JESTER NAMES PLAINVIEW MAN TO HIGH COURT

Austin, March 7.—Governor Jester announced Monday he will appoint Meade F. Griffin of Plainview to the State Supreme Court to succeed Associate Justice A. J. Folley of Amarillo.

Justice Folley has submitted his resignation effective April 1, and will return to Amarillo to resume private law practice.

Governor Jester pointed out that the appointment of Judge Griffin preserved the geographical balance on the Supreme Court by continuing to give recognition to the Panhandle-High Plains area.

Plainview Home For Griffin 28 Years
Plainview.—Meade F. Griffin, Plainview attorney whom Governor Jester has said he will appoint to the Texas Supreme Court, has been a resident of Plainview for 28 years. He first practiced law here with the late L. S. Kinder and Judge C. D. Russell. In 1923 he was elected county judge of Hale County. After serving two terms he was elected district attorney of the 64th Judicial District, serving for eight years and retiring voluntarily in 1934. He has practiced law here since except for the three and half years he served with the Army during World War II.

He served as chief of the plans and training division at Camp Shanks, N. Y., until May 1945, when he was detailed to the judge advocate general's department. He went to Wiesbaden, Germany, and served as chief of the prosecution subsection, war crimes branch. He was separated from the service December 9, 1945, as a colonel of infantry. Griffin served in World War I, being discharged as a major of infantry, and retained his connection with the reserve corps continuously.

He was born in cottonwood, Callahan County, March 17, 1894, and moved to the Plains with his parents in 1914 and settled near Tullis. He received his B. A. degree from the University of Texas in 1915, and his law degree in 1917, leaving the university to enter the first officers training camp at Leon Springs, San Antonio.

He is serving under the Texas State Bar Association appointment on the committee on courts buildings in Austin.

The Griffins have two children, Mariellen, a student in Plainview High School and Fred, in elementary school.

BAND ELECTED OFFICERS MONDAY NIGHT

The Silvertown High School Band met Monday night and elected the following officers: Norma Jo Teague, president; Don Brown, vice-president; Mary Tom Bomar, secretary and treasurer; Billy Sanderson, reporter.

The band played five numbers on Friday night at the Palace Theatre. The band students plan to attend a contest at Canyon March 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Vardeman Smith, of Pampa, Texas and Mrs. Doyal Smith and son, Keith, of Ropesville, Texas were week end guests of Mrs. Ellen Smith and Bonnie

Enter Paige, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Paige, who is stationed at Camp, called his parents Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Paige were very happy to talk with their Jack Coffee, of Amarillo, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Monday.

Alton Steele, representing the county, received official notice this week from W. A. A. in Dallas, that Briscoe County's priority bid had been accepted on a hospital unit for Briscoe County Clinic-Hospital.

Steele was accompanied to Dallas February 28 by Dr. J. M. Shy, Doc Minyard and M. K. Summers. The building is located at Lubbock and upon their return they went to Lubbock to inspect the building. Accompanying Steele and Shy were Alvin Redin, Ray C. Bomar and Dick Bomar.

The building the committee is buying is 25x70 feet in size. This hospital unit was valued at $2000, and it was being offered for sale at 95% discount, making the purchase price $100.00.

The committee in charge of buying the building plan to move the unit to Silvertown and annex it to the Briscoe County Hospital that was completed last fall. It is estimated that they can provide nine or ten additional rooms out of this structure.

BOY'S RANCH AND WHAT IT MEANS TO YOUNGSTERS

What is Boy's Ranch? It's a regular Texas Ranch located forty miles northwest of Amarillo, stocked with Whiteface Hereford, saddle horses, and 114 boys who never had a chance. Some never knew what a father was—many involved with the law—while others simply needed a place in the open where they could breathe; learn to raise their own vegetables; raise and butcher their own beef and hogs.

