THE SIGNAL IS IN NEW QUARTERS

You May Find Us on West Bridge Street West of the First State Bank.

The Signal began last Friday to move its quarters from the east side into the Westbrook building on Bridge street, just west of the First State Bank and it has taken a whole week to do the job.

In this move the Linotype fell from the float and was so badly damaged that new parts had to be ordered from the factory at a heavy expense and our machinist operator has had a job getting the machine ready to run and is still working on it.

The Signal has to go out this week short of news matter because of these trying conditions.

Much matter intended for this issue has to be carried over. We will be alright after this week and our new home is a dandy and when we get straightened up we want all our friends to call in and see us.

Moving is always a serious proposition, and when it comes to moving presses, type cases, and the scores of other things in a fully equipped printing establishment, it means hard work with patience and forbearance, and all this when the Linotype with its intricate mechanism topples from the wagon and is smashed up, it means, not only delay and trouble, but heavy financial loss. The first order for parts to replace the breakage was wired to the factory Saturday night and the parts came by express Wednesday and our operator has been busy putting the machine back in shape while the others of the Signal force have been busy looking after the other things.

We are doing the best we can this week under these adverse circumstances and hope to be in good running order next week.

For the next thirty days will offer for sale my flock of Shropshire sheep, 170 head. Don't wait but come and get them at a bargain. Also some nice Jersey heifers with best calves, six months old to trade for male colts or vice filles.

THE WORLD'S BEST
CUT GLASS

We celebrate the person and the occasion in our gift. In public presentations, in social customs, in the fine feelings of friendship and lastly in the intimate and personal concerns of the heart, man instinctively seeks to express in visible form the spirit of the thought within.

Cut glass is a token with a tongue
It tells of cheer and gladness, is useful as well as beautiful, and it has, therefore, a more universal appeal than almost any other gift.

We take pleasure in showing our goods, call and see them,

The foolish way

There are two ways of saving your money—the foolish way and the wise way. The foolish way is to put it where fire, theft or other calamity can take it from you in a second. The wise way is to put it in a bank of good standing like ours where it is taken care of in fire and burglar proof vaults. Follow the example of the best business men and farmers in this district—start an account here at once—it is also the straightest road to success and wealth.

COME IN AND LET US TALK IT OVER.

CAIN RECOMMENDS FARM LIFE COMMISSION.

At the fifth annual meeting of the Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association held in Houston last week, Mr. B. B. Cain, president of that Association recommended the establishment of a Farm Life Commission charged with the duty of making a special study of the growing and marketing of all farm, garden and orchard products, together with the problem of transportation in its relation to the producer. The Commission is to be composed of five or more persons and they are empowered to employ a chief or head of the Farm Life Bureau and also engage the services of an expert rate man. The Executive Committee of the Secretaries' Association will soon hold a meeting and select the members of the board and prescribe its powers and duties. The Farm Life Commission is the outgrowth of the work of the Commercial Secretaries Association with the Farmer's Union in the marketing of cotton and presents a much wider agricultural and business interest.

To the Ginning Trade.

Now that cotton is beginning to get somewhat dirty, we wish to call attention of the public to the fact that we are prepared to take all the trash and dirt out of the cotton that can be taken out by any gin, by having the latest improved Continental Cotton Cleaner and the overflow system which enables us to run the cotton twice through the cleaner. We also have the double fan system which insures clean seed as one side of the fan pulls the cotton while the other side blows the seed—at the same time what dirt accumulates is blown out through the exhaust.

We will appreciate any favors the public may bestow upon us and endeavor to give the best possible work in each and every instance we guarantee satisfaction.

Irrigation is the Secret.

When Judge W. R. Smith returned home from the irrigation congress recently held at Salt Lake City, and which he attended, we asked him concerning his impressions of the Mormon country. He said it was a veritable revelation to him; that the Mormons were a remarkable people in their ability to develop a country. While there, Judge Smith was invited by the present head of the Mormon church, whose name is also Smith, to visit the latter that they might confer on some matters now pending before congress. Judge Smith said that water was the secret of all the wealth, beauty and glory of the great Salt Lake valley, which was a veritably looking paradise. The Mormons value water much above the gold, copper and all other mineral wealth which is to be found in that section, wherever the water could be put, there was to be seen a prosperous farm and home. Although already an enthusiastic apostle of irrigation, his visit to Utah opened his eyes to the wonderful possibilities of that system of agriculture. He further said that the same thing could be done in many sections of Texas. In Utah, farming without irrigation were an absolute impossibility, while in West Texas, the industry could be carried on with varying uncertainty without it, which is the chief reason that irrigation is not more extensively practiced; but the people are being educated to the value of the system and its certain results.

