ONE OF THE most vital races in Saturday's Democratic primary of State Senator. There is much more involved than mere personality. Since the issues have been clouded by gossip, slander, rumors and even defamation of character, the voter has a treacherous personal responsibility to sift truth from fiction, prejudice and objective appraisal, and fact from fancy.

WE ARE NOT supporting Senator Andy Rogers, the incumbent, because we think he is perfect, because he has pleased us all the time, because we think he is the only representative of the 30th Senatorial district capable of serving with ability and integrity. We are supporting him because he stands head and shoulder above the two men who now seek his place in the Senate. So completely objectionable are the other two men, in our opinion, that we would have to scratch their names if the name of Senator Rogers did not appear on the ballot.

THERE ARE SOME of our reasons for having to support Rogers, the incumbent, having served only one complete term in the Senate, and it is our belief that an incumbent deserves re-election if there is a good reason why he should not be re-elected. In the case of a Senator, seniority is of utmost importance. It would be unwise for a district to throw its seniority in the Senate to a Senator Rogers already has the job. We owe nothing to a friend, who covets the job of his neighbor. Secondly, anyone who studies Rogers' record carefully will soon find that he thinks like the typical resident of the 30th district. We have always seen eye to eye with Rogers on every issue that has come up, on occasion we have attacked some of his decisions publicly—but we have approved his actions in a huge majority of instances. In voting, our choice is not to select the perfect candidate, but to select the one who most nearly reaches perfection. While Senator Rogers' batting average in the Senate is high, in our opinion the voting records of his opponents are completely unpalatable in many instances.

ONE OF ROGERS' opponents has represented big business interests, including the utilities monopoly, much more effectively than he has represented the farmers and smalltown businessmen of the 30th district.

The other man in race, when he was in the Legislature, voted for exempting utility companies from the license fee required of other appliance dealers for the privilege of selling gas and electric appliances, parts and repairs in towns of 2000 or less. He voted for a two per cent gross receipts tax on soft drink bottles which Gov. Shivers offered. It was repealed 15-14, so his was the key vote. Later, the Senate repealed itself and killed this tax. He also voted to table the effort to reduce this bottle's tax to one per cent. This man tried to exempt milk from the bottle's tax and this candidate voted not to exempt milk.

Phillips 66 Ammonia...

Jack Shelley, Hale Center, Tex., reports: "I picked 847 pounds of lint per acre on cotton fertilized with Phillips 66 Ammonia. This compared to 633 pounds on a check plot that got no ammonia."

Lives Southwest Farmers...

J. F. Martin, Hereford, Tex., reports: "I put down Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia pre-plant on irrigated cotton and made 2 bales to the acre. I use Phillips Ammonia on all my cash crops."

More Cotton Per Acre

From all over the Southwest, successful farmers report higher yields and more profit per acre using Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia. They get more cotton that passes higher at the gin... yields of sorghum grain and ensilage are increased... more marketable vegetables are harvested... and profits on wheat are increased through higher grain yields and extended grazing periods. Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia contains 82% nitrogen and gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of commercial fertilizer available.

THIS CANDIDATE introduced a bill to give the state a first lien on any property owned by old-age assistance recipients and to require that it be foreclosed on their deaths and the state welfare department would get back all they had been paid. This idea has been pushed by anti-pension folks ever since. He also introduced a bill regulating sale, distribution or possession of oleomargarine which hurts every cotton farmer. And most objectionable of all, he supported a two per cent state income tax proposal!

This is to say that Senator Rogers, the incumbent, is much better qualified to serve an agricultural district than either of his opponents. Ask any informed farmer who is familiar with REA and other major farm problems. Ask informed leaders of any farm organization who have had occasion to make trips to Austin in the interest of farm problems.

