All Around the Town

by Mary Ann Sarchet

The things I prize of greatest worth, are just the common things of earth: the rain, the sun, the grass, the trees; the flowers, the birds, the glorious breeze; clouds that pass, the stars that shine, mountains, valleys—all are mine! Rivers broad, and open sea, are riches none can take from me. Oh, od is here on every hand—upon the sea, upon the land. And day by day my thanks I give that with these common things I live.

 All Around the Town

This little poem says so much of what I feel these days when venturing away from town and into the country. Mother Nature has so very generously decorated our section of the country this year. The pastures are the greenest I can remember and the fields of waving grain hold much promise for a bountiful harvest. We catch our breath and hold it almost daily until the storm clouds have passed over. We hope that this year the dream can be fulfilled.

Down the cap rock and into Quitaque provides a most awe-inspiring sight to me, especially in the early morning and late afternoon. I have always loved the rugged country, and don't think I can make that particular drive so many times that I will cease to enjoy it. It seems to me that we are very blessed to live in such a wonderful part of the United States, of Texas, of the Panhandle, and even though I despise gritting the dirt between my teeth on a great many of our days, a few moments of standing in the doorway breathing the fresh-washed air after a spring shower, and seeing a rainbow as it stretches across the sky with the sun bursting through the clouds, compensates for it all.

All Around the Town

I don't know how many of you have ever held a copy of "The Echo" in your hands and read it. It is a small tabloid publication by the inmates, Texas Department of Correction, Huntsville. In the April issue there appears a tribute to mothers which is so touching I thought that, even though it's too late for Mother's Day, you'd like to share.

God could not be everywhere, and therefore he made mothers. "To All Mothers: On this, the day that has been set aside in your honor, we would like you to know that we, your errant but none the less loving sons and daughters, are thinking of you. And each and every one of us shall be hoping there will be happier days for you in the future.

From all of us . . ."
 All Around the Town

OUR ORCHID THIS WEEK goes to a Quitaque woman, Mrs. Wanda Cates, for her struggle in spite of overwhelming odds, to give the people of Quitaque a weekly newspaper. The POST drew it's last breath of life last week, causing a certain amount of sadness to all concerned. It is just almost impossible to operate a newspaper without a printing plant, and even though equipment is being moved to Quitaque and a new paper will be started very soon, there will be a short period of from two to three weeks before operations can be started.

Mrs. Annie Edwards came home from Lubbock Thursday of last week but went back Saturday, as her brother, Sam Vaughn, is critically ill in Methodist Hospital here.

NEAR RECORD VOTE DESPITE EARLIER DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY ELECTION DATE

Returns from Saturday's Democratic Primary have vindicated the earlier election date. When the Legislature approved moving the primary from July to May, there were protests that a light turnout would result. With all votes in, however, it appears that the total is near the record for a primary.

Governor Price Daniel held some 60 per cent of the total vote cast in his race for a third term renomination over Jack Cox, Breckenridge oil drilling contractor.

State Rep. Jerry Sadler defeated Land Commissioner Bill Allcorn with a lead of some 19,000 votes. All the state races were settled except one. Judge Lloyd W. Davidson of the Court of Criminal Appeals will be in a June 4 runoff with District Judge W. T. McDonald, of Bryan.

Associate Justice Robert W. Calvert's victory in his race for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court will provide Governor Daniel with an opportunity to name a high court member.

When Calvert resigns to become Chief Justice, Daniel is expected to appoint Secretary of State Zollie Steakley to the Associate Justice vacancy.

All Texas Congressional races were settled in favor of the incumbents.

Quitaque High School Commencement is Scheduled

Baccalaureate service for the Quitaque Senior Class of 1960, will be held in the Methodist Church in Quitaque Sunday evening, May 15, at 8:00 p.m. Rev. Gene Hawkins will deliver the sermon. He is the pastor of the First Baptist Church in Matador.

Commencement exercises will be held in the Quitaque Grade School auditorium Friday evening, May 20, at 8:00 p.m. Fourteen seniors will receive their diplomas at this exercise.

