

- Profits Of A Feedlot Stay At Home -

by Mary Ann Sarchet
The 30,000 - head Olton Feedlot, Inc. isn't just another feedlot to Olton residents. Its uniqueness isn't just that there are $5 million in cattle in the pens, which may full without any problem, nor that the annual payroll runs $250,000 to $300,000, nor that the operation has $1.3 million investment in facilities and land. It is that almost every share of the stock is owned by Olton cattle people and that many of the cattle in the pens at any given time are owned by Olton people.

In addition to the local interests, cattlemen from Wyoming, Arizona, California, Florida, Georgia and Mississippi own about half the cattle in the pens. The corporation caters to cattle people instead of to speculators, and the bulk of the cattle are individually owned.
The Olton cattle feeding operation is similar in many ways to the cattle feedlot proposed to be built in the Silverton area.
At the present time, Briscoe County producers are either sending their cattle to out-of-county feedlots or are selling them to people who put them in feedlots elsewhere. More local producers would probably put their own cattle in a locally-owned feedlot.

The local cattle feeding operation would give a more reliable market for the county's grain crops, and green ensilage would also be needed for a feedlot. This would create more demand for all feed products, and some speculate that all of the feed crops grown in Briscoe County would not be sufficient to keep a feedlot of its proposed size in operation. This would stimulate the trucking business, with both cattle and grain-hauling on the increase locally.

A $1.5 million feedlot here would create new employment opportunities and would bring a nice payroll to the area. A 20,000-head feedlot would have an annual payroll of approximately $200,000. About $4 million worth of feed would be consumed there in a year.
This would keep a lot of dollars re-circulating in Briscoe County. It is estimated that this would create a cash flow of approximately $10 million annually in the community and county.

Another plus for the proposed Silverton feedlot is that it is close to packing facilities at Plainview. This would help cut the cost of trucking cattle from the feedlot to slaughter.
With all these pluses going for the proposed feedlot, some people are fighting the project and threatening those involved with lawsuits. Why?

Sure there are some problems associated with cattle feeding, but these operations are not without controls over them regarding insects and odors. There are feed additives which help decrease manure odors. I have a friend whose husband raises pigs not far from her backdoor, and she tells me that they smell like money to her.
Our basic industry—and only REAL industry—in Briscoe County is agriculture. No gift industries are going to fall into our laps like manna from Heaven without a lot of hard work. This proposed feedlot is one of the greatest things the people here have ever tried to do. Our area is ideal for it. If we can get this started, prospects in this immediate area will definitely be on the upswing. Let's show our progressiveness and willingness to work together by supporting this venture to help insure the financial success of our area. Aren't we big enough to do this?

McMinn - Bradley Vows Exchanged

On Saturday, May 5 at 6:00 p. m., Miss Debra Lenn McMinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis McMinn of McKinney and Mr. Jack Bradley, son of M-Sgt. and Mrs. L. A. Bradley of Dennison were united in marriage in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hilton at McKinney. The reception following the wedding was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Travis McMinn. The bride's only attendant was her aunt, Mrs. Donna Denton of Bonham, and the groom's attendant was an uncle of the bride, Maurice Wilson of McKinney.

The wedding took place in front of an arch at a fireplace with two large baskets of white mums. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Keith Francis of McKinney.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a long blue dress with white collar and cuffs and a shoulder-length veil. She added a blue garter, pennies in her shoes bearing the dates of their births.

The agronomist explains that since high quality is basic to getting cotton crop off to a rapid start, every effort should be made to secure the best quality seed possible. The cost of planting seed represents only five percent or less of total production cost. So, trying to cut cost here by purchasing so-called bargain seed can be most costly in terms of poor stands, replanting and finally low yields. High quality seed will contribute to more rapid seedling emergence, uniform stands which can better tolerate cold, wet conditions associated with seedling decay organisms.

"In many instances, producers have no choice but to plant lower than desired quality seed," Metzger adds.

"In this case, he should plant his best quality seed first when weather conditions during early spring are more favorable for seedling emergence. As the planting season advances and soil becomes warmer, the grower can use lower quality seed after the other seed has been exhausted."

