WELL THE BIG election is over and everybody is happy. Maybe the returns didn't suit everybody, but everyone is at least happy that the big name-calling contest is over. And we have no doubt made the wise choice—America has seldom been wrong.

THE REAL THING to be glad about is the fact that ONLY in the good old U. S. A. could an election be held in war time without disrupting the war effort. And only in America could we have an election in war time and the next day forget differences of opinion and join in to help our leaders to successfully carry out policies for the good of all.

IF I THOUGHT for a moment that newspaper advertising compared in any way with some of the radio programs I have heard here at the shop tonight, I would quit the business and get a job shining shoes or spittoons in some third rate hotel. I've got a little radio down here that cost $11.95 back in the good old days and it is as changeable as any hank o' hair you ever saw. It will sometimes absolutely refuse to have anything to do with a national network, and will pick out some dinky program and bring it in so loud that you can hardly stay in the room. . . . Tonight it started off with some old girl solving love problems and telling fortunes. With each personal problem you turned in she would send a 100-page psychological booklet and the answer to your question for only $1.00 — then some crack-voiced man took over without even a break in the corny music. He asked if you loved your wife, or your son in service. If the answer was yes, you could prove it by sending in $1.98 for a lovely wood carving of your loved one. It was absolutely free. The $1.98 was to pay for the wrapping and postage. —After another silly song a lovely voice was heard telling all women that she had been lonely for years, UNTIL she discovered a Cuban perfume that was used by Cleopatra to ensnare the wary males of her time. Girls there's no need to be lonely. Just send $2 for a six months supply. If, at the end of that time, you haven't found an outlet for all your feminine energies, your $2 will be gladly refunded. . . . and then comes a motherly voice telling you that for 50c she will send you the miracle directions that saved her from the evils of drink when she was only 14 years old. —Next came an insurance policy for $1.00 a month that insured as many as seven members of your family with complete coverage for all accidents and death. A sure shot if I ever bet on one. — And then, as if to help you total the amounts you are sure to send in, an old boy offers you an adding machine that can be carried in your pocket. It will do anything a $200.00 machine will do, only quicker and better. It costs only $2.50, and if you order tonight, he will personally enclose in addition, a lovely imitation leather case to carry it in, absolutely free. SUCH STUFF . . .

HERE'S WHAT ANOTHER of our Briscoe County boys thinks about the Veterans Building Fund. —This is an extract from Lt. Homer Sanders, Jr., which incidentally was written on stationery captured from the Germans. . . . "It pleases me very much about the Veterans Building Fund project there. More than anything else we get tired of people at home writing about what we are going to do when we get home, when we don't even know ourselves. For the people of Silverton to have the understanding to raise the money and bank it, and let the boys decide on the type of building and its location, will be more than appreciated, by every man from our county."

New Donations to Veterans' Building Fund —

Total to date $6,118.90

THERE'S A BUNCH of subscriptions running out this month. You can get it marked up now for a buck-fifty. That's nearly as big a bargain as anything on the radio program mentioned above. And if

The American Idea

America is considered an unmillitary nation. Wars always take us by surprise. We blunder into them unprepared, and then, after floundering around we raise an army of bank clerks and college boys and soda jerkers who crush the most efficient and powerful military machines and contrivances the enemy can send against us.

Our democracy is admittedly wasteful, and sometimes corrupt. By comparison with monarchies and totalitarian states, it is ponderous, slow, muddled, and unorganized. Yet we have conquered a continent in less than two centuries, and amassed wealth and productive power beyond the dreams of European avarice, and stored up and channeled globe-girdling military might.

The American Idea, regardless of what it comprises really does work, so well that it always surprises Europeans and sometimes surprises us. Before we drastically tinker with it, adding any gadgets like universal military service, state ownership of public utilities; before we trade it for a new model perhaps it would behoove us to take an inventory of what we have. Before we change our old habits for new ones, maybe we would be wise to remember that the core of the American Idea which confronted the framers of the Constitution was "How shall we set up a government, STRONG enough to serve the purposes of the UNION, yet NOT STRONG enough to prevent the maintenance of the LIBERTIES OF THE PEOPLE."

