All Around the Town

by Mary Ann Sarchet

Where have the little owls gone?
This is a question that Lallie Patton has been asking since the two owls disappeared from her wall hanging last week. Lallie knows who took the little ornaments, but she hates to ask them to bring them home.
Won't the two couples who took Lallie's owls take them back to their proper roosting place?
If the owls don't fly back home, we may find a Panther or a Turk or a Mustang in their place.

Briscoe Spelling Bee Director Named Here

Bill Verden, Principal of the Silvertown Elementary School, is the 1969 Spelling Bee Director for Briscoe County. Sometime before April 1, the Briscoe County Bee will be held and the champion will go to Amarillo April 19, 1969, for the annual regional elimination for the National Spelling Bee.

Last year, Joan Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lee, was the Briscoe County Champion and placed tenth in the Regional Bee. The champion was a seventh grade student in Silvertown Junior High.

The 1969 Golden Spread Bee will be co-sponsored by West Texas State University and the Amarillo Globe-News. L. J. (Jack) Edmondson, West Texas State University Director of Public Services, will be Bee Director for the Golden Spread. Again there will be a unique secondary contest—the Junior Spelling Bee, open to contestants from the sixth and lower grades.

Jana Cross, also the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lee, was the County Junior Champion for 1968. She was a sixth grade student in the Silvertown Schools.

First place winner in the Golden Spread Bee will go to Washington to participate in the National Spelling Bee, scheduled for June 2 through June 7, 1969. The Washington trip includes several sight-seeing trips and entertainment, the annual Bee banquet and presentation of awards. The Golden Spread winner will also receive a traveling plaque, carrying the names of all Regional winners since 1949, to be placed in his or her school.

Other outstanding prizes for top contestants include a Zenith portable television, a 24-volume set of Encyclopaedia Britannica, several copies of the Lincoln Library a Britannica World Atlas and cash prizes.

Each County Champion receives an engraved plaque and gold pin. Each County Junior Champion is given a trophy and a silver pin during the intermission at the Regional Bee (but there is no regional contest among the juniors; they are merely guests of the Globe-News for the annual Spelling Bee luncheon to be held at the Amarillo Country Club.)

In the school contests each winner receives a Paper-Mate pen, inscribed "School Champion."

This will be the 42nd year for the National Spelling Bee, sponsored by newspapers throughout the 50 states, and the 21st bee sponsored by the Amarillo Globe-News.

"Words of the Champions" may be ordered from Mr. Edmondson, P. O. Box 728, W. T. Station, Canyon, Texas 79015. Price 20-cents each.)

Fire Department Receives Check

The Silvertown Volunteer Fire Department received a check for $75.00 recently from Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies as an expression of thanks for the department's work on the property of Silvertown Gin, Inc.

The money will be used for purchase of equipment.

The Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies pay volunteer fire departments this amount when the department works at a fire in rural areas, involving property insured by them.

The Insurance Companies believe volunteer fire departments have contributed to reduce the amount of loss involved by fire and, more important, to prevent fires. It is their hope this money will help the Silvertown Volunteer Fire Department in their program.

Gamma Iota Chapter Meets In Floydada

"The Woman Educator Shaping Moral Values" was the theme of the program on Saturday when the Gamma Iota Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, international honorary society for women educators, met at Arthur Duncan Elementary School in Floydada for a luncheon meeting. A panel led the discussion, and it was pointed out how a counselor can help students realize that they are unique among God's creatures, since they have the capacity to distinguish between good and evil and can use their powers for good or evil purposes. Quotations from well-known writers included a Bible passage that reinforced this idea—"As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

It was also pointed out that man's chief purpose is the creation and preservation of values, and if our civilization is to survive, the home, church and school must exert a positive influence on youngsters of today. The teachers' relationships with the community was emphasized, showing the contrasts between the values professed and those practiced.

An impressive initiation ceremony for four new members was held preceding the program and luncheon.
Chapter members attended from Hale Center, Petersburg,

These crashes resulted in an estimated property damage of $2,290.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the calendar year of 1968 shows a total of 35 crashes resulting in no deaths, 23 persons injured and an estimated property damage of $34,405.00.

The Sergeant stated, "Since the beginning of the inspection period, September 1, 1968, only about one and one-half million vehicles have been inspected and approximately five million more remain to be inspected."

Texas law requires inspection of brakes, lighting equipment, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, steering wheels and rims, and front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment.

The Man Who Couldn't Sit Down

(From the "Tolbert's Texas" column written by Frank X. Tolbert for the January 8, 1969 Dallas Morning News.)

It was open season on aoudads early this week in Briscoe County and other counties in the Texas Panhandle canyon country. And in the midst of all this excitement I was estering Briscoe County inhabitants, in Silvertown and Quitaque and even in the ghost village of Gray Mule, for information about William Kelly, The Man Who Couldn't Sit Down, a character who died 69 years ago.

Rocky got them from old time ranchers, such as Roy Allard. In Silvertown and Quitaque, not to mention Gray Mule, I had trouble finding 1969 citizens who knew anything about William Kelly, much less the location of his grave.

It seems when he was a young surveyor, around 1874, Mr. Kelly was riding a scrub horse in the Panhandle. And he was captured by Comanches under the mystic and self-styled warlock, Ish-it-i.