IN THE THIRD place, we would have to vote for Andy Rogers because the special interest groups, the gas pipeline group, the utilities monopoly, the anti-farm group, those who would like to have federal and state control of underground water, those who consistently try to keep the lid on Austin scandals, those who do not want practitioners of the healing arts controlled or licensed by the state, those who have proved themselves enemies of the Farm to Market road program, those who abhor independent thinking, those who try to tell legislators to get on their team or else they will have to smear them, all have combined to try to move heaven and earth to defeat Senator Rogers. Rogers has been threatened by these interests which warned him not to run. He was told to be a good boy, to go back to Childress and settle down, and he wouldn't be hurt by the character assassins and gangsters who have a great deal of influence in Austin.

Perhaps Rogers would have retired to go back to Childress and make a living for his family had he not been threatened as he was. But there is something in a red-blooded American that causes him not to yield to gangster tactics. So Rogers defied the warnings.

We need more men like Rogers in Austin, men who will put principle above politics, men who will not sacrifice honor for expediency. Men like Rogers are and will be in a minority for sometime, but at least they will speak out against corruption so we can hear. To fail to re-elect Rogers would not be a step in the right direction.

AND FINALLY, even if we did not have the reasons mentioned above for supporting Rogers, even if we did not believe him to be the best man intellectually, morally and spiritually, we would have to support him because of the campaign techniques used by his opponents or supporters of his opponents.

This race, from the time it started with the mailing of anonymous smear literature, has been one of the filthiest races in the history of Texas politics.

We have had "Port Arthur" type stories in circulation almost weekly since early spring. Some of the false stories planted here and there have been petty. Others have been outright libelous. They include, for example, the testimony of a former medical doctor who lost his license, who has served numerous terms in penitentiaries in several states including Florida, Maryland and Oklahoma, who is at present under indictment for performing an abortion in a Dallas tourist court, who perjured himself when under oath he voluntarily made statements a week apart in direct conflict, who was convicted three times for being a confidence man.

Yet there are those having an interest in getting Rogers out of the Senate who produce a completely false statement signed by this character in trouble up to his neck which they expect people to believe in preference to the word of Senator Rogers, other members of the Legislature, official records in Austin, and even newspapers and public officials who have not been particularly friendly to Senator Rogers. And, strangely enough, one of the men attempting to unseat Senator Rogers served on the House investigating committee and would have had access to the records which, had they contained information adversely affecting the senator, would have made a perfect rope with which to hang Rogers. Yet, instead of bringing about the prosecution of Senator Rogers, had there been any basis for doing so, he does nothing about it. Either this man is guilty of negligence of duty or the whispered charges against Senator Rogers are complete fabrications.

ALL OF THESE false stories, planted and distributed, appeal only to "the moron vote" because of their utter absurdity. As a Tullia pastor told us when we showed him some of the smear literature now in circulation against Senator Rogers, "When I see something like that, it spurs me on to vote for the man who has been slandered and wronged."

ARE WE TO assume that Rogers' opposition has so little to offer the voters of this district that they must base their campaigns on such things as the testimony of an ex-con, and a several-times loser, and also other stories of equal veracity?

Andy Rogers' life is an open book. If there exists adverse information concerning his character not available to the public, certainly it has been available to those trying so hard to discredit him. They have proved during this campaign that they have keys to many doors in Austin.

The issue in this race is Andy Rogers and his record Vs. a cess-pool full of slanderous accusations. Let all honest men and women of the district turn a deaf ear to vile gossip brought out during the closing hours of a political campaign.

Don't fall for literature and whispered reports published for morons.

James Burton Craig Sets Up Trust Fund Through Baptist Foundation of Texas

Dallas Texas—A Plainview farmer who had to drop out of school as a youth to help meet family expenses has transferred a 653-acre, $65,000 tract of land at Sunday to the Baptist Foundation of Texas, leaders said this week.

He is James Burton Craig, a deacon in the College Heights Baptist Church of Plainview and a Wayland College trustee for several years. A trust fund to be established through the transaction will benefit Wayland College. Under the agreement, Mr. and Mrs. Craig will receive a monthly income for their lifetime and for the lifetime of the survivor of them, said Dr. George Shearin, endowment secretary for Texas Baptists.

