Silverton Owls Will Be Keen Contenders In District Baseball

The Silverton Owls are gunning for the district Championship in baseball this year. This is the first time that baseball has been a part of the Interscholastic League program. Some twenty boys have reported to Coach Bailey and some ten more boys are expected to report now that track is over. The Owls have played two games so far winning one and dropping one. The Owls were defeated here at Silverton April 2 by the Estelline Cubs by a score of 17-13. The Owls journeyed to Carey yesterday, April 13, to hand that High School their first conference defeat out of three starts by a score of 20 to 14. Both the games the Owls have played have been free scoring affairs and much work is being done on defense this week. The greatest shortage in the Owl lineup is the pitcher department. One or two boys have injured their arms until Haskel Harmon is the only pitcher the Owls have who is able to go the whole distance. Other boys who may be seen in the thriving slot for the Owls are Mann Bingham and W. C. Mercer. Donald Rhea, Donley Gilbreath and Hubert Brooks will probably hold down the catching chores. Robert McPherson, Jerry Simpson, Carl Tidwell and Walter Bean seem to be the best material for the infield at the present time but there are some boys who may give these boys some troubles to hold down their jobs.

Here is the rest of the Owls schedule.

Test Well on Ballew Farm Reported In Show Area

A reliable informant stated this week that the Rogers Drilling Co. test well on the Donald Ballew farm south of town was down to a depth of approximately 1,300 feet. According to the Honolulu well, this would place the drilling in the show area found in the former well and it is possible that some type of test will be run on the well some time this week—The Donley County Leader.

LAFAYETTE, VA.—Thirty-two years without missing a Sunday at her church school, in spite of the handicap of helpless invalidism, is the record of cheerful Miss Lillian Wallhall of this community.

She and her father, J. G. Wallhall, her wheelchair chauffeur, have just been honored in a commendation from Dr. M. Leo Rippy of Nashville, Tenn., director of the Department of Christian Education of Adults of The Methodist Church.

Their citation for fidelity was made in connection with the April-May "Crusade for Christ" effort to increase adult attendance in the 37,450 Sunday schools of the denomination.

E. M. "Mont" Carter Buried Wednesday At Plainview

PLAINVIEW, April 13—Funeral services for E. M. "Mont" Carter, 70 years old, were held at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in First Baptist Church with Dr. A. Hope Owen, pastor, and Dr. G. K. Rogers, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Burial was in the Plainview Cemetery under direction of W. M. Lemons Funeral Home.

Mr. Carter, Hale County resident for 60 years, died in his sleep early in the morning of a heart attack. Death came sometime between 4 and 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Carter moved to Hale County with his parents in 1887 from Ellis County where he was born. His parents homesteaded land where the Santa Fe station in Plainview now stands, living in a sod house.

As a young man, Mr. Carter farmed. In 1898 with a brother, Tom, he organized the Carter Mercantile Company, one of Plainview's first business establishments. He was an extensive land owner in Plainview and Hale County.

For many years Mr. Carter was associated with the Plainview bank. In 1908 he built a large brick home in which he lived until his death.

Survivors are two sons, E. M. Carter, Jr., and Dick Carter and two brothers, Tom and Ellis Carter, all of Plainview.

Briscoe County Farmers Urged To Eradicate Field Bindweed

Vacation Spots Are Accessible From "Texas Zephyr"

Four fabulous vacation wonderlands sparkling like jewels along the mountain chain which forms the Continental Divide are beckoning visitors this year.

They are the Colorado Springs-Pikes Peak region, Rocky Mountain National Park, Yellowstone National Park, and Glacier National Park—all served via Burlington Lines.

The swift schedules of the "Texas Zephyr" make these destinations easy to reach and convenient connecting train service makes it possible to include two, three or all four in a delightful combination.

Colorado offers an unusual variety of vacation accommodations ranging from inexpensive, furnished cabins to swank resort hotels and fascinating dude ranches. Rail, bus, and even cog road transportation make it easy to go wherever one wishes.