Old Man Kelly's grave is in the original Silvertown cemetery. The marker says he was born in 1847. And, after lots of hard luck, he died in 1900. The unique thing is that on the gravestone, there is a boldly engraved likeness of a man leading a horse.

William Kelly was a frontier surveyor and gunsmith who, in the last half of his life, was also known in the Panhandle as The Man Leading a Horse.

He went around leading a saddled thoroughbred. But he was never seen to mount the horse, mainly because it was very painful for him to sit in the saddle.

My facts on Old Man Kelly are second and third hand. I got most of them from my friend, Rocky Stallings, the Indian artist and curandero for the Institute of Texas Cultures, who was once a cowboy and horse-breaker in the Silvertown and Quitaque country. And that in an emergency he could sit the swift horse long enough to get away.

Some say that Kelly drowned in 1900. ("The way his luck always ran backwards he probably was drowned, maybe even during a sandstorm, in Tule Creek or the Prairie Dog Fork of Red," said Rocky Stallings.) Anyway, some unknown artist carved the likeness of a man leading a horse on the stone marker of what has now become an almost forgotten grave in the old Silvertown cemetery.

Some time ago I wrote a short story for a national magazine about a fellow who was in about the same shape as Old Man Kelly after the Comanches ran him through the gantlet. The short story was called "The Marine Who Couldn't Sit Down."

The last time I checked, a painting which was the illustration for "The Marine Who Couldn't Sit Down" was hanging in the 21 Club in New York City. This illustration showed a good-looking girl inviting the Marine to sit down at her table in 21. Only the Marine had recently been wounded in the hip pocket and he couldn't sit down.

AUDADS APLENTY

Getting back to the aoudads or Barbary sheep in the North Texas canyons, according to Wes Lizardo of the Amarillo paper, the Panhandle is the only place in the world, other than the Atlas Mountains of Africa, where they have such a surplus of these sheep that they can afford a hunting season on them.

The 5-day aoudad season closes at sundown Wednesday (today). And, personally, I'd hate to shoot an aoudad (pronounced like the sound a Model T Ford horn makes). Last summer I got acquainted with some aoudads, especially a real pet named Pancho, at the Mecom Ranch, a game preserve south of Laredo. And I became quite taken with these magnificent creatures which sometimes weigh as much as 300 pounds and have 2-foot-long, curling horns.

Johnny Plunkett of Barrel Creek Ranch, one of the best cowboys in the Silvertown country, roped an aoudad. This is quite a feat since these athletic beasts usually stay in a rugged terrain where a horse has difficulty following.

When I told Rocky Stallings about this, the Tonkawa curandero commented: "I bet old Johnny Plunkett found he really had something on the end of his rope. I was working on a ranch in the Palo Duro back around 1939 when they turned loose the first aoudads. I helped unload some of those big rams and almost got my pockets kicked out. Like handling a 500-pound wild boar hog."

Former 4-H'ers Receive Recognition Plaques

Four former 4-H members who exemplify effective community leadership and provide examples of purposeful citizenship, have been named state winners in the 4-H Alumni Recognition program.

The Hon. and Mrs. Jonathan Thornberry of Conroe, Charles Sheldon Jr. of Dumas, and Mrs. Avis Krause of Port Lavaca, have been presented handsome plaques by the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation.

The Thornberrys were both Gold Star award winners during their years in the Conroe 4-H Club—the judge in 1958, and Mrs. Thornberry in 1960. They have continued to hold a special place in their hearts for the 4-H program and attend many county activities and social functions.

Since his election to the Montgomery County Court bench, Judge Thornberry has supported all county youth programs. He was instrumental in securing land and aided in the development of a park for the youth in Montgomery County.

Mrs. Thornberry is a homemaker who continued to encourage youth and to provide a living example of public service.

Charles Sheldon Jr. operates a 604-acre farm and assists his dad and brother in the management and operation of an additional 1,760 acres—all irrigated farmland. The main crops are grain, sorghum, corn and wheat.

A few years ago, he was selected as one of the Outstanding Young Men of America by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce. He is past president of the Stock Show Association and a member of the Board of Directors of the Moore County Fair Association.

Sheldon is chairman of the Moore County 4-H Adult Leaders Association and has been a livestock leader for 12 years.

Although he has always lived on a farm, he says it was the skills and practices learned in 4-H which influenced him to select farming as his future occupation. During the nine years he was a 4-H member, he fed approximately 20 calves and 25 swine for stock shows. He took commercial calves to Kansas City and participated in tractor maintenance projects.

Cooking, sewing, raising garden vegetables and food preservation are only a few of the skills Mrs. Krause claims she learned during her seven 4-H years. She was named Gold Star Girl of Calhoun County in 1953 and held numerous offices in her club.

Following graduation from 4-H, she continued in the adult program. Mrs. Krause is a 4-H leader who teaches food and clothing programs, and was chairman of a youth division food booth at the county fair. She has been a willing volunteer in county camp activities, the Favorite Food Show and dress revues and is a member of the Calhoun County record book committee.

More than 26 million former 4-H members from the 50 states and Puerto Rico are eligible for honors and awards in the 4-H Alumni program. All 4-H programs are planned and directed through the cooperation of the Cooperative Extension Service, the National 4-H Service Committee and successful business firms across the nation.

