DISPOSITION OF REMAINS OF DECEASED MILITARY PERSONNEL OVERSEAS

The following letter was received by Paul Miller, Veteran's County Service Officer in regard to remains of deceased military personnel overseas.

Dear Mr. Miller: Acknowledgment is made of your letter regarding the return of the remains of deceased military personnel overseas.

It is anticipated by the War Department that the return, at Government expense, of the remains of those who have died overseas in the service of their country to a final resting place as selected by the next of kin will be authorized in the near future. Upon receipt of such authority, the War Department, through this office, will furnish full information to the proper next of kin and solicit their desires. However, it should be explained that this mission as a whole is world wide in scope and of necessity time consuming, but they may rest assured that this office fully appreciates their desires and will do everything in its power to fulfill them at the earliest possible date.

Sincerely yours,
James L. Prenn, Major-QMC

OWls To Play Flomot Here Friday

The game that fans have been looking forward to all fall will be played on the Silverton Field Friday afternoon, November 16. The Owls bowed to the Motley County boys at Flomot to the score of 16 to 12 early in the season. Since the game was so close, most Silverton backers have felt that they could even the count when the return game was played here. Since the outcome of this game will determine whether there will be a tie for the conference lead or Flomot will win the district championship, this will be one of the most important games played on the Silverton gridiron in many years. Should the Owls win they will play Flomot again Thanksgiving day at Quitaque, November 22. If they lose, they will play Turkey at Turkey that day. Should Flomot win, they will be this year's district champions. The game will start at 2:30. Officials will be Madura, Tullia, referee, and Riddle, Estelline, head linesman.

Another meeting of this group will be held next Tuesday night, November 20, at 7:30 p. m. at the Courthouse.

American Legion And Service Men Have Successful Meeting

The call meeting Tuesday night of the American Legion with all Briscoe County service men and ex-service men as guests was a great success, according to Alvin Redin, Commander of the William Graves Post.

Mr. Paul Miller, Veterans officer of this district, discussed the GI Bill of Rights. A report was made pertaining to the proposed Veteran's Building. An opportunity to join the American Legion was given and thirty-four signed up as members.

After the business was transacted, the men went to the School Lunch Room where refreshments were served. An hour of music and singing which was led by Mrs. John Montague, George Martin, Gaston Owens, and S. T. Bogan ended the program.

Another meeting of this group will be held next Tuesday night, November 20, at 7:30 p. m. at the Courthouse.

CARS MUST BE REGISTERED IN HOME STATE

Hundreds of Texas residents are operating their automobiles illegally with license secured in other states where the plates may be obtained at a lower rate than in Texas.

Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has advised that there will start immediately an enforcement program to see that all persons who are residents of Texas properly register their automobiles. Thousands of dollars are going into the revenue of other state treasuries when it should be going into the Texas treasury for the maintenance of Texas highways.

STAY AT HOME URGES

SEPARATION CENTER OFFICIALS

A warning that an acute shortage of hotel accommodations and housing facilities exists at all Navy Separation Centers was issued to relatives of servicemen who are contemplating joining their Navy husbands, sweethearts, and sons and daughters at these discharge points.

Already overcrowded conditions in the localities of the Separation Centers has made it necessary for Navy Housing Officials to issue an appeal to the relatives of servicemen and women to avoid further confusion by delaying their planned reunions with their loved ones until the veterans are discharged and return to their homes.

The influx of the World II veterans to the Separation Centers, already swarming with Navy personnel stationed at these facilities, has created a critical shortage of rooms.

Housing authorities explained that the appeal to the relatives and friends of the service people is made in hope of avoiding further hardships. Hundreds of families and friends of the veterans are arriving daily at the Separation Centers only to find it impossible to find housing accommodations.

Compliance with this request, it was pointed out, also will help relieve the rail and bus transportation problem and thus make it possible for more servicemen to be transferred to the Separation Centers for discharges.

REPORT TO THE FARMERS

by George Martin

Farmers, under the 1946 Agricultural Conservation Program, have been given an allocation of funds with which to operate the Conservation Program for the next year. The Program has been carefully planned by the County and Community Committees; they have set aside practices that provide about the same assistance that farmers received under the 1945 Program. In addition, the Committees approved practices that will benefit the farmer in re-organizing his farm irrigation system.

