Combust to resign in May

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

WASHINGTON, D.C. — U.S. Rep. Larry Combust, R-Lubbock, released the following statement Tuesday:

"There have been a number of events that have happened to Sharon and me in the last year that have made us realize how fragile life and health are. They certainly caused us to rearrange our priorities and we want to spend as much time together while we have our life and health. In order for us to be able to spend that time together, I will submit my resignation from Congress effective on May 31, 2003. That should provide ample time for individuals who wish to run for the office to make their intentions known and for there to be a special election to fill the seat.

"Through ten elections, the people of the 19th Congressional District have been very kind to us, and words cannot express our appreciation for the confidence they have shown in us. We have so many wonderful friends and are looking forward to being at home in Lubbock to enjoy their friendship even more.

Mules prepare for action against Canyon

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal sportswriter

When the dust settled Friday night Brownfield was District 3-A champions and Muleshoe, Littlefield and Dimmitt were locked in a three-way tie for second. Muleshoe and Littlefield both had at least a 15-point win over one of the other two teams and Dimmitt only had a four point win over the Mules.

The points system eliminated Dimmitt and the Mules had defeated Littlefield. The formula gave the Mules the number one seed in the small school division and will face the Canyon Eagles Friday night in Hereford at 7:30.

"No one expected us to be here, no one expected to play in the first round of the playoffs." Exclaimed a very excited A.J.

Veterans honored; ex-soldier shares war experiences

By BEATRICE MORIN
Journal writer

Jose Ambriz, Post Commander of VFW Post 8570, was an invited guest in Brenda Lackey's third grade class on Veteran's Day.

The students recently read a story which described what war was like and were interested in finding out more by visiting with Mr. Ambriz and asking questions about his experiences.

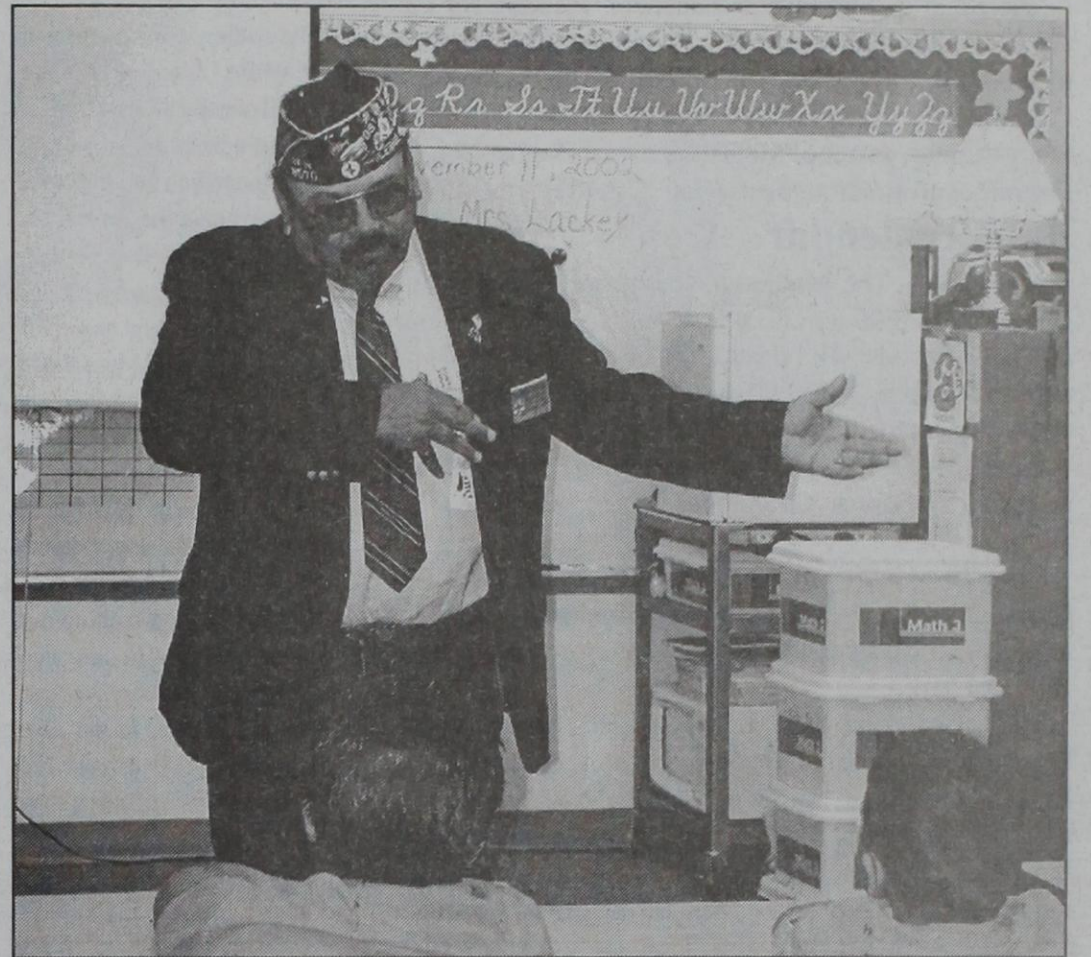

Mr. Ambriz began his visit by discussing how the "buddy" poppy came to be, explaining that after WWI ended families of those who perished during the war went to see where their loved ones were buried. During that time, the poppies were in bloom in Holland. The buddy poppy was therefore adopted to remember veterans.