"SOUPER" HAUTE CUISINE FOR FAMILY AND GUESTS

For party season year round feature "souper" haute cuisine... adaptations of elegant recipes made easier with the help of expertly seasoned canned condensed soups.

Shown here is an adaptation of Danish morbrad med vesker or Fruited Pork Platter. Danish housewives use pork loin plus lots of time to prepare the original recipe. But by exchanging pork chops for the loin and using canned condensed beef broth, you can serve the essence of the dish conveniently. The chops, prunes, ginger, celery seed and apple simmer to flavor personally in the deep-flavored broth.

If you like, fill in the rest of the menu with other Danish foods... oatmeal bread and rice pudding (the canned ready-to-serve kind keeps the meal simple)... plus American favorite relishes.

Incidentally, better check your supply of all "cooking" soups... the cream soups, Cheddar cheese, tomato, and golden mushroom. You'll find them real helpmates for both family and party meals.

FRUITED PORK PLATTER

- 6 pork chops (about 1 1/2 pounds)
1/4 teaspoon celery seed
1 medium apple, cut in 6 rings
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed beef broth
1/4 cup water
8 pitted prunes
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon ginger

In skillet, brown chops; pour off fat. Add broth, prunes, ginger, and celery seed. Cover; cook over low heat 35 minutes. Add apple; cook 10 minutes more or until tender. Remove meat and fruit to heated serving dish. Gradually blend water into flour; slowly stir into sauce. Cook; stir until thickened. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Then, there's that once a month when a girl could use a good old-fashioned medicine.

Maybe you feel just plain bad then. Or maybe a little lonely and sad, like you could use a pair of arms around you.

Well, we have just the thing for this once a month time. Lydia E. Pinkham Tablets. They're made with gentle, natural ingredients, including one that works to help relax tightened muscles that give you cramps. Plus a little iron that a girl could use at a time like this. And, you don't run any chance of the kind of unpleasant side effects you could get from some of the newer drugs.

With an old-fashioned problem like this, couldn't you take an old-fashioned medicine.

Corn Research Program Reinstated At Foundation

Reinstatement in 1968 of corn research program at High Plains Research Foundation points to increasing interest in corn production in the area.

Corn research undertaken by the Foundation in 1968 was the first since 1963 and was reinstated due to expressed interest of area farmers. Dr. Tom Longnecker, Research Director, cites several reasons for the increased corn interest.

"The interest has been growing gradually," Dr. Longnecker stated, "especially in Bailey and Lamb counties and on the North Plains. The corn processing plant in Dimmitt should be credited for some of the interest in corn production. And farmers on the North Plains have looked to corn for possible use in a grain sorghum rotation program," Dr. Longnecker said.

Twenty-three corn hybrid varieties were used in research plots at the Foundation in grain yield tests and 18 varieties were used in ensilage production tests.

According to Loyd Langford, Research Agronomist, the growing season was more favorable for corn than sorghum due to greenbug infestations in grain. Corn in the research station suffered only minimum Southwestern Corn Bore insect damage due to early plantings.

Varieties in the corn tests were planted April 16 and harvested September 20 and 27th. Each hybrid was hand thinned to approximate populations recommended are dormant. Before pruning any tree, make sure that you have a justifiable reason for performing the operation. Think through what you are trying to accomplish by pruning and take the necessary steps to carry out your objectives.

What are the purposes of pruning? First and foremost is to maintain a strong framework for the future development of the tree. Other reasons are to reduce the size or to keep them within specific bounds. To remove dead, diseased or weak growth as well as broken limbs and rubbing branches. Another reason is to improve the size and quality of flowers and fruit. The final reason is to balance the top growth with the root system at transplanting time.

Unless pruning can be justified for one of these reasons it is better to place the shears and saw in the shed and obtain the desired exercise by spading a flower-bed.

Some of the general principles that will apply when pruning shade trees include the removal of all dead or diseased wood, broken limbs, and weak growth. Shorten or remove entirely long unsightly branches as they offer too much resistance to the wind and are frequently subject to storm damage.

Never stub back limbs or branches. Rather, cut back to a main branch or trunk so that there will be no stubs remaining. The so-called "stubbing back" or topping large branches will result in a proliferation of sucker growth and leave a wound that is impossible to heal.

To protect pruning cuts and prevent the entry of disease and insect organisms, all cuts over one inch in diameter should be painted with a special tree paint obtainable at all garden stores or nursery sales yards. For temporary treatment of a wound, a coat of shellac will give four to six weeks of protection.

The homeowner can frequently handle the pruning operation himself if the work can be reached from a ladder. If your trees are quite large or need extensive work, it is best to hire a professional arborist or tree surgeon. He will have the necessary tools and training to do the job correctly and safely.

If there is evidence of disease in the tree or shrub being pruned, it is important that after each cut the pruning equipment is dipped in a disinfectant to kill the disease organisms to prevent their spread to other portions of the tree or even to other trees. A 10 percent household bleach solution makes a very satisfactory disinfectant. This can be prepared by mixing one part bleach to nine parts of water. Dip the pruning equipment after each cut is made.