Recently a Juvenile Judge asked Boy's Ranch to take a 12 year old boy, saying, "this is case of the Grapes of Wrath—Tobacco Road in Arkansas. Jimmy wasn't wanted when he was born, nor any time since. He was a neglected, beaten youngster who never knew anything but one-room hotels, wretched family relationship, poor food, soggy pancakes, bad drinking water, little or no clothing, a stepmother who never had a drop of love in her heart, and a father who cared less." How could this boy ever become a citizen unless somebody took him away from what he was calling home, place him with people who understand his problems and show a sympathetic understanding of his troubles. This is what we are trying to do at Boy's Ranch—make a home for just such boys.

This little fellow, of whom the Judge wrote, has been living at Boy's Ranch for months. He is an average, normal boy, going to school every day, attending church on Sunday, and making a fine boy. The community he thinks treated him so cruelly will be proud of him in a few years. It's dealing with such friendless boys who come to Boy's Ranch asking for help that caused me to sell my business two years ago to try to help these confused youngsters.

Present facilities at the Ranch will take care of over 100 boys, but the program I'm working on is for 500 just such boys that the Judge has written us about. It costs less than $1 a day, or about $5 a week, to feed and clothe a boy at Boy's Ranch. You may take care of a boy's needs for as many days or weeks as you wish, and whatever you send to the Ranch means that you have helped another boy on the right road.

Sincerely yours,
CAL FARLEY.

Mrs. Bertha Gerdes, of Fort Worth, Texas visited Mrs. R. E. Brookshier and Mrs. R. M. Hill over the week end.

CHADRON, NEBR. — (Soundphoto) — Here is an action picture of the Air Force's "Operation Haylift" which has saved countless stock growers throughout the West from complete financial ruin. A C-47 from Lowry Air Base at Denver is shown swooping low over the bleak, snow-buried hills 12 miles north of Chadron, one of the region's major disaster areas. Cattle in the foreground are eating hay previously dropped, their first meal in weeks. Another bale of hay can be seen just below the plane on the way to the ground.

Mrs. Mercer was born Dorris Dalton Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. D. Brown, at Henrietta, in Clay County, Texas. She moved with her parents at the age of eight years to Briscoe County in the Francis community, where she lived until her marriage to Fred Mercer, December 31, 1933. Dorris received her school training in the Francis and Silvertown schools. She yielded to the Gospel call in September of 1932 and since that time has been an ardent and faithful member of the Church of Christ at Rock Creek.

Wayne Crawford Attends Feed Dealers Conference

Wayne Crawford of Silvertown has just returned from Ft. Worth, where he attended a conference of several hundred Purina feed dealers. Feed dealers from Texas and Oklahoma were present at the conference when they were told of the newest developments and trends in the feed industry and new ideas in scientific farm management.

L. C. Stevenson, of St. Louis, Missouri, Ralston Purina sales manager for the southern region, sounded an optimistic note for farmers as he reviewed the prospects for 1949. He pointed out that feed prices should be lower during the year while the demand and prices for meat, milk and eggs are expected to remain good. Citing opportunities for feed dealers to serve farmers, he said that a record number of chicks will be hatched and started this year and an increase in the number of pigs farrowed on the nation's farms is expected. To help feed this increased poultry and livestock population and add to the world food supply is the job the feed dealers have ahead of them for 1949.

This feed dealer conference was the first to be held since 1941. Since that time the commercial feed industry is reported to have increased its output from 13 million tons to 30 million tons a year, proof that farmers in this area and throughout the country are giving more attention to a scientific program of feeding, management and sanitation to produce more meat, milk and eggs.

Miss Bettye Marshall and Elmer Smith, of Plainview, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Marshall.

Mrs. Paul Russell, of Texas City, is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. B. Gilkeyson. Mrs. Gilkeyson is critically ill.

U.S. War Dead Burial Sites May Not Open To Visitors Until '50

PARIS. — Permanent burial of thousands of American World War II dead in 10 western European cemeteries will be accomplished by the end of this year, but the actual completion and opening of the interment sites to visitors may not come until a later date, said a U.S. Army spokesman here.

