CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

There was a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last Saturday evening at 3 o'clock in the county court room.

This meeting was attended by a good many of the business men and among other things the Snyder cotton market was discussed.

Several expressed the opinion that the merchants would buy cotton that it would stimulate the local market and also keep the cotton here that has been going to other markets.

They decided that another man be employed at the warehouse to assist Mr. Heslip while he grades the cotton as it comes on the street. This grading of course to be done free of charge.

Considerable enthusiasm was manifested and it seems from general appearance the Snyder Chamber of Commerce is beginning to do some good work. They have a considerable program outlined and during the next year will find no doubt some very timely thing accomplished through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce.

Of course they will have to have the co-operation of all to accomplish things that will be of benefit to everyone in town and country.

This of course will be fourth coming for the interest of a Chamber of Commerce, if there is any difference at all, is rather for the development of the agricultural centers and the immediate benefit of the farmers.

Yeggs Blow Open Safe at Dunn.

The store of J. J. Ford at Dunn was entered Wednesday night, the safe blown open and robbed of something like three or four hundred dollars. Mr. and Mrs. John Brown was awakened about 1 o'clock at night by the sound of what they supposed to be a gun and did not think any more of the matter until morning.

It was found the next morning that the thieves had first entered the black smith shop and secured the necessary tools for entering the store which was done by prizing open the front door. Sheriff Byrd was called to the scene next morning and together with Deputy Sheriff Beakley were making a concerted effort to apprehend the guilty ones.

JIM LOWREY BEMOANS APOSTASY OF TENNESSEE

James H. Lowrey of the Honey Grove Signal thus expresses his sorrow over the loss of Tennessee from the "Solid South": "The Solid South is no more. For more than a century the old southern states stood as true to Democracy as the big dipper to the north star. For many years no state warmed by the southern sun and kissed by the southern breezes gave ear to the vaporings for the wicked Republicans and 'evening would have blushed to own a star' sooner than a member of this noble confederation would have turned her back upon the Democratic party. But the Solid South is broken, and it was broken by the grand old Volunteer state, the state of Andrew Jackson, James K. Polk and David Crockett. It was in Tennessee that this writer first saw the light of day. All the tender memories of childhood's happy days cluster around the hills and hollows, the forests and meadows of Old Tennessee, and the very name of the old commonwealth has been music to our ears. But Tennessee has fallen from her high estate and not only has she departed from the house of her fathers, but she has shattered the Solid South. What must be her punishment? Surely the wrath of the Lord must fall heavily upon poor old Tennessee. Every chestnut crop will be wormy, the perimmons will lose their golden glow and honied taste, the crystal waters of the Watanga will turn to mud and slush, and the lustre of the muscadine and grape will fade. For Tennessee there will be no southern zephyrs bearing the breath of the magolia and the justime and for Tennesseans the mockig birds and cardinals will not sing. The glory of the South has departed from the old Volunteer state and never again will the rapture that wells up from the Democratic soul light up the face of her sons and daughters. Dear old state of legends, songs and hallowed memories, tho' we were nurtured at your breast, we do say you ought to be ashamed of yourself."

A Runaway

Ed Crowder narrowly averted a serious runaway Tuesday evening when his team became frightened while at the gin with a bale of cotton. He had ginned his bale off and had driven out, the gin whistled scaring his team, which started to run, running to the square, striking the curb turning the wagon over and throwing Mr. Crowder out bruising his head considerably also spraining his leg.

Entertained El Feliz.

Mrs. W. B. McCormick was at home to the El Feliz club at the home of Mrs. E. J. Anderson. In the absence of the president and vice-president Mrs. W. W. Hamilton presided. Owing to so much sickness only three tables participated in "42." However, the games were lively from start to finish.

The hostess served a most delicious two-course luncheon, consisting of pressed chicken, perfection salad, potato chips, bread and butter sandwiches with coffee, mince pie and whipped cream.

Mrs. Rootes from Grandberry was an appreciated guest.

There will be no regular meeting until after the holidays. Mesdames Frank and Austin Erwin will be at home to club members and their husbands with a Christmas party sometime during the holiday week.

