renovating the obstetrics department will be underway.

For the second part of his program, Hutto showed a Boy Scout Leader training film on Child Abuse.

Hutto said all leaders are trained to watch for child abuse and use the film as a training film.

Before he showed the film, Hutto read a 'Child's Rights'. Boy Scouts are also utilizing the film to watch for child abuse for themselves and for their buddies, added Hutto.

According to the film, child abuse is neglect, emotional abuse, physical abuse and sexual abuse to a child under the age of 18.

Over one million children suffer from the abuse 'neglect' each year in the U. S., according to the film.

A portion of the film featured a 21-year old college student, who was talking to a government hearing on pornography about sexual abuse he suffered at the hands of an uncle from the age of 12-16. He told the Congressional hearing group how he felt, and what had happened to him as a result of the abuse.

The film pointed out that most people refuse to accept the theory of 'child abuse' even though they really know it is happening, all walks of life, to all ethnic groups.

It gave lists of things to watch for and how to detect child abuse.

Rotary President Bruce Purdy said that next week, Jerry Hicks will be in charge of the program and Max King will have the program the following week.

Guests at the Rotary Club meeting included Richelle Watkins, Kay Swint, Don Carter, Thurman Myers, Charles Riegel, Richard Edwards and Rotary Anns Jan Crawford, Joy Glover and Judy Watson.

unnecessary and that with their support we would have continued to make all payments of interest and principal as agreed. However, no business can continue to operate under these conditions, so we have taken the only avenue left open to us, seeking protection under the bankruptcy laws so we can continue operations.

Anthony's presently operates 216 stores in 16 states, and has approximately 5,300 employees. Under the provisions of the bankruptcy code, Anthony's has currently elected to close 10 of its 216 stores, thereby closing four of 19 stores in the Oklahoma City area, one of eight stores in Tulsa, four stores in Albuquerque, N.M., and one in Eagle Pass, Texas.

These closings will affect 192 employees. "We regret having to take this action," said Wiesner. "We value each and every employee, and will do our best to treat them as fairly as possible."

Customers with layaways and alterations will be contacted personally by store personnel. Refunds and exchanges will be handled at any other Anthony's store like always.

Wiesner said that the company's bank lenders refused to fund its seasonal line of credit "even though, prior to this notification by our bank lenders, we had paid all interest to banks and bondholders on time, and have over the past four years prepaid our principal to the banks. We have made all our payrolls, paid our suppliers, and remained current on all leases and taxes."

"All of the lenders' concerns still are not absolutely clear to us; however, they seem to stem from the events of the last half of 1990 and their effect on the economy as well as the performance of and outlook for the retail industry as a whole."

"Retailers today operate in an extremely difficult environment, and lenders are nervous since they are under increasingly intense scrutiny from regulators and shareholders. Obviously, they have their own problems."

However, Wiesner said that Anthony's is well positioned to emerge from the reorganization intact. "Our core financial situation is good," he noted. "We have received strong support from our bondholders, our equity holders, many of our key vendors, and our board of directors. In fact, we may be one of the strongest retail operations to ever seek protection under Chapter 11, and we believe we will come out of it with that strength intact. Unlike many Chapter 11 retailers, we have not pledged every available asset to our lenders. Our inventory is unencumbered and it alone totals approximately $72 million."

Wiesner said that the company hoped to complete the reorganization within 18 months. During that time, Anthony's would continue normal operations, with debtor-in-possession financing of up to $50 million provided by G. E. Capital.

Anthony's was founded in 1922 and operated as a partnership until 1926, when the company was incorporated in Oklahoma as C. R. Anthony Company. In April, 1987, Anthony's was acquired by a group of private investors. A group of banks led by Continental Bank provided approximately 36 percent of the funding for the acquisition. Since 1987, $24 million of the original $40 million acquisition debt to bank lenders has been retired by Anthony's through timely payments or prepayments.

"We have been able to service our debt, despite the fact that the retail environment over the past few years has been one of challenge and change," said Wiesner. "And what we have been able to achieve in 46 months since the acquisition has been significant

-- we have remodeled over one-third of the square footage in our total system, identified and closed several nonperforming operations, and hired a new, aggressive management and merchandising team -- all at a time when the retail industry as a whole was undergoing a significant downturn.

"We experienced volume shortfall during the all-important 1990 holiday season, when our territories were hit with two brutal ice storms, one in the critical week just prior to Christmas. These unforeseeable and uncontrollable acts of nature had a major impact -- we had the proper levels of inventory and all the necessary controls in place, we just didn't have the volume."

Wiesner added that this surprise action by Anthony's bank lenders coincided with the end of the holiday selling season, when the company had cash on hand and was out of its line of credit.

"Make no mistake, this is not the way we would choose to run our business," said Wiesner. "We have exerted every effort to avoid taking this action, but time was not on our side. Now we have to move forward with the refinancing and restructuring of our debt."

