Street Paving May Become Reality

Many Take Advantage Of Dollar Bargain Offer

P. W. A. Engineers Here Friday For Check-Up

According to J. E. Minyard, City Secretary, P. W. A. Engineers will be here Friday in a preliminary survey to determine the cost and feasibility of a cache base and hard topping on Silverton streets. In case the project is laid out and accepted, workers will be furnished by W. P. A., with a cash grant from P. W. A.

Councilmen have expressed themselves individually and as a body as favoring the paving work, if ways and means can be found to finance it. They think that the city will be able to handle the paving of one third of the streets, if the property owners are willing to pay for the third in front of their holdings. The cost for property owners will be somewhere around $1.50 a running foot. For the paving in front of a 25-foot lot, then, the cost to the owner would be $37.50.

The thing of whether or not we get the paving, is now up to the property owners. If they are willing to meet the small assessment, then the work is almost assured. Steps will be taken as soon as the engineers have turned in their report, to find whether or not the owners favor the improvement. The logical time for outlining such a job is NOW, while there is federal aid to be gotten for the asking. Think this over folks—and tell the councilmen that you favor the work. The benefit will be far greater than the cost. Owners of vacant property will find that their property has increased in value as much or more than the assessment. It is IMPERATIVE, however that property owners commit themselves one way or the other, say the councilmen.

FUNERAL HELD FOR MRS. MARY E. BEGEMAN

Tribute was paid to the memory of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Begeman, 83 years old, in funeral services conducted at Boxwell Brothers Funeral Home in Amarillo, by Rev. C. C. Grimes, Pastor Polk Street Methodist Church, Monday afternoon, July 4, at 3 o'clock, followed by burial in Llano cemetery, with the Order of the Eastern Star Chapter of Dumas, officiating.

Mrs. Begeman was a resident of Moore County. She had been in poor health for some time. She died in the Lubbock Sanitarium, Saturday, July 2.

Obituary
Mary Elizabeth Crew was born in Ray, Ohio, March 29, 1855. When a small child she moved with her parents to Missouri. She was married to H. C. Begeman, at Montgomery City, Mo. To this union were born three children, one of whom died in infancy. The surviving children are: Roy Begeman, Dumas, Texas; and Mrs. W. Coffee, Jr., Silverton, Texas. She also leaves one grand-child, Evelyn Coffee.

Mr. Begeman preceded her in death in 1913. Mrs. Begeman was a faithful member of the Methodist Church, also of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chapter of Dumas.

Mrs. Begeman, through all her suffering, remained true to her faith in God, and was patient and kind through it all. She was a devoted Christian and a most devoted mother. Her greatest joy was in serving Christ and making others happy.

Pall bearers were L. D. Morton, Noel McDade, Vernon White, J. V. Mills, Edgar Coble, and Jack Coffee.

Our Mother
Rest Mother, rest.
We fold thy quiet hands upon thy breast
Thy gentle heart, so good, so pure, so wise,
Full of true love, full of self-sacrifice.

Sleep, Mother, sleep.
Thy children, bitter sorrowing,
around thee weep,
Recalling all thy tenderness and truth;
Thy loving care, guarding their careless youth;
Thy sweet example, showing thou hast trod
Daily, that narrow path that leads to God.

Sleep, Mother, sleep.
Each child bears now his burden and his cross,
Each his soul's secret tale of gain or loss.
Each must pursue alone his earthly way,
Hoping to meet thee once again—
one day,
When his Heaven and Earth have passed away.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our many friends for the many kindnesses, words of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings you so graciously gave to us in the recent bereavement of losing our dear mother and grandmother.

May the richest blessings of Heaven rest upon each and every one of you, is our humble prayer.
Roy Begeman,
Mr. and Mrs. W. Coffee, Jr.,
Evelyn Coffee.

Mrs. Seay Moves Station
Owing to the change made when Manley Wood bought the Force Feed Store, Mrs. Jessie Seay has moved her produce house to the corner building formerly occupied by the Hatchery.

Maps Again
Will call for those 1938 every farm in the county. If you who think you are a farmer, or who expect to buy cotton this fall are not in a map showing farming operations. Be sure on this map all measurements, your name, address name and any other information which you think may be of use in figuring your farm. We are ready for you NOW!

Grasshoppers
A few reports of hopper coming in. Now that the all over and harvest is over we should find time to hopper a little trouble. There will be plenty of poison that can be had very cheap. Do not neglect your farm and grasshoppers to eat up your crop. 'Twon't be to kill the things—but have to put out something else or they won't die.

Weddings in Amarillo
The wedding of Miss Evelyn Coffee and Mr. Roy Begeman will be held at 8 o'clock on Monday, July 11, at the home of Mrs. W. Coffee, Jr. The bride will be attended by Miss Margaret Call, Miss Anne Jansen and Miss Margaret Girl. The matron of honor will be light aqua blue taffeta or wore light aqua blue taffeta in Colonial style, and the bridesmaids' frocks were of the same style in rose taffeta the little flower girl's dress was of the same style in blue and white. COMB - NORRID

Miss Johnnie Comb of Lubbock, and Mr. Henry Norrid of Silverton were united in marriage at 10:00 A. M. Sunday, June 26, in the First Methodist Church in Lubbock.

