

All Around the Town
by Mary Ann Sarchet

First of all, I'd like to say that in the announcement of this week's movie at the Arena Drive-In, there is a slight mistake. The wrong movie is named!

The ad should state that the Disney movie, "THE COMPUTER WORE TENNIS SHOES," will be shown this weekend.

The Disney movie named in the advertisement on the school page is scheduled for the next weekend, May 23-24.

There are several items about students in this week's paper that may seem a little past being news because they've gotten a little old; however, it is my thinking that when boys and girls compete and earn ribbons they deserve to have clippings to keep as reminders of their hour of triumph. We have not intentionally neglected having these items in the paper; one thing or another has just prevented their appearing earlier.

We would like to add our apologies to Ramona Clower and Connie Graham, whose names were unintentionally left off the list of boys and girls who won blue ribbon awards in the District II Share the Fun contest. The team was composed of nine members, and we listed only seven of them. We're sorry, girls. Adults may try to convince kids that they're perfect when actually they're among the most imperfect of God's children. I hope by this time the girls have gotten perfect clippings of the 4-H awards story which include their names; if they haven't, I hope they will call me. We'll try to see that this doesn't happen again!

Isn't it strange what nervous, sleepy-eyed creatures we be after crouching in the cellar or pacing the sidewalk all night long? I think the efficiency level in Silverton was probably at an all-time low Tuesday. Everyone was too tired to work.

I hadn't ever stopped to think how many relatives and friends the people of Silverton have in Lubbock until after news of the tornado was received Monday night. I hadn't really even stopped to think how many relatives our family had there!

All of this quickly came to light when everyone began wondering about the welfare of loved ones. With long-distance telephone service disrupted, the people either had to drive to Lubbock (and they were being urged not to enter the area) or rely on HAM radio operators to get word through.

Perry and Estelle Thomas, Carl Wayne and Becky Woods worked around the clock trying to contact Lubbockites for those in Silverton who were worried about them. The last I heard, they had placed calls to 200 or more different people.

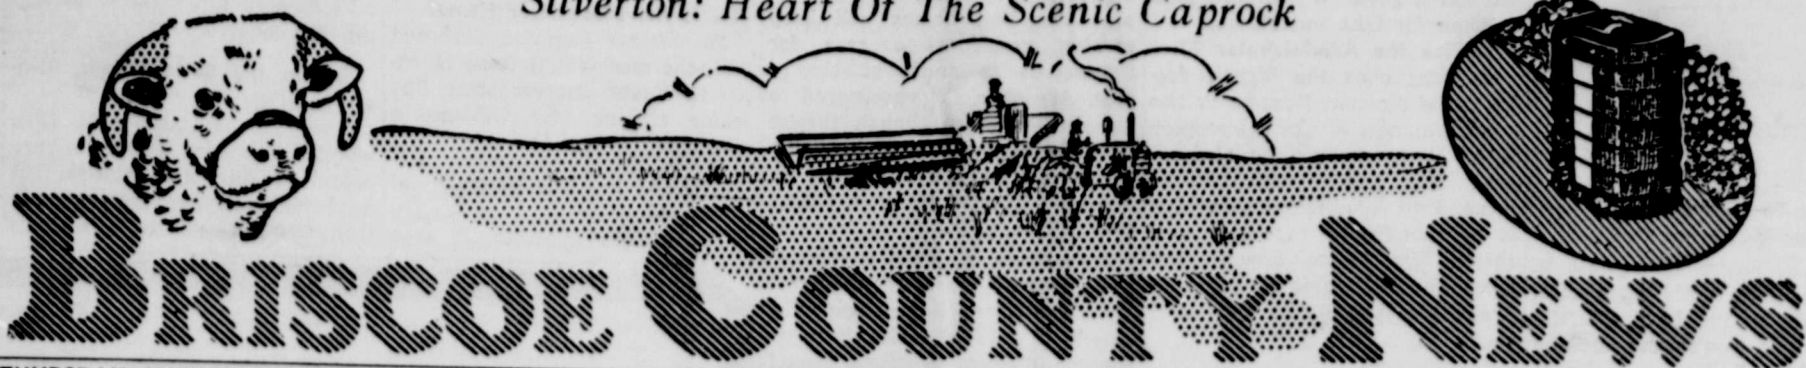

I think the Thomas-Woods families are glad to help us out in a situation like this, but all of us should realize that a debt of gratitude we owe to them when they perform this service for us. And all of us owe them the courtesy of consideration in a situation like this. When we ask them to contact people for us, we certainly should notify them at any time that we wish to withdraw the request so that they will not keep on trying after we have already made contact with those in question. They say they don't mind keeping trying to make contact, but they hate to ask someone else to keep waiting for their turn if you have heard from those they are trying to reach.

