This attractive and gifted couple,
Mr. and Mrs. in private life, have won acclaim in the fields of serious and popular music.
Particularly throughout the midwestern states, they have appeared with marked success, with many concert engagements.
Miss Hansen is a native of South Dakota. Majoring in piano at Yank-cuse University, from which he has two degrees in music.

Before they began working as a team, the two artists, each individually, made many solo appearances in recital and on radio. But at home, for their own relaxation and enjoyment, they began to play piano music. It was not long before people heard about such entertaining and wanted to listen to the combined artistry of hus-

YEAGER TO SEEK REELECTION

Tax Assessor Announces For Renomination

Richard H. Westaway, associate assessor of the New Mexico Tax Commission, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Eddy County tax assessor.

Westaway has served eight terms in the office he seeks and an additional term as chief deputy to county assessor.

It is a matter of great pride to Westaway that the Eddy County tax assessor's office is considered as one of the best in New Mexico. My previous service in the office for a period of over 30 years has been as possible for the office to maintain its high degree of efficiency.

Through the years I have endeavored to render efficient, courteous service to the people of Eddy County and I pledge to continue this standard if renominated and elected.

Westaway was appointed to the tax commission by Governor J. J. Clark in March, 1955. Since 1925 work has been in the assessor's field.

He has been recognized as one of the outstanding public officials in New Mexico and in 1954 was awarded the Carlsbad Junior Chamber of Commerce certificate for outstanding achievement in the field of good government.

Westaway has for many years been active in local and state politics serving as chairman of Eddy County Democratic Central Committee. He has also served more than 12 years as a member of the interstate streams commission and has served on several boards of the state of New Mexico.

Methodist, Westaway is a member of Men's Bible Class of First Methodist church of Carlsbad. He is a charter member of Carlsbad Lions Club and for 20 years has been secretary-treasurer of that organization. A veteran of World War I, he is also a member of the American Legion.

He is married, has two children and two grandchildren. He lives with his wife at 706 North Halagau Street, Carlsbad.

A CAR belonging to an Artesia man, Robert Brooks Whitehead, 916 Bullock, sets against a lightpost at Texas and Roselawn where it came to rest in an early morning accident today.

H. L. Garner Announces For Commissioner

H. L. (Buddy) Garner announced his candidacy for nomination for Eddy County commissioner from District 1, Precinct 1.

Garner is a veteran of World War II, entering the service in 1941.

He has also been employed by the City Motor Sales, Inc., there, as assistant sales manager.

He has also been employed by Merritt, Chapman and Scott, Inc., bridge-building contractors.

In a statement today, he said, "I pledge more improvements to the taxpayers of Eddy County for each tax dollar, and I will show no partiality to any part of the county."

Garner and his wife reside in Carlsbad.

Artesia Man Gives Innocent Plea To DWI Charge Following Accident

An Artesia man has pleaded innocent to charges of driving while intoxicated and reckless driving, after a one-car accident in which police said the man rammed his car into a light pole at the corner of Texas and Roselawn at 2:04 a.m. today.

Robert Brooks Whitehead of 916 Bullock, an attorney, pleaded innocent to both charges in police court here today and trial was set for Friday, Feb. 24. He posted $300 bond set by John Elliott, police judge.

Social Security Representative To Visit Here

Ralph H. Yowell, Field Representative of the Social Security Administration office, will be in Artesia, Tuesday morning to assist local residents in making application for old-age or survivors insurance benefits and to give general information concerning the Social Security Act. He will be at the office of the New Mexico State Employment Service, 511 W. Main, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Correction

The Advocate yesterday inadvertently referred to F. F. (Doc) Elvin as county assessor. Of course, Elvin is a deputy county assessor.

Chauffeurs Hit In Khrushchev's Major Address

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev's address to the Communist party Congress this week had words for almost everyone — including even sleeping chauffeurs and executives who refuse to drive their government cars.

The Communist party boss said the practice of assigning professional drivers to government officials who don't use them all the time is "utterly impermissible."

"The vehicle stands idle and the driver draws his wages and sleeps," declared Khrushchev. "We must put this matter on a Socialist footing. We must see to it that these executives learn to drive themselves."

STATE AIRS CRUCES

SANTA FE (AP)—The State Highway Commission will consider a proposal to pay part of the right-of-way costs on the Las Cruces truck route at its next meeting.

