The accident was blamed on excessive speed. The deaths raised the total of persons killed in New Mexico highway accidents this year.

Lewellen, who was born in Garrettsville, Ohio, and came here in 1936, is survived by her parents and a daughter, Carroll Anne, 16, in sister, Mrs. W. E. Dennis, 42, in brother, Troy C. Crouch, U.S. Navy; Grover Crouch, Rio Vista, Calif.; and Charles D. Crouch, Artesia.

Lewellen attended High school here and was employed at the Artesia Pipeline Co. Funeral arrangements are being made by the Artesia Funeral Home.

TWO CANDIDATES HIT SIMMS FOR MARIJUANA CASE PAROLE

SANTA FE — Gov. John Simms' two opponents for the Democratic nomination for governor have attacked Simms for a recent pardon in a marijuana case and have called on Simms to withdraw from the primary race for governor.

Ingram B. Pickett, saying the pardon issued to John B. Lewellen, 31, was "just about the lowest thing that any human being could do," called on Simms to resign as governor and "put himself out of the governor's race."

Robert S. Stephens, Simms' other opponent for the nomination, also issued a statement decrying the pardon and called upon Simms to withdraw from the race.

Stephens said he was "deeply shocked" at what he called the "incredible act" of the governor. Lewellen of Dumas, Tex., pleaded guilty last April to a charge of possession of marijuana and was sentenced to three to five years and was fined $2,000. He was freed on $5,000 bond pending his appeal.

First National Deposits Rate Shows Increase

The First National Bank of Artesia was one of seven banks in the state in 1955 to raise its rate in amount of deposits, over that of the previous year, according to information furnished Fred Cole, president of the New Mexico Bankers Association, by the American Banker, daily banking newspaper.

The Banker listed 11 New Mexico banks, of which the First National bank here is one, with deposits of over $10-million at the close of 1955. This represents 21 per cent of the 52 banks in the state and compares with only 14 per cent on a nation-wide scale.

The First National of Artesia jumped ahead six places in the national rating to a position of 1-327th.

Cole stated that New Mexico bankers had an excellent year in 1955 in spite of drought conditions and a drop in farm and ranch income. Bankers generally are optimistic about the outlook for 1956 due to improved range conditions and hopes for stabilization of farm prices by a bill now before Congress, Cole said.

Cole added that commercial and industrial business in the state is showing a marked increase in volume and the mining industry is at its peak, making for a very bright outlook.

Joe Munoz Fined $145 On 3 Counts

An Artesia man, Joe Jimenez Munoz, was fined a total of $145 in police court here today on charges of drunkenness, creating a disturbance and carrying a deadly weapon. He paid the fines and was released.

Joapuin Carrera, Artesia, was fined $20 on a drunk count to which he pleaded guilty and trial on a count of window peeping was delayed awaiting further evidence.

Carrera told Judge John Elliott that he was too drunk to remember doing any window peeping. Carrera was arrested following a chase through yards in the vicinity of Eighth and Main late Saturday night.

Oscar Jones, Artesia, forfeited $20 bond on a drunk count, the judge said.

Two Chairmen To Plan Agenda For Improvement

NORTHEAST, NEW YORK UNDER BLANKET OF SNOW

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Winter that refused to die today smothered the northeast and Metropolitan New York with a second snow blanket of the weekend. It brought the toll of storm dead to 95 in 11 states.

It prostrated the nation's largest city with a fall measuring a foot—the worst snowstorm in seven years.

In New York and the wide area which supplies a large part of the city's working population trains stalled entirely or ran late and some businesses and schools didn't even open.

La Guardia airport was shut. Even the usually reliable New York subway halted in spots.

Wind-whipped drifts gripped autos on countless streets and highways.

A monumental tieup choked the parkways that lace through Queens, Long Island. During the night an estimated 3,000 motorists abandoned their snowbound cars on these roads and were given emergency shelter in hospitals, police stations and an armory.

