Foul Play Feared In Disappearance Proves In Error

Year that the brother of an Artesia man had met with foul play in route to Hobbs proved error today as it was reported man—listed on police records missing—was safe and sound in his home.

Hobbs, missing after his brother, Gerald Counts, 1006 1/2 West Grand, told them he had failed to arrive at home after leaving here at 3 p. m. Monday.

He said Counts is a fiddler at the State Line Bar near Hobbs and "has a job and responsibilities and is not the type to take 'French Leave.'"

As late as 12:30 this afternoon Gerald considered his brother among the missing. However, it was all a mistake.

A check by the Advocate revealed that Counts worked last night. The brother was then called again and he said he had just been notified details of the "disappearance."

It seems that Murrel became ill as he was en route to his home and stopped at the home of a friend, Henry Chandler, east of Artesia. Chandler brought Counts to an Artesia doctor for treatment and Counts remained at the Chandler residence overnight.

When he had not reached his home by noon Tuesday, Counts' mother notified the brother here he was missing. However, he arrived at home later in the day and no notice of his arrival was sent to the brother here.

Bill Jones, Senior end of the Artesia Bulldogs, District 4AA football champions, was named the school's "player of the year" last night at the annual banquet of the Roswell Quarterback Club.

The banquet at New Mexico Military Institute drew an overflow crowd which saw trophies presented to a number of the state's top football players.

Dr. William H. Alexander, pastor of the First Christian Church in Oklahoma City, was main speaker at the banquet.

Others named players of the year were Gayle Phillips, Carlsbad; Tom Barnett, Carizozo; Joe Gallagos; Ray Wallace, Eunice; and Sal Gonzales, Gadsden.

Taking a bow along with Jones was head coach Reese Smith. All senior players on the Bulldog team were guests at the event.

L,300 Fewer Are Employed Here Than Month Ago

A drop of 1,300 in agricultural employment in the Artesia area during the last month was reported today by the local office of the New Mexico State Employment service.

The office said the number employed in that field dropped from 3,735 to 2,435, with the thinning cotton crop and the departure of Mexican Nationals primary causes for the decrease.

Employment in non-agricultural fields remained high, the NMSES office said, with no drop indicated prior to January.

The number of registered unemployed remained the same as last month at 108, including 42 female applicants and 22 veterans. There is no concentration of applicants in any field. Of those registered as unemployed 22 are filing claims for unemployment compensation—a drop of seven from last month's 29. Those filing are primarily oil field workers.

Artesia Man Bound Over In Car Theft

Albert Tesillo, 20, Route 1, Artesia, in justice of the peace court here yesterday pleaded guilty to a charge of driving a vehicle without the owner's consent and was certified for action in the district court.

Bond was set at $1,000 and he Tesillo remanded to the custody of the sheriff's office.

Tesillo, with a juvenile companion, was arrested 14 miles north of here Nov. 27 after he had allegedly taken a car belonging to Pedro Delgado, 409 Gage St.

The juvenile involved was released without charge.

In other action justice of the peace court here yesterday, a case was dismissed against Cecil Doyal Roswell, on a charge of selling or disposing of mortgaged property.

Assistant District Attorney Charles Feizer asked for dismissal of the case on grounds that the complainant, Ralph Hersey, by filing a civil suit after the criminal complaint was filed, waived his right to pursue remedy on the mortgage through the criminal complaint.

Feizer asked the court for a continuance in the case of Cruz Ortega, Carlsbad, who was to have been given a preliminary hearing here yesterday on a charge of possession of marijuana, until an official analysis could be made of the supposed marijuana found in Ortega's possession.

John Ellicott, justice of the peace until Dec. 6, which he said is a tentative date only, said Ortega was arrested Nov. 6 at Carlsbad in the possession of an envelope that allegedly contained marijuana. The name and address of an Artesia man, Raymond Fierro, were found on the envelope, which led to a raid by sheriff's officer on the man's home where a large quantity of marijuana was allegedly found. Fierro pleaded innocent to a charge of possession and sale of marijuana in a preliminary hearing here Nov. 22.