The Highway Department advised W. G. Smith, chairman of the Dona Ana County Commission, that the matter should be presented to the commission then.

The Dona Ana proposal deals with allowing certain county road funds to be used.

MAYOR BILL YEAGER announces for re-election.

Blizzard Heading Into New Mexico

A new blizzard carrying with it severe cold, wind and heavy snows headed into New Mexico today.

The Weather Bureau issued cold wave and highway warnings. Motorists were strongly urged to avoid travel through northern New Mexico and adjoining areas after noon because of the risk of getting caught in blinding and drifting snow.

"Strong winds with snow and blowing snow is apt to block many highways in the area by Friday morning," the Weather Bureau said. "Severe cold accompanying the snow and wind will create a hazardous condition to life for anyone stalled in a snow drift."

The new front moved southward through Colorado and forecasters expected it to arrive in New Mexico today. The storm, which shows signs of rivaling the two vicious blizzards of recent days, was expected to spread over the central portions of the state tonight and over most of New Mexico by Friday evening.

A sharp drop in temperatures and gusty winds were predicted along with snow.

The bad weather warnings extended over most of Colorado, Kansas, Utah and the Panhandle and South Plains areas of Texas.

Low temperatures tonight were predicted at 10 to 20 above zero in the north, 20 to 30 above in the south.

The Weather Bureau said travel conditions west from Albuquerque were doubtful after 4 p.m. today due to increasing snow over the higher elevations of Arizona and the Continental Divide area of New Mexico.

Cloudy and partly cloudy skies were reported in many parts of the state ahead of the storm. Generally fair weather prevailed except in the south and east yesterday. Temperatures ranged from a high of 70 at Carlsbad to 46 at Zuni. Overnight lows ranged in the 30s in the north and 40s in the south.

Mechem Definitely Won't Run

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Former Gov. Ed Mechem said today he definitely is not going to be the Republican candidate for governor this year.

Mechem's name was brought back in the limelight recently following a reported meeting of Republican brass in Albuquerque.

"I am definitely out of the race for governor," Mechem said.

He said he had no favorite for the post right now, "but there definitely will be a Republican candidate."

Anaconda To Expand Chile Copper Output

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Andes Copper Mining Co., a subsidiary of the Anaconda Co., proposes to invest $52,950,000 to bring into production copper ore bodies near Potrerillos, Chile, Roy H. Glover, chairman of Anaconda Co., has disclosed.

The proposal was filed yesterday with Carlos Ibanez del Campo, president of Chile, and was described by Glover as "the greatest and most important development of copper mining in Chile since 1914."

Mayor Yeager Proclaims World Day Of Prayer

This year the program is written by an American Indian and is entitled "One Flock, One Shepherd."

Mayor Yeager's proclamation follows:

Whereas it is the conviction of the United Council of Church Women, in fellowship with all those who seek the divine guidance of our Creator, that the many problems confronting us today can be solved only with the help of Almighty God; and

Whereas World Day of Prayer has been designated on an international, interdenominational, interracial basis to join the people of the world together in furtherance of the doctrine, "The Lord is Thy Keeper"; and

Whereas in order that the Church may fulfill the important role of exerting practical witness to the fact of God's purpose in human affairs, thereby advancing the international cause of peace on earth, it is necessary that we be ever mindful of the vast power of prayer in furthering his word and his work and in combating the forces of evil that surround us:

Now, therefore, I, William Yeager, mayor of the city of Artesia, do hereby proclaim Friday, February 17, 1956 as World Day Of Prayer in the city of Artesia, and I call upon the people of our city to observe this day as an individual invitation to attend a specific World Day of Prayer meeting.

At services circling the earth for more than 24 hours, people of all ages and races will pray in more than a thousand languages for understanding among nations. With their prayers will come offerings of money and material goods with which to help relieve need and suffering wherever they exist.

Each year the program is prepared by an author from one of the 134 cooperating countries.

Mayor Also Speaks For Three Councilmen In Next Election

Bill Yeager announced today that he would seek re-election to the office of mayor for a second term in election coming up April 30.