Mr. O. R. Tipps of Wichita Falls, will be the commencement speaker. Yvonne Wise, daughter of Mrs. Novelle Wise, will deliver the Valedictory address. Melvin Carter, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carter, will bring the Salutatory address. Yvonne was the highest ranking student in the class with a four-year average of 93.08. Melvin was second high with a 92.30 average.

Two County Runoffs Stated for June 4

In last Saturday's Primary Election, some 1,109 persons went to the polls in a very heavy turnout to cast ballots in important county races as well as hotly contested state battles. There were 1,107 paid poll taxes registered in Briscoe County, and it is estimated that some four to five hundred county oldsters are over the sixty mark and do not have to register or pay the poll tax.

Of most interest in the county was the four-way race for Sheriff-Tax Assessor and Collector. Incumbent Johnnie Lanham led the voting in all boxes except Precinct One.

The second high man is Raymond Grewe, former Briscoe County Sheriff, who held a wide lead over the other two candidates, Roy Morris and O. E. (Gene) Vaughn.

Lanham and Grewe will battle for the office when voters go to the polls again on June 4.

In the race for County Commissioner, Precinct One, Incumbent A. D. Arnold topped the field of three by a narrow margin over Leon Martin. Third placer in the contest was a former holder of the office, Alton Steele. A runoff between Arnold and Martin will determine the holder of this office for the next four years in the June 4 election.

Miss Emma Force and brother, P. B. Force, returned home Thursday after visiting relatives in Cleburne. They attended a homecoming at a country church where they attended services with their parents more than seventy years ago. A few of the old neighbors were also present.

TWO 4-H TEAMS QUALIFY FOR STATE MEET

Briscoe County 4-H teams competed in the District Contest Saturday and were well pleased with their showings. Two teams were qualified for State Competition at the 4-H Roundup in June. These were the Farm and Home Safety Team composed of Sandra Mercer and Ann Wingo. Sandra and Ann were second with their demonstration on Boat Safety. The County Livestock Judging Team was also second. This team was made up of John Burson, Dewey Estes, Bob Saul and Joe Kitchens. Dewey Estes was the second high individual in the contest and John Burson was third high individual.

The boys from Hale County were first in this contest. This team was second in the State last year. The Briscoe County boys came within ten points of pulling one of the biggest upsets of the year.

Riley Harris and Raye Nell Garrison, who conducted a well prepared Electric Team demonstration tied for fifth out of ten teams.

Gerald Smith, the representative in the Tractor Operator's contest, also placed fifth. Gerald was high individual in the examination and check list, but failed when backing the four-wheel trailer.

Another team, the Vegetable Production and Marketing team will be judged Tuesday at Tulia. Doris Estes and Carolyn Garrison are on this team.

Adult Leaders who worked with the teams and accompanied them to Lubbock were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harris, Mrs. Don Garrison and County Agent Ledbetter.

Silverton High School Honor Grads Listed

Mr. O. C. Rampley reports that Marsha Monroe and James Clemmer are the scholastic leaders of the class of 1960.

Marsha is Valedictorian with a four-year average of 94.243. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carver Monroe. Marsha plans to attend West Texas State College and major in Chemistry.

James is Salutatorian with a four year average of 93.394. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clemmer. James plans to attend the University of Texas and major in law.

Both are fine students and good citizens. They have demonstrated their ability to finish a job. It is also evident that they are not satisfied to be "average."

We are proud of them and wish them luck.

Appeared in College Speech Drama

Karla (Mrs. James Ross) Alexander, sophomore speech major at Texas Tech College in Lubbock, has been appearing in a seventeenth century farce presented at the Speech Auditorium from May 3 through 10. The play was entitled "The Imaginary Invalid" and was presented to high school groups last Sunday afternoon.

The action of the play centered around the imaginary invalid, Monsieur Argan, a thorough-going hypochondriac. He attempted to marry his daughter to a doctor, but failed because of the tricks of the maid and his brother.