After the death of both Mr. and Mrs. Craig, the foundation will establish and administer a permanent endowment fund consisting of the principle of the trust estate. The fund will be known as the "James Burton and Annie Claire Trust."

Arrangements for the land transfer were completed through the endowment department of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Mr. Craig says he "sold himself on the idea of investing in Christian education" after trying to get a business associate to participate in a similar program to benefit Wayland.

As a Wayland trustee, Mr. Craig works diligently in seeking funds for building and endowment needs of the school. Two of his three children are wayland graduates.

BILL BLAKLEY

Texas like a public official who is independent in his thinking and doesn't have to account for his actions to anyone except the voters themselves.

William A. Blakley is such a man. Of his race for U. S. Senate, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram says: "He entered this race by his own decision. He is beholden to nobody. He doesn't have to promise special interest groups anything and he wants to represent all of Texas, not any political splinter or fragment or faction above the rest . . ."

A vote for Bill Blakley on July 26 is a vote for returning to Washington a man who will truly represent Texas.

DOCUMENTARY PROOF

Big Unions Give Generous Funds To Yarborough!

By SAM WOOD
Capitol Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Ralph W. Yarborough's 1957 election to the United States Senate was financed in part by money from six of the most powerful labor union organizations in America.

Affidavits on file here with the clerk of the US House of Representatives, in compliance with the federal corrupt practices act, show that Yarborough's campaign in the special race for the US Senate last spring drew $28,143 from labor groups headquartered in Detroit, New York, Cleveland, Washington and Pittsburgh.

The federal records are the first documentary proof of a charge hurled at Yarborough in past and present statewide political races that he had the financial backing of the nation's biggest labor bosses.

The US House clerk's records show that big labor's help to Yarborough is part of a nationwide pattern of labor contributions to selected candidates. Among those listed in the 1957 expenditures reports from major labor organizations are Senator William Proxmire of Wisconsin and Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon. The latter received big labor help on a "Morse deficit fund" apparently from a previous campaign.

The big labor money sent to Texas was in addition to the contributions which Ralph Yarborough reported receiving from Texas supporters. Yarborough's own expense report is on file with the secretary of the US Senate. It shows $56,312 contributed to him and $54,328.82 expended by him in the period Oct. 8, 1956 through April 13, 1957. The election was on April 2, 1957.

The $28,143, sent to Texas last spring in amounts ranging up to $5,000, did not go to Yarborough personally, according to the sworn statements on file in the House clerk's office here. The money, earmarked for Yarborough's campaign, was sent to Texas labor leaders and to one liberal Democrat group in Harris County (Houston).

Texas law does not require any reporting or accounting by recipients of such funds and there is no public record in Austin to show what the Texas labor leaders did with the $28,143 sent to them by the United Auto Workers, United Steel Workers of America, the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education, the Railway Labor's Political League, Amalgamated Political Education Committee, and the Textile Workers Union of America, designated for Yarborough's Senate campaign.

The Texans who received the national labor money for the Yarborough campaign are well-known in Lone Star state political circles. They are officials of the splinter Democrat group wearing the label "Democrats of Texas," which is admittedly driving for control of the Democratic Party in the state.

Coincidentally, the Congressional Record on June 16 carried a discussion of how organized labor operates in the political arena supporting candidates and taking over when possible the state party machinery.

The Congressional Record discussion showed a plain parallel between activities of the DOT in Texas and a similar labor group in Michigan, both designed to capture Democratic Party control in the respective states.

Yarborough's opponents, past and present, have often charged him with accepting important financial support from national labor leaders.

Allan Shivers defeated Yarborough for governor twice and Price Daniel nipped him out for the same office in 1956.

In each race, the pro-big-labor tag was hung on Yarborough but without documented proof.