Yellowstone's great hotels will be open this summer with service back at pre-war standards. Rail visitors to Yellowstone have the option of entering via one gateway and leaving via another, thereby finding no duplication of scenic wonders.

Glacier and Waterton, its sister national park across the International Boundary in Canada, will be in full swing this summer with convenient sightseeing tour schedules, excellent accommodations at hotels or chalets, and horseback tours for those who want to plunge into the deeper wilderness.

"Summer travelers via Burlington Lines need have no resort reservation worries," according to General Passenger Agent Robt. L. Hoyt, "because complete and confirmed reservations can be arranged through any Burlington office prior to departure."

Brute Force Showing At Palace Theater April 22 and 23

Producer Mark Hellinger supplies here another examination of criminals and what makes them tick, concentrating this time on convicts within a penitentiary, dominated by an administrative policy of brute force which collides with man's insatiable thirst for freedom. Violence and its suppression, bloodshed and its penalties, hate and suffering are key ingredients in Richard Brooks' screenplay. Directed in hard as nails manner by Jules Dassin, the picture is a powerful, but depressing, bid for box office interest.

Burt Lancaster, Hume Cronyn, Charles Bickford and Sam Levene stand out in the large cast in which men are featured predominantly, although Yvonne De Carlo, Ella Raines, Ann Blyth and Anita Colby, each appearing in one short sequence, are names available for billing, and Howard Duff, who is radio's "Sam Spade," is separately exploitable as making his film debut.

Cronyn plays effectively the somewhat psychopathic prison officer, plotting to unseat the warden and using willing or unwilling stool pigeons to gain his own ends. Lancaster grimly portrays a convict leader whom fellow inmates, desperate for escape, obey disastrously in a brutally melodramatic prison break attempt which brings the picture to an end in Cronyn's own death, and many others. Although the film is, in a sense, an argument for tempering justice with mercy, the emphasis is on opposite policy throughout.

Mrs. Glenn Burnett, of Amarillo, and Miss Roberta Campbell, of Canyon, were here Thursday to help their mother, Mrs. R. L. Campbell, celebrate her birthday.

Every farmer who has bindweed on his place should be doing some serious thinking and some effective eradication work, says Leo White, County Agent. Most of the people in this county are not acquainted with this noxious weed and many people are mistaking some other plant for field bindweed.

According to a statement from Mr. White early this week, bindweed is not well established in Briscoe County, but it is definitely present and should be killed immediately.

Bindweed can be killed by plowing provided the plant is cut off and kept below the surface for several growing seasons. No farmer plows his land that often and the spots are so small that he can't afford to plow just in the areas that are infested. The 2-4-D spray materials will burn the plant down but it will not keep it from coming back.

The sure and economical way to get rid of this rapidly spreading weed is to sterilize the soil where the plants are growing with sodium chlorate or calcium chlorate. These chemicals will sterilize the soil for two or three years killing the plants and also the seed that germinate during that period. The chlorates are in powder form and may be applied as a spray or as a dust. Dusting the materials into the soil is very satisfactory and eliminates the use of spraying equipment.

When applying chlorate as a dust, use ten pounds of chlorate to each square rod of surface area. Put on five pounds per square rod in the spring and the remaining five pounds later in the summer. Of course, the land will be useless for a while but it wouldn't produce anything with bindweed on it and they would be spreading to clean land.

When the bindweed patches are few and the materials are available is the time to eradicate them, concluded White, a few years from now may be too late. He advises all farmers to know how to recognize bindweed and kill it as soon as possible.

Agriculture and the Railroads

A Chicago radio station recently carried a program of great interest to the farmer. It dealt with what the railroads are doing on behalf of agriculture and was conducted in the form of an interview between Albert R. Beatty of the Association of American Railroads, and officers of a number of leading lines.

