Cotton Industry Acts To Meet Supply Crisis

Briscoe County cotton producers are being encouraged to join a cooperative effort by the entire cotton industry and the U. S. Department of Agriculture to attain maximum profitable production of cotton this growing season.

Cotton is in demand. The markets want cotton. The question is, can we supply them? Cotton producers in the U. S. have had a run of bad luck, with bad weather and poor growing conditions four years out of the last five. Supplies have dropped. A few years ago we had too much cotton. Now producers are humping to get those yields up, to get the production to supply demand.

In addition to producing more cotton of the best possible quality, a producer in the voluntary cotton program who, by careful management, increases his per-acre yield also will increase his farm program payments in the following years.

Under the Agricultural Act of 1970, cotton payments are based on yields from harvested acreage during the three preceding years.

While the demand for cotton is both substantial and increasing, growers would be wise to think of it as a demand for fiber. "Fiber demand doesn't necessarily mean cotton demand. If cotton fiber of the quality and quantity needed can be supplied at a competitive price, then the demand is for cotton. Otherwise, markets could turn to other fibers. It happened in 1967. We hope it won't happen this year."

Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin, in recognition of the cotton situation, announced at a recent press conference a cooperative effort by the cotton industry and the Agriculture Department to see that every possible resource is made fully available to cotton growers in helping them achieve maximum net returns.

Mr. Hardin reported that he and National Cotton Council President C. R. (Jerry) Sayre had discussed a number of encouraging developments that add up to a more favorable outlook for U. S. cotton in markets both in the U. S. and abroad. The two agreed that cotton has a good opportunity to regain some of its losses in consumption.

The Agriculture Secretary said, "The upturn in U. S. and world consumption and improved marketing opportunities both here and abroad make it essential that an adequate supply of cotton be available to fill the demand. Unless this happens, competition from other fabrics will move in and recapture the advantage, and much of cotton's regains will be lost."

A statement issued by the National Cotton Council welcomed the joint industry-government effort. In the statement, Mr. Sayre said: "With the off-take projections approximating 11.5 million bales and with a carryover on August 1 expected to be less than 4.5 million bales, the future hinges on the size and quality of this year's crop. A short supply means economic suicide.

"Market fluctuations of recent weeks, adverse weather in the Mid-Belt and —until recently—drought or near-drought in the important West Texas sector, have caused our customers to become concerned."

The National Cotton Council President also said, "This year will be decisive in cotton's quest for market regains."

Mouth-Watering Vegetables

Nothing tastes better than really fresh vegetables. You'll love sweet corn if eaten shortly after harvest. It loses its sugars if held too long. You can grow all the vegetables the family can eat if you have an open area in the backyard that gets 8 to 10 hours of sunshine each day. A spot 25 by 40 feet is enough for the average family, with enough vegetables left over for freezing and canning.

Vegetables do well on well-drained, loamy type soils. Use plenty of organic matter. It adds richness to the soil and helps hold moisture. It takes a lot of moisture to produce vegetables so water thoroughly each week unless you get an inch or more of rainfall.

You'll move along faster and make fewer mistakes if you draw a sketch of the garden. Group rows of each variety, especially corn, to insure good cross pollination.

Once you have planted the vegetables, they will need no more care than the flower garden. To simplify it even more, you can use the same insect control program used in the flower garden. With a broad spectrum insecticide like Spectracide you don't have to worry about mixing several different chemicals to control major flower and vegetable pests.

A few short rows of vegetables will add to your gardening pleasures this spring and summer and will cut a third or more off your grocery bill. Besides, fresh vegetables direct from the garden taste better.

Rainbow Girls Attend Grand Assembly

by Susie Parker
Worthy Advisor

On June 13, at 11:00 a.m. the Silverton Assembly of Rainbow Girls left for San Antonio where Grand Assembly was held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

When we arrived that night, we checked into the Hilton Hotel. There were eight girls: Louise Croft, Susie Parker, Christi Northcutt, Julia Dickerson, Ruth Ann Cline, Peggy Croft, Reba Chappell and Susan Northcutt, accompanied by Mother Advisor Sheryl Breedlove, and two Eastern Star members, Mary Lou Northcutt and Frances Crass.

As soon as we got settled, we all went to a restaurant on the San Antonio River and enjoyed supper. If you have never had the experience of eating a submarine sandwich, you are really missing something! We know! After supper we all went to our rooms and prepared for the next day's activities.

Julia Dickerson was a member of the Grand Choir and represented Silverton well. She and Frances Crass started the activities by attending a rehearsal for the Grand Choir. We all waited for them at the hotel. When they returned we all went to the Gunter Hotel where we registered, got our credentials and "B" Certificates. At 1:30, Julia and Frances attended another meeting of the Grand Choir.