The American graves registration command has responsibility for the permanent burials. When this phase is finished the jurisdiction of the grounds will be handed over to the American Battle Monuments commission, which is the civilian agency that cares for World War I cemeteries and memorials.

Somewhat identical arrangements are being made for the Pacific and Mediterranean war areas, where the two government units are carrying out a similar program. In Europe, both have headquarters in Paris.

Plans submitted by private architects for grave markers, chapels, and other cemetery buildings are now being studied in Washington by the battle monuments commission. Until the work is completed, the cemeteries will remain closed to the public.

This means that many Americans who planned to visit graves of sons or husbands in the summer of 1949 may have to wait until 1950 or longer.

Since last September 20, when the last of the original 37 temporary World War II cemeteries in western Europe (not including Italy) was closed for disinterment operations, visitors have been prohibited at the burial sites.

A total of 61,861 of 147,240 bodies recovered in the European theater have been returned to the United States at the request of next of kin. Because hundreds of replies are still to come from relatives, the Army is unable to determine the number of bodies that will be left permanently in Europe.

Frenchman, Officially Dead, Finds He Has no Home Left

PARIS.—Dead men have no homes, as Roger Demont, 35, discovered when he opened the door of his home in Saint-Placard, southern France.

There was his wife, Juliette, whom he had not seen for seven years. She stared at him, shocked. "Oh, it's you, is it?" "Yes, I'm here," he replied. But Juliette shook her head. "You are dead — there is no place for you here; you cannot come back." Roger kissed his little daughter, now 8, and sadly went away.

A French soldier taken prisoner in wartime, Demont escaped, came home, committed a theft, spent six months in jail, was forced to go to Germany to work, ended up in Russia, and was not heard from after July, 1944. He was declared legally dead. Recently, his wife became engaged to another man.

Man Who Regained Sight Says It's Like New Life

NEW YORK.—A 40-year-old man who regained his sight after two years says "it was like being born again."

Carl Klein, a naturalist, blind for two years, awoke one morning with "a terrific headache."

"I saw dots flashing before my eyes," he told newsmen. "The dots merged into circles and, as the circles broke, vision came back to my eyes."

"I was afraid and did not know what to expect. I realized I saw light and I went to the window and gradually street lights took shape."

He had been a student at the Brooklyn Industrial School for the Blind for about two months. A school official said a blood clot affecting an optic nerve might have caused the blindness. He said Klein had recovered about one-half normal vision.

Klein's first wish was "to go to a park and be able to look at trees, birds and nature."

Smugglers Mute Squeals Of Pigs to Aid Business

BRUSSELS.—Hundreds of drunken pigs and stocking-footed cattle have been smuggled across the Dutch border into Belgium within the past two years.

Illegal traffic in noisy livestock is a difficult profession, when they must be slipped by night across the closely guarded frontiers of Holland and Belgium. Hooves of cattle are muffled with heavy bur-lap socks, and to prevent mooing their mouths are smeared with soap, which has an attraction for the cattle's taste buds. Rather than moo, the animals constantly lick the substance.

Belgians buy their cattle and pigs in Holland with cheaply-acquired florins, get them across the border unseen by customs officials and resell them here for Belgian francs.

The equipment for silencing cows is less expensive than getting the pigs drunk. Crude alcohol is fed to the porkers which then are jammed by three into knapsacks to be carried "piggy-back" across the border for fattening.

Heart of Your Gas Service

West Texas Gas Company's McSpadden Compressor Station, near Canyon, Texas, is one of the stations employed to maintain movement of natural gas to South Plains cities.

Compressors and Maintenance Cost More... But Your Gas Rates Are at Pre-War Prices!

Construction of McSpadden Compressor Station began in 1943. Three compressor engines, two 165-horsepower and one 80-horsepower, were installed. Larger compressors were preferred at that time but were not available due to governmental restrictions during the war years.

Since 1943 West Texas Gas Company has installed six 400-horsepower compressors, and made other improvements to increase the capacity of this station to 2,850-horsepower, almost seven times that of the original plant.