The most important part of the program is that all practices carried out must have Prior approval by the County Committee or no payment will be made.

There will be an election of Delegates to the County Convention and Community Committees in the near future. As soon as the date is definite every one will be notified.

I bow my head in shame, folks, for omitting the following Card of Thanks in a previous issue. Editor

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the people of this community for their many kindnesses shown us during the recent illness of Mr. Vaughn. We especially appreciated the lovely cards, letters, and flowers.

OWLS RUN OVER ESTELLINE BY THE SCORE OF 66 TO 6

The Owls were in good form Friday afternoon, November 9, when they played the Estelline Cubs on the local field. Bruce Price took the kickoff on the five yard line and ran it the length of the field for a score on the first play. Two more touchdowns were put over in the first few minutes. Fans had expected this to be a close game, but it seemed that the Estelline team was more or less bewildered. When the Owls had garnered a nice lead, the second team went in. The Cubs still made little progress even against the lighter opposition. Only in the third quarter were they able to sneak over a pass that netted a touchdown. The game ended with the score board reading Silverton 66, Estelline 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heckman received a telegram from their daughter Lorene stating that she was married last Thursday to PFC Francis R. Friemel of Fort Benning Georgia.

Plans for the establishment of the First State Bank in Silverton are underway this week. Equipment and supplies are being procured and final arrangements are being made for its opening in the near future; however, no definite date has yet been set.

The charter granting the establishment of the bank was conceded by members of the State Banking Board at a meeting in Austin November 5. Local citizens who attended the Austin meeting were: T. R. Whiteside, W. Coffee, Jr., and D. T. Northcutt.

James F. Smith of Memphis will be president of the bank. The directors will be: Mr. Smith, Hayden Hensley, and Sam Hamilton of Memphis; R. D. Hughes of Pampa; T. R. Whiteside, D. T. Northcutt, and W. Coffee Jr., of Silverton.

Hayden Hensley will move here soon and be in charge of operating the bank.

Well, the Hahns bid Silverton a final farewell last Saturday. Loaded down with bag and baggage, they left for Jewell, Kansas to visit Barbara's mother and put Collin in school there. They're going to take their delayed (nine years) honeymoon trip to Mexico City and points South, where they will vacation until the first of the year. Then Roy will begin his work in the advertising department of Graham Home Plow Co. He will be traveling most of the time, so Barbara and Collin will make their home with her mother in Jewell for a while.

I have appreciated so much the way that many of you have been writing news items and bringing or sending them in. It has really been a help. Keep up the good work, won't you?

In talking with County Agent Leo White the other day, he pointed out that only one-third of the families in the Haylake and Wallace communities have filled out their applications for Rural Electrification. Before such a project can be approved, the other two-thirds must manifest an interest by getting their applications filled out and turned in.

Have you been doing much thinking lately about a Cooperative Hospital for Silverton? Well, it's time to start because there is going to be a Mass Meeting called right away for all people of Silverton and surrounding territory. It will be announced in the paper . . . possibly next week . . . so look for it and plan to be at the meeting.

As this Thanksgiving Day approaches, let's take time to remember how much for which we have to be thankful. Our first thought is to be grateful that the war is over and the victory ours; that many are safely back home with their families and friends. But in our thinking, may we not forget to be thankful for those whose courage and loyalty was sufficient for them to pay the supreme sacrifice with their lives that we free Americans may live and enjoy this day of Thanksgiving—in Peace.

1925 STUDY CLUB MEETS

On November 7, thirteen members of the Woman's 1925 Study Club met in regular session in the Red Cross room.

Rev. G. A. Elrod gave a very inspirational talk on "The Veteran Comes Home". Rev. Elrod pointed out that the veteran's main desire was to return to normal civilian life as quickly as possible. We can help him do this by treating him as a civilian rather than as a war veteran. He will need financial, intellectual, and moral help, but we should give it as indirectly as possible, so as not to make the veterans appear as objects of sympathy. —Reporter

Mr. Wheelock and R. D. attended the football game between the Bull Dogs and the Sandies at Plainview Saturday evening.

Mrs. T. C. Bomar spent Friday and Saturday in Lubbock.