Is ARMISTICE DAY any longer a day on which to celebrate? Is it proper that we should continue to consider it a day of victory? Shall we not look forward to a real day of PEACE, the terms of which will be farsighted and wise enough to discourage any attempts to destroy the materialistic, hopeful, venturesome, tolerant, and energetic qualities of our American civilization?

The following V-Letter received by Mrs. Robert Seals from her brother, Pfc. Marion Brown is in the form of a prayer, and should be read by everyone.

"Somewhere in the Pacific"
Dear Sis and all:
Through clouds of war and miles of space,
I hear your voice and see your face
I see you there at the close of day,
I hear you softly, sweetly pray,
Oh, God, please keep him from all harm
Please let him rest upon your arm.
Protect his footsteps all the while
And Give him strength to conquer trial.
Yes, Sister, I hear your prayer
And though my heart aches to be there—
It's God's wish that it be this way;
I hear Him listening as I pray:
Dear God in Heaven, up above
Look down upon the ones I love
Tell her Lord she should not fear
Though far away, through prayer
I'm near.
When clouds of war that dim the sun
Have passed away and victory's won;
Protect us all from future strife
And give us faith throughout our life.
Lots of Love,
Pfc. Marion Brown

We Honor The United States Marines,

Because our boy chose the Marines, we address this message to the Marines, but it is meant for every boy in service, wherever they are serving—no matter what they are doing. We want you to know that we folks here at home are proud of you, and are looking forward to the day when you will be with us again.

To speed the day of your return, we pledge ourselves to work harder, to buy more bonds, to do whatever comes our way to help you men on the fighting fronts to win the war. We are not speaking for Bain Drug alone, but for everyone in this community, who is hoping and working for Victory.

As we write this it is 45 days till Christmas, and with thousands of miles between you and home, perhaps if we send you our Christmas Greetings in this issue, it will reach you at just about the right time.

It's the same old Santa that you knew when you were little boys, but he's got a longer trip this year than just from the North Pole . . . but we hope he finds you with some good cheer from home, and our greatest wish is that next Christmas we'll see you personally and say,

"A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU"

Every 17 seconds (day and night) a vitally needed car is junked

THE DANGER LEVEL in number of automobiles in use is rapidly approaching. Out of 30,000,000 cars, 6,000,000 are in every five have already disappeared from the highways. And of those remaining, more than 5,000 every day go to the scrap heap!

Says the Office of Defense Transportation: "Private automobiles must perform three-fourths of the essential local wartime transportation service... Street cars, buses, and rapid transit lines can haul only a small share, approximately 25 per cent of the essential load."

So Care For Your Car For Your Country by enlisting the aid of your Phillips 66 Service Man. He is ready and waiting to help you.

At least once a week, give him the opportunity of checking air pressures... inspecting for nail holes, cuts, and bruises... examining tires so that he can warn you when re-capping is imperative.

At the same time, he will inspect the battery, air filter, and cooling system. And at regular intervals be sure to have him lubricate every friction point specified by the maker of your car... and make either the seasonal or the recommended every-sixty-day oil change.

Every Phillips 66 Service Man shares with you the responsibility of guarding that part of America's mileage which remains in your car and tires. So get Phillips Car-Saving and Tire-Saving Service at any Phillips 66 Shield... the sign of famous Phillips 66 Gasoline and Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

MOTOR RYTHM — the old original upper lube. Pour some thru your carburetor and add some to your oil—it tightens your rods, oversizes your pistons, and spaces your spark plug gaps. In other words it is really good for your motor... WE HAVE plenty of 16-inch inner tubes, and can fix you up for cold weather starting with a brand new car battery, either Phillips or Auto-lie.

We also have plenty of small truck tires, up to 7.50-20 size, and...

WE are expecting a new shipment of Grade 1 Passenger Car Tires this week end. Come around, there's not much telling what we have — maybe you'll hit the jack pot!!

