Hoppers Marching In Briscoe

Funeral services for John E. Keen were held in Anton at 3 p. m. Sunday afternoon, with Rev. G. A. Elrod officiating. Mr. Keen was a brother to Mrs. W. H. Tension. Mr. and Mrs. Tension and James and Mrs. Elrod attended the funeral.

Grasshoppers are beginning to do considerable damage to the pastures, gardens, and shrubs in the County. The largest hatches of small hoppers in several years are much in evidence in all parts of the County. This could be one of the worst grasshopper years in a long time. Conditions have been favorable for their hatching and development. County Agent Ledbetter said that several gardeners have been poisoning their grasshoppers in their gardens and lawns. Many more should be on the lookout for damage and small hoppers. Much of the rangeland in the County has severe infestations that will cause tremendous damage if they are not controlled. Infestations per square yard are not uncommensal of 50 to 60 small grasshoppers on many pastures. This number will cause tremendous loss of grazing if favorable moisture conditions ever come to Briscoe County. Ranges that were poisoned last year in most cases do not have the degree of infestation that will require application of spray. Large grasshoppers, like any insect are hard to kill. While small ones are relatively easy to kill, County Agent Ledbetter said that he wished he could impress on the people the necessity of killing the hoppers when they are small. The potential to do heavy damage is here and farmers should get them while they are small or be prepared to fail to kill them when they are larger. Last year in the blacklands of Texas millions of dollars of damage was done because farmers failed to control their hoppers while they were small. Complete fields of cotton and alfalfa were ravaged. For garden spraying, shrubbery, lawns or the like, 4 tablespoons of Chlordane per gallon of water in a spray will do the job. For pastures, 20z of Aldrin or 1/2 pint per acre will do the best job. This may be applied with a plane in an oil emulsion or with ground equipment with water.

Memorial Day Program and Cemetery Working May 30

A Memorial Day program and cemetery working will be held May 30, at the Silvertown Cemetery. Everyone will prepare baskets and bring along to be served at the noon hour. Mr. Seaney said that 500 cards are being mailed out to non-residents inviting them to attend the program May 30.

Friday, May 25 Set as Field Bindweed Control Day

There will be a field bindweed control demonstration Friday, May 25 at 11:00 a. m. on the Johnnie Lanham farm next to the town section. The relatively new chemical Karmex W will be used in the demonstration. This chemical will be applied by one of the commercial applicators in the State. Field Bindweed is a serious pest and threat to much of the cultivated acreage in Briscoe County. It was introduced in the late forties to this section of the country and has continued to expand ever since. Briscoe County has been fortunate that its spread has not been as rapid as it has been in the adjoining counties. It is very difficult to control. It is felt that this demonstration will be very beneficial. It will be concluded by noon. The Briscoe County ASC Committee announced last week that Bindweed control would be one of the practices that farmers could apply for in Briscoe County.

Planarians Give New Clues to Early Migrations

WASHINGTON—A worm, among earth's most primitive animals, may provide clues to ancient intercontinental migrations. It is one of four hitherto unknown species of freshwater planarians collected in Alaska by Dr. Roman Kenk, a foremost authority on these fantastic creatures.

Some of these four species are quite similar to planarians now found in Siberia. They are unlike any known elsewhere in North America. Their presence in Alaska, Dr. Kenk holds, provides additional evidence of the existence of an ice-age land bridge between Asia and North America and of the fact that during the ice ages, when glaciers covered most of the northern half of this continent, most of Alaska was ice free.

Planarians, although familiar animals in biological laboratories, are very little known in nature. They are among the most fantastic of all animals, sometimes described as "gliding patches of slimy skin" without a body cavity, able to break up at will into scores of pieces each of which regenerates into a new worm. They overpower their prey by wrapping their slimy bodies around it. They predigest it outside the body by projecting the pharynx, a part of the alimentary tract and secreting some digestive material.

Sun Among Million Variable Stars

WASHINGTON—The sun is one of the millions of variable stars in the galaxy of the Milky Way.

Its radiation, upon which depends all life on earth, waxes and wanes over a period of approximately 273 months. This period has been found repeating itself for almost half a century in observations of the Smithsonian Institute's Astrophysical Observatory, made with extremely delicate instruments on high, dry mountaintops in both hemispheres.

It is relatively simple to observe from the earth fluctuations in the radiation of other stars. The sun is quite different. All stars around it are blotted out in the daytime. Its fluctuations are relatively small, seldom exceed 2 per cent. Variations due to transmission through the atmosphere, rather than to anything intrinsic in the sun itself, may exceed this figure. But an observer on the moon, which has no atmosphere, probably would have no hesitation in pronouncing the sun a "variable."

