THIRTY-FOURTH YEAR.

SNYDER, SCURRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 1920.

NUMBER NINE

Joseph W. Bailey Eligible to Be Governor?

There is a question that comes up in the race for the nomination for governor in the second primary the first of this month that should be directed to the attention of all good citizens and all voters who have interest for the welfare of the state; to attention of all voters who realize that the privilege of voting carries with it responsibilities as to the effect of their vote upon the peace and welfare of the people of our state.

We live under a democratic form of government where the people by their votes and through representatives that they select, determine the peace and political destinies of the state.

We have a fundamental law that has been adopted by the votes of the people, which is commonly called the state constitution. This constitution cannot be changed by the legislature or the governor or the courts of the state, but only by the vote of the people themselves, and only when the proposed change is submitted to the people to vote in the manner that is provided in its constitution itself.

Now, section 4 of article 4 of our constitution reads as follows: "Section 4.—The governor shall be elected on the first Tuesday after the organization of the legislature, and shall hold his office for the term of two years, or until his successor shall be duly installed. He shall be at least thirty years of age, a citizen of the United States, and have resided in this state at least five years immediately preceding his election."

It is a part of the fundamental law of our state. It is the fundamental law, and all of it, that applies to the qualification of Joseph W. Bailey to serve as governor of the state of Texas, so far as the matter of residence is concerned.

There is a difference between being a citizen of a country and a resident of that country. Our country is the United States and we are citizens of the United States, as such citizens reside in Texas, laws for naturalizing foreigners national laws that have been enacted by the national congress. The matter of citizenship is a national matter. So you see that, correctly speaking, we are not citizens of Texas; we are citizens of the United States and reside in Texas.

There is no question against Joseph W. Bailey being a citizen of the United States. He is just as much a citizen while he has been living in the city of Washington as he was when he was living in the State of Missouri.

But if you will notice that the question raised by section 4, quoted above, is not one of citizenship but of residence. You believe that Mr. Bailey lived in Texas for the past five years, when everybody that has any inquiry about the matter asks that he has lived as a private citizen in his own home with his family in the city of Washington for the past seven or eight years. Mr. Bailey himself has no claim in the public prints on his speeches that he can qualify as governor under our state constitution.

When the question was put to him on this, he said: "We will leave it to the people." But the people on the 28th of August cannot decide it in favor, because the question of amending the constitution in this respect is not before the people to be decided upon at that time. The people cannot amend the constitution, but the constitution itself provides how the matter must be submitted.

It is not a question of citizenship of Joseph W. Bailey; we understand he has been a citizen of the United States all of his life; part of time he was a citizen of the United States residing in the state of Mississippi, then he was such a citizen living in Texas, and for the last ten or eight years he has been a citizen of the United States residing in the District of Columbia in which the capital of the United States is located.

It is not a question of paying a tax, for said section 4 does not require any requirement for poll tax

Tennessee's Casting Vote.

The legislature of Tennessee was called to meet in special session this week and the first thing on the calendar was ratification of the woman suffrage amendment to the federal constitution. When Tennessee steps into line she will be the 36th state and national woman suffrage will have been established.

It will go to the credit of the democratic party, whether actually so or not. As a matter of fact it has been cited that more republican than democratic states have ratified the amendment, yet when it had come down to the final act of supreme importance, it has looked like the republican leaders had begun to shy at it, and the democratic leaders threw their influence to Tennessee to bring about the final action.

Methodist Church.

The purpose of the Sunday school is to make people more Christ-like in character. Shall we not all join in that higher purpose? The Sunday school will look for you next Sunday morning.

We will not have any preaching service next Sunday on account of the revival at the tabernacle.

We were very glad indeed to welcome into our church the past two Sundays the following new members:

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Thompson, Mr. R. E. Richardson, Mrs. G. S. Cook, Mrs. T. W. Stephens, Mrs. Walter Merrill, Lucy Pauline Merrill and Fred Merrill.

J. H. Hicks, Pastor.

What a Crowell Man Thinks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bird of Foard county were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Noble. Mr. Bird said the people in his county are badly put to it to get their wheat shipped. In fact, they can't get it done, because they can't get cars. He made a trip recently down the Denver road to Fort Worth and in every town he found the same condition of car shortage. It is hard to understand why this is so, since the cars that were commandeered to haul war material have been released. Heretofore, the railroad people said the government had control over the roads and they could do nothing. Now the owners have the roads and conditions continue to be bad.

To Open Fish and Oyster Parlor.

Pat Brown of the Chocolate Shop returned Wednesday from Fort Worth where he has been buying fixtures for the purpose of opening up an up-to-date fish and oyster parlor. Pat says they want to have everything ready to open about the 10th of September.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Grimes left Sunday for the Eastern markets to purchase their fall dry goods for the big store.

payments in order to be eligible to be governor of Texas.

But it is a question of residence. Can a man actually reside in Washington city and actually have his abode there as a private citizen for at least seven or eight years, and then by the simple process of paying poll taxes in Texas blot it all out, repeal the constitution of Texas, declare it all a dream, and show up as a resident of Texas for the last five years?

Mr. Bailey says he will leave it to the people, so all the people can do is to stay by their constitution and vote Joe Bailey down, because he cannot qualify under the constitution. Read the latter part of said section 4 again, and decide whether or not you, as a patriotic citizen and one who has the welfare of the interests of your state at heart, will knowingly vote for a candidate who cannot qualify.

Being ineligible to qualify as governor the state committee would be fully justified in ordering his name left off the primary ticket, but this would raise a howl from his worshippers and defy him as a martyr in the eyes of some people; so the best thing to do is to bury him in political oblivion on the 28th.

Why should some people want to select a non-resident to be our governor? Why want to import a governor when there are plenty of good men and true living in the state who can fill the office with credit and distinction? C. R. Buchanan.

The Revival Meeting.

The Christian revival meeting at the Tabernacle commenced last Sunday with the Fife brothers in charge. The people are attending well and the services are interesting and uplifting. The song service is led by Bob Fife and is fine.

The preacher is earnest and forceful and presents the gospel in a plain and simple way to convince his hearers of the importance of getting right. In his preaching and in social intercourse Elder Fife is a man of simple, unostentatious bearing.

Republican Paper Supports Bailey.

San Antonio, Texas.—Local republicans are discussing with considerable interest an editorial announcement by the Texas Republic (republican) of this city in favor of former Senator Bailey for governor. The Republic says that it would be to the advantage of Texas republicans to support Mr. Bailey, rather than attempt to put out their own nominee, because, should Bailey be elected, they would have a friend in the governor's office. The Republic's view is not shared by George Pridden of Houston, who is visiting in the city, and who says that a republican candidate will be placed in the field.