Mr. Norrid is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Norrid of Silverton. He graduated from the Los Angeles, California High School in 1936 and attended Texas Tech this past year. He is a very likeable and business like young man and friends with everyone who knows him.

While Mrs. Norrid is unknown to Silverton folks, the fact that Henry has chosen her for his wife, is recommendation enough. She also, attended Texas Tech the past year.

The newly-weds are making their home in Clarendon. Silverton friends wish them all the happiness in the world.

DAVIS - BROWN

A quiet marriage ceremony was observed here Sunday, July 3, at 2:00 p. m., when Miss Edythe Davis became the bride of Mr. Durward Brown. Rev. John Thorns performed the ceremony at the Presbyterian Manse.

Mrs. Brown has lived in Silverton for over a year and has been employed at the King Beauty Salon. She has made many friends in Silverton, with her charming and friendly manner.

Mr. Brown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Roy Brown and is a native of Silverton. He is a graduate of Silverton High School, and since his graduation in 1934, has been associated with his father in the hardware store here, and this past year became manager of the furniture department.

The young couple are at home to their many friends in Silverton, where they will make their future home. The Briscoe County News joins in wishing them a long happy life together.

MISS RUTH FORD BECOMES BRIDE OF JACK WRIGHT

From the Seattle Times and the Post Intelligencer we take the following excerpts, dated June 23:

In an impressive ceremony last evening in the Church of the Epiphany, Miss Ruth Alberta Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dwayain Ford, became the bride of Mr. Jack Arvin Wright, son of Judge and Mrs. Clyde Wright, of Silverton, Texas. A setting of white gladioli peonies and roses were used for decorating the church. The Rev. George A. Wieland officiated at the 8:30 o'clock service.

The bridal party entered to the traditional wedding marches played at the pipe organ by Mr. Bernard Barnes. The bride wore white satin made in princess style, and lovely veil with rare lace insets. Her flowers were white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. She entered with her father.

The bride was attended by her brother's wife, Mrs. Dwayain K. Ford, matron of honor, Miss Boyd Call, Miss Anne Jansen and Miss Margaret Girl. The matron of honor wore light aqua blue taffeta in Colonial style, and the bridesmaids' frocks were of the same style in rose taffeta the little flower girl's dress was of the same style in blue and white. The bride carried Colonial bouquets.

Mr. D. K. (Dick) Ford, brother of the bride was best man. Ushers, (See "CUPID" on Page 10)

HIGHWAY 86 ASSOCIATION TO MEET AT TULIA TUESDAY

The Highway 86 Association will meet at the Swisher County Courthouse in Tulia, Tuesday, July 12, at 2:30 p. m. All those interested in the development of good roads in this section are urged to attend the meeting. The Association has been working for a long time trying to obtain work on Highway 86, and at last it seems that this hard work is bearing fruit. It is imperative, that we show as much interest as possible in the Association and its work.

There are several interesting topics to be taken up at this meeting and among the things to be discussed are the extension of Highway 117 south from Claude to intercept Highway 86; and the completion of Highway 86 itself.

Are you a member of the Association? Well if you are interested in road development, you are an automatic member, whether you are a business man, farmer, rancher, or preacher. And you are invited and expected to attend the meeting, July 12.

TO THE VOTERS OF JUSTICE PRECINCT NO. 1

I take this means of announcing my candidacy for the office of Justice of the Peace for Precinct One. I have lived in this county for many years and have held the office of Justice of the Peace here and in other counties and feel that by my experience that I am qualified to discharge the duties of the office.

If elected to this office, I will administer the affairs of the office without fear or favor. I will do my best to see each voter personally, but if I fail to see you I want you to consider this a solicitation for your vote and influence on my behalf.

J. N. MORTON

HIDDEN BATTLES

During the naval conflict between the Monitor and Merrimack, some soldiers on the shore stood watching the struggle. The cannonade was visibly raging with redoubled intensity; but to their amazement not a sound was heard by them. A strong wind was blowing away from them. They could see the flash of the guns and the clouds of white smoke arising after each discharge, but not a single report was audible. The effect was exceedingly strange. It seemed a picture of a battle rather than the reality. This flashing and moving panorama continued to fascinate their gaze until sunset, when the wind suddenly falling, the roar of the cannonade burst upon them in thundering reality. Some of the direst battles of life are fought in silence in the secrecy of our hearts. This will be our thought in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning, Vesper Services at 7 o'clock p. m.

WOOD BUYS STORE FROM P. B. FORCE

Manley Wood has purchased the Force's Feed and Grocery Store on the south side of the Square, and took charge of the place Monday morning.

Wood has been located on the west side of the Square for some time and has combined the two stocks, which gives him a pretty nice store. He will continue handling feed, seed, and groceries and also has the cream station there. The place will be known by the old name, Wood Grocery.

Mr. Force, who has been in business in Silverton for a little over a year, has announced no plans for the future. He is making his home in Silverton for the present.