Ambriz also remembered his Vietnam War experiences and shared them with the class.

Ambriz was born and raised in South Texas. At 24, he enlisted in the Army where he spent two years stationed in Vietnam traveling by helicopter and supplying food and ammunition to troops.

When asked if women were in combat,

Republicans gather majority votes

By MARSHALL STINNETT
Journal writer

Bailey County voters voted heavily for the Republican candidates in last Tuesday's general election. In the top three statewide competitive races, U.S. Senate, John Cornyn; Governor, Rick Perry; and Lt. Governor, David Dewhurst, all garnered 60 percent of more of the total votes in their races.

The result very similar to the percentages state wide when the expected minority vote for Tony Sanchez and Ron Kirk failed to materialize on election day. The Republicans carried every statewide race in Texas and Bailey County.

There were 3,938 registered voters in Bailey County. There were 428 of these voters in "suspense" because they had not voted in several elections. Notices were sent to warn these voters their name would be removed from the eligible voters list if they did not contact the county or vote in this election.

So if you deduct the 428 voters in suspense, there were 3,510 registered voters for last Tuesday's election and 1,598 voted for a 44 percent turnout. In the election 389 voters voted strait Republican as to 193 straight Democrat votes.

There were no competitive local races. The top vote getter county wide was Re-see VOTES on page 2

Joyner's resignation accepted by school board

By MARSHALL STINNETT
Journal writer

The Muleshoe School Board Meeting in regular session Monday night voted to accept the resignation of Watson Junior High Principal, Shelia Joyner.

Joyner, who has been principal at Watson Junior High for the past eight plus years, has resigned effective this Friday. She has accepted a position as coordinator of testing and research with the Plano, Texas school system.

Playing in their second must-win game in a span of a week the Mules grabbed the Tigers of Slaton by the tail and did not let go. Landon Sheets and A.J.

Flores each found the Slaton end zone twice as the Mules handed the Tigers their 31st loss in a row 27-12.

A very happy Landon Sheets proclaimed, "Our line was making huge holes for us to run through tonight. I am really proud of how we have come together as a team and we are ready to go to the playoffs."

The Mules had to win to have any hopes of making the playoffs but they also had to have help from either Brownfield or Lubbock Cooper for a spot in the post season.

said that Joyner had done an "outstanding job." "She had high expectations of the students and the staff. She will be tough to replace," Sheets added.

The board approved hiring Barbara Finney as an interim principal until a new one can be found. Finney was principal at DeShazo Elementary for 16 years. She served as an educator in Muleshoe for 30 years before retiring.

Sheets said he would take a look to see who is available between now and Christmas. If a good qualified person was not available, he would open a search in the spring.

The board authorized Sheets to hire a pre-kindergarten teacher. The position is opened when Shirley Aguirre resigned as a first grade teacher. Gloria Agundis moved from Pre-kindergarten to first grade to replace Aguirre.

They also approved the new campus improvement plans and began self-evaluation.

The next regular scheduled meeting will be at noon Monday, November 25.

Flores after Friday night's game in Slaton. "Especially as the top seed....We are in and I am so happy!"

The Mules will be wearing their white uniforms and the fans will occupy the east stands. Advance tickets are on sale in the administration building with admission being five dollars for adults and three dollars for students.

"Canyon is a big powerful football team," said Mule coach David Wood. "They have a huge full back in Robert Martin. At five foot eleven inches and 215 pounds and he is a load. In crunch situations he will come in to play defensive tackle."

"Martin is good coming out of the backfield and he can catch the football. They run the veer with him and most of the time they give him the ball on the full back dive. Even with a bad read he will gain three or four yards because he is so powerful."

"Lance McClintock is their quarterback and very good athlete. He throws the ball extremely well and they have four receivers than catch the ball," continued Wood.

"They do not do a lot of different things on offense but what they do they do very well. We have to stop Martin and force them to try to do other things. We think we have spotted some holes in their defense and we hope to exploit those holes."

"We have gained confidence each week and have a legitimate shot at winning this game. It will be a real good game and anything can happen on Friday night."

The winner of the Muleshoe-Canyon game will face the winner of the Denver City-Greenwood tilt at a time and place to be announced.

Vise, Farkas wed

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Farkas

Tammy Vise and Tony Farkas both of Clovis were joined in marriage on Sept. 14, 2002, at Kingswood United Methodist Church. The Rev. Brad Reeves performed the three-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dale and Nellie Vise of Muleshoe. She is the granddaughter of Merriman and the late Billie Vise of Muleshoe, and Betty and the late James Faw of Big Timber, Mont.