FROM F. J. GRAYUM IN FAR AWAY ORIGON

Mr. W. M. Morrow received a specimen of fruit and other things from our one time fellow townsman, F. J. Grayum now of Oregon. The specimen exhibited by Mr. Morrow of apples, prunes, Irish potatoes, etc., were very fine and it is evident by that that Mr. Grayum has a fine country. The principal reason why they raise most anything they want out there is because they spend some money in making preparation to grow things and then they grow them. Any agricultural country with sufficient moisture can raise anything in season that is adapted. Which reminds us that Scurry county need not suffer the ravages of drouth so much if we would only make preparation for a few acres of irrigated land. With the abundance of water in Scurry county this is plausible. We are glad that Mr. Grayum has a good country and is well pleased. He spent about thirty years at Snyder and was reluctant in leaving a good country like this for one that has lived at one place thirty years and established a business that he had is bound to have some tender memories, not only from a business viewpoint, but from a social standpoint as well.

Teachers' Institute Program, Dec. 20-24

The Scurry county Teachers Institute will hold its session for the current school year at Snyder during the week beginning Monday, Dec. 20 and ending Friday, December 24. The teachers of the Snyder public schools will join with the other teachers in Scurry county in holding this session. In all there are about eighty teachers in the public schools of Scurry county. This number is large enough to enable the institute to have sectional meetings and to thereby give the teachers an opportunity to obtain the benefits mostly concerned with their special lines of teaching.

It is the duty of all teachers, under the law, to attend this session of the institute. All teachers should come with notebooks, as much pertaining to the problems of school work will be given in the proceedings while the institute is in session. Teachers who come with the proper attitude words the institute and its work will be befitting most. The freest and fullest discussions will be encouraged. Teachers who have problems of school work should submit them for discussion. Many shades and degrees of experience will be represented among the teachers in attendance.

There will be four sections besides the general session. Each teacher will choose two sections to attend. The sections will be designated as High School, Rural School, Primary, and Intermediate.

MRS. M. A. GRIMES PASSES AWAY MONDAY

Mrs. M. A. Grimes was taken ill last Wednesday, Dec. 1st. She left the store Wednesday morning and not feeling any immediate danger, but Friday night she was taken worse and was hurried off to the sanitarium at Lubbock, where on Saturday she underwent an operation. While the operation was successful her recovery was doubtful from then. She lingered on until Monday at 2 o'clock p. m., when she died.

The passing away of Mrs. Grimes leaves sadness in the hearts of her many friends in Snyder and creates a deep pall of sorrow in the entire community.

She was a devoted Christian woman, always in her place at Sunday school and church and taking an active interest in all services, always cheerful, with a kind word for every one. Truly we have lost a good woman, but heaven has been the gainer by her going away.

Her remains were taken to Lexington, Mo., her old home, where interment was made.

The Signal together with her many friends extend condolence to the bereft husband and relatives.

A complete obituary of her life will be published next week.

SNYDER UTILITIES CO. DOUBLES CAPACITY.

The Utilities Company is now installing a new twin cylinder engine, 170 horse power motor and generator at a cost of approximately $17,000. The Snyder Utilities Co. own the electric light and power and ice plant. Messrs. Yoder and McCormack are giving splendid service and are to be commended for this improvement.

The Snyder Utilities Company enjoyed considerable popularity during the past summer months because of its capacity for the manufacture of ice, it having furnished several of the nearby towns with ice for a month or two, and shipped some as far as Crowell.

TRANSITION PERIOD AT TURNING POINT.

Federal Reserve Board Reviews Economic Conditions.

Washington, Dec. 5.—The close of the business year of 1920 is described by the Federal Reserve Board in a statement tonight as a turning point in the transition from war production conditions to the normal economic basis of international and industrial life.

The Reserve Board's statement, which reviews the economic and financial situation confronting the Nation during the year, treats of present conditions generally in an optimistic manner, declaring that the difficulty of transition will not be much further aggravated. It also asserts that owing to the Nation's strong banking structure a normal situation will be restored with far less than the usual distress attendant on a period of readjustment.