Reba Chappell, Susie Parker and Mary Lou Northcutt served as Grand Guards. They went to a meeting of Grand Guards at 1:00 p.m.

While these mentioned were busy at meetings, the other members of the Assembly were relaxing back at the hotel, swimming, lounging and some ventured down to the river and even as far as the Alamo. I must say, though, a large part of the time, during the entire stay, was spent at a department store not over a block away.

The first meeting was held that night at 8:00 o'clock in the Municipal Auditorium. Julia sang in the Grand Choir, as she did in all the meetings, and Mary Lou served as a Grand Guard at all the meetings also. As soon as the meeting was over, we quickly made our way back to the hotel. Shortly after that we could all be found in a cafe, about three blocks away, waiting for our supper. I'm sure we were all in bed asleep by 3:00 a.m.

Morning came all too soon, especially for Mary Lou and Julia, who had to be at the meeting an hour early. Elections began at this session. The activities around lunchtime were a bit scattered. Sheryl attended a luncheon for Mother Advisors at the Gunter Hotel; Mary Lou, Reba and Susie went to a luncheon for Grand Guards and Pages at the Tropico Hotel. The others had lunch on the river. After the luncheons, a number of girls went swimming. After this they went sightseeing and visited Joske's. I believe that all of the girls made it to the Alamo and the Hemisfair Plaza.

The night meeting began at 8:00 o'clock. Susie served on this night as a Grand Guard.

Only a few made it to the cafe for supper. The other girls had already eaten and were ready to get back to the comfort of their rooms.

Reba served as a Grand Guard at the morning session. Elections

TAD CORNETT CELEBRATES SIXTH BIRTHDAY AT PARTY

Tad Cornett celebrated his sixth birthday Tuesday, June 29, with a party at the City Park. Cake and Koolade were served to Craig and DeLyn Patton, Wes and Cary Fleming, James Alan, Mark, Eric and Alesha Patton, Brandon and Warren Jarrett, DeAnn and David Strange, Joe Ted and Cynthia Edwards, Susie and Dwain Tipton, Kim and Mike Cornett.

A man whose normal weight is 150 pounds would weigh about 50 pounds if all the water in his system were dried up.

were continued and the Grand Apointments were made. It was decided that next year's Grand Assembly would be held June 26-28 in Houston. There was a total registration of 4,144 Rainbow Girls, 215 Masons and 815 Eastern Stars, at this year's Grand Assembly.

Frances and Julia attended a Grand Choir and Chorus Luncheon in the El Tropico Ballroom. Everyone spent the afternoon enjoying themselves in many different activities. With a little difficulty we all made it to the General Banquet, which was held at 6:00 p.m. in the Gunter Hotel.

An open installation was held for the Grand Officers. It took place in the Municipal Auditorium, where we met for all of the meetings, at 8:00 p.m. Miss Nancy Blount was installed as Grand Worthy Advisor. After the closing of the ceremony, we all enjoyed a midnight snack and went back to the hotel for a good night's sleep.

The next morning we all had a nice breakfast, checked out of the hotel and started home. I failed to mention that Sheryl drove all the way to San Antonio with a hole in one of her mufflers. It was loud, but she got it fixed as soon as she could, and it was nice and quiet all the way home.

We all enjoyed ourselves, but were very glad when we arrived home. San Antonio is a wonderful place, but it will never compare to good ol' Silverton.

Two Changes Authorized In Emergency Drought Programs

President Nixon, after consultation with Secretary Hardin, has authorized the Secretary of Agriculture to make two changes in the emergency drought assistance programs to make more hay available in certain drought areas by eliminating reductions in price support payments to farmers.

Under the Livestock Feed Program, applicants will no longer be required to file a financial statement when applying for feed and hay transportation assistance. In view of the importance of prompt action on applications, and since the application form includes a certification of need signed by the applicant, the financial statement which required added time and work is being eliminated.

Haying or grazing of irrigable set-aside and Cropland Adjustment Acreage in counties designated as emergency drought areas by the Secretary of Agriculture, will now be permitted without charge. In contrast to non-irrigated set-aside acreage on which haying and grazing has been permitted without charge since April 22, payment reductions had been required on irrigable set-aside acreage. Further, the Secretary directed that this revision in the rules is to be retroactive to the beginning of this emergency period. This will provide some increased income to farmers in the emergency counties in the drought area. (Programs relate to some 200 designated counties in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona.)

Miss Smith Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Judy Smith of Flomot, the bride-elect of Thomas Self, was recently honored at a pre-nuptial shower and coffee in the home of Mrs. Edwin Dickerson.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Dickerson, the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Ruth Smith of Flomot, and Mrs. Bill Self, mother of the prospective bridegroom.