The farmer's primary interest is in getting his crop to market with a minimum of delay. Last year, our total crop production was only one per cent lower than the average for the five biggest years in history—1942-46. The wheat crop hit an all time record. Yet the railroads moved the mountains of crops with only minor delays, and these delays were at the harvest peak. Further, the few dislocations that did occur were primarily the result of inadequate storage facilities, and not from lack of cars.

That achievement is now history. The railroads have already taken steps to prepare for the 1948 harvest, and they are confident that they'll do an even better job this year than last.

The interest of the railroads in agriculture doesn't stop with selling space in boxcars. Most of the lines have Agricultural Departments. These departments cooperate with individual farmers, farm organizations, farm agents, etc., in order to develop natural resources, conserve soil and timber, and to help find better markets for agricultural products. It's a case where the farmers need the railroads, the railroads need the farmers, and cooperation is profitable for all.

The railroads opened up America's great agricultural belts years ago. And they are a big factor in the steady progress that is being made today.

Toward Stable Prices

The head of one of the country's principal retail associations recently said this: "Stability of prices is what we need. . . . We must face the economic facts of life and control the inflation of money and credit and do all we can to increase supply of goods through greater production. Management must be willing and intelligent enough to take only reasonable profits, and labor must restrict its demands to reasonable wages and produce an honest day's work for an honest day's pay."

The belief is prevalent in some quarters that the peak of the commodity price spiral may have been reached. At the same time, it would be unsafe to assume that this is necessarily true. It is very likely that the economy may again be subjected to strong inflationary pressures—such as the spending of very large sums for national defense. In that event, the most effective kind of cooperation between the government, industry, labor and consumers will be necessary if runaway inflation is to be prevented.

It is idle to talk of a return to prewar prices. If that should occur a severe depression would inevitably result. Our whole economy is now geared to an extremely high national income, record wages, nearly full employment, and a stupendous debt coupled with the biggest government budgets we have ever had in time of peace. The spokesman for retailing was simply pointing to some basic truths which we are apt to overlook in these confusing days.

Spoke in Mineral Wells recently at the annual dinner of the Chamber of Commerce. The occasion was really a home-coming for Col. Ray Leeman, of San Antonio, executive vice president of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce, who began his career nearly 30 years ago as manager of the Mineral Wells Chamber of Commerce.

While there, I picked up this story from Col. Bill Cameron of The Index:

During the war, Texans at Camp Wolters used the expression, "durn-yankee" pretty freely, so a colonel who was a native Texan called the Lone Star lads together and said, "Men, we must quit calling these fellows from Massachusetts and Illinois durn-yankees; we should remember that they are our allies now!"

This will come as a surprise to those who know me personally but, at heart, I'm really modest.

It is embarrassing to me to have a fuss made over me in public and for people to come up and tell me how much they have enjoyed my books and ask for my autograph.

All this is very distressing—in fact, there is only one thing that is more distressing—and that is for them not to do this.

But most of the time, they don't.

Like the young lady during the war. She was riding on a city bus and she complained to a policeman who was on the bus, "That Marine over there is annoying me." The policeman replied, "Why, he hasn't said a word to you." She said, "I know; that's what's annoying me."

Can you remember away back to the early days of the automobile when they were called "horseless carriages?" A carnival came to town and had a side show, with a sign, "25 Cents to See the Horseless Carriage." Folks paid their quarters, went in, came out and stood around to watch their friends and neighbors go in. Inside the tent was a buggy drawn by mules!

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bailey, of Dalhart, visited Mrs. Bailey's mother, Mrs. Mollie London, and their daughter, Miss Dorothy Bailey, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bomar, of Palo Duro, visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Tate.

Office to be Closed At San Antonio on May 15th

Remains destined for sections of Louisiana that have been served by the San Antonio office will be handled at the Quartermaster Depot at Memphis, Tennessee.

After May 15, all communications relative to the war dead repatriation program should be addressed to the American Graves Registration Division, Fort Worth, Texas, Col. Partridge said.