Mayor Yeager, in announcing his own candidacy, said that he was authorized to speak for three of the city councilmen whose terms expire, and that they, also, will run for re-election. A fourth, councilman Clayton Menefee, who was appointed to fill a vacancy left on the Council by the resignation of J. L. Walker, and whose term also expires, indicated that he may run for election but asked for a little more time to think it over, the Mayor said.

The three councilmen who the mayor indicated would run for re-election are Dr. J. J. Clarke Jr., fourth ward; H. A. Campbell, third ward; and Joe Alvarado, second ward.

Mayor Yeager said that he has wanted the present councilmen whose terms expire to run for re-election "because the Council we have now is a smooth working team, all members of which have the experience necessary for the job. It is a job which has been, and is becoming more complex all the time," he said.

The mayor and councilmen will run for re-election as a block, having their campaign on their existing records and past experience, the mayor indicated.

"I would like to see through to completion the projects we have begun under the present administration, and which are now under way, particularly the sewer and water project," Mayor Yeager said.

Councilman Clarke, when contacted by an Advocate reporter, said that he would go along with the mayor.

"The mayor said he would run if we would, and I felt we needed him badly enough to run myself," Councilman Campbell told a reporter today.

Councilman Alvarado said today that he probably will run but that at the present he is still undecided.

Councilman Menefee told a reporter that he did not believe at this time that he would be a candidate for election. "I have asked the mayor to look around for another candidate, but I may finally decide to run if they need me," Menefee said.

Mayor Yeager said that there has been a lot of pressure on him to be a candidate for re-election, and that though he needed to devote the time to his business, he felt that in view of his experience in the post of mayor he should offer his services for another term.

All four councilmen and the mayor, when contacted Jan. 30, declined to announce their candidacies and said that they were undecided at that time. Of the city officers who terms are expiring, only John Elliott, police judge, announced, at that time, that he would definitely be a candidate for re-election.

"My record is up there at the City Hall for all to see and I will stand on that," the mayor said.

Among accomplishments of the past year, under the present city administration, was the construction of a two-million gallon water reservoir west of the city, the laying of water supply lines to it, and the re-working of several wells to double their capacity.

Work was begun on a new $180,000 water and sewer project and sewer construction in 1955 brought 96 per cent of Artesia homes into the sewer system.

Sixty-five city employees were brought under the social security system in 1955.

An overall flood control survey was initiated and temporary measures were taken locally against floods.

Some much-needed equipment was added to the various city departments.

The urban project along First Street was brought to completion. Garbage pick-up and fly-spraying programs brought Artesia to among the top two cities of the state in sanitation during that time. A city-wide recreation program was initiated.

Raging Floods Strike Europe

LONDON (AP)—Raging floods and a new cold wave struck much of Europe and parts of the Middle East today, piling misery no misery in a 17-day freeze-up which already has cost 568 lives.

Torrential rains and melting snows brought Turkey new disasters of the worst winter on record. The known dead there totaled 72.

Ice jams and a brief thaw sent the Rhine and scores of rivers rampaging over their banks in central Europe.

Yugoslavia estimated its flood damage from the Strumica River alone at a million dollars.

The Netherlands reported the coldest night since 1942, with temperatures down to 13 below zero.

Even sunny Spain froze up again after warmer weather yesterday.

Behind the cold wave lurked the specter of famine. Crop losses already ran into millions of dollars.

Scores more were feared lost in villages still snowbound across the Continent. And nine men were aboard the 359-ton Norwegian ship Sagvaag, missing since Sunday off Norway's icebound south coast.

Civil Defense Emphasized At Mayor's Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—The third annual Washington Conference of Mayors, held under White House auspices, opened today with the emphasis on civil defense.

About 200 chief executives of American cities took part in the conference. Civil Defense Administrator Val Peterson, directing it, said they will be in the front line of defense if another war comes.

Peterson told a news conference it is likely a number of American cities would be hit simultaneously by atomic weapons in such a war. So, he said, the mayors must be given the fullest possible information to guide them. This includes, Peterson said, such things as the latest information on the foreign situation and latest enemy weapons.

Award For Study By Dentists Is Given In State

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—The New Mexico Department of Public Health has announced that a fund of $10,500 will be given toward a continuing educational program for practicing dentists in New Mexico during the next four years.

Dr. David F. Striffler, Director of the dental health division, announced that the Kellogg Foundation will pay the money over a period of four years to assist the department, the University of New Mexico, and the New Mexico State Dental Society, in establishing three continuing education centers to aid the state's 200 practicing dentists with annual programs of special interest.

