THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR

SNYDER, SCURRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1921.

NUMBER TWENTY-THREE.

C. C. TO FOLLOW EXTENSION PLANS

At a meeting of the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce Wednesday morning it was unanimously decided that the program of extension as outlined by Secretary E. J. Anderson be carried out.

Mr. Anderson gave a verbal report of the work done during the past year in a very interesting talk. He emphasized the importance of this extension work and the benefits to be derived by both the farmer and business man. The slogan, 100 hens, 4 cows and 3 sows, that is original with the Scurry county Chamber of Commerce, has created quite a bit of favorable comment and has been the means of other counties putting on the same program, he said. This slogan has met a very responsive cord with the farmers and they are ready and willing to go into it with renewed energy.

A few of the things that the Chamber of Commerce has been instrumental in doing was the fair held here in October. Though there was only a short time taken in planning for this fair, the result of the undertaking went far beyond all expectations and created a sentiment for this kind of an exhibit that will be the means of establishing a permanent Annual fair for Scurry county. The big picnic here in July did more perhaps in advertising Scurry county than anything we have had lately, regaining lost trade and creating a rural and civic co-operative spirit. The program for another year will be an extension program with the slogan as above set out "100 hens, 4 cows and 3 sows on every farm in Scurry county."

A unanimous vote of thanks and confidence was given Secretary Anderson for the work accomplished by the Chamber of Commerce, through his management, pledging anew their support, both financially and actively.

The Signal believes that the good, effective work of the Chamber of Commerce has just started and by another twelve months we will see wonderful developments of the extension program. LET'S GO!

Got His Hand Shot Off.

Ed Bennett who lives three miles northeast of Hermleigh happened to a very serious accident one evening this week. He had gotten in a chair to get his gun to kill a chicken for supper, when he became overbalanced and in trying to catch for something in the fall the gun was discharged, the load entering his hand and tearing it off.

A Mexican close by was called, they bound his hand closely and the Mexican held it firmly while his wife went for the doctor.

His arm was amputated just above the wrist and he is said to be doing very well.

EGGS AND TARIFF.

Lockney Beacon: Scurry county is making a campaign for one hundred hens on every farm and hogs in every pen. Scurry county is on the right track. Hens and hogs will build any community. Hens and hogs are making the Plains country very prosperous. Hens and hogs are mortgage lifters and revenue producers for the people.

State Press: If there were one hundred hens on every farm there would be no need for mortgaging the prospective crop for money with which to buy the family's groceries. Eggs and chickens have held up in price much better than other farm products. This notwithstanding other farm products were given "protection" in the emergency act.

stowed upon the farmers by a benevolent Republican Congress. Eggs were, like many other farm items, left on the free list by the Democratic tariff bill, and enacted in Woodrow Wilson's administration. But with eggs unprotected, corn and wheat unprotected, potatoes unprotected, meat unprotected, wool unprotected and cotton unprotected the farmers of America got along in tolerable comfort. The reason was that there was always a market for their surplus, the overplus which they did not need for home consumption. A dozen eggs, with no tariff protection, bring the farmer more money today than a bushel of corn with so-called protection of 16c a bushel. The tariff as applied to our farm crops is a snare and a delusion. It doesn't help their price, but it gives excuse for protection to manufacturers, whose price is helped by protection. The result of this policy is that the farmer must sell agricultural stuff low and buy manufactured stuff high. The evidence is so oppressive as to be conclusive. The condition must be changed. If the Republican party doesn't reverse its policy it will be removed from office by the electors. The standard of prosperity set by the American farmer will, despite all camouflages and subterfuges, be the standard of all. With the farmer out of the market, the market shrinks, no matter how firmly theorists are wedded to their theories.

REVIVAL IN PROGRESS AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Revival meeting now in progress at the Presbyterian church conducted by Rev. W. A. Erwin, is being well attended, while Rev. Erwin did not arrive until Tuesday, the work is getting well under way and a gracious revival is no doubt in store for the people of Snyder.

