Hammaraskjold Negotiates Unconditional Cease-Fire

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Hammaraskjold told the Security Council today he has gained new unconditional cease-fire agreements from Israel and her four Arab neighbors—Egypt, Lebanon, Syria and Jordan.

He told the Council in a "progress report" the next step in the Middle East situation is to establish full compliance with the 1949, which ended the Palestine fighting.

He said he also had concluded the negotiations with the parties to the other armistice agreements, specifically Syria, Lebanon and Jordan.

The report was received by the Security Council in ordering Hammaraskjold to undertake his peace mission to the Middle East.

Hammaraskjold is expected to return to New York this week and make a final report to the Security Council next week. Some diplomats said they believed he would be requested to go back in June to try to put the truce agreement on a more solid foundation.

Hammaraskjold reported, "I have worked strictly within the scope of the Security Council resolution. The resolution requested me to survey the various aspects of enforcement and compliance with the armistice agreements between Israel and the Arab states.

He has considered it appropriate to give the aim of the resolution and interpretation according to which I should not merely survey and report on the state of compliance which existed at the time of my arrival in the region, but also try to get the parties to establish compliance to the extent possible."

Hammaraskjold said that he considered the resolution a mandate to negotiate for re-establishment of compliance with the agreements.

He has considered the basic elements of the general armistice agreements to be those which established a general cease-fire," Hammaraskjold said.

"It has to me, been obvious that measures for establishing full compliance with procedural or substantive clauses of the general armistice agreements would be unhelpful and lasting unless firmly based in a reaffirmation of the will of all parties concerned to achieve a cease-fire.

"You have already circulated statements indicating that, at an early stage, I received such assurances from the governments of Egypt and Israel. These reciprocal assurances served to relieve the threatening situation in the area where conditions have been considerably improved as a result of strict orders issued by two governments. I have already informed you that I received notification that such orders were in force as of 6 p. m. April 18, 1956, and from that time (Continued on Page Four)

Tarawa Hero Heads Marine Training

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Marines have picked as new hero of their recruit training, a hero of bloody Tarawa, Maj. Gen. David M. Shoup.

Shoup's job will be to make boys into Marines without hazing—and without endangering their lives.

He also will have the job of curbing some of the old disciplinary practices of the Marines' non-commissioned officer drill instructors without undermining their authority or wrecking their morale.

Shoup's appointment as inspector general of recruiting was announced yesterday by Gen. Randolph Pate, Marine commandant, in the aftermath of an investigation into the April 8 fatal march at Parris Island, S. C.

In that march at the recruit depot six "boots," as the Corps calls the untrained, were drowned. Their platoon had been ordered into a tide-swept creek by a drill instructor "to teach them discipline."

Shoup is a tough man. On occasion, the full-necked jacket of a farm near Battle Ground, Ind., has been known to use language which was an old salty-dog type Marine could admire.

The 52-year-old graduate of De Pauw University—he went to school on a scholarship and was an A student—is also a fighting man.

As much as any man he has been credited with the U. S. victory at Tarawa. After those bloody 72 hours in November 1943 in which the Marines suffered 3,106 casualties, Shoup was awarded the Medal of Honor.

"Although severely shocked by an exploding shell... and suffering serious leg wounds which had become infected," the citation reads, "Shoup fearlessly exposed himself and, rallying his hesitant troops by his own inspiring heroism, he gallantly led them across the fringing reef to charge the heavily fortified island and reinforce hard-pressed, thinly held lines."

House Committee Votes $33, One-Half Billion For American Defense

Senator Says N. M. Funds Eliminated

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Clinton P. Anderson charged today that New Mexico construction funds have been all but eliminated from administration budget requests for upper Colorado River storage projects for fiscal 1957.

Anderson asked permission to instruct the 8 million dollar supplementary budget request for the project.

He said the Navajo Dam and Navajo irrigation project would be set back under the proposed budget.

