

All Around the Town

by Mary Ann Sarchet

Astronauts, blast-off, time capsule, moon shot — these words are all part of our space age vocabulary. Our changing times require many different things, most of all the ability to grow with the challenge presented by our awesome scientific development.

Never before in the history of America has the school system been so important. Never has such emphasis been placed on the development of projects which were unheard of ten years ago. We, as Texans, are proud of the public schools. We strive to make them the very best possible for the strength of our nation tomorrow.

The public school system is faced with its greatest and most important challenge. The schools must produce the scientists, the engineers, the physicists, the astronauts who will blast off to start new courses toward an unbelievable future, as well as the doctors, lawyers, merchants, farmers and homemakers.

Our Texas public schools can meet the challenge if they get the interest and support they require and deserve. You can help by visiting a public school during the 14th Annual Texas Public Schools Week, March 2-6. Learn what your school is teaching and how. Find out what their needs are, what goals they are trying to reach, and how you can help improve the relationship between the classroom and the home.

You'll find it is an education for you and a vitally important contribution to your community and to our children's future.

Governor Proclaims Public Schools Week

Special observance of increased emphasis on our education system has been marked annually for fourteen years by a Public Schools Week in Texas.

During this period, parents are encouraged to visit the public schools, and all citizens are urged through special programs to recognize the tremendous importance of our system of education. Our goal is to make Texas public schools the finest in the Nation, and to achieve this our citizens are urged to take an active interest in the school systems and to cooperate with their school boards, superintendents, principals and teachers.

Never before in our history has there been a greater need for educated leadership. As we rush to train young people in science and technology to keep pace with world events, it is also important to remember that our public schools will furnish our leaders tomorrow with the basic human, moral and spiritual foundations necessary for more advanced training and knowledge.

Therefore, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the period of March 2-6, 1964, as PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK in Texas.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 14th day of December, 1963.

John Connally
Governor of Texas

Mechanics Contest to Be in Floydada

The Farm Mechanics Contest of the Plainview District F.F.A. chapter will be held in Floydada on March 7, starting at 8:30 a.m. It will be held in the Floydada High School Ag. shop.

The contest is sponsored by the Plainview Electric Cooperative, the South Plains Electric Cooperative, and the Swisher County Electric Cooperative, and is under the supervision of Walter Labay, Area I Supervisor.

The contest is unique, in that it is the only one of its type in Texas. From the beginning one year ago with ten schools, it now includes the entire F.F.A. District, and two other districts in Texas are holding similar contests this year.

The skills included in the contest are plumbing, arc welding, electrical wiring, and tool identification. Awards are $75.00 to the place team, and plaques to individuals and teams.

The annual Haynes Boy Scout District Recognition Banquet will be held Monday, March 2, at 7:00

McWilliams Listed On Dean's Honor Roll

Jerry McWilliams of Silverton is included on the dean's honor roll for the semester which ended at Southwestern (Oklahoma) State College January 19.

Only students with outstanding scholarship records are included on this list.

Recently he was honored as a guest of the college at the school's annual banquet of recognition for academic excellence.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stephens spent last Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Shine Stephens and family in Turkey. They spent the weekend in Mangum, Oklahoma, with Mrs. Mandy Lowry and Mr. and Mrs. Will Walleck.

Savage Services Conducted Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Mariabel Savage, 59, daughter of a pioneer druggist, were conducted in the First Methodist Church in Silverton at 3:00 p.m. Sunday, February 23, with the pastor, the Rev. Carl Nunn, and Earl I. Cantwell, minister of the Rock Creek Church of Christ, officiating.

Burial was in Rest Haven Cemetery at Quitaque under the direction of Roberts Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Loyd May, J. E. (Doc) Minyard, Olos Chitty, W. E. Schott, Gene Berry, and Ben O. King.

Mrs. Savage was born October 19, 1904, at Bells, the daughter of the late C. R. Badgett and Mrs. Badgett. She died at 6:30 a.m. Thursday, February 20, in a Houston hospital where she had been a patient for two weeks.

Mrs. Savage had made her home in Washington, D. C. for 24 years, and was a retired secretary in the Department of State. She was a member of the Methodist Church, and a former Quitaque resident. Survivors include her mother, Mrs. C. R. Badgett of Silverton; a son, Ray Savage of Amarillo; a daughter, Mrs. R. G. Edwards of Big Spring; two sisters, Mrs.