Finley White and sons, Albert and Arliss left this morning for College Station where they will attend the Short Course. They expect to travel on down about Galveston and do a little intensive fishing.

Jones Here

Congressman Marvin Jones, of Amarillo, who has been home from Washington, D. C., for only three weeks, stopped in Silverton Tuesday morning while enroute with friends to Paducah. He spent about an hour here visiting acquaintances and old friends. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hardin of Amarillo.

In a short interview Mr. Jones said that he had high hopes that the dam on Red River would be speeded up somewhat, inasmuch as he was making a special request that work go forward on it as soon as the survey is completed instead of waiting for the complete survey of the many projects on Red River. He said that from reports by engineers, that the dam in Briscoe County was virtually assured.

Mr. Jones has had very little time to campaign for himself this year, owing to the extra work at the National Capitol, but intends to see as many of his friends as possible between now and July 23rd. Jones has perhaps obtained more legislation favorable to the farmers of this section, than any man in the National Congress today.

$150 IN PRIZES TO PARADE WINNERS AT TULIA

Walter Tomlinson and his board of managers of the 48th Annual Celebration of Swisher County's birthday July 15 and 16, have allowed the largest purse for prizes in the mammoth parade July 15, ever offered in the county and probably larger than any other city of like size.

$150.00 have been allotted for this purpose, Grady Briggs, chairman of the Parade Committee and his co-workers, Monroe McGlaun, Weldon McFarling, and I. C. Sprague have divided this amount in the following sums:

Winners in the general entry, 1, $50; 2, $30; 3, $20. Novelty winners: 1, $7.50; 2, $5.00 and 3, $2.50. The parade committee has requested that the general chairman select out of town judges and to keep their identities unknown to the parade committee.

The mammoth parade, designed to depict 48 years of Swisher County progress, will form at the west end of Broadway, near the Santa Fe Station at 9 o'clock A. M. At 10:00 o'clock the parade will proceed eastward along this street reaching the Square, where it will pass around the Square and on through the business section of Tulia.

The Silverton Band has been invited to enter the parade and band contest, and to help furnish music for the big celebration.

Mr. Force, who has been in business in Silverton for a little over a year, has announced no plans for the future. He is making his home in Silverton for the present.

Cranberry Allred, Sports Editor

Entered as second-class mail matter at the post office at Silverton, Texas in accordance with an act of Congress on March 3, 1879.

Taxation is the art of plucking from the goose the largest amount of feathers with the smallest amount of squawk.
—Speaker Henry T. Rainey

I HEREBY RESOLVE—that this line shall remain in the Briscoe County News until our city managers start a little constructive work toward surfacing our streets, or at least until the death of Yours True-ly. Dated this 9th day of June, 1936. (I've been wanting to know for a long time, how long a Notype slug will last.)

I GUESS I SHOULD drop that opening paragraph about the paving. It looks like now, that something is to be done, or at least attempted. The thing is right back in the property owners' laps. In other words property owners on the proposed streets must share a third of the expense. Now don't get excited for the owner's part on the work would be something less than fifty dollars on a 25-foot lot. The improvement will be worth many times that. The City is anxious to collect just as much back taxes as possible—if you are behind, give them a hand and let's get some work done here.

YOU CAN'T GET a West Texas man down. Take the case of Watson Douglas. He said he had 80 acres that didn't look like it was worth cutting. But was he buffaloed? No sir! Not he. He said he was having to replant it, but is still expecting a good yield.

MILTON PERRY has gone modern in a big way. He has a new lawn mower to mow the courthouse grounds—and it is keen. It is power driven and all Milton does is to keep up with it. And now he is hurting pretty bad because there is no seat on it.

AN OLD BOY was telling me of a convention he attended several years ago. He said that at that time many maidens sought his favor and even intimated that he was quite a lady's man. Well to go on with this story, he said he got acquainted with an old boy who was fat (but not pleasingly fat like Yours Truly) and forty, and upon whom the damsels looked with askance. But this gentleman had a redeeming feature—he had money, and he had a case of Canadian whiskey. And, said my windy friend, "With my personality, and his Canadian whiskey, we really went to town." (Name of said party given upon request.

WE OLDER FOLKS, are somewhat prone to say that the college boys are pretty wild—too much drinking and carousing around. Well Cranberry Allred and Harley Redin spent the Fourth in Brownwood, and there were about twenty Tarleton boys and girls there in a get-together. — And according to the local boys, not one in the bunch, had a thing to drink (intoxicating at least) and it was not even suggested that liquor would liven things up.—that's not looking so bad for the college kids, is it?

SHOWING AT THE Palace Theatre, this week, are two very late shows—"Mr. Moto Takes a Chance" was released June 24; and "Rascals" on May 29. I wonder how many folks will drive to Plainview or some other faraway city, thinking that they will get to see a later show than they would have seen at home.

I HAD A PRETTY good story rigged out this week about Barney Wilson's stiff neck. One of my co-partners in slander and libel couldn't keep it and Barney got wind of it. Result: An exchange of a ten inch ad for keeping quiet. And the funny thing about it was that the story was absolutely the truth (I think) and you know the truth doesn't hurt—or is it the other way around.