Rev. Mr. Erwin, is assisted by Mrs. Erwin, his wife, as pianist, and Mr. R. A. Fraser as choir director. Mr. Fraser is a splendid singer and is lining up the work in a splendid way. Services will continue through next week.

KING COTTON.

King Cotton the good old man,
Comes to town with cotton in hand.

He walks around and round
And sells his cotton by the pound.

He takes the money by the scores,
And goes to the nearby stores.

And what is left he does not hoard
But goes and buys a Henry Ford.

He cranks his car and away he goes
And leaves behind the folks he owes.

—Zack Noble.

In a recent trip over sections of the county a representative of the Chamber of Commerce noted a considerable amount of feed and roughness still in the fields where it is bound to ruin if not taken care of. At present it is cheap and small market for it, but don't forget how precious these little jags of feed have been to us in the years past when drouths have cut the crops short. Many of our farmers have enough feed stored away to last them for two and even three years and instead of selling it they are taking the very best care of it. Let everyone do likewise. Save every pound possible and don't sell any of it unless it is absolutely compulsory. The time may come again when we may need it as badly as we did a few years ago.

Mrs. J. R. Kelley received a telegram yesterday that her sister, Mrs. M. J. Kelsey died in Warren, Ohio, at her granddaughters. Mrs. Kelsey had made her home at Amarillo for some time and was visiting in Ohio when she died.

THANKSGIVING DAY NOVEMBER 24, 1921

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving day and is an annual festival of thanksgiving for the mercies of the closing year, practically it is a national harvest festival, fixed by proclamation of the President and the governors of States and ranks as a legal holiday.

The earliest harvest thanksgiving in America was kept by the Pilgrim fathers at Plymouth, in 1621, and was repeated often during that and the ensuing century, congress recommended days of thanksgiving annually during the revolution, and in 1784 for the return of peace, as did President Madison in 1815. Washington appointed such a day in 1879 after the constitution and in 1795 for the general benefits and welfare of the nation. Since 1863 the Presidents have always issued proclamations appointing the last Thursday of November as Thanksgiving day.

Each Thanksgiving day brings around its changes, its pleasures and its heart aches, its joys and its sorrows. Though sorrow may have entered our lives and sadness and heart aches may have been our lot, yet there is something still that we can be thankful for and that is our life and that we are capable of spreading a little sunshine along the way. Perchance we choose to do so. Perhaps we have been more fortunate in Scurry county this year than has other portions of the state. We have had a bountiful harvest, and in this season of prosperity we should not forget to pause and offer up our thanks to God for the gracious material blessing that has been ours.

"Enter into his gates with Thanksgiving and into his courts with praise be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the Lord is good, his mercy is everlasting and his truth endureth to all generations." Psalms 100:4.

WHAT CAUSES DEAD SPOTS IN THE FIELD AND THE REMEDY

On some farms in Texas, spots are found varying in size from a few feet in diameter to several acres on which plants will hardly grow at all.

These spots are found in almost all parts of this State. Some have been reported to us from near the Louisiana line, and others from Western parts of the State. These spots have no connection whatever with cotton root rot.

These spots also sometimes show a tendency to grow larger. A representative spot of this kind was recently described as occurring in Hill county. Four years ago this spot covered only a few square feet, but now it occupies 4 acres. The spot is in a low place, and the ground seems salty.

These spots are indeed usually salty in character and are caused by salts, including ordinary table salt, salt being present in them in such amounts as to injure plants, or to kill them. The salt is brought into the soil dissolved in water, the water evaporates from the soil, and leaves the salt behind. As water continuously flows towards this spot and evaporates, the salt accumulates and the spot becomes larger. The water does not flow on the surface, but through the soil toward the spot. It carries the salt out of the soil through which it flows. These spots are usually poorly drained.

The remedy for these spots is underdrainage. A drainage ditch should be dug down through the center of the spot so that the water that falls on the land will pass through the soil into the drainage ditch carrying with it the salts in the soil, which are usually termed alkali. The drain may be left open or a tile may be put in, or a wooden drain made of old lumber, or even brush. A drainage ditch of this kind is especially recommended when there is a tendency for the spot to become larger. By draining away the water, the salts will also be drained away and the rainfall washes the salt out.