The Tule Watershed Planning Committee met at Redin's "66" Restaurant here Monday evening, and after a discussion of its historical significance designated the proposed lake to be located seven miles northwest of Silverton in Briscoe County as Mackenzie Reservoir.

It was only a few miles west of the proposed damsite that General R. S. Mackenzie trapped the main body of Comanches and Kiowas in a surprise night attack in 1874 as the climax of a campaign which marked the end of Indian hostilities in Texas except for minor incidents. The Tule Canyon area has long been noted for its abundance of Indian artifacts and legend as well as beauty.

A committee made up of the mayors from Silverton, Tulia, Floydada and Lockney was appointed to draw up a charter and by-laws for the proposed reservoir. Mayor S. W. Ross of Floydada was appointed chairman of the committee.

The mayors and two representatives from each of the four cities are attempting to solve the water problems of their respective towns which are expected by 1970. Their foresight may mean that residents of Silverton, Tulia, Floydada and Lockney will, under normal conditions, not be faced with the water shortages which will be inevitable if new sources of supply are not developed.

Sugar Beet Growers Request Allotments

Harold Storie, president of the Briscoe County Sugar Beet Raisers Association, accompanied a group from Floyd, Hale, Swisher and Castro counties to Washington, D. C. last week to meet with area Congressmen, Senators and committee members in an attempt to assure a sugar beet allotment for this area.

An application for a 50,000 ton allocation was filed Saturday, February 15, 1964, by Homer Garrison, president of the Hi-Plains Sugar Beet Growers, Inc. Grady Tunnell, attorney, and Solon Clements, member of the board.

The Punta Alegre Sugar Corporation, with headquarters in New York City, joined the High Plains group in filing an application with the United States Department of Agriculture for a sugar beet plant in the Plainview area for 1966. All of these arrangements are contingent upon granting of a sugar allotment by U.S.D.A.

The eight counties in the Hi-Plains Association have pledged the following acres, and pledges are still being made: Briscoe 2,225; Swisher 12,120; Hale, 23,037; Castro, 5,210; Crosby, 3,708; Lubbock, 815; Floyd, 5,605;

Lamb, 4,525. A total of 57,245 acres has been pledged for this area.

The quota requested by the Hi-Plains group are due to be granted in 1966, when two mills will be approved. Several states are

TRY AN ITALIAN FAVORITE

By Jane Ashley

You can't miss when you serve your family or guests an Italian meal featuring Chicken Tetrazzini. This traditional Italian dish is made a modern way using a package of chunk chicken noodle soup mix as basis for the sauce, combining with it chicken, mushrooms, noodles and topped with Parmesan cheese, melted to a golden brown. A salad of crisp chilled greens tossed lightly with Onion Salad Dressing really compliments your Italian meal.

- Chicken Tetrazzini
 3 tablespoons margarine
 1/4 cup diced green pepper
 1/2 pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
 1 clove garlic, crushed
 1/2 cup sherry (optional)
 2 cups water
 1 envelope Knorr chunk chicken noodle soup mix
 1 1/2 tablespoons corn starch
 1 cup milk
 1 broiler-fryer chicken, cooked, boned and cut into chunks (3 cups)
 1 1/4 cups grated Parmesan cheese
 1/4 cup chopped parsley
 8 ounces uncooked noodles
 Melt margarine in skillet. Add green pepper; cook over low heat 4 minutes, stirring frequently. Add mushrooms and garlic; cook until tender, stirring occasionally. Add sherry. Remove from heat. Bring water to boil in saucepan. Stir in soup mix. Reduce heat; cover and simmer 5 minutes. Blend corn starch and milk. Stir into soup. Stirring constantly, bring to boil and boil 1 minute. Add chicken, 1 cup cheese, parsley and vegetable mixture. Heat. Meanwhile, cook noodles according to package directions. Arrange in bottom of greased 3-quart casserole. Cover with sauce. Stir lightly, to mix. Sprinkle with remaining 1/4 cup cheese. Broil until lightly browned about 5 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Onion Salad Dressing:
 Combine 3 tablespoons (1/4 envelope) Knorr golden onion soup mix and 3 tablespoons water in bowl or jar. Let stand 5 minutes. Add 1/2 cup corn oil and 1/4 cup cider vinegar. Stir well or shake. Makes 1 cup.

