Mrs. Louisiana 2012 Has Local Ties — Michelle DesOrmeaux Merrill poses in her crown and sash.

Lafayette Native Named Mrs. Louisiana

By Megan Wyatt

Lafayette native and resident Michelle DesOrmeaux Merrill, 32, will be competing in the 2012 Mrs. America Pageant after winning Mrs. Louisiana-America Pageant.

Merrill initially entered the Mrs. Lafayette Pageant on a whim because her husband, Robert Merrill Jr., was out of town.

"The night before is when I decided to be in it because I like doing crazy stuff like that," she says. "I was actually at Dillard's buying a suit at 8:30 the night before."

Her spontaneity, beauty and talent proved to be enough for the Mrs. Lafayette Pageant to sponsor her for the Mrs. Louisiana pageant, which she won in Hammond November 11.

What set Merrill apart from her competition is not just her beauty or athletic ability, she says. Merrill read a series of mental-management books by Lanny Bassham and his daughter, Heather Sulmlin, helped her train to win the Mrs. Louisiana pageant.

"(Sulmlin's advice) taught me how to control the interview the way I wanted it to go," Merrill said, "and she also taught me how to be confident and to keep a level mind and just stay focused throughout the day."

Merrill works as a fitness instructor at Red's and an adjunct fitness instructor for University of Louisiana. She graduated from St. Thomas More High School and UL. Tabasco Pepper Sauce will sponsor Merrill as she prepares to compete in the Mrs. America Competition.

"I'm going to continue training with Heather and I teach aerobics, so that's the fitness part of it right there, I don't have to change any of that right there, just keep focused," Merrill says.

The Mrs. America Pageant will be held May 7, 2012, but the location and time are to be determined.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Michelle is married to local resident Ella Faye Merrill's grandson, Robert Merrill Jr. Robert Merrill Sr. will be remembered by many ex-students, etc. Vanda Anderson-Draper

County's new congressman visits

By DON TABOR, Publisher

Callahan County's new U.S. congressman paid a visit Thursday.

Republican Mike Conaway, his wife, Suzanne, and aides Ricky Wright and Evan Thomas had lunch at the Whistle Stop Cafe in Baird and visited with fellow diners.

The Congressman said they were traveling to new counties added to his District 11 under recent redistricting. These include Callahan and several other nearby counties.

Conaway said these new counties pretty much reflect the conservative values of the counties which are already in his district. The Republican is in his fourth term.

He calls Midland home and is a CPA. He smiled and said he has kept his CPA license "just in case."

He currently serves on the Agriculture, Intelligence, Armed Services and Ethics Committees in the House.

He has authored "No New Programs" legislation in the House to change rules on spending to require that any new program be joined with the elimination of an existing program of equal or greater cost. He has also sponsored legislation to bring more accountability in government spending.

He has been interviewed twice on Fox Business within the past year on defense and government spending.

He visited Afghanistan in October of 2011.

How About a Farmer's Market?

Give us your opinion, we want feedback! The Cross Plains Chamber of Commerce "is considering the idea" of hosting a Farmer's Market and we want your ideas.

At the recent Strategic Planning Meeting it was suggested that a Farmer's Market might be beneficial for the community and we have heard of interest from several parties.

If you raise fruit, vegetable, herbs, flowers, produce of any kind, have meat, dairy or poultry products, animals, baked goods or crafts that you would like to sell at a farmer's market, please call or email us with your ideas and product information.

To decide if this is truly enough interest to host a market, we need to know how many participants or vendors we might have, what products would be available and what kind of time frame would be best. Would one Saturday a month be enough or would we need to alternate weekends and do two Saturdays a month? We know that plants and animals don't really work around anyone's schedule but their own.

so if you are a farmer, rancher, gardener, baker or crafty person with items to sell, we would like to hear from you. We may not be able to do everything the way everyone will want, but we will try our very best to do what fits the needs of our community.