WE HAVE AN ad this week from the Tullia Herald. They too are having a dollar bargain offer—for two days only, the days of the Tullia Celebration. Shows that the Engleman boys kinda believe in their own business of advertising. If, when you subscribe for the Briscoe County News, you want to leave a dollar for the Tullia Herald, we'll send it in for you.

CHICK NORTH CUTT SAID that he offered a card to a fellow the other day and got this: "Why I saw in the paper that you weren't giving cards to any except those who were going to vote for you". So I printed a few more cards for him so in case he gave a card to the wrong guy, he still would have enough.

RICHARDSON BUYS BAKERY

The Silverton Bakery, which has been operated here for some time by Jack Goodwin, has been purchased by G. A. Richardson, who has been doing the baking since the bakery came to Silverton two months ago.

Mrs. Richardson will be in charge of the front. The Richardsons have announced as their motto, "The same good bread—with better service."

Mr. Goodwin, who is selling his interest, has announced no immediate plans, but is still connected with the Panhandle Bakery.

State Police today urged drivers to study laws relating to right of way after analysis of 771 recent accidents showed that one or more vehicles involved in 123 of 16 percent of the crashes were not in their rightful positions.

Unless intersections are controlled by local regulations, police pointed out, vehicles approaching from each driver's right have the privilege of entering the intersection first.

Drinking on the part of a driver or pedestrian was listed as the cause of 101 of the 771 accidents, with speed ranking third. Fifty-four collisions were caused when automobiles moved too close to the center of the highway or were driven on the wrong side.

Other facts revealed in the study showed that 48 accidents were caused by pedestrians running into paths of vehicles, 40 by improper left turn, 31 by disregard of traffic control signals, 30 because drivers did not signal intentions of making turns or stops, 27 by improper passing, and 19 by driver's lack of attention.

State safety officials warned drivers of motor vehicles to use more courtesy at intersections and places where other vehicles or pedestrians may possibly move into their line of travel. Through courtesy, they explained, hundreds of crashes can be prevented each year and many lives may be saved.

Aside from the continued heavy death toll on Texas highways the safety officials were encouraged by the continued reduction in violent traffic fatalities. A general nine percent decrease has been reported for the first five months of this year, despite a nine percent increase in travel.

TENANTS MAY OWN FARMS

With Congress having appropriated $25,000,000 to make tenant purchase loans for the second year's operation of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act, the two advisory committees serving Region X11 of the Farm Security Administration are planning to meet early this month and make recommendations to Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace of a few additional counties in which the program should be administered during the next fiscal year.

This announcement was made this week by L. H. Hauter, regional director of the Farm Security Administration, serving N. Mexico, West Texas, the Oklahoma Panhandle, Western Kansas and Twenty-three former tenant families in the above areas have become home owners since the program was inaugurated last year. This number is expected to be increased two and a half times as a result of increased funds.

Counties in Region X11 where farm tenant purchase loans were made the first year are Bent in Colorado; Wallace in Kansas; Roosevelt in New Mexico; Floyd, Randall and Wheeler in Texas.

Congress has recognized the rapidly growing menace of tenancy in the United States, and a condition where more than one-third of all tenants move on to a new farm every year. They have little incentive to keep up fences, repair houses, plan soil-building crops, or check erosion. They have every reason to mine the soil for all they can get out of it, without thought of the future; they know some other tenant will have the farm next year.

The Advisory committee in charge of recommending additional counties for next year's program in the four-state area is composed of the following: John E. Hill, Amarillo, Chairman; Ed C. Morrison, Goodwell, Oklahoma; John Hiatt, Meade, Kansas; George Drum, Sharon Springs, Kansas; Marshall Dean, Los Animas, Colo.; Adolph Hansen, Granada, Colo.; A. B. Crump, Wheeler, Texas; C. H. Day, Plainview, Texas; and C. L. Thomas, Pampa, Texas.

The advisory committee serving N. Mexico is composed of: Joseph L. Dailey, Albuquerque, chairman; George R. Quesenberry, Las Cruces; Frank E. Wimberly, Las Cruces; Alejandro Gonzales, Carraltes; Fred Nelson, Roswell, A. H. Gerdeman, Las Vegas; Tom Haislip, Rogers; Leslie Martin, Artesia; and Charles Madrid, Las Cruces.

SAVES FOR THE NATION

BEHIND THE SCENES IN AMERICAN BUSINESS
By John Craddock

New York, Jul. 5—BUSINESS—To the American business man, confidence is the basis of profits, and the prospect of profit is what makes prosperity. Factories are reopened or new ones built, as soon as operators believe there is at least a 50-50 chance of being able to sell more merchandise at a profit in the near future. The return of confidence usually begins to manifest itself in the stock market.

People are willing to pay more for stocks and bonds of corporations once they feel assured that earnings and dividends are likely to increase. Last week men and women all over the country and even in Europe began to invest idle money in American securities. Result — the stock market rose to a new high for 1938. Even confirmed pessimists had to admit that all signs indicate the low point in the depression is behind us.