There is nothing that can be added to the soil to remove the alkali, or render it harmless. The only thing that can be done is to wash the alkali out in drainage water.—G. S. Fraps, Chemist, Texas Experiment Station.

COZY CHANGES HANDS DEC. 1

The Cozy Theatre will change hands Dec. 1st.

Mr. Crawford who has been manager of the Cozy for several years has sold out to E. K. Smith. Mr. Smith has leased the Cozy to Roy Brown, who will have charge after Dec. 1st.

Mr. Crawford will go to Tyler Smith county, where he expects to go into the insurance business. Mr. Crawford is a good show man and has given Snyder a good line of pictures while manager of the Cozy Theatre. We wish him success in his new line of work.

Mr. Roy Brown, who takes the management is a Snyder boy and has been with the Cozy as operator for a long time and we feel sure that he will give the Snyder folks some good pictures, being familiar as he is with the business, he will receive, no doubt a liberal patronage from movie fans of the city.

Uncle Tom Stewart Dead.

Word was received here Tuesday that T. J. Stewart died Nov. 14, 3 a. m., at the home of his son, 9 miles east of Lafayette, Ala. He passed the 74th mile stone last July 28, and had been a very active man.

Three sons and 2 daughters and 21 grandchildren survive him.

Uncle Tom, as everybody knew him by here, left here about four months ago for Alabama. When he left here he was suffering a good deal from his leg. After going back there he had an operation removing his leg above the knee, from which he never recovered. Uncle Tom had lived near Hermleigh for a good many years and had lots of friends who will be sad to learn of his departure.

The Revival Grows in Interest.

Increased attendance at the revival meeting at the Presbyterian church has necessitated finding larger quarters. Through the kindness and cooperation of the Methodists their church will be used beginning tonight, Friday.

Rev. W. A. Erwin, who will be remembered as having conducted, a most successful series of meetings here five years ago, has already endeared himself to those who have been in attendance this week. He is preaching the Word in a masterly fashion. Tonight he begins a series of sermons on "Jesus."

His program for the next few days will be as follows:
Friday night, "The Crucifixion of Jesus."

Saturday, "The Drawing Power of Jesus."

Sunday morning, "The Resurrection of Jesus."

Sunday night, "The Divinity of Jesus."

Monday night, "The Second Coming of Jesus."

The service commences tonight at 7 o'clock at the Methodist church. An augmented chorus choir under the direction of Mr. Fraser will sing. If you are a singer this is your invitation to come to the choir.

A New York physician says that the American nation is menaced with the custom of hand shaking, that Woodrow Wilson was suffering from too much hand shaking. That it was contributory to the death of Col. Roosevelt, and that Enrico Caruso suffered from the same. Now with the elimination of handshaking and osculation what will we do. It has been suggested that we would have to resort to a hearty embrace or the old English bow.

Small town programs are not often adopted by larger places. The policy of the Scurry county Chamber of Commerce for 100 hens, 3 cows and 4 sows as a minimum on each farm in the county has been taken up by the United Campaign for Better Agriculture with headquarters at Dallas. This organization is backed by some of the biggest men in the state. Many other counties are now taking up work on this same basis in different sections of the state.

W. Genry president First State Bank Hermleigh was in Snyder Tuesday.

Thursday, November 24th, is Thanksgiving Day. If there ever was a year that we should be grateful it is this one. Through the grace of Providence we have prospered in health and wealth. It should not be asking too much for us to give this one day as a small part of our appreciation and it is to be hoped that every business man of any nature whatever will feel glad to celebrate this holiday in thanksgiving.

SCURRY COUNTY HAS GOOD CROP YIELD THIS YEAR

Scurry county has raised a good cotton crop, greater than our fondest dreams a few months ago; the price has been good up until the past week when it slipped off several dollars a bale. When cotton was bringing 20 to 21 cents per pound there were many who hauled it home waiting for 25c. The same old story of hopes for a higher price. We trust they will not be disappointed but with the total amount ginned already several hundred thousand more bales than the government last estimate it is difficult to see what will be the final outcome. Much small grain has been planted in the cotton belt but reports from that section state that he unbroken drouth has destroyed chances for grain on a big per cent of this acreage. Undoubtedly cotton will be more in favor among those people if the grain crop is a failure.