BOB McDANIEL III, writes to his father, Bob, Jr., — from within 550 miles of Tokyo:

Hello Dad — Well, here is your wandering boy again. I guess you are surprised at hearing from me three times in one week. I'm not having much to do on this boat so I guess I can write a few letters. Dad, talking about weeks, I guess you can start counting them for me, because in approximately 18 or 19 weeks I am going to walk through your front door. It is hard to believe but the news came out this morning on a radio report from San Francisco. The 32nd Division is supposed to come home in February. I certainly do hope that statement is true of our ship.

We are supposed to unload our equipment sometime the 15th. As you know I am driving a jeep now and I have about 400 miles to drive when we unload. I don't know exactly where we are going to be but you get a map of Japan and by the time you get this letter I will know where I am. I will tell you and then you can look it up on the map. Our mission there is to disarm 17,000 troops (Japs). They said it would be the easiest job the 32nd had had to do in 3½ years overseas. Sounds good.

We pulled out of the Harbor on Luzon the 9th of October. This is the thirteenth. Have had a pretty nice trip except for two days going by Okinawa where they had that terrible typhoon. The water was still rough enough that we knocked a hole in the bottom of our ship. Nothing to worry about. They say when we get to Japan they are going to try to have a Japanese orderly for every mother's son of us. That sounds sorta fishy. They said that we would be put up in the best buildings Japan had to offer if the Yanks had left any standing when they bombed Japan. We are going to sleep on a mattress with white (Japanese) sheets. Boy, I could do with that. I haven't slept on a mattress in nearly seven months. I haven't even seen a sheet and let me tell you something else—on this ship we actually got iced tea and ice cream. That is the first any of us have seen since we left the States. We really mop it up. I have averaged about two quarts a day since I have been on this ship. I don't know how much tea. We even got hot water to shave and shower in. Man this is heaven.

Just a little excitement about 150 yards away from our boat! A destroyer that was traveling with the convoy just now blew up a mine. They sure did some nice shooting. Water went about fifty feet high.

Well, Dad, I've got to close for now so write soon. I am sending you a small sum of Filipino money for a souvenir. It's worth $2.50.

Miss Winona Lee of Lubbock was married to Mr. Wayne Thompson in Clovis last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wheelock and son of Amarillo spent the week end here in the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wheelock.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Ray and son Harvey of Llano spent the week-end with their niece Mrs. Henry Heckman.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Lyde and Dee Ann spent Sunday night with Mrs. Lyde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Bomar. Mrs. Lyde and Dee Ann will spend a few days here.

Mr. Lyde returned to Lubbock where he has a position with the Texas Highway Department. In addition to his duties with the highway department, he will instruct private flying at Crosbyton.

Burleson Writes Trip To Japan

from Bruce Burleson, parents in Borger prove exciting. Dad, finding you a box of knick-knacks that I've picked up here. There really isn't much more I'm not much of a collector. It contains a watch, necklace and earrings from Hawaii, a kimono, the kimono, flag (Jap), tips of Japanese cloth, a doll set including a horse, Japan. Also, a fan and chief from Manila. It brings me to the point that tell you of my recent trip—start, Hawaii — we are now going aboard a C-54 trip down under, pilot, co-navigator, radio operator, (that's me), and a flight (he takes care of the passengers, sort of a steward). We as a payload, mail, some priority cargo, and about thirty passengers. First stop, Kwajalein, flight eleven hours. Kwajalein is a very modern airport, coming it is nothing but a small atoll, very hot and not at all desirable place. Next stop, Guam, warm, rainy days, and a gigantic, teeming station in the middle of the Pacific, very impressive, but certainly no place to call home. Board for Manila. (Of course we slept and changed planes at Kwaj, and Guam). Flying over the Philippines is really a beautiful sight, a beautiful green countryside, many rivers, and nice farms, clearly visible. But then Manila! From the air it looks pretty well beat up, but from the ground it's terrific—the most disheartening thing I've ever seen in my life, not a building of any size left in one piece—the effects are strictly of shelling and bombing and to some extent, fire. And it is true, too, that some of the damage was intentional destruction. Some of the buildings are the most grotesque chunks of beat-up cement you've ever seen; and it is very clear, too, that Manila was once the Pearl of the Orient, truly a beautiful city. A thundering herd of G-1 vehicles and a smothering of civilian vehicles make Manila's highways the worst nightmare I've ever seen. Traffic is absolutely bumper to bumper. Downtown Manila, what's left of it, is pretty much of a mess, all the places are after the Yankee Dollar. A meal cost about $20.00, a bottle of pop, one peso or fifty cents. Yes, they really have inflation in Manila. That's the reason I only bought a small fan there. Looks like some of the Filipinos may starve this next year. The poverty of the place is frightening. Board for Okinawa, another seemingly very busy spot, not a bad looking isle from the air—lots of runways and at the end of each, the debris of wrecked planes of two nations—nice monument to War. It's easy to see that this place was rapidly becoming a terrific Army-Navy base, the jumping off place for Japan (Atsugi, Japan, twenty miles to the heart of Tokyo). We're over an hour out of Japan when we spot the national shrine, so to speak, the mountain of Fuji—can't spell it, peering up majestically above the clouds flying inland a little ways to our field, it's a beautiful green country, the coast line is bleak and silent except for a few of our ships in Tokyo Bay. The destruction we see here is different from Manila, it isn't shot up, it's swept clean. The foundations of the buildings is all that is left. The percentage of area obliterated is great. Yokohama is nearly all destroyed and a large part of Tokyo. Then there's the Emperor's place surrounded by a large moat, you would know it was the place because the moat was there to give it away.