Judge Ellicott today assessed a fine of $15 against Jose Pacheco Gomez on a charge of drunkenness.

Clovis Firm Low Bidder On Ag Building

An $84,624 bid for construction of a vocational agriculture building for Artesia High School system was awarded to W. R. Bauske & Co., Clovis, yesterday.

The contract was awarded by the board of education at a special meeting. A total of six bids were opened, with the Bauske bid the lowest.

A completion date of Aug. 1, 1956 has been set for the project and the contractor told the school board he is ready to begin at once.

A number of alternates were omitted from a base bid of $102,000. Among them were a toilet costing $8,503; a service yard and shed at $2,171; cooler, $750; chair hoist, $300; asphalt tile, $900 and lighting fixtures, $4,900.

Fowler also announced the arrival today of a carload of eight-inch sewer tile to be used for completion of a sewer project in the Barnett addition.

A new street sweeper for the city, that was due for delivery here the latter part of November, has not yet arrived or been heard from as the month draws to a close, Fowler mentioned.

Conquistador Council Fund May Top $10,000 In Drive

In view of collections to date it appears that the Conquistador Council Boy Scout fund drive may equal or top last year's mark, which was in excess of $10,000, Clyde Guy, district finance chairman, said at a meeting here last night of the Gateway District Scout committee.

Guy said contributions of $6,500 have been made to date.

Guests at the meeting were Max Hatfield, Scout executive of Region nine, Dallas, Tex.; Tommy Cochran, Scout executive, Roswell; and Yorrel Harris, assistant Scout executive, Roswell.

Hatfield announced that plans have been laid for the 1957 National Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., where 75,000 scouts are expected to participate.

John Simons, Jr., advancement chairman, said that a district court of honor will be announced sometime in January.

Robert McAnally, Troop 8 Scoutmaster, announced a troop court of honor for the second week in December at Artesia.

Plans to add three more Explorer Scout posts for Artesia were announced by George White, organization extension chairman. There is at present only one such post.

G. E. Kaiser, health and safety chairman, announced plans for his committee soon to visit all Scout units in this area to check on health and safety conditions.

The finance chairman urged all Conquistador Fund drive workers to turn in their cards as soon as possible. He estimated that about 50 per cent of the workers had already turned in their cards.

Last night's meeting was presided over by Vernon Mills, district committee chairman.

Dewey Strickland, new field executive for Artesia, said that he plans to move here from Roswell soon, and may be reached, until that time, by calling Mills at the School Administration office.

Las Cruces Man Bound Over In Nov. 22 Shooting

LAS CRUCES (AP)—Floyd D. Hollis, 24, has been bound over to District Court and put under $50,000 bond in the Nov. 20 slaying of Bill Vernon Thower in a Las Cruces trailer car.

Hollis was charged with the murder of Thower on Nov. 22, when the shooting climaxed a series of arguments and fights which began in Juarez, Mexico.

Both men and their wives had been in Juarez and were enroute to Las Cruces when an argument broke out over who should drive the car.

Authorities said Hollis told them in a signed statement that he had shot Thower, but that he had done so in self defense.

Mechem For V-P Rumor Doubted

CHICAGO (AP)—New Mexico Republican leaders today discounted reports that plans were being laid to boom former Gov. Edwin L. Mechem as a vice presidential candidate next year.

Albert Mitchell and Mrs. Earl Moulton, national committee members, and State GOP Chairman Merrill B. Johns Jr. were in Chicago for the Republican national committee meeting today and tomorrow.

"I don't believe Mr. Mechem would consider such a promotion at all," Mrs. Moulton said.

Johns said he knew of no plans in his state to counter an expected Eisenhower-Nixon ticket. But he added that Mechem would be a good choice for a high post.

In New Mexico there have been reports indicating that some quiet talking has been done to prepare now an attorney in Albuquerque for a ticket including Mechem, for the Santa Fe Railway system, in the event that President Eisenhower does not seek a second term.

