

Wheat Program Offers Choice For Small Farms

Farmers with allotments of less than 15 acres will continue to produce their historical share of wheat as provided by the 1964 wheat program. John Fowler, county office manager for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service said today. The new legislation enacted last fall recognizes the contribution of such growers to the Nation's wheat supply.

As explained by the county office manager, each farm will have an allotment based on the larger of one computed from the average wheat acreage (up to 15 acres) in the three years 1959-61 or the regular allotment. Wheat grown on farms without a wheat history in these three years will be subject to a marketing quota penalty in 1964.

The new wheat program will offer two choices to the farm operator with a 1964 wheat allotment of less than 15 acres. (A.) He may choose to participate in the program as an allotment grower, in which case he will be eligible to vote in the wheat referendum, will qualify for price support, and will receive his share of the marketing certificates. (The certificates will provide a higher rate of price support and will be available on about 80 percent of the normal yield on the allotted acreage. A lower rate of support will be available on the rest of the wheat produced on the farm.) A small grower will also have the opportunity to divert all his allotment to conserving uses at the high 50-percent rate. (B.) He can stay out of the program, and plant wheat up to the larger of his three-year base or his 1964 allotment. Marketing quota penalties will apply to wheat in excess of this limit. He will not be eligible to vote in the referendum. He will receive no price support. He can sell his wheat at the non-certificated wheat market price, or as seed or feed, or use it in any way he likes. Mr. Fowler pointed out that these small farm operators with wheat allotments of less than 15 acres will be asked to register their choices at the Briscoe County office at least seven days prior to the time the wheat referendum is held. This will be within 60 days after proclamation of the national wheat marketing quota, which will not likely be announced until late March or early April. The program will become effective if at least two-thirds of the growers voting approve the program. Don't forget the make-up clinics for the Sabin Oral Polio Vaccine, Sunday, March 31, in the Silvertown and Quitaque school gyms.

All Around the Town
by Mary Ann Sarchet

Last week was National Want Ad week, and that was the subject of Charlie Rice's Punchbowl feature in THIS WEEK magazine on March 10.

Did you know that want ads are nearly a billion-dollar business? That last year there was an average of two want-ads for every man, woman and child in America? We're all big advertisers! Of course the fondest claim of advertising managers is that you can sell or buy anything with a want ad, and maybe they're right. Here are some cute examples: CHICKEN BONES, CLEANED, ABOUT 60,000 FOR SALE.

(A novelty dealer bought them and sold the wishbones for good-luck pieces.) WILL PAY 1 CENT EACH FOR FIREFLIES AND GLOWWORMS. (The advertiser needed them for experiments in luminous paint. He got plenty.) WANTED TO RENT: ONE HIGH-GRADE BULL FOR DAY'S WORK IN CHINA SHOP.

(Advertiser was band leader Fred Waring. He'd lost a football bet and had to lead a bull through a China shop. He got one, led it through a Fifth Avenue shop, and only had to pay $1.17 for a broken cup and saucer.) Personally, I've always loved to read the want ads, and my favorites are the ones that go astray. A small mistake can turn a run-of-the-mill ad into a classic laugh. You know the kind I mean: FOR RENT: LARGE SUNNY ROOM WITH VENETIAN BLINDS.

