Artesia Horse Is Champion At Livestock Show

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Prize Texas and New Mexico stock was to go on the block today as the climax of El Paso's annual Southwestern Livestock Show and Sale.

Champion quarter horse mare was Bonnie Buddy, owned by Mrs. Pat Dunning, Carrizozo, N. M.

Patsy and Jean Espy, Fort Davis, Tex., sisters, swept Rambouillet junior breeding sheep. Their animals won all classes of that group, and two of their sheep took championships as top ram and ewe.

Miles Pierce, Alpine, Tex., took all classes but one of the Rambouillet in the open breeding division. As a result, one of his sheep was both champion and reserve champion ram.

Egypt Agrees To West's Loan For Nile Dam

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—The West and the Soviet Union is going to help Egypt build its vast high dam on the Upper Nile River, the biggest construction project in Egyptian history.

Egypt agreed yesterday to accept a 200-million-dollar loan from the World Bank to help finance the huge construction three miles wide and 300 feet high. With that, the way was eased for the United States and Britain to supply another 200 million dollars in direct grants for the project, expected to cost $1,300,000,000.

Egypt will put up the rest.

N.M. Government Wages Now Total Three Times Agricultural Income

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—A study by the University of New Mexico shows government wages now total three times as much as agricultural income in New Mexico.

Summarizing the study, Vicente Ximenes of the Bureau of Business Research said:

"A profound change has taken place in our economy. The prosperity of the people of New Mexico used to depend largely on weather conditions and the price of cattle, sheep and wool. A drought or a fall in farm prices was a sure sign of bad times. But New Mexico no longer depends so largely on agriculture. Businessmen and public officials are now more likely to read about the climate in Washington than about the weather."

Ralph Edgel, bureau director, said researchers took into account wages, professional fees, net income from business, dividends, rents, welfare payments and pensions in the study and came out with a 1954 income of 1,130,902,000.

State Policeman Black Still Wants Law On Hitchhiking

By JOHN B. CURTIS
AP State Capital Correspondent
SANTA FE (AP)—State Police Capt. Joe Black, recently quoted by the Associated Press as again saying that New Mexico badly needs a hitchhike law, is sticking by his guns.

Black ignored a reference in a 1953 law when he made his original statement. This resulted in the State Police getting a little "static," the most recent coming in a syndicated cartoon which jibed at the tourist director for also having advocated a hitchhike law.

Black said the seldom-used or never-used section of the 1953 law, which mentions the soliciting of rides, was no secret to him and other State Police at the time he made his first statement.

"And it's not worth the paper it's written on, as a means of stopping hitchhiking," he said. Black first was quoted on Feb. 21, 1954, as saying that a good strong hitchhike law might serve to reduce hitchhike slayings. His statement was revived recently when a new wave of hitchhike slayings again put the spotlight of publicity on the problem.

As a result of Black's statement, publicity was given to this section of the 1953 uniform traffic code: "No person shall stand in a roadway for the purpose of soliciting a ride, employment, or business from the occupant of any vehicle."

The same law defines "roadway" as "that portion of a highway improved, designed or ordinarily used for vehicular travel, exclusive of the shoulder. In the event a highway includes two or more separate roadways the term 'roadway' as used herein shall refer to any such roadway separately but not to all such roadways collectively."

This is so weak and so patently impossible of enforcement that no effort is made to enforce it, said Black, one of the oldest veterans in the State Police organization.

"This law bans people from standing right smack in the traffic lanes and hitching rides. It's all right if they stand off to the shoulder and do it. With our new divided highways, they can stand in the dividing area somewhere. Or they can hitchhike at any filling station, any curio store, or any snake pit establishment. They only have to be sure they don't stand out in the middle of the traffic lanes.

"If an officer saw a driver stop and pick up some hitchhiker who had been standing right out in the roadway, and then tried to make something out of it, he would look pretty silly if the driver told him the hitchhiker had not solicited the ride. There would be nothing the officer could do about it.

"We want a hitchhike law, one with some teeth. We should be able to charge a motorist who picks up the hiker as well as file like Funk, deputy sheriff, was enroute to Tucumcari today to pick up Henry Harrington, 19-year-old Roswell airman, held there suspected of the abduction of an 13-year-old Artesia girl.