R. B. Creager of Brownsville, one of the original Texas Harding men, also is in favor of a republican gubernatorial nominee.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Morrow of Foch were in the city Tuesday.

The El Feliz Club.

The El Feliz club met at the beautiful home of Mrs. H. G. Towle on Friday, August 6. The home was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns. After a brief business session the club adjourned, after which a very enjoyable social hour was spent in playing forty-two.

The hostess served a two-course luncheon to the club members and the following guests: Mrs. E. B. Barnes, Mrs. C. R. Buchanan, Mrs. Dixie Smith, Mrs. Hugh Taylor, Mrs. E. E. Matthews, Mrs. W. W. Gross, Mrs. Billie Arnold, Eastland; Mrs. Bob Warren, Post; Mrs. Fritz R. Smith, Austin; Mrs. Chas. Cooper, El Paso; Miss Hal Godley, Henrietta.

Women in Party Line-Up.

It isn't creditable to American gallantry, nor is it supported by recent history, to say that the white women of the United States will be tied up to the political party that gave them the voting franchise. American women are intelligent and independent. There are democrats and republicans among women the same as among men and they are apt to align with their same affiliations. They may not like some of their party tenets, but in that event they are apt to be debarred from and conditions and policies may be changed for the better, as they may see it.

Austin Erwin went on a trip the first of the week to Lamesa and other towns on the plains.

O. Henry's short stories have proven again and again to be ideal material for the screen. One of the most popular tales he has ever written, "A Double-Eyed Deceiver," has been pictured with Jack Pickford in the star role, and may be seen here Thursday at the Cozy Theatre. It has all the O. Henry charm—the vivid characterization, the smooth action, the tingling thrills and the electric climax—a picture you can't afford to miss.

J. H. Sears & Co. Spreading Out.

Mrs. J. H. Sears and son, Forest, are now in the Eastern markets for the big new remodeled store of J. H. Sears & Co.

This house has doubled in capacity the two adjoining stores having been converted to one and is being arranged for convenience and efficiency. The rear of the south side will be exclusively for women's shoes and the front of this side will be the men's department. The dress goods will occupy the north side of the north building, notions on the other side and the millinery at the same place as heretofore.

The front will be rebuilt and will have but one entrance, a wide door opening in between two large show windows. As now being refitted it will be an attractive, up-to-the-hour store, and complete in all its parts.

Base Ball.

Friday of last week our local boys met the Roscoe team at Wolf Park for a fast game of ball, but to our disappointment, it turned out to be an easy walkover for Snyder. Our boys landed on the Roscoe twirlers for six clean hits, two scratch hits, one sacrifice. The special feature of the game was two clean home runs hit by Werner and Davis of the Snyder team. The game closed with a score of 7 to 1, for Snyder.

Monday and Tuesday of this week Snyder played at Plainview, losing both games. Monday, Plainview 5, Snyder 3; Tuesday, Plainview 4, Snyder 3. They were both fast visits is supposed to have one of the fastest, if not the fastest, teams on the plains, and we feel that we have no cause to lose any of our confidence in our team, neither do we believe Plainview can repeat the dose on our home grounds.

Wednesday our boys showed the old pep by defeating Lubbock, another of the fast teams on the plains, by a score of 6 to 5. We have one of the best teams in West Texas. Let's pull together and give them our support.

Snyder Hotel Changes Hands.

Mr. H. C. Greenfield, who has had the Snyder Hotel for some time, has sold out to Mr. Gideon, who will take charge about the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Greenfield will make a trip into New Mexico, returning to their old home at Dermott.

First Baptist Church.

Sunday school at 9:30. Preaching service at 10:30 and 7:30. Sunbeam band at 5. Girls' auxiliary at 3:30 Wednesday afternoon.

The pastor will be home for Sunday morning service, but will dismiss Sunday night service so you may attend the meeting now in progress.

Had a good crowd in Sunday school last Sunday. Be sure to come next Sunday and be on time.

The meeting in which the pastor has been engaged was a great spiritual uplift to all who attended. Don't forget to pray for him in your private devotions, as well as in your meetings. W. H. Sims, Pastor.

Piano Teaching.

Miss Irene Clark of Corsicana will be here Aug. 17 for the purpose of teaching piano, and will give a recital soon after. Those wishing to see her may do so by calling at the Methodist parsonage. 9

W. W. Early returned Thursday from an extended visit to Emporia, Kansas, Kansas City and Van Buren, Ark., returning by way of Dallas to attend the state republican convention. He sends the Signal to his father at Van Buren, Ark.

A. J. Kemp of Foch was here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thrane Entertain.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Thrane, on Scarborough Street, was the scene of a splendid party on Friday evening, the occasion being a forty-two party given in honor of their friends, Mrs. C. D. Morrell of Post, Mrs. Fritz R. Smith of Austin, and Mrs. Charles Cooper of El Paso, who are visiting in the city.

As indicative of the unlimited hospitality of the Thranes, the guests were entertained on the lawn, and it was tactically understood that they had entree to everything intervening between the two boundaries of sky and earth.

The soft green grass under foot made a rich carpet; a string of electric lights reached from one end of the lawn to the other; following the line of the lights upon the grass were dotted here and there two rows of tables; the evening breezes gently stirred the boughs of the shade trees, making the temperature delightfully cool and refreshing.

In a shady nook underneath a large tree, camouflaged by a bank of flowers, was the punch bowl, and Mrs. Orville Dodson dispensed punch from this station. From a hidden source somewhere nearby, strains of delightful music proceeded. Nature and art had contributed to make it an impressive scene.

The host and hostess and each of those assisting in emphasizing the welcome of the home, were in their best spirits; the contagion spread rapidly to the guests, and soon fifteen tables of players were threading their way through the intricacies of progressive forty-two, now advancing, now receding, now favored, now the rejected, of the fickle dame, Chance. With victory and defeat about equally balanced, incentives were born, and occasionally players were found drawing on their gray matter in an effort to pull down the balances on the victory side. These brain power concentrations, however, were only used at the head table, but Madam Chance presided there, and she had no favorites for the evening.

On occasions such as this, time does not move by the old style process of flying. It was as if by wireless that the hour of eleven obtained, and the players were asked to desist.

Then came a delightful interval of summing up the situation, followed by the serving of refreshments. Brick cream, white cake and bonbons were served from pretty little baskets of green and white tied with yellow tulle at the top.