C. Of C. Advise Not Asked In Permits, Clerk

Tom Ragsdale, city clerk, today emphasized that he issues city licenses, including licenses to peddlers, in his own initiative and that he does not go on Chamber of Commerce recommendations.

Paul Scott, Chamber of Commerce manager yesterday warned Artesia residents against transient peddlers selling inferior products from door to door during the Christmas season, and said that the city clerk's office had in some cases issued licenses to peddlers without first getting Chamber approval.

Ragsdale today said that the Chamber had nothing to say about who is issued a city license and that he does not go by Chamber recommendations in issuing licenses.

"I am authorized by the city council to issue licenses on my own initiative unless it is something that in my judgement may be controversial, like this pool hall, then I refer it to the council," Ragsdale said.

Scott said, when informed of Ragsdale's comment, that the Chamber and the city are supposed to be cooperating in the issuance to the extent that the Chamber may recommend against licenses being given certain businesses that have been investigated by the Chamber but found to be not on the up and up.

Deputy Sheriff A. Archuleta Jr. of Las Cruces, enrolled in the high school. He went to classes and student parties for three weeks while gathering evidence.

The probe, aimed primarily at sources supplying liquor to juveniles, was done mostly by out-of-town law enforcement officers as part of a cooperative effort of all law forces directed by Dist. Atty. C. C. Chase.

Other law officers posed as air men wearing civilian clothes while they frequented bars and checked on Sunday liquor purchases.

Archuleta is married and has a family. He explained his 30 years of age by saying he was a Korean War veteran catching up on his work. He reported that most of the drinking he found was not connected with the school in any way.

High State Police Defend Crackdown

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Top officials of the New Mexico State Police today defended the highway safety "crackdown" and denied speculation heard in one community that the whole thing is merely a publicity stunt.

Police Board Chairman Everett Grantham said: "Of course it's not a publicity stunt and of course the laws are being enforced all the time."

In Santa Fe, Chief Joe Roach also denied the publicity stunt report, while acknowledging that publicity arising from such a crackdown can help by making the public conscious of the problem.

"During the month of October alone, the State Police issued almost 4,000 citations," Grantham said.

man beings needs to be kept on its toes from time to time. The crackdown is also a reminder to the public that we have these laws for the protection of their own lives. It's strict enforcement and it's going to continue to be strict enforcement.

"We're trying to save lives. The crackdown is one way of pointing it up."

Roach also said the objective of the crackdown is to save the lives and he said he believes the first results show it to be successful.

Grantham said Friday that the State Police had done an above-average job in patrolling traffic, but fatal accidents nevertheless increased. He announced that the board was directing Roach and the force "to put forth every extra effort" and to use whatever means are available in the drive.

Roach said, "I do think that fatal accidents have declined since this campaign started, which is the main object of the program. There is no doubt that at a time like this the men are increasing activity even beyond a state policeman's normal day which many people would find is somewhat rigorous and one of long hours."

"The drive was started after nine deaths occurred in two days last week. Roach spoke at a time when there had been two new traffic deaths in the four days after the start of the campaign.

"Sure, our men are arresting violators all the time," Roach said. "But it seems to me and other state officer that there is nothing out of line with ordering an especially strong enforcement program in times of emergency and telling the force to redouble its efforts. Don't forget too, that one phase of the campaign is to enlist the help of local enforcement officers."

"It doesn't seem to me to be any reflection on a group of sincere, hardworking state policemen who are doing a day-to-day job of which we are proud to have to ask for an intensified crackdown during a period of emergency like the present one, when the motorist public for some reason seems to go haywire. The current crackdown was ordered by the governor and the Traffic Commission at a time when we rapidly were losing the improvement we had built up in the 1955 death figures compared with a year ago.

"If publicity enters into a drive like this, I can't think of a better cause, than to educate the public to present-day traffic dangers."

Director Jess Holmes of the Traffic Safety Commission said that as far as he was concerned Grantham's remark about the crackdown being a reminder to the public amply took care of the situation.

"I certainly feel that any crackdown is primarily for the purpose of warning the public about their driving habits. And it is evident that the public is not paying any attention to traffic regulations or we would not have this recent increase in fatal accidents."