Moliere, the author, is recognized as one of the most influential figures of European drama and the foremost comedian of his time. He died while acting the title role of "The Imaginary Invalid."

Second Free Polio Vaccination Scheduled For Next Tuesday in Silverton

Dr. Pat Williams of Lockney, will be in Silverton Tuesday, May 17, to give the second in a series of polio vaccine inoculations. He will administer the shots in the club room in the basement of the County Courthouse.

Those who took the first shot when Dr. Williams was here before should make every effort to

Cancer Drive Goes Over County Quota

A total of $860.00 has been contributed by residents of Briscoe County to the American Cancer Society in their drive for funds.

A goal of $725 had been set for the county and it is very gratifying to observe that our county was able to exceed that figure.

It was only through the efforts of conscientious citizens that the total amount was collected, according to George Miller, the County Chairman, who expressed his thanks to all who gave and to all the workers for their help.

PIANO STUDENTS TO BE PRESENTED IN RECITAL

Twenty-three piano students of Quitaque who are pupils of Mrs. Robert J. Beck will give a public recital in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church at 8:00 p.m. Saturday, May 21. The performers are Janet Bailey, Becky Berryhill, Venus Gillespie, Ginger Anderson, Jill Johnson, Ara Ann Mitchell, Neva Dale Morrison, Beverly Rogers, Freda Reagan, Sherry Stark and Glenn Rogers Taylor.

Also Lynette Taylor, Sharon Bailey, Jackie Bedwell, Patsy McDonald, Charlene Bailey, Walter Taylor, Rhonda Rogers, Clyde Morrison, Randy Berryhill, Donna Bedwell, and Jimmy Burson of Silverton.

At the close of the recital, cer-be present for this second injection as it will not be effective if the patient waits much longer than the prescribed time between injections.

Those needing booster shots of vaccine are urged to get them at this time. It is recommended that every person have at least four shots for ninety per cent protection against paralytic polio.

These free shots are being sponsored by the Century of Progress Study Club. The hours that Dr. Williams will be here are from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.

RAIN BENEFICIAL TO CROPS AND RANGES

Rain accompanied the passage of a front through the Panhandle of Texas this week, dropping .30 of an inch into the official gauge of Ray C. Bomar. Other measurements ranged from a trace to a half-inch and upward toward an inch. The rain was accompanied by some wind, which is not reported to have damaged crops. No report of hail has been received at the NEWS office from this storm, but reports are that the O. C. Rampleys, the James Davises, the Kitchens', and the Bursons received some hail in our last rain storm.

The shower was beneficial to the cotton planted and not yet up, as well as that which is up. It is expected that this extra moisture will help prevent shrinkage in the growing wheat crop, and certainly it came at a time when almost everyone was needing it.

Local ranchers are wearing big smiles. Rain is almost always a welcome sight to them.

Amos Turner of McIntosh, New Mexico, spent Sunday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Turner. Arnold Turner also visited his parents Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harvey of Quitaque, W. B. Hughes, Mrs. Troy Cox and Latresa, Bobby Maples and Fern Brooks, attended a Harvey family reunion in Childress last Sunday. Only five cousins of the original family are living and all were present. About 75 were present, representing three generations of the family. Rev. Will Garrison, a Methodist minister, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, one of the five cousins, read a history of the Harvey family dating back to Daniel Boone. The late Mrs. W. B. Hughes the mother of Mrs. Cox and sister to J. W. Harvey, was one of the cousins

Shown are James Davis and Louie Kitchens, 4-H Adult Leaders, as they present the first place award for tractor driving skill to Dick Reid. Looking on are the others who participated in the contest, Max Garrison, Roy Stephens, Jim Smith, Joe Bob Watson and Joe Kitchens, the Junior Tractor Leader.

Dick Reid is Winner in County 4-H Contest

James Davis and Louie Kitchens, 4-H Adult Leaders, announced Thursday the winners in the Briscoe County 4-H Tractor Operators School and Contest. Dick Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reid was the winner. Gerald Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith was second, and Joe Bob Watson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Obra Watson, was the third place winner. Other boys who participated were Jim Smith, Max Garrison and Roy Stephens. Joe Kitchens was the Junior Tractor Leader.