An added charm to the scene was the appearance of pretty children, daintily dressed, who glided fairy-like among the guests, according them every attention. These little ladies were: Misses Louise Morrell of Post, and Helen Boren and Marguerite Adamson, our well known Snyder girl.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. Bob Warren of Post and Miss Hallie Godley of Henrietta.

Soon goodbyes were spoken, and all that was left of the delightful evening's entertainment was a pleasant memory. A Guest.

Bailey Speaking.

Hon. J. F. Cunningham of Abilene, one of the most noted attorneys in West Texas, will speak in Snyder Saturday afternoon in behalf of Senator Bailey. Every one is invited to attend and hear the issues discussed.

Who Can Go.

T. G. Marks of Tahoka was here Saturday to see about reconstituting the Farmers' Institute. Nothing much was done about it except to leave to President J. H. Day to find who can go as delegates to the farmers' congress at College Station.

Piano Teaching.

Miss Irene Clark of Corsicana will be here Aug. 17 for the purpose of teaching piano, and will give a recital soon after. Those wishing to see her may do so by calling at the Methodist parsonage. 9

Mrs. Jocie Wennenger, who has been clerking for the Watkins firm since its establishment in Snyder, has resigned and will move to Fort Worth in the near future.

The Baltimore American has found out that the Garden of Eden may soon be reclaimed. What if it should be? The average American wouldn't be allowed to stay there more than 24 hours.

With an abundant feed crop, and a bumper cotton crop here this year, and the people nearly out of debt, we are going to see business hum in West Texas when fall time comes, no matter who may be elected governor.

No matter how circumspectly one may live, he is apt to be criticised by somebody.

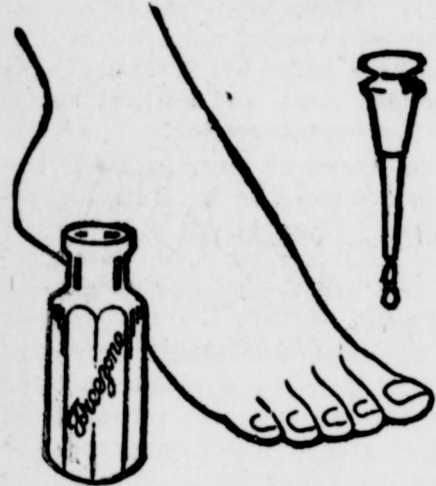

Don't fall out with your neighbor just because you may not think alike. Remember, he has just as much right to be mad at you, as you at him.

Garden of Eden May Soon Be Reclaimed.

Turkestan is, of course, primarily an agricultural country, and cotton the major crop. The other industries still await development. There is a tremendous field for the cultivation of vineyards and rice and other cereals. At the same time the development of agriculture will greatly stimulate the sheep raising industry, which is now in the hands of primitive natives, uninstructed in modern methods. The fruit industry awaits the guarding hands of modern science. With the help of

There has been considerable comment recently of a reported visit by Joe W. Bailey to the republican headquarters in Fort Worth, and now since republicans are thinking of giving their support to Mr. Bailey, it begins to look like the ex-senator may have gone there on business.

Baptist Ladies' Bible Class.

The Baptist ladies' adult Bible class met for a business session at Mrs. S. J. Casstevens Thursday afternoon. The meeting was opened with a song followed by prayer by Mrs. Casstevens.

Dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. McGuinn.

The business was all attended to promptly, and a very joyful session was held.

Motor Rural Carrier Examination.

The United States civil service commission has announced an examination for the county of Scurry, Texas, to be held at Snyder on Sept. 11, 1920, to fill the position of motor rural carrier at Snyder and vacancies that may later occur on motor rural routes from post offices in the above mentioned county. The salary on motor routes ranges from $1500 to $1800 per annum. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory supplied with mail by a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Forms 2121 and 1977. Form 2121 may be seen posted at any post office in the county for which the examination is held, and Form 1977 and application blanks may be obtained from the offices at which the vacancy exists and where the examination is to be held, or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. The appointee to this position will be required to furnish, maintain and operate a modern motor vehicle with a carrying capacity of not less than 800 pounds and a cubic capacity of not less than 80 feet. Applicants must file with their applications a statement of the equipment they will be able to provide in the event of appointment. Applications should be forwarded to the commission at Washington, D. C., at the earliest practicable date.

This route pays $2600 per annum, 15 days annual vacation with pay, and 10 days sick leave with pay.

Authorizin One and one-Half Per Cent Ad Valorem Tax by Cities and Towns of Five Thousand or Less Population.
Senate Joint Resolution No. 12.

Proposing an amendment to Section 4 of Article XI of the Constitution increasing the total tax rate that may be levied by cities and towns having a population of five thousand or less from one-fourth of one per cent to not exceeding one and one-half per cent, and making appropriation therefor.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 4, Article XI of the Constitution be so amended as hereafter to read as follows:

Section 4. Cities and towns having a population of five thousand or less may be chartered alone by general law. They may levy, assess and collect such taxes as may be authorized by law, but no tax for any purpose shall ever be lawful for any one year which shall exceed one and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city; and all taxes shall be collectible only in current money, and all licenses and occupation taxes levied, and all fines, forfeitures and penalties accruing to said cities and towns shall be collectible only in current money.

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1920, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "For the amendment of Section 4, Article XI of the Constitution increasing the total tax rate that may be levied by towns and cities having a population of five thousand or less from one-fourth of one per cent to not exceeding one and one-half per cent of any one year," and all voters opposed to said amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "Against the amendment of Section 4, Article XI of the Constitution increasing the total tax rate that may be levied by towns and cities having a population of five thousand or less from one-fourth of one per cent to not exceeding one and one-half per cent of any one year."

Section 3. The governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and to have the same published as required by the Constitution and existing laws of the State.

Section 4. That the sum of five Thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

Relating to the Manner of Compensation of Public Officials.
House Joint Resolution No. 7.

A joint resolution of the Legislature of the State of Texas, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State by adding to Article 16 thereof a new Section, to be known as Section 60; providing for the compensation of public officials.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That there is hereby added to Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, a new section to be known as Section 60 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, which shall read as follows:

Section 60. Compensation of Public Officials: All State, district, county and precinct officers within this State shall receive as compensation for their services a salary, the amount of which, the terms and methods of payment and the fund out of which such payments shall be made, shall be ascertained, declared and fixed by the Legislature from time to time; provided that the Legislature may make such exceptions as it may deem advisable.