Chamber Reports 10,000 Treasure Treasures Distributed

Under the Christmas Treasure Hunt program, 110,000 tickets were distributed among 27 participating merchants to be given out to their customers, Paul Scott, Chamber of Commerce manager said today.

Over 200 prizes, ranging in value from $5 to $25, will be given away to merchants to holders of the treasure hunt numbers.

The Treasure Hunt works like this: visitors are given tickets and then may shop other participating stores to see if his ticket number corresponds to any of the winning numbers posted, along with the prizes, on display in the stores.

The number of the customer's ticket may correspond with a winning number in any of the participating stores so that he will be able to visit all of the stores to find his lucky number.

Scott warned ticket holders not to tear up their tickets because winning numbers on display in stores will be changed from day to day. A ticket number that is not on display one day, may be text.

SALES TAX UP

SANTA FE, (AP)—The State Bureau of Revenue reports that sales tax receipts for October this year totaled some $320,000 more than they did for October 1954. The total for this October was $2,292,354, representing the tax paid on a gross of almost 194 million dollars.

FIVE SERGEANTS NAMED

SANTA FE, (AP)—Five of the 17 senior patrolmen applicants were selected by the State Police Board today as new sergeants. The five are A. B. Munsey of Portales; Martin Vigil, Espanola; S. J. Smith, Alamogordo; Dwight Marable, Albuquerque; and I. E. Salazar, Santa Fe.

Last five years newcomers have averaged more than 40,000 a year. They and those already there have needed new homes.

The bureau notes that "all the resources of all the banks, saving and loan associations and insurance companies domiciled in Arizona are not large enough to support this volume of construction." So Arizona has called upon out-of-state institutions.

Financing new industries is another competitive struggle for outside money among the newer and faster growing regions.

Some states are sending delegations to the Eastern financial centers to seek out investment money.

Tighter Money Pinching Fast Growing Areas

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Tighter money and costlier borrowing is likely to pinch first and most painfully in some of the faster growing sections of the nation.

In most cases they have been making their growth on imported money. Their own economy isn't rich enough yet to generate the needed investments.

Those areas — the West and South and the Midwest farming states now seeking to diversify by luring industries — are competing keenly for the funds still concentrated to a large degree in the older financial centers.

Northern and Eastern money is building many of the homes, factories and even the schools and highways that give physical evidence of the postwar shifts in population and industry around the nation.

That is why these fast-growing areas have uttered the loudest squawks about costlier credit and scarcer money supply. The tighter money policy is aimed at braking the boom before it leads to runaway inflation.

How the economic makeup of various sections of the nation is changing and why funds have been flowing from the Northeast in record amounts in recent years can be seen in a number of examples around the land.

To house the thousands of Americans on the move has taxed the ingenuity of bankers and mortgage brokers in many states.

One is Arizona. The Bureau of Business Research of the University of Arizona notes that over the

Traditional Holiday Pies

This is the time of year when the spicy air of fall and winter can be matched on the dining table.

Bakers have assembled from all over the world the ingredients, with emphasis on spices, necessary to produce the nation's favorite fall desserts—mince pie and pumpkin pie.

Cinnamon, ginger, nutmeg, mace, cloves, allspice, candied citron, fruits and nuts — these are the products which produce the tantalizing aroma and the wonderful taste which have made these traditional desserts a standard in American homes since the forefathers settled in Virginia and Massachusetts more than 300 years ago.

Cloves come from Madagascar, British East Africa, Lebanon and Mozambique; allspice from Jamaica; cinnamon from China and Burma; ginger from British West Africa, Jamaica, China, and Cuba; nutmeg and mace from Indonesia; and nuts and fruits from our nation and abroad.

They all meet on American tables at this time of year, in the pumpkin and mince pies featured particularly on Thanksgiving Day.

When these pies first came to the American scene, spices were even more important than they are today. In Colonial times, spices were guarded jealously by the master of the house, kept locked in his private desk. They were considered treasures to be used only on special occasions.