Homemaking Girls Give Program On Yeast Breads

Mrs. Rubie Williams and her senior homemaking class presented a program on yeast breads for the Silverton chapter of Young Homemakers at their January meeting. The class made several types of breads, including sweet rolls, coffee cake, plain rolls and onion rolls. Juannah Nance, Barbara Davis, Lexie Younger, Lenda Crabb, Carron Montague and Carol Ann Montague gave reports on how they made their particular bread. Mrs. Williams gave a history of yeast breads and distributed recipes for yeast breads. The girls served breads from their display and Cokes.

Carron Montague also gave the devotional for the meeting. The chapter heard reports from Mrs. Williams on the YH Area I Executive Meeting and from Carolyn Lowrey on the YH State Convention.

Brenda Patton was appointed to check on projects for the High Plains Training Center. The chapter voted to conduct a clothing drive for Girlstown. They are asking that these clothes be clean and in good repair, and be placed in boxes which will be located at Salem's, Bud's Grocery and Nance's Food. The drive will end January 31.

The next meeting will be February 13 with YH husbands and the Young Farmers invited to hear the program on Insurance.

Mrs. Mallow Presents W. S. C. S. Program

Mrs. Larry Jarrett had the devotional and also served refreshments to Mrs. Hinds, Mrs. Jennie Fisher, Mrs. George Seaney, Mrs. Gordon Alexander, Mrs. Mallow and Mrs. Bob Hill. The study will be continued on Tuesday, January 21.

Johnny Jowell recently spent the holidays with his mother, Mrs. J. E. Jowell. He reported to Fort Benning, Georgia, January 10, to begin N.C.O. training. While at Fort Ord, California, Jowell received an award for being the Top Trainee of his cycle of 150 recruits.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY AGENT'S DESK PRUNE SHADE TREES WHILE DORMANT

The major pruning on shade trees should be done during the winter months, while the trees by seed companies. Atrazine was banded at two pounds per sprayed acre for weed control.

"Test data was gathered from four replications of each variety. Yields in the seed corn tests ranged from 158.2 bushels per acre to 95.3 bushels per acre. Later maturing corn hybrids produced highest yields in the test and taller stalks," Langford said.

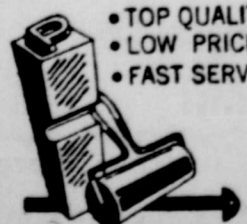

Plant populations ranged from 28,000 plants per acre to 18,000 plants.

In the ensilage study, high yield was 30.05 tons per acre contracting with low yield of 20.51 tons per acre. Plant populations ranged from 28,000 to 20,000 per acre.

"Total ear corn production per yield ranged from 36 per cent to 15.85 per cent," Langford said. Research data on the tests will be included in the 1969 High Plains Research Foundation Annual Research Report to be distributed to Foundation members in February.

"An expanded corn research program is being planned at the Foundation this year," Dr. Longnecker said.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford

AMSTIN, Tex.—Now that the Legislature is back in session, things are back to normal. At least it seems normal for Austinites and other lawmakers. But 30 of the 44 new members of the 181-member Legislature still are about as surprised as a lost child at the State Fair.

Two "new" House members know their way around very well indeed—Doyle Willis of Fort Worth formerly served in both House and Senate, and Glenn Cochran of San Antonio also is making a comeback.

Sen. W. E. (Pete) Snelson of Midland served in the Senate in 1965-66, then was restricted out of business and defeated by former Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo. Last year, however, Snelson turned the table for a return match in the upper house.

Sen. Ronald Bridges of Corpus Christi was a long-time House member before he defeated the late Sen. Bruce Reagan.

For the other 30 newly-elected legislators it's a brand new ball game. They began work in the usual maelstrom of activity, trying to learn the names and faces of all of the 151 other lawmakers.

Also, about the same number of lobbyists, some 300 attorneys and committee clerks, and more than 100 state officials who work with the Legislature.

Texas' stately old Capitol finally has been renovated to provide offices for all members. But finding these offices and committee rooms, scattered all over four domes and basement of a block-long building, is not easy on any winter day.

For the first couple of weeks, most new members walk everywhere with a diagram of the Capitol in one hand and a list of members' desk numbers in the other.

Activity at the session won't be heavy until Speaker Gus Mutschler and Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes appoint their committees. And Mutschler has said he won't get to that until about the last week in January. So this first week the big excitement is the upcoming inauguration of Gov. Preston Smith and Barnes.

INAUGURATION

Governor Smith expects more than 4,200 persons in about 100 marching and performing groups to participate in the Inauguration Parade down Congress Avenue at 3:00 p.m. Tuesday, January 21.

At least three times that many will be dancing at six inauguration balls for Smith and Barnes that night. But the Inauguration won't be all frolic. At 7:30 a.m. prayer breakfast at the Terrace Motor Hotel starts the big day. Inaugural ceremonies then take place at noon.

GAS STORAGE SAFETY

Rep. Charles Jungmichel of La-Grange says his House State Affairs subcommittee will ask the Legislature to pass a bill requiring that all service station gasoline storage tanks be located underground.

Recommendation resulted from several subcommittee hearings around the state on recent explosions and fires caused by storage tanks. As the proposal now stands, service stations with above-ground tanks would be given six months to comply with new safety regulations.

MIGRANT SCHOOL PROGRAMS
Eight summer weeks of all-day school would be offered the children of migrant workers under a federally-funded migrant school program approved by the State Board of Education.