Viewing the people of Japan and seeing externally what they had to fight with, their resources and materials, the feeling of every American is the same—kinda ashamed that it took us three years to beat them. They were really dug in though, with miles and miles of caves and tunnels, assembly lines and factories underground.

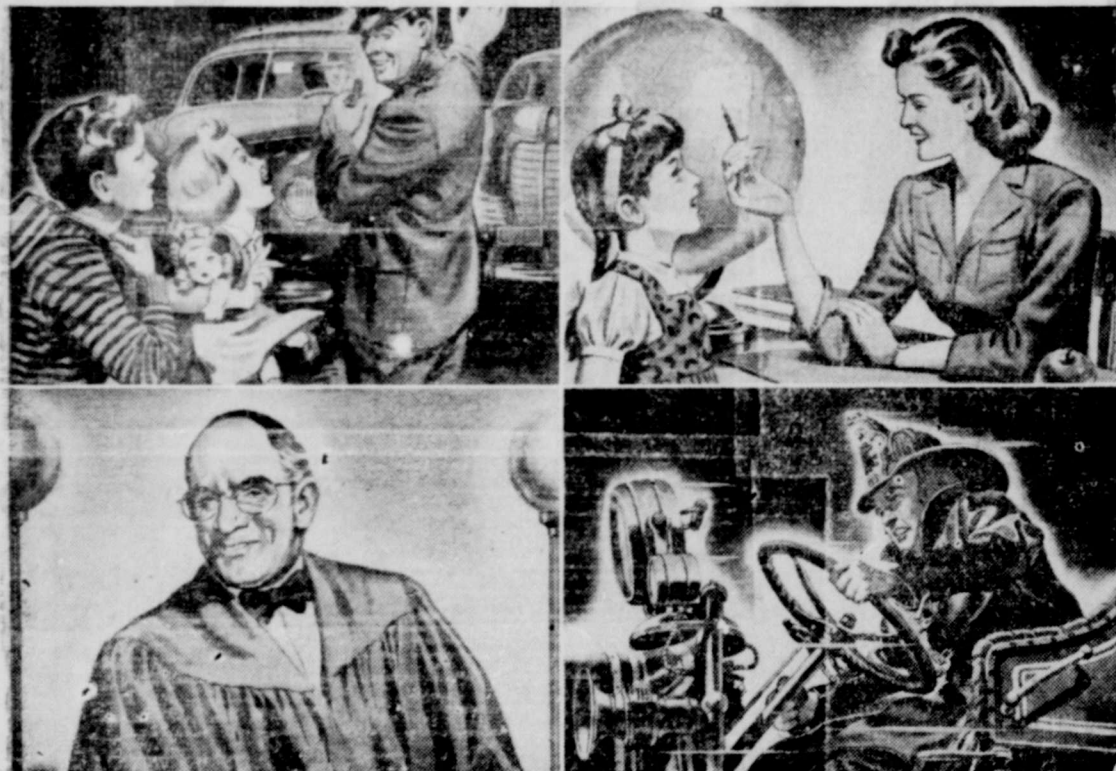

The Japs look at us, we look at them—both are interested, amazed, and a little ill at ease; walking around in a freshly conquered country gives you a little leery feeling at first. You ponder how to act toward them, every thing from a small child to an old man, and they have a smile that turns on and off like a water faucet. Then you see how distantly poor and ill kept they are and a little pity creeps into your emotions. I truly don't believe that many of the common and low class people knew what the war was about. A large and surprising number of them can speak English, but wade and travel among them is slightly hampered. They are starving too, a package of American cigarettes brings two dollars. I'll have more to tell you about Japan and Japanese when I get home. We flew over Iwo Jima on our way from Japan to Guam. And all I can say is that it is a little pork chop of an isle, covered by a landing strip. From Guam back

MARCH OF TIME STUDY CLUB MEETS

The March of Time Study Club met on November 1 for their regular meeting in the Red Cross room. The business meeting was conducted by the chairman.

An interesting study of "Famous Women" was led by Mrs. True Burson. The dominant thought of the program was "a thing of beauty is a joy forever."

THINGS TO COME — An electrical control for hospital beds. The patient merely presses a button to raise or lower himself. . . . A new plastic resin with which to treat baseballs, bolley balls etc. It is worked into the leather, prevents abrasion, does not affect the bounce. . . . A new kitchen unit which includes the sink, laundry tub, refrigerator and stove. It is a step saver; but confusing, isn't it? . . . A new fire resistant hose which will withstand fire for 30 minutes instead of the previous three minutes. . . . Wrinkle finishes, long used on camera exteriors and laboratory instruments will be available for cloth, paper, felt. Previously they required cooking to set them. A new combination of synthetic rubber and drying oils eliminates the need of heat drying and makes then applicable to new products. . . . I new lightweight plastic frame to hold magnifying glasses for close, eye-taxing work. It is held in place by an adjustable elastic headband.

What's Back of My Gas Burners?