Vacation Trip Is Offered As Prize In Essay Contest

An essay contest with a 10-day all-expense, escorted, Colorado vacation trip as the prize to each of five winners, has been announced by the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway and its subsidiary the Wichita Valley Railway, as part of the observance of the 75th anniversary of the chartering of Fort Worth and Denver City Railway Company by the Texas Legislature on May 26, 1873.

The subject of the essays submitted in this contest is to be, "The History of the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway (or the Wichita Valley Railway) in My Home County."

It is pointed out by the railroad's headquarters in Fort Worth that a wealth of material on the early day history of Fort Worth, West Texas, and the Panhandle is tied closely to history of the railroad itself, and that all historical data is acceptable for the essays submitted, such as county records stories or incidents recalled and related by old settlers, old newspaper articles, matter from history books, biographies, etc., supported by early day photographs of the railroad's construction or operation, if desired by contestants.

Five contest districts have been designated and the counties through which these railroads operate have been allocated to each district.

Lubbock District includes the counties of Briscoe, Floyd, Hale, Swisher, Castro, and Lubbock.

STATE WIDE WHEAT VARIETY SCHOOL SCHEDULED

A large enrollment is expected when country elevator and mill grain buyers, as well as county agents, agricultural teachers and certified wheat growers meet at a state school to continue study of wheat kernel characteristics April 22 and 23 at Amarillo in the Grain Exchange Building. Invitations to buyers and others extended by K. E. Sodor, Director, Texas-Oklahoma Wheat Improvement Program, list six instructors headed by Fred T. Dinos, nationally recognized variety expert employed by Tex-O-Kan Flour Mills. Other instructors include: R. H. Jordan, Grain Inspector (in Oklahoma) and Claude Goodnight (in Texas); Willis B. Combs, U. S. D. A. Grain Marketing Specialist from Chicago; plus several A and M College representatives. Other state schools will be held at Enid, Fredericks and Fort Worth.

The program will begin at 9:00 A. M. each day. The first half-day will be a review of past schools and will give beginners an opportunity to catch up, according to Mr. Sodor. Those who have learned to identify four varieties at past schools will learn four more for a total of the eight principal varieties grown in this area. Buyers for mills are demanding desirable varieties for local flour sales and are picking every ear they buy for variety. Housewives and bakers, by demanding high quality bread, are forcing mills to pay premiums for desirable varieties whether purchased here at home or in the north, advises Sodor.

Either wanting premiums today or looking to the time our huge export program collapses, country elevator wheat buyers are flocking to these and similar schools to learn to distinguish between desirable and undesirable milling and baking varieties. They will thus be prepared to protect their profits when two prices are paid for wheat at country points as is now the case at all major wheat terminals, concludes Sodor. "Certificates of Merit" will be awarded to all graduates depending on their final ability. Graduates are graded into three groups, Primary, Qualified and Expert.

What can I do about the high cost of living?

Three things will help: Spend wisely, keep out of debt, and save regularly. Until the supply of scarce goods increases, buy only what you need now, borrow only if you must, add to your bank account every pay day and buy more U. S. Savings Bonds. Enlist in the nation-wide fight against high prices.

VISIT TO NATCHEZ

To reach Natchez we crossed the Natchez-Vadalia Bridge which was opened for traffic in 1940. It is one of the most beautiful bridges that crosses the Mississippi river. Natchez, one of the oldest cities of the United States, is located on steep bluffs, three hundred feet above the river. It was, until recent years, rather inaccessible, shut off from the rest of America by interminable forests on one side and the majestic Mississippi on the other. (There is no railway passenger service into Natchez, even today). As the main artery of commerce and travel the Mississippi had a vital part in building Natchez, which was the first capitol of Mississippi. The landing of the steamboat was then always eagerly awaited and loudly heralded. Natchez is noted for its houses of colonial and Antebellum days, magnificently constructed, lavishly furnished, amazingly preserved; they are an inspiration to the modern world.