The senator wrote Sen. Hayden of Arizona, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

"We can make an irrefutable case," Anderson wrote, "that there be included in the bill an adequate appropriation—not less than 5 million dollars—to begin work in fiscal 1957 on the Navajo Dam."

Anderson said he had been advised that the Interior Department was planning to ask only $5,000 for each of the next four fiscal years for Navajo Dam contrasted with first year requests of 5 million for Glen Canyon dam in Arizona and 1 1/2 million for Flaming Gorge Dam, Utah despite the fact that planning on Navajo Dam is more advanced than on any of the other authorized projects.

"We in New Mexico heartily approve funds being appropriated to start construction on Glenn Canyon and Flaming Gorge Dam," Anderson said. "We also favor getting work under way as soon as the conditions required by law are met. The upper Colorado project must be more than a power-producing development. We must be prepared to advance irrigation, especially for the Navajos."

To his letter, Anderson attached a telegram from the Upper Colorado River Commission recommending unanimously that construction on the various projects be carried on concurrently and that appropriations be divided so that work could be started this year on each of the dams.

"The first report from the Interior Department left out Navajo Dam," Anderson said. "The Senate Interior Committee restored it. Now the upper basin states' senators do not intend to let the executive department evade or avoid the will of Congress by failing to request funds to build this important dam."

Anderson said rehabilitation of the Navajo Indian tribe is one of the goals of the bill passed by Congress and that the project would assist materially in this purpose.

One-Half Billion Less Than Ike Requested In His Budget

WASHINGTON (AP)—Voicing concern over Russia's growing military might, the House Appropriations Committee voted today to give the Defense Department $33,635,066,000 in new money.

This is $512,784,000 less than the total President Eisenhower asked in his original budget last January and in a supplemental request last month for the bookkeeping year starting July 1.

But more than half of the reduction was made up of paper changes which the committee said would not affect specific military programs. The committee said it expects that $276,319,000, of the cut will remain available in the form of foreign currency under mutual defense and occupation agreements.

The amount recommended is $1,741,832,374 more than Congress appropriated for the present year ending June 30.

The recommendations were contained in a bill which the House will consider next week. The Senate will act later.

The committee said emphasis during the coming year will be on airpower and new weapons "being phased in at an increasing rate."

The new money, plus funds carried over, would give the Defense Department 46 1/4 billion during the new fiscal year. It contemplates military strength of 2,865,200 in mid-1957, compared with 2,820,100 next June 30.

Here's how the new dollars would be shared among the services:

Army—$7,497,582,000, a budget cut of $263,843,000 but a $167,629,000 more than this year.

Navy—$9,999,534,000, a budget cut of $48,066,000 but an increase of $871,774,444 over this year.

Britain Opposes Extension Of NATO Into Foreign Aid

PARIS (AP)—British sources said Britain told the United States today it opposes any extension of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization into the foreign aid field for the benefit of the world's undeveloped regions.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd had a midday meeting. The British informant said Lloyd told Dulles NATO members should push their aid programs through other institutions. Suggested were the International Monetary Fund, the Colombo Plan for Southeast Asia, or agencies of the United Nations.

West Germany had just agreed with a French plan for linking German rearmament to progress in world disarmament which, in turn, would free large sums of capital for investment.

Lloyd and Dulles met for a long discussion of East-West relations and NATO's place in that picture. They continued their talks through luncheon. Dulles followed through with a meeting with West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Bismarck in the afternoon.

By account of the British sources:

Lloyd told Dulles Britain is willing to expand consultative functions of NATO in the political field, but opposes the creation of a new organization to channel aid to undeveloped nations. He said Britain also opposes using the NATO framework for sending aid to Southeast Asia and the Middle East.

In this, he was joining French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau, who said yesterday France opposes using such aid as a weapon in the cold war.

Both Britain and France obviously believe the NATO label would handicap the program in neutralist areas such as India or the Middle East.

Dulles is to present his ideas to the full NATO Foreign Ministers' Council tomorrow.

Western diplomats say the two-day NATO session tomorrow may be a momentous meeting for the 15-member ministerial council.