The Political Outlook.

The New York Herald's poll of votes up to eight days before the election is as follows: Up to the present time 270,923 test ballots have been taken in thirty-five states. They range from the Pacific Coast to Maine and from Missouri to South Dakota and Montana. Of this total, Gov. Wilson has received 110,922; Roosevelt has received $2,575; Mr. Taft has to his credit 28,413.

ORIENT ROAD BUILDS TO ALPINE

Rails Are Shipped and Work Is Rushed; Shops May Be Erected There.

RICH REGION IS FURTHER HELP-ED.

From El Paso Herald:

Alpine, Tex., Sept. 23.—Steel is being laid, bridges are being built and work in general is being rushed on the extension of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient to Alpine. N. J. O'Brien, who is superintending the track laying near Girvin, says he expects trains will be operating into Ft. Stockton early in October, as title to valuable property at Ft. Stockton depends on trains being run into that city by October 15. Rails are in transit out of Galveston for the line west of Stockton toward Alpine and calls have been made for more men to grade and surface the line.

May Build Shops.

It is announced on good authority that the Orient has made arrangements with the Southern Pacific to use its passenger station and terminal yards here, and that the Southern Pacific, for the time being, will do the shop work for the Orient. This, besides meaning that Alpine will be the present terminus for the Orient line, also indicates that a division on the Southern Pacific is to be located here, the latter road to build shops here to take care of its own division work and that of the Orient.

Rich in Natural Resources.

Brewster county, which the Orient taps, is rich in natural resources and will furnish an immense amount of traffic out of Alpine for the new line, the same as it does at the present for the Southern Pacific, east and west.

From a country trading point in a cattle country, Alpine has developed within a few years into an active and progressive little city of more than 1000 inhabitants, and with its new railroad it is believed it will more than double in population within 18 months.

Brewster county, of which Alpine is the county seat, contains about 3,300,000 acres of land, 2,651,396 acres of which is assessed for taxes, which still belongs to the state free schools.

Valuable County Assets.

Brewster county is one of the largest and best counties in Texas, having the greatest variety of products of any county in the United States, and is an empire within itself. There is to be had here chugulla in unlimited quantities which contains the most valuable of any of the different oils. Sotol, which can always be depended on as one of the best winter feeds for stock, grows in abundance. Another very important product is the candellilla or wax plant which, like the sotol and guayule, grows wild over a large area of Brewster county, yielding as much as five tons to the acre, which yields

3 1/2 per cent vegetable wax, for which there is a ready market and from 20 to 30 cents per pound.

Leads in Stock Raising.

Brewster county has long been recognized as the leading stock raising county in west Texas. Large sums of money have been expended for well bred animals where 20 years ago the long horn Texas steer ranged over the mountains and valleys of this section, but today, in their place, is found the white face, the Durham and the black muley or Galloway cattle.

The large ranches are being rapidly settled up by stock farmers. By experiments it is shown that milo maize, Kaffir corn, millet and sorghum all do well in Brewster county. On the ranges there is very little feed used during any time of the year for stock. The native grasses, of which there are more than 50 varieties, that mature after the rainy season, are ample to sustain the life of the cow and the horse throughout the winter months without being fed by hand. In portions of the county, the Angora goat industry is carried on to a limited extent.

Fruits and Vegetables in Abundance.

Irrigation possibilities of this section of the state are great, as there is an inexhaustible supply of pure water under a large scope of the country surrounding Alpine (at a depth of 10 to 100 feet). The Alpine valley is unexcelled in its abundant and permanent supply of pure water.

This water supply has been the means of putting Alpine to the front in the way of fruit culture. One 15 acre orchard in this vicinity has paid the owner over $15,000 within the past five years.

Cantaloupes, tomatoes, potatoes and all kinds of vegetables and berries yield enormously and, as the rains come in the summer, very little irrigation is necessary for their production. Apples from this section have taken first prizes at state fairs and premiums have been awarded Brewster county onions, pumpkins, watermelons. Truck gardeners in the Alpine valley are successful.