Charles has two sisters, a brother, his mother, at least three first-cousins and a score of nieces, nephews and other cousins in Lubbock at the present time. Of course, we were most concerned about the welfare of his mother, who isn't in good health and who we were afraid might have been alone at the time of the storm. The Thomases contacted the brother in Lubbock before we went to bed in the wee small hours Tuesday morning. We appreciated it very much, and I know that the relief that we felt was shared by every one of the people for whom the Thomases and Woods performed this service.

As it turned out in our case, one cousin lost her home, but as best we can determine, they were not seriously injured.

But even though you are pretty

JUDO TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD SATURDAY, MAY 23 AT LOCAL GYM

An AAU-sanctioned Judo Tournament will be held in the Silverton High School Gymnasium on Saturday, May 23.

Juniors will weigh in from 8:00 until 9:00 a.m. for their contest which begins at 10:00 a.m.

Seniors will weigh in from 8:00 a.m. until 12:30 p.m., for matches which are to begin at 1:00 p.m.

Trophies will be given to those placing first, second and third in each of the junior and senior divisions. An overall trophy will be awarded in the senior division.

Entry fees are to be paid at weigh-in. Juniors will be charged $2.00 each, and seniors will pay a $3.00 entry fee.

The tournament is being sponsored by the Silverton Judo Club. Tournament directors are Jim Alexander and Bobby Stephens.

SILVERTON CLUB
At the present time, a junior Judo group is meeting from 3:30 until 5:30 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays. Included in this group are those from pre-school age through eighth-grade level.

The senior Judo group is composed of high school boys and adults, and meets on Monday and Thursday evenings.

All of these boys and men are registered as members of the United States Judo Association, which includes members ages 3 to 83.

The members of the Silverton Judo Club and Judo enthusiasts from across the area will be competing for trophies in the local tournament. The junior members — who wear white belts until they successfully pass an examination on knowledge of Judo skills — will be fulfilling one of the requirements in their quest for a gold belt by participating in the tournament.

LOCAL INTEREST NEEDED
The interest and support of local residents is needed to help make the tournament a success, according to Alexander, who is instructor for the Silverton Club. "We'd certainly hate to sponsor a tournament here and have the thing fall flat on its face," he added. "We believe local residents will see some good matches in the senior division, and we think they will particularly enjoy the matches between the little fellows."

A number of the senior members already have won trophies in competition in tournaments elsewhere, but this will be the first tournament competition for the younger boys.

How To Pick a "Home" For Mother or Dad

Suddenly, you're up against it. Mother or Dad needs extra care, more than anyone in the family can give. So you're out looking for a "home." You're lucky if you have a choice. The sad fact is that some homes for old folks are still unbelievably poor.

The average one is getting better—thanks to licensing, inspection and the concern of the good people of the community. But still not too near good enough. The residents are well fed and clean, but have nothing to do. They stare at the walls. Nothing to look forward to: no movies, no card games, no handicraft hour, no stimulating visitors from outside. Nothing but meals and bed and loneliness.

Our old folks deserve better. Here is a guide to help you pick a home for Dad and Mother.

1. Pick the Administrator First
 By long odds the biggest factor is the director. Does he or she seem genuinely to like old people? If so, the home will be at least good. Have coffee with him at home. Visit some rooms with him. Is he friendly or store-clerk synthetic. Try to be around him when he visits some of the residents. You'll see how they feel about him.

2. Is There Cheer About?
 A kind, cheerful administrator picks the same in personnel. The furnishings in his place will look homey, rather than hospital-like. People will bring one or two favorite pieces of furniture from home. There will be pictures around. There'll be a bulletin board with cartoons, news clippings, notices of activities. Cheer doesn't depend on potted palms.