A good rule of thumb, he says is to allow the soil temperature at the eight-inch depth to average 60 degrees Fahrenheit for 10 days before planting. A significantly higher percentage and more rapid emergence of seedlings will be obtained if this soil temperature is reached at planting. This is even more critical if lower quality seed are planted.

In using low quality seed, the planting rate may be increased by five to ten percent depending on the level of seed quality. The Extension specialist warns that excessive increase in planting rate can worsen matters by causing a buildup of seed decay organisms in the drill row. In order to adjust planting rates properly, a grower must know the germination percent and quality of the seed he is about to plant. He should make sure that seed are treated with a recommended fungicide.

If producers have to plant low quality seed Metzger concludes, they should delay planting until the soil warms up, increase seeding rates slightly and prepare a good seed bed preferably on a bed.

and a necklace belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Othel Baughman.

The punch at the reception was poured by a sister of the bride, Mrs. Richie Hubbard. Cake was served by an aunt, Mrs. Donna Denton.

Those attending the wedding and reception included Mrs. Ollie McMinn of Silverton, the bride's grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Richie Hubbard and Dudley McMinn of Lubbock; Mrs. Othel Baughman of Archer City, another grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Benton and daughters, Bonham; Mrs. Judy West and children, Mrs. L. A. Bradley, Dennison; Mr. and Mrs. Jack More, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baugres Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hilton, Jerry and Lesia McMinn, Mickie and Stacy Helton and Maurice Wilson, all of McKinney.

contributed to the production of immature seed. Metzger is the area agronomist-cotton with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"The result," he says, "was a heavy cleanout at delinting plants to obtain acceptable seed or planting.

"These seed are often low in vigor even though they show satisfactory germination. Even heavy and fully developed seed frequently deteriorated in the field due to unfavorable weather. Early harvest produced exceptionally high quality seed in these fields, but seed quality became progressively worse as harvest was delayed due to wet fields," he reports.

Screwworm Cases Are On Upswing

Screwworm cases in Texas are on the upswing, bearing out the fears of officials of the Screwworm Eradication Project that continued warm, wet weather would boost the activity of the flesh-eating livestock pest.

As of May 1, 89 cases have been confirmed in the state this year, according to County Extension Agent Jimmy Vanstorty. Twenty-one cases popped up during the past two weeks as the screwworm flies began moving northward from overwintering areas in northern Mexico and southern Texas.

Of special note is a case confirmed in San Saba County on April 27, points out Vanstorty. This case, plus a previous San Saba case and one in adjacent Llano County—all in Central Texas—could be a sign of things to come. They are the northernmost cases to be confirmed this year.

The weather is going to be a key factor this year in determining the screwworm situation, believes Vanstorty. With all the moisture over much of the state at the present time, the situation could change rapidly, he warns.

The agent urges all livestock producers in the county to keep a close check on their herds and to inspect closely any cuts or wounds on animals. A sample of any worms found should be sent to the Screwworm Lab at Box 969, Mission, Texas 78572, for identification. If the worm is identified as a screwworm, sterile flies will be dropped over the area where the case originated.

Prompt reporting by producers is critical to the effectiveness of the eradication program, emphasizes Vanstorty. It's the key ingredient for avoiding a screwworm epidemic such as the one which swept the state last year.

Producers submitted 508 non-screwworm samples to the Mission Lab in April. These samples, plus 34 which proved to be screwworm cases, made April an excellent reporting month, notes Vanstorty. He urges producers to continue the good job of reporting.

The U. S. case total now stands at 95, with Arizona recording seven and New Mexico one.

The vials to send in samples of worms are available in the County Agent's Office, gins and livestock supply houses. If worms are found, send in a sample so that we can get some flies released in our area.

To remove, steam the area heavily and pull fabrics apart.

Don't allow hot iron and webbing to come in contact—they'll stick together. Should some webbing stick, use a mild abrasive or commercial iron cleaner to remove it. Then restore sole plate smoothness by gliding the hot iron over wax paper, the agent advised.

AUSTIN, TEX.—Legislators have a lot more left to do than they have done so far in almost four months.

Of the nearly 1,700 House bills and almost 1,000 Senate bills introduced, fewer than 100 actually have reached the Governor's desk.