The average reduction of the crop over the cotton belt was small and had it not been for natural causes and insect pests there is no doubt but that a good sized crop would have been raised. Contrary to what happened last year when the early cotton brought the big price before the general slump took place, the first part of this year's crop brought the low price and Scurry county along with some of the late crop area got the benefit of the high figure and is still bringing several cents above the low of this cotton season no one had an idea but that 10 cents would be a good price for the season through and had it started at that figure and gone to the present basis there would have been small complaint. As it is the price rose to better than 20c and then slipped off to the present figure. The comparative price of cotton today is a great deal higher than most of the other agricultural products. The market outlook is a puzzle; no doubt the conference in Washington will have a direct influence, the weather, foreign and local demand and numbers of other angles will be taken into consideration but there is one thing we can rest assured of and that is this, that unless a better organized campaign for acreage reduction is put through than has ever been attempted, that unless the old South will heed the demand that the cotton market of the world will be glutted with unsalable staple in 1922 unless Providence steps in and once again protects us against over-production. It is too early to attempt even a guess what the future will be but our planting time is late enough for our farmers to know what the attitude of the cotton area will be toward a curtailment of production and to govern themselves accordingly.

Last week a long staple cotton buyer was in Snyder and purchased about 50 bales at a premium of 4 cents per pound above the day's market. There is certainly a great deal of satisfaction to be derived from this as it shows what the better grades of cotton will bring. Better cotton not only sells to a direct advantage for the grower but it has a tendency to better the general average of the entire territory which is the basis on which limits are founded. Not until this season has Scurry county had enough real good cotton to warrant the elevation of the local market to its present class. Without question the Snyder market has been the best on an average of any town in several counties in this territory. The local buyers have kept a continuously strong and active market and will continue to do so as long as the class of cotton is held up to the standard.

The turkey shipping season is on and the local produce houses have been paying out several hundred dollars per day to the turkey raisers. Turkeys have a habit of growing themselves as they are had to keep in confinement. Natural conditions in this section are such that the turkey has a splendid chance to make good. Besides they are good insect destroyers. On the present basis of prices a full grown turkey will bring from $3.00 to $5.00. Mr. W. G. Brooks sold 95 for $225.40; T. J. Guller 41 for $132.02; A. M. Cordill 45 for $141.00; F. A. Landrum 25 for $71.95; R. L. Graves 36 for $76.97 and T. E. Grimes 31 for $93.15. Thousands of pounds of turkeys will be shipped from here this season representing another angle of the diversification method.

Oklahoma City Man Believes Tanlac Will Help Anybody Suffering As He Did.

"Give Tanlac a trial, that's my advice to anybody who is bothered with stomach trouble," said Kit Brandon, 17 West Reno, Oklahoma City, warehouseman for the Ridenour-Baker Merc. Co.

"Tanlac has fixed me up in fine shape and I believe it will do the same thing for anybody else. I was in a bad fix and was bothered day in and day out with my stomach. I didn't have to give up my job, but I had reached the point where I could hardly do any work. Nearly everything I ate turned against me and I suffered terribly from gas and bloating and heartburn. My heart palpitated awfully and I had pains and cramps that were awful. My nerves were unstrung, in fact my general health was all broken up. I couldn't sleep to do any good and of mornings my legs left cramped up and pained me terribly. I was run-down and felt weak and played out all day long.

"As a good neighbor of mine told me about Tanlac, and he couldn't have done me a better turn, I commenced to mend in just a few days and in a few weeks I was feeling just like I had been wanting to feel. That indigestion left me, as well as all my other troubles, and to this day I have been in the best of health. It has been many a day since I felt so fine. Tanlac is without an equal."

Tanlac is sold in Snyder by Grayum Drug company.

Association at Dunn.

The work in our association looks very promising.