The groom is the son of Allen and Charlotte Farkas of Clovis. He is the grandson of the late Sandor and Helen Paraghi, the late Joseph Farkas and the late Helen "George" Farkas. Jana Vise, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and Tori Vise, daughter of the bride, was the bridesmaid. Bob Farkas, brother of the groom was best man and Keith Farkas, brother of the groom was groomsman. Ushers were Armando Del Toro and George Elam. After the bride and groom exchanged vows, the groom exchanged vows and a ring with Tori, daughter of the bride, to represent the marriage to the family. The bride and groom are employed with Freedom Newspapers of New Mexico. The family reside in Clovis.

MULES

Dimmitt downed Cooper 27-18 on the arm of Nicky Guana. Brownfield made a come back in the final period to tie Littlefield at 14. A Cub field goal with 2:45 remaining put the Mules in the playoffs for the fifth straight year.

Muleshoe, Littlefield and Dimmitt ended the regular season tied for second in the district. Point differentials favored the Mules and they enter the playoffs as the number one seed in small school division. The Mules meet Canyon in Hereford Friday night at 7:30.

"We are very happy to make the playoffs with all that has gone on this year." Said Mule coach David Wood. "This was a dream come true tonight."

Taking a little from your (Delton Wilhite) speech at last week's pep rally we are going after that gold ball."

The Tigers did not play like a 0-30 team and brought their full load for the Mules. Coach Wood described Slaton by saying, "Slaton was a very formidable football team and laid it all on the table tonight. They just kept coming back...."

Jordan Dale recovered an errant pitch on the Mule 30 to stop the Tigers opening drive. The Mules marched 70 yards in nine plays with Flores picking up the final seven yards on a pitch around the end.

Tatom Heathington paved the way with a block that allowed Flores to scoot to pay dirt. A direct snap to Flores on the Swinging Gate added the two-point conversion with 3:54 left in the first period.

Daniel Campolla played his best defensive game of the year and knocked down his first of three passes to keep Slaton out of the end zone and give the Mules the ball on downs early in the second period.

The Mules stung together 12 plays and covered 84 yards on their second consecutive scoring drive. Sheets punched in from the one and Miguel Nunez's kick gave the Mules a 15-0 advantage with 2:05 left in the first half.

With 36 seconds remaining in the second period Isaac Escobedo connected with Kraig Kern for a seven-yard toss in the Mule's end zone to cut the lead to 15-7 at intermission.

The Tigers drove 64 yards on 14 plays on their opening drive of the second half to cut the Mule lead to 15-13. Brandon Smith carried the final 10 yards on a draw play.

The Mules answered quickly with Sheets making the option pitch to Flores at the last second. Flores went 38 yards down the Mule sideline to push the Mule advantage to 21-12 with 12 seconds remaining in the third frame.

Slaton again threatened to cut the Mule's lead in the final period. On fourth and nine from the Mule 26 Escabedo dropped back to pass. Luis Sanchez and Joel Salcido forced Escabedo from the pocket and with the Mule secondary covering his receivers like a blanket had to toss the ball out of bounds.

Taking over on downs the Mules ground over seven minutes of the final period off the clock on their final scoring drive. Systematically moving 74 yards on 14 plays Sheets went up the middle for the final four yards with just less than two minutes remaining.

Brown claims last regular season contest victory

By LEAH BELL
Journal writer

Thirty-one contestants vied for bragging rights in the last football contest of the Mules' regular 2002 season. In the end, Claire Brown clawed her way to the top and won the $25 first place prize.

The Mules captured a spot in the playoffs last Friday by beating Slaton 27-12. The football contest will run so long as the Mules remain in the hunt for the championship.

Brown was the only contestant to miss only four games, beating out six other contestants who missed just five games.

Second and third places where came down to the tiebreaker game, Littlefield versus Brownfield.

Brownfield racked up a win, beating the Wildcats 17-14 for a combined tiebreaker score of 31.

James Buie missed five and was only one point over the actual TB score, guessing 32. His almost perfect guess garnered him the $15 second prize.

Third place finisher, Phillip Gonzales, was just slightly further from the tiebreaker score, guessing 35. He, too, missed five games.

The four other contestants who missed five games had to settle for placing out of the money. In fourth through seventh places were, along with their tiebreaker guess: 4th-Scott Brown, 38; 5th-Travis Bessire, 44; 6th-Kim Black, 46; and 7th-Veronica Gonzales, 47.

The top three places all missed A&M's win over number one ranked Oklahoma in the college ranks and Philadelphia's loss to Indianapolis in the pros. Beyond that, they were all over the board.

Brown also miscued on Palo Duro's win over Plainview and Booker's loss to White Deer.

Buie, in addition to missing A&M and Indianapolis' wins, missed Idaho's loss to North Texas, Oregon's loss to Washington State and Connecticut's win over Kent State.

P. Gonzales also missed Oregon's loss to Washington State, plus UNLV's loss to Utah, and Arkansas' win over South Carolina.

Week ten's most missed game was the Sooner's stunning loss to the Aggies.

VETERAN

Ambriz answered, "No. The women were doctors or nurses. Today they go into combat, but not then."

One student also mentioned reading about Vietnamese children being used to carry bombs in to kill the enemy.