Dulles has said one of the chief objectives is to plan the reshaping of NATO "into something more than a military alliance."

Shortly after he got here yesterday, he was given a French plan calling for a new international agency to distribute economic aid to the world's needy. He conferred two hours with French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau on the French proposal, which, informants said, urges U.S. cooperation in forming an aid agency outside NATO.

Pineau reportedly told Dulles the organization should be set up "within the framework of the (Continued on Page Four)

Two Boys Bit By Bats That May Be Rabid

SANTA FE (AP)—Two boys in Las Cruces found five bats under a bridge and one of the boys was bitten at least five times, Dr. John Mason of the State Health Department reported today.

Mason also said a bat had bitten a person at New Mexico Military Institute, although he did not have full details.

Both bats have been sent to the Health Department's Albuquerque laboratory for tests to see if they were rabid. The Las Cruces bat was sent to the laboratory alive, the other one dead.

Mason said anti-rabies serum is ready in case the laboratory finds evidence of rabies in the bats. Slides of the bats' brain tissues to see if there are any signs of rabies will be taken.

Grazing Lands Eligible For Soil Bank

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House today voted tentative approval of a farm bill amendment which would give cattlemen a break by making grazing lands eligible for 50 million dollars of soil bank payments.

The amendment, sponsored by Rep. Albert (D-Okla.), was backed solidly by Democrats and a large number of far western Republicans. It was put into the farm bill on a 103-66 unrecorded voice vote.

Earlier, the House voted approval of a compromise provision to insure corn farmers a guaranteed price support of $1.25 a bushel if they put a percentage of their land in a soil bank. This quickly settled disputes over corn and feed grain supports.

But hactions were taken as a showdown heard on President Eisenhower's controversial request for authority to pay up to 500 million dollars to farmers this year in advance of fulfillment of their soil bank commitments on next year's crops.

The Albert proposal, an unexpected entry in the farm bill battle, would direct the secretary of agriculture to pay livestock growers for putting a percentage of bank. It would authorize payments their grazing land into the soil of 50 million dollars for a four-year program.

Republican floor leaders opposed the proposal attacking it as a device to "hail out" cattle growers. GOP Floor Leader Hall-Clark of Indiana warned it might "jeopardize" the bill.

Supporters called for its approval to give livestock growers "an even break" with growers of other commodities. They said it would encourage reduction of cattle numbers with a corresponding improvement in livestock prices.

The corn compromise settled both corn and feed grain differences as far as the House was concerned.

Mandatory supports for minor grains—rye, oats, barley and grain sorghums—had been opposed by Eisenhower in his veto of the omnibus farm bill two weeks ago.

In all-day huddles yesterday, Democrats continued to balk at any re-writing of the bill to give what they have termed a political advantage to the administration in a bid for the November farm vote.

Chairman Cooley (D-N.C.) of the House Agriculture Committee countered with a proposed amendment to authorize soil bank payments for this year, not as an advance payment but only for fulfillment of soil bank agreements taking land out of cultivation this year.

General LeMay To List SAC Airpower Needs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) said today Gen. Curtis LeMay has promised "to spell out in a complete package" what his Strategic Air Command needs to offset Soviet Russia's expanding air might.

"This will be for the benefit of the Senate subcommittee and will not be cleared through Pentagon channels," Jackson said in an interview. He is a member of a Senate Armed Forces subcommittee studying relative U. S.-Russian air power.

LeMay, cigar-chewing commander of the globe-girdling U. S. bomber force, made it plain in previously censored public testimony yesterday and Monday that he wants more jet B-52 bombers as quickly as possible.

Completing more than a week of testimony, he disclosed late yesterday that out of 78 heavy B-52 bombers produced to date, (Continued on Page Four)

Carlsbad Area Ground Water On The Rise

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interior Department says ground water in the Carlsbad, N. M., area continuing to rise through 1955, compensating for about one-third of the decline during the period 1950 through 1954.