This section shall supersede all other provisions of this constitution fixing and declaring the compensation of officers by salary, fees or otherwise and all provisions for salaries or other compensation for public officials, executive, legislative or judicial.

Section 2. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to cause to election this amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of this State for adoption or rejection and shall make the publication required by the constitution and laws of the State. Said election shall be held under and in accordance with the General Election Laws of the State, and the ballots for said election shall have written or printed thereon in plain letters, the following words:

"Official Ballot" "For the amendment to Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, adding thereto Section 60, providing for compensation of public officials." "Against the amendment to Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, adding thereto Section 60, providing for compensation of public officials."

Those voters who favor such amendment shall erase by marking a line through the words "Against the amendment to Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing compensation for public officials." Those who oppose such amendment shall erase by marking a line through the words "For the amendment to Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing compensation for public officials." And the result of the election shall be published and declared according to the majority of the votes cast in such election.

Section 3. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses of the proclamation and publication of this amendment and the election to be held hereunder.

Relating to Taxation by School Districts.
Senate Joint Resolution No. 17.

Proposing an amendment to Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by exempting independent and common school districts from the limitation of a total tax of one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation for any one year, and making an appropriation therefor.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution be so amended as hereafter to read as follows: (Creating a new Section 3.)

Section 3. One-fourth of the revenue derived from the State occupation taxes and a poll tax of one ($1.00) dollar on every inhabitant of this state, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, shall be set apart annually for the benefit of the public free schools; and in addition thereto, there shall be levied and collected an annual ad valorem state tax of such an amount not to exceed thirty-five cents on the one hundred ($100.00) dollars valuation, as with the available school fund arising from all other sources, will be sufficient to maintain and support the public schools of this State for a period of not less than six months in each year, and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to set aside a sufficient amount out of the said tax to provide free text books for the use of the children attending the public free schools of this State; provided, however, that should the limit of taxation herein named be insufficient the deficit may be met by appropriation from the general funds of the state and the legislature may also provide for the formation of school districts by general or special law without the local notice required in other cases of special legislation; and all such school districts, whether created by general or special law may embrace parts of two or more counties. And the legislature shall be authorized to pass laws for the assessment and collection of taxes in all said districts and for the management and control of the public school or schools of such districts, whether such districts are composed of territory wholly within a county or in parts of two or more counties. And the legislature may authorize an additional ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within all school districts heretofore formed, or hereafter formed, for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection and equipment of school buildings therein; provided, that a majority of the qualified property tax-paying voters of the district voting at an election to be held for that purpose, property subject to taxation in such district, but the limitation upon the amount of school district tax herein authorized shall not apply to incorporated cities or towns constituting separate and independent school districts, nor to independent or common school districts created by general or special law.

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1920, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "For the Amendment to Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing that the limitation upon the amount of school district tax of one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation shall not apply to independent or common school districts created by general or special law."

Section 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue necessary proclamation for election and to have same published as required by the Constitution existing laws of the State.

Section 4. That the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of publication and election.

FIFE CAMPAIGN ON IN FULL SWING

Evangelists Preaching and Singing To Delight Of People. Here for Good of Entire City. Snyder likes them immensely. Mr. Fife praises Snyder people.

Evangelist Clyde Lee Fife, a union evangelist of Robinson, and his brother, Mr. Robert S. Fife of Texhoma, Okla., are doing their city some high class preaching and singing of the more conservative in Snyder.

The Fife brothers arrived in Snyder Sunday morning and are in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Brown, whom they have known for twenty-five years, the father and the evangelist's father mother having been good friends.

Mr. Fife, the evangelist, is highly respected in his profession in a national way, having been many times elected to the board of directors of Inter-Denominational Association of Evangelists, Winona Lake, and also of the International Association of Christian Workers, Memphis Springs. He is one of the moderators of Winona Assembly Bible Conference and a preacher lecturer in demand on many circuits. This is his eighteenth successful evangelistic season and it is fair to be the best that he has known.

Robert S. Fife, choir master, and slide trombone soloist, has with his brother in the work in a national way for eleven years. They like him for his genial kindness and the choir is doing splendidly and the spirit of the revival is palpable.

Mr. Hill, a salesman from Paris, Tenn., was in the tabernacle Monday night, and told the business men: "You folks don't know what you have here. They woke up my town of Paris, Tenn. When Bob stepped out and blew that old slide trombone, it seemed that the bushes emptied out for miles around. Better hear them before too late. They held the biggest tabernacle campaign ever in Paris."

O. L. Howell Withdraws.
O. L. Howell returned Tuesday from Vaughn, New Mexico, where he has been elected as superintendent of city schools at that place. Mr. Howell is very enthusiastic over the work of his new field of work. He says they have just voted $75,000 in bonds for a new school building which will be modern in every respect. Mr. Howell, who was a candidate in the July primary for superintendent of public instruction of Scurry county, has been drawn from the race to take up old work in this new field. Mrs. Howell has also resigned as principal of the Colonial Hill ward school in this city to accept a position in Vaughn school with Mr. Howell. Mr. and Mrs. Howell have been associated with the educational institution of Scurry county for a number of years, and have ever striven to do the best interest of the community. We regret very much to see these good people move from our midst, but wish for them success in their new home.

Editor J. S. Hardy of the Signal returned Tuesday for a trip to Ennis. If the Signal seems a little bit backward this week you will know the reason why.

Alfred Peat's prize wall paper is the best, prices to suit. Window shades made to order. W. T. Peat. Leave orders at Snyder 511c.

This country and that Snyder will become the Wichita Falls of West Texas."

The business men like the Fife brothers and close their stores and banks each morning from ten to eleven so that all may attend the services.

People are already regretting that the evangelists can not remain longer than one more week, for their time for union and community campaigns is in great demand.

The services are in the big tabernacle or City Auditorium daily at ten and 7:30. On Sunday the evangelist will preach four of his best sermons. In the morning at eleven "What and Where is Heaven?" At 2:30 p. m., men only, sermon "Cleaning Up the Town." Four p. m., women only sermon "An Old Love Story." 7:30. "What Will You Do With Jesus?"

The Fife brothers have been asked to give one of their lyceum bureau concerts while here, the kind that they have given to the delight of the people for many years and they have promised to consider the matter.

Mr. Fife said: "I am delighted with the fine spirit of co-operation here. It is not 'dog eat dog' among the churches. But they are trying to make the Kingdom of God come to pass in this city. I like the spirit of Bro. Hicks and of all the churches of this city. All together, we can move this city for God."

As yet no call, for converts and reconsecrations has been given, but it may be expected soon, for the tide of the meeting rises steadily higher.