Today the spice shelves at home are filled with a wider variety than our forefathers could hope to own. But, then as now, their most important use is on the day when all America gives thought to its blessings and returns its thanks to the Great Power which has made those blessings a reality.

Television Top Incubator Of Acting Talent

By CHARLES MCKER

NEW YORK, (AP)—Television has become the prime incubator of talent for the movies and the theater.

This is the opinion of David Susskind, who certainly should be well-informed on the subject. As executive producer and vice president of Talent Associates, a TV packaging firm, he is responsible for such shows as TV Playhouse, Armstrong Circle Theater, Justice and Appointment with Adventure.

"The movies and the theater are looking to television today as never before," he says. "Any half-decent TV show provides a barrage of movie interest. Television has ceased to be the Class B league to its older brothers, the theater and movies. Today it's Yankee Stadium."

The talented graduates of television form an illustrious company. Susskind points out. There are such actresses as Grace Kelly and Eva Marie Saint, who got their starts in television and now are movie stars. There are directors such as Delbert Mann. But one of the most surprising develop-

Miami's Fate As Member Of Association Hangs In Balance

COLUMBUS, Ohio. (AP)—Miami's fate as a potential member of the American Assn. hung in the balance today as league directors studied a "dry run" schedule to determine mileage and expenses of travel to the Southern city.

One baseball man said in all seriousness, "The best thing would be for each club to buy its own plane."

Wyoming Named To Sun Bowl Battle Jan. 2

EL PASO. (AP)—The University of Wyoming was named yesterday to face Texas Tech in the Sun Bowl game here Jan. 2.

Tech, champion of the Border Conference, was named as the host team earlier.

The chairman of the Sun Bowl selection committee said Wyoming was the only team to which an invitation was sent for the game.

Wyoming has a season record of 7-2. The only two losses were a 14-13 defeat by Colorado A&M and a 6-3 loss to Denver University.

Wyoming still has one more game this season, meeting the University of Houston at Houston Saturday.

Texas Tech lost to the University of Houston and Texas Christian University and tied Texas Western. The Red Raiders have defeated Texas, Oklahoma A&M, West Texas State, Arizona, Tulsa, College of the Pacific and Hardin-Simmons.

Friday Tells If Babe Faces More Cancer Battles

GALVESTON. (AP)—It will be at least Friday before tests can be completed to determine whether golfer Babe Zaharias faces a third fight against cancer, her doctor said last night.

Dr. Robert M. Moore, the physician, had Mrs. Zaharias re-enter John Seely Hospital Sunday after she complained of a pain in her right hip and leg. She has been operated on twice for cancer.

The only visitors allowed yesterday in the room of Mrs. Zaharias, a voted the top woman athlete of the half century, was her husband, former wrestler George Zaharias, and golfing companion Betty Dodd.

Experts Could Not Have Been Farther Wrong Than In SWC

FORT WORTH. (AP)—Did the sports writers and sports casters ever miss on the 1955 Southwest Conference football race?

They couldn't have been farther wrong than if they'd made a determined effort.

They picked Rice to win and Texas A&M to finish last. They put Southern Methodist second, Baylor third, Texas fourth, Texas Christian fifth and Arkansas sixth.

Here's the finish:
1. Texas Christian
2. Texas A&M
3. Texas
4. Arkansas
5. Southern Methodist and Baylor tied
7. Rice

The association made a conciliatory move yesterday toward the Milwaukee Braves, who persist in trying to shift their Toledo franchise to Miami despite solid league opposition. It asked for a sample schedule. One was drawn up calling for two trips to each city, including two 2,100-mile hops between Miami and Denver.

There were indications, however, that the opposition was weakening in view of the association's new headache at Louisville. The Boston Red Sox, who have operated at Louisville since 1938, put the franchise on the market Monday night after they bought the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast League.

Johnny Murphy, Boston farm director, promised to give the association a definite statement of policy by Saturday, if possible. Boston has advised Fred Grimm, Louisville general manager, to try to negotiate a sale to local interests.