We had a delightful day at Dunn Sunday.

Brother Charley Dodson, Brother A. C. Alexander, and Miss Ida Kelley were present in interest of our Sunday schools, the forenoon was turned over to them and each one gave us a warm and inspiring message, right out of their hearts. An organized Bible Study Class was affected.

Although the church has no pastor their collection for the seventy-five million campaign went above all our expectations.

At the close of the morning service the good ladies spread dinner and we certainly had a splendid demonstration of the cooks in that community.

In the afternoon the B. Y. P. U. and Ladies work were discussed at the close of which the Ladies went in to organization by electing Mrs. M. K. Maples president, Mrs. Fuller, vice president, and Mrs. Bowers Secretary and treasurer (and Mrs. John Moore, chairman, social and membership committee.

The Applause for Mr. Wilson.
 The dispatches from Washington record that as former president Wilson's carriage proceeded through the crowds along the funeral route, there was everywhere involuntary applause. It is specifically stated that Mr. Wilson was the only one applauded in a procession which included President Harding, General Pershing and many other notables.

the crowds were unmindful of these other men. The occasion was not one for applause, as every one in those crowds knew, and however much one might have wished to applaud President Harding or General Pershing, the consciousness of the solemnity of the occasion was sufficient to suppress the impulse. But with Mr. Wilson apparently it was different. The impulse to let him know their feeling was too great to be suppressed, even on so solemn an occasion, so the crowds broke into applause.

er it would not have been better to follow Mr. Wilson's way, and whether we would not have been further along now if we had followed him instead of repudiating him. But, above all, there is a growing respect for the man, even in the hearts of those who might be classed among his enemies. This is being accelerated by the revelations of the man appearing daily in the leading newspapers of the country, as in the Star-Telegram, through the interpretation of Joseph Tumulty in his narrative of his eleven years close personal association with Mr. Wilson. In short, the American people have been revising again their opinion of Mr. Wilson. His place in the hearts of the people is being fixed.

It is no wonder, therefore, that the applause could not be suppressed, even though the occasion was not one for applause. This was the first opportunity the people had had to express their feeling with respect to Mr. Wilson. And it does credit to them that they could not suppress the impulse. For it was a fine and noble impulse.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Mary Alden who plays the part of Mother in "The Old Nest," is young and very beautiful.

Screen fans who have formed the habit of rating the performances of stars according to actual merit are advised to watch Mary Alden in "The Old Nest." This wonderful picture is coming to the Cozy Theatre soon and we are told that Miss Alden's marvelous performance is the finest of its kind the screen world has ever produced.

We have seen Mary Alden as the Mother in "The Old Nest." It was one of the occasions of a lifetime. Her performance is so extraordinarily realistic that one unconsciously forgets the artist behind the character. Never before have we seen pathos and resignation and the indescribable something called mother love interpreted so simply and so beautifully. "The Old Nest," will be here soon, and you can judge for yourself.

In "The Old Nest," Rupert Hughes has removed one wall from the home of the American family; you walk in and meet the folks. This greatest of all Goldwyn pictures is coming here Thanksgivings Day and Friday.

Rupert Hughes dipped his pen into his heart when he wrote "The Old Nest."

"High Heels." Gladys Walton's latest Universal comedy drama which comes to the Cozy Theatre Monday is a screen adaptation of a widely discussed novel, "Christine of the Young Heart," by Louise B. Clancy.

This snappy story of the society flapper is said to suit Miss Walton's pert personality to a nicety.

From heel to head she was a picture of immaculate, over-dressed flapperhood. Christie Trevor, the spoiled little eighteen-year-old, society mix, prided herself on her intolerance of social inferiors.

She was a snob. But a terrible, disastrous fall was in store for her in

A quarter of a million dollars is some money to be paid out of any community regularly every year, but that amount goes out of Snyder and surrounding trade territory annually to pay for life insurance in old line companies and very little of it ever finds its way back here. If this money were kept at home to circulate among home people there would be a greater measure of prosperity for all our community.

Our Association provides an opportunity to keep all life insurance money at home and still provide a safe protection as many billion dollar company.