Guests were registered at a table graced by a bud vase holding a long-stemmed rose.

The refreshment table was laid with a red linen cloth and refreshments were served from rustic and antique serving pieces, this being complimented with yellow and white daisies in a crock jar vase centerpiece. Napkins were of bandana patterns.

Hostesses for the occasion were

ADEQUATE INCOME RETURN ESSENTIAL FOR AG. STABILITY

The efficient, productive, commercial farms which produce most of the U. S. food supply are extremely vulnerable to continued inflation or any significant downward adjustment in net income.

About three-fourths of U. S. food and fiber production today comes from the less than 600,000 farms which sell more than $20,000 worth of farm products a year. These farms are the most productive and efficient in the world. They are run by highly trained, hard-working farmers who use the best of modern technology. Highly capitalized, these farms are operating on an extremely thin margin of profit and must carry a heavy debt load. Anything which cuts into their net returns, threatens their economic survival.

Producers who participate in the wheat, feed grain and cotton voluntary programs, set aside a portion of their productive cropland to help reduce the excess productive capacity of American agriculture. Payments are made in return for this contribution to the economic stability of agriculture. These payments are becoming more important because of the narrow margin of profit. Not only farm income but also food costs to consumers can be affected by farm program payments. Also farm income goes back into other segments of the economy, so in a sense many benefit from these payments.

Farmers can no longer, as they once did, "Tighten their belts and ride out hard times." Because of inflation, production costs are up. Three-fourths of his crop inputs must be bought from off-farm suppliers. A squeeze such as farmers are experiencing now could cause mass exodus from the farms and thus create a whole new set of problems.

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

... "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." ...

This is an excerpt from the Declaration of Independence, unanimously adopted in Congress, July 4, 1776, at Philadelphia. Let us keep in mind the basic reasons for our declaration as a free and independent nation are as valid today as they were then.

A concentrated effort on the part of each and every American is vital if we are to keep our country free. SUPPORT AMERICA!

Our priceless heritage embodied in the flag of the United States, is as alive today as it was when written for the ages in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. It stands for all the world to see and for all Americans to cherish. And in the tradition of Washington, Jefferson, and Hamilton, we, too, have a privilege, a right, and a duty. While we may disagree as to the methods, we should not disagree as to the goal—that of preserving the greatest democratic society the world has ever known.

Our flag is a symbol, not of sentiment, but of history, the history of men and women willing to live and die for it. Surely this willingness is with us still, because daily we experience more of the blessings that are ours — ours because we are Americans.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, Tex.—Texas 1972 political campaigns jumped off to an early start last week amid earthquake-proportioned new rumblings in the long-running Securities and Exchange Commission stock manipulation case.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes announced he will run for governor, and called "loss of faith and confidence in state government" the No. 1 political issue.

Barnes termed the shadows cast by SEC's inquiry into stock trading of state officials one of the reasons for lost confidence by the public.

"I visualize the role of governor as a much more aggressive role than it has been in the past," he said. Barnes, who is 33, added "a younger governor with progressive ideas would be an asset" to Texas.

Barnes said he would aim to make the state Democratic party an "energetic force for sound government, not just a political tool to be used briefly every two years and then discarded. I want Texas to be strong in national affairs."

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin, recovered from a March heart attack, announced he will file as a candidate for a fourth term.

"In the light of the scandals that have rocked our state government this spring—and the resulting investigation which my office has begun at the request of the Legislature—I feel it a question of duty to Texans to make the race," said Martin.

Dolph Briscoe of Uvalde reportedly retains interest in the governor's race.

Gov. Preston Smith still hints he may run again, brands federal handling of the stock case "political harassment."

OIL ALLOWABLE CUT

Statewide oil production allowable for July has been slashed 260,815 barrels a day from June.

New allowable was set by the Railroad Commission at 68.7% of potential or a decrease of 6.7%. Reduction is the third straight.

Market demand factor for the coming month is the lowest since 62.9% allowable was set during part of August, 1970.

Maximum production is estimated at 3,367,115 barrels daily, but actual production will be closer to 3,273,750 barrels—slightly more than major buyers requested.

Eight of 14 major crude purchasers asked the same allowable for July, four sought less and two requested more.

Crude oil stocks were estimated at 108.4 million barrels, an increase of 1.1 million over the 1970 period.

CRIME FIGHT FUNDS

Nearly $4 million in grants to aid criminal justice projects received Criminal Justice Council Approval.

CJC will fund $2.5 million from federal aid money, with local governments contributing another $1.5 million.

Houston - Gulf Coast Building Trades Council got the biggest state grant of $191,800 for New Waverly delinquency prevention program.