If you would like to participate as a vendor or share your ideas with us, please call the Chamber of Commerce office at 254-725-7251 or email us at CrossPlainsChamber@yahoo.com. We look forward to hearing from

Captain Ed Freeman

You're a 19 year old kid. You're critically wounded and dying in the jungle somewhere in the Central Highlands of Viet Nam.. It's November 11, 1967. LZ (landing zone) X-ray. Your unit is outnumbered 8-1 and the enemy fire is so intense from 100 yards away, that your CO (commanding officer) has ordered the helicopters to stop coming in. You're family is half way around the world, 12,000 miles away, and you'll never see them again. As the world starts to fade in and out, you know this is the day. You look up to see a Huey coming in. But..It doesn't seem real because no MedEvac markings are on it. Captain Ed Freeman is coming in for you. Even after the MedEvacs were ordered not to come. He's coming anyway. And he drops it in and sits there in the machine gun fire, as they load 3 of you at a time on board. Then he flies you up and out through the gunfire to the doctors and nurses and safety. And, he kept coming back!! 13 more times!! Until all the wounded were out. No one knew until the mission was over that the Captain had been hit 4 times in the legs and left arm. He took 29 of you and your buddies out that day. Some would not have made it without the Captain and his Huey. Medal of Honor Recipient, Captain Ed Freeman, United States Air Force, died last Wednesday at the age of 70, in Boise, Idaho. May God Bless and Rest His Soul.

COTTONWOOD NEWS

BEVERLY BROWN

Straight Line Winds Claim Barn— The Terstegge's barn in Cottonwood was destroyed Monday, March 19th around 11:45am due to heavy straight line winds.

The wind came through Cottonwood and took away the Terstegge's barn on Monday morning. You can still see part of it as sheet metal is all over the field and in the trees. Cross Plains Volunteer Fire Department, the Sheriff's Department and volunteers from the Fire Control Group came to help with the debris and to free the car from what was left of the barn. Thanks for the quick response and for everyone who showed up to help.

There were reports of trees down in several places around Cottonwood from the high winds. Most of the rain gauges around Cottonwood reported about an inch from the heavy rain that fell. Fire Chief Joe has added to the menu for the "Day Before Easter Feast" at the Coonhunters event. Ham and pulled pork will be served, along with pork chops, brisket, sausage and chicken. And side dishes, dessert and iced tea. The barbecue dinner starts at 5 p.m. on Saturday, April 7th at the Cottonwood Baptist Church Family Center. The dinner which is only $6.00, benefits the Cottonwood Volunteer Fire Control Group. Stop by the firehouse before dinner and see all the coondogs that have come from all across Texas to Cottonwood for the coonhunt.

Cottonwood's own Eight Eighty East will perform at the Cottonwood Baptist Family Center during the brisket dinner.

It's always great to hear Sid and R.W. Bogue perform.

Easter Sunday is just around the corner—April 8. Make plans for Sunday morning services at the Cottonwood Baptist Church and fellowship dinner afterward. Bring a covered dish for the meal following the services.

Cottonwood T-shirts will be available at the next musical on Friday, April 6. The T-shirts read "Cottonwood Texas" in an oval on the front and come in a variety of colors. They are $15 for sizes S-XL and $18 for XL and XXL. Proceeds from the T-shirt sales benefit the Cottonwood Community Center. The musical starts at 5:30 p.m. and the kitchen area opens at 5 p.m.

BREAKTHRU

By Charles Chesshir
Cross Plains Church of Christ

Where is the Breaking Point?

For thousands of years, advanced civilizations; those with written language and civil governments have recognized a basic truth about law and order. No government, no matter how powerful, can govern, rule, or police an immoral people. That simple truth has been clearly stated and recognized by the founding fathers of our government. For government to stand, there must be an overwhelming majority of people willing to do right. The men and women who fled the tyranny of Europe and came here defined "right" as: Men and women providing for their families; Never accepting something that wasn't paid for; Rejecting sexual promiscuity, and Disciplining children to be obedient.

Willing to do right; implies a standard of right and wrong. As Americans lose their moral compass, they no longer can define right and wrong. For over 50 years our major universities have been overtaken by liberal moral liberators, who not only have blurred the lines of right and wrong, but succeeded in erasing it from public discussion.