WASHINGTON — New bank examining rules okayed by President Roosevelt last week, will for the first time enable small businesses to issue bonds and sell them to their local banks. It is estimated that as much as $3,000,000,000 of private money may thus be made available to store operators, small manufacturers and contractors. Old regulations prevented the banks from buying bonds which did not have a ready market. Another new regulation which will be helpful to small business men permits bankers to make more long term loans (loans of more than nine months) a type of lending which was formerly discouraged.

INVENTORIES — One of the soundest, underlying reasons why business men feel that business recovery is in the making is that inventories have been greatly reduced. Inventory is unsold merchandise on the shelves of retailers or wholesalers or in the factory business warehouses. In depression periods, when there is great uncertainty, manufacturers generally fill orders from inventory already accumulated rather than keep factories going full-steam turning out goods that may be impossible to sell. By this process called working off inventories, the supply of goods available for public consumption grows less and less. Eventually a point is reached when orders when no longer be filled from inventory. Then production must be started again, men and women go back to work and a new recovery cycle is launched. Inventories of wholesalers at the first of June were 14.8 per cent lower than a year earlier, a very healthy sign.

FOR 'SUBURBAN(K)S' — Beans thrive in an acid soil, whereas, carrots prefer to "stay over on the alkaline side". These are two of the more elementary of many fine points of soil testing and adjusting that Suburban Burbankers are learning this year. Soil diagnosticians of the Freeport Sulphur company report home gardeners are going much more scientific than ever before, with unusual demand noted for small chemical kits, sold at hardware and seed stores for from $2 to $20, with which they test and adjust garden soil for alkalinity-acidity balance. Kits consist of charts, manual, test tubes and vials of fluids. Some gardeners report savings of up to 50 per cent of their summer vegetable bill through this scientific "trucking".

THINGS TO WATCH FOR — Golf clubs with transparent heads in which arrows are imbedded to guide the stroke — A "can't miss" torpedo, which, in case it misses an enemy battleship, turns back and strikes the warship from the opposite side — Portable partitions for soda fountains, which move on an overhead rail and can be adjusted to divide off any number of seats from others — A germicide more potent than tincture of iodine, yet less irritating — An "elevator" car which runs up and down the side of the stairs in your home.

HEADLINES — New car registrations declined but filling stations see upturn in business. The reason: old cars burn more gas than new ones — Miami to have movie colony — studio under construction will begin by producing cartoons and later will do full length features — Cigarette production shows increase over last year — Private power companies last year paid a tax bill of $330,000,000 or 16 per cent of the gross revenues — United Business Service cities uptrend in building as brightest spot in business picture — Over 100 general magazines gained an average of seven per cent in circulation last year — Survey of 33 cities shows retail drug store sales greater in those communities having larger percentage of chain food stores — United States has 30,000,000 automobiles, or 70 per cent of the world's total — More than 70 per cent of American homes are now using electricity.

ADVANCE NOTICE MUST BE GIVEN COMMISSION

A plan to facilitate monthly hearings before the Texas Highway Commission on road matters to provide local officials with more satisfactory service has been announced by Julian Montgomery, State Highway Engineer. Delegations were requested to register sufficiently in advance to permit Department engineers to gather data on matters to be discussed by local delegations.

Expressing the appreciation of the Commission to delegations that made early registrations, Mr. Montgomery said that "lately some officials have adopted the habit of coming to Austin on the date for public hearing without making prior appointments and without letting the Commission or myself know that they were coming."

"This practice is growing every month, to the extent that it is becoming very confusing," Mr. Montgomery said. "Some delegations have acquired the habit of appearing before the Commission rather suddenly and requesting private or executive hearings, stating they did not care to appear at the open hearing."

"The Commission is anxious to treat everyone the same way and they feel that in all fairness the delegations should make appointments beforehand and notify us of the subject to be discussed so that we can obtain beforehand every bit of information possible. This will enable us to serve them much better. If delegations attempt to appear before the Commission on open hearing dates without prior appointments they then present matters to the Commission on which the Commission, nor myself have been able to obtain any information and as a result we are unable to give the service which we would like to do."

"Often such delegations leave with the feeling that they have been unable to present their matter properly, or perhaps the Commission was too unresponsive or indefinite. Such reaction are due primarily to the fact that the delegations have appeared without making prior engagement, without warning as it were, and without permitting us to acquire enough information to discuss their requests properly and with entire satisfaction."

LIBRARY NEWS

The Lost King
By Rafael Sabatini
Louis XV11, the Lost Dauphin of France, his tragic youth, his mysterious disappearance and the bold attempts, after his supposed death to place an impostor on the French throne, form the subject of this new and vivid Sabatini tale—one that carries on the romantic story of French Revolutionary history begun with "Scaramouche" and pursued through "Scaramouche the King-Maker".

To make history a living thing, to recreate in flesh and blood the daring men of the past—these are Sabatini's distinctive powers, used in this new tale with conspicuous success. The imprisonment of the Boy King in the Temple, his kidnapping and flight into Germany, the night of confusion when a sudden storm on Lake Lemans swallows his identity, and later the plots and counterplots woven about him, this is perfect material for one of Sabatini's most absorbing tales of adventure.

