C.P. Library's Third "Pushing The Limits" Event Planned for April 4th

The Cross Plains Public Library's third event for Pushing the Limits, a pilot project to explore ways for all of us to push the limits using science and technology, will be Thursday, April 4th. We will meet at the Senior Citizens Center at 6:30 p.m. for a light supper and start the book discussion at 7:00 p.m. Participants are reading the book Thunderstruck by Eric Larson for the Connection part of the four-part series sponsored by the National Science Foundation. The book combines technical history with the story of murder, as Guglielmo Marconi's invention of the wireless telegraph parallels the true-life search for one of Britain's most notorious serial killers. Marconi's technology eventually allows people on both sides of the Atlantic to listen in as Scotland Yards tracks and captures the villain.

A video interview with the author, Eric Larson, will be shown along with a human interest story of a woman pushing her limits in communication using scientific ideas and principals to make connections in her life.

Everyone is welcome to join us for the thoughtful and interesting discussion, even if you haven't read the book, that is generated by subjects that produce a new way to explore science. The topics of Nature and Survival were the first two events presented by the library as a new gateway for science learning in our community and had an average audience of thirty people.

Easter services at Methodist Church begin on Thursday

The first of the special Easter celebration services at the Methodist Church will be Thursday at 6:00; commemorating the last supper that Jesus spent with his Disciples. Holy Communion will be served at this service and folks are reminded that all are welcome at the Lord's table.

The Good Friday service will also be at 6:00 on Friday and will focus on the last words of Christ. This somber service of remembrance will end with the removal of the symbols of worship from the altar. Only the cross will remain, draped in black until Easter morning. Worshipers will leave in silence, pondering the magnificent sacrifice that Jesus made on our behalf.

Coffee, juice, resurrection rolls and other goodies will be available at the church following the sunrise service at the pavilion nears Bubba's BBQ. Other early risers are invited to share in this time of fellowship also. The refreshment table will again be open for those who would like to visit over a cup of coffee before the glorious Easter service starts at 10:45.

A warm invitation is extended to those who may not have a regular church home and are looking for a place to worship and to celebrate the Risen Christ.

More information about these worship opportunities at the Methodist Church may be obtained by calling the church at 725-7377 or via e-mail at fumcrossplains@gmail.com

Pioneer Historical Association Semi-Annual Cemetery Board Meeting

The first semi-annual meeting of the Pioneer Historical Association and Cemetery Board will be held at 6:00 p.m. on April 8, 2013 at the Dairy Queen in Cross Plains, Texas.

If at all possible, board members should be in attendance and visitors with family ties to the Pioneer Cemetery are especially welcome.

Lou Brooks
Secretary

April 1st is almost here. This year is going by so quick. We are fast approaching the date for the Cottonwood Historical Association Annual Meeting on the first Saturday in May which is May 4th. The Old Post Office is getting a fresh coat of paint. And there's clean up work going on around the community.

The next Cottonwood Musical is Friday, April 5th. Taco Salad, sandwiches and dessert will be served in the kitchen. The musical starts at 5:30 p.m. at the Community Center.

Carol and Wallace Bennett have visitors this week from Georgia. Chaplin (Ret.) Wayne King and wife, Jane, will be with them for two days, on their way to and from their alma mater, Baylor University, and Oklahoma, to see a basketball tournament. (They are radical Baylor fans!) The Bennetts and the Kings became friends when stationed at Ft Hood in 1969 and for a period of time after Wallace retired from the

Cross Plains Area Genealogy Society Meeting Scheduled for April 1st

The Cross Plains Area Genealogy Society will have a meeting on April 1st at 1:00 p.m. in the Conference Room of the Cross Plains Public Library. We will have a short business meeting and then have open discussion about our research. Please bring your latest finds about your family tree to share. If you have research questions we will see what we can do to help you make progress climbing your family tree!

Army chaplaincy, living in Arlington, Carol and Wallace were "overseeing" Jane and their children while Wayne was in Vietnam. The Kings are both Master gardeners and one of their volunteer activities is helping with a community garden in their town. Wayne was a Baptist chaplain. They'll be sharing many wonderful memories during their visit.

