

All Around the Town

by Mary Ann Sarchet

We attended a barbecue and ally for Marshall Formby, candidate for the office of governor of Texas this year, in the city park of Memphis last Friday night, with about a dozen others from Silvertown. Bill Long is the Briscoe county chairman of the Formby-Governor campaign, and he and his family, the Milton Dudleys, and the Alton Steeles, were among others who attended. Mr. Formby's Plainview, pointed out a number of ways that Texans can be helped if he is elected governor.

One of the things he mentioned which could directly benefit our immediate area is the farm-to-market road and highway program, which will always be dear to his heart after serving for so long with the highway commission. He also mentioned the need of Texans for as many dams as could be built to conserve the rain and runoff water. That is a subject dear to my heart, because I do not believe there can be anything but good accomplished by the saving of our precious water.

Mr. Formby also stated his desire to see more business and industry in Texas, both large and small. He pointed out the Haggard suit and trouser factory which is new in Bowie, Texas. Mr. Formby brought up the fact that people from other states purchase Texas cattle and Texas feed and take them home to their feeding stations. There the animals are fattened and later they are resold to us for a profit.

We live in the heart of a cattle-raising county, and I dare say that we have some of the best cattlemen in Briscoe County to be found. We also raise a lot of feed and grain every year. It has long been a mystery to me why we don't have a feed lot operation going on right here in Silvertown, or near Silvertown. There are a number of well-lighted persons here whom it seems to me could do well with such an operation.

Jack Stafford told us recently that he had some information on a glove factory that is looking for a place to locate. He was, I think, planning to give some information to the city council on this small business which would employ about 30 people.

Just as Mr. Formby pointed out, these small businesses and industries can be the life's blood of a small community. Formby says, in regard to the state sales tax, that it is probably here to stay. However, he is aware that the plan needs simplification and proposes to do so if elected. He is also of the belief that the merit insurance program needs some alteration.

An additional statement he made was that he feels that the speed limit on Texas' four lane divided highways could safely be raised to 70 m.p.h.

I understand from a good source that Mr. Formby is a good, honest, Christian gentleman. One of his proposals is to take Texas out of the $50-$60 million deficit which has been with us for so long by the simple use of the governor's veto. He proposes to do this in the same way that he accomplished a similar task when he served as Judge of Dickens County: "To simply spend less money than is being taken into the treasury. I think Mr. Formby would do a lot for Texas and for the people of our area if he is elected governor. I think we owe him our undivided support. Briscoe Countians have concrete evidence of his watchfulness over the people of this area during his service on the highway commission, and I think he will continue to look to our best interests if elected.

I think we should pledge our loyalty to Marshall Formby of Plainview in order that Price Daniel not be elected to serve a fourth term and not enjoy the unheard of privilege of appointing the remaining members of the boards and commissions that he has not already appointed.

Names! These sentiments about a newsman's everlasting dilemma concerning the names he prints appeared recently in the Prescott (Wis.) Journal:

The Doctor buries his mistakes
The Barber cuts more off
The Dentist pulls another one
And the Internist says, "Now cough."
The Undertaker covers up
The Chef just calls it hash
The Bootlegger sells it anyway
And blames it on the mash.

Local Volunteers To Assist Cancer Fund Drive in County

Rev. Carlos McLeod

Chairman of the 1962 fund drive by the American Cancer Society in Briscoe County will be Rev. Carlos McLeod, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Silvertown.

Rev. McLeod will head the campaign organization which is scheduled to make its drive for funds on the evening of April 19.

"To cure more, give more" is the 1962 campaign slogan with the well-known motto which has highlighted previous campaigns, "Fight cancer with a checkup and a check."

"The progress made in cancer control depends on the amount of money invested in the program," Rev. McLeod said. "Your contribution is one of the greatest investments in the world. Let's give more to cure more."

A goal of $900.00 has been set for Briscoe County this year. For the past several years, the county has gone over its goal, and it is hoped that we will do so again in 1962, he added.

The country chairmen will be responsible for getting workers to assist with the house-to-house drive in their rural communities.

A film for all the Silvertown and county house-to-house workers is to be shown at the school film room at 2:00 o'clock Monday afternoon, March 19.

Buck Jackson Memorial Service Held Last Week

Funeral services for H. F. (Buck) Jackson, 62, were held on Wednesday of last week in the Westside Church of Christ in Lockney. Earl Cantwell, minister of the Rock Creek Church of Christ, and the Rev. Carlos McLeod, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Silvertown, conducted the service.