The board declared that previous periods of marked readjustment have been accompanied by sharp reduction in prices, heavy decreases in production, extensive unemployment and business reaction, often involving bank failures. While necessarily uncomfortable, the transition through which the country now is passing, the board asserts, has thus far been attended with only a minimum of these unfavorable symptoms.

The fiscal situation both at home and abroad, however, is still uncertain, the board declares, and this is held to be due to the date at which the war was over in the financial sense and to uncertainty as to the best method of taxation. In international trade a return to normal conditions is now in progress, the board says. With the exception of agriculture, in which the output was the largest on record, production has been decreasing since the spring of the year, the board stated. Textiles, ship building and very recently the iron and steel industries, are to have exhibited tendencies of this nature.

The board describes the tendency in the retail trades as downward, the lessened activity occurring for the most part considerably later than the turning point in production.

The slowing down of the export trade of the United States during the year is attributed by the board in some measure to the exchange situation which, it asserts, has steadily deteriorated. American exports seem to be closely conditioned upon the volume of imports the board asserts and warrant the inference that there should be a larger import of goods into the United States as a result of the extensive credits granted foreign countries.

T. E. L. Class Meets.

The T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist church held a regular business meeting Dec. 2 with Mesdames Live Davis and Edgar Wilson at the home of the former.

It being the occasion of election of officers, there was a fine attendance with several visitors.

The nominating committee's report was accepted and the following elected:

Mrs. Lyman Wren, president.
Mrs. E. E. Brumley, vice president.

Mrs. Denson, secretary.
Mrs. W. W. Gross, assistant secretary.

Mrs. Harvey Schuler, treasurer.
Mrs. Roland Bell, reporter.
Mrs. Jim Chinn, teacher.

Mrs. H. E. Rosser, assistant teacher.

The meeting was then turned over to the social committee and a unique contest put on, which caused much thought and merriment. The hostess served a delicious fruit salad and coffee.

RISKS HER LIFE TO VIEW LAVA FLOW

Woman Has Exoiting Experience Seeing Eruption of Mauna Loa in Hawaii.

Hilo, Hawaii.—Accompanied by a companion, similar to nothing in the experience of those best acquainted with Mauna Loa, a giant fountain of lava, 300 feet in diameter, is rushing 300 feet into the air at a new break in the side of the ancient volcano. Eight thousand five hundred feet above Puuokeo, the scene of the 1916 outbreak, and seven hours' ride from Waiohine, according to the story told by eyewitnesses who discovered the sources of the new lava flow and who have been within a mile of the blistering white and red fountain.

Miss Louis MacMillan of Honolulu, who has just returned from a first-hand inspection of the eruption of Mauna Loa, tells the following eyewitness story of the spectacle:

"The still hot rock under our feet commenced to scorch our shoe soles after five minutes or so of standing on it. A foot back of where I was standing, a red-hot bed of lava with a few cool stones scattered over it, like a bed of coals with a few small clinkers on top, glowed constantly. Six feet away on the other side a gas flame several feet high played continually over a patch of bare red-hot rock, and anywhere we looked into the cracks, the fiery, uncooled core could be seen evilly gleaming. Every step had to be taken with care not to put the foot down into any of these cracks.

"As night came on, we expected darkness, but instead a bright, rosy glow suffused the whole country roundabout. It was reflected from the clouds overhead, which were brilliantly lit up by the glowing lava."

Human Pendulum Foils Woman's Plan of Suicide

New York.—Tying a rope around his waist, Fireman Timothy Fitzgerald leaped into the air from the tenth floor of a fashionable Brooklyn hotel, swung through a window on the ninth floor, knocking down Mrs. M. M. Canda and frustrating her threatened attempt to hurl herself to death. The woman had locked herself into the room after announcing her intention to commit suicide.

When the Georgia barber charged him $4,000 in Confederate money for the work he swore that he never again would touch a razor to his cheek. And he never did.

The Bargain Sale Continues Drawing Interest

Losses, however, caused by their passing are scarcely felt as they pour our immense cargo of bargains to an appreciative buying public drawn in by varying crop conditions, but are always prepared, able and have been even beyond our expectations, still to make a clean sweep of our fall and winter cases radical reductions; and this we have done, going down the line giving due consideration to our word for it, this will be the cream of bargain-giving, but prompt response will be necessary as prices made are a matter of interest—some will be disappointed and it might be you.