Life Expectancy Now At an All-Time High

NEW YORK—Average length of life among America's wage-earners and their families has reached an all-time high just short of the Biblical three score and ten.

An expectation of life and birth of 69.8 years was reported by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company for its millions of industrial policyholders, based on mortality conditions prevailing in 1954. This figure represents a gain of almost a full year over that for 1953.

The expectation of life at birth among these insured persons has been rising steadily throughout the past three-quarters of a century, and has more than doubled during that time. Based on mortality in 1879-1889, the average lifetime was only 34 years.

Since 1944, according to the company's statisticians, the rise in expectation of life among these insured people has amounted to 4.2 years at age 5, 3.5 years at age 25, and 2.6 years at age 45. Although during the decade only 1.8 years have been added to the average lifetime remaining at age 65, those at this age now have a life expectancy of 14.1 years.

Greenlease Bills Back in Circulation

QUINCY, Ill.—A Quincy housewife has found the 13th bill to be recovered from the missing Greenlease ransom money, the F.B.I. says.

The $20 bill was discovered by Mrs. Fred Gehring when she decided to check her household money against the serial number of the ransom bills printed in a newspaper.

Earlier, a $20 bill turned up at Jacksonville, Fla., and 11 others cropped up in the past few weeks at Chicago, St. Louis, Salt Lake City, and Minot, N.D.

A hoard of $307,720 from a $600,000 ransom has been missing since Bobby Greenlease was kidnapped and slain in 1953.

GRASSHOPPERS ATTACKING BRISCOE COUNTY

YOUR cropland is in a critical grasshopper area

It's important that you take immediate control measures to help prevent mass infestations.

Strike back at hoppers with the No. 1 "hopper stopper"—aldrin. Aldrin kills them if they touch, taste or smell it. It's effective in extremely low dosages. Mere ounces of aldrin control grasshoppers on an acre of cropland, no matter how heavy the infestation. Aldrin can be applied as a ground or air spray.

Don't be a victim of serious grasshopper damage this season—get aldrin from your local insecticide dealer. Be prepared—get aldrin today!

Actually . . . no matter where you live . . . nobody . . . and that means NOBODY . . . can give you more for your dollar than your own home business firms. Let's look at the reason for this advantageous . . . to you . . . situation:

ANY MERCHANT . . . anywhere . . . is ordinarily going to sell goods for some more than he pays for them.

ON AN AVERAGE . . . when you spend a dollar in any retail store . . . here or anywhere else . . . about 70 cents of it pays for GOODS, and about 30 cents goes for rent, taxes, donations, hired help, etc., and a few cents (the national average is about 5 cents) pays the proprietor for his work, and for his investment in goods and equipment, credit losses, etc.

NOW . . . when you spend your dollar at home, you get the same 70 cents worth of merchandise that you would get for it anywhere else.

AND THE OTHER 30 CENTS stays here too, to help you pay for schools, churches, roads and streets; to vitalize the community so your property . . . or your job . . . is worth more; to keep more people here to share civic work and expense, and to serve YOU when you sometimes direly need their knowledge and their skills.

ONLY when you buy in YOUR OWN HOME community do you get back most of this 30-cent retail handling charge . . . and often a great deal more, as your job or your business prospers and your social life broadens with the growth of the entire community.

*It Pays to Buy
 where You Live*

YOU get everything that your money pays for . . . merchandise AND a trade- invigorated community to live in . . . when you buy from your home town merchants . . .

Building Boom Of Roaring '20's Biggest of All

MINNEAPOLIS—So you think the present residential building boom is the greatest in our history? Better take a good look at the roaring twenties, suggests the family economics bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance company.

If 1955 fulfills predictions it will see construction started approximately 1,300,000 non-farm dwelling units by the end of the year. That is a rate of 36 new residential units for each thousand non-farm families, based on current census bureau estimates of 36½ million such families in our 1955 population.

But back in 1925, when there were approximately 20 million non-farm families in the U.S., 937,000 non-farm dwelling units were started. This was 47 new units for each thousand families—a record which still stands as the all-time peak of residential building activity in the U.S. history.

A dollar built as much in 1925 as $2.60 builds today. Adjusted to this rise in prices, the physical residential volume of 1925 would cost $14,299,000,000 in 1955. That is almost a match in sheer physical volume of residential construction for our estimated 1955 volume—but built by a population of 20 million families, compared with 36½ million families of 1955.

Dietetic Foods Use Farm Products

STOCKTON, Calif.—The new low-calorie food industry is providing the nation's farmers an "insurance policy" against diet-inspired reduction in food buying, says Tillie Lewis, founder and president of Flotill Products, Inc.