"Vietnamese children were also used during the war," Ambriz explained, "to carry in grenades."

Serving as Sergeant, Ambriz lead a troop of 13 soldiers. About 58,000 Americans lost their lives during the Vietnam War.

He concluded by saying, "War in general is not good but sometimes it's necessary. Nobody wants to be in a war because nobody wants to die." He added, "Vietnam is the only war we've lost."

Veteran's Day is a national holiday marking the Eleventh month, 11th day and eleventh hour that World War I ended.

Twenty six contestant missed this game. Indianapolis' upset over Philadelphia followed close behind, throwing 23 contestants off.

Other problem games were high school matchups: Plainview at Palo Duro, Vernon at Childress, Booker at White Deer, and Canyon at Perryton.

Other college games giving players fits were: Arkansas at South Carolina, Louisiana Tech at San Jose State; East Carolina at Houston and Idaho at North Texas.

Atlanta versus Pittsburgh went into overtime and still ended in a tie so no one missed this game.

Over 77 percent of contestants this week missed six or more games. Men took seven of the top ten spots.

Finishing out the top ten places were: Gabriel Acevedo, 8th; and Sandra Orozco and Elisa Baca, tied for 9th.

Other contestants and their finishing places were: Mandy Garner, 11th; Shonda Black, 17th; William Orozco, 18th; Sherri Harrison, 21st; Raul Lozano, 27th; Debbie Weir, 30th; and Alan Harrison, last.

Stained glass artist Elaine Case having local show this weekend

Stained glass artist Elaine Case, who owns "House of Glass," a stained glass art studio on Lake Quitman, will be in Muleshoe this week having a show at Carolyn's Christmas Creations, 224 W. 2nd Street.

Case

Case's art will be featured in a three-day event, Saturday, Nov. 16 through Monday, Nov. 18. Everyone is encouraged to visit with Case, get to know her and view her newest pieces.

Show hours are: Saturday, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Sunday, 1-6 p.m.; and Monday, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Case has been designing glass art for years and has been a visiting artist at universities and art schools around the country. Just last year, her work was featured at the Trade Center in Dallas. She loves color and especially enjoys discovering the ways in which color can affect the mood of a select piece.

She has sold her crosses, angels and kaleidoscopes at Carolyn's for the last four years.

In addition to these traditional pieces, this year Case will be selling "Art on a Stick," wine bottles, unique bubble wands, jewelry and pieces of glass mixed with metal that are anything but ordinary. Case has assured store owner, Carolyn Johnson, that she will have at least one of her hottest pieces on the market—a Picasso-like design made from a burned barrel lid! At the three-day event, all of Case's work will be on sale at 20 percent off the regular price.

This year, she will also be featuring pieces made from dichroic glass. Originally designed to be used in the space program, it is made by spraying glass into a vacuum.

The final glass product is layered. Therefore, as light plays on the glass, different colors are reflected.

All of Case's work is intimate and personal. She uses her talent to include in her creations art that transcends all lines. From traditional to contemporary to avant-garde, at this week's show, expect to see it all!

Lady Mules gearing up for basketball season

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal sportswriter

The Texas Association of Basketball Coaches poll picked the Lady Mules as the number eight team in class 3-A. Canyon was placed number one and Dimmitt was picked 16th in the poll.

Preseason polls only mean a team did well the previous season and have returning personnel that should do well in the coming season. The Lady Mules have their sights set higher than where the polls have placed them.

The Lady Mules scrimmaged Plainview and Midland Lee in Muleshoe and Hereford and Sudan in Sudan. The scrimmages helped to work out the kinks and dispose of the rust before the Lady Mules traveled to Frenship to take on the Lady Tigers Tuesday night.

The girls' home opener with the Farwell Lady Blue has been rescheduled for Saturday afternoon. The J.V. Lady Mules take the court at 2 p.m. with the varsity game following immediately afterward. Muleshoe will host the Farwell Steers and New Deal Lions so Farwell does not have to split their fans.

"Scrimmaging Plainview always brings out the best and worst in us. Plainview is so fundamentally sound and so strong and definitely a top team in the state," said Lady Mule coach Shana Simms.

"We are very athletic and have really been working on our shooting. We want to be consistent and avoid being a roller coaster team. We are a very dominating team because of our size and have been working on being more physical with the ball in our hands.

"We start the season in Frenship and they have six-foot girl that should challenge our post players. Our predistrict season is going to be tough with Frenship, Farwell and Nazareth in the first three games. These three teams will all bring a different look and we will have to adjust," she said.

"December is the conditioning portion of the season filled with tough teams and tournaments. We go to Nazareth and New Deal Tournaments and before Christmas we will meet Levelland and Seagraves. These teams will challenge our post people, too.

"After Christmas we play in the Caprock Tournament and are looking forward to that. It is a 32-team tournament and will help us to play back into shape after the five-day mandatory break. We should be able to compete with the 5-A schools and with Shallowater and Perryton being there it will be a good tournament," continued Simms.

"We will not play on the 31st to get ready for district. We should have an opportunity to see Dimmitt, Lubbock Cooper and Brownfield during the Caprock Tourney. We meet Cooper in the district opener and our plan is to dominate the district and we should be the front runners in district.