Deputy Sheriff To Bring Airman Here On Charge

The airman was arrested at Tucumcari Wednesday night after the girl's father received a phone call from the 13-year-old from Tucumcari. Road blocks were set up at all roads leaving Tucumcari and Harrington was arrested.

A pick-up order had gone out on Harrington the previous day after the girl's mother reported to police that she had been missing since Monday and was believed to have run away with the airman.

Justice of the Peace John Elliott, said here today that Harrington will probably be arraigned here tomorrow. Harrington was arrested on a warrant issued by Elliott charging abduction.

Case Does Not Accuse Man In Campaign Gift

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Case (R-S.D.) told a Senate investigating committee today a $2,500 campaign fund offer from John M. Neff, whom he regarded as a stranger "sort of took my breath away" but that he does not accuse Neff of trying to bribe him.

Case said the investigation ordered by the Senate after he publicly denounced the offer, is "not an investigation of a bribe, because no such allegation has been made."

The question, he said, as he understands it, is whether the proffered campaign contribution involved an effort "to influence my decision" in the voting on the natural gas bill.

"There was nothing proposed to me in this matter," Case said. "There was nothing promised."

Air Fleet Helps Snowbound Ranchers; Skies Are Clear

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A small fleet of light planes took off in clearing skies this morning to help snow-stranded ranchers in the mountains of south-central New Mexico.

They were loaded with fuel, food and livestock feed rigged to parachutes, ready for pilots to kick them out to float down to the marooned ranchers.

The Civil Air Patrol already had notified residents of the area to stamp out large letters on snow fields to let pilots know what they needed.

The letter "D" was to indicate whether a doctor was needed. The letter "X" denoted the need of fuel, and "F" meant food was needed.

Three planes left soon after sunrise from Ruidoso, where CAP headquarters were at a flying service operated by Ralph Brown. There were two stand-by planes at Socorro and three at Albuquerque.

In addition, at Albuquerque, the CAP had three ground parties organized, ready to plow into the snow-bound area if needed.

Brown, who also is head of the CAP in Ruidoso, said 200 bales of hay and boxed food had been affixed to parachutes, ready to drop. More than 25 inches of snow had fallen in the mountain area in eight days.

Meanwhile, the storm that moved across the state, spilling more deep snow in southern New Mexico Wednesday night and Thursday, had moved on eastward to West Texas. Skies were clear over almost all New Mexico except the Silver City area.

Roads were clear over most of the state, including main routes in mountain areas, but chains were necessary over slick mountain highways.

High pressure and dryer air settled over all of New Mexico and very few clouds and no precipitation is expected through Saturday.

The snow in the southeast portion of the state ended last evening with Hobbs the last reporting station to observe snowfall.

The cold air also departed with the snow and temperatures today and in spots tomorrow will show a noticeable warming.

Glenwood was the warmest place in the state yesterday with a maximum of 46 while Roswell with a high of 28 was the coldest spot.

Siberian Blast Hits And Kills 210 In 11 Days

LONDON (AP)—Giant U.S. Air Force Flying Boxcars joined in an emergency airlift today carrying food and fuel to villages snow-bound in Europe's worst winter of the century.

The weather death toll soared to 210 in 11 days as a new Siberian cold wave turned a 2,500-mile front from the far north to Turkey and Italy into a deep freeze.

Icy easterly winds whipped up big seas in the English Channel. The seven-man crew of the 216-ton British coaster Conlea abandoned ship off the Channel Islands. One man died of exposure and a freighter picked up the rest.

Royal Air Force rescue planes flew out to the Bay of Biscay to stand guard over the 160-ton motor yacht Episode. Rescue vessel ploughed through rough seas to take off the crew of five.

Three U.S. Air Force transports roared over the frozen wastes of southern Greece, dropping supplies to desperate villagers.

The usually sunny south of France shivered in its worst freeze since 1857. Thunder and lightning rattled over the playground resorts of Nice and Cannes, then came a blizzard.

Germany reported record low temperatures. Weissenburg, near Nuernberg, hit 29 below zero, lowest there since 1855.

Southern Italy expected warmer weather, but blizzards still raged over Milan in the industrial North.

Thick clouds helped keep Britain slightly warmer than expected. London's temperature stood steady a 26 degrees. The dawn brought snow.

This was the death tally: France 51, Britain 40, Italy 25, Germany 18, Greece 14, Turkey 12, Denmark 11, Holland 10, Austria 6, Switzerland 4, Sweden 4, Yugoslavia 2, Spain 2 and Belgium 1.