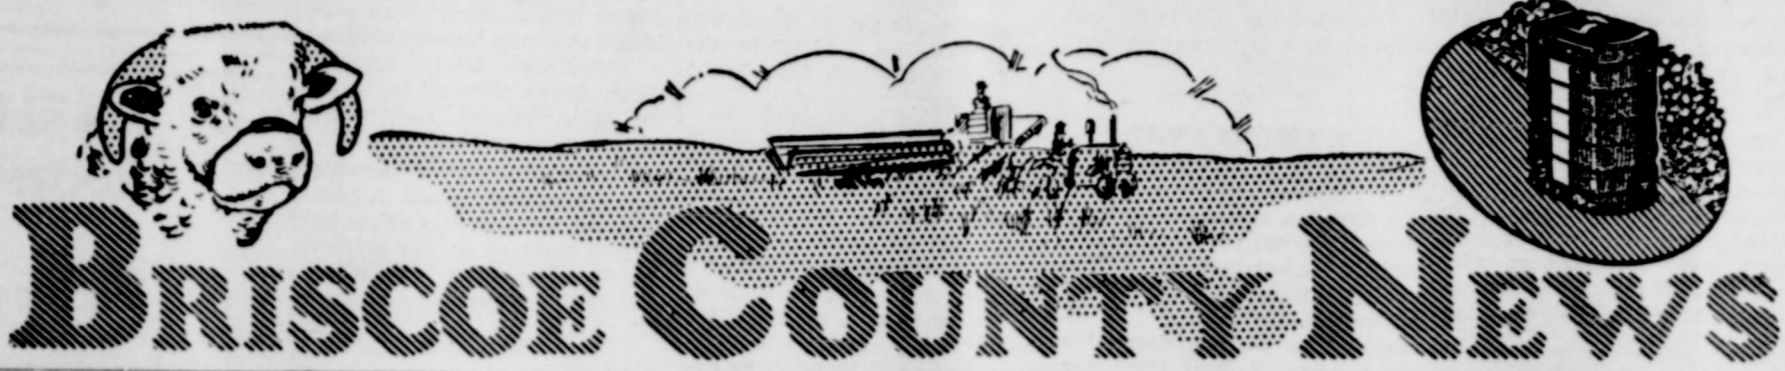

Here are the plums of my collection: WANTED: Young lady, college degree, to teach children cursive in French. HELP WANTED: Full-time maid to live on premises. APARTMENT TO SHARE: Two girl students of Hunter College seek well-bred fiend. DEPENDABLE FIRM seeks widows-washers. Experience desirable. Union wages. SITUATION WANTED: Girl seeks part-time work driving panel truck or other light delivery. "SALVAGE SAM." I am interested in old cars and wrecks. See my wife before noon. HELP WANTED: Girl to help with washing and ironing. LOST: White spaniel who answers to Lady with black spots on her hindquarters.

Funny want ads are all very well, you might say to yourself, but maybe they don't seem so funny to the poor advertiser. And there's where you'd be wrong! The ad people say that they almost never get a complaint on a funny ad because it draws so much attention, and the response is so good. In fact, says Charlie Rice, I think that if I should want to sell my home, I'd start the ad this way: FOR SALE MODEST OLD COLONIAL MOUSE . . .

We Never Make Mistakes
We all make mistakes — but not many make this many: A man with a sewing machine to sell placed a classified ad in the newspaper. The ad came out on Tuesday as follows: "FOR SALE: R. D. Smith has one sewing machine for sale. Phone 958. Call after 7 p.m. and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him cheap."

Wednesday's issue carried the following notice: "We regret having erred in R. D. Smith's ad yesterday. It should have read: "FOR SALE: R. D. Smith has one sewing machine for sale cheap. Phone 948 and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him after 7 p.m."

On Thursday this notice appeared: "R. D. Smith has informed us that he has received several an-

Make-Up Sunday Result of SOS Clinic Is Disappointing

The ability of crippling polio to strike a damaging blow in Briscoe County loomed as a vivid possibility as a result of neglect on the part of many citizens to take the Type III protective vaccine at public clinics, according to Dr. R. N. Muckleroy of Silvertown, an official of the campaign. Only 550 vaccinations were recorded, far short of the desired number.

At the Type L clinics, 1800 county residents swallowed the "sugar pills" and 1750 received the Type II immunization in September and October of last year. These figures account for only about a third of the county's population. To protect a community against polio, between 95 and 96 percent of the population must have Sabin oral vaccine. This protects the vaccinated individual as well as the people with whom he comes in contact. Figures for Sunday's Type III clinics showed 350 vaccines given at the Silvertown High School

Bank Deposits Higher Than A Year Ago

Deposits of First State Bank of Silvertown were listed at $4,030,427.89 as of March 18, 1963. This is an increase of more than $203,131.00 over the March 26, 1962, report figure of $3,827,296.57. Deposits have decreased by about $400,000.00 since the December 31, 1962, report, due to the transfers of accounts of Tullia customers to First State Bank in Tullia.

County Census Shows A Gain of 38

The Briscoe County School census for 1963-64 is complete according to a report by Judge M. G. Moreland, and shows a net gain of 38 scholastics over last year. The colored scholastic census for this year is one less than for a year ago, but the white census is 39 above last year's total. There are now 852 white children on the census roll and 66 colored. The total stands at 918 for Briscoe County.