Street-Cruising Boat Hits Auto

Jimmy Loyd Walker, Box 913 of Artesia, was parked at the curb on South First Street near Hermosa about 6 p.m. yesterday when he was surprised to glance out and see a boat cruising down the street.

A moment later the boat struck the fender of his car, damaging it slightly.

Investigation showed that the boat was being towed on a two-wheeled trailer by Ray J. Boulder, Box 204 of Artesia, when the trailer came unhitched and collided with the car.

Bill W. Hull, of the Dowell Chemical Co., looked up to adjust the sun visor on his car and collided with a parked pickup truck belonging to the Artesia Pipeline Co., on Chisum at Twelfth about 5:30 a.m. today, damaging the front of his car about $300 and the front of the truck about $250, police reported.

Claude Garrett, Lakewood, reported hit-run damage to his car while it was parked on East Main across the railroad tracks about 10 p.m. Saturday. Garrett told police that he left his car and when he returned the rear end was caved in.

University Of New Mexico Concert Orchestra To Perform Here Tuesday

The University of New Mexico Concert Orchestra, under the direction of Kurt Frederiek, will present a concert at the High School auditorium tomorrow at 8:15 p.m.

The concert is being presented by the university group which is now on tour of New Mexico cities and schools in the interest of music education. The concert, which is free to the public, is being sponsored jointly by the Central, Hermosa, and Park P-T-A groups, and by the Community Concert Board, which will be hosts to the group for supper tomorrow evening.

Johannie A. Ware, string teacher here, is responsible for the group's coming to Artesia.

The program opens with the "Sixth Symphony of Beethoven," one of Beethoven's best-loved works.

After intermission the group will proceed with Dvorak's "Slavonic Dance No. 8," a modern work by Kodaly, titled "Intermezzo from Harry Janos"; Percy Grainger's entertaining work "Handel in the Strand."

Concluding will be the famous Finnish nationalistic music of Sibelius, the tone poem "Finlandia."

Ware urges everyone who is interested in good music to attend this concert. "It is our desire to develop in Artesia a well-balanced music program which includes strings and school orchestras. We have a large number of beginning string players in the elementary schools, and some day there will be orchestras in all our schools. For this reason we are bringing this orchestra to Artesia," he said.

Kurt Frederiek is well-known throughout New Mexico as one of the finest musicians in the educational field. Prior to World War II, he lived and studied in Europe. He is at home in all media of music, having produced in Albuquerque many fine choral offerings, including "The Messiah," "Bach's Minner Mass," "The Elijah," and the "eVrdi Requiem."

The group will be accompanied by Dr. Jack Stephenson, head of the Music Education Department at the University. They will remain in Artesia overnight and be guests of members of the three P-T-A organizations.

British Allow Malenkov Tour Of A-Energy Research Plant

LONDON — Britain opened her top atomic energy research plant to former Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov today. But she made American correspondents and other newsmen wait outside.

Malenkov, now Soviet minister for power stations, got up early to make the 80-mile ride from London to Harwell.

He was joined here by other members of the visiting Soviet delegation. They had spent the night at Windsor after sightseeing in the town steeped in royal traditions.

A spokesman at the plant said Malenkov was "given the tour which distinguished visitors normally are given." He added that "obviously there are a number of things which are still under security. But I don't think we were hampered by security in what we wanted to show him."

Louisville's Cardinals Have Advance With Duquesne Contest

YORK (AP)—Louisville's Cardinals, who matched their 23-3 record and twice the season, were allotted the spot in the seedings by the Flyers, who hold the favorable.

Dayton meets Xavier of Cincinnati, weakened considerably by the disciplinary shelving of 6-3 Dave Piontek and third-seeded St. Joseph's of Philadelphia plays Seton Hall in tomorrow night's quarterfinal finale.

Louisville, at worst a legitimate favorite with Dayton, is making its fifth trip to the NIT with not much to show for previous efforts. The Cardinals got a first-round bye with other seeded entries, but will have to get right down to business against Duquesne, which did a fine job in ousting Oklahoma A&M 69-61 Saturday.