High school-age students would attend regular summer schools, with the federal government paying tuition fees for families who cannot afford them.

An estimated 11,500 children of migrants would participate in the $1.6-million summer school program.

BOYS SCHOOL PROBED

A House investigating committee marched up the hill and back down again in exploring charges of brutality by guards at Gatesville-Mountain View School for Boys.

Juvenile Delinquency panel headed by Rep. Vernon Stewart of Wichita Falls aired allegations in a public hearing. After House Speaker Ben Barnes ordered an on-the-spot midnight check, lie detector tests were ordered for complaining inmates.

Stewart acknowledged two days later that polygraph tests showed the boys were not telling the truth. Guards said they used only what force was necessary to disarm youths of homemade knives after they tried to escape.

Texas Youth Council said the ill-timed probe was damaging to its efforts. Barnes agreed TYC had been unfairly tried in the press. He recommended better pay for school guards, more counseling services for inmates.

COURTS SPEAK

State Supreme Court refused to alter an intermediate court order directing re-trial of a suit brought by the widow of a Pasadena doctor against his one-time hospital partners alleging malicious prosecution.

High court upheld Henderson County real estate man's claim to a $6,574 commission on the sale of property on which he had exclusive listing. Decision concluded unenforceability of contract is no defense to action for tortious interference with its performance.

Court of Criminal Appeals reversed four-year sentence given a Beaumont woman for assault to murder because the jury doubled punishment under state law authorizing extra sentence where a knife is used in attack.

Gulf and Western Industries, Inc. lost its bid to buy controlling interest in Sinclair Oil Corporation when stockholders of Atlantic Richfield and Sinclair agreed to a merger, says the U. S. District Court here.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

Texas laws which permit officials other than the governor to call out state military forces, including the National Guard, without the chief executive's prior approval are unconstitutional, says Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that: *Independent school district may borrow money from its school depository if a member of the school board is an officer in the bank, providing the board adopts appropriate statute and the officer-member does not vote on the contract.

*Houston has fire, safety and police power over the Harris County-Houston Ship Channel Navigation District within corporate limits. Harris County may enforce all state laws in the district, and either the city or the county may bring suit under Texas' clean air or water quality (anti-pollution) acts. District can also sue under the water quality act and has jurisdiction over fire, safety and police powers to the extent that it owns or operates terminal facilities outside city limits.

COLLEGE GROWTH TOLD

Top officials and legislators were told by the Coordinating Board of the Texas College and University System that higher education will double in size and cost by 1980.

Board laid its "blueprint for progress in higher education" before executives and lawmakers. Details include proposals for six new state colleges, 53 community junior college districts and additional medical-dental education facilities.

It is predicted by the Board that enrollments will grow from 375,000 in 1969 to 707,800 in 1980. Additional facilities will require $401.4 million in expenditures by 1980. Annual spending on educational programs will rise from $203.5 million to $404.2 million by 1975, study indicated.

As a means of financing part of the $132 million cost of new senior colleges, the Board apparently will suggest an $80 million bond issue secured by the $18 a month student activity charge.

GUARD UNITS PRAISED

Texas' Army National Guard is at the "highest state of efficiency and readiness ever achieved," a Fourth Army spokesman commented.

Annual general inspections of 121 units reflected that more guard units were rated "superior" than last year, despite massive reorganization. Twenty-one units received distinction in Fourth Army judging.

SHORT SNORTS

All statewide elective officials (except the governor and lieutenant governor) who serve two-year terms began new terms on January 1.

More got out than in state prisons last year. A total of 5,485 inmates were released (1,921 through parole) while 4,736 were admitted.

Forty-one applications for permits to sell $29 million in securities in Texas were filed during the last two weeks with the State Securities Board.

Application has been filed for West End State Bank, Westgate City, Beaumont, with the State Banking Board. Board also heard bitter political charges in hearing on application for a new state bank at Hurst.

FINANCIAL JOLT RESULT OF FAILURE TO FILE ANNUAL INCOME QUESTIONNAIRE

The new year could begin with a financial jolt for thousands of veterans and widows on the Veterans Administration's pension rolls who thus far have failed to return their annual income questionnaires to VA.

Totally and permanently non-service-connected disabled veterans and wartime veterans' widows who meet income limitations are eligible for pensions, according to Jack Coker, manager of the VA Regional Office in Waco.

The law requires these beneficiaries to report their income each year in order that the VA can determine the amount of pension, which is related directly to income, to which they are entitled. The questionnaire requesting data on 1968 income received and 1969 income estimated was sent to 2,033,000 pension recipients about the first of November. Deadline for returning the questionnaire to VA was set at January 15.

As this deadline passed, approximately 645,000 pensioners had not returned the questionnaire.

Until the VA receives 1969 income estimates from these beneficiaries, it can not determine or pay any pension benefits in 1969.

And in 1969, discontinuance of pension payments could be more costly for many of these beneficiaries than in the past, Coker said.

Starting January 1, VA pensions will be completely restructured. Income limits will be raised $200 for all pensioners. Further, the present three income levels used in determining the amount of benefits a recipient may be paid will be increased to between 13 and 28 income levels in $100 increments.

For approximately 1.2 million beneficiaries on the VA pension rolls, this restructuring will mean higher monthly payments in 1969.