Paul eloquently foretold the fall of the Roman civilization and our own Western Culture. Romans 1:2B "Furthermore, since they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, He gave them over to a depraved mind, to do what ought not to be done." What can we do? "Act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with your God." Micah 6:8

Pioneer Quilting Club News

Marqueta Westbrook

Hello to everyone! The last few weeks have been busy ones and seem to have flown by. We have been meeting every Tuesday to quilt and visit together. We finished Barbara Jo Medley's colorful pin wheel quilt last week. It is pretty. I have a quilt in the frame now. It is a very old scrap quilt that is pieced in little strips and was made in the 1930's or 40's. We also have a lap quilt to work on.

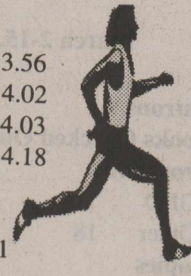

We have missed Lou Grider the last few weeks. She fell and broke her hand and we all hope she is doing well. It will be nice when she can join us again. Another of our members, Mary Dean, has been in the hospital and we hope she gets better soon. Our thoughts are with both these ladies.

The rain has been wonderful. The bluebonnets are beginning to bloom and my rose bush is full of buds. I love this time of year. All of the colors and shapes make me think of quilts. We welcome any visitors to our club on Tuesdays. If you would like to learn to quilt we would love to teach you. If you just want to come visit we would love that, too.

Big County Top Ten

By Evan Ren
Abilene Reporter-News

Big Country Top 10

1. Hayden Lewis, pitcher, Sr., Cisco baseball—Tossed a no-hitter in a 9-0 district-opening win over Hawley, with nine strikeouts against three walks in seven innings of work. In recent years, Cisco has become known as the football school, but I'm here to tell you that the CHS boys basketball and baseball teams are beginning to forge their own identities.

2. Brandon Gill, pole vaulter, Sr. Eula boys track—Took gold at the Piper Relays in Hamlin with a 15-foot vault.

This was a personal best for Gill and shattered his own school record of 14-3 that he set while winning the regional meet last year.

Gill is a National Merit Finalist and will compete for Dartmouth next year in the Ivy League.

3. Rosa Salazar, 132-pound class, Sr., Cross Plains girls powerlifting—Took third in the state meet in Corpus Christi, with a three-lift total of 645 pounds.

Salazar squatted 265, she benched 135 and deadlifted 245 in the final meet of her high school career.

4. Mackenzie Barefoot, pitcher, Sr., De Leon softball—Was 2-for-4 with three RBIs in a win over Ranger and earned a complete-game win in the circle with 12 strikeouts.

Barefoot was one of five Lady Bearcats who had multiple hits that day.

5. Hunter Enloe, outfield, So., Jim Ned baseball—Was a combined 6-for-8 through two games last week, with a double, two triples, a steal and an RBI from the Indians leadoff spot.

Jim Ned enters this week at 6-8 overall and 1-1 in District 5-2A.

Jolyn Zarate, 181-pound class, Fr., Coleman girls powerlifting—Only a freshman, Zarate is already demonstrating an ability to perform under pressure.

Zarate, who placed second at the regional meet despite being ranked fourth, came up big in last week's state meet as well—placing fourth despite entering the meet ranked sixth.

Lifting a combined total of 790 pounds, Zarate squatted 310, benched 145 and deadlifted 335.

7. Ambra Hill, shortstop, Sr., Big Spring softball—Was 4-for-4 with a homer and three runs scored in a 14-4 win over Lubbock Estacado.

She nearly repeated that effort in Big Spring's district opener against Sweetwater, going 3-for-4 with another homer in an 11-7 win.

8. Ricky Stark, pitcher/infield, Jr., Eula baseball—Tossed five innings to earn a complete-game victory in a 17-2 run-rule win over Baird, allowing just two hits while striking out nine.

Stark was 2-for-3 with a homer in the Baird game, and followed that up with a 5-for-5 performance with a double and three RBIs in a win over Albany three days later.

9. Monica Maldonado, 123-pound class, Sr., Comanche girls powerlifting—Placed seventh in the state meet in the AA division to cap a successful three-year career.

Maldonado, who didn't begin powerlifting until her sophomore year, earned her first regional berth as a junior before qualifying for the state championship in 2012.