If the 63rd Legislature accomplishes as much as the 62nd did numerically (more than 1,000 bills passed, about 99 per cent of the floor action must be capsuled in the brief period before the May 28 adjournment deadline.

Slow-moving debate in the House—where more than 200 amendments were offered—on the $9.7 billion appropriation bill fanned some speculation that a special session may be necessary to complete mandatory work.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, who holds the key to calling such a session, has made clear he doesn't want one.

Senators banged through their $9.5 billion version of the State budget in an hour and 21 minutes.

In spite of the two weeks spent on the House spending bill, Speaker Price Daniel, Jr. maintained "plenty of time" remains to consider other "must" legislation.

Daniel predicted House passage of these measures before May 28:

- * Mass transit
- * Drug law reform.
- * Bills to improve fiscal responsibility in government appropriations.
- * Restoral of capital punishment.
- * Penal code revision.
- * Water district reform.
- * Public school finance.
- * Competitive insurance rating.

While the work load appears staggering, Texas legislators are used to concentrating most of their floor session in the last month of their sessions.

Arnold, Silverton; 3. Kirk Durham, Silverton; 4. Sally Northcutt, Silverton; 5. John Fortenberry, Lockney; 6. Kelly Turley, Lockney.

Nance Food Store was donor of the trophy buckles for the Scoop Race.

Winners in the Flag Race were 1. Glynnna Thompson; 2. Lee Ann McMurtry; 3. Ronnie Graves; 4. Dickie Scott; 5. Valerie Tipps, Happy; 6. Kirk Durham.

APPROCIATION

The Silverton FFA wishes to take this opportunity to thank these people especially for their help in making the 1973 Rodeo a success. A special thanks to Ted Lanham for taping the music and the National Anthem, which was excellent. A special thanks to Leland H. Wood, jr. for announcing both performances; Ted Strange and Fred Strange for timing the events; Jimmy Vanstorty for the grand entry and helping with the books; Mildred Gates for keeping the entry books both nights; Carol Martin for notary work; Roy Dale Wood for arena director; Harvey McJimsey and Jimmy Myers for the barrier; Don Cornett and Joe Brannon for putting calves in chutes; Jerry Baird for operating calf chute gate; Jack McFall and Donnie Pearson for judging the bucking events; Dick Roehr for helping with the steer riding; Walter Arnold for taking care of the chute dogging and helping with the calf roping; Weldon Tipton for helping with the bucking chutes; Max Stevenson and Snooks Baird in the flagging. A very special thanks to Wayland Fitzgerald for setting the poles and barrels. A special thanks to anyone else who helped.

CONSTITUTIONAL HEARINGS BEGIN

The Constitutional Revision Commission began the first of its three-month series of hearings in the Panhandle and Far West Texas.

Initial hearings were held in Amarillo, Lubbock, El Paso, Midland-Odessa and San Angelo before moving South to San Antonio. A total of 18 hearings will hear citizens' views on how the constitution should be revised.

Witnesses offered suggestions on everything from dipping cattle in cold weather to legislative pay and the rights of individual citizens. Some told the Commission it should move cautiously in changing the Constitution.

Further hearings are slated at Arlington, Texarkana, Tyler, Lufkin, Nacogdoches, Houston, Laredo, Corpus Christi, McAllen, Beaumont - Port Arthur-Orange, Abilene, Wichita, Falls, Waco, and Austin between now and the end of June.

FEE, JURY BILLS PASSED

Higher hunting and fishing license fees and lower age limits for jury service are virtually assured.

The Senate passed amended bills authorizing both and returned them to the House where they originated.

The hunting license will cost $5.25 instead of $3.35 and the fishing license $4.35 instead of $2.15. A combination license is available for $8.75. Out-of-State hunters visiting Texas may pay $37.50 for their licenses. A special three-day, non-resident salt fishing license may be obtained for $1.25.

Under the new juror age legislation, 18-20-year-olds can serve on any Texas state trial jury.

A bill to provide full maturity rights to the 18-20-year-olds finally passed the Senate and went to the House.

COURTS SPEAK

A Midland murder conviction was reversed by the Court of Criminal Appeals because portions of a confession referring to another crime were introduced at the trial.