"In order to be the number one team we have to work on our shooting percentage and I have been harping on that this season. That is key to our success." Simms concluded by saying, "I feel this is the most talented group I have ever had."

Tour of Homes to benefit Park View

It's time to start planning for the Christmas season and Park View Nursing Home employees are hoping that your holiday plans involve the 'Christmas Tour of Homes.'

The event is planned for Sunday, December 15 from 1 to 5 p.m.

The 'Christmas Tour of Homes' is your chance to experience the wonder and beauty of Christmas as you visit the homes of Polly Oliver, Hugo and Yolanda Vasquez, Kay Mardis, Mike and Jessie Hanna, Alton and Alma Burton and Kenneth and Darlene Henry.

The final stop on the tour will be at Park View itself, where Carolyn's Christmas Creations, Decorator's Floral & Gifts, and Lasting Impressions will each have a room elegantly decorated for Christmas. Volunteers and staff members will enhance the atmosphere by decorating other areas of the home. You'll be able to enjoy refreshments and fellowship as you take in the splendor of the holidays and visit with residents.

All proceeds from the tour will go to Park View. Tour tickets are $5 and can be purchased at Carolyn's, located at 224 W. 2nd in Muleshoe.

Event sponsor Carolyn Johnson is excited about this year's tour.

"All the homes have something special to offer," she said. "Polly has literally refurbished and remodeled her two-story home for over four years. She's poured a lot of blood, sweat and tears into her home. Alma displays a tree in every room and Jessie and Mike have a spectacular teddy bear theme. I don't want to give away all the surprises," she said.

343 Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

This is a dramatized version of facts taken from the Book of Genesis intending to show some of the customs of these ancient and traditional times.

ABRAM IN EGYPT
 THAT WHICH ABRAM HAS FEARED, HAS COME TO PASS—PHARAOH, HEARING OF SARAI'S BEAUTY, HAS REQUESTED THAT SHE BE BROUGHT TO HIS PALACE, AND NOW...

...AND PHARAOH IS HIGHLY PLEASED! SOON HE WILL SEE FOR HIMSELF IF THIS BEAUTY FROM THE EAST IS WORTHY TO BECOME A QUEEN IN EGYPT....

...SURROUNDED BY THE MANY GIFTS SENT BY PHARAOH, ABRAM CAN FIND BUT LITTLE CONSOLATION IN THEM AS HE SPENDS A SORROWFUL AND LONELY NIGHT IN HIS TENT....

...WHILE SARAI, IN GUARDED PRIVACY, HULLS MISERABLY ON HER SILKEN BED!

SUDDENLY, THE DARKNESS OF THE NIGHT IS PIERCED BY A TERRIFIED SCREAM! IT IS PHARAOH, CALLING IN HORROR FOR HIS SERVANTS, WHO SCURRY AS FAST AS THEY CAN TO ANSWER THEIR RULER'S URGENT CRIES FOR HELP!

JOHN, LEHTI

Problems in complex

By MARSHALL STINNETT
Journal writer

The Bailey County Commissioner Court discovered more problems in the Bailey County Jail Complex at their regular meeting Tuesday morning.

Joy Williams, Director of the County Adult Probation Department, came to the Court to ask for temporary office space until more permanent arrangements can be made to get department out of the basement of the Jail Complex.

Williams told the Court the work environment of the probation office "has been, to say the least, undesirable."

The office is located in the basement of the complex with only one exit with the kitchen, air conditioning, heating units and the sewer tank between the offices and exit. Williams told the Court she had worked in the basement for 21 years and had always been fearful of a fire. She said, "fortunately we never had a real fire. We have had burned dinners and quiet a few burned beans. The odors linger for days. But that aroma is more desirable than the sewer, which is quite the norm down there."

She also expressed reservations about having probationers mingling with the jail trustees. She said it could add to the problem of drugs in the jail.

Williams related to the Court the department having to vacate the building several times once for a Freon leak in the air conditioning, last month when the inmates went on a tear and flooded the building and because the sewage tank was full and had to be pumped out. The latest was the carbon monoxide leak two weeks ago.

While Williams was talking to the court the trustees were mopping up the basement from another sewer overflow due to a stopped up sewer line.

Commissioner C.E. Grant said, "I don't see any choice but get space."

The Court authorized Judge Cox to find and lease temporary space for the Probation Department.

In other business the Court appointed Grant to be the Loss Control Officer and agreed for Commissioner Ginger Damron to replace Grant on the South Plains Community Action Board.

The Court also set rates and approved payment of election officials and expenses. Then the Court canvassed the votes from the November 5 election.

She was preceded in death by one brother, Dossie Terrell, on February 8, 1998. Terrell was formerly of Maple.

The family suggests memorials be made to your local library or the Albany ISD Library, Albany, Texas 76430.

An Old Picture Inspires Some Timely Thoughts

My oldest brother recently shared with me a computer CD just full of some priceless old family photos he'd borrowed from my uncle and scanned. My favorite is a wonderful picture of my maternal grandfather, Granddaddy Key, who died at a good old age back in 1975.