An outside group, which would operate in Louisville, also is bidding. Ed Doherty, association president and a former Boston executive, was confident the Red Sox would do "the honorable thing."

This was interpreted to mean the Red Sox would operate at Louisville, sale or not.

Carmen Basilio Risks Crown Against Scrappy Tony DeMarco

BOSTON. (AP)—Welterweight champion Carmen Basilio, a battle-scarred veteran unbeaten in more than two years, returns a courtesy and risks his title against young Tony DeMarco tonight in a rematch of one of the year's best slugfests.

Basilio, a 26-year-old ex-Marine from Canastota, N. Y., rules only a slight favorite in his first defense since lifting the title from the 23-year-old bomb-throwing Bostonian in a sensational brawl last June 10.

Odds dropped from 9-5 to less than 7-5 on Basilio. The Boston Garden fight is scheduled for 15 rounds, but few experts figure it will go the distance.

Basilio, with an undefeated string of 14 fights, is returning a courtesy by meeting DeMarco on the challenger's home grounds. Tony made his first defense of the title in Syracuse, N. Y., and lost the crown in a 12th-round TKO.

The champion also will be OK to halt what could become a string in the last two welter title fights, champions have lost the crown in first defenses. DeMarco stopped Johnny Saxton, making his first defense of the championship, in the 14th round April 1, and then lost to Basilio. All told, 11 welterweight champions have lost their titles the first time they've put them on the line, and seven have regained them. ABC will broadcast and telecast the bout, with New England TV blacked out.

The projects of another bristling punching duel and DeMarco's fine showing in training has resulted in a brisk ticket sale. Promoter Sam Silverman expects a near-capacity crowd of 13,000 and gross receipts of about $190,000.

Since winning the title, Basilio has gone 20 rounds in competition, outpointing Italo Scorticini and Gil Turner in over-the-weight affairs. He has an over-all record of 47-11-7 with 21 knockouts and never has been stopped.

DeMarco has had only one fight since losing his title—a quick first-round TKO over Chico Vejar in Boston Sept. 14. His record is 41-5-1 with 26 kayos. He has been stopped three times.

FARMLAND PRICES UP

Farm land values, the report said, rose five per cent between March and July bringing them two per cent above their general level as of July, 1954.

Trade Talks Blossom With Frank Lane In Most Action

COLUMBUS, Ohio. (AP)—Major league trade talk, almost nil during the opening days of the minors' convention, perked up briskly today and, as usual, frantic Frankie Lane, the holdest barterer of them all, was right in the middle of things.

The energetic general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, who has found it tough sledding in his efforts to swing his first National League swap since he quit the Chicago White Sox last month, appeared finally to be making some headway.

He spent most of yesterday in conference with officials of the New York Giants, Philadelphia Phillies and Chicago Cubs. While no deal stemmed from these long sessions, it was expected that something will develop when he resumes negotiations with the three clubs today.

Lane admitted he was seeking a veteran catcher, a right-handed hitting outfielder and front-line pitcher.

AAU Delegates To Map Olympic Plans At Meet

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The men behind the muscles will get together in Louisville tomorrow to map American participation in the 1956 Olympics.

Four days of sessions by about 450 delegates of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States will be devoted largely to paper work for the winter games in Cortina, Italy, and the summer games in Melbourne, Australia.

They will discuss such questions as how to raise a fabulous amount of funds to send U. S. teams to those far shores, and how to feed and clothe them upon their arrival.

The objective here is to see that no athlete is denied the privilege of competing for lack of money. A goal of $400,000 has been set for the Olympic fund. On the other side of the agenda will be an assortment of decisions affecting the country's play-for-fun athletes.

The AAU, ruling body of the Simon Pures will award championship events for the coming year—many of them looking toward the Olympics; pass on athletic records claimed during the year, and consider changes in the rules of competition.

Reports Claim Nashua Stable To Be Auctioned

NEW YORK. (AP)—Despite denials by an executor of the estate, there were persistent reports today that the great Nashua and other racing holdings of the late William Woodward Jr., estimated at 5 million dollars, will be put up for auction within 90 days.