Bolivian Says U.S. Diplomats Party Too Much

Capt. Jose Baldevieso, Bolivian consul to Topeka, Kans., speaking before a meeting of the Knife and Fork Club here last night, registered a low opinion of the U.S. State Department Diplomatic Corps, saying that State Department embassies and consulates in foreign countries engage in too many cocktail parties and very little else.

"Captain Joe," as he likes to be called, warned Americans that they cannot buy the friendship and loyalty of the Latin American peoples but will have to earn it.

He said that very few American diplomats understand the needs of Latin American countries, which are for our religion and our democracy, not our money.

Baldevieso said that the big struggle in Latin American countries today is between the relatively ignorant and uneducated military class and the educated civilian class.

The next meeting of the Knife and Fork Club is set for Monday, March 26.

Indian Man Is Hit By Truck, Dies Instantly

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
New Mexico's rapidly rising traffic death toll has climbed to 34-three ahead of the pace at this time last year—with the death of a 71-year-old Indian man.

State Police say Frank Smith, of Tohoku, N. M., was killed instantly last night when struck by a car driven by A. L. Hanson of Richfield, Utah, while Smith was walking beside U. S. 66 about 12 miles north of Gallup.

The accident occurred late yesterday afternoon.

North Eddy County TB Association Undergoes Reorganization; Johnson Elected President

The North Eddy County Tuberculosis Association underwent re-organization here last night and Charlie Johnson was elected president of the association, Mrs. Tess Potter, area director of the Tri-County Tuberculosis Association, said today.

Seven new members were elected to the board of the association in an expansion move to broaden the sponsorship of the organization.

The organization up to now has been directed by the Graduate Nurses Association of Artesia. The nurses will continue on the board but the new members were added to take a more representative group and give it a broader organizational basis, Mrs. Potter said.

The Association met at the home of Mrs. Oscar Pearson of 801 S. Roselawn and elected the following new members to the board: Charlie Johnson, George White, Harold Kersey, Dooley Juarez, Irving Cox, of Hope; Garell Westall, Loco Hills; and Dr. Henry Wall.

Johnson was elected president; Westall, vice-president; Mrs. John Heaton, a nurse from the old board, secretary; Mrs. Grant P. Ivers, from the old board, treasurer; and Dr. Wall, medical advisor.

A constitution and by-laws committee was appointed under the chairmanship of White, and includes Mrs. Ray Bartlett and Mrs. Pearson.

It was announced at the meeting that the State Tuberculosis Association will hold its area seal sale conference at Artesia March 12.

Robert J. Utzinger, president of the State Association, attended the meeting last night and spoke on the relationship of local, state and national associations.

Utzinger complimented the Tri-County area, which includes Chavez, Lea and Eddy Counties, on its seal sale showing. He said that the state in 1955 topped its seal sales for the previous year by $1,100, more than half of which came from the Tri-County area.

Utzinger told the North Eddy County Association at last night's meeting that the board of the State Association is much interested in the Tri-County project, the first of its kind in the state, and plans to hold its annual state meeting at Carlsbad April 19-21.

City Plumbing Inspector Clem Will Resign

Plumbing Inspector Burr Clem of Artesia plans to resign.

Clem announced today that he will inform Mayor William Yeager that his resignation will be effective as of Feb. 15. However, Mayor Yeager said today he had not yet received the resignation.

Clem was the subject of a letter received by the council Wednesday night in which Joseph Howell of the Artesia Heating and Plumbing Co. claimed that he, Clem, had interests in a plumbing business and therefore should not be allowed to serve. In fact, Howell asked for the plumbing inspector's removal.

Clem, however, said today that his resignation has been pending for some time, since September, in fact, when I became a member of the Clem and Clem Plumbing Co.

He has been the city inspector for two and a half years. He said he has already notified city council members that he plans to resign and that the pressure of business makes it necessary for him to quit his city post. He indicated that his resignation came over "the protests of three other city plumbers."

Washington Is Big Question Mark About Campaign If Ike Can't Run

By BELMAN MORIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington is one big question mark today over two major aspects of the problem created for the Republicans by the President's heart attack.

"If not Eisenhower—who?" "If Eisenhower—who else?"