— KEEP PRICES DOWN —

This keeping prices down has a two-way meaning for us — in the first place, all of us can help keep prices down by refusing to pay more than an article is worth... and we must keep prices down if we keep up our end of things while the boys are at war.

In the second place, we know that our low prices will bring us increased business. Every article in our store is priced at OPA prices or BELOW. And every article is plainly marked so that you will know exactly what you are paying.

friend, and many others throughout the Panhandle loved him. He had a way of mixing jovial friendliness with dignity, of making the other person feel his deference, respect, and kindly concern even though he maintained a stately reserve. The other person in turn respected and esteemed Mr. Stevenson. He came of the best type of upright honest American stock, and knew the influence of good heredity. Among his illustrious kinsmen are Robert Louis Stevenson, author; Adlai Stevenson, U. S. Vice-president with Cleveland, and Coke Stevenson, governor of Texas. News from Boys in Service

A. J. ROWELL, who recently entered the Navy, writes from Farragut, Idaho:

Dear Mom and Dad: How is everybody today? Fine I hope. I haven't written in the last few days due to the lack of time. It seems that I get farther behind on my letter writing all time.

We have started our second work week, we drew road guard this time, we guard the entire road around our camp. There is 18 guard posts to be manned 24 hrs. a day. Each man spends six hours on guard out of each 24. Also we have to relieve the other boys to eat when we are not on regular duty. In all it takes almost our whole day.

They had a fire here last night over in another camp that joins this one. It must have had a lot of Waves over there, one girl burned to death. They got cut off from the fire escape and stairway too. All the others jumped out. It is only about fifteen feet to the top windows, she was just scared too bad I guess. We don't know nothing about it, how it started or nothing, I don't guess we ever will. They don't tell us anything. We only get a war bulletin about once a week.

The only time I have got home sick was the other night I was standing a watch over in Regimental headquarters and listened to Ginny Simm's on the Philip Morris program, and Kay Kyser on another program, the second radio I have heard since I've been here.

I got a long letter from Nettie today. She had just got back from up there. The last letter I got from you all was written right after she got there. I bet the kids sure enjoyed their visit up there.

Well, at the end of this work week which will be next Wednesday we will lack only five weeks of training, that will pass along pretty fast. I don't guess I will get to be home very much though. Only five days unless they change it.

You asked about schooling. I stand a good chance to go to school if anyone does. I passed my general classification test high enough to qualify for five different schools. They are: Radio Technician, Radio Operator, Electrician School, Radar School, and the Armed Guard. The last is the Gun Crew on a merchant ship. It is my last choice. It's a slim chance I'll have to go to school, but still I might.

Well, its 7:30 here and that's getting late at night. I have to get up at 2:00 and go on guard for a couple more hours, so I had better get some sleep.

I'll write again soon as I can. Keep those long letters coming. I sure enjoy them. Tell La Verne I will write as soon as I can.

A RAINY DAY

You know the old saying about "something for a rainy day"—We all believe in laying away something for the future but maybe keep putting it off.

How very simple it is now to lay away for a rainy day through life insurance—and in addition to your savings, you are protecting your loved ones in case something rather permanent should happen to you.

It will take only a few minutes of your time for me to explain the Franklin Life Insurance Policy that suits your case. I am at your service —

Here's REAL VALUE in CURLEE OVERCOATS WHEN A MAN buys an overcoat, what are the things he looks for? Well—warmth might be the first requirement; and then, in order, would come the quality of the materials, the workmanship which is evidenced in the tailoring, the styling of the coat. AS A MATTER of fact—there's a much easier way to select your coat and that is to look inside and make sure it carries a Curlee label. If it does, you can be sure that the materials have been carefully chosen for warmth and wear without excess weight. You can count on styling that keeps you looking your best. And fine workmanship will show in every tailoring detail. WHY NOT come in today, and select your moderately priced Curlee Overcoat from our complete stock. Curlee Overcoats $22.50 - $27.50 Curlee Suits $32.50