Many are discussing which sermon Mr. Fife has delivered that was most liked. Some think the one Sunday night on the "Divinity of Christ." Others the one Monday on "The Bible," while others contend for the one on "The Holy Spirit."

The singing of the two brothers together is a treat to the people. Their voices blend remarkably, and every word is intelligible.

The collections are going to pay the expenses of the campaign, for the evangelist stated that he would not accept a cent for his services until all these expenses had been fully met.

Mr. Hill, a salesman from Paris, Tenn., was in the tabernacle Monday night, and told the business men: "You folks don't know what you have here. They woke up my town of Paris, Tenn. When Bob stepped out and blew that old slide trombone, it seemed that the bushes emptied out for miles around. Better hear them before too late. They held the biggest tabernacle campaign ever in Paris."

Oil Development in Scurry.
Mr. J. T. Harris and C. A. Brandon returned Monday from Oklahoma, where they purchased two new drilling rigs for the Dunn oil field. One a Standard and the other a big rotary drill. Harris and Brandon state that as soon as these two rigs arrive, probably thirty days, they will begin drilling two new wells in the immediate vicinity of the well now being drilled. These new rigs are owned by Harris and Brandon, thus avoiding delays by contractors. They state that a car load of casing has arrived and as soon as other necessary tools arrive they expect to penetrate the 800 feet of sand that the drill is now standing on.
Some Snyder parties motored over to the Westbrook well Tuesday and report that contracts have been signed for four new wells, two of which will be on this side of the river. Reports are being circulated of two other locations being made in Scurry county near the Mitchell and Scurry county lines.

LIZARD EGGS HIGHLY PRIZED

The water monitor is one of the favorites of the natives of India, Ceylon and the Malay peninsula and the eggs of this species of lizard are more highly prized than hen's eggs.

You might shudder when you suddenly confronted a water monitor in the jungle. Not so the native, hunting its eggs and rejoicing to get near such treasures.

The monitor is equipped with a long forked tongue, extending from a sheath like a snake's. It is one of the largest of existing lizards, reaching a length of seven feet, although its nearest relative, the gigantic Australian monitor, grows from twelve to thirty feet long. The monitor lays twenty or more white, soft-shelled eggs in hollow trees, and in Burma these bring a much higher price than hen's eggs.

"The monitor is well fitted for its life," says a writer in the Scientific American. "It is a swift runner, able to overtake the speediest mammals, frogs, turtles and snakes on which it feeds. It often startles hunters by crashing through the jungle, making as much noise as large game. It climbs trees for squirrels, birds and their eggs. At other times it may be found digging along stream banks for the eggs of the crocodile, of which it is most fond. Either in running or swimming it can leave its enemies far behind. If surprised when up a tree it drops into the water, swimming with powerful strokes of its flattened tail, which acts as oars and rudder. When being captured it fights with teeth, claws and tail.

"The natives term the monitor 'Kabar-Goya.' Although it is harmless and non-poisonous, it is used to produce deadly poisons. The Singalese are experts in brewing a deadly poison termed 'Kabaratel.'

"They extract poisons from venomous snakes, adding arsenic and other drugs, boiling the combination in human skulls. And here the monitor comes in as a part of their superstition. They tie three monitors on three sides facing the fire. Then they torment the monitors with whips and make them hiss to cause the fire to blaze up. The natives believe that the hiss of the monitors adds to the poisonous quality of the deadly brew."

Making Airplane More Handy.

From Dayton, O., from whence came the news, at first incredible, that the problem of mechanical flight had been solved, now comes the news, almost as hard to believe, that there has been invented and successfully tested there a propeller for airplanes that has something of the diversity of action possessed by the motor organs of birds. The vanes of the new propeller, it is reported, are not immovable on the central shaft, but can be more or less changed as to angle with that shaft to meet the aviator's will or need.

If this has been done without introducing weakness that goes with complexity of mechanism, the operation of airplanes, especially at the enormously important moment of starting and alighting, will be improved exactly where it most needs improvement. Already wonderful things are done with these machines, but the sparrow that flies to and stops on a telegraph wire or a slender twig does something at which the most skillful aviator hitherto has looked in hopeless envy.

That a propeller with movable vanes would permit the emulation of the bird's achievements in rising and alighting is not obvious, but it certainly would be a step toward the ideal airship.

Of Course He Wants Money.

A German professor in whose family a young Englishman was living when the war broke out has now sent to the boy's father a bill which the London papers find amusing. The student's departure, on the outbreak of hostilities, was hurried, as can be imagined, and he was for long quite busy as a soldier and officer fighting Germans. Now his proud parent is reminded that not only did the boy owe something for board when he went away, but that he had made what custom counted a contract to continue boarding till the end of the scholastic half year. Also, he requested to remit English money, which the German professor prefers, evidently, to that of his own country.

The episode is not quite as funny as the London papers seem to think it is, for lodging and board received do create a debt, but the plea for recompense for the broken contract is naive in the true Teutonic way.—New York Times.

Defined—All Right.

The third-grade teacher was reading "Chanticleer" to the children. One boy did not seem to be giving attention and she thought perhaps he did not understand the story. So she decided to find out by a series of questions. The first one she asked was: "William, what is a chanticleer?" For a minute William was confused. He wriggled in his seat and then knowledge came to him and he returned: "Why a chanticleer is a hen that crows."

His Sensation.

"Well, sir, I didn't realize how green I was till I got here to Kay See and mingled a little," confessed the gent from Jimppson Junction. "But now, by hokey, I feel like an oasis in the midst of the great desert of this town."—Kansas City Star.

Utilizing Pea-Pod Fiber.

The fiber of pea-pods is separated for industrial use in a process covered by a recent patent. The outer layer is dissolved away by fermentation or by treatment with hot water or steam, the inner fibrous layer being left in a form adapted for spinning or utilization in other ways. The solution of the outer layer, containing sugar, is not necessarily a waste, as it can be made to serve some such purposes as preparing marmalade.

Fashion Traced to Moreau.

The nick in a coat has been a puzzler to many. It is said to date back to the time of Napoleon. A general named Moreau had many followers, but they were afraid to openly express sympathy with him. It was therefore agreed to put a nick on their coats as a secret sign. The letter M can be seen in the lapel representing the initial letter of the general's name.

Nature's Adaptation.

British mine-rescue investigators have made the curious discovery that while the average man is stimulated by the oxygen of their apparatus, no effect on miners is apparent. It is suggested that long work in a close atmosphere has given the lungs such full use of the available oxygen that an excess has no influence.

