CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT THE GENERAL ELECTION ON NOVEMBER 4, 1958. HJR #48-Number Five on the Ballot.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE MELL ON NOVEMBER 4, 1954.

HELD ON NOVEMBER 4, 1958.

ROUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO.
42 preposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas
providing that a home rule city may provide by Charter Provision and a general law city operating under the general laws may provide by majority vote of the qualified voters voting at an election called for that purpose, for a longer term of office than two (2)
years for its officers, both elective and appointive, but not to exceed four (4)
years; provided, however, that tenure
under Civil Service shall not be affected hereby; providing for an election, a form of ballot and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LECISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

"Section II. A Home Rule City may provide by charler or charter amendment, and a city, town or village operating under the general laws may provide by majority vote of the qualified voters voting at an election called for that purpose, for a longer term of office than two (2) years for its officers, either elective or appointive, or both, but not to exceed four (4) years; provided, however, that tenure under Civil Service shall not be affected hereby.

Clarendon Junior New Service to Area

The administration of the Clarendon Jr. College has a sincere desire and aim to make the college functional institution serving the needs of the people of the neighboring areas in their educa-

To implement and fulfill this desire, the President W. W. Pinkerton and Dean. Oliver J. Abel are planning, organizing and staffing a night school for adult Education, running concurrent with the regular school term. Courses offered will include; art. bible, and english for adults who earnestly desire cultural and educational benefits for better living; typing, shorthand, business law, and accounting for employed people who need more thorough training to better serve the position they now hold or to prepare for promotional opportunities whithin their organizations; history, gov ernment, economics, mathematics, and science for those who aspire to complete college degree requirements, but due to circumstances beyond their control cannot leave their homes or jobs for matriculation in regular day school

Dean Abel has been in a large number of school districts of this area during the summer, and has contacted many people who heartily approve this new service offered to the citizens of the area. Any person in the area wishing more detailed information regarding the Clarendon Jr. College Adule Edueation Program for 1958-1959, should contact Dean Abel or W. W Pinkerton at the College.
