SOUND SIMPLICITY at rock-bottom cost is the keynote of this new model home recently opened by the Montauk Beach Company, Inc., on Long Island, N. Y. Designed after the suggestions of Douglas Tuomey, building consultant for Good Housekeeping magazine, the architect kept expenses down by: (1) Elimination of basement; (2) Simple frame and roof; (3) Dry Wall construction; (4) Simplified windows and trim; (5) Use of closets for partitions. Although the house embodies the latest principles and advancements in moderate-priced design and construction, it's so simple to build that the tool-wise amateur can do much of the work. The Montauk House lends itself to any seashore terrain and can be used for a summer or year round home. It is featured in the June issue of the magazine.

Wheat Harvest Reaches Peak--Harvest Estimated 50 Per Cent Complete

Wheat harvest in Briscoe county reached its peak this week and it is estimated that 50 per cent of the crop has been harvested the past week. It is difficult at this time to get an average yield per acre. Most reports indicate from 20 to 35 bushels.

The grain elevators were crowded until Saturday night, with a standing line of trucks several blocks waiting to dump. Many of the farmers have reported that they were dumping their wheat on the ground, while some have provided home storage. The local elevators are handling and shipping as much of the grain as they have an outlet for.

The Farmers Grain Company has under construction three warehouses, two in Silvertton and one at South Plains, which will be ready within the next few days. Reports indicate that plenty of combines and trucks are in the county to handle the cutting and hauling of the wheat. Another week of sunshine and the wheat harvest will be over in Briscoe county.

Many farmers who have finished with harvest started their plows to turning the stubble land, and this work is progressing as rapidly as the wheat harvest.

Giles Says Procedure For Acquiring Land Under Vet Program To Be Kept Simple

By BASCOM GILES, Commissioner of the General Land Office and Chairman of the Veterans' Land Board

(Editor's Note: This is the concluding article of a series of three by Bascom Giles explaining the newly created Veterans' Land Board Program.)

In keeping with the terms of the legislation creating the Texas Veterans' Land Board, its administration and operating policies will be kept as simple as the problems of this huge program will permit.

The fact that approximately 13,000 veterans have already contacted this office for information on the working details of the plan indicates the commendable desire of veterans to own a farm or ranch home under the idea originally conceived by the author five years ago.

Paper work involving application to participate has been cut to the minimum. Each successive step has been shorn of all encumbering delays.

For example, proof of the applicant's eligibility can be established by submitting a certified copy of his honorable discharge plus substantiation that the applicant was a resident of Texas at the time he entered military service, and is still a legal resident at the time of application for land program benefits.

For those taking advantage of the 90 day priority offered those who have a service-connected disability sustained in combat, certification of such must accompany the application.

Each veteran will be limited to one purchase not exceeding $7,500 net to the Board. He will be required to pay not less than five per cent down and execute an option before note for 40 years at three per cent interest for the balance.

Should a purchaser desire to acquire a tract of land costing NOT more than $10,000 he will be required to pay the difference between $7,500 and the purchase price plus the five per cent down payment on the $7,500 loan.

He shall have served not less than 90 days on active duty in some branch of the armed service between September 16, 1940 and December 31, 1946, unless discharged sooner for service-connected disabilities. A certified copy of the applicant's honorable discharge will be required to be filed with application. In addition, a veteran who leases his land for oil or gas must apply one-half of all bonus and rentals to the retirement of his debt.

The veterans will NOT be required to live upon the property but he will NOT be permitted to dispose of it for a period of three years.

Payments of principle on note with interest will be made on a semi-annual basis. Each veteran will receive a contract of sale from the state and upon final payment he or she will be granted absolute title.

Failure to make payments when due, permits the Board to revoke the contract of purchase and to forfeit the land which can then be offered for resale to other veterans.

A veteran may reinstate his land which has been forfeited, up to the announced date of resale by payment of a penalty and placing accounts in good standing.

The Board in its first meeting named Alvis Vandygriff as executive secretary.

Vandygriff, an attorney, who hails from Ennis, Texas, has been serving as Chief Clerk of the General Land Office. He is a veteran of World War II having served as a Major in the Army Air Force. He was selected by the Board to direct the administrative machinery of the new program on the basis of his long experience in the Land Office where the offices and records of the program will be maintained.

For additional information or proper application forms, write the Veterans' Land Board, Bascom Giles, Chairman, General Land Office, Austin, Texas.

Save It; Use Your Judgment As to Grain Disposition

Texas grain producers are face to face with a real problem; namely, how to save and, at the same time, get the most money from this year's bumper grain crop. The situation is due to grow progressively worse as the harvest shifts into high gear and the flow of grain from the combines becomes a torrent with no place to go except the ground.