So nice to talk with Ethel Champion and Clare McInnis, both former Cottonwood residents, this week. They both wanted to be sure that I told everyone "hello".

The Cottonwood Volunteer Fire Control Group is looking for photos, stories, history-or any remembrances that you'd like to have included in the 25th Anniversary book. Give me a call at 254-725-7369. We'd like to have everything in by April 8th.

The Burn Ban is still on. No outdoor burning or welding of any kind. Be extremely cautious doing work outside.

State Water Funding Important to Callahan County Residents

State water funding has been a priority issue in Austin during the 83rd session of the Texas Legislature, and members of the Texas House and Texas Senate are drafting legislation to allocate money to future water projects across the state.

"Callahan-Shackelford County farmers and ranchers rely on adequate water supply to ensure they can continue producing food for the region and beyond," said Sam Snyder, president of Callahan-Shackelford County Farm Bureau. "We understand that our fellow community members need access to water, too."

The Texas House Natural Resources Committee has approved a bill that would allow $2 billion from the Texas Rainy Day Fund to go toward water projects like new reservoirs, pipelines, desalination plants and conservation projects.

According to the bill, water projects would be selected based on a points system, which accounts for overall need and community's involvement in the project. The current bill requires 10 percent of funds be allocated to projects in rural communities.

The House Natural Resources Committee unanimously approved the bill. The Texas Senate also is working on a similar bill. The House and Senate versions will need to be reconciled before legislation is final.

Senior Citizens Take-Out Orders

The attendance at the Center is growing every day and we are very excited about it, but with growth, we sometimes have to make some adjustments. One adjustment will be take-out orders. To eliminate waiting time, of both dining in and taking out, we will fill take-out orders at 12:15. We appreciate your support and willingness to help us work through our growing pains.

Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten Screening

Parents are asked to register their children who will enter Pre-Kindergarten next Fall. Cross Plains Elementary offers Pre-Kindergarten to all children who will be four years of age on or before September 1, 2013. Pre-Kindergarten will be offered if a sufficient number of four year olds register for the program.

It is important that students register as soon as possible in order to plan classes for 2013-2014. Class sizes for Pre-K may be limited.

Students who will be five years of age on or before September 1, 2013 are eligible for Kindergarten. Kindergarten is a basic part of the Cross Plains School system and the service is available to all students. If your child is currently enrolled in Pre-K at Cross Plains Elementary, you will NOT have to go through the screening process. If your child has not been enrolled in Pre-K, and will be attending Kindergarten in the Fall, please register for screening.

Early childhood screening will be conducted at the same time as regular Pre-K and Kindergarten screening. The early childhood program is a program to help those children ages 3-5 who show to be developmentally delayed or have a suspected disability.

Early Childhood, Pre-K and Kindergarten screening will be conducted Thursday, April 11, 2013 at the Cross Plains Elementary School. Please call the Elementary Principal's Office at 725-6123 to make an appointment for your child. The screening will take about sixty minutes. Each student's hearing, vision, speech, motor skills, language ability, and developmental growth will be evaluated at this time. Parents will be given a report on their child's progress at the time of the screening.

Parents are reminded that, in order to enter school in Texas, the student must have a state approved birth certificate, social security card and a current immunization record.

Immunization Requirements:
Hepatitis B---3 doses by age 4
DTaP---5/4 doses with one on or after 4th birthday
Polio---4 doses with one on or after 4th birthday, 3 doses if 3rd dose given on or after 4th birthday
Measles/Mumps/Rubella (MMR)---2 doses with 1st dose on or after 1st birthday

Varicella---2 doses on or after 1st birthday

Hepatitis A---2 doses with the 1st dose on or after 1st birthday
Please bring the birth certificate, immunization record, and social security number of the child at the time of registering. Also, you will be asked to complete the National School Lunch Program information form on the day of pre-registration.