Albuquerque, Las Cruces and Roswell have been named as tentative centers.

GRAHAM IN FORMOSA
TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Billy Graham arrived in Formosa today on his 30,000-mile Asian speaking tour and received an ovation from several hundred hymn-singing Americans and Chinese.

The American evangelist was to dine tonight with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and his wife, who are both Methodists.

Ike Creates Defense Reserve For Training Top Executives

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower today created a national defense civilian reserve for the training of up to 4,000 top flight executives from business and labor for government service in any emergency.

At his vacation headquarters here, Eisenhower signed an executive order implementing a law enacted by Congress last year.

The order directs the Office of Defense Mobilization to get the training program under way on a full scale basis. Actually ODM already is operating a pilot training program under which about 40 key executives have been recruited from all sections of the country.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said ODM Director Arthur S. Flemming hopes to recruit 3,000 to 4,000 executives who will be recruited eventually.

Participation in the reserve pool is on a voluntary basis and those who enroll must have permission from their employers, Hagerty said.

In response to questions, Hagerty also said that so far as he knows there would be nothing compulsory about serving in a government job in event of war or other national emergency.

Hagerty said enrollees would be called upon in any general mobilization, for example. He added that for the most part they would take jobs in the ODM and the Department of Defense, Commerce, Interior and Labor.

The enrollees are being drawn from the ranks of labor organizations as well as business.

Those taking part in the program would serve in one of three categories—without pay, on a $15 a day allowance, or on a regular government salary at full time.

Artesia Group To Attend Meet In Lubbock

Seventeen local business leaders have registered to attend a National Chamber of Commerce workshop meeting at Lubbock, Tex., tomorrow, Paul Scott, Chamber manager announced today.

The group will meet at the Chamber and leave by chartered bus at 4:30 a.m. tomorrow. They will travel together by bus and not with the Carlsbad Chamber delegation as was originally planned.

The workshop meeting will deal with such problems as how to compete with other communities to keep business at home, a problem faced by businessmen here.

Lane Doubtful Of Making Deal For Year's Play

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Frank Lane, who consummated 241 trades involving a total of 353 players during his seven years with the Chicago White Sox, doubts whether he'll make a deal for the St. Louis Cardinals before the start of the 1956 baseball season.

The new general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals was found behind the batting cage at Al Lang Field watching intently as the players went through their paces in the Cardinals' first spring training drill.

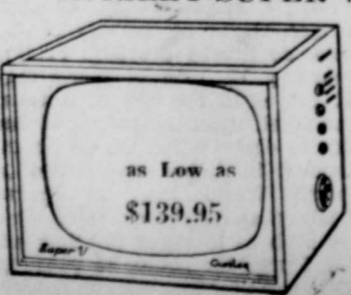

Wood has been found to be a good insulating material because it is composed of many cells containing dead air spaces which retard the passage of heat and cold.

Farm Leaders Hear McFadden Discuss Aphids

About 15 farm leaders of the Artesia area attended a meeting at the Country Club last night and heard David McFadden, research agronomist, with the Northrup-King Seed Co., deliver a talk on new alfalfa varieties and aphid control. Bill Bullock said today.

McFadden discussed latest methods of aphid control and the use of insecticides in California for control of the pest.

Farmers were shown a motion picture on the advantages of alfalfa variety 919.

Among those present were Bill McGuire, head of the new South-eastern Substation here and Howard Stroup, local farm leader.

Club Official Says Boggs Bill Taxes Motorists

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Unless automobile owners and light truck owners protest the Boggs Bill now under consideration in the House Ways and Means Committee, they will be paying over 90 per cent of the revenues from an increased gasoline tax, says Peter Brooks, general manager of the New Mexico AAA Motor Club.

They will still pay this although their vehicles do not demand the costly type of highway construction required to carry heavy trucks, Brooks said.

He said tests have proved that in order to sustain heavy truck weights and traffic construction, costs run 30 per cent higher than required for passenger cars and light trucks.

Night Bridge Club Holds Meet

Mrs. Bill Hart was hostess to the Wednesday Night Bridge club. Dinner was served preceding the bridge game.