The boys attended a three-day school and contest last week. They learned some of the elements of proper tractor care and operation. Silverton Tractor Dealers provided the tractors and help for this school and contest.

The Operator's contest provides that each member take a written test to demonstrate his knowledge about proper tractor care. Then each has to go through a prescribed course of safe driving and backing. The backing was through a staked area providing six inches clearance to the sides with a two-wheel trailer.

Mrs. E. C. Newman and son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mack Walker and children, visited Mrs. F. W. Walker of Wichita Falls in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hawkins and Family in Lubbock on Sunday. Mrs. F.W. Walker is the grandmother of Mrs. Hawkins and Roy Mack Walker. They saw

Range Managing for Top Production

The margin of profit or loss is usually dependent upon the type of management given. This is true for ranchers as it is for any other business. A high producing ranch will sell more pounds of beef than a low producing ranch. The measure of production, then, is in terms of pounds of beef per acre. Good management will aim toward developing the range grasses into a high state of vigor by: (a) removing unnecessary competition, such as woody plants (b) seeding good grasses in suitable locations (c) eliminating overgrazed areas by developing additional water facilities or by the placement of salt (d) chiseling, furrowing, or pitting areas when normal rainfall tends to runoff, yet the soil is otherwise capable of growing good grass, and (e) developing a system of grazing with the proper number and class of livestock.

A conservation plan should be the basis for the needed treatment. A plan is developed following a survey of land on the ranch. A range site and condition survey is made on rangeland which will show the general condition of all sites found on the ranch. The major grasses, woody plants, and perennials forbs will be shown and will form the basis for range management practices. A system of grazing or plan can be worked out by the rancher and the SCS technician assisting the Soil Conservation District. A decision will be made as to the class, age, and number of livestock to run on the rangeland. Any number that is decided upon will be only a starting number for range improvement and should be as flexible as range production.

The grazing plan will probably include deferred grazing of all pastures needing improvement to allow grasses an opportunity to regain vigor and to produce seed. The grazing plan will show where the cattle will graze when various pastures are deferred. This may include cropland fields planted for summer grazing or wheat for winter grazing. With a plan such as this, all of the rangeland should be as to the year getting the deferment, the approximate starting and ending dates, and the number of livestock being carried. The rancher will be in a position to anticipate the amount of range improvement that can be expected and can plan for the enlargement of his herd.

Ranchers need to learn the growth habits and characteristics of the important native plants. After a knowledge is obtained of these important plants he will know how long a period of deferment is needed and by watching his better plants he will note the improvement being made. Range improvement will result when the desirable grasses are used properly and given timely rest periods. Proper use of range grasses is accomplished when no more than 50 per cent of the annual growth, on a weight basis, has been grazed by livestock during the grazing season.

A good cover of grass is needed on the land for protection of the soil. During the winter time the cover will hold blowing snow and thus increase the moisture supply. During the spring and summer cover is needed to hold rainfall and prevent rapid evaporation. Additional grass will result from a sound range plan and provide a higher net return from the ranch.

What I Have Learned In My 4-H Foods Class

by Camellia Comer

I have learned very much in these foods classes. The first day we learned to read the recipe, before starting to work, and ask questions to be sure we understood what to do. We also learned and practiced to assemble all ingredients and equipment. We learned and used the liquid and dry measuring cups correctly. We learned to measure dry ingredients such as flour, and liquid ingredients such as water and milk. We learned to work safely by learning these safety habits: stir hot foods with a wooden spoon, be sure the handles of sauce pans are pushed back over the range, use pot holders.

when picking up a hot pan, put hot pans on racks on table tops, keep your hands dry, when using a knife always cut away from you, wipe up spills (such as fat or water) right away and avoid slips and falls.