I was always under the impression that the blade of that road contraction could be "raised" when crossing drive-ways, in order NOT to block the exit; but I guess I was wrong. So, I take this means of publicly apologizing to ALL Road Commissioners, (and the men who work under them) Past, Present, and Future. Those men really have a rough time during snow-storms, working night and day, and (other than blocking my drive-way with a lot more snow than otherwise would have

Star-spangled savings plan

Most of us think about the future in terms of paying off the mortgage, educating the children, providing a retirement income.

But with the world the way it is today, it's almost impossible to make plans for your own future without considering the future of your country, too.

When you buy U. S. Savings Bonds, your money takes on both jobs. It grows to build your financial strength.

At the same time, it helps Uncle Sam watch over our peace and security.

Why not give your savings dollars this double assignment? You'll be joining millions of American families who are investing in their country's future — and you'll probably feel pretty good about it.

It's easy to buy Savings Bonds on the Payroll Plan where you work. A $50 Bond costs $37.50, a $25 Bond $18.75, and you can buy them in installments for only a few dollars a pay day. Or buy them outright at any bank. No charge for the service.

Buy Series E Bonds for growth, Series H for current income.

Some nice things about Series E Bonds

- You get 3 1/2% more money when they mature
- You can defer the tax on accumulated interest until the Bonds are cashed
- You can get your money when you need it
- Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed, or stolen

Keep freedom in your future with U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

The Helping Hand Club met in the home of Mrs. Jack Harris on Thursday, February 20, with Miss Masako Nakabe as special guest.

Before the arrival of the guests, Mrs. Harris secretly taped the visiting of the club members. Cooperation Among S.H.S. Students

by Cheryl Cowart and Janice Lewis

Did anyone happen to notice the co-operative effort put out by the high school students last week? You have probably guessed that we're talking about the work that went into the preparation of the Sweetheart Banquet. Work began, in earnest, on Thursday with the stringing of wire upon which to put the crepe paper. From that moment on there was no dividing into groups of friends. All were working together toward a common goal—to complete the decorations in time for the banquet. This is just one instance of how cooperation pays off in success. This statement was proven true again when the high school students contributed to the fund for the securing of a foreign exchange student last year. This made possible the visit of Masako Nakabe to our school. It is through this same cooperation that our school exists today. Without cooperation there would be no classes, no athletics and no clubs. It's something to think about, isn't it? Although you may sometimes

Public Schools Week Begun 14 Years Ago

Public Schools Week is March 2 through March 6 this year. This is an opportunity for all parents to visit their children in the classrooms.

Public Schools Week was born of a great need. In 1950, public spirited men and outstanding friends and supporters of the public school system were shocked to discover the apathy of the citizens, generally, concerning the needs of the public school system. Shortages of teachers had developed, bond issues for improvements, enlargement and addition to schools were losing support, and it was difficult to interest men in taking the responsibility of seeking School Board positions. Abnormal wartime crops of babies were emerging from statistics into living youngsters lining up for enrollment in already overcrowded classrooms.

The Public Education Committee started to work on the idea of a statewide event, so organized that community observance could be programmed to suit community patterns and command such interests that all parents and patrons would make an annual personal appraisal of the local schools.

The Committee received official support of the state government and educational authorities. The Governor of Texas regularly proclaims the event as do the legislative bodies, local government heads, mayors, school board members and others.

Presidents of many organizations annually issue statements emphasizing the place of the public schools in our American way of life. They urge citizens to take advantage of Public Schools Week to get better acquainted with the schools and with the work they are doing.

WHAT S.H.S. THINKS

School Improvement

Since next week is Public Schools Week, several students were asked to express their opinions as to what changes might be made to improve the local school.

DARRELL LONG: I would have more subjects to choose from, more school spirit, and a more modern school. (Also, I would have Mr. Rampley burn his board.) SHARON MARTIN: Well, to be frank, we need a 1-0-n-g-e-r lunch period. If this were so everyone would be happier because they didn't have to hurry their dinner so much. Then the happy kids would make happy teachers. Then everything would be rosy. I say the answer to our problem is a longer lunch period.

GLORIA WALLACE: I think that in the government room we should have some new seats, so that we won't tear our clothes and coats. Also, we need more locker space and better lockers—ones that don't have the bottoms out.