Several New York newspapers published the report last night with the Daily Mirror flatly stating that the familiar red and white polka dot colors of the Behar Stud under which two generations of the Woodward family raced their thoroughbreds would be retired.

The Mirror story, under the byline of sports editor Dan Parker, said the decision had been reached by executors of the estate left by Woodward, a prominent sportsman-socialite who was shot to death accidentally by his wife last October 30.

John W. Ludwig, one of the executors, denied the report, however. "Everyone is free to speculate, of course," he said. "But no decision has been made in the matter."

Eunice Griddler Second Runner In Mo. Valley

ST. LOUIS. (AP)—Fullback LeRoy Hinman, the clutch runner and defense demon of Wichita's co-champions, jumped from seventh to runner-up in the Missouri Valley running during his team's closing three-game drive.

The last 200-pounder from Eunice, N. M., the man the Kansans called on for vital yardage the past two seasons, gained 232 yards in his last three games to finish with 478 and 5-4 yard average.

Hinman's record is unique in the valley in one respect—he wasn't thrown for even a yard loss all season.

Field Goals May Be Important In Lam-Colt Clash

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—If their last two meetings mean anything, the field goal will be an important item of business in Sunday's National Football League encounter between the Baltimore Colts and the Los Angeles Rams.

With leadership of the NFL, Western Division again at stake, the winner will depend on Les Richter, who holds the league's record—a 56-yard field goal.

Richter and Rechichar booted the apiece as the two clubs fought a 17-17 standoff in Baltimore Nov. 21. Last Sunday Richter's two field goals accounted for a 21-17 victory over Philadelphia, with the winning kick coming in the final 7 seconds.

Rechichar, incidentally, booted two field goals here last year, to upset the Rams, 22-21. It was one of the greatest displays of set in Coliseum football history, and the fans are expecting their eyes again.

Study Shows Reds Holding Europe Line, Pushing East

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Preliminary U. S. study pictures Communist strategy for Round Two of the cold war as this: Hold the line in Europe and push steadily south in the Middle and Far East.

Such relentless downward pressure from the Russo-Red Chinese empire, this study indicates, is not the kind that can be checked solely by a "policy of containment" such as the Truman administration devised to hem in Soviet military power.

The new Communist plan is viewed as involving much more than that—economic aid and trade concessions, for instance—and as being too complex and too subtly applied for a single solution. Further U. S. Countermeasures are expected to be developed as the study progresses.

Still there, of course, are the Russian bear's muscle and growl—Soviet military might and the threat to use it. This was nowhere better demonstrated than in the last week's news that Russia has exploded its biggest H-bomb type of nuclear blast to date.

But the new Soviet strategy, as seen by American experts viewing the wreckage of this year's Geneva conferences, mixes up the plays like a talented quarterback operating behind a powerful line:

The Kremlin's combined leadership—calling signals for Red China and the Eastern Europe satellites as well as for the Soviet Union—will strengthen local Communist parties, tempt trade-hungry countries with deals they want and need, run guns to troubled areas, give "big brother" encouragement

ARMY, USAF FIGHT (REALLY) OVER WHO'S TO FLY

INFANTRY ASSAULT troops leap out of a helicopter (upper) behind "enemy" lines during "Exercise Segebruch" of 140,000 Army and USAF men at Camp Polk, La. But this was after Air Force Gen. O. P. Weyland issued an order prohibiting Army from flying into "enemy territory." An argument developed, with several generals in both services pitching with their two stars' worth. The secretaries of both services ironed out the situation and the order was rescinded. Army Secretary Wilber Brucker is shown (lower) being greeted by General Weyland (right) on his arrival. (International)

to uneasy neutrals, promise no-strings-attached help to underdeveloped countries, and on and on. All the time, the Soviet leaders are expected to taunt the West particularly the United States, as the enemy of newly free peoples and as supporters of colonialism. Concrete examples of this strategy in action include:

1. At Geneva, the Russians refused to negotiate with the West on German unity. After Geneva, the Russians declared German unity was something the Germans themselves could settle. This looked to the West like a sit-tight operation in the expectation that Russia, which has diplomatic relations with both halves of Germany, could settle the issue alone.
2. In the Middle East, the Communists have stirred up a hornets' nest by selling arms to Egypt. They also have vaulted the pro-West security line to offer economic help to Egypt and other Arab countries. In Afghanistan, the Soviets already have 500 technicians at work, and party boss Nikita Khrushchev and Premier Nikolai Bulganin currently are touring India, Afghanistan and Burma.