Two other books, sent by Hon. Marvin Jones, that will be valuable for the use of stockmen, that have need of books of this nature are one on the "Diseases of the Horse"; and one on "Diseases of Cattle". Both contain the most up-to-date suggestions on diagnosis and treatment.

The County is now the sponsor of the Silverton Library—63 books have been added since the first of May, making a total of 768 books.

Naturally, that appeals to all the ladies, because there are so many things—both in and out of the house—that any homemaker could do IF she had the time.

Briefly, that explains the popularity of electric cookery. It eliminates the drudgery and makes cooking a joy. Sooty pots and pans... smoke and grime... smutty woodwork and walls... all become a thing of the past with electric cookery.

Today's living centers in the kitchen and your kitchen depends on your range. Be proud of your kitchen and cook electrically. Your electrical dealer will be glad to tell you more about this modern method of cooking. Investigate today!

Lesson for July 10

CALEB: LIFE-TIME DEVOTION

GOLDEN TEXT—Joshua 14:6-15. Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it. Numbers 13:30. PRIMARY TOPIC—Brave Caleb. INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—Caleb the Brave. ADULT TOPIC—A Hero's Reward. YOUNG PEOPLE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Courage for Difficult Tasks.

"We need to know more about good men who are occasionally great, and less about great men who are occasionally good," says the Lesson Commentary, in pointing out that Caleb is one of the characters about whom the Bible does not say much, but in every case the word is one revealing high and noble character. Consider such passages as Numbers 13:6, 30; 14:7-9, 24, 30; 26:65, as well as our lesson for today. The background for our study of today, and in fact an integral part of the lesson itself, is the story of Caleb's courageous stand with Joshua when the spies returned from their visit to Canaan, which is related in Numbers 13. He was then a comparatively young man, but demonstrated by his every word and deed that he had from his youth learned to know and obey God.

Note first of all Caleb's I. Perfect Obedience (vv. 6-8). "I wholly followed the Lord my God." Such a testimony from a man like Caleb is no idle boast, no effort to parade his faith and piety before others. In saying it he was repeating what God and Moses had both said about him. In his heart he knew it to be true.

It is God's will for each of His children that they should come to such a place of simple trust and complete obedience that in every circumstance of life they need know only one thing—God's will, and then in faith to go and do it. It is a life beautiful in its transparent simplicity and powerful in the strength of God Himself.

II. Promised Inheritance (v. 9). "Surely the land wherupon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance." Such was the promise of God through Moses. Forty-five long years had elapsed, but down through this period of wilderness wanderings and the conflict in subduing Canaan the promise had lived in Caleb's heart. He knew it would be fulfilled, and he waited serenely for God's time.

Such also are the promises of God which keep the heart singing in our hours of trial and sorrow, which lighten the dark ways, which strengthen the heart of His children. Learn God's promises, cherish them in your heart, expect God to fulfill them.

III. Preserved Strength (vv. 10, 11). "The Lord hath kept me alive... and I am... strong." Here was a man kept of God, in full vigor in his eighty-fifth year, "like a snow-capped peak in a change of cloud and storm and sun" (Meyer). No doubt there was what our forefathers liked to call "the longevity of the antediluvians," but even apart from that let us recognize that life and strength come from God, and that those who walk with God in holy living may count on Him for the renewed strength of Psalm 103:5.

An incidental, but extremely important, lesson, we should learn is that God has no age deadline. The church has frequently sinned against Him and against His faithful servants by "shelving them" for younger men, when they would have brought blessing to themselves and to the church by encouraging and using them. The writer of these lines is a young man, but he would speak here a word of loving admonition regarding his honored brethren who have gone on before to bear the brunt of the battle.

IV. Powerful Assurance (vv. 12-15). "If... the Lord will be with me, then I shall be able." Caleb asked for no easy task. He was ready to go up against the giants of Hebron. Read Deuteronomy 3:11, and you will find that there were men in those days who needed thirteen-foot beds. But Caleb was not afraid. He counted not on his own strength, but on the power of God. It is significant that while the other sections of Canaan were only partially conquered Caleb brought his formidable adversaries entirely under control, so that "the land had rest from war" (v. 15).

The spiritual application to our day is evident and appropriate. There are giants in the land in this year of our Lord 1938. Corruption—social and political—raises its brazen head. Drunkenness and vice leer at us with the impudent suggestion that we cannot control them. There are giants "within us"—greed, selfishness, love of ease, lust, passion, cruelty (Blakie). Are we to do nothing about them? If we are to meet them in the strength of the flesh we might almost as well do nothing. But in the power of God, we are like Caleb—able. In His name we may take up a slogan of today, "Let's do something about it!" and really do it, for His glory.

Explains What Is Meant by CORRECT NUTRITION

Describes How to Construct a Balanced Diet, So Essential to Maintain Optimal Health

By C. HOUSTON GOUDISS
6 East 39th St., New York City.

TO SOME families, a summons to the dinner table means nothing more than a chance to satisfy hunger. To others, it represents an opportunity to gratify the palate, sometimes to the extent of overtaxing the digestive system.