I never remember Granddaddy as having anything but an absolutely full head of thick white hair. But in this old picture, my darkheaded grandfather is wearing a big cowboy hat and is dressed in a white shirt with a vest and a ribbon tie. Maybe 12 years old, he sits beside his two daintily

In the distance, sitting cross-legged and relaxing, lost in thought, gazing across the pond from the other bank, is my great-grandfather, Alf Key, who was born in the same week upon which Abraham Lincoln died. Alf has a big hat, too, and, if you know it's there, you can just maybe make out the tips of his big wide moustache.

I can't see the eyes of any of these kinsmen. They're all looking calmly down or across the pond, just feeding the ducks, or the fish, or just thinking.

But they make me think.

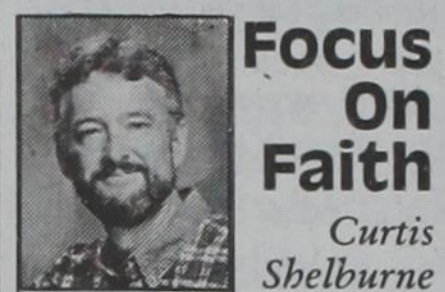

These were real people. Their blood runs in my veins. Three of them were, in that picture, far younger than I am now. And all of them have long since gone on, their bodies lying at rest in the little country cemetery that now calmly rests just across a mesquite-filled pasture from the old windmill and the ruins of the old house that, along with the tombstones, are quiet reminders that, as a wise colleague named Bert Mercer reminded me, "once there lived here a race of people a little lower than the angels."

The human race. And my little group of ancestors eking out a living when life was truly hard, just taking some time to relax. To sit. To think.

I never entered their mind. But they certainly have entered mine, and the affect me daily.

So much has changed, but the things that are really important are still the same. Exactly the same. And the values, the faith, the love that is the real legacy you and I are building today for generations yet unborn, we will pass on. Sooner than we think.

dressed and lady-like young sisters who are wearing lacy white dresses complete with white bows and white ribbons in their hair. The three siblings are perched on a small dock-like wooden jetty jutting out into a little pond. Aunt Vida and Aunt Grace, looking absolutely pristine and pretty, each have an arm gently extended and are gazing down at the little white ducks feasting on the crumbs my aunts are dropping from above.

Granddaddy is also looking calmly down into the water, and he's feeding the pond populace, too, but with a different end in mind. He's holding a cane pole with a line and a hook attached, and he's waiting for the tug that will signal the end of the worm on the hook below.

HERITAGE FOUNDATION NEWS

The Muleshoe Heritage Foundation Board met Mon., Nov. 4, at 7 p.m. at the Muleshoe Santa Fe Depot. Dan Throckmorton, president, led the business meeting and secretary Jenne McVicker presented the minutes which were read and approved. Vivian White gave the treasurer's report.

Other board members present were Ladene Spears, Gary Boyles, Larry Nickels, Jim Allison, Dustin Wilhite, Sammie Simpson, Jean Allison, LaVon McKillip, Lonnie Adrian, Keith Hawkins, Erica Whalin, Student Community Action Club (SCAC) president and center hostess Dolores Harvey.

A short report was given about the political rally for Pete Laney and other candidates. Kay Cole was welcomed as a guest and she reported further about the rally and recommended that the Heritage Center be open to all in the community.

Board members thanked her for her insight, and the president appointed a committee to work out rules for use of the Center which will be fair and understood by all.

Jean Allison and Jim Allison gave reports on the sign which is now being made and will soon be placed on the new highway frontage of the Center. This will be a large lighted sign which will help travelers and even local citizens locate the Heritage Center more easily.

The president gave a report on the Figure 4 Ranch House located in South Bailey County which will soon be moved to the Center. Two estimates for moving the Figure 4 Ranch House have been made by two movers. Dan said one other mover plans to give an estimate before making a final decision on this move.

A discussion was held about the feasibility of getting this old ranch house, as well as the other old structures from South Bailey County.

Members voted to proceed with faith believing that the Center will be in line for special grants as the Center now has highway frontage.

In the past the community has wholeheartedly supported growth at the center. Board members noted that no other community of this size in the area has a Center which can compare to the Muleshoe Heritage Center, a tremendous bonus for our area.

Jim Allison was appointed to appear before the City Council on November 19 to request funds from the hotel/motel fund for the Heritage Center.

It was reported that the Home Extension Bazaar will be held on December 14 this year and the annual Muleshoe Christmas parade will be on December 7.

After discussion, board members voted to hold the Heritage Center Old Fashioned Open House on December 14. Members also voted to again get the Old Fashioned Carriage from Morton for rides on this special night.

A committee consisting of Keith Hawkins, chairman, Vivian White, Jean Allison and Dustin Wilhite was appointed to work out details for the Open House.

Erica Whalin, SCAC president, assured members that SCAC members will again decorate the Old Fashioned Christmas tree at the Janes Ranch House.