Callahan County youth invited to summer leadership conference

High school students in Callahan-Shackelford County who are interested in developing the values of citizenship, patriotism, capitalism and leadership are invited to attend Texas Farm Bureau's (TFB) 50th Annual Youth Leadership Conference June 17th-21st at Tarleton State University in Stephenville, Texas.

"We are pleased to sponsor local students to attend this conference, where they learn more about the cornerstones of our country—the U.S. Constitution and our free enterprise system," said Sam Snyder, Callahan-Shackelford County Farm Bureau president. "These are values that we must pass down to future generations."

Youths will hear from energetic speakers and participate in engaging activities that will help them prepare for leadership opportunities in their schools, churches, communities and later, the workforce.

Qualified participants must be entering their junior or senior years of high school in August and be ranked in the top 30 percent of their class for academics. If selected to attend, the student will receive a full scholarship for the event.

Youth Leadership Conference attendees also are invited to participate in TFB's Free Enterprise Speech Contest. Contestants must deliver a six-minute speech in the community at least five times to qualify for the district competition. District winners will compete during the TFB Annual Meeting in San Antonio in December.

Free Enterprise Speech Contest scholarships will be awarded at the following levels: district winners, $1,500 each; four finalists, $2,000 each; runner-up, $3,000; and winner, $6,000. In addition, the district winners will have the opportunity to travel to Washington, D.C., with TFB representatives.

Students interested in participating in the Youth Leadership Conference or the Free Enterprise Speech Contest should contact the Callahan-Shackelford County Farm Bureau office at Baird. Applications are due by May 1.

For more information, visit www.texasfarmbureau.org, select "Youth Opportunities" under the "Youth & Education" section and then click on "Youth Leadership Conference."

"Love"

If I can speak eloquently and sing like an angel, but don't love others, I sound like a sounding brass or prolonged clanging noise. If I'm bright and considered brilliant, and can answer all the hardest bible questions or understand cutting edge computer systems but don't love others, I am nothing.

- Love*---Will stand in line and wait its turn
- Love*---Is friendly and looks for the good in others
- Love*--Doesn't always demand their own way
- Love*--Doesn't envy another's better fortune
- Love*--Is polite, even when the other person is rude
- Love*--Doesn't get angry over small things
- Love*--Doesn't remember reasons to keep a wrong to be hurt
- Love*--Doesn't delight when someone else fails but delights in the truth
- Love*--Will always protect others, especially those who are made fun of or teased
- Love*--Always believes the best about others
- Love*--Hopes all things, endures all things

*Only three things really matter in life
Faith, Hope and Love
But the Greatest of these is Love!*

HAPPENINGS AROUND THE STATE

Amazon Announces Texas Job Locations

AUSTIN, TX (Austin American-Statesman)—Barry Harrell—Nine months after it struck a deal with the state to bring thousands of jobs and invest millions of dollars in Texas, online retail giant Amazon.com unveiled the first steps toward keeping its end of the bargain. It will build three fulfillment centers in Texas, creating about 1,000 jobs. The new facilities will include a 1.2-million-square-foot site in Schertz, northeast of San Antonio; and two sites in the Dallas-Fort Worth area—a one-million-square-foot center in Coppell and a 1.1-million-square-foot facility in Haslet.

The centers in Schertz and Coppell will handle the shipment of larger items, Amazon said. The Haslet center will ship smaller items like books, small electronics, or DVDs, the company said. "We look forward to putting more than 1,000 Texans to work at our new fulfillment centers in Schertz, Coppell, and Haslet," said Mike Roth, Amazon's vice president of North American fulfillment.

Call Center to Add 1,000 Jobs PHARR, TX (Harlingen Valley Morning Star)—Convergys plans to hire 1,000 new full-time customers service representatives at its Pharr call center, nearly quadrupling the number of employees there. The call center company fields customer service calls for clients including DirecTV, Macy's, and Cigna, a health insurance company. "Our client has asked for more bodies in that call center," said Brook Belting, the media relations specialist for Convergys.