3. What Does the Home Sound Like?
 Hushed and dead, or is there noise and laughter and sound of chatting? Does the air smell clean?

4. Look for Activities
 Are patients busy with handiwork, games, watching TV? Is the living room well used? Is there a paid full-time recreation and handicraft leader? Most don't have but all should! Keeping busy is vital to happiness. Old people uprooted from home duties need help in finding new hobbies and pleasures. Where possible, they should be encouraged to help in work of the home. Are patients clustered together, enjoying each other's company, or aloof, remote in their own rooms? Are there weekly song-fests, movies, card games, checkers?

5. What Volunteer Groups Assist with the Above?
 Ask the superintendent to explain. There ought to be something a resident could take part in every afternoon and evening—whether church, movies, concert, drive, picnic or cookout. For the bedridden is there someone—a volunteer, perhaps—simply to talk with?

The home at Washington, Illinois (population 4,235) has 60 regular volunteers.

6. Is Physical Therapy Available?

 Are patients encouraged to learn to walk, to care for themselves, to keep arms and legs supple? The best homes will keep coaxing residents to care for themselves as much as they're able. Are old folks encouraged to get dressed—even though they're incontinent—the ladies encouraged to wear jewelry and put on makeup, the men starched collars and ties occasionally?

7. Is There a Chapel or Church that is easily reached?
8. Are There Ramps and Elevators (in place of stairs) that encourage oldsters to move about? Is the place fire-safe?
9. Check with Local Doctors for their relationship with the home.

From C. Thomas, Los Angeles, California: I remember the simple pleasures of life in a small town in Mississippi almost half a century ago.

A boy had only to cross the street to enjoy the "world outdoors" — a wooded fair-land filled with underbrush through which many bare feet had marked a series of trails, to the crab apple trees, the shallow slough and to the tree house high in the ancient pecan tree.

Never too far away to hear the first call to supper, a boy and his friends, armed with "B-B" guns, were often on safari in the deep depths of the jungle, stalking the blackberry bushes for a wily cottontail who had little idea he was playing the role of a ferocious lion.

The discovery and conquest of an occasional poisonous snake brought forth a trophy that was taken homeward for all the neighborhood to see. Garter snakes were a special prize, always taken alive and tucked away inside a shirt, to be revealed when the first girl came close enough to see.

Many years ago this playground of an acre or so disappeared. Trees and brush were leveled, the slough was filled and houses built side by side.

Salty Spot
 For more than 100 years, the British colony of Bermuda had a colony of its own—Turk's Island, an islet in the West Indies where Bermudians raked salt for trading purposes.

What do they think of the place?
10. Are There Restrictions on the Visiting Hours?
 There shouldn't be.

11. Is the Place Near Home?
 The oftener you visit Mon and Dad, the more you'll come to enjoy it. You'll discover other fine senior citizens who welcome a greeting.

12. Drop in Unexpectedly at Mealtme
 Is the food appetizing, even though ground or mashed for some residents? Is it displayed in a way to tempt pood appetites, help make mealtime something to look forward to? A bit of parsley can do wonders.

13. Are the Surroundings Pleasant?
 Some are on lakes that have wheelchair fishing. Others have pools with lilies and goldfish. But don't pick one in a remote spot that's hard to get to. Old folks like to keep in the swim of things. (Printed by Special Permission from Farm Journal, November 1963. Copyright 1963 by Farm Journal, Inc.)

HAVE YOU BEEN COUNTED?

Were you counted in Census '70? With the 1970 Census of Population and Housing virtually completed locally, District Manager R. L. Butler announced the beginning of a "Were You Counted?" campaign to insure that no resident of the area has been overlooked.

If you think you or your family might have been missed, you are urged to notify the census district office by means of a "Were You Counted?" form. Area newspapers are printing these forms in their current editions as a public service. Prompt mailing of the "Were You Counted?" forms will speed up the compilation of preliminary population figures for the area.

Preliminary figures giving the total population of incorporated places of 10,000 or more population, and for counties, will be issued as soon as the District Manager is convinced that a complete count has been made. Final, detailed population figures will be issued from Washington later this year after returns have been tabulated by the Census Bureau's electronic computers.

The importance of a complete count was stressed by the District Manager. He pointed out that the population figures compiled in the current census must stand as official until the next Federal census. "Representation in the U. S.