Mr. Jackson had been in ill health for the past few weeks and died March 5, in West Texas Hospital in Lubbock. He was a retired farmer.

Born in Higginsville, Missouri, in 1899, Hardin Franklin Jackson moved to Floyd County in 1914 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jackson, and the family settled on one of the first irrigated farms in the area. He obeyed the gospel when he was 10, and at the time of his death was a member of the Sandhill Church of Christ.

On July 18, 1925, Mr. Jackson married Miss Glenna Smith, daughter of another pioneer Floyd County family, Elder and Mrs. Charlie Smith. The couple had one son, Franklin, jr., who died in infancy.

The husband gets a clear divorce
The ex-wife gets more dough
But woes be on the printer
If a name has not an "o".
He's called up on the telephone
Both blind and dumb is he
Though he only did the best he could
And probably for free.

Mrs. Neville Muckleroy

Mrs. Neville Muckleroy is chairman of the house-to-house campaign for funds for the American Cancer Society in Silvertown this year. Wife of the local doctor, Mrs. Muckleroy had assisted with drives in Dallas before moving to Silvertown.

These workers will conduct an all-out drive on the evening of April 17. Mrs. Muckleroy asks that you please turn on your porch lights as an aid to these volunteer workers.

All these workers are to attend the showing of a film on the subject of soliciting for the American Cancer Society in the high school film room at 2:00 p.m. Monday, March 19.

The time and place have been changed, and workers who had been asked to meet elsewhere are asked to make note of the change Mrs. Muckleroy added.

No Dumping On School Property

The board of trustees of the Silvertown Independent School District have announced this week that dumping of tree limbs and other refuse on the school property which adjoins the ball park and rodeo arena is strictly forbidden. Residents are asked to cooperate in helping keep our school grounds clean.

Mrs. Lee Deavenport and Mrs. Lowell Jarrett spent most of last week in Amarillo with Mrs. Arlie Barnett who underwent surgery in St. Anthony's Hospital on Monday. Mrs. Barnett was able to leave the hospital on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Berle Underwood and Mrs. J. D. Nance and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McJimsey and Sue were hosts over a long weekend to several children from the children's home in Lubbock.

Among the survivors are his widow, Glenna; two brothers, Clyde of Flagstaff, Arizona, and Curtis of Calhoun, Georgia; and three sisters, Mrs. Clifford Allard of Silvertown, Mrs. Summer Clayton of O'Donnell and Mrs. Mildred Spann of Jackson, Mississippi.

Interment was in the Lockney Cemetery under the direction of Carter Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Lynn Miller, Arlan Miller, Weldon Smith, Wayne Billington, Fred Jackson and T. C. Hollums.

The film for the Quitaque workers will be shown at 5:00 p.m. Monday, March 19, in the community room of the First National Bank.

Street Sign Project Now Underway

Silvertown Lions Club is now accepting donations to their street sign fund, according to Gene Morris, Boss Lion. The City of Silvertown has been surveyed by a Lions Club committee and the number of street signs needed has been determined. Streets that have few houses will not be marked at every corner, but every street will be marked at the highway and at the cemetery road, as well as at many other intersections over town.

The metal signs to be purchased are large and will be easy to read, according to Jim Mercer, a

Annual Meeting Of Irrigation Baseball League Called

The annual meeting of the Irrigation Baseball League will be held in the club room of Swisher Electric Co-Op in Tulia on Thursday, March 15, at 7:30 p.m. Directors and officers will be elected.

BRUCELLEUS TEST CREWS MOVE INTO BRISCOE COUNTY FOR CATTLE INSPECTION

A United States Department of Agriculture anti-brucellosis crew will move into Silvertown to begin brucellosis testing in Briscoe County on March 16.

The testing will be conducted on March 19th, next Monday, according to an announcement from the office of Clarence Kerns, Briscoe County Agricultural Agent.

While in Briscoe County, the USDA crew will test cattle for tuberculosis and will offer vaccination for the disease.

According to Kerns, a result of the brucellosis program in Briscoe County will mean more money for the county's livestock raisers when they sell their animals through auction rings in other areas.

Untested animals, he explained, are affected by price penalties. Brucellosis is undulant fever. The brucellosis testing program was adopted for Briscoe County following conferences between extension service representatives and the county's livestock raisers.