Rival Odors.

If you feel that you are experiencing hard luck, think of the Oregon man who recently completed a comfortable rose cottage on the seashore, when the sad sea waves washed up a dead whale in front of his home, and now he's decided that it will be cheaper to move the cottage than the whale.—Boston Transcript.

First Use of Water Colors.

Water colors were practically unknown in Europe until the eighteenth century, and they were used only as a vehicle in art. Fresco paintings were a natural outgrowth of their use. Water colors were employed by the artist in decorating many famous buildings. They took the place of oil colors.

Paradox.

Matherson surprised his friends at the club one evening by rising to leave much earlier than usual. "Why this haste?" said one of his friends. "The night is still young." "I know," replied Matherson; "but I promised my wife to be home by ten-thirty tonight and if I miss the last train I shall catch it!"

Saw Son Made President.

Mrs. Eliza Garfield was the first woman who ever saw her son inaugurated president of the United States. Washington's mother was living in Fredericksburg, Va., when the father of his country was inaugurated, but she did not witness the ceremony, which took place in New York.

Riches of the Incas.

The image of the sun, which the Incas worshipped, "was engraved on a massive plate of gold of enormous dimensions, thickly powdered with emeralds and precious stones." An effigy of the moon, the sun's supposed wife, was a vast plate of silver.

Cosmic Dust at Bottom of Sea.

It has been only lately discovered that cosmic dust forms layers at the bottom of the deepest seas. Between Honolulu and Tahiti, at a depth of 2,350 fathoms—over two miles and a half—a vast layer of this material exists.

Price and Percentage.

Increase of price when measured in percentage is very often incorrectly given. When the price doubles the increase is 100 per cent, but many people describe it as an increase of 50 per cent.

Cement Substitute for Lead.

Cement as a substitute for lead in connecting the joints of cast iron water pipes is employed in Portland, Ore., with great success.

Soda Imports.

About 900,000 tons of nitrate of soda are imported to the United States from Chile annually.

What's done as much as anything else to fill up the movie houses

LOOK at the crowds that step out of their cars in front of the movies every summer evening.

The movie managers would be renting half of their theatres for store space, if it weren't for the automobile.

II

It is typical of Americans that they took to the automobile as a matter of course — just as they have to the movies and to every other great invention of the last half century.

And the same thing has happened everytime. Taking things as they come is a fine way to foster waste and extravagance.

As regards tires, the comeback is about due. People are pretty near through paying for something that isn't there when they look for it.

III

What a man pays for in a tire is quality—not a limited number of miles or the privilege of getting a rebate in case the miles don't come up to the limit.

U. S. Tires are guaranteed as to quality—with no limitation of mileage.

And that holds just as good for the small car tire as for the biggest U. S. Tire we've got. There's only one standard of quality with U. S.—and the size of the car has nothing whatever to do with it.

IV

We represent U. S. Tires in this town. You'll find it worth while to talk to us before you buy any more tires.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

Nominees for Congress.

The personnel of the Texas delegation to congress and also the personnel of the state's nine courts of civil appeals will not be greatly changed as a result of the democratic primaries. The first primary on July 24 resulted in nominations for all congressional places except one, in the third district, where there will be a run off in the Aug. 28 primary. Nominations also resulted in the two contested courts of civil appeals races.

United States senate—Senators C. A. Culberson and Morris Sheppard, both holdovers.

Representatives to congress:
 First District—Eugene Black of Clarksville, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

Second District—John C. Box of Jacksonville, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

Third District—Run-off between Thomas R. Bond of Terrell and Morgan E. Sanders of Canton, neither having received a majority in the first primary, when there were four contestants.

Fourth District—Sam Rayburn of Bonham, incumbent, renominated over State Senator Ed Westbrook of Wolfe City.

Fifth District—Hatton W. Sumners of Dallas, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

Sixth District—Rufus Hardy of Corsicana, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

Seventh District—Clay Stone Briggs of Galveston, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

Eighth District—Daniel E. Garrett of Houston, nominated over Harry V. Fisher of Houston to succeed Joe Eagle of Houston, retiring.

Ninth District—J. J. Mansfield of Columbus, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

Tenth District—J. P. Buchanan of Brenham, incumbent, renominated with majority over both opponents.

Eleventh District—Tom Connally of Marlin, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

Twelfth District—Fritz Lanham of Fort Worth, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

Thirteenth District—Lucian W. Parris of Henrietta, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

of San Antonio, incumbent, renominated over former incumbent, James L. Slayden.

Fifteenth District—John N. Garner of Uvalde, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

Sixteenth District—C. B. Hudspeth of El Paso, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

Seventeenth District—Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene, incumbent, renominated, defeating R. N. Grisham of Eastland.

Eighteenth District—Marvin Jones of Amarillo, incumbent, renominated without opposition.

A Traveling Man's Experience.
 You may learn something from the following by W. H. Ireland, a traveling salesman of Louisville, Ky. "In the summer of 1888 I had a severe attack of cholera morbus. I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and to take no substitute. I took a double dose of it according to the directions and went to sleep. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping place, a well man." Mr. Vaughan, Farmer, Tells How He Lost All His Prize Seed Corn.
 "Some time ago sent away for some pedigreed seed corn. Put it in a gunny sack and hung it on a rope suspended from the roof. Rats got it all—how beats me, but they did because I got 5 dead whoppers in the morning after trying RAT-SNAP." Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by W. G. Ralston.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells and two children of Tahoka were guests last week of Mrs. Maud Marshall. They were enroute to Throckmorton.

C. A. Carder, G. O. Walker and R. E. Lintbeum of Ellis county were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Curry.

Jim May and C. J. Lovelace of Ennis were here early this week looking around over West Texas. These young men own the Pink Sims section near Crowder and were figuring on how to use it. It is a good proposition, no matter what they may decide to do.

Al Curry says his report of the hot weather last week will have to have something added, for while he was sweltering and trying to find a cool place another car load of old friends came in, and now he wants to add that the roads are awfully rough.

I want to sell my crop, 90 acres cotton and 12 acres of feed. Also two teams, lot of farm tools and two cows and calves. On Wellborn farm 15 miles west of Snyder. 8tf C. F. Neel.

A. S. Walker, internal revenue collector at Austin, has filed his resignation.

Mr. Herman Schuize of Hermleigh was in Snyder Saturday and paid financial respects to the Signal.

A. L. Barnett was here Saturday from Ira and reports losing three fat hogs. He can't tell what caused them to die. He says he never before saw hogs affected as they were.