Clarence A. Davis, acting secretary of the interior, said a report showed the rise began with heavy rain in August and October, 1954. The survey results were obtained from measurements in 92 observation wells last January by the Geological Survey and the New Mexico state engineer.

The survey showed rises of more than two feet in an area of 70 square miles, the greatest rises in the vicinity of Oils. The only decline in that area of alluvial aquifers was about three miles south of Carlsbad in the southern part of a heavily pumped area.

About 21,400 acre-feet of water, mostly for irrigation, was pumped from the alluvial area in the Carlsbad area during 1955, compared to about 52,200 acre-feet in 1954.

Rises in the Capitan limestone, from which Carlsbad obtains its municipal water supply, averages 1.5 feet.

DUTY CURTAILS SERMON

SOPHIA, W. Va. (AP)—The Rev. Arlie Mitchell, pastor of the Friendship Baptist Church and a volunteer fireman, said he was right in the middle of a sermon when the fire alarm sounded.

"I just had to go," he said, "so I motioned to one of the elders to take over in my place, and I quietly stole away."

Man Tosses Nuns Rough Warning; Gets Sentence

OGDEN, Utah (AP)—Thomas Dawson, 39, says he was only trying to help when he threw a rock at two nuns.

He told City Judge Charles Sneddon he tossed the rock because the women were checking their gas tank to see if it was full and had just struck a match to see better.

"I wanted to warn them of the danger," he said. "It was quite a large rock. It missed the car and struck a man who was quarreling with his wife. The rock glanced off his head and through a grocery store window."

At this, Dawson said, the man got "upset and came over to make trouble."

Judge Sneddon sentenced Dawson to 30 days in city jail on a disorderly conduct charge.

To Launch New Rocket Next Week

WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUND, N. M. (AP)—Disappointed Navy scientists, despite a fizzle on their initial try, are planning another attempt at a new rocket altitude record next week.

The first production model of the Aerobee-HI plunged to earth in the southern New Mexico desert yesterday after its main motors had failed to fire.

The booster mechanism blasted the research vehicle to only 18,000 feet before it turned its nose down and hit the ground just a mile from the launching tower.

John W. Townsend, Naval Research Laboratory scientist in charge of the launching, said pending analysis of yesterday's failure, the Navy still plans to fire an identical rocket here next Tuesday.

He indicated that next week's shot might lose its connection with the earth satellite program. He said he will consider removing from the rocket's instrument layout a preliminary version of the so-called Mini-track transmitter which will be used in radio tracking of the satellite when it is launched during the International Geophysical Year starting in 1957.

The scientists said he may consider removing other instruments to "get all there is to get," out of the firing.

Just what caused the failure will not be known until after a close inspection of the rocket. Townsend said the main rocket motor never did start and preliminary examination of debris indicated there may have been a failure in the fuel system. He said more research and better design obviously are needed.

Cost of the abortive shot was estimated at $107,000.

Newsmen and photographers outside the blockhouse had been warned the impact area of the booster mechanism might be uncomfortably close and they were warned to be careful.

Seconds after the booster mechanism disengaged from the rocket, the firing range loudspeaker system boomed an emergency order: "The rocket is coming back, all hands, take cover in the blockhouse." Many of the observers (Continued on Page Four)

Demo To Head Ike Committee In New Mexico

SANTA FE (AP)—A Democrat will head New Mexico's Citizens for Eisenhower Committee in the coming campaign.

Richard E. Spurrier, former state geologist, confirmed he was appointed by Gen. Reed Kilpatrick, chairman of the national Citizens for Eisenhower Committee.

Spurrier described himself as something along the line of an Allan Shivers Democrat, referring to the Texas governor who supported Eisenhower in 1952.

"Sure, I'm a Democrat," he said and when asked whether he thought it unusual for a Democrat to be picked to head the committee backing the Republican Eisenhower, he replied: "It's a good hower, he replied: 'It's a good Spurrier was state geologist during the Dempsey-Mabhy administration, both of whom are Democrats, and during the Republican Mechem administration.