The demand for dairy products far exceeds the supply and such products bring fancy prices all the year.

Mineral Resources.

Foremost of Alpine's mineral resources is a solid mountain of marble, known as the Jourdan marble. This marble is both suited for interior and exterior use. A large variety of colors are obtained from the quarry—pure white and ebony black, as well as fancy colors. East of Alpine about three miles distance, is to be found a fine grade of white marble which is easily worked. Within the corporate limits of Alpine there is a hill 300 feet high and about one mile long, which has a great deal of fine gray building stone, easily quarried. About 12 miles east of Alpine is a large mountain of beautiful gray granite, while at Marathon gray granite is being quarried and shipped by the carload.

Cinnabar or quicksilver is found over a territory of about 30 miles, running east and west, in what is known as the Terlingua district. Over $2,000,000 worth of quicksilver has been taken from the mines in this district. Gold, silver, copper, lead and iron are also found in the mineralized district of Brewster county. Recently some rich gold ore has been taken out almost in town. Fine specimens of coal and good indications for oil are found in various portions of the county.

Churches and Schools.

Seven of the religious denominations are represented in Alpine. They are Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Christian, Episcopal, Catholic and Church of Christ. Alpine is also well represented with the fraternal orders, having the Masons, Woodmen of the World, Praetorians, Knights of Pythias, Woodmen Circle and Odd Fellows.

The educational facilities are of the best. Alpine having a $35,000 high school building. The faculty consists of 12 university and college men and women. Alpine also has a summer normal which is recognized as one of the leading institutions of its kind in Texas.

Energetic Business Men.

All lines of merchandising are well represented with energetic business men, there being three drug stores, several general merchandise stores, two lumber yards, a wholesale grain store, piano store, furniture store, undertaking establishment, numerous small dry goods stores and grocery stores, and two thriving banks. All of these having permanent structures in which they are transacting their business.

Alpine also has a steam laundry, telephone system, ice and electric light manufacturing establishments, a cement block factory, a brick yard, bakery, a $25,000 hotel, wood working shop, two newspapers, saddle, harness, boot and shoe manufactory.

Three livery stables and two garages take care of the travel and make it easy to reach any point on short notice. Alpine has telephone connections with all the neighboring towns, including three county seats.

Expensive, That

Texarkana, Tex., Oct. 26.—The Bowie County jury awarded G. W. Brawer $1,000 damages against the Texas and Pacific railway today because it was alleged, a brakeman pinched his wife's arm and offered an insult to her as she was stepping aboard the train.

"Star Brand" Shoes Are Made Of Good Leather

We could reduce the cost of "Star Brand" shoes 10 to 40 cents per pair by using substitutes for leather in the heels, counters and soles and the wearer would never detect the deception until after the shoes are worn.

But we continue our policy to make every pair of "Star Brand" shoes of good leather. No substitutes for leather are ever used.

Substitutes for leather are made to imitate leather as nearly as possible but the best of these substitutes cost only about one-fourth as much as the poorer grades of leather.

The price of leather is higher than it has been in many years. Leather shoes cost more.

If any salesman tells you prices haven't been advanced it will pay you to make him cut up a few pair so you can see what is in them.

OPPOSES POLITICAL CONTROL OF UNIVERSITIES.

Waco, Texas, October.—Dr. S. P. Brooks, President of Baylor University, who is a close student of economic affairs in Texas, recently made a report to the Texas Welfare Commission in which he showed in a startling and convincing manner that while Texas has the largest permanent fund for education of any state in the Union, we actually spend less per capita and less per student than all other states. Dr. Brooks was chairman of the Committee on Education appointed by the Commission to investigate our educational system and his report is a result of a close and searching investigation into affairs educational.

In a table submitted by Dr. Brooks, it is shown that the per cent school population enrolled in school in Texas is 65.46 per cent as compared with an average in other states of 72 per cent. Comparing Texas with California, which is one of the most advanced states in the Union in the matter of education, he shows that our expenditure per capita of average attendance is $18.55, while that of California is $29.01. The expenditure per capita of entire population in Texas is $2.71, compared with $7.05 in California.

Dr. Brooks sounds a note of warning to the people against political control of our institutions of learning and pleads for a more liberal support of all our schools and colleges.