Next week, under the present schedule, the President's doctors will put him through a comprehensive physical examination. Then, he may "know all the hazards," as Dr. Paul White, Boston cardiologist, put it, of running for a second term. After this check-up, Eisenhower has indicated that his decision will not be long in coming.

"If his answer is 'No,' to whom will the Republicans turn for their candidate?"

But even if he says, "Yes," some serious problems remain. Who will he have for a running mate in the unusual circumstances created by his illness? How much campaigning can he do? How much traveling and speaking? What effect would a restricted campaign have on the hundreds of other GOP candidates who will want his help?

Party leaders say there have been no open discussions among them of a substitute for Eisenhower. They assume he himself will incline toward "someone he thinks would carry on his program," and that he will publicly and strongly endorse this man.

Thus, because of his remarks about Vice President Nixon, some observers here believe Nixon has the inside track at the moment.

Eisenhower recently expressed his "admiration, respect and deep admiration for Mr. Nixon. Never has there been a vice president so well versed in the activities of government."

Nevertheless, some of the party chiefs are looking in other directions.

Several of them told this reporter they thought Chief Justice Earl Warren would make the strongest candidate. One said, in tones mingling regret and dismay, "I'm sorry Eisenhower said what he did about Earl Warren. That was a bad mistake. He shouldn't have ruled him out."

In a news conference, answering a question about Warren as a possible presidential candidate, the President said: "We shouldn't get too great a confusion between politics and the Supreme Court. On every official there lies a responsibility to do his part in keeping these separations."

He then went on to recall his own course of action when he left the Army to run for president.

Some people have interpreted his remarks not as "ruling out" Warren but as suggesting that the chief justice could follow the same course.

Warren has said in the strongest terms that he would not be a candidate. One of his colleagues in the court said, "I can't conceive of him changing his mind. He's a dedicated man in this job."

Along with Nixon and Warren, you hear these names and these comments in the capital now—Sen. William Knowland of California. Admirers have put him in one section of the New Hampshire primary next month, and in the Illinois and Alaska primaries. "Bill wants to test his strength, and he may have a lot."

Gov. Christian Herter, of Massachusetts. "He would run very strongly in the industrial East where it's getting tougher all the time for the Republicans."

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey. "A very able man, and a businessman who would appeal to businessmen. But there is no way to figure how he would do as a campaigner."

Former Governor of New York Thomas E. Dewey. "It may sound incredible, but don't be surprised if—"

Twice, Dewey was the GOP presidential candidate. In 1954, he left public office to practice law. He is now the senior partner in a large New York city firm. Party leaders consult him frequently.

Dewey doesn't give interviews any more. Nor would he tell White House correspondents what he discussed with the President here last week.

Is Dewey available?

Friends say he told them, "The ticket will be Eisenhower and Nixon again. Nixon's done a grand job, and they won't dump him."

Somebody asked him what he would do if Eisenhower should ask him, personally, to be his running mate. Dewey is quoted as having replied, "That would be the toughest decision I've ever had to make."

The 4-H club leaders training course on nutrition scheduled to meet Saturday in Carlsbad has been cancelled.

Mother-To-Be Can Make Cozy Baby Buntings

AP Newsfeatures

One of the most important items in any layette is an old-fashioned baby bunting, designed to keep the baby warm and snug who he goes out for an airing.

Local sewing center experts suggest corduroy and flannel in coordinated colors for a spring bunting. A happy combination, which can be worn by either a girl or boy baby, is yellow wash-cord corduroy with a lining of yellow flannel printed in frisky spring lambs. The design, made from a standard pattern, was adapted from a skier's outfit and has a separate hood which can be tucked down inside the bunting for extra neck protection.

Only 1 3/4 yards of 35-inch fabric are required for bunting and hood, with 1 1/8 yards of flannel for the lining. The bunting opens with a fly front covering the zipper, giving a trim tailored effect. The zipper is easily inserted by using the zipper foot attachment of your sewing machine.

Be sure that both corduroy and flannel are sanforized, so that the whole outfit can be tossed right into the washing machine.

A good idea is to make two buntings at once, so the baby always will have one to wear while the other is in the wash. Use the assembly-line method, cutting out both buntings at once, doing all pinning and basting at the same time, and inserting both zippers at the same session. You'll find it's a great time-saver.

Designer Altars Paris Fashions For America With Jet-Age Speed

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Jet planes aren't the only things that travel fast these days.

Take women's fashions, for instance.