He said he was not committing himself to Republican principles, but was merely for Eisenhower.

"You know how it is among Democrats—there are liberal and conservative ones and some of the latter are more conservative than the former Republicans," Spurrier said.

"We don't know who the Democratic nominee is going to be until August. I'm not for Harriman, for Stevenson or for Kefauver. I can tell you that for sure. I'm not against anybody, I'm just for President Eisenhower."

Spurrier now is a consulting engineer with his own business. Roswell oilman Robert Anderson, a Republican, headed the Ike group here in 1952.

Boyle Tells What He Learns Through Mail

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail: That the British Parliament first banned professional boxing in 1743.

That Joe Lewis earned $4,626.72 in 1954 during his years in the ring—and probably doesn't know himself where the 69 cents went. That the late Young Strubling scored the most knockouts in ring history—127.

That one of the real hard-knock fighters of history was Sam Langford ("The Boston Tar Baby"), who fought 244 times and knocked out 98 men—and never held a title in his life.

That while the active life of a boxer is supposed to be only slightly longer than that of a television comedian, 53 men have fought 20 years or more. The record is held by Daniel Mendoza, who quit in 1820 after 35 years. Bob Fitzsimmons, who hung up his gloves after 33 years, is second.

Roselawn Student Council Elects New Officers

At a regular meeting held this week at Roselawn school Joe Madrid was elected president of the Elementary Student Council for the month of May. Serving with Madrid are Junior Villa, vice president, and Leo Sanchez, secretary. Mrs. Kathryn Downey is faculty advisor for this month. Tee Council is made up of two classroom representatives elected each month. Past officers become members-at-large.

For the last project of the school year, the Council has chosen "Promoting Good Manners" with particular attention being given to manners of a good audience and good manners in the school cafeteria.

At yesterday's meeting Mrs. Downey's first grade class presented a short dancing program while two groups of Council members demonstrated two kinds of audiences, good and bad. At the close of the program, the ill-mannered, inattentive audience discovered that their rude manners had prevented their seeing any of the program and asked for a repeat performance.

An all-school spring program planned for this Friday prompted the Council's decision to stress manners of a good audience. The representatives take suggestions back from the Council meeting to their classmates.

A poster contest has been announced by R. M. Stinnett, principal, in connection with the second part of the project. Any Roselawn student may enter an original poster illustrating good manners in the school cafeteria. There will be first, second and third prizes awarded for winning posters.

Council representatives will bring suggestions for improving student manners in the cafeteria, from their classmates and teachers, to the next weekly meeting Tuesday. Two committees were set up, headed by Helen Baca and Wayne Savoie, to study recommendations made and to bring them before the student body. The committees will work with teachers, students and cafeteria workers.

Navy's first atomic-powered sub is named. To recreate sets and inventions conceived by the famed French novelist, producer Disney nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

The Buena Vista release features the most extensive water footage ever seen on screen. These sequences were filmed on location at Nassau, Bahamas Islands, where the crew worked 30 feet below the surface of the Caribbean. Following two-month stretch, another two months were spent on the Burbank studio to create the epic film. Richard Fleischer, directed from a screenplay by Paul Smith's music is a highlight of the lavish feature. The score is a ringing theme, "A Whale of a Tale."

Honorable Virgil O. McCollum
Carlsbad, N. M.
Dear Sir:

Although I have expressed my appreciation to you verbally for the assistance I want to further express myself in writing as I want you to know that we in New Mexico appreciate your efforts in support of the veterans' legislation. I feel that we are indebted to you for the efforts you put forth in winning approval of legislation directly affecting them and their families. I am now a member of the Veterans Preference Committee on the National Committee as well as Employment Chairman for the Department of New Mexico this year, and I certainly appreciate the services you have rendered to the New Mexico veterans.