A Dallas case involving obscene calls and acts was reversed by the same court because a police "beef sheet", including matters not connected the charge, was permitted in evidence.

A Corpus Christi lawyer convicted of professional misconduct won a new trial through a Supreme Court order, which upheld a 13th Court of Civil Appeals earlier finding.

In an Amarillo case, the Supreme Court held a public utility zoning ordinance.

AG OPINIONS

Att. Gen. John Hill held constitutional bills to require Legislative Budget Board to establish a system of audits of state agency programs (including biennial reports to the Legislature) and to identify the cost of legislation through fiscal notes.

In other recent opinions, Hill found constitutional:

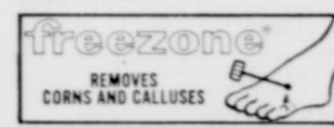

- * SB 499 ratifying creation of the Crosby Municipal Utility District of Harris County.
- * HB 25 providing that governing bodies may require real estate sub-dividers to provide up to 10 percent of subdivisions for schools, park or playground purposes.
- * HB 1096, requiring appointment of two additional public housing authority commissioners "who must be tenants" of a public housing facility.

In other recent opinions, Hill said:

- * Ambulance attendants may perform emergency "nursing care" under radio or telephone directions of a licensed physician.

Fusible Webs Aid Home Sewers

Fusible webs and films simplify home sewing — by eliminating several time-consuming tasks, explains Mrs. Dorothy Powell, County Extension Agent.

These new products utilize heat, steam and pressure to bond two fabrics together—that is, any fabric that can be steam pressed.

"Although they're not suitable for seams, fusibles simplify addition of trims and appliques—and eliminate basting, hemming and seam hand sewing."

In addition, they aid in matching designs and prevent raveling. Also fabric and belting material are joined invisibly through use of a web or film.

Several factors contribute to the products' popularity—they make invisible bonds yet don't alter fabric flexibility. At the same time, they reduce bulk.

Fusibles are sold by the yard, in pre-cut sheets or as tapes of various widths—and come in several weights.

For best results, test product effectiveness on a fabric scrap—before using it in the garment. Webs work better on some fabrics than others.

Although bonds usually are per-

SCIENCE and GOD

Not too long ago, a man determined from accounts in the bible that oil could be found in certain areas of bible lands . . . now this country is rich in oil wells.

In the past, vigorous arguments arose between some scientists and bible scholars, however with the passing of time, new discoveries in science have helped us to have a better understanding of God's word and now most scientists and bible scholars are in accord. God's word has not needed to be proved, for it will stand forever.

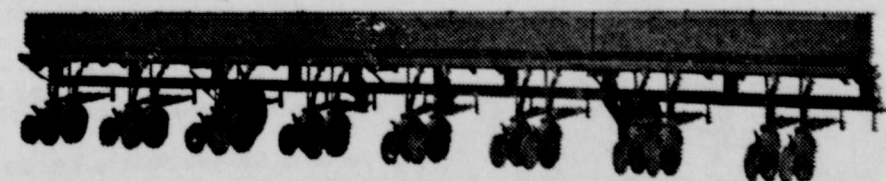

"For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea." ATTEND CHURCH AND STUDY GOD'S WORD.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

BUD'S GROCERY AND MARKET

We're proud our seeds have earned the trust of farmers like these ...

Jimmy Myers recorded a yield of 8,200 pounds with Pioneer brand 828 and 7,000 pounds with Pioneer brand 820. He liked the "Standability and easy threshing" of both varieties and it'll be Pioneer brand hybrids again next year for Jimmy Myers, Rt. 1, Silverton, Texas.

Joe Brannon got a yield of 6,179 pounds with Pioneer brand 8417. Planted for comparison with other brands, this plot of 8417 performed well for Joe Brannon, Star Rt. Q, Silverton, Texas.