Quitaque schools went from 264 last year to 273 this year. San Jacinto went from 23 to 26. Silvertown schools recorded a gain of from 593 to 619. Judge Moreland calculated that the increase in pupils seems to indicate a growth of 4.3 per cent in county population. "In ten years," the Judge said, "this would be an increase of 43 per cent. Is our county growing that fast?"

MANAGED NEWS
by H. M. Baggaly

When the disgruntled cry that the administration "manages the news," they intend to leave the impression that the administration is deliberately withholding news from the public for the purpose of deceiving the public, all in vilation of the traditional freedom of the press. In this sense, the critics are merely indulging in petty, partisan politics.

In another sense, everyone from the President on down to a weekly newspaper manages the news—and with considerable justification.

This newspaper (The Tulia Herald) "manages the news" in the sense that we don't report all the personal smut that goes on in the lives of some Tullians. We don't report every incidence of wife beating that is reported to the police. On the other hand, we often are guilty of perhaps overplaying a modest accomplishment of a school youngster who once got off on the wrong track, has done an about face and is now conscientiously trying to accomplish something constructive.

The President can't "manage the news" much as he no doubt would like. You don't hear Drew Pearson crying about "managed news." If he can't get a story one way, he gets it another.

When dealing with enemies, either foreign or domestic, in a hot or cold war, "managed news" is one of the most effective and most used weapons. When it is necessary to keep the enemy in the dark, it is just as necessary to keep the home folks in the dark because there is no way on earth to do otherwise.

IN GOD WE TRUST
by Ben Ezzell

A few days ago, Amarillo Daily News pundit Wesley Izzard discovered, to his horror, that the Communist infiltrators in our national government had succeeded in eliminating our national slogan, "In God We Trust," from our paper currency . . . and to Editor Izzard, this was significant evidence to support his daily case against the government of the United States.

Wes picked a myth that has been exploded too often already, however, and surely didn't have to go far to find an "expert" to bring him up to date on the currency question. Fact is that the slogan has recently BEEN ADDED to the paper currency . . . not taken away from it. The "Izzard of Was," as his staffers refer to him (but not to his face) should have known better . . . and could have checked his facts in any recent edition of The World Alman-

Loss Of Lives Can Be Prevented

Breast cancer is the leading cause of death from cancer among women. About 24,700 women will die of it in 1963.

But this great loss of life could be largely prevented. The American Cancer Society says that 82 percent of all breast cancer patients are saved when the disease is detected and treated while it is still localized. If the cancer has spread to other regions, the chance of cure is only 48 percent.

According to Dr. R. N. Muckleroy, "treatment too late" is the chief cause of death from breast cancer today.

He added that "women should realize that their best protection is to alert themselves about the disease so that they can be treated at the earliest possible moment." Because the possibility of cure in cancer of the breast is so great, Dr. Muckleroy said, the American Cancer Society stresses two protective actions to be taken by women:

1. Self-examination of the breasts once a month for possible irregularities or lumps.
2. A health checkup once a year, including an examination of the breasts by a physician.

The American Cancer Society

ac if he didn't. So can you. "In God We Trust" was not officially designated as the U. S. National Motto until 1956, when Congress passed a law to that effect, although it had come into use during the Civil War and has appeared, off and on, on several U. S. coins since 1864. But it was never used on paper currency until 1955, when Congress ordered it placed on all paper money and all coins.

Of course, there are millions of pieces of U. S. money still in circulation, which were printed prior to 1955 . . . so the chances are, unless you're stoney broke, that you've got some U. S. currency in your pocket right now which does not have the slogan "In God We Trust" and you can rush right out and use it, as Wes did, to "prove" that we are being taken over by the Godless Communists.

has published a leaflet on breast self-examination which illustrates the steps to be taken to discover possible thickening or lumps in the breast. The Society will send a copy free upon request.

Also, the Society has produced a film for women which illustrates the techniques involved in self-examination. The Society will arrange to show the film before any women's group wishing to see it and also supply a physician to answer questions.

Dr. Muckleroy said that any thickening or lump in the breast "calls for an immediate examination by a physician."

The medical spokesman for the American Cancer Society explained that breast cancer, once considered an almost hopeless disease, is potentially highly curable. "More breast cancers," he said, "are being detected early when they are most curable."

"A great deal, however, depends upon the woman herself. A physician can be of no help unless he is given a chance. A few precautions by a woman can increase the odds which are already in her favor."