A thousand years ago, the Chinese used natural gas fuel for evaporating salt brine. They transported the gas in bamboo tubes. Thus, in those days, the gas business was simple. Now, however, it has become complicated and technical, utilizing many scientific devices and processes.

Since natural gas service so vitally affects your daily life, we believe you would enjoy knowing more about it. Therefore we plan to publish a series of four advertisements which will attempt to explain how natural gas is brought from its deep-underground reservoir to the burners of your gas appliances. Due to space limitations, the story must be brief and oversimplified. The drawing at the left will help you follow the gas on its travels.

Most of our gas comes from Hutchinson, Moore, Carson and Potter Counties in the Panhandle Gas Field, one of the largest in the world. We purchase some gas in Ector County for use in the southern portion of our system. In the Panhandle Field gas wells are generally drilled by the "rotary" methods, so named because of the rotating motion of the drill bit. A modern rotary drilling outfit costs from $100,000 to $200,000.

The hard steel drill bit is the cutting tool which drills down through successive strata of shale and rock. Screwed to the top of the bit is a string of hollow, round drill pipe which in turn is screwed into the bottom of a hollow, square pipe known as a "Kelly." The Kelly works through a square hole in the rotary turntable. Thus, when the engines spin the turntable, the Kelly, the drill pipe and the bit also spin, and the bit cuts its way downward. Heavy pumps force drilling mud down through the hollow Kelly and drill pipe, through perforations in the bit, then outside the pipe and back to the surface, carrying with it the cuttings from the bit. As the bit moves downward, additional joints of drill pipe are added below the Kelly.

When the gas producing horizon is reached, a string of steel pipe, known as casing, is inserted in the hole from the surface of the ground to the top of the producing horizon. After running the casing, cement is run thru the casing and forced out around the bottom in order to prevent the gas from escaping around the outside of the pipe. Then the well is drilled into the gas-producing horizon.

A steel derrick, capable of supporting weights of 200 tons or more, is used to support the drill pipe during drilling and the casing when casing is being installed. When the well is completed, the derrick is removed. In its place is installed a "Christmas Tree," an odd-looking assembly of valves and fittings necessary in producing, testing and maintaining the well.