Thus, failure to return the income questionnaire could mean the loss of $110 a month in pension payments in 1969, compared with the present rate of $104 for the veteran with no dependents and little or no income. The loss could be $130 a month instead of the present $119 for the veterans with three dependents and little.

He urged those who have not or no income, Coker said.

returned the questionnaire to complete it and mail in the self-addressed envelope without delay. Any information and assistance they may need in completing the questionnaire may be obtained from the Veterans Service Office in the Swisher County Courthouse which is ready to assist Swisher and Briscoe County veterans in filling out your income questionnaire if you have not already done so.

Texas Teens Shine in 4-H

Flocke Miss Murphy Miss Jones Miss Haby

Touring Chicago's famed museums, Adler Planetarium and Art Institute... hearing the exciting entertainers, The Cowbells, at beautifully renovated Auditorium Theater... listening to inspiring talks on "Commitment to Responsibility," theme of the recent National 4-H Congress. Those are a few of the memories of four Texas delegates.

They are John Flocke of Beaumont; Patricia Murphy of Elgin; Mary Jones of Buda, and Dianne Haby of Rio Medina, all 18 years of age. The Santa Fe Railway System provided their educational awards for showing leadership, citizenship and exceptional project work.

Standout as Leader
Flocke, a freshman at Texas A&M University, served as president and treasurer of the district 4-H Council, chairman of the Jefferson County 4-H Council and president of his local club. In addition, he was Gold Star boy and winner of the Danforth "I Dare You" award.

His 4-H programs include poultry, beef, public speaking and junior leadership. He showed the grand champion steer at the South Texas State Fair last year. He won first place in district and county contests for his beef record and demonstration.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Flocke and is an eight-year 4-H Club member.

Miss Murphy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barton, has carried 4-H Food-Nutrition projects for nine years. Other projects include leadership, recreation, clothing and dress revue, in which she has participated eight years.

She served her club as junior leader for its food program, and was a delegate to the Texas Youth Conference.

She also received a $500 Santa Fe scholarship. Her future plans are to teach in high school when she finishes college.

Coed Likes Animals
Miss Jones, a University of Texas freshman, plans to make good use of her 4-H experiences in her future career. She is studying animal science. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jones.

Her 4-H projects included dairy, beef, horse, rabbits, sheep, gardening, home improvement, dress revue and food. She served as junior leader for her club's food program.

She raised nine animals through her beef projects, 18 through her dairy projects and participated in livestock judging contests. She has sewn 17 garments and participated in state dress revues the past two years.

Miss Haby, a junior leader of her own 4-H Club for six years, helped to organize and lead two new clubs. Through her five-year leadership project, she has learned new leadership techniques and taught them to others.

Prolific Seamstress
For eight years she has carried food-nutrition and clothing projects. She has sewn 80 garments, received top awards in dress revue and has competed in the state electric project at Round-Up.

Miss Haby plans to be a home economics or English teacher in secondary school. She received a $500 Santa Fe scholarship.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Haby.

The Texas 4-H'ers were selected for their awards by the Cooperative Extension Service which directs 4-H work.

Do you have certain goals in life that you want to attain? We all have different goals we want to reach, but they are very important to each person.

A person's goals should be a principle object in his life. They are something to look forward to and work for.

A person should not set his goals so low that they are easily reached or so high they are impossible to obtain. We all should have objects in our lives to work for. If we have none of this, we are a mere existence. There is nothing in our life to give it spice without it. We all must have a special something that makes us want to live.

If you have a certain goal you want to achieve, by all means go after it and work as hard as you can to reach it. Don't give up on anything you wish to do. If you are really determined to make it, you can. But you will have to work for it. Nothing really worthwhile comes to us free.

SALLY'S GROOVY PARTY

Look Through Any Window of the House of the Rising Sun and it's plain to see Sally Has a Party Eight Days a Week! Sally's Johnny Angel didn't show Tonight and Gayla said, "Don't Let the Sun Catch You Crying." Sally replied, "It's My Party and I'll Cry If I Want To!" In the Misty Moonlight, Thurman says to Cynthia, "I Want To Hold Your Hand," and she says "Let Me Tell You About the Birds and the Bees," but he replied, "It's Too Late."

As The Beat Goes On, Quinn walks in with his Bottle of Wine and says, "I Ain't Gonna Tell Ya What I Been Drinking," but everybody knows it's Red, Red Wine. Bill and Cathy are Feeling Groovy as they dance to Bubblegum Music. Jerry and Lanis are sitting in the kitchen Sippin' Cider. Jerry said, "I Think We're Alone Now," but that doesn't last long because in burst Norman and says "Shame, Shame."

Johnny, The Leader of the Pack, finally makes his entrance and Sally says, "Now It's Judy's Turn to Cry 96 Tears."

Meanwhile, the Hutsell girls are showing us how England Swings, but not to be out done by LaQuita, Wild Thing, who's doing the Shake to Dance to the Music. Gary and Sue leave the party to Bugaloos Down Broadway, but they'll probably end up in Itchagoo Park doing some Hanky Panky. Well, What Do You Know? fun, games and knowledge

by MARTHA GLAUBER SHAPP, Editor, The New Book of Knowledge

What president of the United States was also an inventor?