We also learned in our first class the quickest and easiest way to clean up. First put food away, wash dishes by first stacking to the right of the sink or dish pan, use hot soapy water. Place drainer on another dish pan at the left of the sink. Wash dishes in this order, glassware first, then silver, china, and cooking vessels. Dry or drain dishes, clean work tables, ranges and sink. Put everything back in place and leave everything "spic and span!" Rinse dish cloth, hang dish towels and dish cloth to dry.

We also learned in making candy how to sift and measure margarine, chop nuts, mix ingredients, beat candy to right consistency, grease pans, spread candy in pans, and cut into approximately correct size. We learned how to judge candy by its taste, smell and looks, whether it was smooth and firm, etc. And also how to serve the candy. We also learned that food does make a difference, when and why we are supposed to eat candy. We learned how to use the range and refrigerator, and other equipment.

At the next meeting we made peanut butter cookies. We learned how to beat an egg, to cream shortening and sugar, to mix ingredients, to preheat oven, remove cookies from oven, cool and how to serve. We also learned that food makes a difference when and why we eat cookies. We learned how to judge cookies by taste, size and shape and evenly browned.

The third meeting we made butter sandwiches and banana milk shakes. We learned different kinds of sandwiches as plain, open faced, ribbon, shaped by cutting with cookie cutters or other equipment. Hearty sandwiches and rolled sandwiches. We learned that as a rule butter is a better food than margarine and better for you but costs more. Butter or margarine is better to spread on sandwiches than salad dressing because it prevents sandwiches from becoming soggy. We learned how to soften the butter, to spread it evenly on bread slices, how to cut bread without mashing it, cut in various shapes and cut off the crust. In making our milk shakes we learned to use the rotary beater. We learned that we must drink milk every day if we don't we will be like the rats that didn't have milk that we saw in the pictures in class.

At the next meeting we made apple-celery salad. We learned how to wash and drain lettuce, make lettuce cups, dice celery, chop apples, and toss salad. We learned that fresh fruits and vegetables contained in salads helps you have clear skin, bright eyes and pretty hair. We learned to judge a salad by the taste, appearance, uniformity of size of ingredients, how placed on salad plate in lettuce cups. We also learned how to properly set the table, the duties of a hostess and good table manners.

We cooked frozen vegetables, corn and broccoli. We learned that the correct method was to bring the small amount of water to a boil, add salt and seasoning, add frozen vegetables, how to know when vegetable is done, and how to garnish vegetables in order to make them look attractive.

The next meeting we reviewed our salad and vegetable lesson, received pamphlets and learned about table manners. Ruth Ann Minyard showed us pictures and gave a report on correct table manners.

We learned throughout our course to learn to eat right and be healthy, we must eat right and by the Texas Food Standard.

The next meeting we learned to make drop biscuits. We learned to measure biscuit mix, blend with milk, use correct pan for baking biscuits, drop well shaped and uniform biscuits and to recognize good biscuits. We also made orangeade. We learned to make orangeade from frozen orange juice and how to squeeze oranges and dissolve sugar in water by heating.

Our next meeting we cooked broiled wiener sandwiches. We learned to use the broiler, toast bread, melt cheese without burning it, and how to serve the sandwiches.

Our last meeting we learned to make peach delight and quick puddings. We learned how much crudding cookies into crumbs for toppings and how to make whipped non-fat dry milk, to use in place of whipped cream. We also learned to plan menus by the Texas Food Standard.

While learning these things, I had a lot of fun just being with the other girls, and cooking food.

THE PERFECT LIFE

"But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; all these things will be added unto you." Matt. 6:33.

Our text is one of those rare gems of the Master's sayings which comes to our ears as one of those rare gems of the Master's sayings which sends us to our knees to ask for grace and mercy because we have kept it so poorly. It is a golden rule of life, the very essence of Christ-living and the key to the happiest and most successful life.

Every man who would make a success of life must have something that is always first with him. If we really have faith in Him, we know His blessed kingdom, which is His church, is the first and best of everything we have and are entitled to. Our possessions, and our service. Without the righteousness His kingdom affords, none of us shall be able to see Him. As we contemplate its beauty and exalted standard, and realize our imperfections, we love to think and dwell upon it as the great divine ideal, and from it take renewed devotion.

