Freeland Binghams' Visit Son, Johnnie, At Fort Bliss

Mr. and Mrs. Freeland Bingham and family went to El Paso last Friday to visit their son, Pvt. Johnnie Bingham, of Fort Bliss. They occupied a five-room motel and were joined for dinner on Saturday and Sunday by Messrs and Mesdames Willie Weast and Jim Hill who were also there on an outing. All had carried food and enjoyed regular home cooked feasts, planned in honor of Johnnie Bingham who will finish his basic training this week.

The entire party attended a bull fight in Jaurez, Mexico, and thought it one of the most thrilling experiences of their lives. The Binghams came home on Monday and think that this has been a perfect weekend. They expect Johnnie home this week end unless his training is to continue at Fort Bliss. Freeland bought a highly hand

CARD OF THANKS

In our hours of sorrow, we have been blessed with much aid and comfort from many friends and neighbors. Also from Dr. Furby, Rev. G. A. Elrod and Rev. H. M. Secord. We wish to express our appreciation for these many acts of kindness extended to us during the illness and at the loss of our husband and father. For the lovely floral offerings, cards and message of cheer we are deeply grateful. MRS. J. N. CANTWELL its 142nd annual meeting in Dedham, Mass.

Available records show that the last horse stolen in Norfolk county, of which Dedham is the seat, was in 1906, when a man walked was found, under new ownership, but a district court judge ruled that the livery stable operator lacked sufficient evidence to reclaim his property.

More than 100 horse thief catchers, representing about 10 per cent of the total membership, sat down to the traditional sirloin roast beef dinner in the Dedham high school lunchroom. Members weighing 200 Carl Tidwell. pounds or more were elected "riders." Their duties, if any, are to don whip, spur and breeches in the event of a horse theft, and by the hostess.