Experts Panel Considered For Magazine Study

SANTA FE (AP)—Appointment of a small committee of experts to study the proposed merger of New Mexico Magazine and Trails Magazine may be made by the Economic Development Commission's meeting here Feb. 22.

Bert Huffman, EDC director, said the idea of appointing a panel of three who are familiar with publishing field has been advanced.

The committee would study angles of the controversial proposal and report back in 60 days to the commission.

Huffman emphasized that there has been nothing definite about in regards to the "committee" idea.

However, he said it would be logical to appoint such a committee since none of the EDC members were familiar with the intricacies of publishing.

The proposed merger of state-owned New Mexico Magazine was revived several months ago by Robert C. Pettingell, publisher and editor of the Sun Trails Magazine of Albuquerque. A similar proposal was made several years ago.

The EDC at its last meeting said it would take up the proposal this time.

Latin America, including West Indies, is estimated to be approximately 173 million people. This is about the combined population of Canada and the United States.

Supermarkets Report Fish As Best Food Buy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fish gets top billing this week in food stores and supermarkets across the nation.

Seafood for Lenten menus is as plentiful as ever, there are plenty of varieties to choose from and prices are moderate to low. In general, halibut is the top favorite in West Coast stores while flounder sardines and cod head the popularity parade in Eastern markets. That's the way consumer preferences run, according to market specialists.

Best eaters will find bargains this weekend. Sirlon steaks are down 4 to 6 cents a pound in some cities; several of the big chains are featuring round roast, boneless chuck and rib roast at reduced prices. Pork is down sharply in some areas and frying chickens are mostly somewhat lower in price. Leg of lamb is unchanged or higher, although here and there you'll find "specials" in shoulder lamb chops. One chain is featuring boneless leg of veal this week at the lowest price since last September.

Food analysts say beef prices are off a shade at wholesale this week (about 1/2 to 3/4 of a cent a pound) but not enough to affect the retail price.

Outstanding buys in produce are rather scarce. Many of the more popular fruit and vegetable items are not in season. There are still a few excellent bargains, however. Onions, white potatoes and salad greens are listed as outstanding buys this week by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, while turnips, Pascal celery, sweet potatoes and cabbage are rated in the "good buy" category.

Good buys in fruits are confined pretty much to apples, oranges, tangerines and grapefruit.

Coffee prices are still heading higher. The more popular brands of vacuum-packed coffee have climbed as much as 5 cents a pound since the start of February and several major supermarket chains are hiking prices of their private label coffees 2 to 4 cents a pound this week.

Buddy Adler Takes Zanuck's Place As Movie Studio Boss

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Meet Buddy Adler, the personable, handsome, 40-year-old producer who is filling the shoes of the film giant Darryl F. Zanuck.

Last week it was announced that Zanuck was stepping out of the picture as production chief at Century-Fox and Adler was named to take his place.

Adler, who served four years in the Army during the war, felt it was time to do something else. He brought his movie-making experience to Century-Fox and Adler was named to take his place.

No American Involved In MacLean Letter. British Official Declares

LONDON (AP)—The British Foreign Office says a mysterious letter found in Cairo does not indicate that renegade British diplomat Donald Maclean "was receiving secret U. S. documents from a contact in the American embassy in Cairo."

Sir George Young, chief spokesman, also said there was nothing to indicate that the author of the letter indicated a possible spy link, but not named, was engaged in espionage.

Newspapers had suggested the letter indicated a possible spy link. Written in 1951, it was found last November in a book in the library of the British Embassy, where Maclean once served on the staff.

The Foreign Office said the letter was "from an address in the United States, to a third person, clearly not Maclean."

Young added that the letter was being investigated.

In Washington, a state department spokesman said U. S. officials also were investigating.

The letter mentioned Maclean, who had recently disappeared when it was written June 8, 1951.

Maclean was recalled to London from Cairo in May, 1950, for riotous behavior including the wrecking of a U. S. Embassy secretary's apartment.

After almost five years of staying away from Westerners he and his colleague, Guy Burgess, held a brief press conference in Moscow Saturday.

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Tagged for Travel

The atomic age has come to dinner, and the dinner story is about some scientific-circles tours. The tours are the routes taken by the foods we eat as they are changed into energy and body cells. Values of many foods may be more readily studied since the discovery of those scientific laboratory foods—radio active minerals. When the scientist adds minute amounts of a radio active element to a food, he does the act, "tagging."