Former Senator William Blakley, campaigning against Yarborough this summer, has made the same charge.

The documentation, direct from the office of the clerk of the US House of Representatives, shows:

UAW-CIO (Walter Reuther, president) Political Action Council, 8000 East Jefferson Ave., Detroit, Michigan, on March 8, 1957, to "Yarborough Senatorial Campaign," recipient not recorded, $5,000. (On the same series of reports UAW-CIO noted contributions of $5,000 to a Senator Wayne Morse "deficit fund" and $2,000 to the "Wisconsin, Proxmire for Senate" campaign). The reports were signed by Emil Mazey, Sec.-Treas., and notarized by Louise Sarafian, notary public, Michigan.

Committee on Political Education (AFL-CIO) 815 15th St. N.W., Washington, D.C., two $5,000 contributions, both made on March 6, 1957, to "Texas AFL-CIO Joint Committee, Texas, R. Yarborough," a total of $10,000. The report was signed by James L. McDevitt, co-director and notarized by Robert J. McKenna, notary public, District of Columbia.

Feb. 28, 1957; Railway Labor's Political League, Washington, D.C. to Robert Bryant, 100 West 15th St., Austin, Texas, $2,000 contributed for "General activity." (All political contributions of Railway Labor's Political League appear on the reports as for "general activity." The same designation is used in contributions of the organization to the "Morse Deficit" fund and to the Proxmire for Senate campaign in Wisconsin.)

March 14, 1957; Railway Labor's Political League, Washington, D.C. to Robert Bryant, 100 West 15th Street, Austin, Texas, $2,000 contributed for "General Activity." Railway Labor's Political League reports were signed by C. T. Anderson, Secretary-Treasurer, before notary public Margaret E. Murphy.

March 15, 1957; United Steel Workers, 1500 Commonwealth Building, Pittsburgh 22, Pennsylvania, $5,000 "to Harris County Democrats." The report did not show the name of the individual receiving the money for the "Harris County Democrats." The report was signed by I. W. Abel, Secretary-Treasurer, before notary public Edward G. Nassar, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania.

March 5, 1957; Amalgamated Political Education Committee, 16 Union Square, New York 3, N.Y., to Fred Schmidt, Secretary, 1011 San Jacenta (spelling not corrected) Austin, Texas, as "Campaign Contribution, Ralph Yarborough for US Senate," $1,000. The report was signed by Frank Rosenblum, Treasurer, before notary Valentin J. T. Wertheimer, New York.

March 19, 1957; Textile Workers Union of America, New York, to Texas State Industrial Council, 310 East 14th Street, Austin, Texas, "Contributed to Senatorial Campaign in Texas for Ralph Yarborough," $1,000.00. Report signed by John Chupka, Secretary-Treasurer, notarized by Wilbur R. Samuels, notary public.

Records of the Trainmen's Political League of Cleveland, Ohio, dated February 18, 1957, show a notation: "$250 to W. P. Kennedy, 1370 Ontario Street, Cleveland (official address of the organization) as reimbursement for donation in behalf of Judge Ralph Yarborough, Austin, Texas, candidate for US Senate." The report was signed by W. K. Sullivan, Secretary-Treasurer, and notarized by Roy H. Neville, notary public.

C. T. ANDERSON
Railway Labor's Political League secretary-treasurer, C. T. Anderson, in a sworn statement to Congress, listed two contributions of $2,000 each to Robert Bryant of Austin, who is on the railway legislative board, "for general activity" in Texas.

I. W. ABEL
United Steel Workers secretary-treasurer, I. W. Abel, acknowledged a contribution of $5,000 to the Harris County Democrats. The liberal organization in Houston backed Yarborough in his special campaign that sent him to the U. S. Senate.

political education, Washington, D.C., to Texas State Industrial Council "R. Yarborough," $663.