3. In the Far East, the pressure takes the form of new Communist threats of warfare. Red Chinese Deputy Premier Chen Yi told an interviewer last week about extensive military preparations along the China coast for possible assault on Formosa if talks with U. S. representatives at Geneva break down.

The Committee on International Policy of the National Planning Assn., reviewing the situation in a report yesterday, said the cold war is in its "most perilous phase." It called for a courageous and imaginative program.

The association describes itself as a non-profit nonpolitical organization devoted to planning by Americans in agriculture, business, labor and the professions.

Cockney Has Colorful Way Of Speaking

LONDON (AP)—"Let's get the wind out of our mince pies and go across the frog and toad to the old rub-adub for a needle and pin," the man said. "We've got the bird line you know."

In the Queen's English, the Cockney meant:

"Let's get the wind out of our eyes and go across the road to the bar for a gin. We have the time you know."

This is rhyming slang—colorful and varied—and it takes a real Cockney to speak it.

A Cockney is a person born within sound of the bells on old St. Mary-le-Bow Church, near the very heart of this capital. Rugged individualists and generally good humored, the Cockneys started with the English language as far back as the first part of the 19th century.

The Cockney characterized himself in the first part of the 19th century by substituting V for W and vice versa: "Are you willing to vote?"

Later in the century he changed the sound to F, as in Arfur for Arthur.

Their greatest assault on the English language concerns vowel sounds they say dry for daily, abahf for about, moeh for much and the adding or dropping of H's at the beginning of words.

Then came rhyming slang—or substituting one, two or three words that vaguely rhyme with the real word and stringing them all together as a sentence.

There are pubs where a large portion of the drinks are asked for in rhyming slang—and pity the barmaid who doesn't understand.

Beer is a pig's ear. Whiskey is a bright and frisky. Rum a deaf and dumb.

Most of the rhyming slang is done with nouns and its nearly always spoken and not written. And sometimes eyes become just mince rather than mince pies. Stand-to-attention, the full rhyme for pension, becomes stand-to. Greenages, the rhyme for wages, may become just greens.

Roswell Attorney Added To Staff Of Robinson

SANTA FE, (AP)—Atty. Gen. Richard H. Robinson yesterday announced appointment of Jack L. Love of Roswell as special assistant attorney general assigned to the state engineer's office.

Love will be stationed at Roswell, where he will work with Special Asst. Atty. Gen. Charles D. Harris, the state engineer's present counsel on water matters.

An increase in the amount of water litigation made necessary the appointment of additional help Robinson said.

He noted that an adjudication suit in the Roswell artesian basin is planned which will require district court determination of all water rights in the Roswell artesian area. In effect, this means the court will have to quiet title to each water right and the program is expected to take years before producing the final settlement.

Love has been an assistant district attorney at Roswell. He was born at Lovington, where he practiced law for a time after his graduation from the University of New Mexico. He spent two years in the Navy. He is married and the father of three children.

"We feel very fortunate in obtaining the services of Mr. Love to represent the state in the important field of water law," Robinson said.

STATE OBJECTOR SENTENCED
 BALTIMORE (AP)—John Oursler, 24, of Silver City, N. M., was one of three members of the Jehovah's Witnesses sentenced to federal prison terms Monday for work assignments at the hospitals to which they had been assigned as conscientious objectors.

BALTIMORE (AP)—The world agreement between the Baltimore Orioles of the American League and the Aberdeen S. D. Pirates of the Class C Northern League has been renewed for the Orioles announced today.