Houston, Tex., Oct. 29.—Fifty persons were injured at noon today while watching the Barnum and Bailey circus parade when an old wooden awning in front of the opera house bar fell with 200 spectators, who were standing on it.

Are You Contesting?

The fourth annual convention of the Texas Industrial Congress will be held in Dallas in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce, Thursday, December 12, 1912. The principal feature will be the awarding of the $10,000 in gold prizes offered by the Congress for best yields of corn, cotton, kaffir corn and milo maize produced in the state this year.

The prizes offered are divided into four classes. $5,000 in cash are to be given to the twenty-nine contestants in class A who produce the largest combined yields of cowpeas, kaffir corn or milo maize, cotton and corn on ten acres. The first prize in this class is $1000, second, $750, third $500, fourth $250, and twenty-five of $100 each.

In class B $1,500 are offered to the boys and girls of the state who make the best yield from one acre of corn. The prize money is divided as follows: $250 to the first; $125 to the second; $75 to the third; $50 to the fourth and $25 each to the next forty winning contestants. $150 will also be awarded to the boys and girls in class C who produce the largest yield of cotton on one acre, and the prizes are the same as those offered for corn.

Twelve prizes, aggregating $1,000, are offered in class D for the best yields of kaffir corn or milo maize grown on two acres without irrigation, and similar awards will be made in class E for the same crops grown by irrigation.

There are altogether 143 prizes and these have been competed for by more than four thousand contestants from 265 counties in the state. The prize-winning contestants will have an exhibit of samples of their crops. All the railroads of the state will grant reduced round trip rates to Dallas on account of the convention, and a very large attendance is expected.

Stand Ahead.

There is something about Hunt's Lightning Oil that no other liniment possesses. Others may be good, but it is surely the best. It does all you recommend it for and more. For sprains, cuts, bruises, aches and pains it has no equal on earth. It stands head on my medicine shelf.

Very truly yours,

OSTEOPATHY

In the bright lexicon of Osteopathy there is no such word as "rub." Osteopathic treatment corrects the mal-adjustments which cause the perverted functioning or diseased condition. The treatment is adapted to the strong as well as the new-born babe. The treatment is not given next to the skin and cannot be classified as massage, rubbing, or any other superficial treatment, as the prejudiced and those ignorant of the treatment would have you believe.

Laws for Women.

Texas is being waked up by one little, lone woman—a Mrs. Darwin,—who is wielding her pen in the press of the state to show the "Legal Status of Women in Texas." One incident she relates is of a woman who had to resort to sewing to help support the family because the father drank and did not work. To quote:

"After going out by the day for a time, she saw that she could add more to her profits by sewing at home. To do this, however, she must purchase a sewing machine. She found an agent who agreed to sell her a machine for a small cash payment, the balance to be paid at the end of a certain period. The mother proud of her new means of independence went bravely to work, sewing the day through and late into the night. Each week she deposited her little profits, after the drain of the home expense was met. At the time agreed upon to pay the agent, when she could feel the burden lifted and could call the machine her very own, she went to the bank to draw out her savings, when lo! she was told her husband had been there before her. The money was gone!"

Are there those among our readers who would like to live through just such circumstances? No? If not willing to do it themselves, are they willing to see other sisters do it? If not, have they any moral part in making different such conditions?—Farmer's Wife.

GENERAL FELIX DIAZ SENTENCED TO BE SHOT

Supreme Bench to Decide Whether Military or Civil Authorities Should Take Charge.

Mexico City, Oct. 27.—Gen. Felix Diaz, leader of the revolution recently inaugurated in Vera Cruz, and three of his confederates, have been sentenced to death by the court martial, before which they were tried in that city.

At the same time word of the verdict against Diaz was received came the report that the military court had decided to recognize the order of suspension of sentence upon the revolutionary leader granted by the Supreme Court, pending investigation as to whether the trial of Diaz should be by military or civil court. Popular apprehension regarding the fate of Diaz has not been greatly allayed, however, by this action of the court martial.

Friends of Diaz here fear the consequences of the conflict of authority which has arisen between the judicial and military courts. If the military court observes the order of the civil authorities the final disposition of the case will be long postponed. But it would be no surprise to thousands here to receive a message announcing the execution of the rebel General and his associates.

Appeals from Prominent People.