June 18, 1957; Texas COPE "refund of expenses" by committee on political education, Washington, D. C., $1,230.06. (Other refunds by COPE to Texas COPE totalling $3,986.46 are not counted in the total of funds clearly earmarked for the Yarborough special Senate election campaign.)

Sworn reports of the national labor organizations on file in the clerk's office of the House of Representatives show numerous contributions in other sections of the nation for political campaigns, including members of legislatures, and in some instances candidates for city offices. Large contributions were made to the "Wayne Morse deficit" and to "Proxmire (Wisconsin) senator" fund.

An accounting of COPE political contributions for the year 1956, preceding the 1957 special Senate election in Texas, shows the Texas AFL-CIO joint committee received $10,000 earmarked for "congressional campaigns." Of 339 separate listings of political contributions by COPE in 1956, except for one donation, the $10,000 fund sent to Texas AFL-CIO joint committee was the largest. One other $10,000 contribution that year went to Michigan political action committee.

Labor funds sent to Texas for use in the 1957 special Senate election in behalf of Yarborough, as shown by the sworn reports, were directed to principal leaders of the splinter "Democrats of Texas" organization.

Bryant, who received the money from the railroad labor's league, is legislative representative in Austin of the railroad firemen and engineers, and is a member of the executive committee of DOT.

Schmidt is state executive secretary of AFL-CIO and is a member of the DOT executive committee.

Jerry Holleman of Austin is AFL-CIO president, and heads the joint AFL-CIO committee which received the political money from COPE. Holleman too is an executive of DOT.

Mrs. R. D. Randolph of Houston, national committeewoman, is chairman of DOT, and is nominal leader of the Harris County Democrats who have the strongest liberal organization in Texas. It was to the Harris County Democrats that the steel workers directed their contribution. (Mrs. Randolph's name is not mentioned in any of the campaign reports.)

Only Texas organization that filed a report in Congress under the Federal Corrupt Practices Act, was the Yarborough committee of Dallas. This group filed a complete list of contributions and expenses.

Among expenditures of the Dallas committee was $1,000 from a Yarborough appreciation dinner, contributed to the Yarborough campaign headquarters in Austin on March 8, 1957. This $1,000 contribution is duly recorded as received March 9, 1957, by Yarborough in his personal campaign report of special election contributions and expenses.

Six contributions of more than $1,000 appear on Yarborough's senate campaign report. These were $2,500 and $2,000 from the Central Texas Yarborough Club; $2,500 from Gulf Coast Texans for Yarborough; $2,500 from Mirron Love, address not given; $1,500 from H. J. Yarborough, Dallas, and $1,500 from Marvin Easter, Houston.

Sixteen contributions of $1,000 each, all by individuals, appear on the Yarborough list of campaign contributions.

In the Congressional Record (Senate) of June 16, 1958, a report of political action group expenditures during 1956 is submitted by Senator Goldwater, Republican of Arizona, during debate on the labor bill.

The report says in part "the labor bosses do not confine their political activities only to subsidizing those candidates on whom they can count to do their bidding; they take over complete whenever practicable the party machinery."

A long discussion in the Congressional Record includes an analysis of Michigan PAC activity. (As noted earlier in this article, Michigan PAC and Texas AFL-CIO joint committee each received $10,000 in 1956 from COPE, the two largest single political contributions from national COPE to local groups.)

The Michigan PAC analysis is from an article written by Miss Fay Calkins of the University of Chicago on a research project on the political activities of labor organizations.

She said "in Michigan PAC formed a liberal coalition with the Michigan Democratic Club, reform Democrats, A.F. and L., and a few patronage interest groups.

By entering precinct captains in the primaries, especially in Wayne County, the coalition was able to control a number of district Democratic conventions and send a majority of delegates to the state convention.

From this position the liberal coalition was able to determine the composition of the Democratic state executive committee, PAC was the strongest single interest group in the coalition."

The contributions from national labor organizations to state labor leaders in Texas for political activity, and the coalition between the "Democrats of Texas" liberal group headed by Mrs. Randolph, follows exactly the Michigan pattern.