"The only thing it'll cost is the time and effort of livestock owners to corral their animals for the inspection. The brucellosis crews will visit your farm or ranch to conduct the tests free," Kerns added.

A mobile laboratory will be moved into Silvertown and results of the testing can be revealed rapidly.

Aim of the testing project now beginning is to have each head of cattle in Briscoe County tested for brucellosis.

The line-up committee will be: Wade Welch, precinct 1; Dale Smith, precinct 2; Wayland Fitzgerald, precinct 3; and Oliver Ware, precinct 4. The cattle owners will be responsible for gathering their cattle and for furnishing help to run them through the chutes.

Farmers Union To Meet In PCA Room

There will be a Farmers Union meeting March 19, 1962, at 8:00 p.m. in the community room of the PCA office. Business matters will be discussed, followed by a guest speaker.

Refreshments will be served. Everyone is invited to attend.

All friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wheelock are invited to attend open house in their home nine miles southeast of Silvertown, on Sunday, March 25, 1962, from two until five o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Wheelock are celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

Their son, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wheelock of Canyon, will be hosts for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wheelock were married in Wise County on March 22, 1912. They lived at Greenwood for five years. They moved to Cook County where they lived for 10 years before moving to Briscoe County in January, 1927, to make their home.

Scholastic Census Indicates Increase of Pupils in County

The Briscoe County School Census for the 1962-63 term indicates a net gain of eight students, according to figures compiled by J. W. Lyon, jr., ex officio county superintendent.

The detailed report reflects a gain in the Silvertown Schools, both white and colored, while the Quitaque Schools lost both white and colored students. The San Jacinto rural school report indicates the loss of one student.

It was pointed out by Judge Lyon that the 1962-63 school census figures do not indicate the exact number of students that will be enrolled in school next fall. Transfers to or from any of the county schools after February 1 will effect the number actually enrolled in schools next September.

J. S. Hinds, superintendent of the Silvertown Schools added that he feels quite sure that all the children who will be in the first grade next year have not been enumerated.

In the 1961-62 census of Briscoe County schools, the San Jacinto school had 24; Silvertown 542; Quitaque 245; Silvertown colored 33; and Quitaque colored 25.

The 1962-63 census indicates that the San Jacinto School will have 23 students; Silvertown 546; Quitaque 241; Silvertown colored 44; and Quitaque colored 23. The total students in the county census for 1961-62 was 869, while the 1962-63 census lists the number as 877.

HANDY HABIT — LUNCHEON ROLLS

By JANE ASHLEY

One problem many busy homemakers have to solve each day involves what to have for lunch that's quick, easy, nourishing and not the same thing served just the day before. One answer, hot and tempting, is the split and stuffed long roll. While today's recipe suggests chopped hard-cooked eggs, almost any chopped filling may be substituted for the egg. When any filling is blended with fine Real Mayonnaise and the rolls run under the broiler, the finished taste treat will emerge flecked with golden brown and with a most inviting aroma. Many good leftovers may be used this way, with no apologies needed.

Broiled Luncheon Rolls

|---------------------------------------|---|
| 4 hard-cooked eggs | Dash pepper |
| 1/2 cup Real Mayonnaise | 1/4 teaspoon grated onion |
| 1 tablespoon mustard-with-horseradish | 4 frankfurter rolls |
| 1 teaspoon salt | 1/2 cup grated American or Switzerland cheese |

Chop eggs and mix with 1/4 cup Real Mayonnaise, mustard-with-horseradish, seasonings and onion. Split rolls lengthwise. Open and spread inside of each roll with 1 tablespoon of remaining Mayonnaise. Sprinkle each with 1 tablespoon grated cheese. Fill rolls with egg mixture and sprinkle with remaining cheese. Place under broiler and broil until cheese is bubbly and rolls are lightly toasted. Makes: 4 rolls.

Other suggested fillings: Tuna fish, chopped leftover roast beef, veal or lamb, salmon and peas, chopped chicken or turkey, baked beans and pickle relish, chopped tomato and bacon bits, crab meat, diced ham or corn beef hash.

Mrs. Erma Piercy of Turkey and Mrs. A. L. McMurtry are spending several days in Marlin. Wayne McMurtry flew his mother and Mrs. Piercy to Marlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harris are in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico, where he is receiving treatment. Riley Harris is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lenton Lanham, while his parents are away.