TEXAS COTTON GROWERS REPORT:

Entire Season Control of Thrips, Aphids and Mites...

Untreated plant at four weeks

Di-Syston treated plant at four weeks

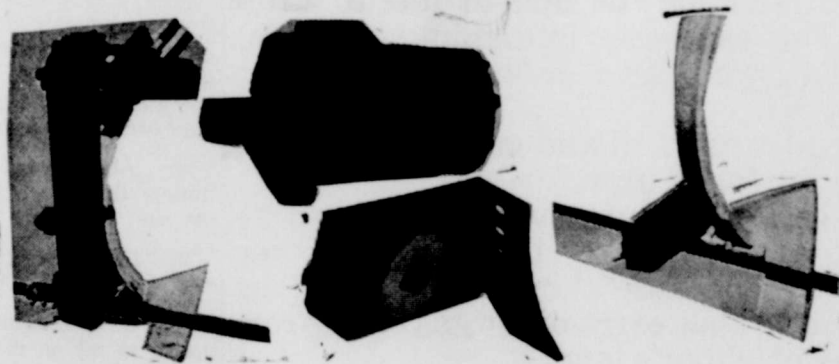

Di-Syston Treated Plants Are Stronger, Straighter... Produce More Squares Earlier

West Texas and New Mexico cotton growers now have a new way to control thrip damage and early-season stunting... with Di-Syston granular insecticide. Di-Syston is placed in the soil with the seed or side dressed after planting. The chemical is then absorbed by the growing roots and carried to all parts of the plant through the sap stream—as soon as the plant emerges. No part of the plant is unprotected—even tender new growth as it is formed.

The result? With Di-Syston, your early cotton grows faster, has stronger, straighter stems, more vigorous foliage. Squares form earlier and the plant produces more of them. Many growers in the Lubbock area have reported full season control of thrip with just the one application. You get higher yields because of the good Di-Syston start. This year, get your crop off to a good start with Di-Syston. Complete instructions for use are printed on the label on every package. Use Di-Syston.

The Supreme Court of the land is now hearing a case of religion in conformity or religion as we see fit.

In some states it is necessary for the children to attend a religious ceremony unless the parent sees fit for the child not to or unless his religion will not permit him to participate in the ceremony. Then the parent should send a note stating that he does not want his children to participate. This should sound reasonable enough unless you look at it closely. The child will probably be ridiculed by the other children if he does not participate in the prayer service in the mornings; therefore he may beg his parents not to send a note. Is it fair for the state to demand that every child take part in a religious ceremony and say a certain prayer?

Is this worse than prohibiting the saying of a prayer to begin the day?

Either is controlling religion, on which the freedoms of America are based. Can we deny or enforce religion? If you are a thinking American you must know that we can do neither if we are to remain free, if we are to uphold the principles for which so many have died.

An increasingly smaller percent of the American people attend church regularly; yet, if this privilege were taken away, they would suffer the greatest loss they have ever known.

"THE ADVENTUROUS LIFE OF WINSTON CHURCHILL"

by Geoffrey Bocca

"Live dangerously," Winston Churchill once said. "Take things as they come, dread naught. All will be well." And as he advised so he has lived through more than eighty years of adventure.

Afgans have shot at him; Derivishes have hacked at him and Bowers have captured him. But even more tremendous than the physical encounters with death were those which took him along the hazardous paths of high policy-making, speaking truths which men feared to hear and clashing with men made vicious by their own mediocrity.

This is a fresh and stimulating picture of an uncommon man and of a career that has ricocheted between triumph and calamity to the present moment when, having been at the center of almost every major crisis of the twentieth century, Winston Churchill has become the symbol and embodiment of a nation's finest hour.

This book is recommended for students on the senior level in high school.

YOUR FAIR SHARE...

Most Texans, we believe, are fair-minded folks.

They believe in fair play, square dealing, and mutual respect for personal and property rights. Those who want to take advantage of their neighbors are the exception.

Sometimes it may be hard to define "a fair share." This can occur in dividing oil or gas production, when two or more landowners are involved.

As we all know, oil and gas don't pay any attention to fence lines.

Here in Texas many wells have been allowed to produce more oil or gas than they should have because they were drilled on small tracts. That extra oil or gas came from under the neighbor's land.