The call center, located in the El Centro Mall at 500 N. Jackson Road, staffs workers 24 hours a day, seven days a week. It will not expand in size; instead they will add more seats to the existing building. Pharr City Manager Fred Sandoval says he learned last year that the company would likely be expanding, but he didn't expect such a large jump in hiring.

Tenaris Building Steel Pipeline Factor

BAY CITY, TX (San Antonio Business Journal)—James Aldridge—Pipeline company Tenaris S.A. said the company will build a one-million-square-foot steel pipe manufacturing factory in Matagorda County that will serve companies in the energy industry. Once the plant is completed, Tenaris will have the capability of producing 600,000 tons of pipe annually. The company will hire 600 people to work at the pipe mill.

The state kicked in $6 million from the Texas Enterprise Fund to help lure the company to Bay City. Tenaris expects the total capital investment from the plant to be between $1.3 billion and $1.5 billion. Tenaris will sell pipe to companies that transport oil and gas. Governor Rick Perry said, "The most profound statement about our favorable economic climate comes when companies like Tenaris make an investment of this size in our state."

Officials OK Power Plant East of Harlingen

HARLINGEN, TX (Harlingen Valley Morning Star)—Federal and state environmental officials have given approval for a 690-megawatt electric power plant to be built just east of Valley International Airport. La Paloma Energy Center will cost more than $500 million and take about two and one-half years to build, a spokeswoman for Plano-based Coronado Power Ventures said.

Rick Carouth displays Fire Gear donated by 3M—Sincere thanks goes out to 3M of Brownwood for donating twelve sets of turnout gear for the Cross Plains Volunteer Fire Department. The turnout gear consisted of helmets with face shields, coats, pants, boots, gloves and hoods. Pictured is Chief Rickey Carouth with some of the gear that was donated.

Sheriff Terry Joy Issues Appeal to Citizens in Fight Against Crime

Responding to the increased number of citizens wanting to assist law enforcement officials and build a stronger partnership in the fight against crime, Sheriff Terry Joy today announced that Callahan County Citizens are being invited to become Associate Members of the Sheriffs' Association of Texas.

Membership invitations will go out in the mail over the next several weeks. Associate Member funding allows the Sheriffs' Association of Texas to provide critical training, technical resources, and legislative support on key criminal justice issues to law enforcement officers across the state.

In addition, dues will be used to support crime prevention and awareness programs, promote public safety, fight drug abuse, provide additional training for sheriffs and their deputies, and provide scholarships for children of law enforcement officers.

Contributions to the Sheriffs' Association of Texas are tax-deductible.

"The Associate Membership Drive helps provide the funding which is vital to our mission of making our communities safer places to live, work and play," said Sheriff Joy.

The Associate Membership Program was created to provide citizens with an opportunity to lend their support to more effective law enforcement and to better help local Sheriffs protect the lives and property of citizens.

"During these economic times, the need for building stronger public-private law enforcement partnerships continues to escalate, and programs such as this continue to grow in importance," said Sheriff Joy. "I encourage every citizen receiving a membership appeal to consider joining forces with us by becoming an Associate Member. It is a valuable investment in our future."

Citizens not receiving a membership appeal or desiring more information can contact the Sheriffs' Association of Texas at:

1601 S. IH-35,
Austin, Texas 78741
www.txsheriffs.org

Founded in 1874, the Sheriffs' Association of Texas is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit professional and educational organization dedicated to the preservation of peace and the protection of the lives and property of the citizens of Texas. Mr. Steve M. Westbrook serves as the Executive Director. Headquarters are located in Austin, Texas. The Sheriffs' Association of Texas does not make solicitations by telephone. If you receive a phone call from someone who uses the Sheriffs' Association of Texas name, please report it to your local Sheriff or County/District Attorney.