Mrs. Mart Lea of Roswell, New Mexico, came Sunday to return home her mother, Mrs. J. B. Lanham, who had been here visiting relatives for two weeks.

James Carroll were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Arnold and daughters at Levelland.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Hamilton went to Alpine over the weekend and brought Mrs. Ora Hamilton to the home for Mrs. J. A. Mainard in Lubbock on Sunday. Mrs. Ora Hamilton, mother of Mr. Hamilton and Mrs. Mainard, has been staying with relatives at Alpine for some time.

Donna and Diane Stewart of Albuquerque, New Mexico, have been recent visitors with their aunt, Mrs. Kenneth Sharp and with Mrs. H. L. Stewart, in Tulia. Donna became ill while at Tulia and spent several days in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. She was able to return to her home on Saturday.

The Infallably Safe Way

Our intelligence tells us that different religious organizations teach different doctrines, otherwise there would be no different religions. Most people freely admit this to be true, without any desire to cast reproach or slander upon others whose religion differs from their own. Whether or not there is agreement on religious principles, there is respect for religious conviction.

It so happens that there is ONE AREA to which man can go, and without exception ALL CAN AGREE. If there be a "right way," this is it; and all men agree without exception, that this "way" is the SAFEST, TRUEST, the INFALLABLE "way" to heaven. This "way" is the Bible.

Different religious organizations may accept and hold the Bible in different degrees of authority, but none that calls itself "Christian" will hesitate to admit that if there be an "infallably safe way," the Bible is that way.

We, of the Church of Christ, invite and urge YOU to come out and study the Bible with us. It isn't our desire to convert someone to "our side" or "your side" or "their side," which would undoubtedly offend some; our desire is for all men, all of us together, GO TO "GOD'S SIDE," and there, no one will be offended.

Two Accidents Investigated

The Highway Patrol investigated two rural accidents in Briscoe County during the month of February, according to Sergeant D. R. Dowdy, Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These accidents accounted for one person injured and an estimated property damage of $700.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for Briscoe County from January through February of 1962 shows a total of six crashes. As a result of these wrecks there were none killed and five injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $2,360.00.

The patrol supervisor reported that as of Thursday, March 1, a total of 227 traffic deaths had been reported to the department, as compared with 264 during the same period in 1961. "This represents a decrease of 37 deaths or 14 per cent," he said, "and presents all of us with a stern challenge to help in further reducing deaths for the remainder of 1962." This will not be an easy job.

Are You Ready For A Drought?

by Douglas Cunningham
Area Range Conservationist

Frequent occurrence of drought is a part of the Texas Panhandle history. As ranchers, we can be ready for drought because we know it is coming.

Among stockmen a favorable year or two often encourages an unwise effort to make up for the losses of past, less favorable seasons, by expanding livestock numbers. Wishing will not exchange the weather. Seldom does a series of five (5) years go by without a year or two of drought or very dry weather. The operator who has expanded his livestock in expectation of another favorable year doesn't like to sell his animals on a declining market until the threat of drought becomes a certainty—then it is likely to be too late.

Data gathered from ranchers with experience over the years to indicate some practical means of managing the rangeland and the cattle to minimize the efforts of the next drought. Basic management practices include conservative stocking, adequate supplemental feed supplies, seasonal use of the range, uniform distribution of livestock over the range, and inclusion of both steers and cows in the commercial herd.

Recommended adjustment during drought years include close cutting of dry cows and undesirable animals, and caution in restocking the range before a good vigor has returned to the rangeland.

Try not to be caught unprepared for drought — we all know we are due for a dry spell.

Glimpses of Briscoe County History Since 1892

Jago's Store

From a collection of stories gathered by R. E. Douglas. Mr. Jago established Quitaque in 1893 when he built the first store there. The little store was the one in Quitaque for 10 years. Mr. Jago handled a general store for the cowboys and the ranchers in the surrounding country. Early mail service for the community was also connected with his name since he was the postmaster in the county. There were two at the "F" Ranch before the post office was moved to Mr. Jago's store and he became postmaster.

Mr. Jago with his two eldest sons, Ben and Clem, came to the Quitaque Valley in the winter of 1890. His three younger sons, Joe, Bruce and John joined them about three years later. His wife died before they came to this country. The old Jago store was a large one-room structure about 18x24 feet. Later when he applied for the permit for the post office, he built a "lean to" on the east side of the store to house the post office.