SHARON WEAVER: First of all I think we should have a study hall, either during class or a study period, because they give us a lot of lessons and not enough time to get them. I would put more emphasis on class participation instead of homework. I think there should be better facilities. I also think we should have an hour lunch period.

FREDDY STAFFORD: I think our student body should have better relations with all the teachers. I believe since our school has such a wide variety of rules, each student should be informed of what is permissible, the few hours he is in school each day. I believe it is very unfair to enforce a rule of an organization that each one of the members is unfamiliar with.

RILEY HARRIS: I refuse to answer on the grounds that it might tend to incriminate me.

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Coach Ben Lesley presented a Player-of-the-Week award to Sharon Weaver, for her outstanding effort in the Idalou and Ralls games, recently.

Because the February 18 game terminated the season for the boys, Coach Lesley gave Player-of-the-Week awards to Greg Towe, for the Idalou and Ralls game, and to Fred Stafford, for the Ralls and Crosbyton games.

The majority of parents in Texas have formed the good habit of visiting their school during Texas Public Schools Week. The School Board, administration and faculty would like to thank those who have visited our school in the past. We invite you to return this year, March 2-6.

Open house will be held from 6:00 until 8:00 p.m. Friday, March 6. The Future Business Leaders of America will sponsor a variety show and pie auction in the school auditorium beginning at 8:00 p.m.

We are looking forward to seeing you during Public Schools Week. We will do our best to make you feel most welcome.

Local School Plans Special Week

March 2-6 is Public Schools Week in the Silverton Schools. "Everyone is invited to visit school and see the job being done," said O. C. Ampley, principal of Silverton High School.

Student Council members will be at the door to pass out "I-Have-Visited-School" ribbons, offer information, and to conduct you on a tour of the school.

Visitors may come at any time and stay as long as they like, the school hours being from 8:40 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. All visitors are extended a cordial invitation to eat lunch in the school cafeteria.

Public Schools Week will be climaxed with an open house beginning at 6:00 p.m. Friday, March 6. Some of the classes are planning special displays, and the Future Business Leaders of America will sponsor a variety show and pie auction beginning at 8:00 p.m.

Have You The Time For School?

by Cheryl Cowart and Janice Lewis

Do you plan to visit school during Public Schools Week (March 2-6) or do you just not have the time? Maybe you ladies have other plans, such as a visit to the beauty parlor or a shopping excursion. Maybe you men think it is your wife's responsibility to visit school. The children are yours too, so it would seem that they are as much your responsibility as your wife's, wouldn't it? Part of this responsibility lies in visits to your school.

If your children aren't doing as well in school as you think they should, maybe they aren't receiving the kind of help from you they need. A visit to school might reveal to you the special area where your child needs help. After all, your children are your most treasured possessions and you want to help them as much as you can.

So when the school doors open Monday morning, March 2, make sure you are the first one in line to visit school. You will find that it will be a rewarding, as well as an enjoyable trip. And it's not as bad as you might think; in fact, it might even be a little bit fun.

Tech To Sponsor Cheerleading School

The Texas Technological College will sponsor a cheerleading school this coming summer of 1964. The date of the school is August 2—August 7, 1964.

The school is designed for teaching those working with cheerleading and the cheerleaders at all school levels to include junior high school, high school and college. Plan now to enroll for this unique school. Sponsors, cheerleaders and parents are encouraged to avail themselves of this opportunity to spend five days on the campus of Texas Tech. This school is not only patterned for those who are cheerleaders but also for those who want to try out next year.

If you would like to receive advanced information regarding the Texas Tech Summer Cheerleading School, address your inquiries to: Edsel Buchanan, Intramural Gym, Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas 79409.

STRAIGHT FROM THE SHOULDER

by Lester L. Grabbe

Now is the time to start working on Interscholastic League events. This may sound early, but it's not. In fact, the time to start was April 5, 1963, the day after last year's district meet. However, there is still time.

Do you realize that there is very little participation in UIL in this district? Do you realize that in some events there are only one, two or three entered, or sometimes no one? Actually, Silverton and Ralls are about the only schools from this district that take active part.

For example last year there was one entry in Boys' Extemporaneous Speaking; there was only one in Girls' Extemporaneous Speaking. There was no entry in either Boys' or Girls' Persuasive Speaking. And these were not exceptions.