The falling cash market prices and the lack of storage facilities are a threat to the continued prosperity of Texas grain producers, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist. The production costs that went into this year's grain crop were high, and unless the storage problem is solved quickly, adds Bates, so that producers can take advantage of the higher returns available through government loans, they stand to lose millions of dollars.

Texas farmers are old hands at helping themselves and then each other. The present situation calls for such action. B. F. Vance, chairman of the state PMA committee, says the organization he heads is interested in seeing every farmer who has grain to sell take advantage of the government loans. These loans are handled by the PMA organization.

Grain storage structures with double-boarded outside walls and building paper between are recommended. Walls boarded inside and outside of the studs offer a place for rodents, and cut down the amount of storage space available.

Growing by Mowing Is Fine Way to Produce Better Pasture

Pasture grasses have a pretty tough time of it fighting their way through weeds. And, many times, weeds win out in the plant war.

Mowing is generally considered a good practice for getting rid of ert R. Lancaster, extension pasture specialist. Mowing the brush, brambles, vines and the husky weeds that spring up on newly-cleared, fertile land puts them on the way out and gives the desirable pasture grasses a good chance to take over.

At the same time, mowing pastures freshens the over-grown, stumpy grasses. But, often, too much is expected of weed eradication by mowing, especially on poor-land pastures, he says.

Pasture weed control in the humid regions of Texas usually calls for fertilizing, and in some cases reseeding. Until the pasture grasses are thrifty enough to replace mowed weeds, mowing is hardly worthwhile.

If you're going to mow to control weeds, mowing must start when the first of the worst weeds begin to bloom, or soon enough to mow all of them before the seed can form. Bitterweed, a common pest in pastures, may hold enough vitality to mature seed from the blooms even after it has been mowed. So, the way to stop this, Lancaster says, is to mow early and often. Cut high enough the first time so the sprouting stubble can be mowed again and again as it blooms repeatedly.

Clovers volunteer best in short grass. The fall clover stand and spring lespedeza stand in permanent pastures depend largely on enough sunlight for germination and growth of the seedlings. This indicates close grazing or mowing in both seasons to favor these crops.

Grazing too close in both fall and spring might injure the pasture, Lancaster concludes. So, to avoid this, two pastures might be grazed alternately.

BOBBIE COMFORT

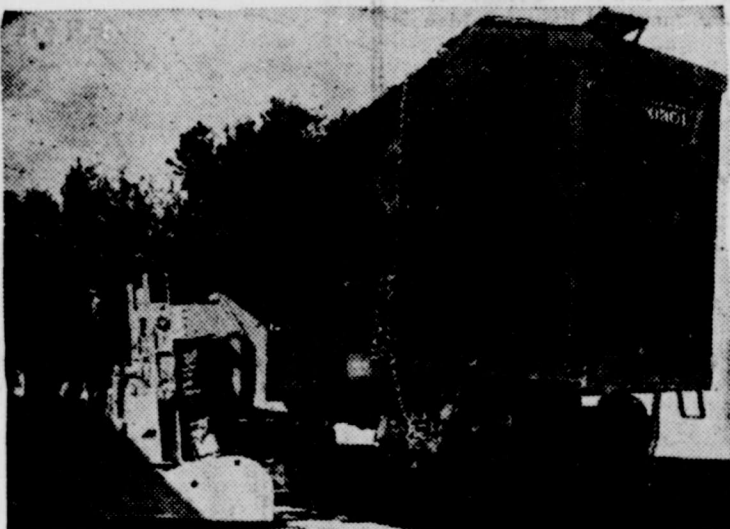

The heat doesn't bother this winsome lass at slumber time. She dons a brief cotton Tommiecoat to catch her winks in cool comfort. Her coat is made of bright cotton calico and frosted with crisp white eyellet, the National Cotton Council reports.

FIREMAN RED!

Despite the fireman-red shade of her cotton broadcloth outfit, this young lady doesn't suffer from the heat. Designer Jo Collins took a cue from the cradle crowd's fashions and styled this diaper-suit that is perfect for days when the mercury shoots skyward. The cool play-suit is cut in one piece, the National Cotton Council says.

SKYLIFT GIANT BOOSTS FREIGHT CAR

Answering a call from industry for a heavy duty lift truck, large enough to lift and carry a freight car is the Automatic Skylift Giant pictured above. This truck is the big brother of the many smaller lift trucks that may be seen in any shop where material handling is an item of importance. Note how the wheel assemblies of the freight car had to be chained to prevent them falling when the car was lifted.