After a week's absence, we will again make our appearance.

At 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Nov. 6, Miss Agnes Thomas and Mr. Grady Brown, were united in marriage, Rev. H. G. Walton officiating. At six o'clock dinner was served at the home of the bride. Miss Agnes is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will make their home in this community. We extend them congratulations and wish them well through the journey of life.

We are Still Here.

The Methodists at Fluvanna are still here and very much alive. Bro. Terrell, our new pastor is full of pep and on the job. Under his leadership we expect a great year.

Last Sunday Nov. 13, 1921, was a great day. Singing was led by Bro. Campbell. Our Sunday school was well attended, our superintendent, Bro. Geo. M. Boswell, is a live, awake man, and we are planning for a larger attendance and greater interest than we now have.

After Sunday school Bro. Terrell took charge. Scripture reading, Second chapter of Ephesians. Prayer by Bro. Terrell.

Song, "Close to Thee."
Talk by Bro. Terrell, "The Lord loves a cheerful worker as well as a cheerful giver."

Text 19th verse of Second chapter of Ephesians. Subject, "Christian Citizenship."

There was a large crowd present, and I am sure all of us were greatly benefited by having been present more especially the Methodists. Bro. Terrell told us in the beginning that he was going to preach to the Methodists, and other denominations that were present could take what they liked and leave the rest for the Methodists. If there was any part discarded by the others, the Methodists were proud to get it. We were made to feel proud of our old Methodist church and her doctrines.

We invite, and would be glad to have, each and everyone who can to come and work with us. Remember St. Paul's message to the Corinthians, "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord." 1st Cor. 15-58.

Members of the American Legion who served with the United States forces in France, will be called upon to give facts relating to Senator Watson's charge that American soldiers were shot and hanged in France without the formality of court-martial. Secretary of War Weeks in a request to Commander Hanford MacNider for the Legion's co-operation said the War Department desired to prove or definitely refute the Georgia Senator's allegations. Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the Legion said he was sure the National Commander would cooperate.

There is one officer to every seven men in the United States army, according to information received by the American Legion. It was explained by the War Department that the high proportion of officers was due to the present army policy of maintaining an army capable of quick expansion in time of war. The army today numbers 138,000 of which number 18,000 are officers.

The Police are investigating.

A Few Paragraphs on Organization

When Moses would lead the children of Israel out of bondage, into the land that flowed with milk and honey he organized them before they took one step on the march. He was guided in every step by an Omnipotent Organizer, who never makes mistakes.

When he would distribute responsibility, divide labor, make co-operation possible, bring into existence a system that would secure satisfactory adjustments of disputes among his people; he organized by placing officers over tens and hundreds and so on.

Paragraph No. 2: Moses knew then as we know now, that Organization would get results, bring order out of chaos, train workers, save time, labor and money. He knew then as we know now that God Almighty was the author of Organization, which is system and order and not confusion. He knew then as we know now, that organization wonderfully multiplied force, that one could chase a thousand and that two could put ten thousand to flight.

Paragraph No. Three: The mineral, vegetable, and animal kingdom all bespeak the hand of an Infinite Organizer.

Will you please plant the acorn, the pecan, the grain of wheat or the water mellow seed, and then witness the organized forces of nature in causing each to come forth from mother earth and reproduce after its own kind, from ten to two hundred thousand times its original weight, and so on ad-infan-tum.

Paragraph No. 4: Will you step out some cloudless night and turn our eyes upward, Behold the heavens which, not only declare the glory of God, but showeth His handiwork, in the organization of solar systems of worlds of wondrous beauty, coursing the crystal dread halls of eternity and never the one colliding with another.

Paragraph No. 5: When Jesus would feed five thousand and hungry people: He first had them organized in groups of fifty and one hundred each; then the apostles could distribute to them in order and none be left out.