I was talking to a young man named Andy Arkin today. He got in yesterday by plane from Paris, where he had attended the spring fashion showings of Dior, Givenchy, Balenciaga and the rest of the big boys who continue to tell women all over the world what to wear.

This morning he had a fashion show at which he showed more than a dozen adaptations of the spring styles he bought in Paris.

"How'd you do it?" I asked him. "Simple," said he. "We did it by telephone. Soon as a showing was over I got on the phone to the New York office and told them what I'd bought and we designed the American version over the phone. Had a pretty big phone bill, but it all pays off."

American buyers pay about $1,300 each for the Paris originals they buy at the couture openings. And within a week they have their adaptations ready for orders by stores all over the country and a few weeks after that American women are buying them for as little as $50.

"Of course," says Arkin, "we don't copy these Paris styles exactly, because if we did we couldn't sell 'em over here. That's because American women have different ideas about clothes—and different shapes, too."

"They want the latest thing from Paris, but they want it fixed up a little here and there so that they don't look like a cartoon when they wear it. That's what we do for them."

This year, says Arkin, all the American buyers are worried about whether women over here will go for the loose line so prominent in Paris showings.

"Frankly, I wasn't sure about it at first," said Arkin. "Up to now we've been faking this sack silhouette, sort of. We've been making these bell-shaped dresses, but we've been shaping them so that they actually fitted the figure. This time I realized that the fittest thing—was beginning to look old-fashioned. So this spring we're making dresses loose. Hardly any belts at all, or if at all, then it's just a little half or quarter belt."

THE ENTERTAINMENT NATURAL of the season will be rolled out at the Ocotillo Theatre Saturday, Sunday and Monday when fabulous Las Vegas comes to hold an glittering life in the Paramount musical extravaganza, "The Girl Rush." There is no gamble in buying a ticket to this lavish delight. You just can't lose when you get a combination of Rosalind Russell, Fernando Lamas, Eddie Albert and Gloria De Haven, plus a lush VistaVision Technicolor production of eight outstanding songs, the brightest dance numbers in years, a fast-paced story and scores of gorgeous girls.

Brigham Young Rumps Utah State, 62, In Skyline Avenger Play

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—Brigham Young avenged its only seven Skyline Conference basketball games with a 92-62 victory over Utah State last night in a two-team tie game. The Cougars now hold a full 10-0 record in the conference. The showdown battle at Salt Lake City tomorrow night. The Cougars' intrastate rivals, Utah State, will play at Salt Lake City tomorrow night. The Cougars took charge from the start and had a home town crowd of 11,614 howling over their lead. The throng was a record for the BYU fieldhouse and probably was the largest ever to see a cage game in Utah. Utah State, with a chance to move into a first place tie, trailed 18-9 after the first six minutes. The Farmers now are 5-3. Flashy Terry Tebbs, the BYU darling, bested Utah State's Pat Dunn in a personal scoring duel, 24 points to 20. It was the only league game last night. The loop is idle tonight. Colorado A&M (4-3) and Wyoming (3-4) meet at Laramie tomorrow night. New Mexico (4-4) is at Denver (2-5) at the same time. The Denver-New Mexico game could be billed as a battle of sophomores. There will be four sophomore starters in the lineups of each. Coach Bill Stockton of New Mexico for the first time in five weeks can start his sophomore center, Walt Schuman, who has been nursing a leg injury. Toby Roybal, the Lobos' high scoring senior, will go at guard along with sophomore forward Will Kincaid, 6-1. Sophomores at forward will be E. John Teel, 6-6, and Floyd Siegal, 6-4.

Kansas, Rice Make Much On Saturday Play

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—Southwest Conference basketball teams take to the hardwood Saturday night but Arkansas and Rice have the most at stake. The Razorbacks will be risking No. 2 spot in the conference when they meet the Rice Owls in the stellar loop game of the night at Houston. The Owls now have a 6-1 conference record but a loss to Rice, now 5-2 mark, would tie the two teams for the second spot. The Owls' two conference losses have been to the Hogs and the Methodist Mustangs. The Mustangs lost to the Mustangs, led by the loop with a 7-0 record. The Mustangs are idle this week. The other four teams seeing Saturday night, the Texas Longhorns will be the only one who will be fighting to get out of the cellar. The Cougars have managed to break even so far with a record. The Cougars' journey to Waco for a tilt with the Baylor Bears while Texas is out to Texas Christian at Austin.