When the truck was designed the manufacturer called engineers of The Timken Roller Bearing Company to blueprint and furnish bearings that would stand the tremendous strain of this amazing load. Today, as on so many other machines in constant use, Timken bearings are standard on the Skylift.

Have Your Fireworks and Eat Them Too

Snow in winter and sun in summer usually spell playtime for week ends. Since Fourth of July falls on a Monday this year the holiday will be lasting from Friday night through Monday night. Holiday, that is, for most workers but not for Mom unless the family plans to "eat out."

Chances are that at least one picnic supper will be held in the backyard, on the terrace, or under cover should the day be wet or chilly.

How does this menu sound for such a supper, served buffet style?

Fireworks Fiesta Food
Tomato juice cocktail
Firecracker rolls
Pinwheel pie
Potato chips
Grilled Hamburgers
Radish Torpedoes
Punk Sticks
Watermelon
Coffee

Here are recipes and helps.

Tomato Juice Cocktail
Chill well flavored tomato juice. Pour some of it into the ice cube tray. At serving time add a cube or two to each glass of cold juice. Serve with firecracker rolls. To make these, slice fresh bread. Cut off the crusts. Butter the slices generously. Spread with mustard or horseradish. Roll and hold in shape by inserting a toothpick. Wrap and keep cold. At serving time remove the picks and insert a slender strip of pimiento for fuse.

Pinwheel Pie
Buy the largest round loaf of rye bread you can find. Cut off the bottom crust. Cut two round slices, about 1/2 inch thick. Remove crusts. Butter each slice. Spread a thick layer of deviled ham on the bottom slice. Top with second slice of bread. Spread three bands of colorful food on the top slice. First band uses sieved hard cooked egg white mixed with softened cream cheese, horseradish, and chives. Second band is made of sieved hard cooked egg yolk mixed with mayonnaise. Add a little anchovy paste, if desired. Third band is made of chopped cooked beets held together with a suggestion of a gelatin base. Soften 1 teaspoon plain gelatin in 1 tablespoon cold water. Heat 2 table-spoons vinegar with 1 table-spoon beet juice. When boiling pour it over the softened gelatin. Stir to dissolve the gelatin. Add beets. Chill until rather firm, then use as the outside or third band of color.

Remove a slice from a peeled hard-cooked egg. Take out the yolk. Pill the opening with washed, perky parsley. Set the egg cup in a hole made at center of top bread slice. Put slices of stuffed olives on white band. Cut narrow strips of pimiento or pickled green peppers and radiate these from the center hole to outer edge of round slice in a pinwheel effect.

Place the "pie" in a large platter. Surround with crisp potato chips, the more the better.

Years ago Fourth of July torpedoes were in the form of small balls. Small stones and a mild explosive were wrapped in gaily colored tissue paper. When thrown to the sidewalk the torpedo exploded with a bang. Round radishes may be called today's torpedoes.

When fireworks are to be set off the fuses are lighted by applying a slender stick of a slow burning material which used to be called "punk." The carrot sticks can be of the same size, but not the unattractive gray brown color which used to identify punk.

GILMER-AIKEN SCHOOL LAW IS EXPLAINED

Texas will soon be among the top ten states in education. Enactment of the three Gilmer-Aiken bills into law provides the vehicle by which the state will climb from its low rank, it was declared last week by Charles H. Tennyson, public relations director of the Texas State Teachers Association. The organization led the lengthy legislative battle for reorganization of the public school system.

"These measures pave the way for more classrooms and more and better teachers; as well as providing for more equitable distribution of the cost and revising the top-level administration," Tennyson declared.

"Our children will receive a better education. As a result, our state will benefit."

Tennyson pointed out that schools which fail to meet the minimum requirements of teachers' and administrators' salaries will not only fail to receive state aid provided in the new laws other than the per capita apportionment, but will be dropped from the accredited list. There are now 42,500 teachers and 4,000 principals and superintendents in the public school system.

"The new laws pave the way for the addition of 1,500 teachers as soon as physical facilities can be made available.

"This will relieve much of the classroom congestion which has made for sub-standard education in many of our schools."

The new salary scale for teachers and administrators will do two things to provide Texas with a superior educational system, Tennyson also pointed out.

"Texas will be much more attractive to outstanding teachers from all parts of the country," he said. "Too, the additional pay teachers can get for holding masters degrees will send thousands of them to school to get the higher degree. The greatest enrollment in many years is expected by most Texas colleges and universities this summer in their graduate divisions."