Dan Throckmorton requested that a parliamentarian be elected to work up Center parliamentary procedure, as well as a mission statement. Members unanimously elected Dustin Wilhite to fill this office. Meeting adjourned.

JV Mules fall to Slaton, 14-0

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal sportswriter

Due to injuries and other adversity, the Muleshoe coaches had to call several of the J.V. Mules up to the varsity and left the junior varsity ranks depleted. But the young Mules continued to play hard and gain the experience they will need at the varsity level.

In the J.V. Mules' final game of the season they hosted the Slaton Tigers on a very cool fall night. The two teams battled to a 0-0 tie in the first half. The Tigers were able to penetrate the Mule end zone twice in the second half to defeat the Mules 14-0.

With just over four minutes remaining in the third period, the Tigers resorted to trickery and ran a reverse and then the running back through a three-yard TD pass. The Mules had held the Tigers for three plays inside the five-yard line.

Landon Wilson broke up the pass for the extra point try to hold the Slaton advantage to 6-0. Dal Grumbles jumped on a Tiger fumble on the Mule 43 before the third period ended.

Erik Sanchez and Paul Carrion moved the Mules across midfield to the Slaton 46. Landon Wilson gained 19 yards on a reverse as the Mules moved to the Tiger 18. A Mule miscue laid the ball on the ground and Slaton recovered to stop the drive.

The Tigers traveled 82 yards on 14 plays and passed for the two-point conversion to seal the game for Slaton with only 1:12 remaining in the game.

Jordan Bonds covered the ensuing Slaton kick on the Mule 30.

Raul Muniz ran well for the Mules in the first half before going out with a shoulder injury before half time. He also booted a 45-yard punt in the first period. Erik Sanchez and Wilson shared the quarterbacking duties for the Mules.

Ariam Perez led the Mules with seven solo tackles and two assists and Erwin Lewis recorded five solos and four assists. Michael Sexton had four tackles, five assists, a tackle for a loss, a sack and recovered two fumbles. Josh Shelburne added four tackles and two assists while Barry Morris had two tackles and broke up a pass.

Muleshoe's strong junior varsity program continues groom young players for the varsity and is used as reserve in case of injuries and unforeseen loss of players. This year the Mules have moved several players up from the junior varsity and many are now starting in the playoffs for the Mules.

Windbreak tree orders being taken

A tree standing alone adds a certain aesthetic quality to rural living, but the systematic planting of trees and shrubs in a windbreak becomes a management tool that effects every aspect of a farm or ranch.

"Now is the time for Texas landowners to order windbreak seedlings produced by the Texas Forest Service.

Windbreaks protect the soil, increase land value and create habitat for a variety of wildlife species. But producing a high performance windbreak requires more than just planting a line of trees.

To order seedlings this fall or for more information, contact your local Soil and Water Conservation District at 272-5124, Ext. 3, or the Texas Forest Service in Lubbock at 806-746-5801.

HOROSCOPES

For entertainment purposes only

NOVEMBER 17-23

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22

If you want something, all you have to do is find a way to make it your own. The message in the stars this week is that nothing is impossible, especially for you.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21

Your hectic schedule will keep you on the go all week, Sagittarius. But don't forget to take care of yourself — and that includes having fun! Remember, you have limits just like everyone else.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20

You have nothing to fear from changes on the work front. A colleague will propose certain changes and you'll go along, if you're wise. Who knows? The changes may even make life easier for you.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18

You must make time for yourself, Aquarius, despite all the chores and duties you're expected to fulfill. New places and new faces are lucky for you this week.

PISCES - Feb 19/March 20

You seem to believe that you have hidden enemies and that you must continually look over your shoulder. Slow down, try some nice thoughts for a change.

ARIES - March 21/April 20

Affairs of the heart will bring you to life this week, Aries. Relationships are key — now's the time for a new love to begin or an old flame to burn a little brighter.

TAURUS - April 21/May 21

Before you do anything this week, stop and ask yourself about the consequences to your well-being. Don't push yourself too hard, the most important thing is your health.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21

The stars are on your side this week, Gemini, there's nothing you can't achieve. With your energy especially high, you'll have no problem turning thought into action.

CANCER - June 22/July 22

Don't plan too much at work this week, Cancer. Family matters have the potential to take up a lot of your time, but if you deal with them now, they'll be less likely to distract you later.

LEO - July 23/August 23

You'll not only be the center of attention this week, but you'll want to know what's on the minds of others as well. This promises to be a week to remember, Leo. Stay sharp!

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22

Virgos are known for having a way with money, which will be especially true this week with your incredible insight. However, be careful and avoid unnecessary risks.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23

No matter where you go or what you do this week, your positive attitude will also inspire others to feel good about themselves. Go out and have some fun. It's what you do best.

DOWN THE STREET

By LEAH BELL
Journal writer

Down the street this week, the Journal's sportswriter, Delton Wilhite, emailed us an interesting update early last week. Quoting his message, Wilhite said, "I am happy to announce my gall bladder and I have parted ways." Apparently, his pesky gall bladder had been causing him lots of pain.