Some oilmen made a regular practice of this type of operation. Obviously, one owner got more than his fair share—others, less.

People in 26 out of 29 oil-producing states have found a way to divide their oil and gas so that each owner gets what is rightfully his. They simply put their small acreage together and share the cost and income. This system is known as POOLING.

Such a system is needed in Texas. It is proposed in a bill now before the Legislature, HOUSE BILL 510. When the neighbors cannot agree, the Railroad Commission would set up a drilling block and see to it that the rights of all owners are protected... all costs and proceeds equitably divided.

Oilmen who have made fortunes at the expense of others could not be expected to support House Bill 510. They are bitterly opposing it. But the responsible oilmen of Texas are overwhelmingly for it. So are the informed citizens who want to see justice done.

Ask your Senator and Representative at Austin to support House Bill 510—so Texas, too, will have a reasonable and legal way to share to each landowner his FAIR SHARE. (This ad paid for by Committee for Equitable Development of Texas Oil and Gas Resources, 341 Mellie Esperson Building, Houston 2.)

Meet The Seniors

Peggy Mercer

Peggy Mercer is a rather quiet girl until you get to know her, say her friends, and then she is liable to talk your arm off.

Peggy has been an active member of the Future Homemakers of America since she entered Silverton High School. She served as their reporter last year and is presently secretary of that organization.

She has been a member of the Pep Squad for four years, and has played basketball all four years of her high school career. Peggy enjoys sports, and plays them all well.

Peggy is eager and always willing to help. The students of Silverton High School have found her a charming person.

The reason there were fewer wrecks in the horse-and-buggy days was because the driver didn't depend wholly on his own intelligence.

IN THE SPRING A STUDENT'S FANCY LIGHTLY TURNS TO THOUGHTS OF...

There have been volumes written about spring and the things that accompany its annual arrival, but most are written by people in faraway places. What goes on in our own high school in the springtime may have its similarities.

Consider for example: New spring dresses that are worn at the first sign of Spring. Boys who are more eager than

Jay Towe

Jay Towe is one of the most active boys in Silverton High School—active in sports, class activities and community activities. He's friendly to all, especially the girls, which may be one of the reasons he was elected Mr. SHS this year. The teachers elected him Most Likely To Succeed from the boys in the Senior class, showing their confidence in his ability.

Jay has been a member of FBLA for three years, was a member of the FFA his freshman year, and has been a member of the S-Club three years. He was a member of an FFA Quiz team his freshman year.

Sports attract Jay, and he has done well in football, basketball and track. He served as a co-captain for the Owl football team this year. His record in the field of athletics is one of ability and sportsmanship.

AIN'T JUST ISN'T CORRECT!

In a survey made recently by Mrs. Ben Lesley's Spanish class, several teachers were asked to state their opinions of use of the contraction, ain't. Their answers were interesting.

Mrs. Alvin Redin says very definitely that "I think you should not use 'ain't'."

Mr. Jimmy Scott Whitfill said, "No, you shouldn't."

Mrs. O. C. Rampley has the following to say on the subject: "Although the word is found in the newer dictionaries, that does not justify its use in modern society. It is simply defined as 'a contraction of phrases.' The Thorndike-Barnhart Dictionary states that it is not now acceptable in modern English."

"You should not," says Mrs. Orville Turner. "There are better expressions. It is not a correct expression. It makes a person sound uneducated."

Mr. Claude Jarrett replied in answer to the question that "if it is acceptable colloquially, then it would be correct. In a school of higher learning, it would seem that it would not be acceptable." Coach Wheelchel feels a little differently. He says that "I think you should because everybody else does except English teachers."

Mr. L. R. Dunn remarked that he thinks "it displays better English habits not to use 'ain't.'" His reason is that "leading persons and authors of English books think it is not of the best usage."

There is nothing undecided about Mrs. Alice Lacy's opinion. She says, "By no means!" Her reasons as she listed them are: "disapproved of by many; more common in less educated speech; substandard; even though found in Webster's Third New International, this does NOT imply that the word is accepted as being correct in good English usage."

WOULD YOU BELIEVE IT?

by Sue Lanham

Happy men eat breakfast, according to a survey made in 10 major cities. These are eager to take on jobs and other daily challenges. The nonbreakfast-eaters are likely to be tense, unhappy worriers, according to this survey.