The minimum salary for teachers holding bachelors degrees was increased from $2,000 to $2,400 annually. Under the new bills, they get $54 a year additional for the first twelve years of teaching.

That makes a maximum salary of $3,051. The old ceiling was $2,655.

Teachers holding masters degrees will have a minimum salary of $2,628. The minimum was $2,232. Their credit of $54 a year additional for each year of teaching experience now continues for twenty-six years instead of twelve.

PLAINVIEW CHILD CRUSHED IN FALL FROM SWING

Plainview, June 21.—Carol Smith, 7 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell R. Smith of Plainview, was crushed to death under the metal frame of a swing in the parents' back yard this morning.

Carol, her sister, Barbara, 3, and a playmate Pat Allen, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Allen of Amarillo, were swinging in the two swings attached to the metal frame when it toppled to the ground. Neither of the other children was injured.

Pat Patton was an over night guest of Mildred Bean Friday.

Fishermen

Soviets in Need
MOSCOW.—The newspaper Evening Moscow wants Moscow public opinion to mobilize in support of improvement of conditions for Moscow fishermen. The newspaper reported that Moscow's fishermen are no sissies. All they need is shelter in rainy weather, boats, bait and a glass of hot tea. Thousands of Muscovites are addicts of Izaak Walton and the Moscow region abounds in good fishing spots. Evening Moscow said many places do not provide live bait and even ordinary worms are unobtainable frequently. Boats also are nonexistent at some fishing spots and on popular Senezhsky lake last summer only 50 boats were provided, with another 50 tied up on shore too leaky to put in the water. The newspaper proposed that ponds in Moscow's Izmailova park be opened to fishing and that a special direct bus service from Moscow to the fishing spots be established.

Democratic Mascot, Replacing Old One, Bears Name 'Francis'

JEFFERSON CITY, MO.—Francis got a Democratic sendoff. Francis is the new Democratic party mascot, stepping into the horseshoes of Marilla, the donkey which served the party faithfully for years before her recent demise. Francis left for Washington after a farewell appearance with Gov. Forrest Smith, a man who knows good mules and good Democrats when he sees them. Smith said he was certain Francis was a good Democrat, all right, and that the party's fortunes would be in good hands with her as the mascot. She was born and bred a Democrat, Ed Frazier, Drexel, Mo., told Smith. The mule was purchased by Democrats here for $225 to become the party national mascot. Frazier said he knew President Truman well. He figured he was doing him, and the party, a good turn by selling Francis into the Democratic service. Francis left here, wearing a large sign which proclaimed: "Greetings from Missouri—home of good mules and good Democrats." Francis was airlifted from Kansas City to Washington.

'Cargo Corps' Pilots Fly Many Strange Haul Items

MIAMI, FLA.—The "cargo corps," an inner circle of pilots and copilots, many of whom welcome the change from clockwork passenger flights over routes that have become as familiar as the postman's, are flying many strange things today. Come aboard with Capt. Robert F. "Bob" Pfaff and first officer Truman "Slim" Cummings, of Pan-American World Airways cargo clipper division. They started from Miami with 12,000 pounds of wearing apparel—mostly brassieres—for Barranquilla, Colombia. There they picked up a load of bulls for bullfights in Caracas, Venezuela. That night they were ordered to fly up to San Juan, Puerto Rico, to get some oil well equipment from New York urgently needed in Venezuelan oil fields. Pfaff and Cummings had headed back to their home base at Miami when a radio message intercepted them over the Caribbean. "Go to Port of Spain (Trinidad) for rush shipment to Miami," it said. They swung around for Port of Spain, loaded the cargo and more gas and took off for Miami. The shipment was destined for Allentown, Penn. At Miami the cargo was transferred to another P.A.A. clipper that had arrived only three hours earlier from the factory, where it had been modified for cargo service. The new clipper delivered the shipment to Allentown, then swung over to New York to pick up a load of assorted merchandise for Latin America. Flight crews of the air freighters are skilled airmen, trained in all aspects of air cargo from customs forms to import licenses, loading, stowing and unloading.

Youngsters Prefer Jobs in Modern Activities

MILWAUKEE.—Once upon a time almost all little boys wanted to be firemen or policemen. Nowadays, they want to be radio broadcasters, engineers, physicians or dentists. Authority for this statement is Mrs. Esther Hamilton, chief of the education department of the public library. Mrs. Hamilton is responsible for supplying information on all phases of all careers to library visitors trying to make up their minds on how they wish to direct their lives. Most of her inquiries come from high school pupils with the college students running second. But the grade school pupils, too, are already planning their futures and come in for information as to qualifications, pay ranges and competition. The career department has over 500 books and thousands of pamphlets on various occupations.