NEXT WEEK AT THE COZY THEATRE.

The Burton Players will pay Snyder their initial visit and will remain one entire week beginning Monday, December 13. The Company of dramatic artists is headed by the popular actor, J. B. Burton. Manager Crawford has been trying to secure this attraction for some time and his efforts have been crowned with success at last. The company is playing in Post this week, and Manager Lloyd of that city has sent the word ahead to give them the reception their talent merits. The opening play will be a comedy-drama entitled, "Hush Money." An especial concession is made to the ladies on Monday night, when one lady will be admitted free if accompanied by a lady or gentleman holding a paid ticket. Plenty of vaudeville will be served up to the lovers of the lighter sort of entertainment. Some companies give you nothing but the drama, but the Burton folks insist upon giving their patrons a variety of entertainment.

Started Work Again at Riley Well.
The Pieretz oil corporation of Houston, producers and refiners, have taken over the holdings of the Stanton Oil company at the Riley well, it is reported here, and it is said that they began underreaming Wednesday preparatory to continue drilling. This well is now down 2600 feet and when they had stopped drilling the bit had encountered a black formation, which if it proves to be the black lime, is considered a good indication of oil.

The Scurry County Warehouse and Co-Operative association has made arrangements whereby the farmer can get his cotton graded free of charge. Heretofore he has paid 25c for this service. More than that, Mr. Heslip, manager of the warehouse association, will be on the streets ready to do that service, and will post on a blackboard in front of the First State Bank & Trust Co. the market every thirty minutes during the day, where everyone can see it. This is commendable in the association for the elimination of all little expenses and the establishment of every convenience possible, makes for the good will of the farmer and creates unity.

Do you want to help build up the public library? Come to the Altrurian Tea and bring twenty five cents American Legion Club rooms.

Rev. J. W. Morton has just returned from a visit to the home folks at Waxahachie. Bro Morton says the financial conditions are better here than in Ellis county because there they raised nothing but cotton and here we have plenty of feed.

COZY THEATRE PUTTING ON GOOD PICTURES

Mr. Crawford the genial manager of the Cozy Theatre is now treating the people of Snyder to a very select schedule of pictures. The pictures at the Cozy are equal to those shown at any of the larger cities. Mr. Crawford has been in Snyder for several years and has studied the wants and desires of the movie lovers and has arranged his circuit to please the people.

The Cozy Theatre is open six evening in the week with matinee Saturday afternoon and those wishing a little recreation and amusement after their day's work can always find an entertaining show at the Cozy where it is warm and comfortable.

MARTHA ANN HAMILTON.

Mrs. Martha Ann Hamilton, aged 76 years, 8 months and 14 days, died suddenly while visiting her daughter at Snyder. The death occurred the first of the week, and her remains reached Lockney for burial Wednesday morning. The funeral was held at the college, conducted by Elder Liff Sanders. Interment followed in Lockney cemetery.

Mrs. Hamilton had gone to Snyder to spend some time with Mrs. Mike Robinson, her daughter, and she died very suddenly. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of her death.

She had been a resident of Lockney for a number of years, where she owned her home and other property. She was a noble Christian woman, a member of the Church of Christ, worshipping at the College. She was bereft of her husband a number of years ago, and at her death she was survived by four daughters, Mrs. Mike Robinson of Snyder, Mrs. Floyd Ewing and Mrs. Mike Pauley of Lockney and Mrs. Smith of Memphis, and one son, Mr. Sanford Hamilton. Mrs. Pauley was with her mother, on a visit to her sister, when she passed away.

In her death Lockney and Floyd county loses one of its oldest and most respected citizens. She was truly a mother in Israel, and was a zealous member of the Church of Christ. She was always present at all services of the church, and loved the worship and the gathering together of her brethren and sisters. The Polar Star of her course was the Star of Bethlehem, and she died within sight of its matchless glory. She passed away peacefully, and she has gone to join the happy throng and to be with her Saviour in that home prepared for those who love and serve the Lord.