The post office was called Quitaque because that was the name given to it by Col. Charles Goodnight when the mail was distributed at the old "F" Ranch, at that time owned by Mr. Goodnight.

Mr. Jago and his sons lived for a time in a half-dugout. They filed on school land and came to own quite a number of sections of land that way. The boys raised some cattle and the father was in charge of the store. After a few years he built a nice five-room house and painted it white. As the majority of houses in the country were half-dugouts, this house was considered very elegant.

While the post office was still at the "F" Ranch there was a mail route from Clarendon to Colorado City. Cann Addeberry, of Clarendon was the mail carrier. He often stopped for the night at the ranch which was his only stop between Clarendon and Colorado City. The cowboys were very fond of him. He always carried the keys to the mailbags and if anyone met him on the route inquiring about their mail he obligingly unlocked the pouches and looked through to see if there was any mail for the inquiring party. He always carried his camping outfit and if night overtook him he made camp just where he was. If a blizzard overtook him he made for the nearest ranch house and "holed up" for the duration of the blizzard. He was the owner of the Addeberry Hotel at Clarendon.

After the Jago store was built a new mail line was carried from Clarendon to Silvertown. Clem and Ben Jago carried the mail from Estelline. They would meet half way which was at Turkey Creek, near where the town of Turkey is now located. They would exchange mail bags and ride back to their respective towns. Quitaque being on the route received her mail that way.

On one occasion when John Grundy had a young fellow named Peele carrying the mail, it so happened that there was over $300.00 in cash in the sack that day. Peele made an invisible slit in the sack and stole the money, so it was said. When he reached his destination he turned the bag over to Ben Jago at half way and turned back as usual. Ben did not notice the hole in the bag until he reached Quitaque. When he found the mail had been robbed, he and his father with a fast team hitched to a buggy, made a quick trip to Estelline to the home of John Grundy. He joined them and gave chase to the fugitive. They caught him and recovered the money. The young man was sent to a reformatory for several years and later became a good citizen. This was unusual for early day settlers were considered very honest.

Up until 1902 Jago's store and residence was all there was at Quitaque. During the fall of 1902 another store and a blacksmith shop, a schoolhouse and three more residences were added.

Mrs. Lucille Graham of Quitaque remembered Mr. Jago and paid him the following tribute: "Mr. Jago was a round little man with snowy hair and long flowing beard and twinkling eyes. He had a very kindly manner and was the nearest approach to Santa Claus I have ever seen. Every child loved him because he treated them with love and kindness, often giving them candy from his one small glass show case. My father moved here in 1901. I was eight years of age. We made a weekly trip to Jago's store for the mail. We settled on Robert's Creek September 1, and Mr. Jago died November 2, yet, in that short time he had won my childish admiration so that I cried bitterly when I heard of his death. I remember feeling a sense of complete loss."

Just before Mr. Jago died he had started a new store building which was purchased by M. C. Potter, who used it for a grocery store. Mr. Potter purchased the old Jago store and remodeled it into a residence which later burned down. Grandmother Rucker's home was

Mushroom Soup with a French Flavor

By JANE ASHLEY

The easiest way to get warm after a cold January day is to make up an envelope of the new Knorr Cream of Mushroom soup. It is made with the finest champignon mushrooms, grown in France, and milk is added, which makes it even more nutritious. Of course, this is not the only way of using the soup. One good way is Beef a la Swiss, a mock Beef Stroganoff, made with beef round steak, sauted in margarine with onion, then simmered in mushroom soup until tender. It is quick to cook, and delicious served with fluffy rice or noodles.

- Beef a la Swiss
- 3 tablespoons Mazola margarine
 - 1 1/2 pounds beef round steak, cut in strips
 - 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
 - 1 tablespoon flour
 - 2 cups water
 - 2 teaspoons vinegar
 - 1 envelope Knorr Cream of Mushroom soup
 - 1/4 cup water
 - 1/2 cup dairy sour cream

Melt margarine in large skillet over low heat. Add beef and cook, stirring frequently, until brown on all sides. Add onion; cover; simmer 10 minutes. Mix in flour, then 2 cups water and vinegar. Cover; cook over medium heat 15 minutes. Empty contents of Knorr Soup pak into small bowl; stir in 1/4 cup water, mixing until paste forms. Blend in a little of the hot gravy, then mix with beef in skillet. Cover, simmer 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Mix in sour cream. Serve with fluffy rice or noodles. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

NEWS from the High Plains Research Foundation

Seven varieties of pecans were planted in a new research project at the High Plains Research Foundation on February 17th. One-hundred pecan trees were supplied by John Speck and Robert Meinecke from their nursery near Olton.