In 1948 West Texas Gas Company paid over 92 per cent more for 400-horsepower compressors than it paid for the same type engines purchased in 1940.

Despite increased costs of compressors, steel pipe, wages, valves and other items... natural gas service for your home and business is still furnished you at 1940 prices!

Farmers Grain Co. Made an Approved Custom Mixing Station

Farmers Grain Company, local feed distributor, has been made an Approved Custom Mixing Station, according to an announcement just received by them from the Ralston Purina Company, St. Louis, Missouri.

"We are fully qualified," they say, "to render the type of custom grinding and mixing service the Ralston Company authorize in the announcement. We are completely equipped to grind the farmer's own grains and mix with them a balancer that the Purina Laboratories and Purina Experimental Farm have found to be practical and economical. By grinding the farmer's own grains and blending with them the proper Purina balancer, it is possible to increase the return a farmer gets from his grains when he markets them through his livestock in the form of pork, beef, eggs or milk."

Certain definite standards had to be met before they could become a Purina Custom Mixing Station, according to them.

"We have been provided with the Purina Rations Service which entitles us to the help of the Purina Laboratories and Farm on any special needs of our customers, in addition to having these Laboratories provide a complete set of rations made of corn, oats, wheat, barley, rye, sorghum grains and Purina balancers. As a Purina Custom Mixing Station we send samples of mixtures as made by our grinder and mixer to the Purina Analytical Laboratory so they can check the efficiency and accuracy of our machinery."

"This arrangement," they say, "makes it possible for us to render an unusually high standard of accurate, uniform and profitable feed mixing service to the farmers in this vicinity—a service particularly adapted to local feeding conditions."

Farmers Grain Company will also handle the complete Purina Chows as well as Purina Concentrates.

WAYLAND COLLEGE "GOODWILL" VISITORS ARRIVE SOUTH OF THE BORDER

By Bill Hams, Lubbock Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer.

A group of Wayland College faculty members and basketball players arrived south of the border Friday afternoon for a week's visit in Mexico. Homer W. Snowden, Dallas oil man and former Wayland student, furnished his special DC-3 plane for the trip and paid all expenses. This was Mr. Snowden's method of expressing his appreciation of the excellent record made by the Wayland College Pioneers who won the Texas Junior College Conference last year and won 21 of 29 games played this year.

Those making the trip are 12 members of the basketball team, Dr. J. W. Marshall, president of Wayland College, Coach and Mrs. Harley Redin, George Stokes and a quartet, Guy Woods, pianist, L. Harden, Sam Allen, Harvey Wolfe, Mrs. Woodward, faculty members, and Bill Hams, Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer. Ellisel Garrido, a Wayland student who is a native of Guadalajara, Mexico, also accompanied the group as interpreter.

Bad weather forced the plane to pass up Monterrey for customs inspection. They landed in Laredo and soon took off for Mexico City as bad weather and low ceilings prevented their going to Guadalajara Friday afternoon as planned.

The Wayland College group went to Mexico planning to sell their own brand of hospitality, instead they were sold on that of their hosts. This was a certainty late Monday after the group returned from a day spent at Lake Chapala, playground of Guadalajara's well-to-do, following two days of entertainment offered by the students of Guadalajara University.

The "good neighbor" policy was called off for a short while Monday night—while the Pioneers met the Guadalajara team, ranked as the second best in Mexico. Wayland won the game 48 to 33 after trailing 21 to 19 at half time. The Mexican students staged a celebration for the visitors which swept them almost to the immigration bureau to get their visas extended. Senorita La Trinidad's beautiful pose, a warm welcome from Jose Guadalupe Juarez, head of the school, the charming architecture of the buildings with their beautiful murals, music by students playing an assortment of string and reed instruments all lent a joyous hospitality to the occasion.