Sincerely yours,
James A. Tadlock,
Past Department Commander

AN ABLE LEGISLATOR

... (Representative Virgil) McCollum is an able man and a sound thinker on the problems of New Mexico. If there is anything needed in the House, it is men with common sense and a good grasp of state affairs. There were too many peculiar representatives with even odder ideas in the last session. That was the chief criticism of the House. If it hadn't been for some cooler heads, like McCollum and Anderson Carter of Portales, we shudder to contemplate what might have emerged from the House.

Good men like McCollum are not easy to come by in the House. By and large, Eddy County has furnished New Mexico with some of the Legislature's ablest men. We'd like to see it continue that way.

Reds Appear As Friendly Neighbors Among Nations

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—One thing showing through the busy burst of bustling at the Moscow airport this week when everybody who is anybody in Russia kissed Premier Bulganin and Communist party boss Khrushchev.

surprising. The British Socialists had needed Khrushchev into blowing his top. And their talks with Prime Minister Eden were not, according to reports, overly successful.

Instead, as soon as they alighted from their plane they gave a friendly nod toward the British Isles and then turned their full gaze on the United States like two traveling salesmen getting ready for a new customer and hardly able to wait.

If the United States and the Soviet Union both show good will, Khrushchev said, they can make a lot of progress in developing trade and cultural relations and solving the disarmament problem.

These two men, Bulganin and Khrushchev, with their trips to Yugoslavia, Asia and Britain, have gone to a lot of trouble to make Russia look like a friendly neighbor on the street of nations.

There is danger of underrating them. It is usual in this country to be suspicious and even scornful of the Russians. The suspicion is natural since Khrushchev himself has said Communism's aim remains the same; to communize the world.

But scorn is out of date. The Russians are no longer backward. They are next to this country in industrial development. They may pull ahead. And in the past couple of years they have shown initiative and imagination.

What effect they're having with their new tactics may not appear for a year, or five years or a decade. In this country the habit is to judge the success or failure of foreign policy in terms of months or at the most four years.

Every four years the administration, Democratic or Republican, has to justify its foreign policy before the voters. But time has a different meaning for the Russian leaders. They are not answerable at any given moment to the Russian people.

And, since they operate on the theory that communism will win out in the end, they can take their time. Bulganin and Khrushchev are moving fast but they still don't act like men in a rush.

Marilyn Not Sexy As A Corporation

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Is Marilyn Monroe sexy? As a girl, yes. As a corporation, no.

So says Barbara Nichols, latest addition to the siren ranks.

Now offhand you might think that Barbara Nichols' criticizing Monroe is akin to a rookie's telling Ted Williams how to bat. You could be right. But the qualifications for being a starlet include an ability to speak brashly. "I think Marilyn is making a mistake becoming a corporation," she said. "There's something unfeminine about a girl going into business. I think men resent it. It places the girl in a position of competing with them."

This probably won't cause Double-M to abandon Marilyn Monroe Productions, Inc., but Barbara was serious about her opinion.

"I suppose stars have to incorporate themselves," she remarked. "That seems to be the only way they can save any of the money they make. But I think it destroys their glamor to go into business."

She vowed that she would never become Barbara Nichols, Inc. "I'm not interested in money," she claimed. "I'm only interested in finding a husband."

She explained that she was all of 23 and still hasn't wed. Nor does she have any prospects.

I feel certain that this situation will soon be remedied. Barbara's assets are too noteworthy to be overlooked. As a matter of fact, Hollywood is now taking advantage of them in movies.

She was a reddish brunette when she attended high school in Jamaica, Long Island, N. Y. where she got good grades, so she's really neither dumb nor blonde.

Her career led her to the chorus line at New York's Latin Quarter to the Broadway revival of "Pal Joey." A bit on Sid Caesar's show brought her the role of a stripper in "Miracle in the Rain." Now she's playing a stripper in RKO's "Beyond a Reasonable Doubt."

But she claims she isn't being typed. Next she plays a gangster's moll in "The Best Things in Life

El Paso Edges Clovis To Hold Share In First Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Clovis Pioneers rallied for five runs in the top of the ninth Wednesday night, but it wasn't enough, and the El Paso Texans edged them 11-9 to hold onto their share of the three-way tie for first place in the 10-team Southwestern League.