LOANS CASE PROBED
SANTA FE (AP)—The state bank examiner has under advisement a case involving a Gallup couple allegedly lending money without a license. Mrs. John B. Ruiz, doing business as the Navajo Indian Jewelry Co., the same couple doing business as Personal Finance Co., were named in the allegation. D. M. Lynch, state small loans administrator, said it would be several weeks before a decision is handed down.

PHOENIX, ARIZ. (AP)—Harley Deming wound up with total prizes in steer wrestling for the event, at the Phoenix rodeo yesterday. Davis of Kenna, N. M., 201.36 in prizes to lead all others in calf roping at the four-day event. Buff of Roswell was third in roping with $394.00. H. B. INSIDE WASHINGTON MARCH OF EVENTS

Down on Lobbyists
Bill Case Result?
Special to Central Press Association

WASHINGTON—Whatever the immediate outcome of the furor set off by Senator Francis Case's disclosure of a $2,500 "contribution" by an attorney favoring the natural gas bill, the bill stir up congressional demands for a firm crackdown on Hill lobbyists.

House members were made aware of the "campaign contribution" practice themselves when Rep. Ruth Thompson (R., Michigan), announced in a floor speech that a group interested in locating an air base in her state had made a similar proposal to her.

SOUTH OF THE BORDER—Look for a crescendo of Democratic attacks on the Eisenhower administration's foreign policy in South America. They will charge that the Republicans have ignored America's "Good Neighbors" while concentrating on Europe and Asia. Democrats will point out, for instance, that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has paid next to no attention to Latin America during all of his extensive travels.

GOOD SOLDIERS—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff, had millions of young men under his command, but he recalls one particular GI gave him his best idea as to why men fight. Incident occurred when he was in command of the 101st Airborne.

DIPLOMATIC BOO-BOO—State Secretary Dulles made at least diplomatic slips during the recent visit of Britain's Sir Anthony Eden. Both were made at the formal State dinner given by Dulles.

BASILIO SCORES—BUT WATCH SAXTON'S RIGHT

The Mustangs of Southern Methodist, with 19 straight triumphs, reached the semifinals by downing Oklahoma City 84-63 at Lawrence, Kan.

The Dons, defending champions and the nation's No. 1 ranked team with a string of 27 victories this year, tangle with Southern Methodist, ranked seventh, in one semifinal at Evanston, Ill., Thursday night. The other game matches Iowa's Big Ten champion, ranked fourth, and Temple's surprising Owls ranked 15th. The finals will be played Friday night.

San Francisco Dons Meet SMU In NCAA Play

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—San Francisco's Dons batted their blisters and sprains today while Coach Phil Woolpert tried to get a scouting report on SMU's basketball team.

San Francisco and SMU meet Thursday in a semifinal of the NCAA tournament at Evanston, Ill. Woolpert says he doesn't even know what color uniform the Mustangs favor.

He has heard that the big SMU scorers are Jim Krebs, a 6-8 junior, and Joel Krog.

The Dons won the Far Western regional tourney Friday and Saturday at Corvallis, Ore., by dropping UCLA 72-61, and Utah, 92-77.

Bill Russell, San Francisco's 6-10 All-American center, sprained a finger on his right hand, but Dr. James Daly said it was not serious.

New shoes, put on for the game against UCLA, produced foot blisters for Capt. Hal Perry and Gene Brown. They, too, are expected to be ready.

The Dons may leave tomorrow in order to get in a practice at Northwestern University's court.

In its 75 years of life, the American Red Cross has expended 203 million dollars for aid to victims of domestic disasters in approximately 6,000 relief operations.

Each proved her mettle under fire in semifinals yesterday. Marlene, a personable 22-year-old Rollins College sophomore from Font-hill, Ontario, put out defending champion Wiffi Smith of St. Clair, Mich., 2 and 1.

Poker-faced deliberate Wanda, who lives in Baton Rouge, La., was never behind but had to go 21 holes to win from Anne Quast of Marysville, Wash., a 19-year-old University of Washington sophomore.