The two garden clubs of Natchez have combined in planning a pilgrimage which has gained national renown. During the month of March each year thirty-three houses of especial interest are opened by the descendants of the original owners or by the clubs for inspection. Hostesses, in costume of the 1860 period, welcome you to visit the relics and furnishings of a vanished era. It takes three days to make the complete tour to all the houses. They date from 1774 to 1860. In the finer mansions, no expense was spared, in their construction or furnishings. Chartered ships brought elaborately carved mantels, crystal and bronze chandeliers, enormous mirrors, elaborately framed in gold leaf, other furnishings created in France, Spain, or Italy, lovely paintings, rare china and silver and crystal. Some had the original drapes, upholstery and carpets that were well preserved and beautiful. Most of the larger houses had kitchen buildings and servant buildings at the back, which at the time they were built, were homes for the slaves. The lumber and brick of Natchez clay were usually made on the plantations. Several of the houses were trimmed with wrought iron-work or iron lace which gave an airy and charming effect.

Natchez is rich in historical incidents. The old tavern that Aaron Burr frequented is now owned by the clubs—one of less pretentious homes, but very beautiful, was the birthplace of Varina Howell. There she was reared and married to Jefferson Davis. Many noted people visited here in those days. Thomas Jefferson, Jenny Lind, Stephen Foster, John James Audubon, Mark Twain and others. There's the house that General Grant appropriated as the headquarters for his army. At this time of year, many of the terraces and gardens are a riot of gorgeous color, with green sloping lawns, groups of azaleas in three different colors, banks of camellias, and Magnolia trees in bloom. I don't think it would be possible to visualize so much beauty without just seeing it.

Mr. Tibbetts filed on four sections of land near Flomot in 1890 with the ranch headquarters at what is known as the Quitaque Peaks. It was there that Mrs. Tibbetts went as a bride and lived for 55 years. The land had not changed hands until it was sold the first of this year to Carl Taylor.

Survivors are three sons, S. A. Tibbetts, Roswell; R. M. Tibbetts, Tucson, Ariz., and E. W. Tibbetts, Quitaque; two daughters, Mrs. Charles E. Merrell, Solano, N. M., and Mrs. Fay Beauchamp, Plainview. New Device Controls 'Cancer' of Buildings Pipes Enable Chemical To Reach Termites

Termites, the "cancer" of buildings, now can be controlled. Through all the ages the tiny insect that feasts on wood in homes, farm buildings and other structures has been a constant destroyer. Annual property losses run far into the millions.

Ordinary control measures could not get at the intricate tunnels hidden away in difficult and impossible to reach places.

A new device, hailed as an effective means of combatting the destructive pest, was demonstrated at the annual convention of the National Association of Home Builders in Chicago by W. B. Hill of Memphis, Tenn., nationally known as a termite expert.

His method consists of installing a series of slotted pipes at the time of construction in all inaccessible areas, including dirt-filled porches, sun porches, stoops, steps and fireplaces. Annually a perforated pipe is slipped into the allotted pipes and all hidden areas are treated with a powerful chemical toxic blown through openings in the pipes. Hill, who has spent 20 years figuring ways of waging war on the termite, also has devised a display showing live termites at work. Enclosed in glass, his small scale model home has an army of hungry termites actually at work constructing their intricate network of mud tunnels or shelter tubes. It shows the worker, the soldier on guard and the immature, young potential queen who swarms in the spring.

In this novel display, a colony of termites is feasting on the framework in a model home structure. It provides dramatic proof of the destructive ability of the tiny insects.

Beware the 'New Look,' Crop Specialist Advises

Beware the "new look," especially in crop varieties. That is the advice of Joe Robinson, Iowa State college agronomist.

"New varieties seem to hold some sort of magic charm over many farmers," stated Robinson. "I am happy to see the farmer change to new varieties whenever they can increase his yield but just because a variety carries a new name is no indication of its value."

Robinson pointed out that performance records are more important than newness. Selection of suitable hybrid corn varieties creates another problem. Unlike other crops, some hybrid corn varieties are produced by only one concern. Eligibility of both the private hybrid lines and the experimental station lines for certification depends on the performance records in a corn yield test.