Average Man Works Half as Much Now To Clothe Family

NEW YORK.—The average man works only half as hard today to clothe his family as he did in 1914. The national industrial conference board, an independent fact-finding organization, in a survey found the working man in 1948 spent the equivalent of less than five hours' work a week to buy clothes for his family whereas he had to work more than nine hours a week in 1914 to get the money.

"The purchasing value of the wage earners' clothing dollar has more than doubled over the 34-year period," said the board. "The threefold rise in clothing prices has been overshadowed by the sixfold increase in wages over the hourly rate of 25 cents in 1914.

"The wage earner could in 1948 outfit himself with an overcoat, gloves, hat, suit, shirt, socks, and shoes and pay the bill by working 61 hours.

"The 1914 wage earner would have had to work 153 hours for the same outfit."

On the same scale, a woman's hat cost one and a half hours work in 1914 and four hours in 1948.

Two factors in the cost difference were pointed out. The average family size in 1914 was 4.88 persons compared with 3.61 persons last year. But the board found the modern family buys a greater variety and larger amounts of clothing, with the increase in personal consumption amounting to almost 50 per cent in the 34 years.

Furthermore the expenditures for heavy clothing has declined in the period because of advances in home heating and travel in automobiles.

In the past 34 years, women have taken over a larger and larger share of the clothing dollar, the board found. In 1914 the man spent 50 per cent more for his clothing than he permitted his wife to spend. But today, the woman spends 30 per cent more for her outfits than her husband does for his.

Johnny Applesed Bones May Receive Reinterment SPRINGFIELD, MASS.—Reports that the grave of Johnny Applesed in Fort Wayne, Ind., has fallen into neglect inspired a movement to have the remains of the fabulous orchard planter brought back to Springfield.

Applesed—his real name was John Chapman—generally is believed to have been born in Springfield. His cross-country sowing of appleseds won him his better-known name. He died at Fort Wayne March 11, 1847. A chamber of commerce campaign to transfer Chapman's remains was joined by Mayor Daniel B. Bunton. "We'd be glad to have him rest here," said the Mayor, "in the heart of Johnny Applesed Park."

Cads Invade Britain To Get Free Dentures

LONDON.—The house of commons got its teeth into a touchy topic:

Are aliens coming over in waves to get free British dentures?

Sir Waldron Smithers, 68-year-old Conservative, was the first to bare his upper.

He called the house's attention to a government leaflet which he said offered medical, dental, and nursing care to visitors to Britain under the national health services act.

Sir Waldron wanted to know if this is legal.

"I have all sorts of letters of people coming here and getting spectacles and false teeth and going to Antwerp and selling them," he said.

Sir Waldron added that a French doctor told him many of his patients who could afford the fare came to Britain for free treatment and that French doctors were "having a bad time as a result."

All this, he said bitterly, is "part of the Socialist technique of telling the whole world that the Socialist government of England would give free this and that at a time when we were living on the charity of America."

Arthur Blenkinsop, parliamentary secretary for the minister of health, said Sir Waldron's fears "about an invasion of our shores by people who want false teeth and spectacles are a figment of the imagination."

Hypnotism May Be Used To Lesson Dentist Fear

TROY, ALA.—Soon you may be able to believe that "painless dentist" sign.

Some 35 southeast Alabama dentists learned how it was done when Dr. James Fraser, head of the Troy State Teachers college chemistry department, hypnotized a patient before he had a tooth pulled.

"Didn't feel a thing," said George Hattaway, who agreed to the experiment. "And I needed the thing pulled anyway."

Dr. Fraser is a student of psychology and hypnosis and has suggested the use of hypnosis as an anesthetic for dentists.

For Better Dental Health

Extension of community health programs to make dental care available to all children is being urged by the American Dental Association.

Dental diseases, particularly tooth decay, are afflicting more than nine of each ten children. Yet, leading dental authorities estimate, only about one-third of the nation's children are receiving proper dental attention.

Dentists are agreed that the only effective method of combating dental diseases is to start with children; to control and prevent dental defects before they become serious problems later in life.

For that reason, the American Dental Association is opposing establishment of a national system of compulsory health insurance in this country. Children would get less attention.

Association officials point to the present compulsory health insurance system in Great Britain. There, a sound system for providing dental care for school children is falling to pieces because the government program concentrates major attention on a repair program for adults. The same would be true here, dentists say, pointing out that any system which destroys the emphasis on the prevention and control of dental disease in children is not a good system.