From Washington University, come reports of how iron "tagged" for travel in various foods is used by the body. "Tagged" iron, also called radiolion, was introduced into iron-rich foods. These then became a part of the carefully controlled diets of a group of 30 healthy young people and also patients with iron deficiency anemia.

The "tagged" iron was added to foods by putting it in poultry

Speaker Notes Eased Tension In Middle East

WASHINGTON (AP)—Allied planners working to avert war in the Middle East were heartened today by signs Israel may be shelving its go-it-alone attitude toward developing the Jordan River.

At the same time, Asst. Secretary of State George V. Allen said "the likelihood is serious" that either side of the Israeli-Arab tinderbox might touch off a spark.

In a Voice of America broadcast beamed around the world last night, Allen said he does not have the attitude that war anywhere is inevitable, then added:

"But I believe it is likely that the states of that area (Middle East) with their present tense attitude could be involved in serious military operations, perhaps without either one knowing it."

Allen met yesterday with British and French diplomats on possible joint moves to prevent Middle East hostilities. No date was set for the next session and no announcement of any action was made.

Subcommittee Plans Probe Of Contributions

WASHINGTON (AP)—A three-member Senate Elections subcommittee decided today to undertake a broad investigation into any efforts by "selfish interests" to influence federal elections or legislation with campaign contributions.

"The subcommittee intends to explore this matter fully to the end that the American people may be advised of the facts," Chairman Gore (D-Tenn.) said in a statement he said to newsmen.

He added the subcommittee had "determined to conduct a study of contributions to elections campaigns, federal elections and such evidence of corrupt practices as may be revealed."

Gore said the statement had been unanimously adopted by the subcommittee. The other members are Sens. Mansfield (D-Mont) and Curtis (R-Neb).

Freezing Rain Enters Colorado

DENVER (AP)—Light snow, freezing rain and fog hit Colorado today as the advance guard of a cold wave that may bring the lowest temperatures of the winter.

Frigid air hanging over Montana the past two days moved rapidly over Wyoming and into Colorado and New Mexico.

The temperature was down to 34 below zero at Bozeman, Mont., this morning, the lowest reading in the nation.

The weather bureau cited this as an example of what is ahead for eastern Colorado: at mid-morning today the temperature was 10 above—by tomorrow morning it is expected to be 10 below.

The oldest Seventh Day Baptist Church in America still stands in Newport, R.I. Built in 1729 it is now a part of the Newport Historical Society.

British Writers Say Khrushchev Has Emerged As Russian Dictator

LONDON (AP)—British commentators picture Nikita Khrushchev as the new dictator of the Soviet Union. They credit him with all the might of the late Joseph Stalin and with the undisputed authority to revise basic Marxist doctrine.

They said his behavior at the opening of the 20th congress of the Soviet Communist party in Moscow and his marathon speech confirmed his position and ended once and for all the "rule by committee" which followed Stalin's death.

"Khrushchev the Dictator," headlined the Conservative Daily Mail, whose diplomatic correspondent wrote:

"Mr. Khrushchev, the 61-year-old Soviet Communist party leader, has won the struggle for supreme power in Russia. With Stalin-like authority he showed he intends to exercise full control over both home and foreign affairs."

"Khrushchev makes it clear he's boss," said the Laborite Daily Herald. The Daily Sketch echoed: "Khrushchev shows he's boss."

Said the Daily Express: "The ex-millworker, son of a miner, stands in the floodlights of the Kremlin's white and gold palace and speaks with all the authority and assurance of the supreme boss of Russia. The New Stalin."

The independent Times commented: "By delivering the report of the Central Committee (of the Communist party) in his capacity of first secretary, Mr. Khrushchev appears to have gained increased stature. It was Stalin himself who delivered the congress reports un-

Sub-Par Housing Is Indicated By Seaborn Collins

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Seaborn Collins, past national commander of the American Legion, says the home building industry has failed to keep pace with the need for more and better housing in the United States.

Speaking to delegates of the Mountain States Lumber Dealers Assn., Collins said last night that millions of American families live in sub-par homes because better units have not been made available to them.

"It is time that we re-evaluate our entire home building industry, taking into consideration the need for new homes in America, the efficiency that will be required to produce them and the money necessary to finance them," Collins said.