The varieties included were Western Syle; Improved San Saba; Burkett; Wiehita; Barton; and Peroque. Two year tops, grafted on five year root systems were used in the planting. The trees were planted forty feet apart, twenty-seven trees to the acre in this experimental orchard. They were planted south of the new headquarters building and greenhouse, west to the Farm to Market Highway 1070.

There are several commercial pecan orchards in the area, most of them in the experimental stage, just beginning to bear. Pecan production is expanding in the High Plains. Those interested in pecan growing desire answers to several problems, among them are: the varieties best adapted to this area; irrigation quantity and time of application; fertilizer quantity, method and placement; cultivation; and ease control and inter-planting. Dr. Thomas C. Longnecker, Director of the Foundation said, "The pecan testing will be observed through the years to see if pecan raising can become a cash crop in this area."

Fred Kellum, a student at Texas Tech College in Lubbock, spent the weekend here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kellum, Jr. and David. Mr. and Mrs. B. C.

Mixson and children of Austin, were also guests in the home of his sister and family, the Kellums, from Friday through Sunday.

In assembly last Wednesday, March 7, the Music Department of Jarendon Junior College entertained the high school students with song and mirth. The Master of Ceremonies, Eddie Hunt, set a jovial mood with several jokes and witty stories.

Mrs. Weaver, head of the Music Department, led the 21-voice choir in the presentation of "Dry Bones," "No Man an Island," and "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Eddie Hunt sang "It's a Sin to Tell a Lie," and introduced Lynn Bourland, who played accordian solos of "Glow Worm" and "Round and Round."

The girls were warned not to get carried away when Joe Linen sang "Until There Was You," because Matrimony has already plucked and put him in her basket.

Connie Williams at the piano accompanied the choir and male soloists. The very enjoyable program was concluded with the group singing in beautiful harmony "His Eye is on the Sparrow." The student body expressed gratitude to Mr. Abel, who is Dean of Clarendon Junior College, for bringing these students to entertain.

Freshmen, Juniors Take Tests

Tuesday, March 6, the Silvertown High School Freshmen took the National Education Development Test, and the Juniors took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. The tests lasted all morning and through the fourth period after lunch.

The NEDT test, which is given each year to the Freshmen, is a series of tests in various fields. The tests are graded and evaluated at NEDT Test Headquarters.

When the results are returned to the high school, they are expressed as percentiles. The percentiles show how our Freshmen rank with all other Freshmen over the United States. A score of 75% on a test would mean that the student made better than 75% of all the other Freshmen in the United States.

The NMSQT test, which the Juniors take each year, is a qualifying test for the National Merit Scholarships which are awarded to several hundred students throughout the United States each year. Students who make high enough scores on the qualifying test are eligible to take the semi-final test which will be given this fall. High scores on this test are then eligible to compete for the scholarships.

Junior High Student Council Elects Officers

By Nena McDaniel

At their last meeting, the Junior High Student Council elected new officers. They are John Montague, president; Debbie Dickerson, vice-president; Roy Lynn Long, secretary; Gene Smith, treasurer; and Nena McDaniel, reporter.

Representatives from the different classes were elected to be: Nancy Long, Darrell Long, and Sharon Martin. The Junior High Student Council elects new officers every semester so that other students have a chance to serve.

Young People's Citizenship Poll

This week The Owl's Hoot has compared the Senior class knowledge of important public figures with that displayed by the Freshmen class in this same poll in an earlier issue of The Owl's Hoot.

In the Senior class, 76% knew who both United States Senators from Texas were, while 14% knew at least one Senator from Texas. Two people in the class did not know either senator, which accounts for 10% of the class.

On this same point in the Freshman class, 11% of the boys and no girls knew both U. S. Senators, and 21% of the boys and 13% of the girls knew at least one senator.

The Seniors far excelled the Freshmen in knowing our district's representative in Washington, Walter Rogers. Of the Seniors, 67% knew that Rogers was representative, but only 5% of the Freshmen boys and no Freshmen girls had any knowledge of Mr. Rogers as being our elected representative.

The Freshmen matched the Seniors in one point only—knowledge of who the President is. John F. Kennedy was known by all students in both classes.

