1958 July 4th Holiday Release on Vacation Driving

Going to have tain J. W. Blackwell today, when he heard the question put to the Region 5-B motorists who are planning to be on the highways over the July Fourth Holiday.

Speaking on behalf of the Texas Highway Patrol and the National Safety Council, Captain Blackwell reminded drivers that 426 persons were killed in traffic crashes during the four day July Fourth week end last year. "However, only one was killed in this district; and that sets a high standard for us to better this year-by not having a single fatality", Captain Blackwell "One way every one can help to back the attack on traffic accidents is to include safety in his holiday and vacation plans," Captain Blackwell said. He reminded motorists that the