Armadillo, once found only in the Mexican border region, have immigrated as far north and east as Oklahoma and Mississippi.

Largest crystal ball is the Warner 106-pound sphere of Burmese quartz displayed in the U. S. National Museum in Washington, D. C.

Greatest meteor shower on record occurred on November 12-13, 1833. It consisted of some 240,000 meteors.

Birth of military aviation in the U. S. occurred in Texas in 1910 when the whole U. S. Air Force arrived at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio: one man.

Congress and the State Legislature is determined by the population count as ascertained in the census. Federal funds are allotted to States and State funds, in turn, are allotted to counties and municipalities on a per capita basis. So a short count means under representation in the Federal and State law-making bodies and under allotment in government funds. Thus, it is imperative that we have a complete count. The help of every resident of the area is needed to reach this goal," he said.

Northrup King's NK 222A Hybrid Grain Sorghum has consistently given good performance for the farmers in this area.

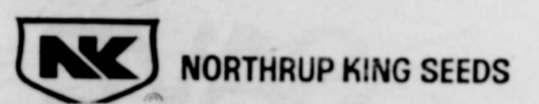

Farmers like NK 222A's

Some that your loved ones were out of the area of destruction, it's always good to KNOW they were.

They say that in 78 years no disaster like the one of Monday night has occurred in the City of Lubbock, but the destruction, loss of life, personal suffering and property damage is being described as "second only to Hurricane Camille." It is remarkable that a storm of its intensity could not sweep a mile wide and eight miles long through a densely populated city when no warning alarms had sounded and take only 29 lives. Of course, the death toll may rise but it is still a miracle that more weren't killed.

The list of areas that haven't been shaken by this kind of tragedy in this area surely is getting short. In many towns we faced this same situation and the larger the city is, the higher the amount of damage usually is.

A call has gone out to the people here to give aid to the estimated 15,000 in Lubbock who have been left homeless.

Waste Men announced yesterday that the Silverton Chapter of Christ has opened a collection point for anything that local residents would like to donate to the cause of disaster relief. This is to include food, clothing, appliances. Trucks will be made available to haul the donations to Lubbock.

So once again the people of Silverton are requested to help the people in a neighboring city and knowing as well the personal shock and suffering we know the Silverton people will respond even though we've had so recently to stand up our own wounds.

Briscoe Farm Road Project Slated

The Texas Highway Commission on May 7 approved development of 4.0 miles of Farm to Market roads in Briscoe County as part of the 1970 Texas Farm to Market Road Program.

District Engineer V. J. McGee of the Texas Highway Department said the estimated cost of the work is $110,000.

This approved Farm to Market Road extends from the intersection of FM Roads 284 and 145, south to a road intersection.

The work will be under the supervision of T. Algie Groves of Matador.

Work authorized in this county is part of 543.1 miles of Texas Farm and Ranch to Market roads earmarked for development in the new program.

The program includes 144 projects in 109 counties. Estimated total cost of the program is $22 million.

New construction totals 377.6 miles, with an estimated cost of $18.2 million.

The remaining $3.8 million represents additional financing on 163.5 miles of previously-designated roads.

The additional new mileage will bring the Farm and Ranch to Market network in Texas to 39.8 thousand miles. This is 1 1/2 times the combined total of all State-maintained highways in the six New England states.

Originally planned to help "get the farmer out of the mud," the network has enhanced the social and economic well-being of mil-

Several Ribbons Won In District Track Competition in April

Several ribbons were won in the Junior High and Ninth Grade divisions of the District Track Meet held in Clarendon on April 11.

The Ninth Grade placed fourth in the District, while the Junior High scored enough points to finish third in District competition.

NINTH GRADE

Terry Culwell accumulated several points for the team by placing first in the 440-yard dash (56.5); third in the broad jump (17'2 1/2"); and tying for fifth in the high jump (4'9").

John Minyard placed second in the high jump (5'2") and third in the 100-yard dash (11.5.5).

Mark Hutsell placed fourth (8') and Stan Martin finished sixth (8') in the pole vault.

Walter Carl Welch won first place in the 1320-yard run (3:55.3).

lions of rural Texans.

In the new program, 77%—235 miles—of the new mileage is used by school buses. Sixty-seven per cent—207 miles—is included in rural mail routes.