She was a fond parent, and was devoted to her children, their welfare being her ever thought. In her death they have sustained an irreparable loss. They now mourn her departure, but not as those who have no hope, for some day they will meet mother in the Heavenly Home, there to dwell with her forever and ever.

To the bereaved children and relatives the Beacon extends its deepest sympathy.—Lockney Beacon.

The merchants of Snyder are selling their goods at sacrificial prices. This is reasonable and easy to believe when we come to think of it. For when they purchased these goods they bought on a market as of a year ago when prices had not even begun to decline. Nor was there any indication of a decline. The mail order houses are receiving very little patronage this fall because of the prevailing low prices at home. The Miami Chief says: "The

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR!

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.—"Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been very beneficial to my health.

I was suffering with weakness which caused me to become all run-down and nervous. I was just miserable but by the use of the 'Favorite Prescription' I was completely restored to strength and good health. Knowing what 'Favorite Prescription' has done for me, I do not hesitate to recommend it to other women who suffer."

—MRS. J. B. NAYLOR, 216 Rische Street.

BEASLEY, TEXAS.—"During expectancy I have always taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a tonic and strengthener, and in each case it has proved to be a wonderful comfort and help to me. I had practically no suffering and my babies have been strong and healthy. I believe Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine the young mother can take, and I never hesitate to recommend it to my friends."

—MRS. IDA CHANCE.
All druggists sell the Prescription in both fluid and tablet form.

home merchants all over the country are invading mail order houses' customers and showing them that home prices and home quality are beating catalog prices a mile and a half this fall. It pays better now to do a little shopping than it ever did before. Investigate prices and quality and you will save money and a 'so trade at home.' Then when the farmer trades at home he is entitled to a market at home for what he produces just as good as he can get anywhere else. If he brings eggs to market give him all the market can afford; if he brings butter, give him all it is worth; if he brings cotton, buy his cotton and give him as much as he can get at any other town and you are sure to get his trade. The harmonious working of town and country is easy when we each think of personal responsibility and eliminate at least a part of self.

The trouble with the Snyder cotton market for the past week or ten days has been that Snyder has been without any regular cotton buyer, consequently there has been considerable cotton left our county for other markets. We are glad to note, however, that the merchants are buying cotton this week and that the prices paid are just as good as other markets. This is as it should be and we hope there will be no occasion for any more cotton leaving our town to hunt a market.

The Lockney Beacon says that the age of silk shirts is past and that we are entering the period of brogans. We can truthfully say that we never fell to the silk shirt fad. The shirt that we wore during all those times cost a meagre sum, or rather the goods that made it. But my, the fellow that did not wear a silk shirt suffered, for he was everlastingly ostracized, socially.

Side by side lies our Mother and boy, Ending with them was two other's joy;

Now we gaze into a starry sky And ask the Heavens why did they die?

It is lonesome and sad, indeed, To have those taken away you need; We can only be strong, good and brave, And trust and hope beyond the grave.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

ROADS HARD ON AUTO TIRES

Yearly Cost to Owners of Cars is Something Like $1,000,000,000 in Wear.

A great deal has been said and written, in discussing the roads and road building in the United States, about the wear and tear of automobiles on the roads, but a brand-new element seems to have been brought in by the director of roads of the American Automobile Association, who suggests consideration of the wear and tear of the roads on automobiles. Automobile traffic now wears out something like 40,000,000 tires a year, costing automobile owners something like $1,000,000,000; and on the roads as they now are, it can be argued, from data already accumulated, that the tractive resistance, otherwise wear and tear, varies from 20 pounds or less on one kind of road to 300 pounds or more on another. The consumption of gasoline also is said to vary with the character of the road on which an automobile is traveling. The idea is surprising, but it seems not impossible that a considerable part of the cost of building a national system of roads that would produce the least possible wear and tear on automobiles would be balanced by the decreased expense for tires.

PLAN FOR CUTTING ASPHALT

Method Shown in Illustrations is Time and Labor Saver—Wire Cuts Through Material.

Asphalt is usually shipped in tin barrels. The metal is stripped off and the asphalt rolled up to the stopping board; the wire shown, attached to the winding drum, is passed over and around the asphalt to a piece of pipe under and ahead of the stop board. When the drum is turned it tightens up on the wire and causes it to cut through the asphalt. Kerosene is poured on the wire to make it pass through the asphalt easily.