10. Braden Williams and Jake Walters, shortstop/second base, Seniors, Bangs baseball—Nearly every good baseball team is solid up the middle and Bangs is no exception.

This defensive combo combined for 15 assists last week in wins over Dublin, Wall and Hico, with two important double plays and five put outs.

They also reached base a combined 11 times, with four runs scored and three RBIs to push the Dragons to 13-0 on the year in 3-0 in District 6-2A.

Honorable Mention—Austin Bartlett, pitcher/shortstop, Jr., Eula baseball (three-five-hitter with five Ks in win over Albany); Haley Dimidjian, outfield, Jr., Big Spring (Was a combined 7-for-8 with seven runs scored vs Lubbock Estacado and Sweetwater); Clay O'Dell, pitcher, Sr. Jim Ned baseball (three a one-hit, five-inning shutout vs Clyde with nine strikeouts); Blake Stembridge, pitcher/infielder, Sr. Bangs baseball (Tossed three-hit ball through five innings in a 3-1 win over Wall with eight strikeouts); Aaron Keller, pitcher/infielder, Jr., Bangs baseball (Tossed a shutout vs. Hico with 11 Ks); Elisa Moreno, catcher, So., De Leon softball (2-for-3 with a double and three RBIs vs Ranger); Jordan Coan, outfield, So., De Leon softball (Was 3-for-5 with a double and three runs scored vs Ranger); Lauren Casey, first base, Sr., De Leon softball (Was 3-for-5 with a double and an RBIs vs Ranger); Michelle Teague, third base, So., De Leon (Was 2-for-5 with three RBIs vs. Ranger); Mason Reed, pitcher, So., Cisco baseball (Tossed a three-hit complete game shutout vs Clyde, with eight Ks. Also had two-run double); Lance Morris, catcher, Jr., Ira (combined 4-for-7 with three RBIs vs Levelland JV and O'Donnell); Austin Cullifer, outfield, Fr., Ira baseball (Combined 4-for-7 with a triple and four RBIs vs. Levelland JV and O'Donnell); Jared Cotton, pitcher, So., Ira baseball (Was 3-for-5 with four RBIs and two runs scored vs. O'Donnell).

To be considered for Big Country Player of the Week, athletes must be nominated by their coaching staff. Coaches are invited to submit nominations for all varsity sports to Evan Ren via e-mail at rene@reporternews.com or via telephone at 325-676-6711. Deadline for nominations is each Monday.

Big Country Player of the Week recognize players outside the Abilene city limits who are within the newspaper's circulation area. Players from Abilene High, Cooper, Wylie and ACHS are not eligible.

Kiwanis Guest Speaker — Cross Plains Kiwanian, Arnie Smith, is pictured with his guest speaker Mindy Estes. Mindy spoke to the Kiwanis recently about her trip to Romania to visit a shelter for young women who have been rescued from sex trafficking. This is an ongoing ministry Mindy has been a part of through Make Way Partners. She has made a trip the past two summers and had an opportunity to go again in January. She was able to spend a little more time bonding and developing a relationship with the girls who have experienced horrific abuse. She mentioned her desire to speak to churches and other civic groups to create awareness of the global problem of sex trafficking. Come join with Kiwanis each Tuesday at 7:00am at Jean's Feed Barn.

Rising Star Nursing Center

Dona McIntire

Well, hello to everyone. It is official, we are OPEN again!!! We are all so glad to have our residents back with us. What a time we had getting everything ready and then when they came back — all of the unpacking, etc., etc.

We would like to welcome back Kathy Davis as our DON and also to welcome aboard Heath Gowin as one of our night nurses.

All of our residents are good to go and are anxious to get back into the fold of things like we used to do them. St. Patrick's Day was fun and we had a party. We will have our Casino Day this afternoon and our Country Store will be next Wednesday. I think they missed the Country Store the most, so we will keep you posted on their buying habits next week.

With having fewer residents, we have not been able to recall of our employees but hope to do this in the near future. In the meantime, everyone is pulling together, helping out in different departments to see that the residents are taken care of. It's been a learning experience for all of us, we're learning from each other.

So, till next time may God bless and keep you.