"The doctors claim to have had problems extracting it from my abdominal cavity, so there was quite a bit of pain," he said. "They gave me pain pills and instructed me not to let myself hurt." Not being the macho type, Delton followed their orders.

When I saw Delton on Friday, he seemed to be his jolly "old" self. The Journal is glad to have him back on the job!

I stopped by United Supermarket last week to say "adios" to Mike Holt who took the Store Director position in Burkburnett, Texas. To my surprise, he was already gone. However, I did get to visit with our new "head honcho," Joe Bollinger.

Bollinger

Joe comes to Muleshoe from the Levelland store where he was an assistant store director for four and a half years. Prior to Levelland, he was in Lubbock. Overall, Joe has been with United for twelve years.

He's married to Julie, a gal he met at United in Lubbock. Julie now works for Rosetext, a home-based medical transcription business. The couple has a 16-month-old son, Tyler Cade, and is expecting their next little "sweetheart" on Valentine's Day. They've been married for nine years.

"Muleshoe is the nicest community I've ever dealt with," he said. "I'm overwhelmed with the friendliness and acceptance I've encountered since I arrived. People have sincerely welcomed me even though everyone is going to miss Mike tremendously," he added.

"He did such a wonderful job. He was friendly and genuinely appreciated his customers. Mike handled this store in such a professional manner. My goal is to continue where he left off. I want to go in the same direction Mike was when he left."

Bollinger continued, "From my talks with Mike, it was a very difficult decision for him to leave Muleshoe, but in the end he did what he thought was best for his career and family. Everyone wants to advance at their job and in our case, an advancement means a higher volume store. This was Mike's chance to advance. I'm just excited to get the opportunity to get to know the folks in Muleshoe. I can't wait to get settled in."

Joe and his wife are still trying to sell their home in Levelland.

Speaking of United, Joe asked me to mention the upcoming "Easy As Pie" Meals On Wheels fund-raiser pie-eating contest.

Supermarket employees and Bailey County Office on Aging are encouraging Muleshoe citizens to purchase their Mrs. Smith's pie vouchers for the "Easy As Pie" fund-raiser at United.

The event kicks-off Wednesday, Nov. 13, with a pie eating contest at United here in Muleshoe.

Those interested in supporting Muleshoe Meals On Wheels will be able to purchase a pie voucher from volunteers or store employees starting Nov. 15. The event will end on November 23.

Each voucher purchased will be counted as $5 toward Meals On Wheels, which is vital to our community.

Meals On Wheels provides nourishing meals to the senior citizens of Muleshoe who are unable to prepare a hot, nutritious meal for themselves.

For more details, see Joe at United or call Dawn Merriott, Meals On Wheels Program Director, at 272-3647, or Evelyn Ellington at 272-5402.

I stopped by Thompson Insurance Agency last week and had a chat with Jenny Shaw.

She reported that her husband Eugene's children, Darin and Delia, are both doing great. Jenny is their step-mom.

Darin is the head high school boys basketball coach at Pflugerville-Connally, a suburb of Austin.

"He's had lots of successful coaching years. He's won district titles the last two years I know," she told me. He was named district "Coach of the Year" last year.

"I wish you'd asked me about Darin last year. They've just started their basketball season this year. I don't know if his team is going to be good or not!" she added.

Jenny also reported that Delia and her husband, Lynn Devenport, and their three girls, Mindy, Destri and Macy, live in Bonsall, California.

Delia and Lynn have worked the last four years at Rawhide Ranch, a working dude ranch and camp for kids. Lynn is the head cowboy.

Kids visit the camp for a week. While there, they learn to ride, feed, saddle, bridle and otherwise take care of horses. Ranchhands break, bred, train and sell horses on the ranch.

The kids also get to see many other animals, including chickens, goats and lambs. In many cases, the up-close and personal contact the kids have with these animals is their first animal experience. This is usually due to their living circumstances. Most of them are city-dwellers. Campers are responsible for the day-to-day care of all the animals.

Bonsall and Rawhide Ranch are self-supportive with a post office and diner among other businesses. Every building on Main Street is designed to capture the spirit of the Old West.

"It's like a scene from an old Western movie," Shaw said.

Lynn and Delia found their jobs while searching the Internet. When not working at the ranch, the whole family is heavily into rodeo.

Their oldest daughter, Mindy, a junior in high school, is being looked at by several colleges for a rodeo scholarship. She participates in barrel racing and goat roping among other events.

Rawhide Ranch is 40 miles northeast of San Diego. Pat Sajak, host of the TV gameshow 'Wheel Of Fortune,' owns a portion of the ranch.

I dropped by Cellular 2000 last week to visit with Susan Kerby. She gave me an update on her oldest son, Rhett.

He was just inducted into the Texas Tech University Golden Key Honor Society. Only those students with grades in the top fifteen percent of all students enrolled at Tech are eligible for this honor.

Susan couldn't help but gush as she told me. She is proud of everyone in her family.

"This honor will look so good on Rhett's resume," she smiled.

Rhett is a junior agromony major. He works for Scott Implement in Lubbock. He's married to Kylee, who also attends Texas Tech. She is a junior education major and is the Craft Director at Michael's.