The barrel shape is first cut in half, then each half is cut into quarters which a man can handle easily. In warm weather asphalt is soft, therefore it cannot be cut or broken with an ax or other tool, so this machine is a time and labor saver.—George C. Peck, in Popular Science Monthly.

KEEP ON URGING GOOD ROADS

Improved Highways Are Fundamentally Essential to Highest Advancement of Civilization.

We are doing well in acquiring and building roads at present, and our legislation is to be commended for starting this creditable work; but when we find a travelable road going past every farm, through every village, town and city, then will it be time enough to cease talking "good roads." They are fundamentally essential to the highest advancement of our own civilization.

HELP APPEARANCE OF HOMES

Good Roads Stimulate Farmers to Improve Appearance of Farms and Buildings Thereon.

Along improved roads there is a visible tendency for farmers to improve the appearance of their homes and their outbuildings. In fact, the presence of good roads seems many times to stimulate latent self-respect into practical expression. There is no wonder that a hog of well-nigh impassable mud before one's door should react unfavorably upon the entire family.

All Share in Good Roads.

Good roads benefit more people than any other public institution. Sane and sane, man and woman and child, young and old, rich and poor—all have a share in the benefits of good roads.

Poor Roads Expensive.

Good roads help in transporting farm products. The farmers of this nation are annually losing $250,000,000 because of their inability to market their produce at certain times of the year.

Fooling the Feeder

A prime steer could never be made of this critter, even if a carload of corn were funneled down his throat. He lacks something most essential to the making of a high-priced carcass. That "something" is pure blood. For all practical purposes, pedigree is the best feed.

If you've heard of a grade steer's topping the market, it was just because such pure blood as he possessed had chanced to get in its work, chanced to offset his scrub blood—but it was mere chance! With the pure-bred it's a planned certainty.

The pure-breds are the easiest feeders—they use their feed to make prime beef. If you are ready to do your part in efficient feeding, get in touch with some good local breeder and strike hands with him for the upbuilding of your business and of this community.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, the one great national weekly of practical farming, advises you to do this. Its Editors and contributors travel some 300,000 miles a year to study and write about farming in the United States. And they declare, as a result of their investigations, that the most hopeful beef practice is that of breeding good steers and feeding them where they are bred.

If you have not yet subscribed for THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN you owe it to yourself to order now. Only $1.00 a year for 52 big issues containing the important farm news of the nation; well-tried plans; the best of fiction; strong editorials; good pictures; great cartoons; hopes, helps, and plenty of smiles.

C. D. Bozeman, shoemaker, Colorado, Texas, says: "About five years ago I had an attack of kidney trouble. The action of my kidneys was too free, especially at night, causing me to get up frequently. This kind of made me nervous and I couldn't stand the least noise. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in our family with good results, so I started taking them. I only had to take one box of Doan's before the kidney action was regulated and I was entirely cured. I have been in fine health and have not had the slightest sign of kidney trouble."

SNYDER OPERA HOUSE ALL NEXT WEEK

The Theatre-goers of the city and the surrounding country will no doubt be pleased to know that the Charles and Gertrude Harrison company will play an engagement in Snyder at the Opera House commencing Monday night, Dec. 13th. All new plays will be presented, entirely different from those that were presented during their last engagement here.

Mr. Harrison's latest success will be presented Monday night for their opening play, the title of which is "Cloverdale." A rural comedy drama in four acts. The writer shows a thorough knowledge of his subject and has staked a most realistic play, there are delightful touches of comedy in "Cloverdale" interwoven with this truth telling story that gives the necessary contrast and makes the salient features of the play stand out all the more prominent, there are many tense situations, numerous thrilling climaxes, while pathos is strongly in evidence, there is a smile for every tear, the humorous situations are many, while the love plot that is interwoven with the play is interesting and replete with that measure of romance which is so popular with American audiences.

The splendid success of this play proves conclusively the merit of this attraction and the phenomenal success of the play in all cities visited would indicate the reservations should be made immediately.