Efforts to save their lives, especially that of Diaz, continue unabated. Prominent women, men high in affairs, members of Congress and even high army officers, have appealed to President Madero for clemency, but to all he has given the same negative answer. To a group of women he intimated that to show clemency would be construed by the world as an indication of weakness. He cited as an example that when he captured Juarez, he pardoned Gen. Navarro, which action the world attributed to weakness, instead of magnanimity.

The popular voice of protest has grown so strong against the execution of Diaz that there has arisen between the President and Senate a sharp discord and, as individuals, the Senators have seriously discussed the question of impeachment, because of the administration's defiance of that body's interpellation Friday. That the Senate will take this step, however, is not considered probable for many reasons, one of them being the question of succession.

An incident showing the popular attitude occurred at Chepultepec on the occasion of a visit of a committee of women who pleaded for the lives of the condemned men. When leaving the castle they were cheered by cadets of the military college quartered in the same building.

That the quick suppression of the Diaz revolt has shown strength on the part of the Government is conceded in the capital, but that the situation generally has been improved is a matter of doubt.

The Osteopath has in his power a system of handling diseases that is incomparably more efficacious than any other method known or practiced today. The success obtained in both acute and chronic diseases is very marked, and the very diseases which medicine owns it cannot help, are relieved wonderfully and often cured by the Osteopath.

BROOKS DECLARES FOR COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

Waco, Texas, October.—In a report submitted to the Texas Welfare Commission by Dr. E. P. Brooks, President of Baylor University and Chairman of the Committee on Education appointed by the Commission to investigate educational affairs in this state, a strong plea is made for higher education and for the advancement and enlargement of Texas educational institutions into a broader scope of educational work. "Too long have Texans lulled themselves to sleep in contemplation of their great public school fund, trying to believe that there was nought for the present generation to do but drink at the fountain prepared by the fathers," says Dr. Brooks' report.

"Our university might as well take its place as a world institution, as its officers and professors can do. Its buildings and grounds should be planned on a scale that will attract the best educational architects of the world. Its departments should embrace the whole field of known university knowledge and be ready to discover and adopt every other method now hid from the mind of man. Twenty million people will be in Texas in a few years. Our university should not only have departments of art, law, medicine, labor, commerce, and engineering, but should project a school of mines and forestry."

Dr. Brooks appeals for a standardization of all public and private institutions that give the well known college degree and declares for some wise system of compulsory education.

IMPROVED FARMING.

Buffalo Gap Young Lady Makes Hit Farming Under Government Plans.

F. A. Peel, United States Agricultural Agent for this county, says he has plenty of proof of the effectiveness of the government system of farming in this county, but Buffalo Gap furnishes a unique example of a young lady, Miss Katie Booker, excelling her father, C. P. Booker, in making cotton.

Mr. Booker worked under the old system and his daughter followed the instructions of Mr. Peel, and the result was that Miss Katie has off two acres of cotton gathered, one bale weighing 668 pounds of the staple and has enough yet to gather from the 2-acre tract to make out a yield of one and a half 500 pound bales, while the father will average a bale to four acres.—Abilene Reporter.

The Shortage of Cattle.

Ft. Worth, Oct. 21.—There will be a shortage of over 500,000 head in cattle receipts at the principal markets for the current year, is the opinion of the leading Northern packers, said H. E. Finney of Armour & Co., who has just returned from a trip north. The markets, in some of the cities, are suffering from a cattle shortage and it is sure there will be much more acute conditions before the ranges can bring relief. The Chicago market shows a deficiency of 184,000, Kansas City of 185,000 and Omaha of 145,000. At the less important markets the loss is 63,000. Fort Worth is the only big market showing a gain, the increase to date for the year being 82,000. Denver shows an increase of 35,000.

Paris, Texas. I the undersigned, take pleasure in stating that I have used Cheatham's Chill Tonic and a few doses broke a severe case of chills and fever on me about six weeks ago, and I have had none since. I consider it the best medicine for the purpose I ever used.

After the Orient Road.

Rumors of a mighty conflict between several great railroads for the possession of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient, now in the hands of receivers, were current in Fort Worth yesterday. The general impression was that the Santa Fe and the Chicago & Alton were the railroad giants between whom possession of the coveted road lay.

That the Orient will be sold, and shortly, is conceded by most railroad authorities. That it is desired by many roads is also certain for, when completed, it will offer the shortest transcontinental route from the Missouri river to Mexico City.—Ft. Worth Record.