O'Neal Leads SW Conference Point Making

FORT WORTH (AP)—Amid the wreckage of Texas Christian's basketball season stands quite a player—Dick O'Neal. He's not scoring like he did last year, being a victim of the zone defense that swept the Southwest Conference with the advent of the 12-foot lane. But he still leads the league in point-making since other big centers have run into the same trouble. If he can do what he's doing on a losing team, think what the Horned Frog junior would be doing with more adept help. To date O'Neal has racked in 458 points in 19 games for an average of 24.1. He leads in season scoring and also tops in conference scoring with 174 points in 7 games—an average of 24.8. TCU has won only three games all season, just one of those being in conference play. It hasn't been O'Neal's fault, however. It was just too much for one fellow to combat. Surprisingly, says his coach, Buster Brannon, O'Neal has kept an even temperament. He hasn't become angry or disgusted and never complained at his lot. He has merely worked harder, particularly at the free throw lane. He found out early that that's where he would have to get his points. It has paid off, too. He is hitting on 75 per cent, almost as good as last year when he set a conference record for free throws with 144.

Mark Returns Signed Contract To Fort Worth

FORT WORTH (AP)—Only one man, Danny Ozark, first baseman, among the 13 players who returned signed contracts to Fort Worth club of the Texas Rangers. There are a couple of 300 hitters in the group—infielders Patrick (349 at Bakersfield) and Al Sygel (.322 at Newport). Others in the fold are catcher Ken Worley, outfielders James Thomas, Glen Plassen and Don Glavin, infielder Allen Norris and others James Sprankle, Joe Bay-Joe Mathis, Edward Ritchie Lawrence Sherry.

HS Basketball Games Cancelled On Race Issue

LIBERTY, Okla. (AP)—Girls on the Liberty High School basketball team have decided to cancel all games after being ordered by the School Board not to take part in a district tourney where Negro teams are entered. Mrs. N. S. Hildebrand, the coach, said the board also ruled the Liberty boys squad out of the meet for the same reason. The school board ruled after protests from parents who opposed having their children play with Negroes. Experts believe there are over 1½ million mentally retarded people in the United States.

McDermott Shouts When Told NY Yankees Had Bought Him

NEW YORK (AP)—There's another good reason besides the obvious one why Mickey McDermott shouted "whoopie" when he was told the New York Yankees had acquired him from Washington. The lean left-handed pitcher has had little success against the Bombers, winning only four games and dropping 16. Last season he did not beat them. Against the rest of the American League, Mickey's lifetime mark is 61-43.

Could be the Chicago Cubs are banking on a brother double play combination in the next few years.

Ben Banks, a second baseman, signed a Cub contract yesterday and was assigned to the Layfayette, La., team in the Evangeline League. Brother Ernie, of course, is the solid man in the Cubs' infield at shortstop. The Boston Red Sox are already touting three players as top candidates for American League rookie-of-the-year honors in 1956. The trio is Frank Malzone, a third baseman; Marty Keough, an outfielder; and Don Buddin, a shortstop-second baseman. Buddin, an all-state high school football player in South Carolina, is getting a tryout at second base. "I know one thing about him," said Boston Manager Pinky Higgins, "he won't mind it much when they take him out while he's pivoting on a double play."

Washington U Athletic Head Offers To Quit

SEATTLE (AP)—The man who fired four University of Washington coaches in 10 years gave himself the ax last night in a bid for harmony at the troubled institution. Stepping out as athletic director was Harvey Cassill, center of an ever-growing storm of protest since he gave the boot Jan. 27 to Cowboy Johnny Cherberg, the football coach. Cassill's departure, accompanied by lengthy expressions of regret from top university officials, followed by less than a day a closed session of the university's Board of Regents. The regents would say nothing about their night session beyond a statement they had been "brought up to date." Conferring with them were Dr. Henry Schmitz, president of the university; H. P. Everest, vice president; and Nelson Wahlstrom, comptroller. Cassill in turn conferred with Everest yesterday, leaving the late afternoon meeting after proffering his resignation. "In no other way that I can see," Cassill wrote, "can our program be straightened out, policy re-established and the university go ahead."