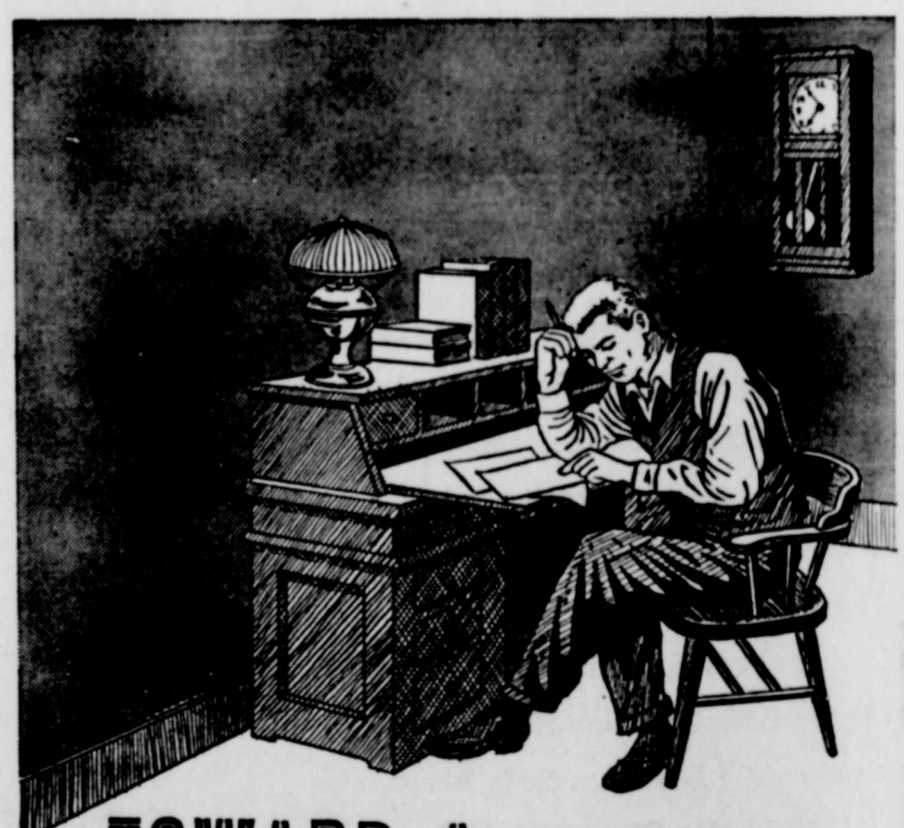

Because we were the first company to commercially produce hybrid corn and with 17 years of work on sorghum, we know a lot more about hybrids and how to make crosses that really yield. We've had longer to test and re-test our varieties. We've stuck with some of our early crosses, and we keep developing new ones to fit every growing condition imaginable.

- For the North Plains we recommend these sorghum, corn and forage varieties ...
- Pioneer brand 8417—new yellow endosperm sorghum—champion yielder in medium maturity class—large open heads—does well on all types of land.
- Pioneer brand 820—good yielder under stress—outstanding with plenty of water and fertility—MDM resistant—full season.
- Pioneer brand 846—excellent drought resistance—MDM resistant—medium maturity—our most popular sorghum variety.
- Pioneer brand 3369A—champion-class corn favorite—tolerant to northern and southern blight—good ear retention—heavy grain yielder.
- Pioneer brand 3306—most popular corn hybrid on the High Plains—tall with outstanding stalks and ear retention—good yielder on dry or wet land.
- Pioneer brand 988—sorghum sudangrass hybrid for pasture, greenchop, hay or haylage—ready to cut or graze in a little more than a month—regrows again and again all summer with adequate moisture and fertilizer.

When you choose a hybrid for your land, choose one from the company that started it all ...

You are invited . . . to good times, good food

. . . in your own backyard with an outdoor gas grill and gas light. You can cook up a party at a moment's notice, because a gas grill is ready to cook in minutes. And it's so easy to cook on because you can control the heat. With a gas grill there's no charcoal mess, and you still get that delicious, outdoor char-broiled flavor that comes from the smoke of meat juices dripping on permanent ceramic briquets. Besides the good times you'll have cooking out, you enjoy the convenience of having a gas grill. You'll probably find yourself cooking on it just because you wanted to get out of the kitchen or didn't want to mess up the broiler of your kitchen range.

All prices include normal post-type installation [up to 50 feet of line] and 5% sales tax. *Budget terms are available at 12.75% annual interest on declining balance.