Thomas Jefferson, third president of the United States, invented a number of ingenious devices. He invented a clock that told the day of the week as well as the time of day, a dumbwaiter to bring food from the basement kitchen to the first-floor dining room of his home at Monticello; a four-sided music stand that held the sheet music for four players at once; an odometer (a device for measuring the distance traveled by a wheeled vehicle); a swivel chair; a device that he called the polygraph, which made exact duplicates of letters as they were being written; and an improved plow.

Do fish sleep?

Most fishes do not sleep as we do. They do not have eyelids that close. But they do rest when the light dims. Triggerfish lie down on their sides to rest. It is startling to see them lying on the bottom of the sea, looking up at the observer.

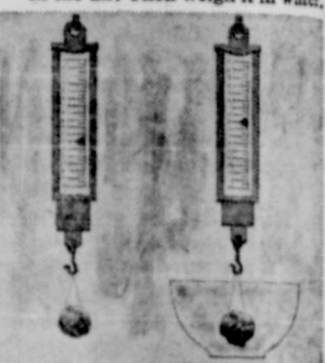

Are there fires that cannot be put out with water?

Some fires cannot be put out with water. In fact, with some kinds of fires, water will do more harm than good. For example, a pan of cooking oil may catch fire on a stove, or some fat in a broiler may flare up. Oil and grease float on water. If you try to put out an oil fire with water, the flaming oil will come to the top of the water and continue to burn. Such a fire can be put out quickly with a carbon dioxide fire extinguisher. If no fire extinguisher is available, salt can be used to smother the flame. It is very dangerous to put water on a fire that starts in electrical wiring. The reason is that water conducts electricity. The current can travel up the stream of water to the hand and give a bad or even fatal shock. The best way to pull out an electrical fire is with a carbon dioxide fire extinguisher.

Does a stone weigh the same in water as in air?