But the system has not benefited just the rural residents. Many Farm and Ranch to Market roads provide access to recreational areas for urban and rural residents alike.

The FM system also includes some of the most scenic travelways in Texas. One-third of the total mileage of the Ten Texas Travel Trails is over roads in the FM-RM system.

Many industries are served by roads in the Farm to Market network. The system has been credited with opening up new areas for industrial growth, facilitating movement of raw materials, employees and finished products.

News From The County Agent's Desk

Irrigating wheat for grain deserves special attention in May. Adequate moisture at this time is especially important in producing top wheat yields. Maximum yields increase per acre . inch of water applied is normally received from May irrigations.

One reason for this expected yield increase is that plant moisture requirements are highest at heading to flowering, explains Leon New, area irrigation specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Much of the wheat is in or approaching this peak daily moisture requirement period. Three to three and one-half inches of water will be removed from the soil by plants and evaporation each 10 days. This rate of removal rapidly depletes available moisture stored in the soil root zone. Soil that has not received significant rainfall or irrigation during the past 15 to 20 days is likely to be dry enough to begin limiting yields.

Good yield response can be obtained from an irrigation at heading to flowering. An application at this time normally boosts yields more than any single irrigation during the season. Research on wheat irrigation shows that this timely application will normally increase yields 10 to 20 bushels per acre. This is a significant yield increase and is profitable unless an excessive amount of water is applied. Yields have consistently been higher when water was applied at heading to flowering.

The specialist emphasizes that adequate moisture during the grain filling stage is also important. Even though daily water requirements are two to two and one-half inches every 10 days, an irrigation has increased yields when rainfall didn't supply needed moisture. This irrigation will normally increase yield 8 to 12 bushels, which is also a profitable water expenditure for small applications.

Spring wheat growth was good this year due to adequate subsoil moisture from heavy fall rainfall. However, moisture stress now and during grain filling is likely to limit more than if Spring growth had been less vigorous.

An irrigation by flowering and another during early grain filling can increase yields 20-30 bushels where production potential is high, concludes the specialist.

Luncheon Hosted For Senior Class

A luncheon was given in honor of those who will be graduating from Silverton High School this year on Wednesday, May 6. The annual event is hosted by members of the Silverton Church of Christ for the purpose of saying "congratulations, graduates!"

This year's luncheon was held in an atmosphere of Old Mexico. The room was decorated in South-of-the-Border style, and appropriately enough, Mexican food was served.

Also guests for the luncheon were Superintendent and Mrs. John Hinds, High School Principal and Mrs. O. C. Rampley, Class Sponsor and Mrs. Bill Bailey, and Edwin Myers, evangelist for the Church of Christ, who was master of ceremonies and speaker for the event.

Preparation and serving of the meal was directed by the women of the church.

Bro. Myers said of the occasion: "It is a great privilege to have had these young people come and be with us and let us honor them for the great step they are about to take. This is an important time in the lives of our young people, and they need to be commended and encouraged by all."

Recent visitors with Mrs. R. G. Alexander have been Mr. and Mrs.

Don Alexander of Yukon, Oklahoma; Mrs. Tom Moffitt and Michelle of Paul's Valley, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Alexander and Shane of San Angelo, and Mrs. Rhea Lusk of Amarillo.

INDOOR WATERFALL . . . In Mexico City's famed Museum of Anthropology, a cleverly designed waterfall cascades from a huge "umbrella" which springs from a handsomely carved monolith that might once have supported a temple roof.

For And About Teenagers

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I am in South Korea and I have been reading the paper that a friend receives, from Ohio. I saw the part where you could send in a problem and get it discussed." OUR REPLY: We would ask a question: "How many times have you written to her?" We say this because we think the best thing for you to do is to write every day, if possible. It is not always easy; it may sometimes be impossible. But, if you write to her at every opportunity, each letter is a personal reminder that you are thinking of her and will cause her to think of you more often. The letters need not be long, or newswy. There is, of course, no way to make your wife write to you if she doesn't want to take the time. But writing to her often is the best way to let her know what a lonely life it is for a soldier who is far away from home. If you have a lesson problem you want to discuss or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, COMMUNITY AND SUBURBAN PRESS SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY.