Other grants went to Texarkana Ark-Tex Council of Governments; East Texas COG, Kilgore; Waco; Alamo Area COG, San Antonio; Wichita County; McLennan County; Bexar County; Austin-Travis County; Harris County Mental Health - Mental Retardation Center; Central Tex COG, Belton; Grayson County; Lower Rio Grande Valley Development Council, McAllen; Edinburg; Waco Police Department; Fort Worth; Travis County juvenile defender project; Eagle Pass; Lubbock County; City of Dallas; El Paso; Cleveland; regional law enforcement radio communications system; Coastal Bend Regional Planning Commission; Texoma RPC; Heart of Texas COG; Aldine and Midland Independent School Districts.

COURTS SPEAK

Supreme Court upheld a Tyler court verdict awarding $5,000 accidental death policy recovery to a widow whose husband was shot to death allegedly after committing adultery with the wife of another man.

High Court set July 14 arguments in a Dallas woman's damage suit claiming negligence by a private plane pilot in an accident which killed her husband four years ago.

Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the life sentence in a Beaumont rape case.

Austin Court of Civil Appeals reversed a Houston trial court and upheld State Board of Examiners of Psychologists' decision denying Houstonian Joseph D. Farrar a license to practice psychology because his master's degree was not primarily psychological but educational.

AG OPINIONS

Minors can be tried for liquor law violations without notification to parents if court is unable to locate parents or guardians, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has said.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

"A trial judge has discretion to grant probation when satisfied the best interests of the public and the defendant will be served, and the defendant is not under burden to show eligibility for probation, though the judge may require appropriate proof."

"Board of Private Detectives, Private Investigators, Private Patrolmen, Private Guards and Managers has discretion to decide whether or not license of those within its jurisdiction will be denied because of a conviction for felony."

"Whether Parks and Wildlife Department executive can retire as a 'commissioned peace officer' is a fact question to be determined by PWD on the basis of whether he was engaged primarily in criminal law enforcement activities of the department during 10 years."

594,132 acres of land in 869 tracts for July 6 lease sale.

For the first time, said Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong, the Land Board has coordinated environmental planning with the Parks and Wildlife Department on all bays and inlets included.

PWD reviewed tracts in lease and reported any possible hazard to the environment if drilling is permitted. Proposed restrictions will be considered by the Land Board.

Other tracts included are submerged lands in the Gulf of Mexico cancelled from the May sale list due to U. S. Army Corps of Engineers' halting drilling on such tracts temporarily. Submerged land acreage is the largest offered for lease since June 1965, when the state received more than $17 million for sale of leases.

CONVICTION "TAX" LEVIED

Cost of moving traffic violations and other convictions will go up under a bill signed into law and designed to provide funds for projects to improve the criminal justice system.

In addition to other taxable court costs, $2.50 will be charged in each misdemeanor conviction in justice of the peace or municipal court. County misdemeanor convictions will be charged an additional $5 in court costs, and felony convictions, $10.

SHORT SNORTS

Texas' first bale of 1971 cotton was produced on the Crispin Gamex farm near Pharr in the Rio Grande Valley.

An additional 400,000 workers and 100,000 employers will become subject to unemployment insurance program and tax for the first time on January 1.

Attorney General Martin warns consumers to beware of phony travel promoters who may take their money and run.

Reps. Rayford Price of Palestine, Price Daniel, jr. of Liberty and David Finney of Fort Worth are challenging House Speaker Gus Mutscher for re-election.

Texas will have 7.2 million registered motor vehicles this year, second only to California according to Texas Automobile Dealers Association.

IMMUNIZATION REQUIRED

Texas students must begin an immunization program by January 1, 1972, under legislation just signed into law, says the Texas Department of Health.

Students will be allowed to enter schools during the summer and fall terms with provision that their immunizations against at least one of six diseases will be started by January 1 and completed as soon as medically possible.

Required immunization for grade school level youngsters includes diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles, rubella and smallpox. Measles immunization is not required if there is a history sician). However, exemptions would not be permitted in a time of emergency or epidemic, the Health Department adds.

AUTO RATE HEARINGS

Hearings are set for 9:00 a.m. June 30 in Austin to consider new auto rates to replace the controversial schedule put into effect January 1.

State Board of Insurance is expected to hear usual cross-recommendations to raise and lower rates. Hearings will be conducted in the State Highway Department auditorium on casualty and physical damage rates, rating plans and rules.

All those who wish to have subject matter placed on the agenda were advised by the Board to contact its automobile office in Austin by June 23 and provide written statements in quadruplicate. Rate revisions will be effective on and after September 1 under present indications.

After hearings last year the Board increased rates an average of 14%, statewide. This raised an angry reaction from many insurance purchasers. Insurance companies, which urged a 27.7% increase, were equally unhappy.