Proper tree planting for Earth Day

Don't Bury Me: A hole dug too deep is a sure way to kill a tree. Earth Day and Arbor Day are coming soon - in April. Celebrate the wondrous benefits of trees and make a wise investment by planting a shade tree in your yard! But before you plant, take some advice from the experts to help your new tree live a long time. "Too often, consumers waste hundreds of dollars on trees that will die because they were planted too deep," cautions Tchukki Andersen, BCMA, CTSP* and staff arborist with the Tree Care Industry Association (TCIA). "Proper planting is absolutely essential for the success of a transplanted tree," says Andersen. "Using quality plants and following up with good tree care practices, such as watering, pruning and fertilizing, will not save a poorly planted tree. The most common mistake is planting the root ball too deep," she says. Homeowners can purchase trees packaged in three common forms:

•Bare-Root plants may be sold with the roots tightly packed in a moisture-retaining medium that is wrapped with paper or plastic, or with roots loosely covered by a moist packing medium. Roots must be adequately moistened prior to planting. Roots are spread out evenly in the hole when planting.

•Balled and Burlapped (B & B) trees are moved with a ball of soil protecting their root system. Soil balls are heavy, so professional arborists who have proper equipment should be hired to plant large trees. Smaller B & B trees should be carried with a hand under the ball. Carrying a B & B tree by the stem or branches can result in serious root damage. When planting, carefully remove the top layer of soil down to the first structural root. Set the root ball in the hole, position the tree, then remove twine and nails. Remove or fold back burlap from the upper third of the root ball.

•Container-Grown trees have the advantage of a root system that is relatively undisturbed at planting, but beware of "pot-bound" container trees. Do not buy container trees that have a large amount of roots completely circling the inside of the pot. These trees will take a long time to get established after planting because the roots have difficulty growing beyond the thick ring of circling roots. Immediately before planting container trees, prune the any circling roots. Root pruning can cut up to 50 percent of the roots in container trees but this is still sufficient to permit plant establishment. This compares with pruning about 10 percent or less of the root system being transplanted with B & B trees. Always remove the container prior to planting.

Andersen advises consumers to follow these planting guidelines:

- Measure the height and diameter of the root ball or root spread.
- Dig the hole just deep enough to allow the first structural root to be at level grade. The hole's diameter should be two to three times the diameter of the root ball or root spread.
- Set the tree on undisturbed solid ground in the center of the hole. The tree should be planted so that the root flare, the base of the tree trunk where the roots begin to "flare-out," is visible and above grade.
- Backfill with soil from the planting hole, using water to pack or settle the soil around the root ball. Do not tamp soil by stepping on it.
- Mulch the planting area with 2 to 4 inches of an organic mulch such as wood chips. Do not mulch up to or against the trunk. Start the mulch 6 inches away from the tree trunk.
- Trees should be pruned after planting to remove only broken, damaged, diseased or dead branches.
- Stake and/or protect the trunk of the tree if there is a real potential for wind damage or lawn mower injury. Remove the guy wires (string, rope, wire or other used with supports) when the staking is no longer needed or the tree could be injured or even killed from girdling by the wire.
- One to three years after planting, prune to develop a good branch structure once the tree has become established in its new home. Never remove more than 25 percent of total foliage in one year. (Depending on the tree and its condition, some arborists advocate capping pruning at even a lower percentage).

•Fertilizing is not recommended at the time of planting.

What can you do? A professional arborist can assess your landscape and work with you to determine the best trees to plant. Contact the Tree Care Industry Association (TCIA), a public and professional resource on trees and arboriculture since 1938. It has more than 2,000 member companies who recognize stringent safety and performance standards and who are required to carry liability insurance. TCIA has the nation's only Accreditation program that helps consumers find tree care companies that have been inspected and accredited based on: adherence to industry standards for quality and safety; maintenance of trained, professional staff; and dedication to ethics and quality in business practices. An easy way to find a tree care service provider in your area is to use the "Locate Your Local TCIA Member Companies" program. You can use this service by calling 1-800-733-2622 or by doing a ZIP Code search on www.treecaretips.org.

New York lawyer visits Museum — Michael Bell, who now has a private law practice in New York, left his boyhood home in McAllen and headed to Columbia University immediately after high school graduation. Recently visiting family in McAllen, he decided a "side trip" to Cross Plains was in order to see where one of his favorite writers had lived.