CHICAGO (AP)—Manager Marty Marion of the Chicago White Sox won't have to come out of retirement to play shortstop after all. All three of the Sox shortstop candidates yesterday returned their signed 1956 contracts in the same mail delivery at Comiskey Park. They are Luis Aparicio, 21, the phenomenon from Venezuela; Jim Brideweser, 28, former New York Yankee and Baltimore Oriole and Carl Peterson, 30, originally a Boston Red Sox farmhand with long experience in the minors. BOSTON (AP)—The signing of utility infielder Ted Lepico for the 1956 season was announced today by the Boston Red Sox. Milt Bolling, a veteran, and Don Buddin, a promising 21-year-old rookie, returned their signed contracts yesterday. They will battle it out with Billy Klaus for the shortstop berth.

Tex. Longhorns Practice For Comeback Try

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Longhorns baseball team, beaten out of the Southwest Conference title last year for the first time in 12 seasons, starts practice Wednesday anxious to make amends. Coach Bibb Falk will get his first look at 35 candidates, but on paper the Longhorns stack up already as a big threat to wrestle the title away from Texas A&M. A big "if" in the Texas plans is the need for a second front-line pitcher to go with sophomore star Harry Taylor. Also, there are only six of 16 lettermen returning. Sophomores and transfers will carry the burden with the brightest hope for mound success in letterman Oren Buckellew, a strong-armed right-hander.

Joe Holup, Little Tom DeLuca Lead College Basketball Scoring; Floyd Takes Back Seat

By The Associated Press
Furman's Darrell Floyd, who seldom takes a back seat in scoring, was just another guy with a jump shot in college basketball last night as George Washington's Joe Holup and NYU's little Tom DeLuca stole all the thunder. Floyd, defending national scoring champ and one-two with Ohio State's Robin Freeman this season, packed away 32 points, but got only half from the field. DeLuca's 39 led usually inept NYU to a 100-85 upset. Holup, a good steady man for the Colonials, broke out for 47 points, a team record, as GW shellacked Richmond 103-84 and took over first place in the Southern Conference.

Wannie Sanchez of Baton Rouge, La., a former softball pitcher who took up golf seriously two years ago, defeated Ruth Jensen of Seattle, Wash., 3 and 2, after a morning-round victory over Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., 3 and 2. Miss Gammon, who calls St. Paul Minn., home, plays Miss Sanchez in one semifinal match while Mrs. Les Johnstone of Mason City, Iowa plays Jane Nelson of Indianapolis, runner-up in last year's National Women's Amateur.

on the hiker himself. The motorists are the ones who mostly get hurt and they're the ones we're trying to protect. If New Mexico could come up with a strict no hitchhiking law it would not take long for the word to get around and it would cool off some of these drivers from picking up riders whenever they feel like it.

Black says he would like to see New Mexico with a hitchhike law similar to one passed by Colorado, subsequent to the vicious hitchhike slaying of Denver salesman Jess Larson by Edward Jones in 1947. Jones was once sentenced to die but now is serving life in prison here for the crime.

The Colorado interest in that case was heightened because Larson picked Jones up out of Walsenburg, Black said. He added that the law has resulted in a noticeable drop in hitchhiking in Colorado, for one reason because drivers know they are apt to get picked up at checking stations and to be held liable for a violation of the law.

"Colorado has had no hitchhike slaying cases that I know of since they passed that law," Black said. By coincidence, Colorado's tougher law on hitchhiking was cited by a convicted murderer even as Black spoke. Leslie (Mad Dog) Irvin, slayer of six persons, arrested in San Francisco, told police today: "I got a ride into Colorado, but the fellow told me, after we had crossed the state line, that it was against the law to hitchhike in Colorado. So, when we stopped, I got out and thumbed a ride back into Nebraska."

A. J. Albert, Santa Fe attorney who was instrumental in drafting the grandfather of the 1953 uniform traffic code, recalls how the provision banning soliciting of rides came to be born.

The law first was passed in 1951 but was vetoed because of its truck-weight provisions. It was drawn late in 1950, not long after the outbreak of the Korean War.

There were many soldier-hitchhikers going back and forth across the country at the time, Albert recalled, and there was a general unwillingness to hurt them by passing a hitchhike law. Many communities had designated stations or areas where such persons could wait for rides, he said. The result was the framing of the language, eventually incorporated in the law passed in 1953, banning the soliciting of rides from the roadway.

"The main purpose of that was to keep them off the highway, and thus eliminate the menace they presented to traffic and to their own lives," Albert said.