Mosquito Control

Use of DDT, 2,4-D and other newly-developed weed killers is aiding efforts for mosquito control. Cost of some of the new insecticides, however, makes their use prohibitive on large mosquito breeding areas. Ditching and other more permanent methods still must be resorted to in those areas.

Income From Poultry Increases in Nebraska

Sale of poultry and eggs has been accounting for 9 to 12 per cent of the cash farm income in Nebraska, according to figures compiled by J. H. Claybaugh, extension poultryman. Yearly egg sales have been more than 50 million dollars and as high as 57 million for the past five years. Sales of poultry have averaged more than 20 million, reaching a peak of 27 million.

In a quite ceremony Saturday morning, April 3, at 8:00 o'clock, Mrs. Eva Morton became the bride of Barney Anthony. Pink and white carnations decorated the altar in the parlor of the First Baptist Church where Dr. Roy L. Johnson read the vows, with members of the families and very close friends as witnesses. The bride chose a light beige wool gaberdine suit with navy blue accessories for her bridal ensemble. Her corsage was pink carnations tied with white satin ribbon. After a wedding trip the couple will make their home on a farm twenty miles southwest of Canyon. — Canyon News.

Estes L. Woodburn of Lockney is Claimed By Death

Estes L. Woodburn, the friend of every man, woman, boy, and girl in this vicinity, passed away Saturday night at 9 o'clock as the result of a heart disease. He was first stricken Friday night after he had closed the Lockney Drug, where he was employed. His condition did not improve during the night or Saturday and he died Saturday night in the Co-operative hospital here.

Mr. Woodburn had been in ill health for several years but his condition was not thought to be serious. He had worked steadily up until Friday night.

Mr. Woodburn was a registered pharmacist and had been connected with a drug store in the same building since he came to Lockney in 1914. His friendly disposition made friends for him of everyone that he met. He was especially popular with boys and girls.

Mr. Woodburn was converted and joined a Presbyterian church at an early age. He was also a member of the Masonic Lodge, Shrine and Knights Templar. He served three terms as alderman here.

He was born in Hood County, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Woodburn. At the age of 14 years he with his parents moved to Silverton and he was employed for seven years on the JA Ranch. He moved to Hereford and then Dimmitt where he bought a drug store from the late Dr. G. J. Stapleton. It was at Dimmitt that he married one of Dr. Stapleton's daughters, Miss Lulu, on April 18, 1909. The couple lived there until 1914 when they moved to Lockney where they purchased a drug store.

Mr. Woodburn sold the store in 1918 and made preparations to enter the Army during World War I, but the Armistice was signed and he was not called. However, he continued work in the store and has been connected with it since.

Survivors include his wife, one son, Pat, and wife and one granddaughter, Dianne, who live at Van, Texas; three brothers, W. R. Woodburn of Claude, and E. R. Woodburn of Los Angeles, Calif.; three sisters, Mrs. Leota Squyres of Fort Worth, Miss Mattie Woodburn of Hereford and Mrs. Edgar Betts of Clovis, New Mexico.

Funeral services were held at the Lockney Baptist Church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A crowd which filled every available seat in the church, stood in the vestibule and overflowed onto the church yard testified to the esteem with which he was held by the people of this area. The services were conducted by Rev. E. J. Cobb, assisted by Rev. A. L. Shaw, Baptist Minister of Happy and Rev. R. H. Campbell, local Methodist pastor. Flowers from sympathetic friends covered the entire front of the church.

Burial was in the Lockney cemetery. Carter Funeral Home of Lockney had charge of arrangements. Pall bearers were S. G. Miller, Frank and Robert Thomas, Gid Talley, Conde Davis, and J. D. Copeland.—Lockney Beacon.

Social Security Administration Give Information

Many people still do not know that old-age and survivors insurance payments under the social security act may be payable to survivors of World War II veterans.