It looks as though you mothers had better get on the ball and fix those poor men their breakfasts instead of letting them find something to eat if they can or letting them eat in a cafe. Chances are that they will come home much happier.

A good breakfast to start the student's day is also a major point of the day. A good substantial meal will give them the go-power that boys and girls need to carry on efficiently through their busy mornings.

The moral of the story is—get out of bed and feed those hungry people around your house every morning.

Student Council Attends Meeting

Four students who have been elected to Student Council posts for the new school term were accompanied by O. C. Rampley, high school principal, to Abilene last week to attend the annual Student Council Convention. They were Max Garrison, Jeleta Eddleman, Susie Hill and Martha Mills.

They were entertained while learning from the many speakers during the two-day session. They returned home Saturday evening looking forward to attending the Student Council workshop this summer.

The dean of a girl's school was troubled because the girls insisted on crossing the street in front of the school without going to the corner. Warnings, penalties and lectures did no good.

Finally, the dean had a sign painted and set it up in the middle of the block. From that time on, the girls always walked to the corner before crossing the street. What did the sign read? "Cattle Crossing."

A second grade teacher reports that during class construction of a "space ship" she noticed one of her boy pupils was upset and close to tears. The teacher asked him what was his trouble. "The girls want to put up curtains in our space ship," he blurted.

When the modern child hears the story of Cinderella, he's apt to ask: "When the pumpkin turns into a golden coach, is that regarded as straight income or capital gains?"

If you know your blood type, you are asked to telephone Mrs. Troy Burson, 2351, so that it can be recorded.

Resealed loans on 1961-crop wheat will run for another year under the two-year program announced in 1962.

Storage payments, which will be announced later, are to be made to producers on grain under reseal. If a farmer redeems his reseal grain prior to the new maturity date, his storage payment will be prorated.

NITROGEN FERTILIZER

TIME The period of greatest utilization of nitrogen by all crops is the 6 to 10 weeks following germination. By the end of that period the die is cast and any deficiency in nitrogen cannot be overcome by later application. The plant and its fruit will reflect that deficiency regardless of how well cared for otherwise. This means that for maximum effect on the quantity and quality of the crop, the nitrogen should be in the soil waiting when the crop is planted, available from the first day the plant can utilize it. There is much to be said for Fall plow-down and side dress applications of nitrogenous fertilizer. But the single most important consideration is that nitrogen be available during the plant's early growth. It means that if you haven't fertilized with a high-nitrogen fertilizer since harvest, it would be wise to do so as soon as possible.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Although not widely publicized while France's premier, and English and Canadian prime ministers steal headlines of metropolitan press, there is before U.S. Senate a most vital piece of legislation.

Briefly, adoption of Senate Resolution No. 30 would give American independent businessmen privilege enjoyed by Indians, labor, civil service workers.

Because Senate Resolution No. 30 introduced by Sen. Winston Prouty of Vermont gives Senate Small Business Committee authority on legislative matters affecting small business including that of reporting out directly to the Congressional floor legislation important to independent business.

During last session of Congress nation's independent businessmen voting through the National Federation of Independent Business supported by an 87% majority this measure which was introduced at that time but was lost in the session's closing day hassles over foreign matters.

Introduced early in this session by Senator Prouty, the Washington office of the Federation, under the direction of George Burger, vice president in charge, discussed the matter with other U. S. Senators.

There then developed one of the most encouraging manifestations of Congressional awareness.

It is widely acknowledged in the past 15 years some of the most solid and brilliant work in government has been accomplished by the Senate Small Business Committee.

But as a Select Committee, it can only recommend to a Standing committee that remedial legislation be introduced to the Congress. Thus action is often delayed on vital issues to almost the peril point.

This is not due to the members of the Senate Standing committees being unsympathetic to the problems.

Instead, the delays are created by the tremendous work load already faced by the overburdened Standing committees which has been aggravated by the many foreign schemes that are now thrown into the hopers. Thus, often they lack the time to get the job done. Hence the vital need for passage of this measure.

Richard Wayne Toler of Amarillo spent the weekend here with his mother, Mrs. Bill Watters, and Mr. Watters.

Allan Hamilton, whose father is a janitor for the Silverton schools, was to undergo a skin graft in Northwest Texas Hospital on Wednesday of this week. Allan, who is in the first grade here, suffered a burn on his foot recently after stepping in a chemical used in the school boiler room.