Cross Plains Public Library to Host Local Author Book Signing

The Cross Plains Public Library will hold a book signing by local author K-Trina Meador on Saturday, April 7th, from 1-5 p.m. at the library.

Born in Jacksonville, Florida and raised in Cross Plains since she was four years old, K-Trina Meador is the youngest of five children. Growing up in a small town and being raised on a seventy-acre farm gave her an appreciation for country life and the small town community.

K-Trina has completed her first novel, Journey to Freedom, which is set amid the tumultuous backdrop of the American Civil War. It chronicles the harrowing misadventures of two star-crossed lovers through nineteenth century America, battling violence, prejudice, and the inherent struggles of their time.

You can read the first four chapters of the book on her website www.kmeador.com.

Stop by the library, meet K-Trina, purchase a copy of her book and get her autograph; mark your calendars for Saturday, April 7th between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m.

Fish Fry this Saturday at Clyde Woman's Club

The Clyde Woman's Club seventh annual Fish Fry will be held this Saturday, March 24th at the Clyde Woman's Club Building located on South First and Rusk Streets in Clyde.

This year's fish fry will be held from 11:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. Advance ticket prices are $7.50 for adults and $3.50 for children 3-12 years of age. Ticket prices at the door for the day of the fish fry are $8.00 for adults and $4.00 for children 4-12 years of age.

Clyde Woman's Club project chairwoman Dot Burson said this year's fish fry will include the usual menu items, including all-you-can eat fish, Word Estes' famous pinto beans, french fries, hush puppies and homemade cole slaw. Water and sweet or unsweetened tea will also be served. Club members will also provide homemade brownies included in the meal, however it is not all-you-can-eat.

Those attending may dine in the day of the event or takeout orders will also be available.

Tickets for this year's fish fry are available at Estes Real Estate, First Financial Bank-Clyde, First National Bank-Baird/Clyde, the Clyde Journal or from any Clyde Woman's Club member.

The Clyde Woman's Club will again provide meals to both nursing homes in Clyde and Baird, courtesy of First Financial-Bank, First National Bank-Baird/Clyde and Bailey-Howard Funeral Home.

Proceeds from this year's fish fry will go toward the upkeep of the Clyde Woman's Club building.

The Clyde Woman's Club Fish

Fry Committee is made up of the Executive Board of the Woman's Club, the Board of Directors and the Building Maintenance Committee.

According to Burson, the annual fish fry is one of only two fund-raising projects held annually by the Woman's Club. She said the other fund-raiser is the annual Tour of Homes every December, and proceeds from that fund-raiser go toward two $1,000 college scholarships presented to two Clyde High School senior girls.

The Woman's Club representative said many area businesses and individuals help to keep the fish fry costs down thanks to their generous donations and they wish to give out a special "thank you" to those businesses and individuals. Texas Landowners own groundwater

Kathleen Hartnett White

On February 24, Texas landowners won a historic victory for their ownership of the groundwater in place below the surface of the land. In this landmark decision, Edwards Aquifer Authority v. Day, the Texas Supreme Court ruled that landowners have a real property right in groundwater protected from regulatory (takings) without just compensation under Article 1, section 17(a) of the Texas Constitution.

In this case, landowners Burrell Day and Joe McDaniel claimed that regulation by the Edwards Aquifer Authority (EAA) had so denied them of the use of the groundwater below their land that the Authority's restriction amounted to a compensable taking of private property protected by the Texas Constitution.

Rejecting the claims of the EAA and, in part, of the State the Court agreed with the landowners: Groundwater rights are property rights subject to constitutional protection whatever difficulties may lie in determining adequate compensation for a taking.

The Court remanded the case to District Court to factually determine whether Day and McDaniel were constitutionally entitled to financial compensation.

This decision resolves a question about ownership of groundwater that has remained unsettled throughout more than a century of Texas Supreme Court rulings on groundwater rights. Simply stated, that question asks who owns the water (in place) below the land, the groundwater residing under the surface before it is pumped to the surface and captured.

In Day, a unanimous Court replied that under Texas common law, the landowners own the groundwater just as they own the oil and gas below their property.