Texas labor leaders, Holleman, Schmidt and Bryant, to whom the contributions for political activity were sent, hold executive positions with DOT. They represent the strongest single interest group in the DOT coalition.

In Texas, Harris County and its strong liberal organization, is the counterpart of the key Wayne County organization in Michigan. In Texas, as in Michigan, the avowed purpose of DOT is the same — to capture the precinct conventions and control the State Democratic Executive Committee.

Second quarter (1958 reports) of the national labor organizations, when they are filed with Congress in compliance with the Federal Corrupt Practices Act, will reflect their contributions, if any, to current political campaigns and political activity in Texas.

Quoted from the Congressional Record, Senate, June 16, 1958, Page 10214:

"COPE—While it is by far the most highly organized and most richly endowed political machine controlled exclusively by the labor bosses—is not the only political action group of organized labor. Actually, there are some 40 separate outfits which, under federal law, have reported spending millions of dollars for direct political action.

"Besides COPE some of the larger ones are: United Auto Workers PAC, International Ladies Garment Workers Campaign Committee, Machinists Non-Partisan Political League, Amalgamated Clothing Workers PAC, Railway Labor's Political League and Trainmen's Political Education League, United Steel Worker PAC.

Six of the above were sources of what appears to be a separate fund sent into Texas to back Ralph Yarborough's special Senate campaign in April 1957—The national labor contribution for that campaign, as shown by their sworn reports to Congress, totalling approximately one half of the amount of contributions from individual Texas backers of the candidate, as shown by his personal campaign contribution list.

National labor organizations backed Yarborough with $28,143 clearly earmarked, plus other refunds which could have been used in the campaign. For these there is not public accounting at state level.

Texas individual supporters of Yarborough contributed in his behalf a total of $56,312.58.

FRANK ROSENBLUM
The treasurer of Amalgamated Political Education Committee, Frank Rosenblum, signed a report that his organization sent $1,000 to Fred Schmidt of Austin, secretary of the Texas AFL-CIO joint committee and a DOT official, for Yarborough's campaign.

JOHN CHUPKA
The Textile Workers Union of America official, John Chupka, signed an affidavit that his union sent $1,000 to Texas in 1957 as a contribution to the "Senatorial campaign in Texas for Ralph Yarborough." The money was sent to the Texas State Industrial Council.

You can "put on the dog" with this "hot dog" casserole. That is, this is a dressed up way to use convenient and savory frankfurters. This is a casserole recipe so it's made ahead, ready for the oven. The cheese and slices of frankfurters make an interesting decoration over the top. Wonderfully inexpensive rice and slices of onion accent the frankfurter flavor, and the mushroom soup gives the casserole a tempting and creamy texture.

INGREDIENTS:
1/2 to 1 lb. frankfurters
3 tablespoons cooking fat
2 cups thinly sliced onions
1 cup uncooked white rice
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups water
1/4 teaspoon black pepper
1, 10 1/2 oz. can mushroom soup
1 cup water
4 to 5 slices American cheese (about 1/4 lb.)
METHOD: Slice frankfurters into 1/4 inch slices. Make and frankfurters. Keep out some of the frankfurters to decorate the top. Cook until the onions are tender and the frankfurters are browned.

While the frankfurters cook, put the rice, salt and water in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Cover. Turn the heat down low. Simmer over the low heat 14 minutes. Remove the saucepan from the heat but leave the lid on 10 minutes.

After the rice cooks, stir in the pepper, mushroom soup and water. Stir into the frankfurter mixture. Spread over a greased shallow baking dish holding at least 5 cups. Cut the cheese into triangular pieces. Arrange the cheese and the remaining uncooked slices of frankfurters in an interesting design over the top. Cover and store in the refrigerator until mealtime. Remove baking dish from refrigerator and allow to come to room temperature. Broil until hot through and until the cheese