"There is no doubt in my mind -- or in the minds of the many people involved in this reorganization -- that Anthony's will emerge from this with the same operating values and standards we have held for almost 70 years. We will be doing everything in our power to continue business as usual in the Anthony's tradition of providing excellent service and quality products at an exceptional value."

MHS Graduate Proves He's A Good Boxer

By Richard Martinez
Express News, San Antonio

Servicemen from four military branches cheered on their favorite fighters Thursday night during the finals of the Armed Forces Boxing Championships at Kelly Air Force Base.

An estimated 1,200 fans, most of whom were active military personnel, squeezed into the Bennett Fitness Center to witness the event, which pitted boxers from the Army, Marines, Air Force and Navy.

The Army came away with five victories on the heels of super heavyweight Terry Carter's last-bout decision over Archie Perry of the Marines.

The Marines had four victories, the Navy two and the Air Force one.

Highly regarded bantamweight Sergio Reyes of the Marines showed why he is ranked No. 1 in the world as he decisioned Antonio Orozco of the Army.

(Editor's note: Orozco is a native of Muleshoe, and a graduate of Muleshoe High School.)

In other bouts, James Young of the Navy paid no attention to chants of "sink that ship" from a partisan Air Force crowd backing Randolph Callender. Young scored a decision in the welterweight event.

Bringing on the loudest cheers of the evening was Larry Wheeler of the Air Force, who won a slugfest over Patrick Washington of the Army. Among the fans at the finals were three busloads of Air Force recruits, most of whom left the center hoarse.

Reyes was in a tough fight against Orozco despite Orozco getting two standing - eight counts.

"I'm satisfied with my performance," Reyes, 21, said. "He was a tough fighter. It was a learning experience for me.

"I pumped good rights but I wasn't following up. I didn't double hook."

Reyes said that being No. 1 in the world sometimes puts added pressure on him.

"My teammates expect me to stop my opponent every time," Reyes said. "I can't do that. I'm not invincible, I'm only human. I try to go in there to score points.

"I'm a short fighter so that gives me more punching power. Usually, I fight taller fighters."

Orozco was happy to just last the whole three rounds with Reyes.

"I did better than I thought I would," Orozco said. "I've been out of boxing for over two years. He's (Reyes) as strong as everybody said he was."

While Orozco brought two years of ring rust into the ring, Reyes came in with impressive credentials.

The Fort Worth Native began boxing 15 years ago. He won the state Golden Gloves title from 1986-88, becoming only the third fighter to win three-straight state titles. The other three-time winners were Corpus Christi's Jesse Benavides and Beaumont's Bubba Busceme.

Orozco will be competing in National Finals on February 25. The bouts will be carried over TBS, Channel 10, from Colorado Springs, CO.

On Retail Sales

Retail sales grew a weak 3.8 percent last year as consumers spent at the slowest annual pace since the last recession eight years ago, a Commerce Department report showed.

TEAMS Testing Packets Ready

The out-of-school examinee registration packets for the Texas Educational Assessment of Minimum Skills (TEAMS) exit level test are now available at the Muleshoe High School.

During each regular exit level test administration, individuals who are no longer enrolled in school and have not previously passed both sections of the TEAMS test but have met all other graduation requirements, may retake the section(s) not passed.

During the April administration, the English language arts test will be administered on Wednesday, April 3, 1991, and the mathematics test will be administered on Thursday, April 4, 1991.

Individuals who are no longer enrolled in a Texas public school and wish to register to retake the exit level mathematics and/or English language arts test(s) may pick up a registration packet at any high school campus, district central office, or education service center.

Registration forms must be completed and returned in the pre-addressed envelope and are to be received in Iowa City, Iowa, no later than 5:00 p.m. March 13, 1991.

The Texas Education Agency and National Computer Systems will not be responsible for registration forms that are delayed or lost in the mail. It is suggested that individuals registering for the test make arrangements with the appropriate postal agent for a proof of delivery notice.

Questions concerning out-of-school examinee testing should be directed to Linda Marr, Counselor, at Muleshoe High School, telephone 272-3080.

Jody Copp, Garrett Magby, Casey Bradshaw, Cade Morris, Edward Terry, Brett Thomas and Lori Bradshaw.

Copp said Lazbuddie exhibitors will be leaving for the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Thursday morning.

Farm Bureau Praises EPA

Texas Farm Bureau President S.M. True has commended the Environmental Protection Agency's appointment of Temple farmer John Baker as agricultural consultant, calling it a "very positive decision for Texas agriculture."

Baker, who raises wheat, corn, grain sorghum and runs stocker cattle in Bell County, will be serving as a liaison between ag producers and EPA on matters impacting the environment.

True said Baker's vast knowledge and experience in agriculture, both as a producer and as an Extension specialist, make him "very qualified to serve both the interest of agriculture and EPA."