The Court noted that, under Texas law, the landowner is regarded as having absolute title in severalty to the oil and gas in place below his land. The only qualification is that it must be considered in connection with the law of capture and is subject to police regulation.

The Court held that this rule also correctly states the common law regarding the ownership of groundwater in place.

The Court rejected a commonly held view that the rule of capture, long recognized in Texas law, precludes ownership of groundwater in place. The Court in Day found that the rule of capture defines the method of exercising the landowner's property right and is a protection against liability for drainage, but does not define the scope of the ownership right itself.

Day also neatly resolves what many construe as a vexing question about how to apportion multiple landowners' interests in shared groundwater resources. Day notes that existing regulation of groundwater, just as existing regulation of oil and gas, already has created and now apportions correlative rights to these shared underground resources.

Unusually, Day aligns Texas common law with statute and carefully extends the meaning of legislation enacted through the recent 82nd Texas Legislature which similarly re-affirmed Texas landowners' legal interest in groundwater as real private property rights.

Questions about groundwater rights have become increasingly contentious over the last 10 years. The rapid growth of regulation through local groundwater districts and new laws to establish long-term aquifer management through regulatory rubrics such as desired future conditions and managed available groundwater are not readily consonant with a landowner's rights.

The unprecedented intensity of the droughts of 2009 and 2011, however, heighten the urgency of reconciling the conflicting needs for more conservation and more development of groundwater, both somehow necessary to meet the inexorable demands of the growing Texas population.

Legal uncertainty surrounding groundwater has stalled key legal and financial decisions about the state's water supply. While the Supreme Court's decision does not necessarily provide easy answers to these complex but unavoidable questions, Day clearly answers the fundamental question about groundwater ownership at the center of current policy disputes.

By making groundwater ownership legally equivalent to ownership of oil and gas, the Court's ruling attaches a highly developed body of common law, statute, and regulation to inform landowners and regulators. The Court's comprehensive ruling breaks a major legal logjam in Texas water law.

Most importantly, the Texas Supreme Court in Day reminds the state and local regulators that the financial burden of upholding a landowner's constitutionally protected ownership of groundwater is no excuse for denial of those rights recognized through more than a century of Texas law. We are lucky to live in a state where our Supreme Court is willing to resist the rising tide of the times toward more government control and less individual liberty.

Thank you to the Texas Supreme Court for re-affirming that our state constitution, just as our national constitution, was written to protect individual rights from the government's encroachment of those rights.

More Out-Of-State Visitors To The Howard Museum — Minnesotans Halley Georgeson and Shad Petosky tour the Robert E. Museum.

Yo Gabba Gabba Visits Howard Museum

Ask any small child about Yo Gabba Gabba and he or she will probably immediately tell you all about DJ Lance Rock, Foofa, Brobee, Muno, Toodee and Plex.

The popular children's television show on Nick Jr. features live action with real artists and real performers. Currently airing in six countries, the delightful program was the dream of two young fathers who wanted something more educational for small children. It was first aired in 2007 and has been gaining momentum ever since.

Such is the professional association of recent visitors Shad Petosky and Halley Georgeson of Minneapolis, MN. Shad is animation supervisor and Halley is a producer of the show.

It's not all that much of a stretch to relate to the creative genius of the show and the creative writings of Robert Howard. Both make full use of their imaginations with made up characters, locations, action and story lines.

Gabba Gabba has Foofa and Plex while Howard had El Borak and Soloman Kane.

Petosky is familiar with most of Howard's writings and, along with the scholarly crowd that regularly attends Howard Days, appreciates Howard as a Texas writer. Although he has many of the publications in the Museum Shop, he found a few more to add to his collection.

Both Shad and Halley have worked in a number other areas in art, comics and technology in the Los Angeles area where they are currently living. Interestingly enough, they also know artists who have worked on Howard publications.

The couple was in Texas to attend the South by Southwest annual technology, film and music festival in Austin along with 250,000 other "techie's". The Austin Convention Center will certainly be wired for the 10 day run.

Project Pride Seeks Designs for Postal Cancellation

Who will submit the winning design for the upcoming Robert E. Howard Days postal cancellation? Project Pride invites all creative type folks to put their thinking caps on and start doodling. The cancellation, which will be available at the local station on Friday, June 8, is quite a time consuming process and thus, the early start.