Neither of these extremes fulfills the true function of food, which is to provide adequately but not to excess, for growth, maintenance and repair of the body.

Food May Fail to Feed

You can satisfy hunger without providing correct nutrition. You can partake of delicious-tasting foods to the point of over-indulgence—without meeting bodily requirements.

The mere spending of money will not insure good nutrition, for extremely poor diets can be found in households where the income is large and the food budget is ample.

What counts is learning to provide the right foods in the correct proportions. The return in health will be more than worth the investment of effort in acquiring this knowledge.

A Balanced Diet

Science has discovered what foods are necessary to help build top health and keep us 100 per cent fit. The amount of food required by a man for a day's work can be accurately determined. We know that a specific disease may be produced by one diet and cured by another; that growth can be influenced through changes in the quality of the dietary; that old age may be deferred by choosing the food with care.

We know that the body is a working machine which never stops but may slow down or get out of order unless the daily diet includes every element, every mineral, every vitamin needed to maintain health and avoid the deficiency diseases.

Seven Essentials

There are seven factors to be considered in planning a balanced diet. Protein for building body tissue and repairing the millions of cells that are worn out daily. Carbohydrates to produce quick heat and energy. Fats—a more compact form of fuel, which are also essential in a satisfactory diet. Minerals which serve both as builders and regulators of body processes. The six vitamins, A, B, C, D, E and G, that also act as regulators and prevent a number of deficiency diseases. Water—which serves as a vehicle by which food is carried to the tissues. And cellulose or bulk—required for the normal functioning of the intestinal tract.

Danger in Omitting One Food Substance

The homemaker who fails to take every one of these factors into consideration is depriving her husband of the opportunity to enjoy his greatest efficiency. Moreover, she may be robbing her children of their birthright. During every day of childhood, the body is being built, and defects in body structure are likely to arise if the child is improperly nourished. It is then that disease and disability make their appearance as a result of faulty nutrition. How tragic to deprive the young body of substances so necessary to its well being.

How to Check the Diet for Balance

Perhaps you are like the homemakers who tell me that they do not know a protein from a carbohydrate. Or it may be that while you understand the difference, you do not know what quantities should be included in the diet each day. To simplify your task of serving balanced menus at every meal, I have prepared a Homemaker's Chart for Checking Nutritional Balance. In convenient chart form, it shows what foods should be included in the diet every day and gives the standard amount for each food. There are also skeleton menus outlined by food classifications, which enable you to plan balanced menus for every meal by making a choice from each group of required foods.

I urge every homemaker to write for this chart, and use it daily. Then you won't make such common mistakes as serving a dried legume as a vegetable at a meal in which meat is used, which tends to concentrate too much protein in one meal; or choosing a too-heavy dessert following a main course that is overly rich in carbohydrates.

60 Per Cent Carbohydrates

Carbohydrates should form at least 60 per cent of the supply of food fuel. Rarely are menus deficient in carbohydrates, because they are so widely distributed in such common foods as cereals, bread, potatoes, macaroni products, sweets, and sweet fruits and vegetables, such as oranges, grapes, apples and pears.

Free Homemaker's Chart for Checking Nutritional Balance

PLANNING a balanced diet will cease to be a puzzle if you send for the Homemaker's Chart for Checking Nutritional Balance, offered free, by C. Houston Goudiss. It lists the foods and the standard amounts that should be included in the daily diet, and includes skeleton menus for breakfast, dinner and lunch or supper, to guide you in selecting the proper foods in each classification. A postcard is sufficient to bring you this valuable aid to good menu planning. Just ask for the Nutrition Chart. Address: C. Houston Goudiss, 6 East 39th St., New York City.

Fats should supply about 20 per cent of the caloric content of the diet. They are obtained from butter, margarine, cream, egg yolk, salad dressings, vegetable oils and the fat of meats.

A protein food should be provided at each meal. Meat, poultry, fish, eggs, cheese, milk and most nuts supply complete protein. Cereals and legumes furnish incomplete protein which may be supplemented by the complete protein of milk.

The Protective Foods

It is essential that the diet should contain an abundance of minerals and vitamins which are furnished by the protective foods—milk, eggs, fruits and vegetables. Cellulose or bulk is obtained from fruits, vegetables and whole grain cereals. Water comes from juicy fruits, succulent vegetables, milk and other beverages, as well as the water that is consumed as a beverage.

To provide adequate amounts of the seven food essentials at every meal—to avoid the mistake of serving too much of one type of food and too little of another—should be the worthy aim of every homemaker. You will find the task considerably easier if you send for the Homemaker's Chart. Tack it up in your kitchen or in the room where you plan your menus, and use it to check the nutritional balance of every meal you prepare.

If you faithfully follow the food program outlined in the chart, you will help to assure your family of correct nutrition. This is the most priceless gift you could bestow upon them. For nutrition is the architect that draws the plans of human destiny. In providing the right foods, you lay a firm foundation for health on which to rear a life of happiness and success.