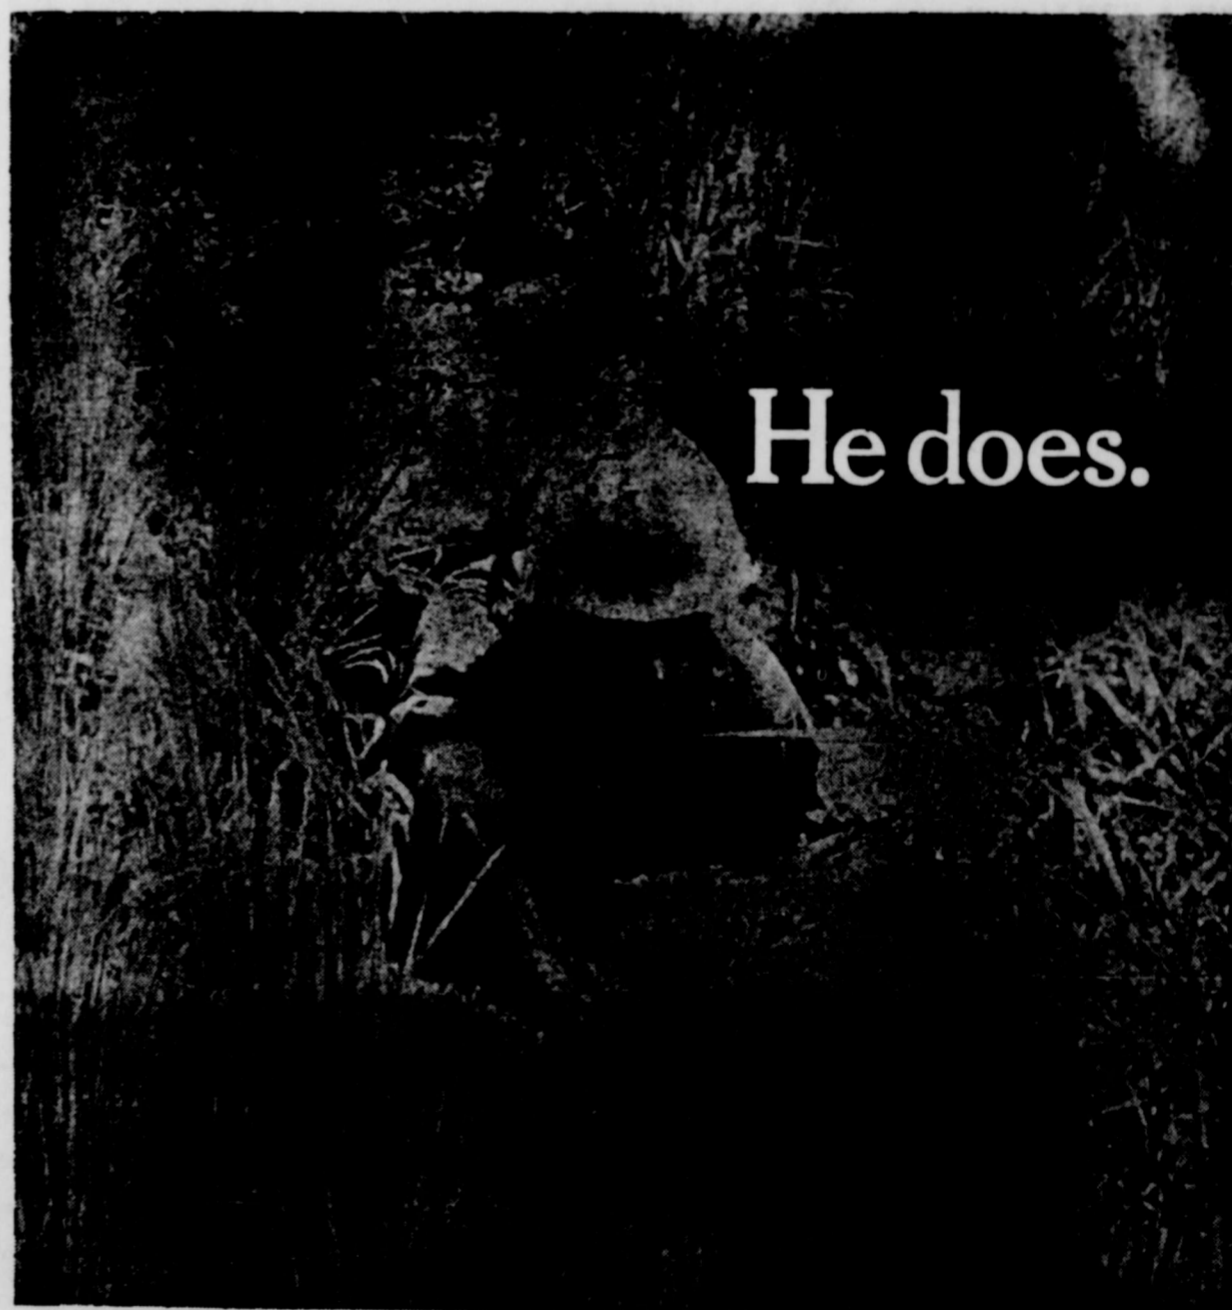

A stone weighs less in water than it does in air because of the buoyant force of the water. A simple experiment proves the point. All you need is a stone and a spring balance. Weigh the stone in the air. Then weigh it in water.

You will find that it weighs less under water. The reason is that the buoyant force of the water pushes up on the stone and thus supports some of its weight.

Buy Bonds where you work.

He does.

It's miserable work, crawling through a rice paddy. And being shot at. This American does the job for freedom's sake. So do thousands of his buddies. Many of these brave men also support freedom with their dollars. A majority of our servicemen overseas are investing in U.S.

Savings Bonds. Would you like to show this man you're with him? One good way is to buy Savings Bonds where you bank or join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. You'll make a good investment. And you'll walk a bit taller.

U.S. Savings Bonds

Bond facts: Savings Bonds pay you back $4 for every $3 at maturity in only seven years... are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen... have special tax advantages... can be redeemed whenever the need arises.

Santa Fe Honors Seven Young Texans

Six Texas college students and a high school senior have returned to their classes with a host of ideas after attending the recent National 4-H Congress in Chicago.

The seven won awards in the Santa Fe Railway System sponsored 4-H program which stresses citizenship and leadership. They are Kathy Kincaid, 18, of Cisco; Joe Ray Burkett, 18, of Crowell; Gary Burnett, 19, won county medals in the safety and livestock programs, as well as other areas.

Pittman Burnett

A former senior class president, Burkett is now a freshman at Texas A&M University, where he is majoring in agricultural education.

Burnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Burnett, is a student at Texas Technological College in Lubbock and hopes to become a civil engineer. He received a $500 Santa Fe educational scholarship. He has been a 4-H Club member for seven years.

"Rural life and love for animals are a natural for me," he said.

As his interests broadened, he investigated the scientific and business worlds. For an electric project, he made a device whereby two people could talk on a light beam. He and his sister collaborated on a business project and gave a demonstration called "Business on Main Street," which showed the workings of major businesses. This took first-place honors at the state 4-H Round-Up.

Pittman, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pittman, has been in 4-H for 10 years. In 1967, he was chosen Gold Star boy for Swisher County. This is the highest county award made by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Pittman, who hopes to become a lawyer, has flavored his 4-H activities with internationalism. In the summer of 1967, he helped train a French student in agricultural techniques.

One of the great thrills of his life came last April when he represented the 4-H Clubs of Texas at the third Inter-American Conference of the Partners of the Alliance in Lima, Peru. In Peru, he met high government officials and visited South American 4-H Clubs.

Platt, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Platt, served as a junior leader in many 4-H project areas, including forestry, electric and beef. He recently organized a pre-4-H group for younger boys in his community.

A high school senior, he is interested in becoming an agricultural engineer.

Miss Brown, who now attends Tyler Junior College where she plans a career in elementary education, recalls that more than 10 years of 4-H work helps her to define citizenship as:

"The ability to solve community problems, to handle a meeting by parliamentary rules, to be intelligently interested in one's group, or to vote as a responsible citizen."

Miss Brown, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brown, served as a group leader in clothing and nutrition projects and as a junior leader in food-nutrition and public speaking.

Platt Miss Sexton Miss Brown

Miss Sexton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sexton, has served as a junior leader for the past five years on several county committees in charge of planning programs, field days, banquets and contests.

She also worked with adult leaders to judge county record books and has coached a soil conservation team. She is a student at Texarkana Junior College.

The 4-H projects are under the direction of Texas A&M University Cooperative Extension Service which selects the winners.