Paragraph No. 6: What intelligence less than an Infinite organized Triune God the Father; God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, would have brought into existence these wonderfully made bodies of our giving to us hands to handle with, feet to walk with, eyes to see with, ears to hear with and everything that it takes to complete this body, placing within our breast that little throbbing, pulsating, loving heart, that sends the crimson rivulets of the natural life through the arteries and veins to all parts of the body, each and every drop making a complete circuit every two or three minutes of time. Not one of the members of this body but that will endeavor to function its purpose as long as possible. Not one of the members of this body will say: "because I am not some other member, therefore I am not of the body."

Paragraph No. 7: Go read the twelfth chapter of First Corinthians and you will see the striking resemblance that the Holy Spirit draws between this body and a well organized church.

"And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healing, helps governments, diversities of tongue."

What would an unorganized church do? It would not be a church. What would an unorganized Sunday school do? It would not be a Sunday school.

What would a government do with out organization? It would not be a government. Leon Czolgosz an anarchist did not believe in an organized government. He assassinated President McKinley.

Paragraph, No. 8: H. Beachamp visited an insane asylum, he noticed that two men could guard fifty or one hundred lunatics, many of them were anxious to get away from their prisons. They were out on a beautiful lawn. He asked the attendant physician why that one could guard so many. The answer was: That insane people never thing together, never act together, never organize. If you do not believe in organization, which are you like, to the anarchist or the insane group? I am sure that any one who reads this article carefully and thoughtfully, and prayerfully will ever oppose himself to any organization that is for the betterment of the human family.

Paragraph No. 9: I have only touched the borders that fringe this wonderful subject. Only inhaled the fragrant of the flower that produces the fruit.

I did so much want to write about the Scurry County Sunday School Association, a child, of the churches of the Southern Baptist Convention. Space says "Domino."

sidered is Mitchell county oil comes from sand and such wells are usually long lived and the oil is high in gasoline content.

G. S. Owens of the Underwriters
Company has returned from Tulsa.
He reports that work on Coleman No.
1, near Cuthbert, in the northwestern part of Mitchell county, will be resumed at an early date.

Smith No. 1, five miles west of Colorado, is drilling below 1,000 ft.
Drilling water is getting scarce.

Conway, No. 1 well, fourteen miles southwest of Colorado, is making slow progress, as drilling water has to be hauled by truck. The formations continue to look favorable. The drillers have not yet passed through the oil sand pierced at 3,029 feet.

Foster No. 1, near Iatan, has set big casing and is drilling below 500 feet. Production from Foster No. 1 continues to hold up well.

The Iatan operators are the only ones not troubled with water shortage. Messrs Brown, Gardner and Hanley of the Gulf Refining Company were here nearly a week inspecting the field and purchasing leases. Messrs Reece and Amery of the Texas Company have also been here again on the same mission.
Mitchell county is well worth watching.

STOP THAT ACHE!

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of that pain and lameness! Use Doan's Kidney Pills.
Many grateful people have used them and know how effective they are.
Here's a convincing case.

J. L. Campbell, Fluvanna, Texas, says: "I am out in the field bending over a lot and it certainly makes my back sore and lame. There were times I could hardly get around and I would have bad headaches and nervous spells. I would also get so dizzy
I thought I would fall right over.
Nights my rest was disturbed by having to get up to pass the kidney secretions, but since using Doan's Kidney Pills, I am greatly relieved of that trouble. I find by taking a few Doan's now and then that I am greatly benefited."

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarrhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy.
HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube.
When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing may be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the Mucous Surfaces.
ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE.

Colds & Headache

"For years we have used Black-Draught in our family, and I have never found any medicine that could take its place," writes Mr. H. A. Stacy, of Bradyville, Tenn. Mr. Stacy, who is a Rutherford County farmer, recommends Black-Draught as a medicine that should be kept in every household for use in the prompt treatment of many little ills to prevent them from developing into serious troubles.

THEDFORD'S
BLACK-DRAUGHT

"It touches the liver and does the work," Mr. Stacy declared. "It is one of the best medicines I ever saw for a cold and headache. I don't know what we would do in our family if it wasn't for Black-Draught. It has saved us many dollars . . . I don't see how any family can hardly go without it. I know it is a reliable and splendid medicine to keep in the house. I recommend Black-Draught highly and am never without it."