Howard Days 2012 will be celebrating the 80th birthday of Conan, one of the most well-known characters created by Howard at the old Underwood typewriter in the little white house that is now the Robert E. Howard Museum. The Conan stories began appearing in the pulp magazines in 1932, just four years prior to Howard's death in 1936. The postal cancellation, which will be sent around the world from our local post office, may depict any type of birthday celebration design related to Conan.

The design must be 2 3/4 by 1 1/2 inches in a horizontal lay-out with "Robert E. Howard station"

"June 8, 2012" and "Cross Plains, Texas, 76443" incorporated into the design.

Entries must be submitted by March 29 to:

Project Pride
PO Box 534
Cross Plains, TX 76443
or e-mail to ProjPride@yahoo.com.

Cross Plains Area Genealogy Society News

By Donna King Irby

The Cross Plains Area Genealogy Society will meet at 1:00 p.m. on April 2, at the Cross Plains Public Library. We want to invite all who love genealogy and family to come!

We will have a 1940's Census Party to celebrate the release of the 1940 Census. We will look at images for the Cross Plains area. This census will have more information than past ones. One exciting detail is that it will list the identity of the person who gave the information. (Now we will know who is responsible for that horribly incorrect information, if there is some!)

We would like to remind folks that we have note cards for sale at the library with pictures of historical significance for Cross Plains on them; great for showing support and love of Cross Plains!

In celebration of the Cross Plains centennial, we are still accepting applications for the Cross Plains First Families Certificates for any ancestor who moved to the Cross Plains area before 1920. If you are interested, please obtain forms and instructions at the library or from one of the members of the Genealogy Society. You don't have to be a member of the Cross Plains Area Genealogical Society to apply.

Tumbleweed Smith Wins State Media Award from the DAR

San Antonio, TX—On Saturday, March 10, at the Texas Society Daughters of the American Revolution State Conference, Tumbleweed Smith was honored as the Texas Media Award recipient. This award is presented to an individual who has contributed greatly to American culture within the historical educational, or patriotic objectives of the National Society.

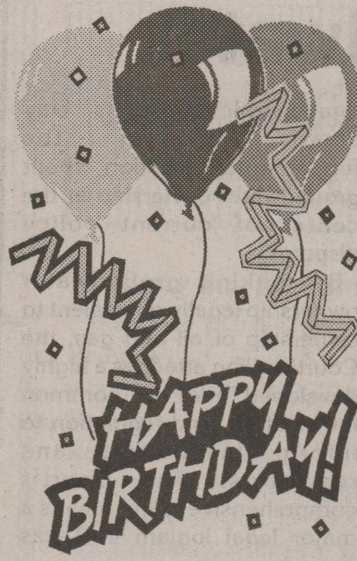

Tumbleweed epitomizes such an individual, producing THE SOUND OF TEXAS, which has aired for more than forty years on radio stations across Texas. Tumbleweed reports on how Texans have fun. The subject matter of his daily syndicated show covers history, folklore, legends, small towns, unique events, storytellers, musicians, artists and characters of all ages. His collection of nearly 11,000 programs is one of the largest private collections of oral histories in the country.

In addition to his radio program, Tumbleweed writes a weekly syndicated column for newspapers and magazines. He has received two Telly Statuettes for video documentaries, two CLIO advertising awards and two Freedoms Foundation Medals. He has produced a dozen CD's and two books on Texas humor and culture.

He has spent decades (since 1969) creating a precious resource of the tales, lore and wisdom that capture the unique spirit and flavor of Texas. He has a BA in English from Baylor and a MA in Journalism from the University of Missouri. Tumbleweed taught broadcast production and speech for 34 years at the University of Texas of the Permian Basin in Odessa. He lives in Big Spring with his wife Susan.

The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution was founded in 1890 to promote patriotism, preserve American history, and support better education for our nation's children. Its members are descended from the patriots who won American independence during the Revolutionary War. With more than 165,000 members in approximately 3,000 chapters worldwide, DAR is one of the world's largest and most active service organizations.