Baker served on the TFB Board of Directors, 1982-88, including four years as vice president. He was chosen vice president of the Texas Beef Industry Council in 1987. He is currently serving as president of the Lone Star Corn Growers Association.

Baker holds a M.S. degree in agronomy and a doctorate in soil sciences from Oklahoma for six years prior to returning to farming in his native Bell County in 1974.

True noted that Baker has demonstrated his commitment to protecting natural resources as a producer and also as chairman of the Texas water study committee, an ad hoc panel consisting of farmers, and also as a member of the National Corn Growers' Environmental Task Force.

Homeownership

Americans are less likely to own a home today than they were a decade ago, as the nation's households have edged away from their traditional family orientation, the Census Bureau reported.

Audits Show High Compliance With Texas

Beef Checkoff

Compliance with the beef checkoff program in Texas is extremely high, the Texas Beef Industry Council board of directors reported recently. It made its announcement following a series of audits conducted on both randomly selected collection sites and those suspected of failing to report or turn in checkoff funds.

The audits also showed that TBIC's methods of detecting collection sites that do not comply is precise and comprehensive.

"The Texas checkoff program relies on the willingness of the state's producers to collect and report checkoff dollars," Jim Schwertner of Austin, a TBIC board member, said in announcing the audit results. "The random audits show that Texas beef producers understand and comply with the beef checkoff program."

TBIC is charged by law with collecting $1 per head each time a bovine is sold in Texas. The money generates state-national coordinated programs of beef promotion, research and education.

The Beef Board, the producer-run organization that oversees the beef checkoff program, requires TBIC to monitor compliance through audits of collection sites. Clection sites collect and remit checkoff assessments for producers who do business with them.

Audits conducted last year of eight collection sites selected at random showed that five had complied with the program to the letter of the law, two sites had minor accounting errors that resulted in $145 owed TBIC, and one collection site had overpaid $7,463 in checkoff funds. That overpayment will be refunded.

A TBIC computer program indiscriminately chose the two auction markets, two dealer-order buyers, two feedyards and two packers for auditing from all such companies doing business in Texas. Two dairy sites chosen at random will also be audited.

In addition to random audits, TBIC can also subpoena records of any producer or collection site suspected of noncompliance.

"TBIC monitors all cattle transactions in Texas through computer-cross checking, field work, reports in magazines and newspapers, and review of animal health records for exported cattle," Schwertner said.
"Producers who do not comply are sent letters and contacted by phone. If they fail to remit what they owe, an audit is ordered."

To date, TBIC has audited only four collection sites for suspected noncompliance. Examination of their records showed that together these four sites owed the beef industry approximately $51,000 in checkoff cunds. Ninety percent of these delinquent checkoff dollars has been collected.

Schwertner said the results of both the random and ordered audits show that Texas producer compliance compares favorably to all other states. That includes Western states that collect checkoff dollars through mandatory brand inspection.

"Since Texas has more cattle numbers and more cattle transactions by far than any other state, Texas producers are to be congratulated for their attention to checkoff assessments," Schwertner said. "Everyone in the industry wants to make this program work. If you have any questions on how or when to report checkoff dollars, contact

TBIC's collections department.

They can answer your questions by phone or send you a brochure that explains your responsibilities."

The TBIC collections department's address is: 8310 Capital of Texas Hwy. N., Ste 440, Austin, TX 78731; (512) 345-3531.

TBIC will conduct 12 more audits of randomly selected collection sites in 1991. Producers selected will be notified by letter within the next few months.

Girls Basketball Teams Rank High In State

The Nazareth girls earned a
No. 1 state ranking, and Abernathy, Tulia and Levelland are No. 2 in their classifications in the first weekly Texas Association of Basketball Coaches-Lubbock Avalance-Journal
high school poll released Sunday.

Nazareth's 9-8 start under new coach Denese Skinner didn't deter poll selectors from making the perennially formidable Swiftettes No. 1 in Class 1A.

Both the Abernathy girls and boys are No. 2 in Class 2A, making it the only school in the state to have both its teams ranked first or second.

Tulia (15-2) is second in the 3A girls rankings, but the top 10 freshadows a fiercely competitive Region 1-3A tournament. The Lady Hornets are one of five Region 1 teams in the top 10. Canyon is first, Dimmitt sixth, Dripping Springs seventh and defending state champion Abilene Wylie 10th.

Levelland's 19-2 showing earned it the No. 2 spot among Class 4A girls.

In all, seven South Plains girls teams and five area boys squads claimed spots in the poll.

Crosbyton is sixth among 2A girls, and Sudan and Happy rank fifth and seventh, respectively, among 1A girls.

In additin to Abernathy,
South Plains boys squads appearing in the state poll are Lamesa (sixth in 4A), Denver
City (fifth in 3A), Dimmitt (eighth in 3A) and Lorenzo (10th in 1A).