The co-owners of the league lead, Hobbs and Plainview, each with nine wins and six losses along with El Paso, beat Roswell and Carlsbad, respectively. Hobbs defeated Roswell, 13-10, and Plainview edged last-place Carlsbad 13-12.

In the other two games, San Angelo decisively beat Ballinger, 5-4, and Midland swamped Pampa 18-5.

The teams remain in the same places Thursday night, Midland at Pampa, Carlsbad at Plainview, El Paso at Clovis, Hobbs at Roswell and San Angelo at Ballinger.

Jerry Dale went the route on the mound for El Paso and took his second win of the year. He had no trouble in the first eight innings. Then four Clovis hits and two walks gave the losers five runs before Linc Boyd filed out to left field.

Hobbs and Roswell banded 31 hits and used up eight pitchers. Hobbs sacked up the game with seven runs in the ninth. There were five homers, two by Hobbs' Dan Dobbek and one each by Tom Jordan and Bobby Fernandez and Alva Alvarez for Roswell.

At Plainview, shortstop Frank Tornay homered with two on in the bottom of the ninth to hand his mates their win. Up to that time, Plainview trailed as much as 9-2. Then it got three runs in the eighth before Tornay powered his circuit blow.

Gene Houradou walked with the bases loaded in the 11th at Ballinger to give San Angelo its decision. The visitors rallied three times but never got ahead until the final frame. Jodie Phipps was credited with the victory, his third in four starts.

Midland banded 22 runs to swamp Pampa in that three-hour tilt. The visitors staged a 14-run seventh inning to salt away the game.

Slow Derby In Prospect For Saturday Due To Bad Weather

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A slowly run Kentucky Derby Saturday was a possibility today as the weatherman threatened to confuse even contenders in a come-from-behind performer and an early speed horse is hard to find.

A pair of rank outsiders, who'll run as an entry, were the first to be entered today for Saturday's running of the $125,000 added Kentucky Derby.

Twenty-seven minutes after the entry box was opened at 7 a. m. Felix P. Aime, stable agent for trainer V. R. (Tennessee) Wright, dropped in the name of T. A. Grissom's Invalidee, considered one of the speed horses of the expected field of 18. He followed with the name of Grissom's Reaping Right, Louisiana Derby winner.

"Both will go regardless of track conditions," said Wright. The racing strip still was muddy this morning.

Minutes later, W. E. Britt's No Regrets, California Derby winner, was entered.

The Churchill Downs racing strip was still sloppy this morning from yesterday's intermittent rains. The weatherman forecast more of the same tonight.

At least seventeen 3-year-olds and possibly one more were expected to be entered for the 82nd running of the mile-and-a-quarter classic. That would mean a record-shattering purse of $167,400 with a net of $123,300, also a new high, going to the winner.

Actually, the field will be reduced by at least one regardless of track conditions. And it could well be that another owner or two will change his mind about posting the $1,250 starting fee after paying $250 to enter. He has until 45 minutes before post time to make up his mind.

Trainer Syl Veitch said C. V. Whitney's Career Boy, one of the favorites, will not be in the post parade if the going is muddy.

Odie Clelland wants no part of the race for Mrs. Helen Kellogg's Come On Red if the racing strip is fast. And there is a possibility Jimmy Jones will withdraw Pintor Lea if the track is real bad rather than risk a more serious injury of a wrenched knee, which had threatened to keep him out of the Derby.

Withdrawal of Pintor Lea would place the burden for a sixth Derby triumph by the Calumet Farm, now owned by Mrs. Gene Markey, on Fabius, winner of the Derby Trial Tuesday.

Almost to a man the experts forecast a slow first half, with none of the well-regarded horses willing to set the early pace and then a cavalry charge through the last quarter-mile.