Why is it that the same few enter each year? More than half a dozen S.H.S. students have talents and ability. Why do not more than about half a dozen enter the district meet?

Of course, there can be only one winner in each contest. But there are no losers. Each contestant gains experience; each student learns, both by study before the contest and by taking part in the contest. Everyone profits by entering.

How about it? How many are going to enter the district meet this year?

Miss Zobie Self has been invited to sponsor the F.T.A. chapter, and has accepted. Miss Self and

Rev. Carl Nunn Speaks In Assembly

Rev. Carl Nunn, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Silverton, spoke to the assembled student body on February 19 on the topic of young citizens having the courage to be rather than to have.

Rev. Nunn said there was a certain man in a mental institution who looks under all the furniture every morning "trying to find himself." Everyone, even though he may not look under the furniture, is trying to find himself, he said.

The young rich man who came to Christ (trying to find himself) was too concerned with the have. So was the prodigal son. Each wanted to get, rather than to be, he said.

What are your ideals? what are your thoughts? questioned Rev. Nunn. Are they concerned with the have or with the be?

Rev. Nunn gave an allegory of four boys who were discussing what they planned to be. It turned out that each became what he had expressed a desire to be: the one wanting to be a doctor became a doctor; the one wanting to be a minister became a minister; and the one wanting to take life as it came became a bum.

He closed with this thought: "Do your best."

No Time For Work

A year has	365 days
If you sleep 8 hours a day	122 days
If you rest and play 8 hours a day	122 days
There are 52 Sundays	52 days
You have half a day off Saturdays	26 days
You have 1 1/2 hours a day for meals	23 days
You take two weeks vacation	14 days
There are six legal holidays	6 days
YOU HAVE USED	365 days
This leaves NO Days for Working!

Superintendent J. S. Hinds will accompany the group to the F.T.A. Convention.

On Responsibility

Think a minute — about responsibility. You might define responsibility as "doing your duty whether the duty is imposed on an outside source or whether it is self-imposed."

When we were children we were irresponsible. We played with anything handy and at anything in sight, whether it was dangerous or not. Our parents were responsible for us.

When we started to school we were given more responsibility. Each new grade demanded more responsibility. College and a profession will add even more responsibility.

Whether we like it or not, we have many responsibilities. How well do we accept these responsibilities?

You respect and admire people who are responsible—whom you can depend on. Teachers are partial to students who do their homework well and who are prompt in all assignments. Businessmen like workers who take the responsibility for doing their jobs well.

Remember this: responsibility pays off in big dividends.

FINDING COMMON GROUND

by Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall

We must find in the world all those institutions, areas of common interest, and ways of thinking in which men of different beliefs and diverse purposes can work together with a minimum of conflict. An idea which enfold these basic virtues and benefits of common interests is mutual cooperation and exchange of information and personnel concerned with national parks, wildlife refuges and other equivalent nature reserves. There are no "political" implications in the establishment, development and conservation of national parks. They are of common interest throughout the world in that approximately 400 such parks have been established in 50 countries and more than 3,000 scenic, scientific or nature reserves in 80 countries have been set aside. On the other hand, there are no national parks or similar areas in many other countries—due primarily to a lack of awareness of the significance and benefits of these reserves.

A wonderful opportunity is afforded in this field for international exchange. The United States is offering other countries technical and other assistance in the management and development of parks—and has expressed a desire to benefit from the experience of other countries in this area. No military significance of any kind can be implied and there can be no ulterior motive. The mutual aid program in this field of conservation contributes to world peace and understanding. International travel is encouraged by an increased desire to visit parks and nature reserves of recognized fame and beauty. Magazines and newspapers of varied editorial "hue" give space to these regions of interest, and readers who are presently "immunized" to any good feeling about some countries will be led to soften their attitudes as a result of reading about this noncontroversial subject. These same benefits would result from increased coverage on areas of interest—such as parks—in other countries. The exchange cuts across political and ideological boundaries as no other form of international cooperation can do.

 Mrs. C. R. Badgett and family

To all of my many friends and neighbors who sent cards, flowers, gifts, messages and visited me while I was in the hospital and at home during my illness, I want to thank each and every one of you. May God's richest blessings be with all of you.
 Agnes Bingham

I take this means of expressing my thanks to all those who have done so many nice things for me while I was in the hospital and since I have been at home. The cards, visits, gifts and every act of kindness was greatly appreciated.