The Seniors were also 100% aware that Lyndon B. Johnson is Vice-President, while 17% of the girls and 32% of the boys in the Freshman class did not know who our Vice-President is.

In the Freshman class, 10% knew the state senator from this district and 12% knew the state representative. Seventy-two per cent of the Seniors knew the state senator and 90% knew the state representative.

A little over half (55%) of the Freshmen knew Governor Price Daniel. All but two (90%) of the Seniors knew our governor.

None of the Freshmen knew that Earl Warren is Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, while all but one (95%) of the Seniors were aware that Earl Warren is Chief Justice.

One hundred per cent of the Seniors and 13% of the Freshmen girls and 68% of the Freshman boys knew that Shellie Tomlin is the present mayor of Silvertown.

Public Schools Week Big Success

Large numbers of parents and other visitors attended the schools last week during the open house which was held last Thursday from 6 to 8 p. m.

A large number attended the chicken supper which the Seniors held in the school lunchroom during the open house. The Seniors presented their play to an almost packed house at 8 o'clock after the open house. Mr. Hinds and the faculty wish to express their appreciation to all the parents and friends who helped make Public Schools Week a big success. The Seniors also wish to thank everyone who patronized their chicken supper and play.

Ooops! We Goofed!

This is to call attention to a mistake printed in last week's Owl's Hoot in the story entitled "Classes Clash in Tournament." In the last paragraph, we have the Senior Seniors beating the Freshman Ganders. It should read "The Freshman Ganders gored their way to the first place spotlight with a victory over the Senior Seniors."

Student Council News

The political rally and election was held yesterday, Wednesday, March 14. The winners of the offices are not known at this writing, but the election will be reported in full in next week's paper.

Seniors of the Week

This week The Owl's Hoot begins a new regular feature, Seniors of the Week, to be continued until all of this year's graduating Seniors have been featured.

The three Seniors featured this week were the students with the three highest averages in the class at the end of last year. Although nothing will be final until the final grades have been averaged, most probably the valedictorian and salutatorian will come from these three students.

NOTABLE NOTES

By Robert Hughes
Why not a Peace Corps

Democrats and Republicans alike had advocated the forming of some sort of youth organization to send our young people to foreign countries as good will ambassadors and teachers for many years, but no one had done anything about it until John F. Kennedy became president. Now that the Peace Corps is a reality the flood gates of distorted criticism have opened wide.

To us, the large majority of the criticisms of the Peace Corps are nothing but biased mutterings. We are heartily in favor of the Peace Corps, what it stands for, what it is trying to do, and what it is doing. Typical of the criticisms of the Peace Corps is this comment from the Wall Street Journal: "What person, except perhaps the very young themselves, can really believe that an Africa aflame with violence will have its fires quenched because some Harvard boy or Vassar girl lives in a mud hut and speaks Swahili?"

Fair, unbiased criticism? We do not think so. Rather, we think it is a crude generalization that could do many times more harm than the Peace Corps if so viciously attacks.

Perhaps the very young are idealistic and enthusiastic. But is there ever any great thing accomplished without a large dose of dreaming and vision and enthusiasm? To us, young people seem to be the logical choice for representatives in foreign countries. What other group of people could so well adapt to the change in environment and living conditions? And, after all, how much worse than our present representatives could they be? At least they are enthusiastic, try to understand the country they are sent to, learn the native language, and live on the same level as the people they are helping.

As for the criticism of the Wall Street Journal, we think their comment could have been more aptly expressed like this: "What person, except perhaps the very stupid themselves, can really believe that an Africa aflame with violence will have its fires quenched because some Senator's friend is sent there, lives in a twenty-room mansion, drives a black Cadillac, and can't speak any language except English?"

Jr. High Has "Dress-Up" Day

Last Thursday, March 8, was "Dress-Up" Day for grades 5 through 8. Patterned after the high school Dress-Up Day, this occasion is becoming a tradition in grade school.

Each class nominated a boy and a girl for Best Dressed. Winners of the Best Dressed awards were Ginger Martin, Sixth Grade, and Roy Lynn Long, Fifth Grade.