Bell has collected Conan comic books since Roy Thomas was publishing them in the 1980's. He stated that he owned all of the series of Del Rey books which have been published in the past few years. He especially likes the western stories with the many characters Robert created. He said he would really like to have a copy of "Gent From Bear Creek."

He was really impressed with the restored home and the original Howard things on display. He purchased some t-shirts and other items from the gift shop as well as making a nice donation to be used toward the continuing upkeep of the Museum.

Statewide Internet Use on the Rise, But 31% of Residents Don't Subscribe

Austin, TX—Connected Texas today released new data on broadband adoption in Texas just as the state prepares for next month's digital inclusion conference at the University of Texas at Austin. The latest data shows broadband adoption is increasing, with 69% of residents now subscribing to broadband service, up from 62% in 2011.

"Texans are clearly moving toward embracing the amazing educational, professional, and quality-of-life benefits that high-speed Internet provides," said Connected Texas Executive Director Don Shirley. "But, while we saw a seven percentage point increase in household adoption since 2011, the newest research shows us a digital divide is beginning to leave certain Texas populations behind. We're working hard to address broadband access, adoption, and use across the state so that every resident has the opportunity to access the limitless benefits that broadband provides."

The data are available via an interactive widget on the Connected Texas website.

Among the key findings of the residential survey are:

- Despite the numerous benefits of broadband, 31% of, or approximately 5.7 million, Texans still do not subscribe to home broadband service.
- There remains an adoption gap between rural and non-rural regions of the state as 58% of rural Texans subscribe to home broadband service, compared to the 69% state average.
- Despite the statewide growth

Connected Texas annual survey reveals 69% of residents now subscribing to broadband service, up from 62% in 2011 in home broadband adoption, not all Texas residents are subscribing at the same rate. Only 37% of Texas low-income households have broadband service and only 56% of Hispanic adults in Texas subscribe to broadband.

- The top reasons for Texans not subscribing to home broadband are:
- 15% say they don't want it
- 13% say broadband fees are too expensive

This survey is conducted in support of Connected Texas' efforts to close the state's digital gap and explores the barriers to adoption, rates of broadband adoption among various demographics, and the types of activities broadband subscribers conduct online, among other findings.

While the results show adoption is increasing, there are still 5.7 million adults (31%) in Texas not connected to the empowering technology of high-speed Internet. To address this digital divide, Connected Texas offers the Every Community Online program where it offers free digital literacy training and low-cost computers and Internet access. Connected Texas is also co-hosting the conference, Digital Inclusion in Texas, April 26-27, 2013, in Austin. Registration for the event is already underway.

Connected Texas' 2012 residential survey was conducted last summer and includes responses from 1,202 residents. The survey was conducted as part of the State Broadband Initiative (SBI) grant program, funded by the U.S. Department of Commerce, National Telecommunications and Information Administration, and by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009.

About Connected Texas: Connected Texas is a subsidiary of Connected Nation and operates as a non-profit in the state of Texas. The Texas Department of Agriculture is leading the initiative to increase broadband Internet access, adoption, and use across the state. Connected Texas was commissioned by the state to work with all Texas broadband providers to create detailed maps of broadband coverage and development of a statewide plan for the deployment and adoption of broadband. Swedish visitors explore kitchen in Howard Museum — Swedish visitors above (left, Pontus Hammarberg, Markus Toivonen and Tobias Mollstam), were fascinated with the old gas stove in the Museum and just had to check out the oven to see if it would hold a turkey! Decided that a small cake might better fit.

The trio were driving from Austin to San Francisco for a computer game conference. All of them are involved in developing games; their most popular game being "Mind Craft." Markus is also a graphic artist, doing a variety of illustrations for the computer industry. Interestingly enough, Pontus is a former medical doctor; leaving that profession for the more relaxing career of developing computer games.

Markus was the Howard fan of the trio, although the others were interested in the museum as such. Markus has read most of Howard's numerous genres, having come into his writings through the Conan paperbacks with the Frank Frazetta covers that were so popular, and now quite valuable and sought after.