John R. Sandersan, manager of the Social Security Administration Field Office at Amarillo, pointed out that since this protection is based entirely on military service, it is not necessary for the veteran to have held a social security card or to have normally been covered by the Social Security Act. Among those groups which normally are not covered by social security but who are protected by this amendment are agricultural workers, professional men, and the self-employed.

In general, this legislation provides protection to survivors if the veteran served in the armed forces at least 90 days, was honorably discharged, and death

Mister, this Oil gives you "Lubri-tection"!

Yes, That's the Kind of Protection You Get With the Great Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil!

RIGHT—you can get more than just lubricating qualities with this fine oil—you get plenty of engine protection, too!

That's why we call it "lubri-tection"! Because Phillips 66 Premium does more than just oil moving parts. It washes away harmful sludge, helps reduce piston-fouling varnish, protects delicate bearing metal from corrosion. All that in a quart of oil!

Why not give your engine this kind of treatment—it's worth it. Just ask for the new Phillips 66 Premium.

occurred within three years of the date of his discharge. The amendment does not provide for benefits to survivors of servicemen who died while on active duty. However, the survivors of servicemen who died while on active duty and who had worked in employment covered by the Social Security Administration long enough to be insured may still be eligible for benefits under the regular provisions of the Social Security Act. Sandersan said that since these benefits are not automatic, claims must be filed at the nearest Social Security Administration field office.

R. M. Haverty is Busy Man With Conservation Committee Work

One of the busiest farmers in Briscoe County these days is R. M. Haverty, Chairman of the County Agricultural Conservation Committee. Not only does he have to look after his own farm at Silverton, but he is helping, or trying to help, all the other farmers in Briscoe County with their farm conservation plans.

Mr. Haverty was elected last fall as chairman of the Briscoe County Agricultural conservation Committee. Mr. Haverty has been connected with the AAA ever since the program was organized in 1933. He is very competent and willing to assist farmers in any way possible.

Mr. Haverty is just one of more than 3,000 county ACP chairman in the United States who have been elected by their fellow farmers to administer the Agricultural Conservation Program. These men are not on a salary but are paid only for the time they put in on the program. Quite often this is less than the wages they have to pay a hired man to take their place on their own farms. But, as Mr. Haverty puts it, "Somebody's got to do it. The nation is faced with a serious soil and food problem. Population is increasing and people are eating more. At the same time the soil from which the needed food must come is decreasing. Every year more and more of it goes down the river. So, somebody has to lead out in the fight to save the soil."

He adds, however, that he doesn't have the whole job of running the ACP Program in Briscoe County. "Two able helpers are on the committee with me." They are Murray M. May, Vigo Park, and Morris Wilson, Quitaque, Texas. "And let's not forget the community committeeman. They help a lot. And many farmers not on committees help out. By working together were making progress, but there's a lot yet to be done."

FARM FACTS WORTH KNOWING

Q. How much feeding space do baby chicks need?
A. Feeding space per chick should be:

Age of Chicks	Space per Chick
First 3 weeks	1 inch
3 to 6 weeks	2 inches
6 weeks to maturity	3 inches

Q. What is the best time to hatch ducks that are to be used for breeders?

A. This depends on when you want them to come into production, but ducks to be used for breeders are usually hatched during April or May. They will be ready to lay about seven months later, which means that the birds will come into production late in the fall.

Q. When does the sow reach her peak production?

A. Results from the Research Farm of the Ralston Purina Company show that the average sow reaches her peak production from about the third to the sixth litter. Some sows remain very prolific until they have farrowed up to 125 pigs, but these are the exceptions.

Q. Does it increase milk production to have water available for dairy cows at all times?

A. Yes. Cows at Iowa State College produced 6% more milk and 12% more butterfat when they had water available all the time, compared with cows watered only once a day. It is important, too, that the water be kept warm enough in winter so that the cows will drink it. Failure to drink enough water during cold spells may result in constipation and sharp drops in milk flow.