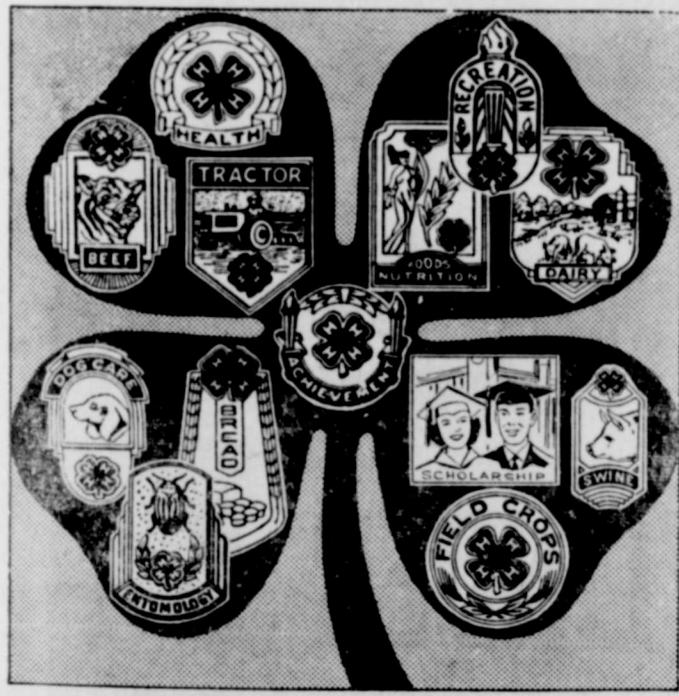

The awards for Best Dressed Boy and Girl were presented to Ginger and Roy Lynn by Mr. Dale Snell in a school assembly on Thursday.

Robert was chosen as the best history student his Junior year. He received the award as Most Outstanding Student, Best Typing Student, Best Science Student, and Best Math Student his Sophomore year.

Robert has been very active in Interscholastic League work. He won first place in district in Extemporaneous Speaking his Freshman year. His Sophomore year, he won fourth place in the state Extemporaneous Speaking and first place at district in slide rule and entered the typing contest. Last year Robert again won first place in district in Extemporaneous Speaking. Robert was a member of the one-act play cast last year and is a member of the cast again this year.

Robert was a member of the annual staff his first three years in high school. He was chosen in Who's Who his Freshman year. Who's Who is an Educational Development certificate his Freshman year. Robert had an essay of his own composition printed in An Anthology of High School Essays, and has had several of his editorials printed in the Amarillo Daily News. He received a full-employment scholarship to the University of Colorado High School Speech Institute his Sophomore year.

Robert was a member of the Junior and Senior play casts. This year he was picked as Boy Most Likely to Succeed. He is also serving as president of the National Honor chapter in our high school.

MEDALS MARK 4-H PROGRESS FOR MANY

Scholarships Aid
Outstanding Youth

One 4-H Club member in 14 will qualify for a county medal this year, predicts the National 4-H Service Committee, while the 600 for national scholarship winners will be one in approximately 10,000 members.

The coveted medals shown here represent 12 different 4-H award projects. More than 50,000 boys and girls in virtually every county in the U. S. who have done outstanding work in one of these areas will earn a medal, according to the committee.

Altogether, there are nearly 60 national 4-H projects and scholarship programs participated in by 2.3 million club members. Last year a total of 166,000 medals were won.

Only members over 15 years of age who have been in 4-H at least three years can compete for scholarships and other awards. Younger 4-H'ers are eligible for medals only, one of the first badges of county recognition.

At the national level, around $115,000 in scholarships will be presented to qualified 4-H youth and young adults who were former 4-H'ers. This is a slight increase over last year, the committee reports.

All 4-H award winners are named by the Cooperative Extension Service. Funds for awards come from private business firms and educational foundations, and are administered by the National 4-H Service Committee.

Among the award sponsors are: Ford Motor Co., Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp., E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, Standard Brands Incorporated, Oliver Corporation, Ralston Purina Company, Hercules Powder Company, Allied Chemical Corporation, General Foods Corporation, Eli Lilly and Company, John Deere, Moorman Mfg. Co., Humble Oil and Refining Company.

Also, California Chemical Company, Singer Sewing Machine Company, Homelite, a Division of Textron Inc., Sperry and Hutchinson Company, Massey-Ferguson, Inc., Successful Farming (through Edwin T. Meredith Foundation), Elgin National Watch Company, International Minerals & Chemical Corporation, and Whirlpool Foundation.

As the 4-H Club year draws to a close, well over 1,400 top-notch boys and girls look forward to winning the most exciting award of their 4-H career: a sponsored trip to the week-long National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. More than 200 will receive scholarships at this event.