Special church services were held Sunday in honor of the visitors. Dr. Marshall expressed greetings to the congregation and Dr. Luther Holcomb of Dallas delivered a short sermon. At a luncheon the guests were scattered at various tables so both Texans and Mexicans could practice Spanish and or English. The Texans discovered that horse drawn carriages were more economical and efficient for sight-seeing, also less like riding a Kansas tornado than Mexican taxis. Guadalajara is much unlike Monterrey, although Mexico City appears more like advertised Mexico.

The visitors saw the famous pottery makers at Tlaquepaque, and some of them went to a bull fight where the lady bull fighter, Conchita Cintron, almost got killed and six bulls did. Conchito Cintron is the world's outstanding woman bull fighter. She is from Peru.

The Wayland group plan to arrive back home Thursday, March 10.

In an impressive double ring ceremony in the home of the brides parents, Miss Jean Brion, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Brion of Lums Chapel became the bride of Ray Osthus, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Osthus of Hearts Camp.

Vows were exchanged Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock March 6, with the brides father officiating. Selections of traditional wedding music preceding the ceremony and during the exchange of vows. "I Love You Truly" and "Because" sang by Stillwell Russell of Sudan, pianist Mrs. Robert Masten, also of Sudan.

Vows were exchanged before an altar of pink and white carnations and greenery flanked by candelabra lighter tapers.

Mrs. Travis McMinn sister of the bride was matron of honor, she wore a rose taffeta dress with matching accessories and a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Arlene Brion sister of the bride was bridesmaid and wore a lavender taffeta dress, grey accessories and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Junior Muller of Littlefield served as best man. Aubrey Neinhurst served as an attendant.

The bride was dressed in a white satin street length dress with black accessories. She was given in marriage by her brother-in-law Travis McMinn. Her bouquet was of pink roses and she wore a finger tip veil with pink rose buds across the top.

Mrs. Brion mother of the bride wore a yellow gaberdine dress with green accessories, and her corsage was of rose carnations.

ARMY NEEDS AVIATION CADETS

Young men from this area interested in pilot training and a career as an officer in the United States Air Force have a splendid opportunity in the new expanded Aviation Cadet Training Program according to information reaching the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station in Plainview Sgt. Elbert Newell announced here today.

The quota for 1949, beginning with the April 4th class, is the largest in peacetime history. Previous to this time there were only three Aviation Cadet classes a year and now those classes have been raised to eight.

Those desiring to become Aviation Cadets, must be between 20 and 28 1-2 years of age, have two years of college or pass an equivalent Air Force examination and have high moral, personal and physical qualifications.

This expanded program is necessary to meet the future needs of the Air Force, while the Air Force has an ample pool of pilots trained before and during the war, it lacks younger pilots trained to fly postwar aircraft and prepared for future leadership.

The Cadet Program, providing 12 months of flight, academic, and military training has a estimated value of $35,000. Graduates receive pilot's wings, a Reserve commission as a second lieutenant in the Air Force, and an assignment to three years of active duty at a salary of approximately $4,000 a year.

Texas State Depart- ment of Health Gives Information

Austin.—Contrary to the popular belief that pyorrhea is always incurable, this is only true in the most advanced cases, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. His advice to persons who even suspect the presence of pyorrhea is to seek an early diagnosis from their dentist so that proper treatment can be instituted while the disease is still curable.

"Early detection and proper treatment of pyorrhea represent the formula for a successful cure.
This means that the dentist must have an opportunity to discover the presence of the disease at the earliest possible moment. Since the symptoms are often so vague that the patient is unaware of having pyorrhea," Dr. Cox said,
"regular visits to the family dentist are extremely important in the control of this disease."

The treatment of pyorrhea is not an involved procedure. In the average early case one of the main therapeutic features is the proper hygienic care of teeth and gums as outlined by any reputable dentist. Carelessness regarding mouth hygiene is usually the basic cause for the condition.

The family dentist can usually remove the cause of the trouble, Dr. Cox said, and when this has been done, intelligent routine care of the mouth by the patient will help to effect a fairly quick cure in the majority of early cases.