It seems the providence part of the saying is more a grace-added gift than a reward. Some scholars say the thought is the old custom of merchants to "throw in" some article with large bill of goods purchased. As we have sought and found great redemption which Christ has purchased for us with His own precious blood, so the Father has added unto us the food of the shelter and the wherewithal we shall be clothed. God's spiritual blessings have surely followed the righteous in every generation as said David of old, "I have never seen the righteous forsake his seed begging bread."

We invite you to attend all the services of the Silverton Church of Christ.

NBC Rules in Favor of Silverton Protest

Mr. Oscar Weeks, Pres. Irrigation League
Route T
Silverton, Texas
Dear Oscar:

Enclosed you will find the ruling concerning the protest sent to us and received in my office Tuesday mornin. This was ruled on by my three man board and verified by the National Office.

Since the pitch in question was not a hit ball or batted in any way umpire erred in the interpretation of the above rule. It is the opinion of this board that the umpire once he warns the batter should then proceed with the game. If warned batter is then out of the box and contacts the ball in any way he then should call this batter out by the authority of rule 6.06 page 19 of National Baseball rulebook. He must be sure though that the batter contacts the ball.

Respectfully,
Richard (Dick) Walker
Texas Commissioner
National Baseball Congress
(Certified true copy)

The following decision has been reached by this board in reference to protest lodged in game on April 24. Game being played in Tullia, Texas.

We have carefully weighed the facts that the umpire in this case was concerned with the safety of the catcher. This however does not allow him to rule out the batter until such time as he would contact the ball with his bat, whether it be fair or foul, with his feet outside the batters box.

It is the opinion of this board that this is a valid protest and that the protest should be upheld and that the game should be played from the point of protest at the next regularly scheduled game. This however we feel is under the jurisdiction of the President of the Irrigation League as to when and where the game should be renewed from the point at which the game had reached when the protest was called, namely as follows:

We feel that Mr. Rowell should be returned to first base and Mr. Strange to second base. Mr. West, the batter, should return to bat with a count of a ball and a strike on him. The pitch in question being a high inside pitch and would have been called ball, we presume.

Curtis Barrett
Sloan Fortenberry
Phil (Sandy) Price

The Irrigation League President, Oscar Weeks, sets date of protest play immediately following their next regularly scheduled game, being May 29, at Silverton, Texas. The umpires shall be disinterested parties to both teams. The batter and the pitcher shall be the same as at the time of protest. If either is sick or not available then Tullia may use the pitcher of their choice and Silverton batter of their choice so long as the player is on the eligible roster. All other players shall be the same as near as possible. The first game is to start promptly at 2:00 p.m.

SILVERTON TEAM SUFFERS DEFEAT BY SPRINGLAKE

The Silverton managers and coaches urge all players to report for practice Friday afternoon at 5:30 p.m.

The trouble with most rosy dreams is the fact that they usually have a thorny awakening.

For the sake of keeping up our courage it is a good idea to spend part of our day-dreaming about a better tomorrow. For the sake of our security it is better to spend a big part of today working the rough spots out of the goals of yesterday.

Ed Lewis used this little poem: "When we talk about our troubles . . . Our troubles grow . . . When we talk about God . . . Our troubles go."

The worst part about our stirring up trouble is that we might have to settle it ourselves. This might be another version of the expression, "Folks who live in glass houses should never throw stones."

Someone else has said, "Worry is the interest we pay when we borrow trouble." . . . It is true that most of our worries are about things which never happen. By the same token, most of the things of a bad nature that happen to us come about because we failed to worry soon enough.

Another put it this way: "The trouble with the future is that its getting shorter all the time." Some folks worry about getting old. Actually if we weren't getting older we wouldn't be getting anywhere at all.

The trouble about writing on the subject of trouble is that we have trouble finding a place to stop.