Lieut. Weddington of Kelly field, San Antonio, took seven passengers up in an air plane to a height of 19,071 feet. It is said that this breaks all records.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Stinson have returned from visiting in East Texas. The weather was too hot for them over there. The Squire says he got all he could ask for in the way of eating and the folks seem contented. He says the boll weevil is beginning to work on the cotton.

Judge Watson was in Roby Saturday till Monday. He left Monday to be with Mrs. Watson, who is in a sanitarium at Paris. Mrs. Watson's condition has improved and she will probably have an operation this week. They will return to Roby as soon as she is able to come.—Roby Star-Record.

E. P. DeLoach, Jack Golden, Rev. J. W. McGaha and several other of the good citizens of Ira precinct were in Saturday to hear about that cotton at Houston.

H. M. Blackard and family have moved back to Wichita Falls. Since living for a while in an oil town, it seems Snyder is too quiet for them.

J. B. Curry has finished up his harvest work in Floyd county and is back in Snyder. We knew he could never forget the Snyder girls.

Scurry county has purchased ten Ford tractors through the Strayhorn Garage for a consideration of $6,000.00.

It begins to look like peace is a long way from a reality in Europe. It wouldn't look so bad for us if it were not that the same warring element that permeates that atmosphere is trying to poison this country.

Mrs. Nannie Chapman and son, Berry, returned last Thursday from Missouri after a two months' visit to relatives.

Mr. A. J. Kemp of Foch was in the city Tuesday transacting business and meeting of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McClung and family of Federick, Okla., and two Mesdames Polk of Royston, Fisher county, were in the city Tuesday, guests of their uncles, J. T. T. and Dr. Sed A. Harris.

J. K. Blackard made a business trip to Dallas the first of the week.

Mrs. Oliver McElyea left yesterday for Abilene to visit her brother.

The Unchangeable Circus Ring.

While a circus aims to introduce as many innovations as possible, there is one of its most important features has remained unchanged from time immemorial. This is the size of the ring, which is always forty-two feet nine inches in diameter.

Love Tokens.

When a New Guinea woman falls in love with a man she sends a piece of string to his sister, or, if he has no sister, to his mother. Then the lady who receives the string tells the favored man the particular woman is in love with him.

Morality's Foundation.

A Bible and a newspaper in every house, a good school in every district—all studied and appreciated as they merit—are the principal support of virtue, morality and civil liberty.—Franklin.

Women Give Out.

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Snyder woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Snyder woman's experience:

Mrs. M. Neal says: "A few years ago when I would bend over to pick up something, it was painful for me to straighten again, as the pain in the small of my back was so severe. I was greatly annoyed by the irregular action of my kidneys and mornings I would feel awfully tired and languid. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used by other members of my family with such good results that I took them. I only had to use one box of Doan's when my back was strengthened and my kidneys regulated. I take a few Doan's occasionally now as a preventive."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Neal had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ideals and Happiness.

Lasting happiness results from building ideals into concrete structures that minister to human happiness. The material things of the world have their worth, but even that depends upon the uses they are put to. Many a log valuable for furniture building has been used to fill swampy places over which cord-wood was hauled. And the same is true of ideals. To really count they must be fitted to good ends. Joy comes from projecting yourself into the future and the welfare of the race.

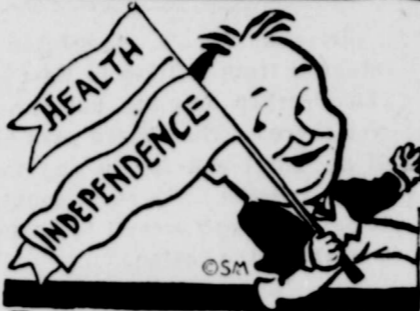

Mankind's Wastefulness.

Macquarie Island, sought by Sir Douglas Mawson as a sanctuary for the Antarctic fauna, is nearly 400 square miles in area, lying 900 miles from Tasmania, in latitude 55 degrees south. Penguins of various species, sea elephants and seals exist here in vast numbers, but are being ruthlessly slaughtered for their oil. A flightless parrot, living on the island when it was discovered in 1810, has been exterminated by cats turned loose and allowed to run wild.

Variety of Terms by Many Thought to Be Modern Can Be Found in "Don Quixote" and in Rabelais' Works.

"They now spurred on toward the inn, and soon overtook on the road a young fellow, beating it on the hoof pretty leisurely." "No, no, it shall never be said of me, the eaten bread is forgotten, or that I thought it working for a dead horse, because I am paid in advance." Extracts from a recent western novel? By no means; quotations from a world classic written 400 years ago.

In a recent reading of "Don Quixote" I have been struck by the fact that it is a vast storehouse of what we fondly believe to be American slang. And this is not by any twisting of the sense; the terms are used strictly in their modern significance. It is true that I do not read the book in its original tongue, but the translation is that of Peter Anthony Motteaux, and was made more than 200 years ago, so that it has a fair degree of antiquity. This Huguenot merchant, who settled in London after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes, picked up a remarkable knowledge of homely, idiomatic English, and his language is always racy of the soil.

"Take it from me, you will lose your labor," says the Knight of the Sorrowful (not Rueful or Woeful in Motteaux) Countenance to Donna Rodriguez, and this is one of his favorite phrases. "I had a mind to cabbage some of his cloth," confesses the tailor brought before Sancho as governor of his island of Barataria for judgment. When Altisidora sang her mock serenade to the incorruptible and unyielding knight, she declared herself a "virgin pullet," a "tender chicken," and thought that Dulcinea "well may brag of such a kid." "I had not cared a pin though she had died of the pip," was Sancho's philosophy, and he begs his master not to "die merely of the mulligrubs."

The squire complains that he had been "riboasted by above four hundred Moors," and admitted that it was not for "such scrubs as myself" to be mentioned the same day with knights-errant.

Although by his own admission a mere clown, Sancho says, "I know what's what, and have always taken care of the main chance." He tells his master that the latter "had the wrong sow by the ear;" his "belly cries cupboard;" he is "cocksure;" he believed that the giant in the adventure of the wine skins had "gone to pot," and he reproached the knight for not "going snacks" in his beatings. One of the galley slaves would have gone free for 20 ducats "to have greased the recorder's fist." The don chides his niece that she should "pre-sume to put in her oar and censure the histories of knights-errant."

Motteaux finished Sir Thomas Urquhart's partial translation of Rabelais. The Frenchman and the doughty Scottish cavalier had equal knowledge of Anglo-Saxon colloquialisms, and where can one find more racy, pungent, downright English than in these two master translations?—Frank W. Hoyt in New York Evening Post.