One thing is sure, they'll be watching Needles, the 2-1 favorite from the Florida-owned D. & H. Stable of Bonnie Heath and Jack Dudley, when he starts running from behind at the top of the stretch.

A rich gingerbread makes a wonderful dessert when served hot with stewed apples and whipped cream.

Sauer Suffers Concussion When Bat Slips

ST. LOUIS (AP)—"The bat just slipped."

This was all Walker Cooper could bring himself to say in explaining the freak accident which felled veteran Hank Sauer of the St. Louis Cardinals before last night's game with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The 37-year-old Sauer suffered a severe brain concussion, a three inch cut of the lip and his left ear was almost torn off by the flying bat which struck him as he stepped out of the batting practice cage.

Dr. I. C. Middleman, club physician, said he took 12 stitches in Sauer's lip, about 50" on the ear. He also did plastic surgery on the ear.

Middleman said preliminary X-rays indicated no skull fracture but Sauer will remain in the hospital for observation.

It was a typical pre-game scene. On the first pitch, Cooper's bat slipped and struck Sauer in the head. The angular 6-foot-4-inch slugger collapsed.

"What happened?" he mumbled, the quickly slipped into unconsciousness. He was carried away on a stretcher.

No one could say whether the bat flew between the cage netting and its supporting pole or barely cleared the cage completely. The latter was considered most likely. It was a one-in-a-million accident.

Benching Team's Star Slugger Worked Wonders With Sox

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Benching the team's star slugger may not sound like good managerial strategy, but it's worked wonders for Birdie Tebbe's of the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Ever since big Ted Kluszewski was benched, the Redlegs have been on a diet of home runs and victories, with five roundtrippers coming last night as they blitzed Brooklyn's faltering Dodgers 10-6 for their sixth consecutive victory.

The skein has lifted the club from the basement to a 7-5 mark with the leaders of the scrambled National League race.

Wally Post, the major league leader with 8; George Crowe, big Kluz's "temporary" replacement; Ray Jablonski and Gus Bell were the home run heroes last night as the Redlegs ran their record to 17 homers in their last six games.

The modern Murderer's Row stole the headlines from the New York Giants' 6-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs in 17 innings, on Paryl Spencer's sacrifice fly, and a 10-9 victory over Pittsburgh that sent the St. Louis Cardinals to the top of the National League. Cincinnati and Milwaukee trail by a half-game and the Dodgers and Giants by a full game. Philadelphia and Milwaukee were not scheduled.

In contrast, pitching was the oassword in the American League with a pair of youthful right-handers, Detroit's Frank Lary and Tom Brewer of Boston supplying all the answers.

Lary knocked the New York Yankees out of first place and blanked the New Yorkers until the 11th inning, coasting to an 8-1 victory behind a 15-hit attack. Brewer went Lary one better as he shut out Kansas City in hanging up a three-hit, 2-0 victory.

The Chicago White Sox, whose 5-2 record gives a better percentage (.714) than the Yanks (.692), were rained out at Baltimore and Cleveland was washed out in Washington.

The Giants established a record when they sent 25 men into action against Chicago. The old mark of 24 players was set by Pittsburgh against Boston in 1940 and tied by Brooklyn against New York April 21, 1948.

The Cubs threw 23 men into the fray and the combined total of 48 also was a major league record. Spencer was the big man for the Giants as he tripled and scored one run, blasted a two-run homer and sent home the winner with his fly.

Stan Musial bagged a grand slam home run for the Cards, but it was a squeeze bunt by light-hitting Alex Grammas that eventually won for the Red Birds in the 10th over Pittsburgh.

REPAYMENT APPROVED
SANTE FE (AP)—Atty. Gen. Richard Robinson says it is all right for the city of Clovis to reimburse 22 residents for bond money they put up to secure a site for an airport.

The residents posted $10,000 to hold a site for an airport because the city was without funds.

In a surprising show of strength yesterday the young Bulldogs held Carlsbad 2-2 until the fifth inning when the Cavemen scored seven runs on two hits to beat the Bulldogs 9-2.