Indiana To Get Mad Dog Irvin From 'Frisco'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Indiana officers were coming to San Francisco today to return Leslie (Mad Dog) Irvin, velvet-voiced slayer of six who was captured quietly in a pawn shop on Market Street yesterday.

Irvin, 31-year-old Evansville pipe insulator sought throughout the nation, was picked up when he tried to unload two diamond rings he admittedly took from a home at Redondo Beach, near Los Angeles. "I wasn't too surprised," he said, in an interview. "I've been expecting to get picked up for quite a while."

His arrest was coincidental. Inspectors John O'Keefe and Leo Ferragiaro dropped in to the Market at Third Street pawnshop routinely.

Atom Expert Stocks His Car With Articles Of Survival

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Curbstone comments of a Pavement Plato: Have you made a do-it-yourself personal survival kit to protect you against the hydrogen bomb? Probably not.

People who live on the edge of a night in time cease to fear the falling dark. So it is with us. We have dwelt for so many years now under the pall of potential atomic death that we have become accustomed to its shadow.

It had to be that way. No human being can remain frightened forever; he cannot endure a permanent panic.

So it is we have come to look for the silver lining in the mortal mushroom that first towered in terror over Hiroshima. Today we have fewer nightmares over what atomic power will do mankind. We prefer to dream what it can do for mankind.

Therefore it comes as a rude shock when an atomic expert suggests it would be a good idea for every American to stock his automobile with a week's supply of groceries and water against the possibility of atomic attack.

The expert, Dr. Stafford L. Warren, director of atomic energy projects at the University of California at Los Angeles, revealed he has done that for the last two years.

"In addition to canned goods," he said during an interview in Detroit, "I have bottles of a can opener, a hatchet, pliers, a tow rope and a 6-by-8 sheet of canvas in the trunk."

Obviously, Dr. Warren is being prepared, and every one of course, has a right to his safety measures.

But one can only hope that impressionable populace will refrain from leaping to follow his example. Canned groceries are enough already, and if 166 million Americans tried to stockpile week's supply all at once, it might cost more than caring.

There would be a terrible shortage of can openers, too, for houses usually have only one, and it rarely works.

But the biggest objection to anyone building a survival kit, turning his automobile into a mobile bomb shelter is that a step back toward fear, a way from hope.

Only a few days ago an expert told a congressional committee that a single hydrogen bomb could destroy a metropolitan area and contaminate 100,000 square miles with radioactive fallout.

In the face of such utter devastation of what real value are mobile stockpiles with groceries? Of what avail are mountain huts or concrete caverns in a back yard?

The true peril of the atomic destructive potential of atomic attack rises above the problem of individual safety measures. It is a collective problem, the fate of civilized mankind, not the fate of the civilized individual.

The all-important stake. The answer must be a world answer, if we have learned anything in generation, we have learned there can be no final individual security in an insecure world.

The best survival kit in a troubled atomic age can be as easy as anyone in a pocket, it doesn't require an opener, and it will sustain longer than a basement full of groceries.

As a matter of fact, it fits in the pocket, and has 2,000 years. It is the "sermon on the mount."

Let's make St. Valentine's Day unanimous. Let's say "I love you" to at least one other person. It is a bright and good day in the Christian calendar. Every one of us is the better man because he dares to love. The heart and the cross belong together. You cannot truly love without honoring the principle of sacrifice. Saint Valentine was a Christian martyr, beheaded by Claudius, emperor of Rome about the year 50 A.D. He loved enough to surrender his life in the service of God. The heart and the cross tell us that God is love, that he loved enough to give all for us. Will St. Valentine succeed in winning you and me to a genuine love for God that will not count the cost? The best text for St. Valentine's Day is John 3:16.

Let's make St. Valentine's Day unanimous. Let's say "I love you" to at least one other person. It is a bright and good day in the Christian calendar. Every one of us is the better man because he dares to love. The heart and the cross belong together. You cannot truly love without honoring the principle of sacrifice. Saint Valentine was a Christian martyr, beheaded by Claudius, emperor of Rome about the year 50 A.D. He loved enough to surrender his life in the service of God. The heart and the cross tell us that God is love, that he loved enough to give all for us. Will St. Valentine succeed in winning you and me to a genuine love for God that will not count the cost? The best text for St. Valentine's Day is John 3:16.