Flying Fox Australian Pest.

The flying fox has appeared in South Australia as a new fruit pest. Farmers have killed quite a number of these creatures. A correspondent at Port Wakefield writes: "This morning some crows, while marauding amongst the bushes near the rifle target, put up a flying fox, which took a direct course for the river, about a mile distant. The crows followed, but when the fox looped the loop amongst them they quickly flew in another direction. The flying fox appeared to be nearly 3 feet wide across the wings. It had a fair amount of speed on the wing and much resembled a bat." The flying fox, so-called because of its fox-shaped head, has been previously found in other parts of Australia and is sometimes known as the fruit bat.

An Everlasting Memorial.

Nature has a great part in this lasting and beautiful memorial, that is to be erected to the local service men in the city of Santa Monica, Cal. It is to be a large open-air theater, and will take the conventional Greek form, with seats arranged in concentric tiers, the orchestral area in the center and pillared stage at the bottom of the slope. As in the conventional theaters of ancient Greece, the site and background will be a beautiful wooded hillside.

The level area in the center will be floored with mosaic stone work. This beautiful tribute to the service men will, no doubt, be the pride of the citizens of this city for many years to come.

Division of Income.

"In my opinion," writes a wife, "there is only one satisfactory arrangement which a young couple can make, and that is to take the weekly income and divide it into separate sums, something on the following lines—rent and taxes, charities and church collections, doctor, dentist, etc., holiday fund and savings, an equal sum for pocket money for each of the young couple, an equal sum for dress for each. My husband and I have been wedded over six years, and have two bonny children, but we always divide our weekly income in this way."—Happily Married.

no reply and no visible improvement in the boy's appearance, until at last the mother, driven to desperation, sent the teacher a long letter saying, among other things: "What is it to the teachers whether the children in their schools have a bath once a day, or once a week, or once a month, or once a year? They are washing the sap all out of the children, and that is how so much tuberculosis gets started."

The Dark Ages.

The dark ages was a period of about six hundred years in European history, commencing with the fall of the western Roman empire (476 A. D.) and continuing until the close of the eleventh century (1100 A. D.) The dark ages comprised the first two-thirds of the middle ages and were characterized by extreme intellectual apathy and gross religious superstition. The sway of the church was universal, and learning was at its lowest ebb.—Kansas City Star.

World's Highest Village.

The little village of Karzok in Kashmir is said by a writer in L'Astronomie to be the highest in the world. Its altitude is 14,946 feet. The buildings consist of a few wretched stone houses and a small Buddhist monastery. Kashmir is the most northerly state of India and lies wholly in the Himalaya mountains. Not far from its eastern border is Mt. Everest, the loftiest peak, so far as known, in the world.

Good Old Vegetable Standby.

The faithful potato sprang up in various parts of South America. Peru undoubtedly had it before the Christian era. The Spaniards found it in Ecuador and took it to Spain, whence it traveled to Italy and north to France and Belgium, crossing the channel in time to save Ireland from many a hard winter. Our own Indians knew it not, maize being their long suit in the food game.

The Green Heron.

This bird, which is sometimes called the "fly-up-the-creek," is about one and a half feet long and is common throughout the United States and Canada. It feeds mostly on fish, frogs and other aquatic animals, and may be seen, particularly in the morning and in the evening, standing patiently motionless in some shallow water, waiting till prey comes within reach.

Difference in Time.

In reply to our observation that he and his son and namesake resembled each other greatly, old Bill Silvers said: "The main difference 'twixt me an' young Bill is, when I put in a day at work I don't feel much like runnin' 'round at nights; and when young Bill puts in a night runnin' 'round he don't feel much like workin' next day."—Topeka Capital.

The Cone of Our Pine.

So hard is the cone of a pine in our western forests that the imprisoned seeds cannot be propagated in the ordinary way. The best way is to burn the cone over a hot fire until it bursts, when the seeds escape. When forest fires sweep the country these pine cones have their chance, and from them new trees grow.

Fear Not to Reform.

Confucius says, if the superior man be not grave in his conduct, he will not be respected, nor will his learning be solid. Be ruled by fidelity and sincerity. Have not a friend inferior to yourself. If you err, fear not to reform.—Chinese Classics, translated by Rev. David Collie.

No Reciprocity.

After the guests at their party had gone, Mrs. Mimby said to her husband: "What on earth did you mean, John, by telling the Smiths that my humor was positive, but not negative?" "I meant," said Mr. Mimby, "that you could make a joke, but couldn't take one!"

Water Affects Teeth.

Scientific investigation discloses the fact that where "hard" water is used for drinking, good teeth are the general result. "Hard" water contains a large amount of lime which enters largely into the composition of teeth.

Jefferson and Van Buren.

Thomas Jefferson and Martin Van Buren have been the only men in the history of the United States who have served as governors of states, foreign ministers, heads of cabinets, vice presidents and presidents.

The Weightiest Causes.

Men understand not what is among their hands; as calmness is the characteristic of strength, so the weightiest causes may be most silent.—Thomas Carlyle.

An Acquired Art.

Those who always say the right thing at the right time have schooled themselves to talk less than other people.—Boston Transcript.

Gladys Brockwell Stars in Powerful Photoplay.

Renunciation of her hope of happiness to save her aged mother and young sister from the anguish of becoming homeless—this is the big sacrifice made by the heroine in "White Lies," the new William Fox production, starring Gladys Brockwell, which opened an engagement yesterday at the Cozy Theatre. This will appear Monday.

The play, a modernization of Charles Reade's famous novel, is rich in powerful dramatic situations. It tells the story of a French family of noble birth during a period of heart-breaking stress. The innocent victims of intrigue, lies and suspicion make great sacrifices for their beloved France. Finally, through the power of love, all misunderstandings are cleared and happiness reigns.

Miss Brockwell has surpassed herself in an intensely dramatic role.

Good Rains Insure Good Crops.

Scurry county has been visited with the heaviest rain of two months. Wednesday morning a slow rain fell for three hours. Wednesday evening a cloud came up from the north, accompanied by a display of lightning and wind. Rain began to fall about 9:30 and continued a heavy downpour all night, measuring 2.45 inches. This rain came just in time to save the big feed and cotton crop of Scurry county. Old feed was already made. Young feed will be greatly benefitted as well as the grass for cattle.

With the increased cotton acreage this year in Scurry county and with the prospect now in view, a fair estimate of our crop this year, by those who are conservative, is placed around 30,000 to 35,000 bales.