Starvation diets no longer hold a threat to incomes of fruit and vegetable growers, Mrs. Lewis says, pointing out that the sales of dietetic foods will top $100,000,000 this year, compared to $25,000,000 only four years ago. Fruits and vegetables have formed a large percentage of these sales since new developments in no-calorie sweeteners made processed fruits just as sweet and tasty as their high-calorie counterparts, she said.

"The market for low-calorie food is tremendous," Mrs. Lewis declares. "More than half of the families in America have at least one member with a weight or diet problem."

"Until recently this has resulted in tremendous losses of potential sales for fruit and vegetable growers and processors as dieters starved themselves or carried home 'funny foods for fad diets' in their market baskets."

Pronghorn Antelope Has Made Comeback

WASHINGTON—The nimble pronghorn antelope, fastest animal in North America, has won its race against extinction.

Called the prairie phantom because it is so elusive, the thin-legged creature has returned in such force it is commonly seen from highways in the West.

Its future now seems assured, thanks to careful game management and strict hunting laws.

Estimates of antelopes between the Mississippi River and the Pacific Ocean before the advent of Europeans range up to 100 million head. But hunting depleted their ranks until they neared oblivion in 1908 when only 20,000 were left in the United States. In Wyoming, heart of antelope land, only 5,000 remained.

Wyoming took action and outlawed hunting for several years. Antelope bounded back until it was safe to allow a limited hunting season. In 1948, some 65,000 head were counted on Wyoming prairies and there were approximately 350,000 in the United States as a whole.

Money Lost Years Ago Worth Much More Now

LONDON—Archibald Boseley, 59, made 2,600 pounds by losing his money in 1939.

Boseley said he bought $26,750 in American dollars as a speculation in 1939, but lost his roll on the way to the bank when the British Treasury called in all foreign currency.

Recently, Boseley, said, he received a typewritten envelope through the mail containing the identical bills. He turned the envelope over to police and figured that the bills which cost him 6,400 pounds in 1939 now are worth more than 9,000 pounds.

Buy Him Boots

MINOT, N. D.—Three-year-old Bruce Olsen fell into a cistern. Just above water level, he grabbed onto a pipe and called until his cries brought someone to the rescue.

He wasn't injured, but Bruce confided to his mother that he was terribly upset. He'd lost his cowboy boots in the ordeal.

"We'll buy him another pair," said Mrs. Harlan Olsen.

"A doubloon a day... and sometimes six pistoles!"

JUST THREE weeks after his 16th birthday, George Washington took his first job as a surveyor in the vast wilderness beyond the Blue Ridge mountains in Virginia. The work was hard and dangerous. But the pay good.

And like any boy on his first job, young Washington considered his pay to be very important. In a letter to a friend he wrote,

"A doubloon is my constant gain every day that the weather will permit my going out, and sometimes six pistoles."

When you consider that a doubloon was the equivalent of about $15, and four pistoles made a doubloon—this seems a remarkable amount of money for any teen-ager to have earned in such an early day.

TODAY, OF COURSE, many young men and women are earning a "doubloon" or more on their first jobs. But when money comes easy, we have a tendency to let it go just as easily.

If we're wise, we'll be sure and save part of every pay check and invest it for our own future benefit.

Chance of Living to 100 Twice as Good

MINNEAPOLIS—Chances of living to age 100 are twice as good now as they were only half a century ago. Of the nearly 20,000,000 babies born in the past five years, 80,000 should live to be 100 years old, says the family economics bureau of a national life insurance company. Out of an equal number born in the early 1900's however, only about 40,000 would be expected to reach the 100-mark. Of the total white American population living today, approximately 500,000 will live to be 100, on the basis of present trends. Out of each 100,000 babies born in 1900, a total of 200 should survive to see the year 2,000. But of each 100,000 born in 1950, approximately 400 should live to see 2,050 A.D.

Teen-Age Deaths Due Mostly to Accidents

NEW YORK—Accidents are responsible for 6,000 teen-age deaths yearly, with motor vehicles the cause of a great number of the fatalities. Among boys five to fourteen, the loss of life from accidents is seven times that from acute poliomyelitis, and nine times the loss from pneumonia and influenza combined. Among the older elementary school boys—those at ten to fourteen—accidents take a greater number of lives than all other causes combined. Motor vehicle mishaps account for two-fifths of the fatalities among children of elementary school age. Drownings rank second as a cause of accidental death among children, causing about one fourth of the fatalities. Other causes contributing in appreciable measure to the total are burns and conflagrations, firearms accidents, and falls.