Questions Answered

Mrs. F. C. T.—Dried figs contain from 60 to 70 per cent sugar and 4 to 5 per cent protein. They are a fine energy food.

A. F. B.—When thorough chewing is impossible, food can be finely minced or put through a sieve, to make it easily digestible.

Mrs. A. G.—Prunes are a fine natural laxative food for those in normal health. They furnish vitamins A, B and G. But they must not replace oranges or tomatoes as they do not supply vitamin C.

Household Hints

By BETTY WELLS

ONCE upon a time it wasn't considered quite nice to talk about money. Genteel ladies hid their poverty behind much-darned lace curtains and "paying guests," and people went around with those crack-the-face smiles because of the bills on their desks at home. More and more in the last few years, this old tradition has receded and now we all seem to have a pretty healthy regard for budgets, which is mathematical magic that makes dollars sit up and talk. Here are a few rules for spending the family fortune so as to make both ends meet:

Always let your right hand know what your left hand is doing. And let the whole family in on the budget and give them a voice in working it out. Then agree that oversteps will be met with tolerance and the "Kitty." (An item all human budgets should include—it's a sinking fund, an anchor to windward for the times you'll miscalculate on the cost of that dinner bridge, or spend the milk money, oh, foolish lady, on a new bonnet.)

If you are a money-through-a-hole-in-my-purse sort of person and get your income weekly, while your bills come monthly, try the envelope system. Put so much for each oncoming bill in the envelope every week and consider that once you've deposited your money there, it's the same as paid out.

Keep an office as conscientiously as you keep house—in a pleasant spot to settle down for your home work. File bills and receipts carefully; balance your bank book and have a spike for day-by-day grocery slips, or better still a day book for grocery lists. Here also you ought to keep lots of sharp pencils and crisp clean paper to figure on—it makes as big a difference in the enthusiasm with which you can tackle your "rithmetic as a new tablet used to in the dear old golden rule days.

For buying-on-time items, remember to make a place for them in apportioning your weekly money. That will keep you from getting into trouble when payments that seemed so easy at first begin to look like major catastrophes every time their due date rolls around. Buying on time is a fine method for many of us to acquire big things, but unless the budget says "yes," those seemingly small payments may look like the war debt after a while. One safe rule is never have but one time-payment on your mind at a time.

Ginghams for Slip Covers.

We had to see it to believe it. Because if anybody had told us that plaid gingham would do for slip covers in quite a formal living room, we'd probably have smiled politely, but dubiously. But we saw them, and thought they were as smart as veils on summer hats.

The room has gunmetal walls and a beige rug to begin with. Woodwork is ivory with jade green panels in the doors. A pair of small chests are painted jade green though most of the furniture is mahogany. In the winter, for furniture, coverings are in formal brocades, and so are the draperies. But for summer, the windows get off-white rayon curtains with a cellophane thread through them and the draped valances are of plaid gingham in jade green and off-white.

This same gingham covers the sofa and a pair of wing chairs. The other upholstered furniture is in a textured green with thick moss fringe in the seams. The lamp shades all got pleated white organza petticoats over them for summer, tied with jade grosgrain ribbon.

Another unexpected, but successful room for summer, began with pink and white striped wall paper. It's winter rugs came up and white sisal rugs went down. Several of the slip covers were in quilted navy blue, a pair of chairs were in flowered chintz, predominantly pink, to match the summer curtains.

LUMBER!

Though America's logging industry has been on the downgrade several years because of heavy imports, this spring one of the largest timber log drives ever run in New England took place near Machias, Maine. Over 4,000,000 feet of lumber—pine, hemlock and spruce—was floated down the river to the Whitfield mill 45 miles south. Lumberjacks work hard but the drivers have more adventure during the drive when they must balance on swirling logs, pry open jams and sleep in a different "home" every night. They wear caulk shoes with spikes.

There's little waste time or waste space in the camp's kitchen where Cook Leonard Elwell prepares 240 meals a day, moves 35 miles down the river and sets up his equipment again. To supply 60 men participating in the last drive he cooked 500 doughnuts, 500 sugar cookies, 200 biscuits, 16 loaves of bread, boiled four hams and cooked 50 pounds of beef, all on the above stove. And it was plenty good, if the young driver at the right knows his grub!

Picture Parade

They eat four meals a day, these drivers, and when the day is over they sit around the campfire and chat about one of America's most colorful industries, logging, a business that demands hardy men who like outdoor life and isolation. Gone forever is the heyday of America's logging industry with its Paul Bunyan and blue oxen, but the colorful picture of north woods life will live forever in song and story.

This Tool Has Many Uses

McCormick-Deering Field Cultivator

HERE is a tool that is proving itself highly practical for loosening dry summer-fallow ground, mulching packed soil, for pulling out quack and John grass and other weeds, for renovating and cultivating alfalfa, for preparing seed beds, etc.

Equipped with stiff teeth or heavy spring teeth, which are interchangeable, this field cultivator can be used many types of unplowed land and for deep cultivation. With light spring teeth it is used for shallow cultivation in plowed ground.

If you haven't seen this McCormick-Deering Field Cultivator, make it a point to see the one on our floor. It may be just what you need.
